

CHAPTER 613

H.B. No. 1514

AN ACT

relating to the types of newspapers in which municipalities, special districts, and other political subdivisions publish notice.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. Title 1, Revised Statutes, is amended by adding Article 28a-1 to read as follows:

Art. 28a-1. SPECIAL PUBLICATION REQUIREMENTS. If a conservation and reclamation district, other than a river authority, created under Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution, that furnishes water and sewer service to household users is required by general, special, or local law to publish notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the subdivision is located, the publication requirement relating to which newspaper in which the notice must be published is met if the notice is published in a newspaper of general circulation in the political subdivision.

SECTION 2. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Passed by the House on May 15, 1987, by a non-record vote; that the House refused to concur in Senate amendments to H.B. No. 1514 on May 31, 1987, and requested the appointment of a conference committee to consider the differences between the two houses; and that the House adopted the conference committee report on H.B. No. 1514 on June 1, 1987, by a non-record vote. Passed by the Senate, with amendments, on May 29, 1987, by the following vote: Yeas 29, Nays 0; at the request of the House, the Senate appointed a conference committee to consider the differences between the two houses; and that the Senate adopted the conference committee report on H.B. No. 1514 on June 1, 1987, by the following vote: Yeas 30, Nays 1.

Approved June 19, 1987.

Effective Aug. 31, 1987, 90 days after date of adjournment.
