

Regional Strategies

Non-traditional, cluster-based grant programs

Central Texas Energy Cluster Workforce Consortium

*Austin-Round Rock Metropolitan Statistical Area (Bastrop, Caldwell, Hays, Travis and Williamson Counties)
plus Blanco, Gillespie, and Guadalupe counties.*

Meeting Industries' Critical Workforce Needs

Needs

Central Texas Energy Cluster Workforce Consortium Executive Summary

- Industry Assessment
 - Skills-gap analysis
- Development
 - New training options
- Outreach
 - Marketing plan to promote careers
- Training
 - Tuition, books, internships and support for 80 students

Central Texas Energy Cluster Workforce Consortium Regional Partners and Stakeholders

■ Partners

- Austin Community College
- Greater Austin Chamber of Commerce
- Capital IDEA
- Industry Employers

■ Stakeholders

- Employers
 - Austin Energy, Meridian, CleanFuel USA, SECO and others in the region
- Workers
 - New, Current, and Transitioning Workers

Central Texas Energy Cluster Workforce Consortium Cluster Impact Strategies & Deliverables

- Assessment
 - Convene Task Force
 - Produce Industry Report/Educational Plan
- Develop New Courses
 - Credit, AAS Degree
 - Certificate Program
 - Continuing Education
- Training & Support
 - Tuition, Case Management for initial 80 students
- Sustainability
 - Courses continue

Central Texas Energy Cluster Workforce Consortium

Primary Contacts

- Grant Recipient
 - WorkSource 512-597-7100

- Grantee Project Manager
 - Peter Brodeur, 512-597-7121

- TWC Project Manager
 - Joe Yacono, 512-936-0425

- TWC Cluster Manager
 - Gena Hernandez, 512-463-9991