Employment and Training Administration (ETA)

The Philadelphia Regional Office convened the Reemployment NOW! Conference on June 8-9, 2010 in Philadelphia, PA. This event provided the latest information available on economic changes, emerging industries and occupations and reemployment service strategies. Recovery Act contributions to expanding workforce services were touched on in various sessions, including a session on partnering with Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) to provide subsidized employment supported by Recovery Act Emergency Contingency funds awarded through the Administration for Children and Families.

The Emergency Unemployment Compensation (EUC) program, the Federal Additional Compensation (FAC) program, and Extended Benefits (EB) provisions began to phase out on June 2, 2010. ETA will continue to monitor Congressional activities related to additional EUC extensions. Because Congress did not act on unemployment extensions prior to leaving for the Memorial Day recess, the week ending May 29 was the last week of unemployment for which an individual could establish eligibility for EUC. If Congress acts in the new session, the provisions will be made retroactive. Since the EUC law expired on June 2, 2010, the last date eligibility could be established for new participants was May 22, 2010. Under the phase-out provisions, claimants may receive their remaining entitlement for the EUC tier in which they are collecting, but they may not advance to the next tier.

Federal law currently provides for 100% Federal sharing for benefit costs under the Federal-State EB program for weeks of unemployment beginning before June 2, 2010. As a result, states that have linked the expiration of their EB Total Unemployment Rate (TUR) trigger to the termination of 100% Federal sharing for EB have had or will soon have their triggers end and may soon cease to be in an EB period.

Absent additional state or Federal enactments, the following changes will take place in the coming weeks:

- The following states had their EB payable period conclude on June 5, 2010: Alabama, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and West Virginia.
- New York's EB payable period ended June 6, 2010.
- The following states will have their EB payable period conclude on June 12, 2010: Arizona, California, the District of Columbia, Georgia, Maine, Nevada, Virginia, and Wisconsin. NOTE: Nevada currently meets the Insured Unemployment Rate (IUR) trigger criteria to remain "on" in the EB program; Nevada's EB period will continue until the state fails to meet the criteria to be triggered "on." Georgia disagrees with our projected end date, and we are working with SOL to resolve this issue.
- Massachusetts' TUR trigger expired on May 29 and its EB payable period conclude on June 26, 2010.
- Michigan's TUR trigger expired on June 5 and its EB payable period conclude on July 3, 2010.

The Recovery Act provided for a special distribution of $7 billion in Unemployment Insurance (UI) modernization incentive payments to states. Rhode Island's 1/3 share of its UI Modernization incentive payment is under review. South Carolina enacted legislation that includes provisions related to the requirements for receiving 100% of UI Modernization incentive payments.

ETA continues to make determinations for petitions submitted since the 2009 Trade Adjustment Assistance amendments mandated in the Recovery Act which took effect on May 18, 2009. As of June 4, 2010, 3,902 determinations have been made on cases received under the 2009 Amendments.

The closing date for Recovery Act-funded National Emergency Grants On-the-Job Training (OJT) applications was May 24, 2010. The applications have been reviewed. An announcement of awards is expected the week of June 21, 2010.

The Health Care Virtual Career Platform Solicitation for Grant Applications closed on May 7, 2010. Review of these applications has taken place and an announcement of the Recovery Act-funded grants is expected the week of June 14, 2010.

The Philadelphia Regional Office and National Office staff, along with leadership from the District of Columbia Department of Employment Services continues to provide technical assistance on the implementation of the District of Columbia's Summer Youth Employment Program. The District is expected to begin its summer program on June 28, 2010, enrolling 1,500 Recovery Act-funded youth plus 7,000 youth with Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) Recovery Act emergency funds in addition to approximately 21,000 youth served through other funding. The technical assistance includes implementing processes to train site supervisors, developing youth policies and procedures and ensuring the proper application of both eligibility determination and work readiness assessments.

On June 8, 2010, Secretary of Labor Hilda L. Solis announced $1.4 million in Trade Adjustment Assistance Technical Assistance and Outreach Partnership Grants to three organizations to provide services in 10 states. The organizations are the AFL-CIO Working for America Institute; the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers; and the Washington State Labor Council AFL-CIO. The grants will be used to support projects that provide technical assistance and outreach to dislocated workers impacted by foreign trade. Grant recipients will work with strategic partners in California, Indiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Washington and Wisconsin. This grant will be funded by resources made available under the Recovery Act

San Francisco Regional Office staff will conduct a comprehensive on-site review of the State of Alaska Workforce Investment Act and Wagner-Peyser programs including Recovery Act, during the week of June 14, 2010.

Dallas Regional Office staff will conduct a series of activities in the State of Colorado the week of June 14, 2010. Staff will be on site to conduct a Recovery Act review of the State's UI Extended Benefits (EB) and Federal Additional Compensation (FAC) programs to evaluate the management and administration of these two programs; determine if the State is operating these programs in compliance with the law; and ensure achievement of the Secretary's performance goals.

The San Francisco Regional Office will hold a Recovery Act Green Jobs/Health Care and Emerging Industries New Grantee Post-Award Forum on June 15-16, 2010 in the San Francisco Bay area.

Philadelphia Regional Office Federal Project Officers will conduct a Peer-to-Peer conference, YouthBuild Wellness Clinic: Increasing Your Program's Operational Health on June 15-16, 2010 in Philadelphia, PA. YouthBuild programs' health will be assessed by triaging specifically identified program challenges to address chronic problems using energizing mental toughness teambuilding activities. These activities will include brainstorming, group exercises, and discussions. The goal is for each participant to leave the session with practical take away solutions that can be implemented in their own programs. YouthBuild received $50 million in Recovery Act funds to expand programs nationwide

On June 8, 2010, Secretary of Labor Hilda L. Solis announced a $495,238 grant to assist about 90 workers affected by layoffs at Blount Inc. in Portland, Ore., and its subsidiary Carlton Co. Inc. in Milwaukie, Ore. Awarded to the Oregon Department of Community Colleges and Workforce Development, this grant will be operated by the Workforce Investment Council of Clackamas County. The grant will provide these dislocated workers, all of whom are also certified as eligible for Trade Adjustment Assistance, with access to "wrap-around" and supportive services. These services include dependent care and transportation assistance, which are not available through the TAA program. Workers at Blount Inc. and Carlton Co. Inc. experienced layoffs throughout 2009, following the shifting of manufacturing operations to China. This grant will be funded by resources made available for National Emergency Grants under the Recovery Act

Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA)
