

Frequently Asked Questions about the class at the Hurst Public Library:

How much does the GED/ESL class cost?

It is a free program provided by the Fort Worth Independent School District during the school year.

Who teaches the classes?

The teachers are from the Fort Worth Independent School District and may be contacted during class hours. The host library or school provides the space.

How do I register?

Come to one of the participating libraries during the scheduled class times and speak with one of the teachers. Most classes will have a waiting list because the classes are quite popular. You will be given information about the registration process at that time.

What do I need to bring?

Please bring your ID with you, such as a driver's license or passport.

What else can the library offer?

Most libraries have GED study guides and citizenship books available for check out. Check with a librarian to place a book on reserve.

Databases

Hurst Public Library has a Learning Express database with practice tests and a Rosetta Stone database to aid in learning a new language. Ask a Librarian for assistance.
