ACTING PUBLIC PRINTER ADDRESSES SYMPOSIUM ON “DOING MORE WITH LESS”

WHO:

Acting Public Printer Davita Vance-Cooks

<http://www.gpo.gov/pdfs/about/Vance-Cooksbio.pdf>

WHAT:

The U.S. Government Printing Office’s (GPO) Acting Public Printer Davita Vance-Cooks will address approximately 100 mid to senior level financial officials from agencies throughout the Federal Government on the topic of “Leading with less in the Federal Government.” The symposium is being hosted by the Association of Government Accountants (AGA). GPO has been a leader in the Federal Government for doing more with less while budgets are being reduced. GPO was commended during a legislative branch appropriations hearing for setting the standard in the Federal Government for finding savings and implementing cost cutting initiatives. Vance-Cooks will share the ways GPO has reduced costs while maintaining productivity and moving forward as the digital information platform for the Federal Government.
