

NCCJ Announces Award to UHC

The National Conference of Community and Justice of Utah will honor the Utah Humanities Council at its 2006 awards event. NCCJ's announcement cited "UHC's dedication to enriching the lives and minds of Utah's diverse community," and congratulated UHC on being "an organization whose actions walk-the-walk of promoting respect and inclusion in Utah."

NCCJ, founded in 1927 as the National Conference of Christians and Jews, is a human relations organization dedicated to fighting bias, bigotry, and racism in America. NCCJ promotes understanding and respect among all races, religions, and cultures through advocacy, conflict resolution, and education.

Please plan to attend and celebrate with us at NCCJ's annual Humanitarian Awards Dinner on Tuesday, February 28, from 6-9 p.m, at the Little America Hotel. If you haven't received an invitation in the mail, call 832-3260 or email info@nccjutah.org to make a reservation.
