Police Department Receives $173,795

At the October 6, 2008 City Council meeting, Harris County District Attorney Kenneth Magidson presented the City of Tomball Police Department with a check for $173,795.81. The monies presented to the police department are not tax dollars. Instead, they come as a result of currency seized during investigations involving various criminal enterprises throughout Harris County. Police Chief Rob Hauck stated that the money "will not only enhance our current investigative capabilities, but will significantly benefit prosecutors during case presentations."
