

CHAPTER 196

S.B. No. 1276

AN ACT

relating to the terms of court of the 36th Judicial District.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. Subsection (b), Section 24.138, Government Code, is amended to read as follows:

(b) The terms of the 36th District Court begin:

(1) in Aransas County on the fourth Mondays in April and October [~~second Monday in February and the first Monday in September~~];

(2) in Bee County on the first Mondays in April and October [~~November~~];

(3) in Live Oak County on the third Mondays [~~Monday~~] in April and October [~~January and the fourth Monday in May~~];

(4) in McMullen County on the second Mondays [~~first Monday~~] in January and July [~~the third Monday in June~~]; and

(5) in San Patricio County on the second Mondays in April and October [~~fourth Monday in February and the third Monday in September~~].

SECTION 2. This Act takes effect September 1, 1993. The February, 1993, terms of court in Aransas and San Patricio counties, the April, 1993, term of court in Bee County, and the May, 1993, term of court in Live Oak County are extended until and will end when the October, 1993, terms of court begin in the respective counties. The June, 1993, term of court in McMullen County is extended until and will end when the January, 1994, term of court begins in that county.

SECTION 3. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this rule is hereby suspended.

Passed the Senate on April 21, 1993: Yeas 30, Nays 0; passed the House on May 11, 1993, by a non-record vote.

Approved May 19, 1993.

Effective Sept. 1, 1993.
