

CHAPTER 872

H.B. No. 879

relating to an exception from regulation by the Texas Board of Private Investigators and Private Security Agencies for the officers, employees, or agents of certain common carriers.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. Section 3(a), Private Investigators and Private Security Agencies Act (Article 4413(29bb), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is amended to read as follows:

(a) This Act does not apply to:

(1) a person employed exclusively and regularly by one employer in connection with the affairs of an employer only and where there exists an employer-employee relationship; provided, however, any person who shall carry a firearm in the course of his employment shall be required to obtain a private security officer commission under the provisions of this Act;

(2) except as provided by Subsection (e) of this Section, an officer or employee of the United States of America, or of this State or a political subdivision of either, while the employee or officer is engaged in the performance of official duties;

(3) a person who has full-time employment as a peace officer as defined by Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, [1965,] who receives compensation for private employment on an individual or an independent contractor basis as a patrolman, guard, or watchman if such person is:

- (A) employed in an employee-employer relationship; or
- (B) employed on an individual contractual basis;
- (C) not in the employ of another peace officer; and
- (D) not a reserve peace officer;

(4) a person engaged exclusively in the business of obtaining and furnishing information for purposes of credit worthiness or collecting debts or ascertaining the financial responsibility of applicants for property insurance and for indemnity or surety bonds, with respect to persons, firms, and corporations;

(5) an attorney-at-law in performing his duties;

(6) admitted insurers, insurance adjusters, agents, and insurance brokers licensed by the State, performing duties in connection with insurance transacted by them;

(7) a person who engages exclusively in the business of repossessing property that is secured by a mortgage or other security interest;

(8) a locksmith who does not install or service detection devices, does not conduct investigations, and is not a security service contractor;

(9) a person who owns and installs burglar detection or alarm devices on his own property or, if he does not charge for the device or its installation, installs it for the protection of his personal property located on another's property, and does not install the devices as a normal business practice on the property of another;

(10) an employee of a cattle association who is engaged in inspection of brands of livestock under the authority granted to that cattle association by the Packers and Stockyards Division of the United States Department of Agriculture;

(11) the provisions of this Act shall not apply to common carriers by rail engaged in interstate commerce and regulated by state and federal authorities and transporting commodities essential to the national defense and to the general welfare and safety of the community;

(12) registered professional engineers practicing in accordance with the provisions of the Texas Engineering Practice Act;

(13) a person whose sale of burglar alarm signal devices, burglary alarms, television cameras, still cameras, or other electrical, mechanical, or electronic devices used for preventing or detecting burglary, theft, shoplifting, pilferage, or other losses is exclusively over-the-counter or by mail order;

(14) a person who holds a license or other form of permission issued by an incorporated city or town to practice as an electrician and who installs fire or smoke detectors in no building other than a single family or multifamily residence;

(15) a person or organization in the business of building construction that installs electrical wiring and devices that may include in part the installation of a burglar alarm or detection device if:

(A) the person or organization is a party to a contract that provides that the installation will be performed under the direct supervision of and inspected and certified by a person or organization licensed to install and certify such an alarm or detection device and that the licensee assumes full responsibility for the installation of the alarm or detection device; and

(B) the person or organization does not service or maintain burglar alarms or detection devices;

(16) a reserve peace officer while the reserve officer is performing guard, patrolman, or watchman duties for a county and is being compensated solely by that county;

(17) response to a burglar alarm or detection device by a law enforcement agency or by a law enforcement officer acting in an official capacity; ~~or~~

(18) a person who, by education, experience, or background has specialized expertise or knowledge such as that which would qualify or tend to qualify such person as an expert witness, authorized to render opinions in proceedings conducted in a court, administrative agency, or governing body of this state or of the United States, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations and who does not perform any other service for which a license is required by provisions of this Act; or

(19) an officer, employee, or agent of a common carrier, as defined by Section 153(h), Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C.A. Sec. 151 et seq.), while protecting the carrier or a user of the carrier's long-distance services from a fraudulent, unlawful, or abusive use of those long-distance services.

SECTION 2. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Passed by the House on April 1, 1987, by a non-record vote. Passed by the Senate on May 21, 1987, by the following vote: Yeas 30, Nays 0.

Approved June 19, 1987.

Effective Aug. 31, 1987, 90 days after date of adjournment.
