

do you want a part time green job? JOIN THE MATERIAL PROCESSING CREW

Re-use Hawai'i is a vibrant non-profit organization working to reduce waste through building material reuse and recycling. Visit our website, www.reusehawaii.org, to learn more about the organization and our programs to reduce waste.

position summary: The role of the material processor is to work with incoming salvaged building material and prepare it for reuse. The part-time position is 12-18 hours per week and will take place at the Re-use Hawai'i Warehouse at 30 Forrest Avenue, in Kaka'ako.

schedule: 2-3 shifts a week, 8am to 2:30 pm, monday-friday. Schedule is flexible and can accommodate applicant's schedule. Ideal for students.

position responsibilities: Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- denail lumber, stack and catalog material
- daily clean up of work site

required work traits and abilities:

- High proficiency using hand and power tools
- Attention to detail and safety
- Ability to switch tasks quickly and often
- Excellent verbal communication skills
- Willing and able to learn on the job
- Must be responsible, ethical, punctual, honest & efficient

physical requirements:

- Position requires lifting (up to 80 lbs.)
- Individual must have ability to perform intense, physical work, including standing, walking, bending, stooping, carrying.

general requirements:

- must have cell phone and use email communication
- must have good references

compensation: Position pays $9 per hour

to apply: Applicants are invited to submit a resume and contact information to: info@reusehawaii.org subject: material processor