

Cathleen Parsley was licensed to practice law in Texas in 1982. She is a graduate of Texas Tech University and the Texas Tech University School of Law. She worked in private practice in Dallas and Lubbock before moving to Austin in 1990 to work as general counsel and staff counsel to two Texas Senate committees. She joined SOAH at its inception as an Administrative Law Judge in the Central Hearings Panel in April 1992, and became a Team Leader for the Licensing and Enforcement Team in September 1999. She became SOAH's General Counsel in January 2003, and its third Chief Administrative Law Judge on July 1, 2008.