

SUPREME COURT

ANALYSIS OF ACTIVITY FOR YEAR ENDED AUGUST 31, 1994

The Supreme Court of Texas is the highest state court for civil appeals and promulgates rules of administration and civil procedure for the courts of Texas. It is comprised of the Chief Justice and eight justices.

The Court "passed on" (disposed of or otherwise acted upon) a total of 3,299 matters during fiscal year 1994, a decrease of 4.1 percent from the 3,441 matters passed on in fiscal year 1993.

REGULAR CAUSES

Regular Causes are regular appeals or original actions pending before the court. Normally, they reach this status when a Writ of Error is granted in the cause. Petitions for Original Mandamus and Habeas Corpus, which are not disposed of upon initial review, and in which the petition is granted, may also become regular causes.

The 190 regular causes added to the Court's docket during the year ended August 31, 1994, were 8.0 percent more than the 176 regular causes added in fiscal year 1993.

The 187 regular causes disposed of were 3.6 percent less than the 194 disposed of in fiscal year 1993 and 19.9 percent more than the 10-year average of 156. Of the regular causes disposed of during 1994, 126 came to the Court on applications for writs of error from the 14 Courts of Appeals. Of those 126 dispositions, the lower courts were reversed in whole or in part in 95 causes, or 75.4 percent. This compares to 63.7 percent reversals in fiscal year 1993.

The 67 regular causes (including motions for rehearing) left pending at the end of fiscal year 1994 represented 26.4 percent of the total number of regular causes added during the year or carried over from the previous year. This is two causes higher than the 10-year average of 65 pending causes. At the end of fiscal year 1993, 66 regular causes had been pending in the Court.

APPLICATIONS FOR WRITS OF ERROR

An Application for Writ of Error is a request filed by one of the parties, requesting the Supreme Court to review the judgment of a Court of Appeals. If four or more of the nine justices concur the writ is granted and the cause is scheduled for argument before the court.

The 1,054 applications for writs of error filed during fiscal year 1994 represented a 10.0 percent decrease from the 1,171 applications filed in fiscal year 1993, and was 4.5 percent higher than the 10-year average of 1,009.

The 1,093 applications for writs of error disposed of during the year were 12.1 percent less than the 1,243 disposed of during fiscal year 1993, and 21.6 percent higher than the 10-year average of 1,022. Of the 1,093 applications disposed of, 125 (or 11.4 percent) were granted.

The 317 applications for writs of error left pending at the end of fiscal year 1994 represented 22.5 percent of the total number of such applications filed during the year or carried over from the previous year. This is 23 less pending applications than the 10-year average of 340 pending applications. At the end of fiscal year 1993, 354 applications for writs of error had been pending in the Court.

OTHER WRITS AND MOTIONS

The 1,694 other writs and motions filed during fiscal year 1994 were 12.5 percent less than the 1,937 filed during fiscal year 1993. (This does not include miscellaneous motions such as motions for extension of time, etc., which are often not docketed as separate causes.) This is 30.3 percent more than the 10-year average of 1,300 other writs and motions filed.

The 2,017 other writs and motions disposed of during fiscal year 1994 were 0.6 percent more than the 2,004 disposed during fiscal year 1993. This is 693 more dispositions than the 10-year average of 1,324 dispositions.

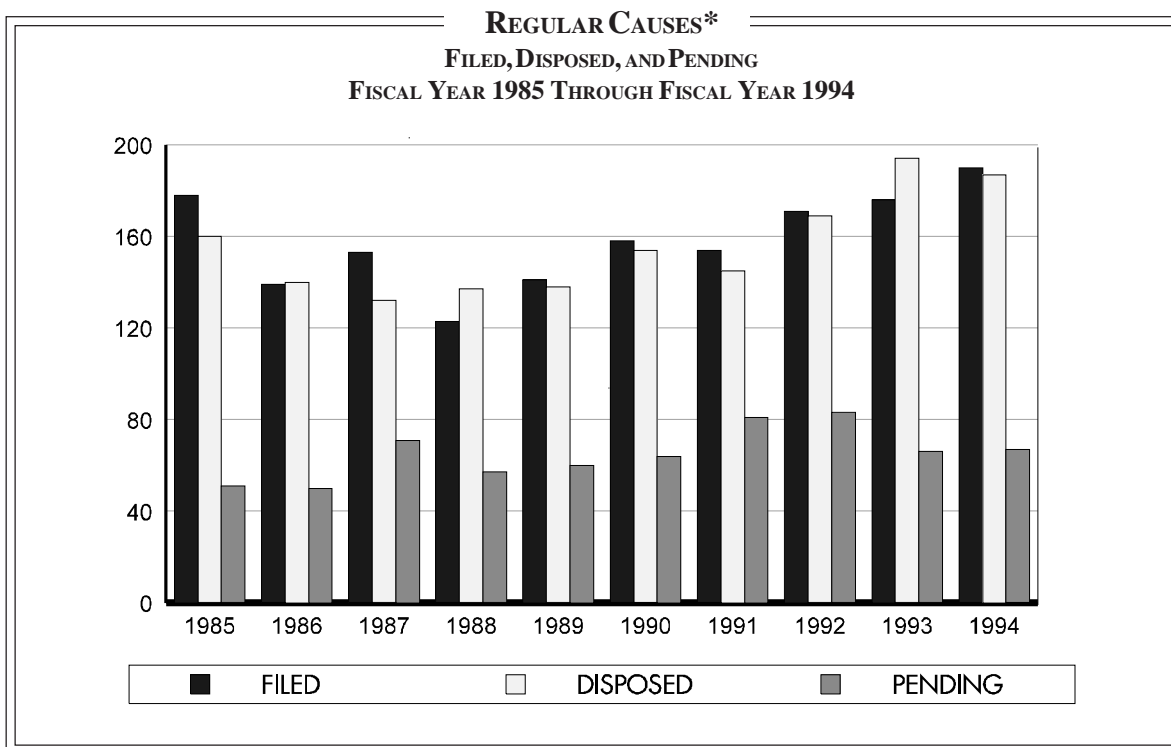

The 173 other writs and motions left pending by the Court at the end of fiscal year 1994 represented 10.2 percent of the total number of other writs and motions filed during the year. At the end of fiscal year 1993, 179 other writs and motions had been pending in the Court.

OPINIONS WRITTEN

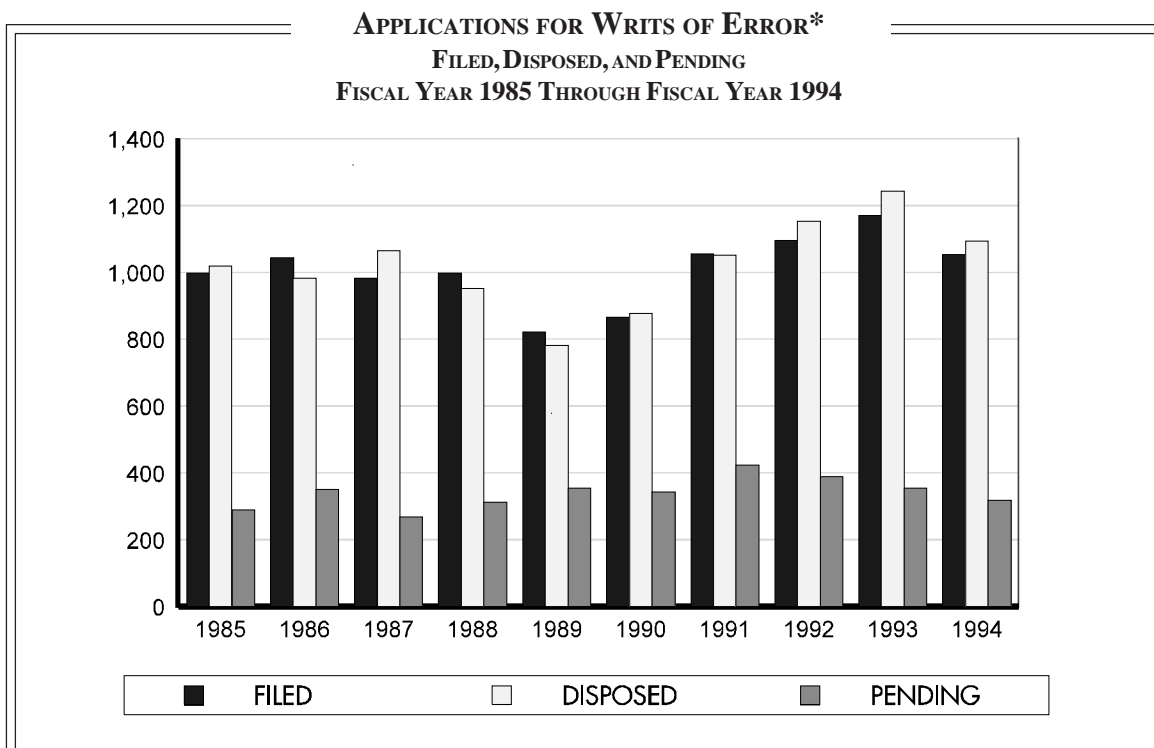

During fiscal year 1994, the justices of the Supreme Court wrote 229 opinions (or an average of 25.4 opinions each), 22.4 percent less than the 295 opinions written in fiscal year 1993 and 8.0 percent more than the 10-year average of 212. Of the opinions written in 1994, 146 (or 63.8 percent) were deciding opinions which disposed of causes.

During fiscal year 1994, the Supreme Court heard oral arguments of 73 causes and considered an additional 61 causes submitted on briefs.

* "Regular Causes" are reported in a separate category because they are the cases which pass through most, if not all, of the steps of the regular appellate decision-making process. Regular causes are cases in which oral argument of counsel in open court is received (unless waived) and in which the Court's decision is usually reported in a written opinion. Most are reviewed in conference by the Supreme Court, before oral argument and decision, upon application for writ of error, with four or more of the justices voting that the decision of the Court of Appeals was erroneous and that the writ therefore should be granted. A similar procedure is followed regarding petitions for original mandamus and habeas corpus, which become "Regular Causes" only after review and vote in conference of an application for writ of error or application to file a petition for original mandamus or habeas corpus.
