

V. 2001 Site Selection Matrix of Incentives

Section V Introduction

Each year in their November issue, Site Selection magazine publishes a guide to legislative activity in the 50 states. This section is an overall summary of current economic development incentives directly from the pages of the publication, presented in chart format with the publishers explanatory notes. The chart identifies in general, the state and local tax and economic incentives offered by each state.

Texas Economic Development is most grateful to Site Selection magazine for the permission to include this copyrighted material in this report to state leadership.

Section V consists of Site Selection magazine's November 2002 State Incentive Program article. To review article please call (512) 475-4683. To obtain a copy of this copyrighted information please contact Site Selection magazine or visit their website at: www.siteselection.com