ENERGY STAR Affidavit

Texas Veterans Land Board Veterans Housing Assistance Program

To be eligible for Texas Veterans Land Board financing under the Veterans Housing Assistance Program (VHAP), all new construction homes must be ENERGY STAR qualified. Verification must be provided by an independent third-party rater/provider that has no financial interest, either directly or indirectly in the construction, design, or related services, or as a supplier of goods and/or services, of the home being financed (this does not apply to the payment of the fee for testing or rating the home and/or administrative fees paid by utility companies).
