

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Order Granting Application to Strike from Listing and Registration; the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (Jilin Chemical Industrial Company Limited (American Depositary Shares (each representing 100 Class H Common Shares)))
File No. 1-13750

February 14, 2006

On January 31, 2006, the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (“NYSE” or “Exchange”) filed an application with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”), pursuant to Section 12(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”)¹ and Rule 12d2-2(c) thereunder,² to strike the American Depositary Shares (each representing 100 class H common shares) (“Security”), of Jilin Chemical Industrial Company Limited (“Company”) from listing and registration on NYSE.

NYSE Rule 499 states that securities admitted to the list may be suspended from dealings or removed from the list at any time. In addition, Section 802.01A of the Exchange’s Listed Company Manual states, in part, that the Exchange would normally consider suspending or removing from the list a security of a company when the number of publicly-held shares is less than 600,000.

In the opinion of the NYSE, the Security is no longer suitable for continued listing and trading on the NYSE. Information supplied by the Company or taken from other sources that the Exchange believed to be reliable indicates that as of January 6, 2006, the Company had less than 600,000 publicly held shares of the Security as a result of a tender offer made by PetroChina Company Limited. The tender offer expired on January 5, 2006.

² 17 CFR 240.12d2-2(c).

On January 6, 2006, NYSE determined that the Security should be suspended immediately from trading, and directed the preparation and filing of this application with the Commission for removal of the Security from listing and registration on the Exchange. The Exchange notified the Company verbally on January 6, 2006 and by letter on January 25, 2006. On January 26, 2006, the Exchange received an email from the Company advising that the Company formally waived its right to a hearing regarding the delisting of the Security.

The Commission, having considered the facts stated in the application and having due regard for the public interest and protection of investors, orders that the NYSE's application be, and it hereby is, granted, effective at the opening of business on February 15, 2006.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.³
