From	To

PART III: REQUESTOR'S POSITION SUMMARY

There is no negotiated contractual agreement with the Carrier. The Carrier has not provided reimbursement in accordance with the contract provisions. A PPO reduction was incorrectly taken by the Carrier. Code used incorrectly for Fee Guideline "MAR" reductions. Carrier did not make "fair and reasonable" reimbursement and did not make consistent reimbursements.

PART IV: RESPONDENT'S POSITION SUMMARY

Requestor billed a total of $45,951.82. The Requestor asserts it is entitled to reimbursement in the amount of $34,463.87, which is 75% of the total charges. Requestor has not shown entitlement to this alternative, exceptional method of calculating reimbursement and has not otherwise properly calculated the audited charges.

PART V: MEDICAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION REVIEW SUMMARY, METHODOLOGY, AND/OR EXPLANATION

This dispute relates to inpatient services provided in hospital setting with reimbursement subject to the provisions of Rule 134.401 (Acute Care Inpatient Hospital Fee Guideline). The hospital has requested reimbursement according to the stop-loss method contained in that rule. Rule 134.401(c)(6) establishes that the stop-loss method is to be used for "unusually costly services." The explanation that follows this paragraph indicates that in order to determine if "unusually costly services" were provided, the admission must not only exceed $40,000 in total audited charges, but also involve "unusually extensive services."

After reviewing the documentation provided by both parties, it does not appear that this particular admission involved "unusually extensive services." Accordingly, the stop-loss method does not apply and the reimbursement is to be based on the per diem plus carve-out methodology described in the same rule.

The total length of stay for this admission was 1 days (consisting of 1 days for surgical). Accordingly, the standard per diem amount due for this admission is equal to $1118.00 (1 times $1,118). In addition, the hospital is entitled to additional reimbursement for (implantables/MRIs/CAT Scans/pharmaceuticals) as follows:

Deputy invoices $$3661.95 + 10\% = $4,028.14$
 Medtronic invoice $$4,237.34 + 10\% = $4,661.07$
 Medtronic invoice $$4,934.63 + 10\% = $5,428.09$

TOTAL of Invoices and Per Diem/ Surgery $$1118.00 + $14,117.30 = $15,235.30$

The insurance carrier paid $1,084.46 for the inpatient hospitalization. The difference between amount paid and amount due = $14,150.84.

Based on the facts of this situation, the parties' positions, and the application of the provisions of Rule 134.401(c), we find that the health care provider is entitled to a reimbursement amount for these services equal to $14,150.84.

PART VI: COMMISSION DECISION AND ORDER

Based upon the review of the disputed healthcare services, the Medical Review Division has determined that the requestor is entitled to additional reimbursement in the amount of $14,150.84. The Division hereby ORDERS the insurance carrier to remit this amount plus all accrued interest due at the time of payment to the Requestor within 20-days of receipt of this Order.
