UNIVERSITY OF NORTH TEXAS

Criminal History (CHC) Authorization & Release Form

To be employed in or hold a job, with the University of North Texas or the University of North Texas System, that is designated security sensitive, an applicant or employee must satisfactorily pass a criminal history check (CHC). This form authorizes UNT to obtain criminal history information on the applicant, who is seeking employment for a university or UNT System position designated as "security sensitive", or a current employee promoted into a security sensitive position. To be employed in a job that is designated security sensitive, an applicant must satisfactorily complete and pass the CHC.

Instructions: This form is to be completed by the applicant or employee. Print legibly and complete all information requested. Deliver the completed form to UNT Human Resources Dept., Employment Office or send via facsimile to HR - Employment Office at 940-369-7137. Once the CHC process has been completed the hiring manager will be notified by the Human Resources.
