Title:

Question 26 "Cost per Household" BTOP only:

This project is for middle mile only. The instructions state "For last mile projects, taking into account the total cost of the proposed project, estimate the cost per household....."

The proposed project is for middle mile, making this question null; however, in the interest of knowledge and a complete application, we did a similar calculation in order to ascertain the cost of the middle mile solution relative to households in WV. Below is the formula and actual numbers used to calculate an average cost per household of $170.

Total amount of this request: $126,323,297

Divided by # of households: 736,481

Equals a net cost of $171 each

Attachment K: Income

Attachment L: Balance Sheet

Attachment M: Cash Flow

And Financial Assumptions

This grant request is for the State of West Virginia. For this reason, financial sections, commensurate with private industry are not applicable. In lieu, of these statements, we are attaching the following:

PDF financial files for FY 2002 through FY 2006

WEB links for

FY 2007 <http://www.wvfinance.state.wv.us/FARS/cafr/cafr2007/Complete%20CAFR.pdf>

FY 2008. <http://www.wvfinance.state.wv.us/FARS/cafr/cafr2008/cafr2008.pdf>

Note that the West Virginia Fiscal Year ends 30 June. For this reason, 2009 reports are not yet complete. We believe you will find these financial statements adequate to meet full and reasonable accounting standards for this grant.

For your review, the FY 2010 budget is also attached with the PDF financial files.

Note: Rather than convolute each attachment with repetitive data, we are only attaching the PDF financial files to the income statement – Attachment K.

Further: <http://www.wvdhsem.gov/broadband.htm> will give you a detailed accounting for the State of West Virginia for FY years 2004, 2005 and 2006.

Note: Grants upload would not permit files this large to be converted to PDF and uploaded; therefore, the links.

State of West Virginia

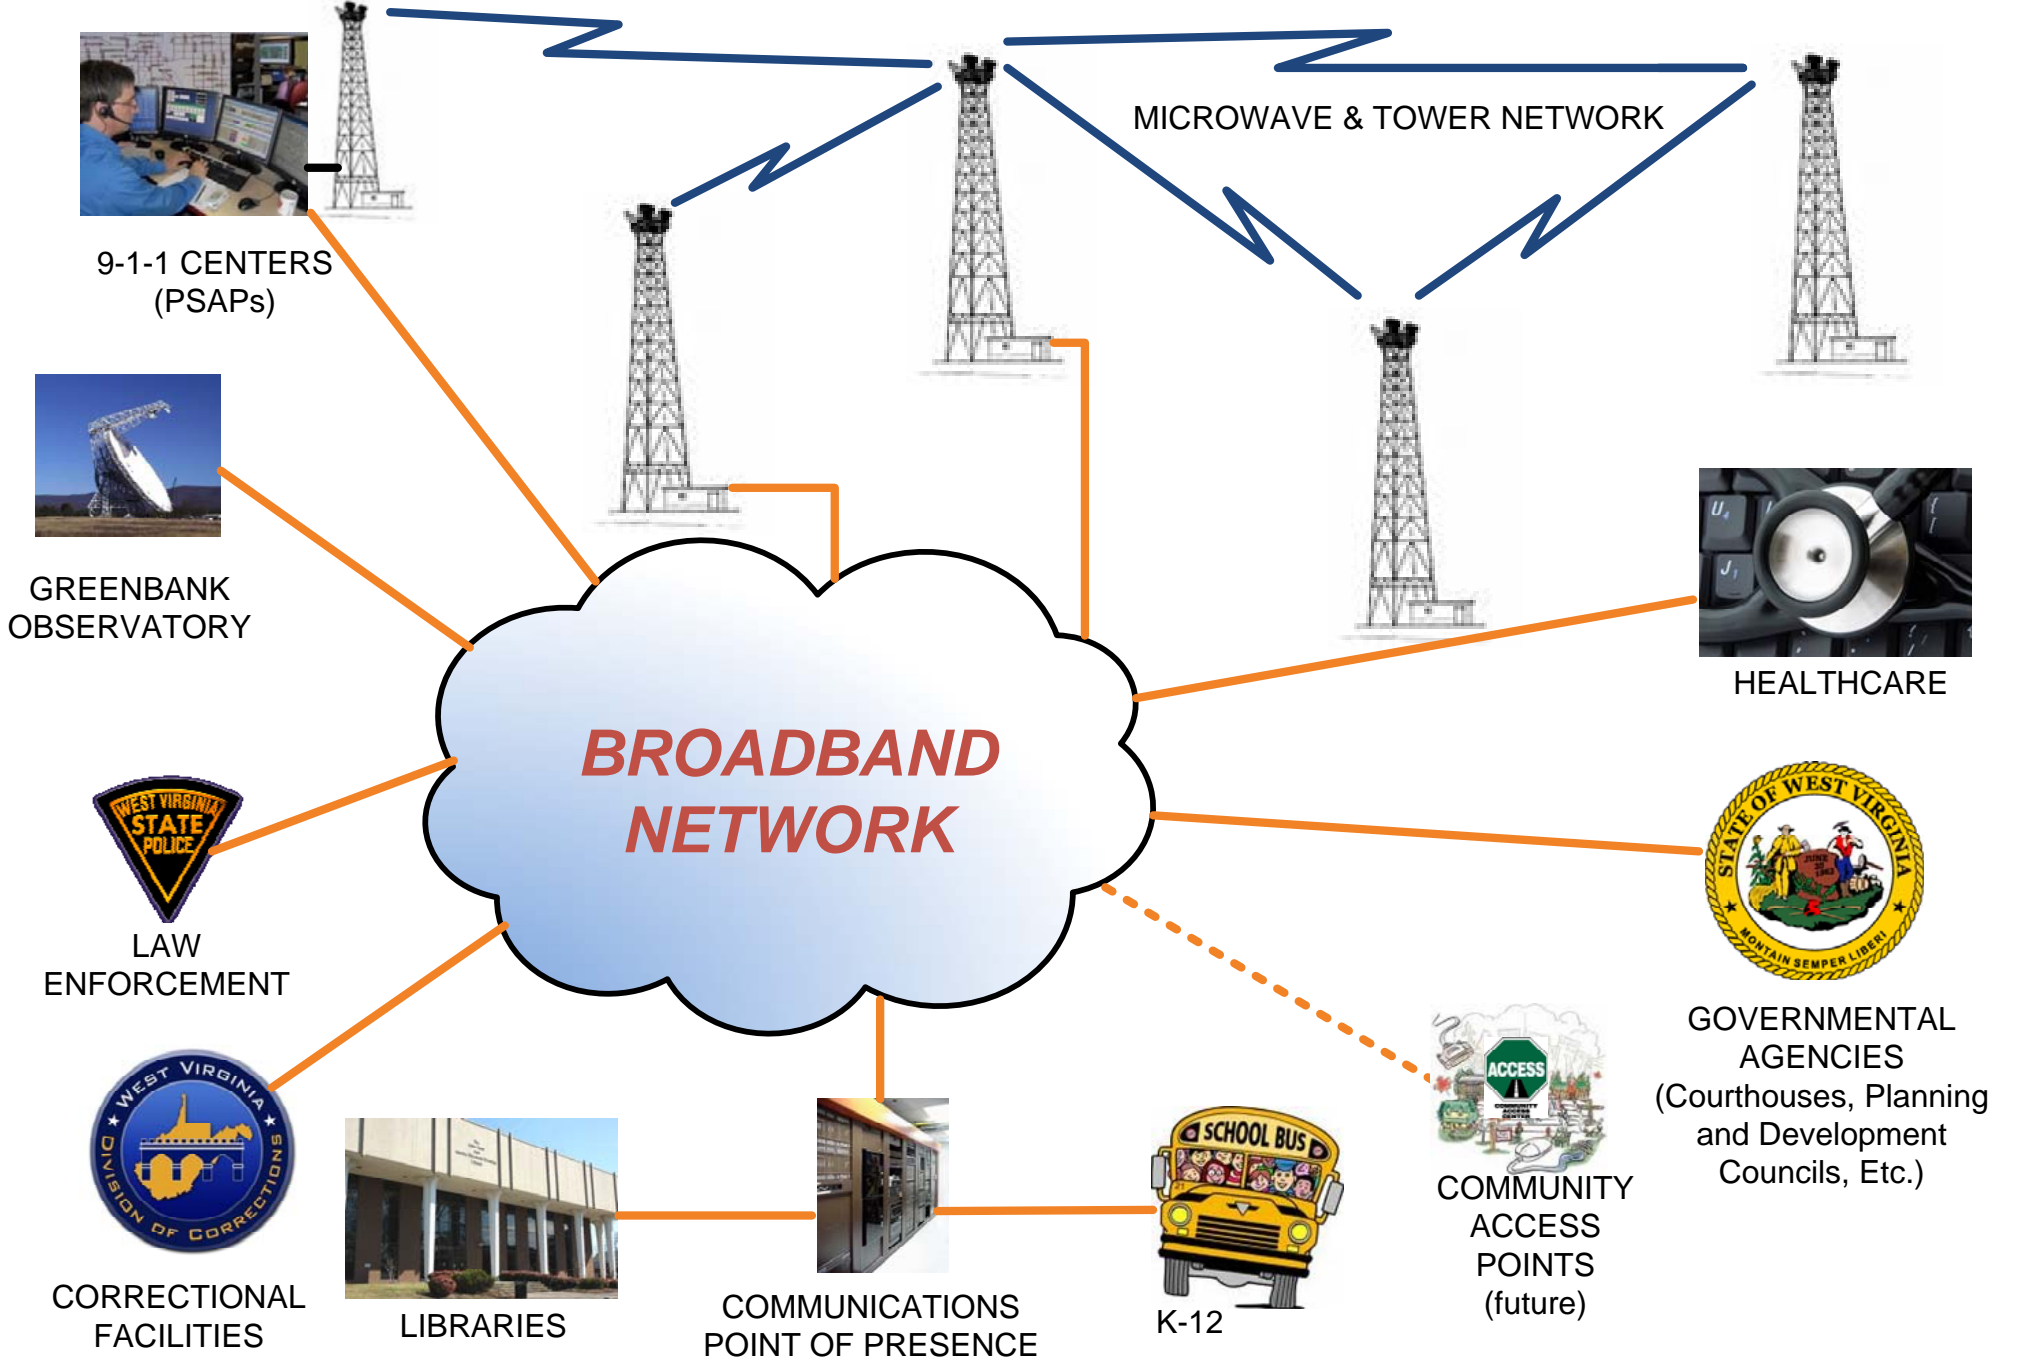

As noted in previous sections throughout the grant application, this request is for a middle mile solution by the State of West Virginia. As a government entity, the State of West Virginia, does not track or use financial practices in the same manner as a for profit business. However, we do use accepted accounting procedures similar to other states. Links are attached rather than hard copy to make appropriate data easily available.

At the bottom this page are two internet links leading you to the WV FY 2007 and 2008 Comprehensive Annual Financial Report. Since FY 2009 closed at the end of June, data for FY 2009 is not yet available.

Senior Management Team Track Record Summary

The WV Broadband Senior Management team consists of individuals from Education, Health and Human Resources, Public Safety, Commerce, Corrections/Prisons, Governor's Office of Technology,

The track record of this team lending credibility to this project follows:

The Broadband Senior Leadership team is led by Secretary of Commerce Kelley Goes. Ms. Goes serves West Virginia in a manner that causes the state to be nationally recognized in commerce areas of responsibility and interest. Early in her position, she realized the need for broadband access for all West Virginians and this, coupled with Governor Joe Manchin's vision for the same effectively paved the way for a Broadband Council that has been formed (prior to this grant) to pave the way in this area.

Broadband Specific: Secretary of Commerce Goes, Mr. Gianato, Mr. Schafer, Mr. Todorovich, Ms. Thomas, Mr. White and Ms. Williams have vast experience in IT related areas.

Representing Commerce, Public Safety, Education, Libraries and Health and Human Services, these individuals, as attested by their biographies, have a proven history of IT related successes. They will lend a technical expertise to the overall team effectiveness. Cabinet Secretary Goes and Mr. Gianato were personally chosen by Governor Manchin to lead the West Virginia Broadband Council.

Major Project and Leadership Specific: Each member of this leadership team was chosen because of their respective leadership capabilities. For instance, Mr. Schafer leads the Governor's Office of Technology and was chosen because of successes with NiSource. Mr. Gianato serves as the WV Director of Homeland Security and Emergency Management with previous experience in IT and public safety. Cabinet Secretary Walker leads West Virginia in health care related issues, specifically broadband offerings planning and design in HIN and HER, marking WV as among best in the nation. Dr. McClanahan led the WV K1-K12 schools to unparalleled heights in coordinating all activities of a statewide school system. Mr. Todorovich led the WV National Guard in multiple endeavors such as RCAS, Distance Learning, National Level Contingency of Operation Planning (COOP) activities, and mobile communications/emergency planning at Hurricane Katrina by serving as the IT officer for Task Force Belle Chasse.

As may be seen by the above summary, the leadership team is educated, experienced, dedicated, and able to execute this endeavor with huge successes for the nation and state. Although the entire team has not been mentioned in this summary, it is very reflective of the potential of the whole.

Allen, Vicki

Vicki Allen is an Assistant Director in the Office of Instructional Technology at the West Virginia Department of Education. She has an A.B. in Elementary Education and a Masters Degree in Elementary Leadership. With ten years of teaching experience and a passion for the integration of technology into teaching, Vicki came to the West Virginia Department of Education in 1997. She has worked with professional development programs, technology planning for hardware purchases and managing state contracts. In her current position, Vicki oversees projects associated with the K12 telecommunications network. These projects include statewide applications for federal E-rate program for WV schools, management of the K12 email system, purchasing of statewide Internet access for all WV public schools, Internet filtering for E-rate compliance and coordinating assignment of Domain Name Services and IP addresses.

Douglas, Brad

Brad Douglas began his employment with the West Virginia Division of Corrections in 2000 as a Research Analyst for the Office of Research & Planning. In December 2003 he was promoted to the position of Director of Research & Planning and still holds that position. Other than Research & Planning activities Brad has been involved with a number of data sharing and management projects during his career. He was project manager for the implementation of the WVDOC's Inmate Management Information System (IMIS) and has maintained an active role in expansion planning. The initial IMIS project was a $1.2 million endeavor and implementation was very successful. Currently, hundreds of WVDOC employees use the system from more than 30 locations statewide. Brad holds a B.S. in Criminal Justice from West Virginia State University and a M.A. in Criminal Justice Leadership from Marshall University.

Gianato, James

Governor Joe Manchin appointed Jimmy Gianato, West Virginia Division of Homeland Security for the State of West Virginia, in September 2005. In his capacity as Director, Mr. Gianato has operational and planning responsibility for the state's response to all emergency and disaster operations and consequence management for incidents involving Weapons of Mass Destruction and terrorism. During federal disasters, he serves as the Governor's State Coordinating Officer with the Federal Emergency Management Agency. He also serves as the Chairman of the State Emergency Response Commission. Before assuming his present duties, Mr. Gianato has previously been involved in emergency response for over 30 years. He has served as a firefighter, EMT, and Law-Enforcement official. He received training in Incident Command, the National Incident Management System. He is a certified Fire, EMS and Law Enforcement instructor and has successfully managed numerous nationally declared disasters in McDowell County and has been deployed to other parts of the state to assist with disaster efforts during time of need. He has also served as Chairman of the WV Statewide Addressing and Mapping Board that had the responsibility of mapping and re-addressing the State of West Virginia for 9-1-1 related purposes. He has been a presenter for several organizations and conferences. For example, the 2005 All Hazards Forum, NENA, the American Business Club, and the Association of Public Safety Officials Association and the West Virginia Coal Symposium, just to name a few. He intends to continue to attend training and learn of new and better ways to improve the Department of Homeland Security and Emergency Management in the State of West Virginia. He serves or has served on several boards and commissions including the West Virginia Retirement Board, the Commission for National and Community Service. He has a degree from New River Community and Technical College in Applied Science.

Governor Manchin relies heavily on Mr. Gianato for Broadband expertise. He serves as a member of the State of WV Broadband Council and works directly with Cabinet Secretary – Commerce, Kelley Goes on Broadband planning and applications.

Goes, Kelley

Kelley Goes has served as West Virginia's Secretary of Commerce since January 2007. Shortly thereafter, Governor Manchin charged Secretary Goes with deploying broadband throughout the state particularly to its unserved and underserved areas. Accordingly, Secretary Goes has worked with broadband providers, legislators, equipment manufacturers, educators, healthcare providers, and industry innovators to explore all aspects of deployment of broadband in rural areas and demand building for broadband services. Additionally, Secretary Goes has served as the chief liaison between the state and Cisco Systems' IBSG group building a repertoire of best practices for the state to explore. Secretary Goes attended Cisco's Public Services Summit in 2007 and was a presenter in 2008.

Nine state agencies report to Secretary Goes, representing over 3000 employees and $275 million in budgets. Secretary Goes serves as the chair of the West Virginia Economic Development Authority, the West Virginia Jobs Investment Trust, the Broadband Deployment Council, and serves on numerous other boards.

Secretary Goes is a lawyer by training. She spent seven years in private practice focusing primarily on intellectual property and commercial litigation. She then spent four years working as an assistant attorney general for three state agencies before moving to the West Virginia Department of Commerce to serve as deputy secretary and general counsel before being appointed secretary.

Secretary Goes graduated cum laude from Vanderbilt University with a B.A. in 1991 and magna cum laude from the University of Kentucky College of Law in 1995.

Lopez, John

Mr. Lopez is currently employed by the WV Regional Jail and Correctional Facility Authority in Charleston, WV where he serves as Corrections Program Manager. His duties include planning, developing, coordinating and evaluation all treatment programs statewide for the WV Regional Jail and Correctional Facility Authority, develop and review legislation relating to correctional programs, and research and write grants for the Regional Jail Authority. He began his career with the Regional Jail Authority in 1997. Prior to this, he was an Investigator for WV Department of Tax and Revenue. From 1995 until 1997, he served as Resident Director for Salem-Teikyo University, Salem, WV.

Mr. Lopez earned a Master's in Criminal Justice Administration from Mountain State University, Beckley, a Master of Arts in Physical Education from Salem Teikyo University, Salem, WV, an Associate degree in Printing Technology, WV Institute of Technology, Montgomery, WV and a Bachelor of Science in Management from WV Institute of Technology, Montgomery, WV.

Mr. Lopez is a proven leader possessing a vast knowledge of the principles and techniques of leadership. He has a unique and astounding knowledge of state government. His experience with grants within the Regional Jail Authority will make him a viable asset on the broadband leadership team.

McClanahan, Jack

Dr. Jack McClanahan currently serves as Deputy Superintendent of Schools for the State of West Virginia. He assumed these duties in 2005. From 2003 until accepting the position as Deputy Superintendent, he served as the Assistant State Superintendent of Schools for Administrative Services. As a professional within the field of education, he served multiple positions such as : Executive Director of Office of Professional Preparation; Principal, Ben Franklin Career Center, Deputy Superintendent, Kanawha County Schools, Junior and Senior High School Principal, and Teacher.

Dr. McClanahan received his Doctorate in Curriculum and Instruction from Virginia Polytechnical Institute, his Master's Degree in History from Marshall University, a Bachelor of Arts in History and English from Morris Harvey College. He holds a certificate from the State of West Virginia as a Teacher 7-12 – Permanent.

Dr. McClanahan will serve as a member of the state broadband leadership team and brings with him excellent qualifications, representing K1-K12. He has vast knowledge in coordinating activities of school systems, excellent in research, great knowledge in development of WVDE budgets, and experience in operating an organization with over 2,000 employees.

Miller, Terry L

Terry Miller was appointed as Director of WV Regional Jail and Correctional Facility Authority by Governor Manchin in 2007. In this role, he is responsible for overall administration of ten (10) regional jails and the central administrative office. He is responsible for the administration of a budget of over eighty seven million ($87 million) and oversight of approximately 1,034 employees.

Mr. Miller served for approximately three years as the Director – Homeland Security State Administrative Agency with responsibility of over $27 million in Homeland Security Funds. He coordinated with staff to facilitate the WV homeland security grants and programs to ensure compliance with the allowable uses of the funding and conformity to appropriate goals and objectives. In this role, Mr. Miller hired, trained and coordinated with the first WV Statewide Interoperability Coordinator – giving him keen insight into overall communications problems, including broadband within the confines of West Virginia.

Terry has served in the Wood County Sheriff's Office as Day Shift Commander (Lieutenant) and, Shift Commander (Sergeant). He earned a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice/Minor in Corrections from WV State College, Institute, WV. He also earned an Associate Applied Sciences Degree in Law Enforcement from Parkersburg Community College.

Mr. Miller's vast experience in the law enforcement community and related fields, including an excellent knowledge in grants execution and compliance make him ideal for the WV Broadband leadership team.

Pitrolo, James L.

Mr. Pitrolo currently serves as Legislative Director for WV Governor Joe Manchin. He served in this position since 2005. In this role, he works and is directly responsible to the Governor, serving as a principal advisor in legislative affairs and special projects. Mr. Pitrolo has been chosen to be the Governor's representative on the broadband leadership team. He comes to this team as a West Virginian with great knowledge and expertise with the rural communities located throughout our state.

Mr. Pitrolo has served as elected Director of first Exchange Bank of Mannington, elected to Board of Directors of the WV Automobile and Truck Dealers Association (also served as Chairman of the Board), Graduate of Leadership Marion, Director United Way of Marion County, West Virginia House of Delegates, awarded the TIME Magazine Quality Dealer Award and various other accolades. Noteworthy is the Small Business Association success award he received in 2002.

He earned a Bachelor's of Science in Business administration from West Virginia University and served in the U.S. Air Force as a Captain. Mr. Pitrolo's business experience and knowledge of West Virginia make him a great choice for the broadband leadership team.

Rubenstein, Jim

Mr. Rubenstein was appointed Commissioner of the West Virginia Division of Corrections in June 2001 after serving as Acting Commissioner since February 2001. He is tasked with the responsibility to oversee the day to day operations of the operations of the Division of Corrections throughout the entire State of West Virginia.

Mr. Rubenstein has over three decades in the corrections profession. Mr. Rubenstein began his career with Corrections in 1973 as a Correctional Officer at the Forestry Camp for Boys. He also served as a Recreation Coordinator, a Correctional Officer and a Counselor at the WV Industrial School for Boys. Mr. Rubenstein served in various corrections positions during his career. His qualifications and skills offer him a unique opportunity to bring insight and experience to the Department of Corrections. His career in corrections has prepared him with the management abilities, training and development skills, and interpersonal communications expertise necessary to promote programs, technology and training within Corrections.

His experience and in depth knowledge of corrections will enable the State of West Virginia Broadband leadership team to better represent the Corrections requirements within the state.

Schafer, Kyle

With years of senior level IT experience, Kyle Schafer presents strengths in senior leadership and vision, IT outsourcing experience, IT insourcing experience, large scale consolidation experience and large system (EP) implementation, integration and support experience. This vast array of knowledge and subsequent experiences caused Governor Manchin to select Mr. Schafer as the CTO and Director of Information Systems and Communications for the State of West Virginia (May 2005). In this role, Mr. Schafer is responsible for all aspects of the State's computing and telecommunications technical environment. He manages a technical team of approximately 300 IT professionals and have indirect accountability for an additional 200 IT professionals with the goal of delivering high quality service to our 25,000 internal state employees and digital services to the state's 1.8 million residents. He is accountable for nearly $100 million in IT related expenses each year.

Mr. Schafer worked for NiSource Columbia as Vice President and Chief Technology Officer from June 1982 until April 2005. In this role, he was responsible to set the strategic direction and tactical plans for multiple NiSource processes. Mr. Schafer has a BS degree in Computer Science from Marshall University, Huntington, WV and a MIS Degree in Technology Management from Marshall. His education, leadership, and experience make Mr. Schafer a major component of the WV Broadband leadership team.

Todorovich, Michael L.

Mike Todorovich served as the WV National Guard full time Information Technology Officer for approximately 22 years. In this role he was responsible to plan, install, implement, and maintain a robust networked computer system consisting of over 1,000 computers at over 35 physical locations in West Virginia. During his tenure with the National Guard, Mr. Todorovich earned the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. His overall accomplishments with installing the Reserve Component Automation System (RCAS) effectively caused West Virginia to be noted as first in the nation in RCAS fielding. National Guard Bureau chose West Virginia to be a "pilot" state in fielding of a Distance Learning Network (DLN). Mr. Todorovich accepted this challenge and through his efforts, West Virginia again became noted as "best in class" in DLN fielding. During his full time with the National Guard, he served on the WV Interoperable Working Group.

After retirement, Mr. Todorovich took a position as the first West Virginia Interoperable Coordinator. In this role, West Virginia achieved many successes including writing a viable statewide plan, successful award of an 8.4 million dollar Public Safety Interoperability Communications (PSIC) (writing facilitated by him), and the first two statewide interoperable conferences.

Currently Mr. Todorovich works for the West Virginia National Guard as a state employee with the responsibility of internal and external Contingency of Operation Planning, both internal and external. His experiences will prove to be valuable as a member of the State of WV Broadband leadership team.

Mr. Todorovich has a Masters Degree from Liberty University, Lynchburg, VA in religion and a Bachelor's in Military Management from the University of Charleston.

Thomas, Darlene

Ms. Thomas is currently employed by WV Department of Health and Human Resources as an Information Systems Manager 3. In this role, she is responsible for the management of information systems services that support the enterprise goals of the department. From 1999 to 2003, Ms. Thomas was responsible for managing the 50 IS applications development, maintenance and operations for the WV DHHR (36 state, 14 contract). She has vast knowledge and practical experience in supporting in-house developed Applications for Health, Human Services, and DHHR Administration, and WV DHHR WEB team.

Ms. Thomas earned a BA in Mathematics from WVU and completed Graduate Studies, Industrial Engineering at WVU. She also worked with WV College of Graduate studies, Industrial Engineering and Systems Analysis. Not only has she been an IT professional with the State of West Virginia, beginning as a Programmer Analyst 1 in 1984 and culminating as Information Systems Manager 3 (current), she also worked for University of Missouri Extension Division in Missouri and West Virginia Computing Services in Morgantown, WV. Her skills, experience, and keen understanding of health related issues related to broadband make her a valuable asset to the WV Broadband Leadership Team.

Waggoner, J. D.

J. D. Waggoner, Executive Secretary

As the Executive Secretary of the WV Library Commission, Mr. Waggoner brings great leadership skills to the broadband leadership team. He has a Masters in Library and Information Science, University of South Carolina.

Mr. Waggoner has served as Secretary of the Library Commission since August 2002. In this position he directs the agency in its statutory role of advising and developing libraries of all types, academic, public, school and special. The most direct contact is with the 97 public library systems, which are composed of 173 facilities statewide. Mr. Waggoner has served at many levels of responsibility with the agency since he began his employment in 1968. He has vast experience in Grants planning, application, leadership, and implementation such as the following:
