The Incorporated City of Angus, Navarro County, on October 28, 1972, voted 73 "For the legal sale of wine and beer for off-premise consumption only" and 70 "Against the legal sale of wine and beer for off-premise consumption only." Angus was "Dry" before the election was held and became "Wet" for the legal sale of wine and beer for off-premise consumption only. Within thirty days after this election a suit was filed in the District Court of Navarro County, 13th Judicial District, to contest this election and to have same declared void on the grounds that the election involved an alcoholic beverage classified as liquor, namely wine, and was held within a period of less than eighteen months after incorporation, as prohibited in Article 666-40b of the Penal Code of the State of Texas. In a judgment dated January 29, 1973, the District Court of Navarro County ruled and declared the election held in the Incorporated City of Angus, Navarro County, on October 28, 1972, void, invalid and of no force and effect, and Angus reverted to a "Dry" status.

The City of Angus, Navarro County, on July 7, 1973, voted 95 "For the legal sale of beer for off-premise consumption only" and 82 "Against the legal sale of beer for off-premise consumption only." The Incorporated City of Newton, Newton County, on October 7, 1972, voted 289 "For prohibiting the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premise consumption only" and 280 "Against prohibiting the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premise consumption only." Newton was "Wet" for the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premise consumption only before the election was held and became "Dry". This election was contested in the District Court of Newton County, as the ballots used in the election read "For the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premise consumption only" and "Against the sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premise consumption only." The District Court of Newton County ruled the election was valid. The ruling was appealed to the Court of Civil Appeals of the Ninth Supreme Judicial District of Texas and that court affirmed the decision of the trial court. Appellant made a motion for rehearing in the Court of Civil Appeals which resulted in an opinion delivered May 17, 1973, in which the Court of Civil Appeals of the Ninth Supreme Judicial District reversed the judgment of the trial court and declared the election to be invalid because the word "legal" was missing from the second statement on the ballot. The order canvassing and declaring the results of said election was set aside and held for naught by the Court and Newton reverted to a "Wet" status for the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premise consumption only.
