(16) the audit working papers of the State Auditor; and

(17) the home addresses and home telephone numbers of each official and employee of a governmental body except as otherwise provided by Section 3A of this Act, and of peace officers as defined by Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended, or by Section 51.212, Texas Education Code.

SECTION 3. Chapter 424, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973 (Article 6252-17a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is amended by adding Section 3A to read as follows:

Sec. 3A. ELECTION ON DISCLOSURE. (a) An employee hired by a governmental body, and each official of the governmental body, shall choose whether or not to allow public access to the information in the custody of the governmental body relating to the official's or employee's home address and home telephone number. Each official and employee shall state that person's choice to the main personnel officer of the governmental body in a signed writing not later than the 14th day after the date on which the employee begins the employment with the governmental body, or the official is elected or appointed. If the official's or the employee's choice is to not allow public access to the information, the information is protected as provided by Section 3 of this Act. If an employee or official fails to report within the period established by this section, the information is subject to public access.

(b) If, during the course of the employment or the term of the office the employee or official wishes to close or open public access to the information, that individual may request in writing that the main personnel officer of the governmental body close or open access, as the case may be, to the information.

SECTION 4. If Section 3, Chapter 753, Acts of the 68th Legislature, Regular Session, 1983, is repealed before January 1, 1986, Section 2 of this Act has no effect.

SECTION 5. This Act takes effect September 1, 1985.

SECTION 6. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force according to its terms, and it is so enacted.

Passed by the House on May 16, 1985, by a non-record vote; passed by the Senate on May 24, 1985, by the following vote: Yeas 29, Nays 0.

Approved: June 14, 1985

Effective: September 1, 1985
