relating to county and district conventions held by political parties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. Section 174.062, Election Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 174.062. TYPE OF CONVENTION HELD. (a) A county convention shall be held in a county if the county is not situated in more than one state senatorial district.

(b) If a county is situated in more than one state senatorial district, instead of a county convention a senatorial district convention shall be held in each part of the county that is situated in a different senatorial district, unless otherwise provided by party rule.

SECTION 2. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this rule is hereby suspended.
