State Park

Head for the coolest spot in South Texas.

Lake Casa Blanca International State Park

In the hot and arid climate of South Texas, Lake Casa Blanca International State Park provides a refreshing and welcome retreat for water skiing, swimming, picnicking and boating. Thanks to a dense growth of reeds and other water plants along the shore, the lake is also excellent habitat for a variety of fishes, and anglers can look forward to some great sport. An 18-hole golf course adjoins the park.

Camping: a limited number with water and electricity (30 and 50 amps).

Group facilities: day-use pavilions: Lago Vista (100), Rockbard (50), Ranchito (200), Recreation Hall (200), Aviary (35).

Picnicking: picnic sites with tables, grills and shade shelters.

Swimming: two designated swimming beach areas in lake.

Sports courts: volleyball pits, tennis and basketball courts.

Boating: boat dock and ramp. Also skiing.

Fishing: possible catches include largemouth bass, sunfish, white and black crappie, and channel, flathead and blue catfish.

Located in Webb County, eastern edge of Laredo, 5 miles east on Hwy. 59 and Loop 20.
