Dear Prospective Licensee:

Please find enclosed an application for licensure necessary to comply with the Animal Welfare Act for the State of Illinois. We have also enclosed a copy of the Act for your examination and information. If your operation will be using an assumed business name, please supply documentation to our Office along with your application indicating that you have complied with registering as an assumed business name pursuant to Chapter 805, Paragraphs 405/1 through 405/6 of the Illinois Compiled Statutes. This transaction can be filed in the County Clerk's office in the county where your business is located.

Prior to completing the application, please be aware of the various sectors of the pet merchandising and handling interests that require such licensing and mark the one type of license which best describes your business. Only one license is required for any combination of businesses at one location. Complete the application in detail and return with the required fee of $25.00 to this office. Please be advised that your facility must be in compliance for licensure within 60 days of receipt of your application in this office to avoid forfeiture of your $25.00 fee and the requirement to resubmit another application along with an additional $25.00 fee. Upon receipt Department personnel will be calling on you to make a preliminary inspection and answer any questions you might have regarding the Act and its requirements, a prerequisite to final processing and issuance of your license. The license will be renewable on July 1 of each year.

We appreciate your cooperation with the Department during the licensing process. Please do not hesitate to contact this office if you have further questions or concerns or if we may be of service to you and your business.

Very truly yours,

Applicant(s)

Animal Welfare License Application
Required Information

Pursuant to the Illinois Administrative Procedures Act, 5 ILCS 100/10-65, and the federal Child Support Act 42 U.S.C.A. 666, an applicant's social security number is required to be recorded on an application or a renewal application for a license. A license is defined in the law as any "permit" certificate, approval, registration, charter, or similar form of permission". However, if the applicant is a business entity that utilizes a Federal Employer Identification Number, then no social security number is required on the application to comply with the child support laws.

Moreover, Section 10-65(c) of the Administrative Procedures Act requires the following: "Each agency shall require the licensee to certify on the application form, under penalty of perjury, that he or she is not more than 30 days delinquent in complying with a child support order. Every application shall state that failure to so certify shall result in disciplinary action, and that making a false statement may subject the licensee to contempt of court." However, if the applicant is a business entity that utilizes a Federal Employer Identification Number, then such entity is not required to make the certifications.

In order for the Animal Welfare license application to be processed, the following information must be provided:

Name _____

Are you more than 30 days delinquent in complying with a child support order? Yes No
(NOTE: if you are not subject to a child support order, answer "no".)

FEIN or Social Security Number _____

Signature _____

Applications will not be processed without this information. Please return this form with your completed application.
