

Now Accepting
2009 Applications
for
City of Tomball
Boards and Commissions

The 2008 applications for appointments to Tomball boards and commissions have expired. We are currently accepting applications for possible appointments in 2009. Membership on these boards or commissions is open to all Tomball residents. Service is voluntary and without monetary compensation. Any necessary training will be provided. Applications remain on file for one year only.

Applicants must read the Code of Ethics and complete an application; you may provide a resume with your application, if desired. The application form is available online at http://www.ci.tomball.tx.us/boards_commissions/index.html, from the City Secretary's Office at 401 Market Street, or by calling 281-290-1002.
