“Officer Involved Shooting”

On Saturday, November 01, 2008, at approximately 2310 hours, officers responded to 538 Foster Street, for a family disturbance call. Upon arrival the suspect was observed outside of his residence holding a bow and arrow. As officers approached the suspect he raised the bow, aimed it towards one of the officers, and an officer involved shooting occurred.

The suspect, later identified as David Glen Cruse, 46 yoa of Tomball, was transported Herman Hospital via life flight and treated for a gunshot wound, and was in stable condition at the time of this press release. Suspect Cruse was charged with Aggravated Assault with a Deadly Weapon Against a Police Officer.

This incident is being investigated by members of the Tomball Police Department and Harris County District Attorney’s Office.

In accordance with police department protocol, the officer involved in the incident has been placed on paid administrative leave.
