

CHILD SUPPORT EVADER GUADALUPE ACEVES

by Texas Attorney General Greg Abbott

ATTORNEY GENERAL GREG ABBOTT needs your help locating child support evader Guadalupe Aceves, one of the most wanted child support evaders in Texas. Aceves, who was added to the child support evader's list in April 2008, owes $58,656 for the care of three children from the Dallas area.

In October 1998, when the children's parents divorced, Aceves was ordered to pay $410 a month in child support. Aceves, who had the ability to make his payments, did not follow the judge's order to support his children financially.

By 2001, Aceves owed more than $14,000 in unpaid child support. That same year an investigator with the Office of the Attorney General's Child Support Division presented his case to the Dallas County District Attorney's Office for criminal prosecution. In December 2001, a Dallas County grand jury indicted Aceves for criminal nonsupport and a felony arrest warrant was issued.

By refusing to provide the financial resources his three children need, Aceves has turned his back on them and violated the law. A combination of missed payments and interest that accrues on unpaid child support adds up to more than $58,000 in unpaid child support Aceves owes.

Investigators from the Office of the Attorney General have searched the state for Aceves, He has ties to Dallas and Lubbock, and could be in either place working for cash to avoid garnishment of wages to pay child support. Contact the Attorney General's Office at 1-866-EVADERS (382-3377) to report information that may lead to the arrest of Guadalupe Aceves.

Child Support Evaders are being singled out because they have the ability to take responsibility for their children, but refuse to do so. Incarceration is the only option for parents who flagrantly ignore a court's order to pay child support. The Attorney General's Office helps parents who lack the ability to pay child support by referring them to job training and employment services. Visit the agency's Web site www.texasattorneygeneral.gov to find out about other Child Support Evaders, and to obtain information about the Attorney General's Child Support Division.
