

General Dynamics Information Technology seeks environmental professionals for positions across the US.

- review environmental documents, plans, and projects for potential environmental impacts and impacts to threatened and endangered species, historical sites, etc.
- make recommendations as to whether projects can be categorically excluded or requires further study
- assist with development and scoping of Environmental Impact Statements and Environmental Assessments.
- provide technical assistance and coordination to support the review EA documentation.
- Support development of the administrative record for EA decisions
- Provide initial determinations/recommendations regarding the needed reviews.
- Review submissions for completeness and adequacy of information and organize and prepare technical information for review by the Government
- Consolidate technical comments from VA and regulatory agencies on draft NEPA documents.
- Coordinate review and evaluation of new/proposed environmental laws and regulations

5+ years experience

Please apply at www.gdit.com job numbers 166179, 166180 166252, 166260

General Dynamics is an equal opportunity employer.