REMINDER: We have more participants than buses and our trips fill up fast. All trips are on a first come first serve basis. Trips that cost nothing only require you to phone in your reservation. However, if a payment is required for the trip, a reservation can not be made until that payment is received. There can be no late payments. If you want a receipt, just ask and we will print you one. All participants are require to make reservations for themselves and not for others. We try to serve all in a fair and equitable manner, so that in serving the Center it will enhance the quality of life for each individual, group, or organization being served.

NOTE: to serve food we must have 20 and for City bus trips we must have 12.

ATTENTION

If you are interested in playing chess on Thursdays 1- 3pm, please give us a call.
Watercolor class – resumes on September 1st.
