

New Faculty Orientation, August 18, 2009

Student Development

Educating the Whole Student

Boyer, E.L. (1987) College: the undergraduate experience in America. Princeton, NJ: Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.

“Learning Reconsidered defines learning as a comprehensive, holistic, transformative activity that integrates academic learning and student development”

“The effectiveness of the undergraduate experience relates to the quality of campus life and is directly linked to time students spend on campus and the quality of their involvement in activities” (Boyer, 1987)

Student Development: Cultivating Student Success

- Student Development Mission: The Division of Student Development ensures sustainable opportunities for student success and development, addresses the diverse needs of all students and encourages lifelong learning to prepare students for global citizenship.
- Vision: The Division of Student Development celebrates a culture where student success is expected and excellence is the hallmark of all we do.

Student Development Outcomes

- Students will...
  - Develop self-awareness and interdependence
  - Understand and appreciate human differences
  - Develop personal and social responsibility
  - Practice civic responsibility and leadership
  - Exercise critical and reflective thinking
  - Pursue lifelong learning

Student Development Key Resources for New Faculty

- Center for Leadership & Service
- Learning Center
- Counseling & Testing
- Office of Disability Accommodation
- Center for Student Rights & Responsibilities
- Office of the Dean of Students