ETA has completed issuing award letters to states granting them access to funds for implementing the Federal Additional Compensation (FAC) program. The total amount of funds is $6.8 million. These Regional Recovery Forums provide states with the opportunity to address challenges impacting their reemployment efforts.
Recovery Act State and Local Workforce Investment Board Readiness Reviews have been completed across the regions. Regional offices are in the process of compiling and analyzing the consultation findings. The results of the consultations will help inform ETA of specific technical assistance needs required for states and local areas to successfully implement Recovery Act-funded programs.	ETA continues to respond to process questions from the states through the Regional offices on the Emergency Unemployment Compensation (EUC) program. Regional offices are using a Program Review Guide developed by ETA as part of their EUC program review in the states. The Recovery Act extended the period of time during which claims for EUC can be filed and benefits paid.
On May 15, 2009, ETA issued a Training and Employment Notice (TEN) No. 44-08, describing the plans for awarding the discretionary grant "green job training" funds under the Recovery Act so that interested organizations can begin to plan for the application process.
