RE: Consolidation of TJPC and TYC

I work with juvenile cases on a daily basis and oppose the recommendation to consolidate TJPC and TYC.

These two agencies have quite different missions and combining them makes no sense in the real world. I suppose it may be an interesting exercise to a bureaucrat with no experience in the judicial system, but for those of us who actually work with juveniles; this proposal will only make our jobs more difficult.

If you have problem with TYC, then solve it. This merger is not the answer.
