HOMETOWN KITCHEN BAND

PERFORMERS

The Tomball Community Center has added an outreach program for our community under the leadership of the staff. We are needing volunteers with a hometown heart that can come and practice with us for a hour a month. Our mission is to enhance the quality of life for each individual, group or organization being served within our community free of charge. Our desire is to be able to perform for those requesting us and enhance their lives with presenting them with a 30 minutes program. We will take reservations for performances as soon as we have our band together 2 months in advance. For more information, please call us at 281-255-6221.
