Law Enforcement Special Olympic Torch Run

On Wednesday May 21, 2008, the Tomball Police Department participated in the 27th Annual Law Enforcement Torch Run. This event is the largest public awareness vehicle for the Special Olympics' around the world.

Participating in the event was Tomball's Mayor, Gretchen Fagan who at a ceremony following the Tomball leg of the run declared May 21, 2008, "Tomball Special Olympics Day."

Tomball was just one stop in the run. The Gulf Coast region's leg of the run started in Houston and ended in Arlington where it joined the other regions from around the State.
