“Section 304.003. DESIGNATION OF EMERGENCY INTERIM SUCCESSORS BY EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT SYSTEM OF TEXAS. (a) For the purpose of designating emergency interim successors to legislators, the executive director of the Employees Retirement System of Texas shall:

“(b) If the executive director of the Employees Retirement System of Texas submits less than seven names for a senatorial or representative district, the secretary of the senate or the chief clerk of the house shall submit to the lieutenant governor or the speaker, as appropriate, the names of former members living in the district. The lieutenant governor or the speaker shall rank the individuals for each district according to years of service in the legislature and shall add the names of individuals with the most service to the list so that seven individuals are designated, if possible.

“(c) The list prepared for each senatorial and representative district shall rank the designees in descending order according to the number of years served in one house.

“(d) The lieutenant governor and the speaker of the house shall ask each designee on their respective lists if that individual is willing to serve as an emergency interim successor if the legislator representing the district in which that individual resides becomes unavailable to serve as provided by this chapter. If an individual is eligible to be included on both a senate and house of representatives list, the individual must choose one list on which the individual's name will remain.

“(e) If an individual agrees to serve, he must submit a written acceptance to the lieutenant governor or speaker of the house, as appropriate.

“(f) The lieutenant governor and the speaker of the house shall submit to the secretary of state a list for each district in the order provided by Subsection (c) of individuals who have agreed to serve as emergency interim successors.

“(g) Annually, the executive director of the Employees Retirement System of Texas, in cooperation with the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house of representatives, shall review the lists submitted to the secretary of state to ensure that there are at least seven qualified emergency interim successors for each legislator, if possible. If revisions are necessary because of the death of a member or retiree of the system, because the member or retiree no longer resides in the district he was designated to represent, or because of the addition of more names, the executive director shall submit the revisions to the lieutenant governor or speaker of the house, as appropriate. The lieutenant governor and speaker of the house shall contact the new designees and, after receiving their written acceptance, shall submit the revisions to the secretary of state. (V.A.C.S. Art. 5429o, Sec. 3.)

“Section 304.004. DESIGNATION OF EMERGENCY INTERIM SUCCESSORS BY LEGISLATOR: ALTERNATE LIST. (a) A list prepared for a district under this section is an alternate list to be used only if there are no designees on the list prepared under Section 304.003 or if those designees are unavailable.

“(b) For the purpose of designating emergency interim successors, each legislator shall designate not less than three nor more than seven individuals to serve as emergency interim successors if the legislator becomes unavailable to serve as provided by this chapter. Each individual designated must be from the same political party as that legislator, must meet age and residence requirements for a senator or representative, as applicable, and must submit a written acceptance to the legislator.

“(c) Each legislator shall submit a list of designees who have accepted, ranked in order of succession, to the secretary of state.

“(d) Annually, each legislator shall review the lists submitted by the legislator to the secretary of state to ensure that there are at least three qualified emergency interim successors. Each legislator shall make revisions to the list as necessary.

“(e) If a legislator fails to designate emergency interim successors as required by this section, the lieutenant governor or speaker of the house, as appropriate, shall designate in order of succession not less than three nor more than seven individuals to serve as emergency interim successors if that legislator becomes unavailable and shall submit the list to the secretary of state. “(b) An individual may not be designated or serve as an emergency interim successor unless that individual is legally qualified to hold the office of the legislator to whose powers and duties the individual is designated to succeed. (V.A.C.S. Art. 5429o, Sec. 6.)

“Section 304.007. OATH. When the designation of an emergency interim successor becomes effective, the successor shall take the oath required for the legislator to whose powers and duties the successor is designated to succeed, and no other oath is required. (V.A.C.S. Art. 5429o, Sec. 7.)

“Section 304.008. ASSUMPTION OF POWERS AND DUTIES. (a) If in the event of attack a legislator is unavailable, the secretary of state shall notify the legislator’s emergency interim successor highest in order of succession who is available. The secretary of state shall inform each emergency interim successor of the place at which the legislature will meet, as soon as that is known, and shall also inform each successor of the date and time at which each must appear.

“(b) The emergency interim successor shall exercise the powers and assume the duties of the legislator whom he succeeds, except that the successor may not designate emergency interim successors for himself.

“(c) The emergency interim successor exercises those powers and assumes those duties until the secretary of state notifies the successor that the incumbent legislator, an emergency interim successor higher in order of succession, or a legislator elected and legally qualified can act. (V.A.C.S. Art. 5429o, Sec. 8.)

“Section 304.009. PRIVILEGES, IMMUNITIES, AND COMPENSATION. (a) An emergency interim successor who exercises the powers and assumes the duties of an unavailable legislator is entitled to the privileges, immunities, compensation, and other allowances to which a legislator is entitled.

“(b) This section does not affect the privileges, immunities, compensation, or other allowances to which an incumbent legislator is entitled.

“(c) An emergency interim successor’s performance of the powers and duties of an unavailable legislator does not affect the successor’s entitlement to other compensation or benefits to which the successor might otherwise be entitled. Section 22.203(d), Title 110B, Revised Statutes, does not apply to an individual serving as an emergency interim successor under this chapter. (V.A.C.S. Art. 5429o, Sec. 9.)

“Section 304.010. DUTY TO REMAIN INFORMED. (V.A.C.S. Art. 5429o, Sec. 10.)

“Section 304.011. QUORUM; VOTES. In the event of an attack, the quorum requirements imposed on the legislature are suspended. If the affirmative vote of a specified proportion of members is required to approve a bill or resolution, the same proportion of those present and voting on the bill or resolution is sufficient for its passage. “Section 325.003. SUNSET ADVISORY COMMISSION. (a) The Sunset Advisory Commission consists of four members of the senate and one public member appointed by the lieutenant governor and four members of the house of representatives and one public member appointed by the speaker of the house. Each appointing authority may designate himself as one of the legislative appointees.

“(b) An individual is not eligible for appointment as a public member if the individual or the individual’s spouse is:

“(1) regulated by a state agency that the commission will review during the term for which the individual would serve; or

“(2) employed by, participates in the management of, or directly or indirectly has more than a 10 percent interest in a business entity or other organization regulated by a state agency the commission will review during the term for which the individual would serve.

“(c) It is a ground for removal of a public member from the commission if the member does not have the qualifications required by Subsection (b) for appointment to the commission at the time of appointment or does not maintain the qualifications while serving on the commission. The validity of the commission’s action is not affected by the fact that it was taken when a ground for removal of a public member from the commission existed.

“(d) Legislative members serve four-year terms, with terms staggered so that the terms of one-half of the legislative members appointed by the lieutenant governor and the terms of one-half of the legislative members appointed by the speaker expire every two years. If the lieutenant governor or the speaker serves on the commission, he continues to serve until resignation from the commission or until he ceases to hold the office. Public members serve two-year terms.

“(e) After an individual serves six years on the commission, the individual is not eligible for appointment to another term or part of a term. A member who serves more than half of a full term may not be appointed to an immediately succeeding term. These restrictions do not apply to the lieutenant governor or to the speaker.

“(f) The lieutenant governor and speaker shall make their appointments before July 1 of each odd-numbered year.

The lieutenant governor shall designate a presiding officer from his appointed membership group and the speaker shall designate the other presiding officer from his appointed membership group.

“(j) Six members of the commission constitute a quorum. A final action or recommendation may not be made unless approved by a record vote of a majority of the commission’s full membership.

“(k) Each member of the commission is entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing commission duties. Each legislative member is entitled to reimbursement from the appropriate fund of the member’s respective house. Each public member is entitled to reimbursement from funds appropriated to the commission. (V.A.C.S. Art. 5429k, Sec. 1.03.)

“(b) The commission may hold the public hearings before September 1 if the evaluation of the agency required by Section 325.008(a)(3) is complete and available to the public. (V.A.C.S. Art. 5429k, Sec. 1.08.)

“Section 325.010. COMMISSION REPORT. (a) At each regular legislative session, the commission shall present to the legislature and the governor a report on the agencies and advisory committees scheduled to be abolished.

“(4) the extent to which the advisory committee is needed and is used;

“(7) the promptness and effectiveness with which the agency disposes of complaints concerning persons affected by the agency;

“(9) the extent to which the agency has complied with applicable requirements of an agency of the United States or of this state regarding equality of employment opportunity and the rights and privacy of individuals;

“(10) the extent to which changes are necessary in the enabling statutes of the agency so that the agency can adequately comply with the criteria listed in this section;
