State Park

A variety of water recreation in easy reach.

Lake Arrowhead State Park

Located in the vast, flat prairies of North Texas, Lake Arrowhead State Park attracts boaters and fishing enthusiasts with its 16,200 acres and more than 100 miles of shoreline. From fishing piers or by boat, visitors can angle for crappie, catfish, bass and perch. Visitors may also catch glimpses of the area's wild inhabitants, such as raccoons, skunks and even prairie dogs. Several trails are provided for hiking and riding.

Camping: water only, water with 20, 30 and 50 amps (includes four equestrian sites), horse stalls and dump station.

Picnicking: lake front sheltered tables with barbeque grills. Designated walk in swimming area.

Fishing: lighted pier, boat dock and fish cleaning stations. Try for crappie, catfish, bass and perch!

Boating: nine ramps and a boat slip. Also water and jet skiing.

Trails: five miles hiking, bicycle and equestrian.

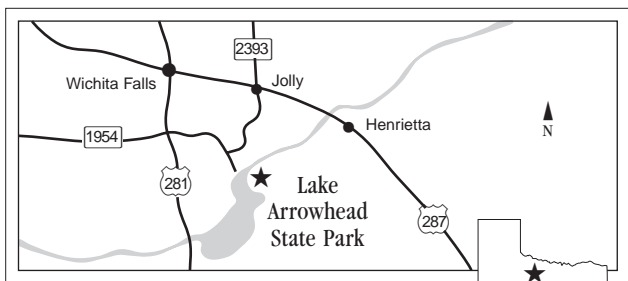

Group facilities: dining hall (50 people) with covered lake front patio. Also open air picnic pavilion (125 people) with barbeque grill.

Disc golf course: 18 holes. Bring your own Frisbee.

Texas State Parks Store: one-of-a-kind items, firewood, ice, etc.
