

Looking for part-time work?

Crew Members Needed!

Pono Pacific is currently seeking individuals interested in part-time employment as a conservation field crew member. Candidates should be available to work 2-3 full days a week. Crew members will have a starting pay rate of $11/hr and may be eligible for additional benefits or full-time work, if available.

This position carries out general labor work, under close supervision by a crew leader, in the conservation field to help with maintenance and preservation of native ecosystems. Duties may include hiking; maintenance of trail ways; using hand tools and removing invasive species; handling herbicides, rodenticides, or pesticides; setting up, checking, and maintaining bait boxes and snap traps; fencing; protecting and enhancing native species populations; monitoring wildlife; recording data; and other general field work.

Hawaii is home to numerous plant and animal species found nowhere else in the world. By contributing your time and energy, you will assist in the restoration and preservation of biologically sensitive ecosystems. This work can be challenging and laborious, but it is also very rewarding. Please email: lei.leong@ponopacific.com with your current resume if interested.
