Discharging Matters From Committees

§ 1. In General; Motion to Discharge

The House, by rule, has made provisions for discharging matters from committees. Under Rule XXVII clause 4,<sup>(1)</sup> a Member may file with the Clerk a motion to discharge a committee from the consideration of a public bill or resolution referred to it 30 legislative days prior thereto. The rule may also be invoked to discharge a resolution pending in the Committee on Rules for more than seven legislative days providing for consideration of a measure favorably reported by a standing committee or pending before such committee for 30 legislative days.<sup>(2)</sup>

The primary purpose of the discharge petition is to extract from a committee, for House action, legislation opposed by a majority of the committee members or where a committee fails to act.

The motion must be in writing and signed by a majority of the Members, and this has been interpreted to mean that the motion requires the signatures of 218 Members of the House.<sup>(3)</sup> Delegates may not sign a discharge petition. The signatures on the motion may not be made public until the requisite number of Members have signed it.<sup>(4)</sup> The death or resignation of a signatory of the motion does not invalidate his signature,<sup>(5)</sup> but for a Member elected in a special election to fill a vacancy to sign a petition, the signature of his predecessor must be removed.<sup>(6)</sup>

When the requisite number of signatures are obtained, the motion is entered on the Journal, printed with the signatures thereto in the Congressional Record, and referred to the Calendar of Motions to Discharge Committees.<sup>(7)</sup> A reported bill is no longer susceptible to the motion, though reported in the interval between completed signing of the petition and the calling up of the motion.<sup>(8)</sup> placed in the discharge rule in the 69th Congress. Prior to that time, fewer signatures had been required on a discharge petition. For the history of the rule, see 7 Cannon's Precedents § 1007.

Announcement of Filing of Motion

§ 1.1 A Member sometimes announces to the House the filing, pursuant to Rule XXVII clause 4, of a motion to discharge a committee.

On June 17, 1952,<sup>(9)</sup> Mr. Paul W. Shafer, of Michigan, announced to the House his filing with the Clerk of a motion to discharge the Committee on the Judiciary from further consideration of a resolution proposing the impeachment of the President.

Signatures on Motion

or resolution operates, when agreed to, upon the bill or resolution as originally referred to the committee rather than as it may have been amended in the committee before the committee acted upon it adversely. 75 CONG. REC. 4705, 72d Cong. 1st Sess., Feb. 25, 1932.

tures of 218 Members of the House.

On Apr. 15, 1936,<sup>(10)</sup> the Speaker<sup>(11)</sup> responded to a parliamentary inquiry of Mr. Gerald J. Boileau, of Wisconsin, relative to the number of signatures necessary to effectuate a petition under the discharge rule of the House:

. . . [T]he Chair is constrained to hold that under the "discharge rule" of the House, requiring "a majority of the total membership of the House", the exact number of 218 Members was intended, and is necessary before a discharge petition is effective, and no less number will suffice, irrespective of temporary vacancies due to death, resignation, or other causes.

§ 1.3 The motion to discharge a pay raise bill was signed by the required number of Members.

On June 3, 1960,<sup>(12)</sup> the following proceedings occurred:

MR. [JOHN W.] McCORMACK [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(13)</sup> The gentleman will state it.

MR. McCORMACK: My inquiry is whether or not the discharge petition on the pay raise bill has received the required number of signatures, to wit, 219.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: According to the Journal clerk the 219 signatures have been obtained.

Parliamentarian's Note: In the 86th Congress, the total membership of the House was 436 due to the election for the first time of a Representative from the newly admitted State of Alaska.

§ 1.4 The death of a Member who had signed a discharge petition does not invalidate the signature, and such signature stands as the legislative act of such deceased Member unless withdrawn by his successor.

On May 31, 1934,<sup>(14)</sup> Mr. Donald H. McLean, of New Jersey, attempted to sign a discharge petition when he was informed that, since a requisite number of Members (145) had already signed, additional signatures could not be affixed. Since one of the signatures on the petition was of a Member recently deceased (Mr. George F. Brumm, of Pennsylvania), Mr. McLean asked Speaker Henry T. Rainey, of Illinois, if the signature of the deceased was valid. The following colloquy then took place:

14. 78 CONG. REC. 10159, 73d Cong. 2d Sess. In the 72d and 73d Congresses, only 145 signatures were required. See 7 Cannon's Precedents § 1007.

MR. MCLEAN: I understand that one of the signers was that of the late Representative Brumm, of Pennsylvania, who died a few days ago. There is a question as to the effectiveness of his signature, and the question of the effectiveness of his signature is proper for consideration at this time.

THE SPEAKER: Under the rule no signature can be withdrawn except by the Member himself.

MR. MCLEAN: Does the Chair rule that the signature of Mr. Brumm must stand?

THE SPEAKER: The signature can only be removed by the Member, by Mr. Brumm himself, as a Representative of the Thirteenth District of Pennsylvania. When his successor is elected, in all probability his successor would have that right.

MR. MCLEAN: Then, Mr. Speaker, I understand that without my signature the petition is effective?

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman is correct, 145 names being now properly on it.

§ 1.5 Where a motion to discharge a committee had been signed by a former Member, his successor, desiring to sign his own name, by unanimous consent had his predecessor's name removed.

On Jan. 16, 1950,<sup>(15)</sup> the following colloquy occurred:

15. 96 CONG. REC. 436, 81st Cong. 2d Sess. For further examples, see: 94

MR. [JOHN F.] SHELLEY [of California]: Mr. Speaker, my predecessor, the Honorable Richard J. Welch, signed Discharge Petition No. 15. I desire to have my name entered on this petition. I ask unanimous consent that his name be taken off the petition so that I may sign it.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(16)</sup> Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

Parliamentarian's Note: Under the current practice, a Member elected to fill a vacancy may remove the name of his predecessor in order to affix his own name.

§ 1.6 Where the name of a Member has been inadvertently removed from a discharge petition as printed in the Record, it may again be placed thereon by unanimous consent.

On Apr. 18, 1946,<sup>(17)</sup> Mr. Lyndon B. Johnson, of Texas, propounded a unanimous-consent request:

Mr. Speaker, in the Record of yesterday, April 17, the Members who signed

The Journal clerk has informed me that through some error at the desk my name was eliminated. I ask unanimous consent that my name be restored to the petition and be printed in the permanent Record.

There was no objection to the request.

Examination of Petition

§ 1.7 While a Member has the right to examine a discharge petition, he does not have the right to read to the House the names signed on such petition.

On Mar. 15, 1946,<sup>(18)</sup> a point of order was raised against the request of Mr. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, that the Clerk provide him with a discharge petition on the Clerk's desk:

MR. [JOHN J.] COCHRAN [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(19)</sup> The gentleman will state it.

MR. COCHRAN: As I understand the rules of the House, it is not permissible to give out anything contained in a petition on the Clerk's desk until the petition has the required number of signers. Then it automatically is printed in the Record with the signatures thereon.

THE SPEAKER: It is certainly a violation of the rules to do that.

MR. RANKIN: I have not given out anything. Do not get excited. I merely asked for the petition. I have a right to look at it, as a Member of the House.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman has the right to look at it but he does not have the right to read any of the names on the petition.

Parliamentarian's Note: Only Members may examine the petition in the custody of the Journal clerk, while the House is in session, and they may not reveal the names of Members who have signed or not signed.

Withdrawal of Petition

§ 1.8 By unanimous consent, a discharge petition filed with the Clerk has been withdrawn.

On Mar. 28, 1939,<sup>(20)</sup> Mr. Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York, asked for unanimous consent to withdraw a motion to discharge the Committee on Rules filed with the Clerk on a previous day. There was no objection to the request.

§ 1.9 Motions to discharge committees are placed on the

On Apr. 30, 1936,<sup>(21)</sup> Mr. Gerald J. Boileau, of Wisconsin, propounded a parliamentary inquiry as follows:

MR. BOILEAU: I am advised by the Clerk that 218 Members have signed the petition to discharge the Rules Committee from further consideration of the resolution bringing up the Frazier-Lemke bill for consideration on the floor. May I ask the Speaker whether or not the petition is now completed and the matter on the calendar?

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(22)</sup> The motion is now on the calendar under the rules of the House.

Effect of Inter-session Adjournment

§ 1.10 A discharge petition on the Clerk's desk awaiting signatures carries over from session to session in the same Congress.

ing of the second session of the current Congress, Mr. John H. Folger, of North Carolina, addressed an inquiry to the Chair as follows:

MR. FOLGER: I have a discharge petition on the desk, No. 10, in which I am very, very much interested. I have no objection to this adjournment until the 14th [of January, 1946] unless I have to go back and get that signed anew. Will that carry over?

THE SPEAKER: <sup>(3)</sup> It will carry over.

MR. FOLGER: If it will I am all right.

THE SPEAKER: Everything remains on the calendar just as it is now.

Bills Reported After Motion Has Been Placed on Calendar

§ 1.11 The motion to discharge a committee from the further consideration of a bill does not apply to a bill that has been reported by a committee during the interval between the placing of the motion to discharge on the calendar and the day when such motion is called up for action in the House.

On Aug. 5, 1949,<sup>(4)</sup> the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service reported a bill<sup>(5)</sup> thus ren-

Parliamentarian's Note: A motion to discharge the Committee on Rules from further consideration of a resolution<sup>(7)</sup> making this bill a special order of business was subsequently signed by the requisite number of Members.<sup>(8)</sup> This resolution was reported by the Committee on Rules on Sept. 27, 1949,<sup>(9)</sup> before the motion could be called up for action in the House.

day” rule, which was in effect in the 89th Congress, whereby resolutions pending before the Committee on Rules could be called up for consideration, on discharge calendar days, was held to be unrelated to the motion to discharge under Rule XXVII.

On Sept. 13, 1965,<sup>(10)</sup> after a House Resolution<sup>(11)</sup> was called up pursuant to Rule XI clause 23 (the 21-day rule), a point of order was raised by Mr. Durward G. Hall, of Missouri:

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order against the consideration of this bill by the House based on clause 4 of rule 27, the last line in section 908, the second paragraph, says:

Recognition for the motions shall be in the order in which they have been entered on the Journal.

Responding to the point of order, the Speaker<sup>(12)</sup> said:

The Chair will state that the gentleman is talking about an entirely different rule than is the situation now.

The Chair would advise the gentleman from Missouri that the House is operating under Rule XI clause 23.

12. John W. McCormack (Mass.).

Validity of Committee Report as Affecting Eligibility for Discharge

§ 1.13 Where the House had laid on the table a resolution presented as a question involving the privileges of the House challenging the validity of a committee’s action in reporting a bill, the Chair overruled a point of order that the bill was not properly before the House because it had not been read in committee prior to reporting. The discharge rule does not apply to a bill that has been reported by a committee during the interval between the placing of a completed motion to discharge on the calendar and the day when such motion is called up in the House.

On Apr. 23, 1934,<sup>(13)</sup> the Committee on Banking and Currency reported a bill, H.R. 7908,<sup>(14)</sup> for

13. 78 CONG. REC. 7151–61, 73d Cong. 2d Sess.
14. The bill concerned payments of assets in closed banks.

The Committee on Banking and Currency had first reported this bill on Apr. 12. The motion to discharge the committee received the requisite number of signatures on Apr. 13. On Apr. 20, by direction of the Speaker, the Committee of the Whole House which a motion to discharge was pending on the Calendar of Motions to Discharge Committees. Despite the reporting of the measure by the Committee on Banking and Currency, Mr. Clarence J. McLeod, of Michigan, attempted to call up the motion to discharge the committee on H.R. 7908. It developed in the debate that Mr. McLeod and Mr. Jesse P. Wolcott, of Michigan, viewed the reporting of the bill by the committee as void ab initio on the grounds that the committee ordered the reporting of the measure at a time when it sat during a session of the House without the permission of the House and also because the measure reported was not read before the committee. In fact, argued the proponents of the discharge motion, the bill that was reported by the committee was a committee substitute, the text of the bill H.R. 9175, which the committee had inserted after striking on the state of the Union was discharged from further consideration of the bill; the Speaker held that the purported report on said bill was invalid in that the Committee on Banking and Currency had ordered the report made while the House was in session and that therefore the bill was still with the committee. The bill was again reported by the Committee on Banking and Currency on Apr. 23, as indicated above.

all after the enacting clause of the original bill which had been the subject of the discharge petition signed by the requisite number of Members.<sup>(15)</sup>

After the Speaker<sup>(16)</sup> sustained a point of order against the calling up of the motion to discharge the committee, on the basis that "inasmuch as the Committee on Banking and Currency has reported the bill, that the effect of that action nullifies the motion to discharge and makes it inoperative,"<sup>(17)</sup> Mr. Carroll L. Beedy, of Maine, raised a point of order against the bill as reported by the committee because it had never been read for amendment in the committee and was, he argued, not regularly before the House. Mr. Beedy stated:

Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that the amendment to the McLeod bill, so called, was not introduced in the House until the 17th of April subsequent to the time when any bill of the kind was ever read for amendment in the committee. This fact is undenied.

The bill that was reported never was read for amendment in the committee.

- 15. At that time, only 145 signatures were required on a discharge petition. Rule XXVII clause 4, House rules (1934).
  - 16. Henry T. Rainey (Ill.).
  - 17. 78 CONG. REC. 7161, 73d Cong. 2d Sess., Apr. 23, 1934.

It is not legally or validly upon the calendar of the House. While the decision of the Chair well presents the fact, assuming that the bill were legally before the House, the Chair has not touched upon the question as to whether it may be in order to call up the discharge rule if the bill attempted to be reported by the committee concerned was not regularly before the House, not having been considered according to the rules of the House.

Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order, therefore, that the bill alleged to have been reported is not legally reported, is in violation of the rules of the House and of the committees of the House, and has no valid standing in the House.

In overruling the point of order, the Speaker advised that he had no knowledge as to what had occurred in committee, stating:

THE SPEAKER: The House passed on that question a few moments ago in a resolution raising the question of the privileges of the House, and passed upon the question adversely to the position taken by the gentleman from Maine.

The Chair has no information as to what occurred in the committee. The only thing the Chair knows is that the McLeod bill, bearing the number it has always borne and with the same title, and with some amendments in which the Chair is not interested, has been reported out, is on the calendar, and can be taken up under the general rules of the House when an opportunity presents itself.

The Chair overrules the point of order.<sup>(18)</sup>

18. Id.

An appeal from the Speaker's ruling was laid on the table.<sup>(19)</sup>

Parliamentarian's Note: The point of order in the preceding precedent is probably based upon § 412 of Jefferson's Manual, which had been mentioned earlier in the debate as requiring a reading for amendment of a bill in committee.

Immediately prior to the calling up of the motion to discharge, the validity of the actions taken by the Committee on Banking and Currency leading up to the reporting of the bill on Apr. 23 had been called to the attention of the House. Mr. Beedy had submitted as a question of the privileges of the House a resolution, H. Res. 349, questioning whether the House should receive the report. The resolution stated certain events which occurred in the committee on Apr. 21 which were not in accordance with the rules of the House. Mr. John E. Rankin (Miss.) had made a point of order that the resolution did not present a question of the privileges of the House. Mr. Thomas L. Blanton (Tex.) made the further point of order that the resolution was an attempt to impeach the actions of the committee. The Speaker held that the resolution did present a question of privilege. The resolution was then laid on the table without debate.

may not be discharged from the further consideration of a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee to investigate.

On Apr. 23, 1934,<sup>(3)</sup> Speaker Henry T. Rainey, of Illinois, responded to a parliamentary inquiry relating to the applicability of the discharge rule to certain types of resolutions, described below, under consideration in the Committee on Rules. Finding that the language of the discharge rule,<sup>(4)</sup> which was specific in nature, did not expressly permit motions to discharge the Committee on Rules from consideration of the kind of resolution in question, the Speaker indicated such a motion would not be in order. The proceedings were as follows:

MR. [OSCAR] DE PRIEST [of Illinois]: . . . On the 24th day of January I filed a resolution in the House. At the expiration of 30 legislative days I prepared a petition to discharge the committee, and laid it on the desk. I subsequently received the necessary 145 signatures on the 23d day of March. After that the Committee on Rules reported the bill out favorably, and I am glad they did. Under the ruling of the Chair today, if my interpretation is correct, it is impossible to call up this resolution on the Discharge Calendar? . . .

3. 78 CONG. REC. 7161-63, 73d Cong. 2d Sess.

4. See Rule XXVII clause 4, House Rules and Manual §908 (1979).

MR. [JOHN J.] O'CONNOR [of New York]: . . . The gentlemen from Illinois [Mr. De Priest] introduced a resolution which was referred to the Rules Committee. It could not have been first referred to any other committee, because that resolution provided for the setting up of a special committee to investigate a certain alleged situation in connection with the conduct of the House restaurant. While his resolution was pending in the Rules Committee, the gentleman filed a petition to discharge that committee, and obtained the necessary 145 signatures. Thereafter the Rules Committee favorably reported the resolution to the House. . . .

Under the rules the Rules Committee can only be discharged from consideration of either a "special order of business or a special rule for the consideration of any public bill or resolution reported by a committee." The gentleman's resolution was a mere "House resolution", which he could not have brought up on a "discharge day". . . .

THE SPEAKER: The Chair is ready to answer the parliamentary inquiry submitted by the gentleman from Illinois.

The resolution introduced by the gentleman from Illinois reads:

That a committee of five Members of the House be appointed by the Speaker to investigate by what authority the Committee on Accounts controls and manages the conduct of the House restaurant and by what authority said committee or any members thereof issued and enforced rules or instructions whereby any citizen of the United States is discriminated against on account of race, color, or creed in said House restaurant—

And so forth. The discharge rule we are considering this morning provides very specifically, as follows:

Under this rule it shall also be in order for a Member to file a motion to discharge the Committee on Rules from further consideration of any resolution providing either a special order of business, or a special rule for the consideration of any public bill or resolution favorably reported by a standing committee, or a special rule for the consideration of a public bill or resolution which has remained in a standing committee 30 or more days without action.

The gentleman's resolution which the Chair has just read does not provide for a special order of business or a special rule for the consideration of any public bill or resolution favorably reported by a standing committee or a special rule for the consideration of a public bill or resolution, which has remained in a standing committee 30 or more days without action, and, therefore, a motion to discharge the Committee on Rules will not lie, in the judgment of the Chair, under the discharge rule.

Following some debate, the motion was agreed to—yeas 228, nays 100.

§ 3. Calling Up Motion; Debate

Pursuant to the provisions of the rule,<sup>(7)</sup> a motion to discharge which has been on the calendar at least seven days<sup>(8)</sup> may be called up by a signatory thereof<sup>(9)</sup> for consideration on the second and fourth Mondays of each month<sup>(10)</sup> except during the last six days of any session of Congress.<sup>(11)</sup> Of course, the House may by unanimous consent make the consideration of such motions in order on another day.<sup>(12)</sup>

Expiration of Seven Legislative Days

§ 3.1 Motions to discharge committees may be called up only after seven legislative days have expired since the time the motion was placed on the calendar.

On Friday, Dec. 10, 1937,<sup>(16)</sup> Mr. Sam Rayburn, of Texas, propounded the following parliamentary inquiry:

MR. RAYBURN: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

The Speaker:<sup>(17)</sup> The gentleman will state it.

MR. RAYBURN: Several Members during the last day or two have been asking me with reference to the discharge petition which was signed up last week whether if we adjourn over tomorrow a sufficient number of legislative days will have intervened to make the wage-hour bill in order on Monday. I ask the Speaker if that is the fact?

THE SPEAKER: In reply to the inquiry of the gentleman from Texas, and in order to avoid confusion about a proper decision of this question if it should arise, the Chair quotes the following excerpt from the discharge rule:

When a majority of the total membership of the House shall have signed the motion it shall be entered on the Journal, printed with the signatures thereto in the Congressional Record, and referred to the Calendar of Motions to Discharge Committees.

On the second and fourth Mondays of each month, except during the last 6 days of any session of Congress, immediately after the approval of the Journal, any Member who has signed a motion to discharge which has been on the calendar at least 7 days prior thereto, and seeks recognition, shall be recognized for the purpose of calling up the motion; and the House shall proceed to its consideration in the manner herein provided without intervening motion except one motion to adjourn.

The petition to discharge the Committee on Rules from consideration of the rule involving the wage and hour bill was signed on December 2 [the preceding Thursday] by 218 Members of the House and immediately was referred to the Calendar of Motions to Discharge Committees under the rule the Chair has just read.

In answer to the inquiry of the gentleman from Texas the Chair holds that without any session of the House of Representatives tomorrow the 7 legislative days necessary in order to make this matter in order on Monday next will have expired, and there is no question in the mind of the Chair that the rule will have been complied with if we do not meet tomorrow. If that question should be raised on Monday next, the Chair would so hold.

Second and Fourth Mondays

§ 3.2 Motions to discharge committees may be called up on the second or fourth Monday of any month after they have been on the calendar for seven legislative days, and if they are not called up on the first eligible Monday they may be called up on any subsequent second or fourth Monday of a month.

On Dec. 18, 1937,<sup>(18)</sup> the following parliamentary inquiry was raised:

MR. [SAMUEL B.] PETTENGILL [of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(19)</sup> The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. PETTENGILL: Directing the Chair's attention to the Ludlow petition which now may be called up on the second Monday of next month, if it fails to be called up on that day, would it retain its privileged status on a subsequent second or fourth Monday?

18. 82 CONG. REC. 1847, 75th Cong. 2d Sess. For an additional example see 90 CONG. REC. 9, 78th Cong. 2d Sess., Jan. 10, 1944.

19. William B. Bankhead (Ala.).

THE SPEAKER: The status of the matter is that it is on the calendar of motions to discharge committees. If not called up on the first date on which it would be entitled to be called up, it remains on the calendar subject to further call on the second or fourth Mondays of a month.

Call of Motion on Last Six Days of Session

§ 3.3 A motion to discharge a committee cannot be called up during the last six days of a session.

On July 29, 1954,<sup>(20)</sup> the following parliamentary inquiry was raised:

MR. [HAROLD C.] HAGEN of Minnesota: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(1)</sup> The gentleman will state it.

MR. HAGEN of Minnesota: Mr. Speaker, the inquiry is with reference to paragraph 908 of the rules of the House relative to a motion to discharge a committee. My question is, Is it possible during the last 6 days of the session after a motion to recess or adjourn sine die has been adopted by both Houses, to call up the bill H.R. 9245, the postal-pay bill, under the rules of the House?

THE SPEAKER: In response to the parliamentary inquiry of the gentleman, the Chair invites attention to the second paragraph of clause 4 of rule XXVII, which contains the following statement:

20. 100 CONG. REC. 12562, 83d Cong. 2d Sess.

1. Joseph W. Martin, Jr. (Mass.).

On the second and fourth Mondays of each month, except during the last 6 days of any session of Congress, immediately after the approval of the Journal, any Member who has signed a motion to discharge which has been on the calendar at least 7 days prior thereto, and seeks recognition, shall be recognized for the purpose of calling it up.

It seems perfectly clear to the Chair that the meaning of the rule is that when a motion has been on the calendar 7 legislative days a Member who signed the motion can call it up on the second or the fourth Monday, except when the second or fourth Monday comes during the last 6 days of a session. The exception then means that during the last 6 days of a session the motion cannot be called up at all.

Precedence of Motion Over Unfinished Business

§ 3.4 A motion to discharge which has been on the Discharge Calendar for seven legislative days may be of higher privilege for consideration on the second and fourth Mondays of the month than unfinished business from a preceding day.

On May 8, 1936,<sup>(2)</sup> during proceedings incident to the consideration of the unanimous-consent request of Mr. William B. Bankhead, of Alabama, that the House adjourn until the following Monday, Mr. Gerald J. Boileau, of Wisconsin, reserving the right to object, addressed an inquiry to the Chair.

MR. BOILEAU: . . . [W]ill the Speaker make the situation clear with reference to the legislative program for Monday?

As I understand it, it will be in order before we complete this bill<sup>(3)</sup> to take up the question of the discharge of the Rules Committee from further consideration of the Frazier-Lemke bill. I would like to ask the Speaker if my understanding is correct, if consideration of the discharge petition would come up before the vote on this bill?

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(4)</sup> The Chair thinks it would unless there is a previous understanding. The matter of which shall take precedence can be fixed by consent.

Calling Up By Unanimous Consent

§ 3.5 By unanimous consent, a motion to discharge, which under Rule XXVII clause 4 would be eligible to be called up on a Monday, was made in order on a Wednesday.

On June 8, 1960,<sup>(5)</sup> Mr. John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts,

4. Joseph W. Byrns (Tenn.).

5. 106 CONG. REC. 12120, 86th Cong. 2d Sess.

asked unanimous consent that motions in order under the discharge rule on the following Monday be postponed until the following Wednesday at which time they would be the first order of business. There was no objection to the gentleman's request.

Who May Call Up Motion

§ 3.6 A Member who calls up a motion to discharge must qualify as having signed the discharge petition.

On Aug. 10, 1970,<sup>(6)</sup> subsequent to the calling up, pursuant to Rule XXVII clause 4, by Mrs. Martha W. Griffiths, of Michigan, of a motion to discharge the Committee on the Judiciary from the further consideration of a House joint resolution,<sup>(7)</sup> the Speaker<sup>(8)</sup> sought to determine whether Mrs. Griffiths was in fact eligible to call up the motion:

THE SPEAKER: Did the gentlewoman sign the motion?

MRS. GRIFFITHS: Yes, Mr. Speaker, I signed the motion.

8. John W. McCormack (Mass.).

THE SPEAKER: The gentlewoman qualifies.

On Aug. 10, 1970,<sup>(17)</sup> during proceedings incident to the House's consideration of a motion called up, pursuant to Rule XXVII clause 4, by Mrs. Martha W. THE SPEAKER:<sup>(19)</sup> The gentleman's statement is correct that the rule provides for 20 minutes of debate, 10 minutes on each side. If the gentleman from New York (Mr. Celler) is opposed to the motion, the Chair will recognize him for 10 minutes.

On Nov. 8, 1971,<sup>(13)</sup> following the adoption by the House of a motion<sup>(14)</sup> offered by Mr. Chalmers P. Wylie, of Ohio, to discharge the Committee on the Judiciary from further consideration of a House joint resolution,<sup>(15)</sup> Mr. Wylie moved, pursuant to Rule XXVII clause 4, that the House proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution. Thereupon, without debate, the motion was considered and agreed to.

Consideration of Discharged Measure in Committee of the Whole

§ 4.4 After the agreement by the House to a motion to discharge a bill from a committee, the Speaker entertains a motion to go into the Committee of the Whole for the consideration of the bill if the bill requires such consideration under the general rules of the House.

On Apr. 26, 1948,<sup>(16)</sup> following the agreement by the House to a motion to discharge the Committee on Agriculture from further consideration of a bill,<sup>(17)</sup> the Speaker<sup>(18)</sup> made an announcement to the House:

On Apr. 26, 1948,<sup>(19)</sup> Mr. L. Mendel Rivers, of South Carolina, called up a motion to discharge the Committee on Agriculture from the further consideration of a bill. Referral of Discharged Bills

§ 4.7 Where a committee is discharged from the further consideration of a bill and no motion is made providing for the immediate consideration of such bill, the Speaker refers the bill to its appropriate calendar.

On Jan. 13, 1936,<sup>(25)</sup> following the agreement by the House to a motion to discharge the Committee on Ways and Means from the further consideration of a bill,<sup>(26)</sup> Mr. Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York, propounded a parliamentary inquiry:

MR. FISH: Under the rule, when a committee is discharged from the consideration of a bill, does not the bill automatically come up for consideration in the House?

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(1)</sup> It does not, except on motion of a Member who signed the discharge petition.

The bill will be referred to the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union and ordered to be printed.

§ 5. Discharge of Vetoed Bills, Other Questions Privileged Under the Constitution, Resolutions of Inquiry, and Reorganization Plans

The Constitution<sup>(2)</sup> provides that when the President returns a bill to the House in which it originated, with his objections, that House shall proceed to reconsider it and determine whether the bill shall be again passed, the objections of the President to the contrary notwithstanding. Under this provision, it has been held that a motion to discharge a committee from the further consideration of a vetoed bill so returned to the House presents a question of constitutional privilege and is, therefore, in order at any time.<sup>(3)</sup> While the ordinary motion to discharge a committee from consideration of an unprivileged legislative proposition is not privileged,<sup>(4)</sup> it is in order to move to discharge a committee from consideration of a proposition referred through the hopper, involving a question of constitutional privilege such as the right of a Member to his seat, the punishment of a Member, or an impeachment resolution,<sup>(5)</sup> notwithstanding the availability of the discharge petition under Rule XXVII clause 4;<sup>(6)</sup> the rationale being that matters properly involving questions of the privileges of the House retain their privilege and may be reached by use of a motion to discharge even though referred through the hopper.

Rule XXII clause 5<sup>(7)</sup> provides that all resolutions of inquiry shall be reported to the House within one week after presentation. Pursuant to the rule, committees are required to report resolutions of inquiry back to the House within one week of the reference, and this weeks time has been construed to be seven legislative days. If a committee refuses or neglects to report the resolution back, the House may reach the resolution only by a motion to discharge the committee from the resolutions further consideration. A privileged status is accorded the motion to discharge in cases of resolutions of inquiry.<sup>(8)</sup> The privileged status of the motion does not obtain, however, where the resolution of inquiry has sought opinions, not facts, as required under the rule.<sup>(9)</sup>

Prior to the amendments adopted in 1977 to the Reorganization Act, reorganization plans submitted by the President were subject to discharge from committee pursuant to the statute in existence at that time.<sup>(10)</sup> A resolution with respect to a reorganization plan could be discharged from the committee to which it had been referred under the provisions of 5 USC §911(a) if the committee had not reported it at the end of 20 calendar days after its introduction. However, a motion to discharge could be made only by an individual favoring the resolution.<sup>(11)</sup> Debate on the motion was limited to not more than one hour, to be divided equally between those favoring and those opposing the resolution.<sup>(12)</sup>

Discharging Vetoed Bills

§ 5.1 A motion to discharge a committee from the consideration of a vetoed bill, while presenting a question of constitutional privilege, is subject to the motion to lay on the table.

On Sept. 7, 1965,<sup>(13)</sup> during proceedings incident to the consideration of a motion raised as a question of constitutional privilege by Mr. Durward G. Hall, of Missouri, which sought to discharge the Committee on Armed Services from further consideration of a vetoed bill,<sup>(14)</sup> the following parliamentary inquiry was raised:

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of the highest privilege of the House, based directly on the Constitution and precedents, and offer a motion.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE<sup>(15)</sup> The Clerk will report the motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Motion by Mr. Hall:

Resolved, That the Committee on Armed Services be discharged from further consideration of the bill H.R. 8439, for military construction, with the President's veto thereon, and that the same be now considered.

MR. L. MENDEL RIVERS of South Carolina: Mr. Speaker, I move to lay that motion on the table. . . .

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HALL: The question is on the motion of the gentleman from South Carolina [Mr. Rivers] to table my motion, which is highly privileged?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman is correct.

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HALL: Is a highly privileged motion according to the Constitution subject to a motion to table?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: It is.

Subsequently, the motion to table was agreed to.

Discharging Resolutions of Inquiry

§ 5.2 A motion to discharge a committee from consideration of a resolution of inquiry is privileged (under Rule XXII clause 5) after the resolution has been pending before the committee for seven legislative days.

On Aug. 2, 1971,<sup>(16)</sup> Mr. James M. Collins, of Texas, moved to discharge the Committee on Education and Labor from the further consideration of a resolution of inquiry<sup>(17)</sup> directing the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare to furnish the House with certain documents. The resolution of inquiry had been pending before that committee at least seven legislative days without action thereon. The resolution was read to the House; whereupon, without debate, the question on the motion to discharge was taken; the motion was agreed to—yeas 252, nays 129, not voting 52.

REC. 1755, 81st Cong. 2d Sess., Feb. 9, 1950, where Speaker Sam Rayburn (Tex.), informed the House that if a committee to which a resolution of inquiry had been referred did not report the resolution within seven legislative days, the Member who had introduced the resolution could call it up for consideration as a matter of privilege.

17. H. Res. 539.

the resolution is not privileged because it calls upon the head of an executive department to furnish the House with a statement of opinion and not merely factual information.

On July 7, 1971,<sup>(18)</sup> Ms. Bella S. Abzug, of New York, moved to discharge the Committee on Armed Services from further consideration of a resolution of inquiry:

H. RES. 491

Resolved, That the President, the Secretary of State, Secretary of Defense, and the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency be, and they are hereby, directed to furnish the House of Representatives within fifteen days after the adoption of this resolution with full and complete information on the following—the history and rationale for United States involvement in South Vietnam since the completion of the study entitled "United States—Vietnam Relationships, 1945–1967", prepared by the Vietnam Task Force, Office of the Secretary of Defense; the known existing plans for residual force of the United States Armed Forces in South Vietnam;

the nature and capacity of the government of the Republic of Vietnam, including but not limited to analyses of their past and present military capabilities, their capacity for military and economic self-sufficiency including but not limited to analyses of the political base of the Republic, the scope, if any, of governmental malfunction and corruption, the depth of popular support and procedures for dealing with non-support; including but not limited to known existing studies of the economy of the Republic of South Vietnam and the internal workings of the government of the Republic of South Vietnam;

18. 117 CONG. REC. 23810, 23811, 92d Cong. 1st Sess.

the plans and procedures, both on the part of the Republic of South Vietnam and the United States Government for the November 1971 elections in the Republic of South Vietnam, including but not limited to analyses of the United States involvement, covert or not, in said elections.

A point of order was made by Mr. F. Edward Hébert, of Louisiana, asserting that the resolution was not privileged because it sought opinions, not facts as required under the rule.<sup>(19)</sup> In his ruling sustaining the point of order, the Speaker<sup>(20)</sup> stated:

THE SPEAKER: . . . The gentlewoman from New York has moved to discharge the Committee on Armed Services from further consideration of the resolution, House Resolution 491. The gentlewoman has furnished the Chair a copy of the resolution, and the Chair appreciates that fact, since it gives an opportunity to the Chair to examine the resolution prior to ruling on the point of order.

19. Rule XXII clause 5, House Rules and Manual §§ 855, 857 (1979).

20. Carl Albert (Okla.).

The resolution under consideration has not been reported by the committee to which it has been referred.

Clause 5 of rule XXII provides that:

All resolutions of inquiry addressed to the heads of executive departments shall be reported to the House within one week after presentation.

The gentleman from Louisiana makes a point of order against the motion to discharge on the ground that the resolution is not privileged under the rule because it calls for opinions in addition to factual information.

It has been consistently held that to retain the privilege under the rule, resolutions of inquiry must call for facts rather than opinions—Cannon's precedents, volume VI page 413 and pages 418 to 432. Speaker Longworth, on February 11, 1926, held that a resolution inquiring for such facts as would inevitably require the statement of an opinion to answer such inquiry was not privileged—Record, page 3800.

Among other requests, House Resolution 491 calls for the furnishing of one, the "rationale" for U.S. involvement in South Vietnam since the completion of the study; two, the nature and "capacity" of the Government of the Republic of Vietnam, including "analyses" of their military "capabilities"; their capacity for self-sufficiency which would include analyses of the Government's political base, the scope of malfunction and corruption, the depth of popular support; and three, analyses of U.S. involvement in 1971 elections in South Vietnam.

In at least these particulars, executive officials are called upon—not for facts—but to furnish conclusions, which must be, essentially, statements of opinion.

The Chair therefore holds that House Resolution 491 is not a privileged resolution within the meaning of clause 5, rule XXII, and that the motion to discharge the Committee on Armed Services from its further consideration is not in order.

An appeal from the ruling of the Chair made by Ms. Abzug was laid on the table.

Debate on Resolutions of Inquiry

§ 5.4 A resolution of inquiry is normally debatable in the House under the hour rule; but when a motion to discharge a committee from further consideration of a resolution of inquiry has been agreed to and the previous question has been ordered on the resolution without intervening debate, the Speaker may invoke the 40-minute rule (Rule XXVII clause 3) allotting 20 minutes each to those supporting and opposing the resolution.

On Aug. 2, 1971,<sup>(1)</sup> the previous question was ordered without debate on a resolution of inquiry<sup>(2)</sup>

MR. O'NEILL: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry: In view of the fact that there was no debate on this, is a Member entitled to 20 minutes if he asks for time?

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(3)</sup> He is.

MR. O'NEILL: Mr. Speaker, I am asking for the 20 minutes. I have some questions I would like to ask on this and have the chairman of the Committee on Education and Labor explain it.

MR. [DURWARD G.] HALL [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, has not the previous question been moved and accepted?

THE SPEAKER: Yes, it has.

MR. O'NEILL: Mr. Speaker, I was on my feet seeking recognition.

MR. HALL: Regular order, Mr. Speaker.

THE SPEAKER: Inasmuch as there has been no debate on the resolution, the 40-minute rule applies, 20 minutes to each side. The gentleman from Texas is entitled to 20 minutes and the gentleman from Massachusetts is entitled to 20 minutes.

Debate incident to the consideration of the resolution ensued, at the conclusion of which the resolution was agreed to. A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

§ 5.5 Pursuant to the provisions of 5 USC §911 (1970 ed.), a motion to discharge a committee from further consideration of a resolution with respect to a reorganization plan could be made only by a Member favoring the resolution.

On Aug. 3, 1961,<sup>(4)</sup> the following proceedings occurred:

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, I offer a privileged motion dealing with Reorganization Plan No. 6.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(5)</sup> The Clerk will report the motion.

The amendments to the Reorganization Act in the 95th Congress (Pub. L. No. 95-17) removed the concept of the motion to discharge from the act. THE SPEAKER: Is the gentleman in favor of the resolution?

MR. GROSS: Mr. Speaker, I am in favor of the disapproving resolution, yes.

Debate on Discharging Reorganization Plans

§ 5.6 Debate on a motion to discharge a committee from further consideration of a resolution disapproving a reorganization plan was limited to one hour (5 USC §911) and was equally divided between the Member making the motion and a Member opposed thereto.

On Aug. 3, 1961,<sup>(6)</sup> during proceedings incident to a motion offered by Mr. H. R. Gross, of Iowa, to discharge the Committee on Government Operations from further consideration of a resolution<sup>(7)</sup> disapproving a reorganization plan, the Speaker<sup>(8)</sup> divided the one hour permitted by statute<sup>(9)</sup> for debate on such motions equally between Mr. Gross, the

§ 5.7 Debate on a motion to discharge a committee from further consideration of a resolution disapproving a reorganization plan was, by unanimous consent, extended from one to two hours, to be controlled and divided by the proponent of the motion and a Member designated by the Speaker.

On July 18, 1961,<sup>(10)</sup> a unanimous-consent request was made to the House:

MR. [JOHN W.] McCORMACK [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that in the event a motion is made to discharge the Committee on Government Operations on the resolution disapproving Reorganization Plan No. 7, that the time for debate be extended from 1 hour to 2 hours, one-half to be controlled by the proponent of the motion and one-half by a Member designated by the Speaker.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(11)</sup> Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Massachusetts?

10. 107 CONG. REC. 12774, 87th Cong. 1st Sess.

11. Sam Rayburn (Tex.).

There was no objection.

On July 20, 1961,<sup>(12)</sup> the proponent and opponent of a resolution disapproving of a reorganization plan were, pursuant to this unanimous-consent agreement, each recognized for one hour on the motion to discharge.

Discharging Reorganization Plans by Unanimous Consent

§ 5.8 By unanimous consent, the House agreed to a motion that a select committee be discharged from further consideration of a concurrent resolution disapproving a reorganization plan.

On May 7, 1940,<sup>(13)</sup> the following proceedings transpired:

MR. [CLARENCE F.] LEA [of California]: Mr. Speaker, I move to discharge the Select Committee on Government Organization from further consideration of House Concurrent Resolution 60.

From the beginning of the 73d Congress through the end of the 96th (a period of 47 years), 411 motions to discharge committees have been filed. In that time, two bills have become law through the use of the complete discharge process: S. 2475, Public Law No. 75-718 (Labor Standards, Wages and House); and H.R. 9883, Public Law No. 86-586 (Federal Employees Pay Bill). The latter bill, which was vetoed, became law when Congress overrode the veto on July 1, 1960. The following is a further numerical analysis of the outcome of proceedings related to the 411 motions to discharge committees referred to above:

35 motions received a sufficient number of signatures for discharge.<sup>(1)</sup>

18 motions that were fully signed were agreed to.

1 motion failed when called up.

2 bills were defeated on passage in the House.

1 bill was recommitted after adoption of the motion to discharge and the resolution providing for consideration of the bill.

3 bills passed the House but were not reported in the Senate.

8 bills passed to the stage of being reported in the Senate.

1 simple resolution was agreed to after discharge of the committee.

3 bills (all of which became law) and one resolution were reported after discharge petitions were fully signed, but the motions to discharge in these instances were not called up.

1 bill was reported after the discharge motion was filed but before the motion was eligible to be called up; the bill passed the House under suspension of the rules, but the proceedings were subsequently vacated and a Senate bill passed in lieu of the House bill.

2 bills, as noted above, became law through use of the complete discharge procedure.

1. The number of signatures required has normally been 218, except that 219 were required in the 86th and 87th Congresses, and 145 were required in the 73d Congress.

A. IN GENERAL

§ 1. Jurisdiction; House as in Committee of the Whole Distinguished

This chapter deals with the practice and procedure followed by the House when it resolves itself into the Committee of the Whole.<sup>(1)</sup> Discussed elsewhere are the requirements of a quorum in the Committee of the Whole,<sup>(2)</sup> procedures for acting on amendments in Committee of the Whole, including amendments to a concurrent resolution on the budget,<sup>(3)</sup> consideration and debate in

1. For pre-1936 precedents: see 4 Hinds' Precedents §§ 4704–4791 and 8 Cannon's Precedents §§ 2318–2380 for precedents relating to the Committee of the Whole; 4 Hinds' Precedents §§ 4792–4868 and 8 Cannon's Precedents §§ 2381–2416, relating to subjects requiring consideration in the Committee of the Whole; 4 Hinds' Precedents §§ 4869–4922 and 8 Cannon's Precedents §§ 2417–2430 relating to reports from the Committee of the Whole.

3. See Ch. 27, infra as to amendments, generally. For procedures relating to resolutions on the budget, see Ch. 13, supra.

Committee of the Whole,<sup>(4)</sup> and voting in Committee of the Whole.<sup>(5)</sup>

The term Committee of the Whole technically applies to two Committees, the Committee of the Whole House, which formerly considered business on the Private Calendar, and the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, which considers business on the Union Calendar [that is, public bills].<sup>(6)</sup> There was little difference in the work of the two Committees except in the character of bills considered.<sup>(7)</sup> Since 1935,<sup>(8)</sup> bills on the Private Calendar have been considered in the House as in Committee of the Whole, not, strictly speaking, in the Committee of the Whole.

When the House sits as in Committee of the Whole, it does not actually resolve into the Committee; it sits “as in” Committee of the Whole to allow consideration of bills under the five-minute rule without general debate.<sup>(9)</sup> This practice is permitted for the consideration of public bills by unanimous consent or by special order from the Committee on Rules.<sup>(10)</sup>

Because the Committee of the Whole House for the consideration of private bills is no longer of practical application, the term “Committee of the Whole” is used in this chapter to refer to the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union unless otherwise indicated.

Rule XXIII clause 3<sup>(11)</sup> provides that, “All motions or propositions involving a tax or charge upon the people, all proceedings touching appropriations of money, or bills making appropriations of money or property, or requiring such appropriation to be made, or authorizing payments out of appropriations already made, or releasing any liability to the United States for money or property, or referring any claim to the Court of Claims, shall be first considered in a Committee of the Whole. . . .”

This rule is applied not only to bills, but to amendments<sup>(12)</sup> and Senate amendments to House measures as well. As to the latter, Rule XX clause 1<sup>(13)</sup> provides that, “Any amendment of the Senate to any House bill shall be subject to the point of order that it shall first be considered in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, if, originating in the House, it would be subject to that point. . . .”

A view of long standing was that, to require consideration in a Committee of the Whole, a measure must have shown on its face that it fell within the requirements of Rule XXIII clause 3;<sup>(14)</sup> where the expenditure was a mere matter of speculation,<sup>(15)</sup> or where

9. See 4 Hinds' Precedents §§4923–4935 and 8 Cannon's Precedents §§2431–2435 for pre-1936 precedents relating to the House as in Committee of the Whole; and Jefferson's Manual, House Rules and Manual §§424–427 (1979) for actions which may or may not be taken in the House as in Committee of the Whole.

the bill might have involved a charge, but did not necessarily do so,<sup>(16)</sup> the rule did not apply. In ruling on a point of order as to whether a proposition involved a charge on the Treasury, the Speaker was confined to the provisions of the text and could not take into consideration personal knowledge not directly deducible therefrom.<sup>(17)</sup> In modern practice, a measure goes on the Union Calendar for consideration in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union if an expenditure under the measure is probable.

The Committee of the Whole observes the rules of proceeding in the House as far as applicable.<sup>(18)</sup> However, the procedure in the Committee of the Whole differs from procedures in the House in certain respects. In the Committee, (1) a quorum consists of 100 Members instead of a majority of the House membership;<sup>(19)</sup> (2) tellers may be requested by 20 Members instead of by 44 (one-fifth of a quorum of the House);<sup>(20)</sup> (3) a recorded vote may be requested by 25 (formerly 20) Members instead of by 44 (one-fifth of a quorum of the House);<sup>(21)</sup> (4) the constitutional ye and nay vote demanded by one fifth of the Members present,<sup>(22)</sup> or an “automatic” ye and nay vote as provided under Rule XV clause 4,<sup>(23)</sup> may not be taken; (5) amendments may not be withdrawn except by unanimous consent;<sup>(1)</sup> (6) debate may both be general and under the five-minute rule for amendments;<sup>(2)</sup> and (7) leave to extend remarks may be given only to the Member making the request, and not for the inclusion of extraneous material, general leaves being granted only by the House.<sup>(3)</sup>

Significance of Mace

§ 1.1 The position of the mace signifies whether the House is in session or whether it has resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole. When the mace is in the higher position at the Speaker's right the House is in regular session. When the Members begin deliberations in the Committee of the Whole, the mace is placed on the lower pedestal next to the desk of the Sergeant at Arms.

On July 13, 1966, the 125th anniversary year of the use of the present mace,<sup>(14)</sup> Mr. Frank Horton, of New York, discussed the position of the mace as it relates to whether the House meets in regular session or in the Committee of the Whole.

colleagues of a historic anniversary. The year 1966 marks 125 years of consecutive use of the present mace in the House of Representatives. . . .

The position of the mace signifies whether the House is in session or whether it has resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union. Visitors in the galleries today will notice that the mace is now in position at the Speaker's right, meaning that we are now in regular session. When we begin our deliberations in the Committee of the Whole, the mace will be placed on the lower pedestal next to the desk of the Sergeant at Arms. Any Member or visitor entering the House can tell at a glance if the House is in session or in committee.

Anticipation of Parliamentary Situations by Speaker

§ 1.2 The Speaker does not anticipate parliamentary situations which might arise in Committee of the Whole.

On June 29, 1973,<sup>(15)</sup> Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, refused to anticipate parliamentary situations which might arise in the Committee of the Whole.

MR. [RICHARD] BOILING [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on Rules, I call up House Resolution 479 and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

15. 119 CONG. REC. 22336, 22337, 93d Cong. 1st Sess.

H. RES. 479

Resolved, That upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to move, clause 6, rule XXI to the contrary notwithstanding, that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 9055) making supplemental appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1973, and for other purposes, and all points of order against said bill for failure to comply with the provisions of clauses 2 and 5, rule XXI are hereby waived. It shall be in order to consider without the intervention of any point of order the following amendment in the nature of a substitute for section 307 of the bill H.R. 9055.

"Sec. 307. None of the funds herein appropriated under this Act or heretofore appropriated under any other Act may be expended to support directly or indirectly combat activities in, over, or from off the shores of Cambodia or in or over Laos by United States forces." . . .

MR. [JAMES J.] PICKLE [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, is it my understanding that this is an open rule? Do I further understand that the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. Flynt) intends to offer the Eagleton amendment as a substitute which we had voted on in the last few days?

I understand from conversations which I have had at the Chair that it would be in order then to offer amendments to the substitute which will be offered by the gentleman from Georgia, and if any of those amendments were passed, it would be an amendment to that substitute.

If that substitute passes, there can be no more amendments and the vote will be up or down on that issue. Thus, if I am correct, then, Mr. Speaker, if the substitute is passed, then there will be a vote on that up or down, and there can be no amendment beyond that point, is that correct?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will answer that this is a matter for the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union.

The Chair is not able at this time to take over the responsibility of making parliamentary rulings from the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House.

MR. [DELBERT L.] LATTA [of Ohio]: Mr. Speaker, the Speaker is absolutely correct. This is something that can be taken up in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union.

Consideration of Questions of Personal Privilege

§ 1.3 Members may not rise to a question of personal privilege in the Committee of the Whole.

MR. [CLARK E.] HOFFMAN [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, can I raise a question of personal privilege in the Committee of the Whole, or do I have to wait until we go back into the House?

THE CHAIRMAN: That cannot be done in the Committee of the Whole.<sup>(17)</sup>

Consideration of Measures in House as in Committee of the Whole

§ 1.4 Where a joint resolution requiring consideration in the Committee of the Whole is called up by unanimous consent, it is considered in the House as in the Committee of the Whole and is subject to debate and amendment under the five-minute rule.<sup>(18)</sup>

17. Note: Under the modern practice, points of personal privilege may not be raised in the Committee of the Whole. The opposite was formerly true. See 3 Hinds' Precedents §§2540 et seq., which indicate that a matter of personal privilege could be claimed with reference to unparliamentary words. This former practice has been superseded by the procedure for taking down words in Committee of the Whole.

On Sept. 26, 1968,<sup>(19)</sup> by unanimous consent House Joint Resolution 1461 was considered in the House as in Committee of the Whole and subject to debate and amendment under the five-minute rule.

MR. [GEORGE H.] MAHON [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 1461) making continuing appropriations for the fiscal year 1969, and for other purposes.

The Clerk read the title of the joint resolution.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(20)</sup> Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas? . . .

MR. [FRANK T.] BOW [of Ohio: . . . I should like to make a parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. BOW: If this joint resolution is now called before the House, will it be in order, when it is before the House, to offer a substitute in the manner in which I have discussed it?

THE SPEAKER: The answer is that it would be in order. . . .

Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the joint resolution as follows:

H.J. RES. 1461

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That clause (c) of section 102 of the joint resolution of June 29, 1968 (Public Law 90-366), is hereby further amended by striking out "September 30, 1968" and inserting in lieu thereof "October 12, 1968".

MR. MAHON: Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the joint resolution be considered in the House as in the Committee of the Whole.

THE SPEAKER: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

MR. MAHON: Mr. Speaker, I move to strike out the last word. May I just add a few words. There are a number of agencies of the Government for which regular appropriations for 1969 have not been finally enacted by the Congress.

§ 1.5 A motion that a Union Calendar bill called up be considered in the House as in the Committee of the Whole is not in order, although unanimous consent may be granted for that purpose; if such consent is not obtained, the House automatically resolves itself into the Committee of the Whole on Calendar Wednesday.

On July 12, 1939,<sup>(1)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 985, to authorize the Secretary of War to furnish markers for certain graves, Speaker William B. Bankhead, of Alabama, stated that a unanimous-consent request, but not a motion, to consider a Union Calendar bill in the House as in Committee of the Whole would be in order. After an objection was raised to the unanimous-consent request, the House automatically resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole.

MR. [ANDREW J.] MAY [of Kentucky] (when the Committee on Military Affairs was called): Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on Military Affairs, I call up the bill (H.R. 985) to authorize the Secretary of War to furnish certain markers for certain graves, and ask unanimous consent that the bill be considered in the House as in Committee of the Whole.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

MR. [JOSEPH W.] MARTIN [Jr.] of Massachusetts: Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, will the gentleman explain the bill before we grant this request?

MR. MAY: This is a bill to authorize the Secretary of War to furnish certain markers for graves of persons who are entitled to have them. Under the statute they are bronze markers or stone markers.

MR. [SAM] HOBBS [of Alabama] Mr. Speaker, I object.

MR. MAY: To what is the gentleman objecting?

MR. HOBBS: I am objecting to the consideration of the bill.

MR. MAY: Then I move, Mr. Speaker, that the bill be considered in the House as in Committee of the Whole.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair is of the opinion that could not be permitted under the rules of the House. The gentleman may submit a unanimous consent request, but not a motion.

The gentleman from Kentucky asks unanimous consent to consider the bill in the House as in Committee of the Whole. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Kentucky?

MR. HOBBS: I object, Mr. Speaker.

THE SPEAKER: This bill is on the Union Calendar.

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 985) to authorize the Secretary of War to furnish certain markers for certain graves, with Mr. Tarver in the chair.

§ 2.1 All motions must be in writing, if the demand is made, even a motion that the Committee of the Whole do now rise.

On June 13, 1947,<sup>(16)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 3342, the cultural relations program of the State Department, Chairman Thomas A. Jenkins, of Ohio, sustained a point of order against a motion to rise:

MR. [DANIEL A.] REED of New York: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The point of order is sustained.

Motion to Rise and Recommend

§ 2.2 After defeat of a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill to the House with the recommendation that it pass, a motion that the Committee rise and report the bill with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out is in order.

On May 12, 1941,<sup>(17)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 3490, fixing the amount of annual payment by the United States toward defraying expenses of the District of Columbia government, Chairman William M. Whittington, of Mississippi, ruled that it would be in order to move that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out after defeat of a motion that the Committee rise and report a bill to the House with the recommendation that it pass:

MR. [JENNINGS] RANDOLPH [of West Virginia]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 3490) to fix the amount of the annual payment by the United States toward defraying the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia; and pending that, I ask unanimous consent that debate be limited to 2 hours.

After completion of general debate and reading of the bill for amendment under the five-minute rule, the manager of the bill, Mr. Randolph, moved as follows:

Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with an amendment with the recommendation that the amendment be agreed to and that the bill as amended do pass. . . .

MR. [MALCOLM C.] TARVER [of Georgia]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. TARVER: If this motion to report the bill favorably does not carry, it would then be in order to offer a motion to report the bill with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

THE CHAIRMAN: The bill would still be in the Committee, and such a motion would be in order.

On July 27, 1937,<sup>(18)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7730, to authorize the President to appoint certain administrative assistants, Chairman Wright Patman, of Texas, stated that a motion to amend in the Committee of the Whole takes precedence over a motion to rise and report a bill with recommendations:

Mr. [J.W.] Robinson of Utah and Mr. [Ross A.] Collins [of Mississippi] rose.

MR. ROBINSON of Utah: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the bill do pass.

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order against the motion that it is not in order at this stage of the proceedings.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair may state that motions to amend take precedence over a motion that the Committee rise.

The gentleman from Mississippi offers an amendment, which the Clerk will report.

Motion to Adjourn

Rights Act of 1963, Chairman Eugene J. Keogh, of New York, held that the motion to adjourn would not lie while the House was in the Committee of the Whole:

MR. [JAMIE L.] WHITTEN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, I wonder if it would be in order to move that the House do now adjourn, while the coalition works out the substitute amendment? Would it be in order to move that the House do now adjourn?

THE CHAIRMAN: A motion to adjourn, of course, does not lie while the House is in the Committee of the Whole House.

MR. WHITTEN: I merely wished to know if it were possible under the circumstances.

Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise, while the coalition works out a settlement of the differences.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion of the gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. Whitten].

The motion was rejected.

Motion to Reconsider

after business has been transacted.

On Mar. 12, 1945,<sup>(20)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2023, to continue the Commodity Credit Corporation, Chairman R. Ewing Thomason, of Texas, ruled that a motion to reconsider is not in order in the Committee of the Whole. However, after the transaction of business, the Committee agreed to a unanimous consent request to vacate certain proceedings:

MR. [Jesse P.] WOLCOTT [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment, which is at the Clerk's desk.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Wolcott: On page 1, lines 5 and 6, after the word "thereof" in line 5, strike out the sign and figure "$5,000,000,000" and insert in lieu thereof the sign and figure "$4,000,000,000."

MR. [BRENT] SPENCE [of Kentucky]: . . . The Commodity Credit Corporation agrees to it. I think it should be adopted. I am sure there will be no objection to it.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on agreeing to the amendment.

The amendment was agreed to.

The Clerk read as follows:

Sec. 2. Subsection (c) of section 381 of the Agricultural Adjustment

20. 91 CONG. REC. 2042, 2043, 79th Cong 1st Sess. See also 112 CONG. REC. 18416, 89th Cong. 2d Sess., Aug. 5, 1966, for another example of this procedure.

Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 67) is amended to read as follows:

"(c) During the continuance of the present war and until the expiration of the 2-year period. . . ."

MR. SPENCE: Mr. Chairman, I misunderstood the amendment offered by the gentleman from Michigan. I had no right to agree to that amendment. The amendment which I thought the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. Wolcott] submitted, and the only one that he ever submitted to me, was an amendment to increase dairy payments to $568,000,000, and to increase the noncrop program from $60,000,000 to $120,000,000. That was a clear misunderstanding on my part. . . .

Mr. Chairman, I ask the committee, under the circumstances, to reconsider its action.

MR. WOLCOTT: There will be no objection on my part.

THE CHAIRMAN: Without objection, the action by which the amendment was agreed to will be vacated.

MR. [ROBERT F.] RICH [of Pennsylvania]: Reserving the right to object, I want to ask the gentleman a question.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Pennsylvania reserves the right to object. . . .

Is there objection?

MR. RICH: Mr. Chairman, I object—until we can get some information on the subject.

MR. [ROY O.] WOODRUFF of Michigan: Mr. Chairman, I demand the regular order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The regular order is that the gentleman from Pennsylvania has objected to the consent request of the gentleman from Kentucky.

MR. SPENCE: Mr. Chairman, I move to reconsider the action of the Committee by which the amendment was agreed to.

THE CHAIRMAN: Such a motion is not in order in the Committee of the Whole.

MR. WOLCOTT: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. WOLCOTT: Inasmuch as business has been transacted since the original request was submitted by the gentleman from Kentucky, would it be in order for me to propound a consent request that the proceedings by which the amendment was adopted be vacated?

THE CHAIRMAN: Such a request would be in order, and the Chair recognizes the gentleman for that purpose.

MR. WOLCOTT: Then, Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that the proceedings by which the amendment was adopted reducing the amount from $5,000,000,000 to $4,000,000,000 be vacated. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Michigan?

There was no objection.

MR. [PAUL C.] JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, reserving the right to object, is it in order to move the previous question on this amendment now, inasmuch as we have had considerable debate on it, and I have been trying to receive recognition for approximately half an hour, but now I am willing to forgo my time.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that the moving of the previous question is not in order in the Committee of the Whole.

Motion to Table

§ 2.7 The motion to table is not in order in the Committee of the Whole.

On Oct. 6, 1966,<sup>(2)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 13161, the elementary and secondary education bill, Chairman Daniel D. Rostenkowski, of Illinois, ruled that the motion to table is not in order in the Committee of the Whole:

MR. [ALBERT W.] WATSON [of South Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Watson: On page 76, line 15, after "1967" change the period to a semicolon and insert: "Provided, however, That no funds shall be expended hereunder so long as the present United States Commissioner of Education occupies that office."

MR. [CARL D.] PERKINS [of Kentucky]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order. The amendment is not germane and is subject to a point of order. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: . . . The Chair is of the opinion that the amendment is germane to the bill, and overrules the point of order.

The gentleman from South Carolina is recognized in support of his amendment.

MR. PERKINS: Mr. Chairman, I move that the amendment be tabled.

THE CHAIRMAN: That motion is not in order in the Committee of the Whole.

§ 2.8 The motion to lay on the table an appeal from a decision of the Chair is not in order in the Committee of the Whole.

On Oct. 19, 1945,<sup>(3)</sup> after ruling that a proposed amendment was not germane to H.R. 4407, reducing appropriations, Chairman Fritz G. Lanham, of Texas, held that a motion to table a decision of the Chair is not in order in the Committee of the Whole.

deference in the world for the distinguished Chairman, whom we all love, I respectfully appeal from the ruling of the Chair.

MR. [EMMET] O'NEAL [of Kentucky]: Mr. Chairman, I move to lay the appeal on the table.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, the appeal cannot be laid on the table. The Committee has a right to vote on it.

THE CHAIRMAN: The motion to lay on the table is not in order in the Committee. . . .

The question is: Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the Committee of the Whole?

The question was taken; and the Chair announced that the "ayes" had it.

So the decision of the Chair stands as the judgment of the Committee of the Whole.<sup>(4)</sup> ers and harbors authorization bill, Chairman Francis E. Walter, of Pennsylvania, declared that a unanimous-consent request to instruct the Clerk to correct section numbers in the engrossment of a bill would have to be done in the House rather than the Committee of the Whole:

MR. [JAMES C.] WRIGHT [Jr., of Texas]: Mr. Chairman, so as to avoid any possible confusion in the numbering of these sections, I ask unanimous consent that the Clerk of the House be instructed so to number these sections serially that they are all in proper sequence.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman's request will have to be made in the House.

Motion to Return to Section for Amendment

§ 2.10 In the Committee of the Whole a Member must obtain unanimous consent to return to a section of a bill to offer an amendment; a motion to do so is not in order.

On Aug. 18, 1944,<sup>(6)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 5125, the surplus property bill, Chairman R. Ewing Thomason, of Texas, stated that a Member must obtain unanimous consent to return to a section of a bill after that section has been passed, and indicated that such action cannot be taken by motion:

6. 90 CONG. REC. 7122, 78th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [CARTER] MANASCO [of Alabama]: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the amendment on the ground that we have passed the section to which the amendment applies.

MR. [BEN F.] JENSEN [of Iowa]: Then, Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that we return to section 7 for the purpose of offering an amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Iowa asks unanimous consent to return to section 7 for the purpose of offering an amendment. Is there objection?

MR. MANASCO: I object, because we returned to that once and we want to finish this bill this week if we can.

MR. JENSEN: Mr. Chairman, I would have offered this amendment earlier but I call attention to the fact that the reading of the bill was very rapid and I did not have a chance; I did not have the opportunity.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman can return to a former section only with the unanimous consent of the Committee and the Committee has not given it.

MR. JENSEN: Then, Mr. Chairman, I plead with the chairman of the committee to let this amendment be considered. It is an important amendment.

Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. JENSEN: What course can I take now to get this amendment before the House? I am throwing myself on the mercy of the Chair?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman has asked unanimous consent to return to the section; the Committee has declined to grant it. The Chair does not know what further the gentleman can do.

Motion to Dispense With Reading

§ 2.11 A motion to dispense with the full reading of a bill in the Committee of the Whole is not in order.

On June 4, 1951,<sup>(7)</sup> the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole for the consideration of the District of Columbia Law Enforcement Act of 1951 (H.R. 4141). The Chairman<sup>(8)</sup> stated that without objection the first [full] reading of the bill would be dispensed with. Objection was heard from Mr. Herman P. Eberharter, of Pennsylvania, and the Chairman ordered the Clerk to read the bill.

During the reading of the bill a parliamentary inquiry was raised:

MR. [W. STERLING] COLE of New York (interrupting the reading of the bill): Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. COLE of New York: Mr. Chairman, is it possible under the rules of the Committee of the Whole to by motion dispense with the further reading of a bill?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will say that it requires unanimous consent to suspend the further reading of the bill.

MR. COLE of New York: It is not possible to do that by motion?

THE CHAIRMAN: That motion is not privileged.<sup>(9)</sup>

9. Parliamentarian's Note: In this instance the Committee of the Whole directed the reading in full of the bill on its first reading. The bill was read by title only on the next day when the Committee of the Whole reconvened to resume consideration of it. Although the procedure followed was somewhat unorthodox, it illustrates the point that any Member may demand a full reading of a bill before general debate thereon begins, provided the bill has not previously been read in full. The motion to dispense with the full reading could be made privileged, however, by means of a special rule reported from the Committee on Rules, for example; or the reading in full could be dispensed with by such a rule. Moreover, the motion to rise would be in order, to permit the House, by motion, to dispense with reading.

Whole of H.R. 5587, the first supplemental appropriations bill, several actions were taken in rapid succession:

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]:

Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on this amendment do now close.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, I trust the gentleman will not press that motion.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(11)</sup> The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. Taber].

The question was taken, and the Chair announced that the ayes had it.

MR. [CLARENCE] CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I ask for a division.

THE CHAIRMAN: Those in favor of the motion will rise and be counted.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair calls the attention of the gentleman to the fact that we are in the middle of a vote.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, I am offering a preferential motion. I move that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will ask the gentleman to reconsider, because we are in the midst of taking a vote on a motion at this time.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, I am offering a preferential motion now.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair cannot recognize the gentleman at this time for that purpose.

Parliamentarian's Note: The preferential motion to rise is in order until the count has commenced. See 88 CONG. REC. 2374, 77th Cong. 2d Sess., Mar. 12, 1942; 88 CONG. REC. 5169, 77th Cong. 2d Sess., June 11, 1942.

§ 3. Remarks in the Congressional Record

Extension and Revision of Remarks

§ 3.1 The House and not the Committee of the Whole controls the Congressional Record; for this reason the Committee can neither hold the Record open for later insertions nor permit inclusion of extraneous material. MR. [BURT L.] TALCOTT [of California]: Mr. Chairman, I object.

THE CHAIRMAN: That request is properly made in the House and not in Committee of the Whole. Objection is not necessary.<sup>(13)</sup>

Expungement of Objectionable Words

§ 3.2 A motion to expunge words from the Congressional Record is not in order in the Committee of the Whole.

On Feb. 18, 1941,<sup>(14)</sup> Chairman Warren G. Magnuson, of Washington, stated that the House, not the Committee of the Whole, determines whether to expunge words which have been objected to by a Member in the Committee.<sup>(15)</sup>

That is not too much to expect if we adhere to the agreement of last year. This would give us in Michigan the Representative to which we are entitled. But we know what you are going to do. You know what is going to happen. You are going to skin us, are you not? And we have no way to prevent it.

MR. [ROBERT F.] RICH [of Pennsylvania]: I demand that the gentleman's words be taken down.

THE CHAIRMAN: . . . The Clerk will read the words objected to.

The Clerk read as follows:

You know what is going to happen. You are going to skin us, are you not; and we have not any way to

MR. RICH: Mr. Chairman, I ask that those words be expunged from the Record. They are not going to skin anybody around here.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is a matter for the House to decide. The Committee will rise.

Parliamentarian's Note: The words could have been withdrawn by unanimous consent, but not by motion.

However, the privileged nature of the motion under Rule XVI clause 9 with respect to revenue bills was derived from and was dependent upon the former privilege conferred upon the Committee on Ways and Means under Rule XI clause 4(a) to report revenue measures to the House at any time (4 Hinds' Precedents § 3076).

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(9)</sup> The gentleman from California (Mr. Sisk) is recognized for 1 hour. . . .

MR. SISK: Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question on the resolution.

The previous question was ordered.

The resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

THE SPEAKER: Pursuant to House Resolution 874, the House resolves itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (S. 858) to amend the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 with respect to wheat.

Accordingly the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill S. 858, with Mr. Flynt in the chair.

§ 4.2 The recognition by the Speaker of a designated Member to move that the House resolve into the Committee of the Whole to consider a particular bill may be provided for by resolution.

9. John W. McCormack (Mass.).

On Sept. 27, 1965,<sup>(10)</sup> after the House agreed to a motion discharging a resolution from the Committee on Rules, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, recognized a Member who had been designated by the resolution to move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for consideration of H. R. 4644, the District of Columbia home rule bill:

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will report the resolution. [H. Res. 515].

The Clerk read as follows:

Resolved, That upon the adoption of this resolution the Speaker shall recognize Representative Abraham J. Multer, or Representative Carlton R. Sickles, or Representative Charles McC Mathias, Junior, or Representative Frank J. Horton to move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 4644) to provide an elected mayor, city council, and nonvoting Delegate to the House of Representatives for the District of Columbia, and for other purposes, and all points of order against said bill are hereby waived. After general debate, which shall be confined to the bill and continue not to exceed five hours, to be equally divided and controlled by one of the aforementioned Members and a Member who is opposed to said bill to be designated by the Speaker, the bill shall be read for amendment under the five-minute rule by titles instead of by sections. . . .

THE SPEAKER: The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

Mr. [Howard W.] SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The question was taken; and there were yeas 223, nays 179, not voting 30.

So the resolution was agreed to. . . .

THE SPEAKER: . . . The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New York [Mr. Multer].

MR. [ABRAHAM J.] MULTER: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 4644) to provide an elected Mayor, City Council, and nonvoting Delegate to the House of Representatives for the District of Columbia, and for other purposes.

cated that the Chair has discretion to determine the order of consideration of unfinished business by recognizing for motions to resolve into the Committee of the Whole:

MR. [F. EDWARD] HÉBERT [of Louisiana]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HÉBERT: As I understand the situation as of now, and as related to tomorrow, our understanding is that a continuation of consideration of the bill H.R. 2 will be the first order of business when the House meets tomorrow?

THE SPEAKER: Not under the program, the Chair will answer. There are two unfinished matters pending before the House. One is the Higher Education Act, which has been the unfinished business for several days. It is a matter of discretion of the Chair, and the Chair would like to discuss this matter with all parties concerned.

MR. HÉBERT: I hope the Chair will, because it was my understanding this would be the first order of business tomorrow. That was the reason the committee rose, in deference to the wishes of the Chair.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will take that up with parties concerned.

Effect of Refusal to Resolve

§ 4.4 Although the House may have agreed that an appropriation bill is to take precedence over other legislation, the House may reach the leg- isolation of lesser privilege by rejecting the motion to resolve into the Committee of the Whole to consider the appropriation bill.

On May 9, 1950,<sup>(12)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7786, the general appropriations bill, 1951, Speaker pro tempore John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, indicated that the House could reach legislation of lesser privilege by rejecting the motion that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole on the appropriations bill.

The House had previously agreed by unanimous consent that consideration of the appropriations bill would take precedence over all business except conference reports. However, Mr. Clare E. Hoffman, of Michigan, sought prior consideration of a resolution disapproving of a reorganization plan.

MR. [GEORGE H.] MAHON [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill (H.R. 7786) making appropriations for the support of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1951, and for other purposes.

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that the House is not proceeding in the regular order because under section 205a of the Reorganization Act, which is Public Law 109 of the Eighty-first Congress, first session, any Member of the House is privileged, and this is a highly privileged motion, to make the motion that the House proceed to the consideration of House Resolution 516.

The gentleman from Michigan being on his feet to present this highly privileged motion, the regular order is that he be recognized for that purpose that the motion be entertained and the question put before the House, and my motion is that the House proceed to the consideration of House Resolution 516.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: That is the resolution disapproving one of the reorganization plans?

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: That is right, House Resolution 516 disapproving plan No. 12. . . .

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Does the gentleman from Texas desire to be heard on the point of order?

MR. MAHON: Mr. Speaker, on April 5, 1950, as shown at page 4835 of the daily Record of that day, the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Cannon] asked and received unanimous consent that the appropriation bill should have the right-of-way over other privileged business under the rules until disposition, with the exception of conference reports. Therefore, I believe the regular order would be to proceed with the further consideration of H.R. 7786.

Mr. Speaker, I believe that the Record would speak for itself. . . .

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, may I be heard on the point of order?

12. 96 CONG. REC. 6720-24, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will hear the gentleman.

MR. RANKIN: I was going to say that if this is of the highest constitutional privilege it comes ahead of the present legislation.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair is prepared to rule. . . .

The question involved is not a constitutional question but one relating to the rules of the House and to the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1949 which has been alluded to by the gentleman from Michigan and other Members when addressing the Chair on this point of order. The Chair calls attention to the language of paragraph (b) of section 201 of title II of the Reorganization Act of 1949 which reads as follows: "with full recognition of the constitutional right of either House to change such rules so far as relating to procedure in such House at any time in the same manner and to the same extent as in the case of any other rule of such House."

It is very plain from that language that the intent of Congress was to recognize the reservation to each House of certain inherent powers which are necessary for either House to function to meet a particular situation or to carry out its will.

On April 5, the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Cannon], chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, submitted a unanimous-consent request to the House, which was granted, which has the force of a rule, and which relates to the rules of the House governing the consideration of the omnibus appropriation bill while it is before the House and, of course, incidentally affecting other legislation. The consent request submitted by the gentleman from Missouri was "that the general appropriation bill for the fiscal year 1951 have right-of-way over all other privileged business under the rules until disposition, with the exception of conference reports."

That request was granted by unanimous consent. On the next day the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Cannon], in correcting and interpreting the consent request granted on April 5, submitted a further unanimous-consent request.

The daily Record shows, on page 4976, April 6, that the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Cannon] said:

Mr. Speaker, on page 4835 of the daily Record of yesterday, the first column carrying the special order made by the House last night reads that the general appropriation bill shall be a special order privileged above all other business of the House under the rule until disposition. The order made was until final disposition. I ask unanimous consent that the Record and Journal be corrected to conform with the proceedings on the floor of the House yesterday.

The Record further shows that the Speaker put the request and there was no objection.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry. . . .

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair recognizes the gentleman.

MR. RANKIN: We for the first time this year have all the appropriations in one bill. Now, if they drag out consideration under the 5-minute rule beyond the 24th, would that not shut the Congress off entirely from voting on any of these recommendations? So we do have a constitutional right to consider these propositions without having them smothered in this way.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state that the House always has a constitutional right and power to refuse to go into the Committee of the Whole on any motion made by any Member, so that the House is capable of carrying out its will, whatever may be the will of the majority of the House.

Continuing, the Chair will state that in the opinion of the present occupant, in view of the unanimous-consent request made by the gentleman from Missouri and granted by the House, if any member of the Appropriations Committee moves that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union to consider the appropriation bill, that motion has preference over any other preferential motion. It is a matter that the House decides when the motion is made as to what it wants to do and it has an opportunity when that motion is made to carry out its will. . . .

MR. [J. PERCY] PRIEST [of Tennessee]: Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state it.

MR. PRIEST: My parliamentary inquiry simply is this, that notwithstanding the question of recognition under the unanimous-consent request ordered by the House at the request of the gentleman from Missouri, the matter of consideration still is in the House, is it not? If the House refuses to go into the Committee of the Whole it still is a question for the House to decide; is that not correct?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Exactly, and the gentleman from Michigan or anyone else making the motion could address the question to the Chair, which question the Chair would then have to pass upon.

Resolving to Consider Resolution of Disapproval

§ 4.5 A motion that the House resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole for the consideration of a resolution disapproving a reorganization plan is highly privileged and may be called up by any Member, and the Member is not required to qualify as being in favor of the resolution.

On June 8, 1961,<sup>(13)</sup> Speaker pro tempore Oren Harris, of Arkansas, indicated that a motion, made pursuant to the Reorganization Act of 1949 [5 USC §912(a)], that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for consideration of a resolution (H. Res. 303) disapproving a reorganization plan was privileged.

MR. H. R. GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, is it in order and proper at this time to submit a highly privileged motion?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: If the matter to which the gentleman refers is highly privileged, it would be in order.

13. 107 CONG. REC. 9775-77, 87th Cong. 1st Sess. See also 107 CONG. REC. 12905, 12906, 87th Cong. 1st Sess., July 19, 1961.

MR. GROSS: Then, Mr. Speaker, under the provisions of section 205(a) Public Law 109, the Reorganization Act of 1949, I submit a motion. . . .

MR. [CLARENCE J.] BROWN [of Ohio]: As I understand the parliamentary situation the motion would be to take up the resolution of rejection; is that correct?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair would like to state that the motion has not yet been reported; but the Chair understands that the motion is for the House to go into Committee of the Whole House for the consideration of it.

MR. BROWN: If that should be defeated, of course, we would not have the resolution of rejection before us.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman is correct. . . .

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: . . . The Clerk will report the motion offered by the gentleman from Iowa.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Gross moves that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of H. Res. 303 introduced by Mr. Monagan disapproving Reorganization Plan No. 2 transmitted to the Congress by the President on April 27, 1961.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: . . . The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Iowa [Mr. Gross].

The motion was rejected.

§ 4.6 The rejection of a motion that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for the consideration of a disapproval resolution does not preclude a subsequent motion to the same effect.

On June 8, 1961,<sup>(14)</sup> Mr. H. R. Gross, of Iowa, submitted a motion that the House resolve into the Committee of the Whole to consider a resolution disapproving of a reorganization plan. Speaker pro tempore Oren Harris, of Arkansas, indicated that a subsequent motion that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for consideration of a resolution disapproving the same plan would not be precluded by the rejection of the pending motion.

MR. [CHARLES A.] HALLECK [of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HALLECK: As I understand, there is a motion pending to call up what is known as Reorganization Plan No. 2.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair would state that the gentleman from Iowa indicated he would submit such a motion, but it has not been reported.

MR. HALLECK: Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state it. . . .

MR. HALLECK: If the pending motion is voted down, would it still be in order at a subsequent date to call up a motion rejecting plan No. 2 for another vote? I ask that because I am opposed to plan No. 2. . . .

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The opinion of the Chair, under the Reorganization Act, it could be called up at a subsequent date.<sup>(15)</sup>

MR. HALLECK: In other words, the action that would be taken today would not be final?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman is correct.

MR. HALLECK: In view of the fact that there was no notice to the membership of the House of Representatives on either side that this matter would come on for action today, if plan No. 2 is not voted on today it would subsequently be voted on?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman is correct.

After Motion to Discharge

§ 4.7 The House may resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole to consider a bill before the House as a result of a motion to discharge.

On Apr. 26, 1948,<sup>(16)</sup> after agreeing to discharge H.R. 2245,

15. Under 5 USC §912(a), it is provided: "When the committee has reported, or has been discharged from further consideration of, a resolution with respect to a reorganization plan, it is at any time thereafter in order (even though a previous motion to the same effect has been disagreed to) to move to proceed to the consideration of the resolution. . . ."

to repeal the tax on oleomargarine from the Committee on Agriculture, the House agreed to resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for consideration of that bill.

MR. [L. MENDEL] RIVERS [of South Carolina]: Mr. Speaker, I call up the motion to discharge the Committee on Agriculture from the further consideration of the bill (H.R. 2245) to repeal the tax on oleomargarine.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(17)</sup> Did the gentleman sign the petition?

MR. RIVERS: I did, Mr. Speaker.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman qualifies.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

After conclusion of the debate on the motion to discharge, the following proceedings occurred:

THE SPEAKER: All time has expired.

The question is, Shall the Committee on Agriculture be discharged from further consideration of the bill H.R. 2245?

MR. [CLIFFORD R.] HOPE [of Kansas]: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered. The question was taken; and there were—yeas 235, nays 121, answered "present" 2, not voting 72. . . .

THE SPEAKER: Without interfering with the rights of the gentleman from South Carolina to move to go into the Committee of the Whole,<sup>(18)</sup> the Chair

17. Joseph W. Martin, Jr. (Mass.).

18. Rule XXVII clause 4, House Rules and Manual §908 (1979) provides:

will entertain consent requests for extensions of remarks only. . . .

MR. RIVERS: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 2245) to repeal the tax on oleomargarine; and pending that motion, Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that general debate be limited to 3 hours, the time to be equally divided and controlled by the gentleman from Kansas [Mr. Hope] and myself.

THE SPEAKER: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from South Carolina?

There was no objection.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from South Carolina.

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill H.R. 2245, with Mr. Arends in the chair.

Resolving After Ruling on Words Taken Down

§ 4.8 After the Speaker has ruled on words taken down

"If the motion prevails to discharge one of the standing committees of the House from any public bill or resolution pending before the committee, it shall then be in order for any Member who signed the motion to move that the House proceed to the immediate consideration of such bill or resolution (such motion not being debatable), and such motion is hereby made of high privilege. . . .

in Committee, the House automatically again resolves into the Committee of the Whole.

On Mar. 26, 1965,<sup>(19)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2362, the elementary and secondary education bill of 1965, and after Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ruled on words taken down in the Committee of the Whole, Chairman Richard Bolling, of Missouri, indicated that a motion that the House resolve itself into the Committee was not necessary because that procedure is automatic.

The proceedings in the House were as follows:

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will report the words objected to.

The Clerk read as follows:

I might suggest further you can beat this dog all you want for political purposes; you can demagog however subtly and try to scare people off at the expense of the Nation's schoolchildren with your demagoguery<sup>(20)</sup>—

Generally, the procedure for taking down words in the Committee of the Whole is discussed at Ch. 29 §§ 48-62, infra.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair feels that Members in debate have reasonable flexibility in expressing their thoughts.

The Chair sees nothing about the words that contravene the rules of the House. The point of order is not sustained.

The Committee will resume its sitting.

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill (H.R. 2362) with Mr. Bolling in the chair. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from New Jersey [Mr. Thompson].

MR. [FRANK] THOMPSON [Jr.] of New Jersey: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent to revise and extend my remarks.

MR. [ROBERT P.] GRIFFIN [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I object.

There has been no motion to resolve the House into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union. The gentleman is out of order at this point.

THE CHAIRMAN: The House automatically goes back into the Committee of the Whole.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New York [Mr. Powell].

Automatic Call of House on Motion to Resolve

On Feb. 14, 1946,<sup>(21)</sup> an automatic roll call was had on the motion to go into the Committee of the Whole to consider H.R. 5452, making appropriations for the Departments of the Treasury and the Post Office after rejection of a motion to adjourn.

MR. [LOUIS] LUDLOW [of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill (H.R. 5452) making appropriations for the Treasury and Post Office Departments for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1947, and for other purposes.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Cochran) there were—ayes 103, no 1.

MR. [JOHN J.] COCHRAN [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and seventy-four Members present; not a quorum.

MR. [COMPTON I.] WHITE [of Idaho]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. White) there were—ayes 31, no 103.

So the motion was rejected.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Indiana [Mr. Ludlow].

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant-at-Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 243, nays 16, not voting 171, as follows: . . .

Motion to Resolve as Related to Question of Consideration

§ 4.10 The question of consideration may not be raised against a motion to resolve into the Committee of the Whole for the consideration of a proposition.

On May 21, 1958,<sup>(23)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, ruled that the question of consideration could not be raised against the motion to resolve into the Committee of the Whole for the consideration of a bill, the motion to resolve being itself a test of the will of the House on consideration:

MR. [HOWARD W.] SMITH of Virginia: May I submit a parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker?

23. 104 CONG. REC. 9216, 85th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman may.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Under what circumstances can the question of consideration be raised?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair tried to say a moment ago that it cannot be raised against the motion to go into the Committee of the Whole, because that is tantamount to consideration, and the House will have an opportunity to vote on that motion.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: In other words, if we demand a vote on that question, then that will be tantamount to raising the question of consideration?

THE SPEAKER: That is correct.

Withdrawing Motion to Resolve

§ 4.11 A Member may withdraw his motion that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole at any time before the motion is acted upon, and unanimous consent is not required.

On Mar. 17, 1971,<sup>(24)</sup> Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, stated that a motion that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole could be withdrawn without House permission at any time before the motion is acted upon.

MR. [EMANUEL] CELLER [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 223) proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, extending the right to vote to citizens 18 years of age or older.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York.

For what purpose does the gentleman from Iowa rise?

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. GROSS: Is it proposed to take up this joint resolution at this hour?

THE SPEAKER: For general debate only.

MR. GROSS: Mr. Speaker, I intend to make a point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. CELLER: Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the motion.

MR. GROSS: Mr. Speaker, does that not require unanimous consent?

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman has the authority of withdrawing his motion before it is acted upon by the House.

The gentleman has withdrawn his motion.

§ 4.12 The chairman of the committee, at the request of the Speaker, withdrew his motion to go into Committee of the Whole to consider a bill reported by his committee, in order that the House might consider emergency legislation reported by another committee.

On Dec. 9, 1970,<sup>(25)</sup> the Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, Thomas E. Morgan, of Pennsylvania, at the request of Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, withdrew his motion that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole. This motion was withdrawn to enable the House immediately to consider emergency railroad strike legislation reported by the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce.

MR. MORGAN: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 19911) to amend the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, and for other purposes. . . .

THE SPEAKER: Will the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Morgan) withdraw his motion for the consideration of the bill H.R. 19911.

MR. MORGAN: Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the motion to go into Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill H.R. 19911. . . .

Mr. [William M.] Colmer [of Mississippi], from the Committee on Rules, reported the following privileged resolution (H. Res. 1300, Rept. No. 91-1687), which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed:

H. RES. 1300

Resolved, That upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 1413) to provide for a temporary prohibition of strikes or lockouts with respect to the current railway labor-management dispute.

25. 116 CONG. REC. 40688—91, 91st Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. COLMER: Mr. Speaker, I call up House Resolution 1300 and ask for its immediate consideration.

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will report the resolution.

Procedure of Motion to Resolve Over Motion to Discharge

§ 4.13 To a motion that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for consideration of a bill, a motion that the Committee of the Whole be discharged and that the bill be laid on the table is not preferential and not in order.

On Apr. 2, 1938,<sup>(26)</sup> during consideration of S. 3331, regarding government reorganization, Speaker William B. Bankhead, of Alabama, ruled that a motion that the Committee of the Whole be discharged and that the bill be laid on the table is not preferential to a motion that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for consideration of a bill:

MR. [JOHN J.] COCHRAN [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the further consideration of the bill (S. 3331) to provide for reorganizing agencies of the Government, extending the classified civil service, establishing a General Auditing Office and a Department of Welfare, and for other purposes.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Missouri moves that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the further consideration of the bill (S. 3331) to provide for reorganizing agencies of the Government, extending the classified civil service, establishing a General Auditing Office and a Department of Welfare, and for other purposes.

MR. [JOHN J.] O'CONNOR of New York: Mr. Speaker—

THE SPEAKER: For what purpose does the gentleman from New York rise?

MR. O'CONNOR of New York: To offer a preferential motion.

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will report the motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. O'Connor of New York moves that the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union be discharged from further consideration of the bill S. 3331, and that said bill be laid on the table.

MR. [LINDSAY C.] WARREN [of North Carolina]: A point of order, Mr. Speaker.

26. 83 CONG. REC. 4621, 75th Cong. 3d Sess.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. WARREN: Mr. Speaker, it is obvious, of course, even to the gentleman from New York, great parliamentarian that he is, that this motion is merely dilatory. The motion pending before the House is that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union. This is the only motion now pending. A motion to lay the bill on the table when it is not even up for consideration is entirely out of order.

MR. O'CONNOR of New York: Mr. Speaker, under clause 4, rule XVI,<sup>(1)</sup> the motion I offer is a preferential motion. It must be made in the House, it cannot be made in the Committee of the Whole. A motion has been made to consider the bill. A motion to lay the bill on the table is preferential, I submit, according to the authorities I have examined and under the exact language of clause 4, rule XVI.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair is ready to rule.

The gentleman from New York [Mr. O'Connor] offers what he states is a preferential motion that the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union be discharged from consideration of the bill S. 3331, and said bill be laid on the table.

The Chair is of the opinion that under the rules of the House a motion of this sort is not a preferential motion, and therefore not in order. The matter now pending is a simple motion that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the further consideration of the bill, and under the precedents a motion to discharge the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union from the further consideration of a bill is not a privileged motion.

The Chair sustains the point of order.

Parliamentarian's Note: Even if the motion had been a straight motion to lay on the table, it would not have been in order since the bill was not "under debate" and therefore not subject to motions under clause 4, Rule XVI.

B. THE CHAIRMAN

§ 5. Speaker's Appointment of Chairman

When the early rules of the House were first drafted, the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole was elected by the House following the custom of the British Parliament. A 1794 modification altered the method of selection from election by the Members to appointment by the Speaker.<sup>(2)</sup>

1. House Rules and Manual §782 (1973).

2. Rule XXIII clause 1, House Rules and Manual §861 (1979); Jefferson's

Rule XXIII clause 1 mandates the Speaker “in all cases” to leave the Chair after appointing a Chairman of the Committee of the Whole. This requirement is rooted in the history of the British House of Commons and the original purpose of the Committee of the Whole. The Speaker of the House of Commons during the reign of the Stuarts was a partisan of the King who reported proceedings to him. To preserve their confidences, Members of the House of Commons formed the Committee of the Whole and elected one of their colleagues to preside over debates on financial matters. The Speaker was not permitted in the Hall of the House of Commons during these meetings.<sup>(3)</sup>

Rule XXIII clause 1 provides that “In all cases, in forming a Committee of the Whole House, the Speaker shall leave his chair after appointing a Chairman to preside, who shall, in case of disturbance or disorderly conduct in the galleries or lobby, have power to cause the same to be cleared.”<sup>(4)</sup>

As to admission to the floor, Rule XXXII clause 1 provides: “The persons hereinafter named, and none other, shall be admitted to the Hall of the House or rooms leading thereto . . . and it shall not be in order for the Speaker to entertain a request for the suspension of this rule. . . .”<sup>(5)</sup> The rule also applies to the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole (see 5 Hinds’ Precedents §7285).

as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole is not present at the time the House resolves into Committee, the Speaker may ask another Member to assume the chair as Chairman pro tempore pending the arrival of the Chairman.

On Oct. 18, 1967,<sup>(6)</sup> Speaker pro tempore Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, designated one Member, Charles A. Vanik, of Ohio, as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole and, because Mr. Vanik was not present when the House resolved into Committee, appointed another, Member, Daniel D. Rostenkowski, of Illinois, to assume the Chair temporarily.

MR. [GEORGE H.] MAHON [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 888), making continuing appropriations for the fiscal year 1968, and for other purposes.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Texas.

The motion was agreed to.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair designates the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. Vanik], as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, and requests the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. Rostenkowski] to assume the chair temporarily.

6. 113 CONG. REC. 29277, 90th Cong. 1st Sess.

Accordingly the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 888), with Mr. Rostenkowski in the chair.

Use of Term "Madam Chairman"

§ 5.3 A female Member who is appointed Chairman of the Committee of the Whole should be addressed as "Madam Chairman."

On Sept. 20, 1973,<sup>(7)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 9281, relating to retirement benefits of law enforcement and fire-fighter personnel, Mrs. Martha W. Griffiths, of Michigan, stated the form of address of a female Chairman of the Committee of the Whole.

MR. [H.R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Madam Chairperson, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Chairman, I was interested to hear the gentleman speak of the special benefits given to municipal employees of the city of New York. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: For the benefit of Members, the Chair would like to announce that the Chair is properly addressed as Madam Chairman. While she seems to be neutral, she is not neuter.

§ 6. Chairman's Role; Jurisdiction

Points of order relating to procedure arising in the Committee of the Whole are decided by the Chairman.<sup>(8)</sup> Rule XXIII clause 1<sup>(9)</sup> empowers the Chairman to cause the galleries or lobbies to be cleared in case of disturbance or disorderly conduct. Nonetheless, in cases of extreme disorder the Speaker has taken the Chair and restored order without a formal rising of the Committee.<sup>(10)</sup> The Chairman is assisted by the Sergeant at Arms who attends sittings of the Committee to main-

In rare cases where the Chairman has been defied or insulted, he has directed the Committee to rise, left the Chair, and, following assumption of the Chair by the Speaker, reported the facts to the House. tain order under direction of the Chair.<sup>(11)</sup>

In the Committee of the Whole only the Chairman may recognize Members for debate.<sup>(12)</sup> However, like the Speaker, he is forbidden from recognizing requests to suspend the rule of admission to the floor.<sup>(13)</sup> The Chairman has a duty to call to order any Member who violates the privileges of debate<sup>(14)</sup> even in the absence of any suggestion from the floor.<sup>(15)</sup>

Ruling on Points Not in Issue

Housing Act of 1949, and after overruling a point of order that certain provisions exceeded the jurisdiction of the Committee on Banking and Currency because they constituted appropriations, Chairman Hale Boggs, of Louisiana, declined to rule on an issue which had not been presented in the point of order.

MR. [FRANCIS H.] CASE of South Dakota: Mr. Chairman, the point of order I make is that subparagraphs (e) and (f) of section 102 in title I constitute the appropriation of funds from the Federal Treasury, and that the Committee on Banking and Currency is without jurisdiction to report a bill carrying appropriations under clause 4, rule 21, which says that no bill or joint resolution carrying appropriations shall be reported by any committee not having jurisdiction to report appropriations.

This is no casual point of order made as a tactical maneuver in consideration of the bill. I make this point of order because this proposes to expand and develop a device or mechanism for getting funds out of the Federal Treasury in an unprecedented degree.

The Constitution has said that no money shall be drawn from the Treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law. It must follow that the mechanism which gets the money out of the Treasury is an appropriation. . . .

This proposal will give to the Committee on Banking and Currency, if it should be permitted, authority which the Committee on Appropriations does not have, for in the reporting of an appropriation bill for a fiscal year, any appropriation beyond the fiscal year would be held out of order. Here this committee is reporting a bill which proposes to make mandatory extractions from the Treasury during a period of 4 years. . . .

MR. [JOHN W.] MCCORMACK [of Massachusetts]: . . . The provision in paragraph (f) that my friend has raised a point of order against relates entirely to loans. As we read section 102 of title I it starts out with loans. Throughout the bill, a number of times, there is reference to loans.

Paragraph (e) says:

To obtain funds for loans under this title. . . .

I respectfully submit that it must call for an appropriation out of the general funds of the Treasury in order to violate the rules of the House. This permits the use of money raised by the sale of bonds under the Second Liberty Bond Act for loans to these public agencies, such loans to be repaid with interest.

I respectfully submit, complimenting my friend for having raised the point of order—and certainly, it is not a dilatory one, nor a casual one, one that demands respect—that the point of order does not lie against the language contained in the pending bill. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is prepared to rule.

The Chair agrees with the gentleman from South Dakota that the point which has been raised is not a casual point of order. As a matter of fact, as far as the Chair has been able to ascertain, this is the first time a point of order has been raised on this issue as violative of clause 4 of rule XXI.

As the Chair sees the point of order, the issue involved turns on the meaning of the word "appropriation." "Appropriation," in its usual and customary interpretation, means taking money out of the Treasury by appropriate legislative language for the support of the general functions of Government. The language before us does not do that. This language authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to use proceeds of public-debt issues for the purpose of making loans. Under the language, the Treasury of the United States makes advances which will be repaid in full with interest over a period of years without cost to the taxpayers.

Therefore, the Chair rules that this language does not constitute an appropriation, and overrules the point of order.

MR. CASE of South Dakota: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. CASE of South Dakota: Would the Chair hold then that that language restricts the Secretary of the Treasury to using the proceeds of the securities issued under the second Liberty Bond Act and prevents him from using the proceeds from miscellaneous receipts or tax revenues?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair does not have authority to draw that distinction. The Chair is passing on the particular point which has been raised.

MR. CASE of South Dakota: However, Mr. Chairman, it would seem implicit in the ruling of the Chair and I thought perhaps it could be decided as a part of the parliamentary history. It might help some courts later on.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair can make a distinction between the general funds of the Treasury and money raised for a specific purpose by the issuance of securities. That is the point involved here.

Rulings to Follow Precedents

§ 6.2 The Chairman follows the precedents of the House in making decisions on points of order.

On July 28, 1959,<sup>(17)</sup> during consideration of a point of order that an amendment to H.R. 8385, making appropriations for the mutual security program, was legislative in intent, Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, of Arkansas, changed his opinion after being made aware of a precedent in which a point of order to a similar amendment was overruled.

MR. [JOHN V.] DOWDY [of Texas]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Dowdy: On page 5, after line 21, add a new section as follows: "No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall be expended, in the event any such expenditure will increase, directly or indirectly, the public debt of the United States of America."

MR. [OTTO E.] PASSMAN [of Louisiana]: Mr. Chairman, I reserve a point of order.

17. 105 CONG. REC. 14521, 14522, 86th Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state the point of order.

MR. TABER: Mr. Chairman, it creates additional duties and changes existing law.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will hear the gentleman from Texas on the point of order.

MR. DOWDY: Mr. Chairman, the amendment I have offered puts a limitation on an appropriation. I offered the same amendment in previous years and it has been held not to be legislation upon an appropriation bill. The fact of the matter is it follows in words section 102 of the present bill.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Texas offers an amendment to which the gentleman from New York makes a point of order on the ground that the amendment is legislation on an appropriation bill, therefore not germane to the bill before the Committee. Though the amendment appears to be in the form of a simple limitation on an appropriation bill, the Chair is of the opinion that the amendment itself will place additional duties and responsibilities and functions on someone perhaps in the executive department or in the Congress.

MR. DOWDY: Mr. Chairman, in a previous year that very amendment has been ruled on to the contrary by the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: If the gentleman would cite the decision, the Chair would be glad to have it.

MR. DOWDY: I think it was 2 or 3 years ago on this bill. I do not have the decision.

THE CHAIRMAN: The present occupant of the chair does not recall it. In view of the gentleman's statement, the Chair is constrained to withhold his final decision until he can look into the matter. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The time of the gentleman from Texas has expired.

The Chair is now prepared to rule on the point of order.

The Chair appreciates the fact that the gentleman from Texas called the attention of the present occupant of the chair to the amendment offered in connection with the appropriation bill for mutual security in 1955. The gentleman from Texas at that time offered an amendment which is not identical with the amendment he offered today, although apparently the purpose of the amendment offered then and that of the amendment offered today are the same. The language varies slightly.

The Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, on that occasion, the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. Walter], held that the amendment offered then in 1955 was merely a limitation. The present occupant of the chair feels constrained to follow the precedent pointed out by the gentleman from Texas and therefore overrules the point of order.

The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Texas [Mr. Dowdy].

Clarification of Earlier Ruling

§ 6.3 After the Committee of the Whole had agreed that debate on an amendment be limited to five minutes and the Chair had misinterpreted

the agreement as limiting debate on the amendment and all amendments thereto, the Chair later the same day apologized to the Committee and to a Member who had been denied the privilege of debate on his amendment to the amendment because of this misinterpretation.

On May 3, 1946,<sup>(18)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6056, the 1947 appropriation bill for the Departments of State, Justice, Commerce, and the Judiciary, Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, of Arkansas, apologized for denying Mr. John M. Vorys, of Ohio, the privilege of debate on his amendment to an amendment. The apology was made because the Chairman misinterpreted a unanimous-consent request made by Mr. Louis C. Rabaut, of Michigan, that "all debate on the pending amendment," which had been offered by Mr. Vorys, "close in 5 minutes." Although the unanimous-consent agreement would have barred Mr. Vorys from debating his original amendment because the five minutes had expired at the time he rose to speak, it should not have been applied in this instance because Mr. Vorys rose to speak not on the "pending amendment" but rather on a new amendment which he sought to offer to the pending amendment.<sup>(19)</sup>

MR. RABAUT: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that all debate on the pending amendment close in 5 minutes.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Michigan?

There was no objection.

MR. RABAUT: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that the amendment offered by the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. Vorys] be read again for the information of the Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Michigan?

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, reserving the right to object, I think we ought to have a little more time.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Michigan?

There was no objection.

The Clerk reread the pending Vorys amendment.

MR. RABAUT: Mr. Chairman, the gentleman from Ohio has submitted a very complicated amendment. But the meaning of the amendment is very simple. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The time of the gentleman from Michigan has expired. All time has expired. . . .

19. Parliamentarian's Note: If no objection is raised, a proponent of an amendment may amend his own amendment. 116 CONG. REC. 19754, 91st Cong. 2d Sess., June 15, 1970. See Ch. 27, infra.

MR. RABAUT: I ask for a vote on the amendment, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question recurs on the amendment.

MR. VORYS of Ohio: Mr. Chairman, I have an amendment, which I send to the Clerk's desk.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is it an amendment to the pending amendment?

MR. VORYS of Ohio: Yes, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk will report the amendment.

MR. RABAUT: A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. RABAUT: On what ground is this amendment considered?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Ohio has offered an amendment to his amendment.

MR. RABAUT: But debate has been closed and the gentleman cannot be recognized for debate.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair does not recognize the gentleman for debate.

MR. VORYS of Ohio: Mr. Chairman, no debate could possibly have been closed on this amendment which was not offered.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Michigan's unanimous-consent request was that all debate close within 5 minutes on the pending amendment and all amendments thereto.

MR. VORYS of Ohio: No, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk will report the amendment offered by the gentleman from Ohio to his amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Vorys of Ohio to the amendment offered by Mr. Vorys of Ohio: After the words "September 1, 1946," insert "not specifically authorized by act of Congress."

THE CHAIRMAN: The question recurs on the amendment to the amendment.

MR. TABER: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk will report the preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Taber: Mr. Taber moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

After debate, the motion of Mr. Taber was rejected by voice vote. The amendment of Mr. Vorys to the amendment of Mr. Vorys was rejected on a teller vote of ayes 88, noes 106.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair desires to make a statement.

Earlier today, immediately upon the House resolving itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the present bill, H.R. 6065, the chairman of the subcommittee handling the bill propounded a unanimous-consent request which the Chair endeavored to understand. The Chair, in attempting to understand the unanimous-consent request, failed, however, to understand that request as it was transcribed by the official reporter. The Chair has before him the transcript of the record as taken by the official reporter, of the request made by the gentleman from Michigan. The request of the gentleman from Michigan was that all debate on the pending amendment close in 5 minutes. The Chair misunderstood the gentleman so that when the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. Vorys] offered an amendment to his amendment, the gentleman from Ohio, instead of being recognized for the 5 minutes to which he was entitled, was barred by the Chair from speaking in support of his amendment to the amendment.

The Chair wishes to apologize to the Committee and to the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. Vorys] for making a most unintentional misinterpretation of the request of the gentleman from Michigan. The Chair trusts the apology of the Chair may be accepted both by the gentleman from Ohio and the Committee.

Interruption of Debate by Chair

§ 6.4 The Chair may interrupt a Member of the House in debate when the Member proposes to read the opinions or statements of a Member of the Senate.

On May 25, 1937,<sup>(20)</sup> during consideration of House Joint Resolution 361, a relief appropriation, Chairman John J. O'Connor, of New York, interrupted a Member who sought to read a letter from a Member of the other body.

MR. [ALFRED F.] BEITER [of New York]: . . . Mr. Chairman, I have letters here from Members of the Senate saying they are in sympathy with this movement. If you will permit me, I will read a letter from Senator Murray, in which he says—

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair, on its own responsibility, makes the point of order against the reading of a letter from a Member of another body.<sup>(21)</sup>

Expression of Appreciation to Chairman

§ 6.5 The House leaders expressed their appreciation for the dignity and fairness of the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole in presiding over debate on an appropriation bill.

On May 10, 1950,<sup>(22)</sup> House leaders from both parties expressed their appreciation for the manner in which the Chairman,

21. Parliamentarian's Note: Jefferson's Manual provides: "It is a breach of order in debate to notice what has been said on the same subject in the other House. . . . Therefore it is the duty of the House, and more particularly the Speaker, to interfere immediately, and not to permit expressions to go unnoticed which may give a ground of complaint to the other House. . . ." House Rules and Manual §§371-374 (1979). See also Ch. 29, §44, infra.

22. 96 CONG. REC. 6841, 6842, 81st Cong. 2d Sess. The proceedings described are illustrative of courtesies frequently expressed in the House of Representatives.

Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, presided over Committee of the Whole in the consideration of H.R. 7786, the first general appropriation bill, 1951.

MR. [J. PERCY] PRIEST [of Tennessee]: Mr. Chairman, I move to strike out the last word.

Mr. Chairman, within a very few minutes the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union will rise and report this omnibus appropriation bill back to the House. The House of Representatives, Mr. Chairman, always appreciates a job well done, and when that job happens to be a difficult and a tedious and a tiring job, the measure of appreciation is all the greater.

I take the floor at the close of this debate to express a very sincere appreciation for the magnificent job done by my distinguished colleague the gentleman from Tennessee [Mr. Cooper] in presiding over this bill in Committee.

I am sure that my sentiments in this respect are shared by every Member of this House on both sides of the aisle.

MR. [JOSEPH W.] MARTIN [Jr.] of Massachusetts: Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

MR. PRIEST: I yield to the gentleman from Massachusetts.

MR. MARTIN of Massachusetts: I want to join, in behalf of the Republican Members of this House, in this commendation of our very able Chairman who has conducted himself with great dignity and fairness. We, on this side, appreciate him as we always have.

MR. PRIEST: I thank the gentleman.

MR. [JOHN W.] MCCORMACK [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

MR. PRIEST: I yield to the gentleman from Massachusetts.

MR. MCCORMACK: We are all proud of Jere Cooper, not only as a Member of the House, but for the outstanding and the fine manner in which he always has presided over any bill that he has been designated as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House. I have served with my friend for many years. The people of his district and of his State can well be proud of their Jere Cooper.

MR. PRIEST: I thank the majority leader.

Mr. Chairman, for more than a month this bill has been before the House. Day after day since about April 3 the distinguished gentleman from Tennessee has demonstrated every hour of every day those qualities of patience and fairness and justice that mark him as a great presiding officer.

In addition to his arduous duties of presiding during consideration of this bill, he has carried his part of the load during all of that time as the ranking majority member of the Committee on Ways and Means as it seeks to write a new tax bill.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair appreciates the very kind references.

MR. [CLARENCE] CANNON [of Missouri]: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with sundry amendments, with the recommendation that the amendments be agreed to and that the bill as amended do pass.

§ 7.—Limitations on the Chairman's Jurisdiction

The jurisdiction of the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole is not unlimited; certain determinations are reserved to the Speaker, the House, or the Committee itself. Thus, the Committee of the Whole, not the Chairman, determines whether language in a committee report is binding,<sup>(1)</sup> and the Speaker responds to inquiries regarding whether a time limitation may be rescinded<sup>(2)</sup> or whether a two-thirds vote is required in the House.<sup>(3)</sup> The House determines the constitutionality of proposed legislation,<sup>(4)</sup> the sufficiency or legal effect of committee reports,<sup>(5)</sup> and whether the Committee of the Whole may sit in executive session.<sup>(6)</sup>

Constitutional Questions

§ 7.1 The Chairman does not pass on questions of constitutionality.

tion, Chairman Howard W. Smith, of Virginia, referred to the power of the Chair to rule on constitutional questions.<sup>(8)</sup>

MR. [DONALD E.] TEWES [OF WISCONSIN]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

Amendment offered by Mr. Tewes: On page 57, immediately after line 22, insert the following:

“Sec. 211. For the purpose of disapproval by the President, each paragraph of each of the preceding sections, shall be considered a bill within the meaning of article I, section 7, of the Constitution of the United States, and each such paragraph which is disapproved shall not become law unless repassed in accordance with the provisions of section 7, article I, of the Constitution relating to the repassage of a bill disapproved by the President.”

And renumber the following section accordingly.

MR. [FRANK E.] SMITH of Mississippi: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the amendment on the ground that such language is entirely out of order on any type of legislation. We do not have a provision in our Constitution for an item veto.

MR. TEWES: Mr. Chairman, I do not think that constitutional provisions are involved.

8. See also 112 CONG. REC. 25677, 89th Cong. 2d Sess., Oct. 7, 1966, in which Chairman Charles M. Price (Ill.), stated that the Chair does not pass on constitutional questions; and see 94 CONG. REC. 5817, 80th Cong. 2d Sess., May 13, 1948, for another illustration of this principle.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is ready to rule. The Chair does not pass upon constitutional questions. The amendment seems to be pertinent to the bill and relates to the bill. Therefore, the Chair overrules the point of order.

§ 7.2 The question of the constitutionality of proposed legislation is a matter for the House, and not the Chairman, to decide.

On May 10, 1973,<sup>(9)</sup> during consideration of an amendment to H.R. 7447, Chairman Jack B. Brooks, of Texas, ruled on the authority to decide constitutional questions.

MR. [SIDNEY R.] YATES [of Illinois]: Mr. Chairman, I have a point of order against the language beginning at page 6, line 10 through line 12.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. YATES: Mr. Chairman. I make a point of order against the language set forth in lines 10, 11, and 12, on page 6.

Article I, section 8, of the Constitution of the United States says:

The Congress shall have the power to declare war.

Congress has not declared war against Cambodia or Laos or against any other country in Southeast Asia for that matter. Congress has not given the President any authority to use the American Armed Forces in Cambodia and Laos. Nevertheless, on order of President Nixon, American military planes are bombing in both those countries. The appropriation contained in the transfer authority includes funds to continue the bombing of Cambodia and Laos. That appears in the report of the committee and in the testimony of the committee. This has been conceded by witnesses appearing before the committee, and Secretary of Defense Richardson again stated to the press yesterday that whether or not Congress approves the transfer authority, the bombing would continue. . . .

I am asking the Chair for its ruling on two points. One, I ask the Chair to rule with respect to military appropriations which provide funds for American Armed Forces to engage in war under rule XXI, section 2, of the Rules of Procedure of the House of Representatives, which states there must be, as well as any other legislation authorizing such action, compliance with article I, section 8, of the U.S. Constitution, which requires the approval of the Congress for American Armed Forces to engage in that war. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: Before the Chair will rule on this he will ask the Clerk to read the section on which the point of order was raised. The paragraph beginning on line 9.

The Clerk read as follows:

Section 735 of the Department of Defense Appropriation Act, 1973, is amended by deleting "$750,000,000" and inserting "$1,180,000,000" in lieu thereof. . . .

The Chair is ready to rule.

The Chair has read the resolution, and the resolution adopted by the House under which this legislation is being considered says that—

9. 119 CONG. REC. 15290, 15291, 93d Cong. 1st Sess.

All points of order against said bill for failure to comply with the provisions of clause 2 and clause 5 of rule XXI are hereby waived.

Under clause 2, which the Chair has read, the pending paragraph would be subject to a point of order, as legislation, were it not for this rule.

The Chair is not in a position, nor is it proper for the Chair to rule on the constitutionality of the language, or on the constitutionality or other effect of the action of the House in adopting the resolution of the Committee on Rules. In the head notes in the precedents of the House it very clearly states that it is not the duty of a chairman to construe the Constitution as it may affect proposed legislation, or to interpret the legality or effect of language; and the Chair therefore overrules the point of order raised by the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. Yates).

§ 7.3 It is the duty of the Chairman to determine whether the provisions in a pending bill conform to the rules of the House, but the Chair will not construe the constitutional validity of those provisions.

On May 10, 1973,<sup>(10)</sup> during consideration of an amendment to H.R. 7447, supplemental appropriations for fiscal year 1973, Chairman Jack B. Brooks, of Texas, determined that the amendment conformed to the

10. 119 CONG. REC. 15290, 15291, 93d Cong. 1st Sess.

House rules, but declined to construe the constitutional validity thereof.<sup>(11)</sup>

Merits of Proposed Legislation

§ 7.4 It is not the function of the Chair to pass upon the merits of a proposed amendment or bill.

On May 19, 1948,<sup>(12)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 5852, regarding control of subversive activities, Chairman James W. Wadsworth, Jr., of New York, stated that the Chairman in ruling on a point of order does not pass on the merits of proposed legislation.

MR. [SAM] HOBBS [of Alabama]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment. The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Hobbs. . . .

"Sec. 20. (a) That the deportation of aliens provided for in this act and all other immigration laws of the United States shall be directed by the Attorney General, within his discretion and without priority of preference because of their order as herein set forth, either to the country from which such alien last entered the United States; or to the country in which is located the foreign port at which such alien embarked for the United States . . . ."

MR. [KARL [E.] [MUNDT] of South Dakota]: Mr. Chairman, I make the

11. See §7.2, supra, for the relevant debate on May 10.

12. 94 CONG. REC. 6139, 6140, 80th Cong. 2d Sess.

point of order against the amendment that it is not germane to the pending bill, H.R. 5852. It seems to me the gentleman's amendment, which I believe is in actuality a bill which is before the House and before another committee, deals with the arrangements and techniques of deportation proceedings, which do not properly fall within the province of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, so in my opinion the amendment should not be attached with germaneness to legislation of this type. Regardless of the merits of Mr. Hobbs' proposal, I submit it should come before us as a separate measure and not be added as overburden to H.R. 5852.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from Alabama care to be heard on the point of order?

MR. HOBBS: I certainly do, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will hear the gentleman.

MR. HOBBS: Mr. Chairman, the amended title of this bill is "A bill to protect the United States against un-American and subversive activities." That is the declared purpose of the bill. In the subcommittee's report on the legislation we have been considering it is stated:

The subcommittee recommends the immediate consideration by the Judiciary Committee of the House of proposals which would require all aliens to register annually with the Department of Justice, allow the Department of Justice to hold deportable aliens in custody until arrangements for their deportation can be concluded, and provide for strict reciprocity in the granting of visas and in the treatment of aliens from Communist-dominated countries.

I submit, Mr. Chairman, in all earnestness and candor, that when you are dealing with a problem that goes to un-American and subversive activities you cannot find any activity that is more important to prevent the poisoning of the body politic of this Nation than the one to which my amendment addresses itself. It has already been considered by the Judiciary Committee of the House, it has already been granted a rule by the Rules Committee, and it has already passed this House. In substance it is identical with H.R. 5643 of the Seventy-sixth Congress, that did pass this House. It is no fault of ours that it is not the law of the land today. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is ready to rule.

The Chair would remind the gentleman from Alabama, of course, that his function is not to pass upon the merits of an amendment nor to pass upon the merits of the bill which the gentleman says has already passed the House. The Chair may personally find himself in complete agreement with the objective sought by the legislation which the gentleman from Alabama espouses, but the legislation to which he refers, as the Chair understands, has to do with the immigration and naturalization laws of the United States. This bill pending before the Committee of the Whole does not approach that subject. Its title is "Subversive Activities Control Bill, 1948." It comes from the Committee on Un-American Activities. That committee has no jurisdiction over legislation having to do with immigration and naturalization laws. Therefore, the Chair holds that the amendment is not germane.

MR. HOBBS: Mr. Chairman, may I call the attention of the Chair to the fact that it deals with the question of the issuance of passports and prohibits such issuance.

The Chairman: The proposal of the gentleman goes far beyond that. The point of order is sustained.

Consistency of Proposal With Existing Law

§ 7.5 It is not within the province of the Chairman to interpret the consistency of a provision in a legislative bill with the provisions of existing law.

On June 7, 1973,<sup>(13)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7645, to authorize appropriations for the Department of State, Chairman Robert C. Eckhardt, of Texas, ruled on the scope of the Chair's authority to interpret a proposed bill.

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. GROSS: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the language to be found on page 2, paragraph 2, lines 16 and 17, as being in violation of the law and therefore not authorized.

Mr. Chairman, section 286(c), title 22, United States Code, which is derived from section 5 of the Bretton Woods Agreement Act, provides as follows:

Unless Congress by law authorizes such action neither the President nor any person or agency shall on behalf of the United States propose or agree to any change in the par value of the United States dollar.

Mr. Chairman, I repeat "propose or agree to any change." Mr. Chairman, reading from the report accompanying this bill on page 6:

Paragraph (2) authorizes an appropriation not to exceed $12,307,000 to offset increased costs abroad resulting from the dollar devaluation . . .

Mr. Chairman, I ask that my point of order be sustained on the ground that the purpose of this specific authorization is the result of a change in the par value of the dollar which has not been validated.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from Ohio wish to be heard on the point of order?

MR. [WAYNE L.] HAYS [of Ohio]: I do.

Mr. Chairman, I recall a previous ruling in which the Chair at one time ruled that the question of the constitutionality did not have any bearing on the point of order if the language were properly included in the bill and were not on an amendment subject to a point of order.

This is an amount of money put in at the request of the State Department. It has nothing to do with any possible action by the Banking and Currency Committee one way or the other.

Whether we like it or not, whether there has been any congressional action or not, in order to carry on the normal operations at the present time, it is going to require $12 million more to purchase the foreign currency necessary than it would have.

This is not a devaluation by an act of Congress. This is a pragmatic recognition of the loss of value of the dollar. And when the State Department buys foreign currency with which to pay its bills, it has to pay this much additional. By the time this becomes enacted into law, if the present policies continue, it may cost a great deal more than this.

13. 119 CONG. REC. 18502, 18503, 93d Cong. 1st Sess.

So, it has nothing to do with any action of Congress or any law.

MR. GROSS: Mr. Chairman, may I be heard further, briefly.

I point out to the Chair that no legislation has been approved by Congress and signed by the President changing the par value of the dollar.

MR. HAYS: Mr. Chairman, may I be heard further?

The action of the Congress and the President has nothing to do with the purchase of foreign currency. When we go to buy it, we do not set the rate of exchange. The President of the United States and the Secretary of the Treasury have allowed the dollar to float, and it did not float; it sunk.

Therefore, this is a pragmatic situation. We have to pay what the market price is. Under a float, there is no fixed currency exchange rate. This has nothing to do in any way with any action of Congress.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is ready to rule.

The bill provides an authorization for an appropriation for expenses of the Department of State overseas. The expenditures are merely referred to as resulting from the devaluation of the dollar and do not bring about that devaluation. The language in the bill simply authorizes expenses of the Department of State, and is in order in bill of this type.

All the Chair can do is interpret the rules of the House. There is no rule of the House called in controversy here.

The Chair overrules the point of order.

Hypothetical Questions

§ 7.6 The Chairman does not rule on hypothetical questions.

On Mar. 19, 1952,<sup>(14)</sup> after Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, of Arkansas, sustained a point of order raised by Mr. Clarence Cannon, of Missouri, to an amendment offered by Mr. Thomas A. Pickett, of Texas, Mr. John Phillips, of California, propounded a parliamentary inquiry as to whether the amendment would have been in order if the factual situation had been slightly different. The Chair refused to pass judgment on the hypothetical case. The proceedings were as follows:

MR. PICKETT: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Pickett: On page 3, after line 14, insert a new heading and the following language:

“DISASTER RELIEF

“The unobligated balances at the end of June 30, 1952, of appropria-

14. 98 CONG. REC. 2543, 82d Cong. 2d Sess. Under consideration was H.R. 7072, an independent executive offices appropriation bill for fiscal 1953.

tions heretofore made for Disaster Relief under the act of September 30, 1950 (Public Law 875); the Independent Offices Appropriation Act of 1952; act of July 18, 1951 (Public Law 80); and the act of October 24, 1951 (Public Law 202), shall, to the extent that they exceed in the aggregate $5,000,000, not be available for obligation after June 30, 1952, and shall be recovered to the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts."

MR. CANNON: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order, first, that the amendment is not germane to the bill. It has no relation to any item in the bill.

Second, it is legislation on an appropriation bill.

On both counts, or on either count, it is subject to a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from Texas [Mr. Pickett] desire to be heard on the point of order?

MR. PICKETT: Mr. Chairman, it occurs to me that this is a limitation of an appropriation. Its effect certainly is to recover into the Treasury moneys which are just floating around, and apparently serving no purpose at this time. It never occurred to me, of course notwithstanding whatever the rule might be, that we would avoid trying to save money here just by raising points of order. It seems to me that we might save a little money by even legislating some time. I hope the point of order will be overruled.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is ready to rule. The gentleman from Texas [Mr. Pickett] has offered an amendment. The gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Cannon] makes a point of order against the amendment on the ground it is not germane to the bill before the Committee and that it is legislation on an appropriation bill. The Chair has had an opportunity to read the amendment proposed by the gentleman from Texas. The amendment does not, as the Chair understands, apply to funds contained in the pending bill H.R. 7072, but has reference to funds which have been made available by the Congress in other legislation. Therefore, the amendment is not germane and is clearly legislation on an appropriation bill. The Chair is constrained to sustain the point of order.

MR. PHILLIPS: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. PHILLIPS: Mr. Chairman, would it have been in order if the gentleman from Texas made it a transfer of the funds to the Housing and Finance Agency, which comes on about page 53, and which already has a fund for distress purposes, and merely transfer this money to that fund? It would, therefore, be a limitation upon it.

THE CHAIRMAN: I am sure the gentleman from California will agree with the Chair when the Chair calls the gentleman's attention to the fact that the present occupant of the Chair has enough trouble without having to pass judgment on a hypothetical case.

MR. PICKETT: Mr. Chairman, if I might be heard further, I might say that if there is any possibility that the amendment is germane, it will be offered at that point.

§ 7.7 The Chairman does not respond to hypothetical questions even though raised under the guise of a parliamentary inquiry.

On Mar. 26, 1965,<sup>(15)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2362, the elementary and secondary education bill of 1965, Chairman Richard Bolling, of Missouri, declined to respond to a hypothetical question which had been raised as a parliamentary inquiry.

MR. [ALBERT H.] QUIE [of Minnesota]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. QUIE: Mr. Chairman, if I had risen to move to strike out the last word, rather than offering an amendment which would be voted on, then would the extra 5 minutes have been I divided equally?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is not in position to answer that kind of question.

MR. QUIE: It may happen in the future as we go along with the debate.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will meet the situation as it arises.

§ 7.8 The Chairman will not entertain as a parliamentary inquiry a hypothetical question regarding the effect which the defeat of a pending amendment would have on the propriety of another amendment which has not been offered.

On Nov. 30, 1971,<sup>(16)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 11060, the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, Chairman Richard Bolling, of Missouri, refused to give a specific answer to a question as to whether an amendment—not yet before the House—might be entertained after the defeat of the pending amendment.

MR. [FRANK E.] EVANS of Colorado: Mr. Chairman, I have asked the gentleman from Illinois to yield to me for the purpose of posing a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. EVANS of Colorado: In the event the amendment offered by the distinguished gentleman from Ohio (Mr. Hays) is defeated, will we then be in a position to entertain an amendment as described by the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. Anderson)?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will reply to the gentleman from Colorado that the Chair cannot anticipate events precisely. If the amendment offered by the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. Hays) to this particular section is voted down, then another germane amendment to the particular area could be offered.

Anticipating House Action

§ 7.9 The Chairman of the Committee of the Whole does not predict what action may take place in the House after the Committee rises.

1. 95 CONG. REC. 3110–15, 81st Cong. 1st Sess.

pensions for veterans of World Wars I and II based on nonservice-connected disability and attained age, Chairman Albert A. Gore, of Tennessee, made reference to the power of the Chairman to anticipate House action following a rise of the Committee.

MR. [OLIN E.] TEAGUE [of Texas]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Teague moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. TEAGUE: Mr. Chairman, the purpose of this motion is not to kill the bill. The purpose of this motion is to bring it back before the House, at which time I will make a motion to recommit it to the Committee on Veterans' Affairs for further study. I think it is obvious from what has happened in the last 2 days that the bill deserves further study. . . .

MR. [GEORGE A.] SMATHERS [of Florida]: Mr. Chairman, is this not the parliamentary situation that if the motion is agreed to on this teller vote, then the Committee rises and a motion will be offered in the House to recommit the bill at which time there will be a yea-and-nay vote, the first recorded vote?

THE CHAIRMAN: As Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, the Chairman cannot construe what action may take place in the House. The Chairman can only report the action of the Committee of the Whole to the House when and if the Committee should rise.

§ 7.10 The Chairman of the Committee of the Whole does not rule on procedural questions that may be directed to the Speaker when a bill is reported back to the House.

On Oct. 8, 1969,<sup>(2)</sup> during consideration of amendments to H.R. 14159, the public works appropriation measure for fiscal year 1970, Chairman Wayne N. Aspinall, of Colorado, declined to rule on whether an amendment to the bill would be permissible in the House.

THE CHAIRMAN: . . . For what purpose does the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. O'Hara) rise?

MR. [JAMES G.] O'HARA: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. O'HARA: Would it be possible to offer an amendment to the language on page 14, lines 15 through 17, in the House after the Committee rises?

THE CHAIRMAN: That request would have to be taken care of at the time a motion ordering the previous question is made.

MR. O'HARA: But if the previous question were not ordered, the amendment would then be in order?

THE CHAIRMAN: That question would be determined by the Speaker of the House.

2. 115 CONG. REC. 29219, 29220, 91st Cong. 1st Sess.

§ 7.11 The Chairman of the Committee of the Whole does not anticipate or suggest what parliamentary decisions may be rendered in the House by the Speaker.

On May 18, 1966,<sup>(3)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 14544, the Participation Sales Act of 1966, Chairman Eugene J. Keogh, of New York, refused to anticipate decisions that the Speaker might render.

MR. [CHARLES R.] JONAS [of North Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. JONAS: In case the bill agreed on in the conference should delete this amending language, and the bill which came back to the House contained the objectionable language, against which the point of order was lodged, could a point of order be made against the conference report to strike that language?

THE CHAIRMAN: The present occupant of the chair would not assume to undertake to suggest what would be done by the Speaker in that event.

MR. JONAS: That would be a matter for the Speaker to decide.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman is correct.

Rescinding Time Limitation

posed by the Committee of the Whole is a matter for the Speaker, and not the Chairman, to determine.

On Dec. 14, 1973,<sup>(4)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 11450, the Emergency Energy Act, Chairman Richard Bolling, of Missouri, declined to answer an inquiry regarding an extension of time for consideration of the bill on the ground that such an inquiry should be addressed to the Speaker.

MR. [JOHN H.] BUCHANAN [Jr., of Alabama]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. BUCHANAN: Mr. Chairman, should a motion be offered that the Committee do now rise, and that motion would be accepted by the Committee, would it be possible then in the House for time to be extended or for the earlier motion limiting time to be rescinded?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state to the gentleman from Alabama that the gentleman is asking the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole to rule on a matter that would come before the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

MR. BUCHANAN: The Chairman cannot answer that according to the rules of the House?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that the Chair is not in a position to answer for the Speaker.

4. 119 CONG. REC. 41731, 93d Cong. 1st Sess.

Vote Required in House

§ 7.13 The question of the vote required to adopt a resolution in the House is not properly addressed to the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole as a parliamentary inquiry but should be addressed to the Speaker in the House.

On June 13, 1946,<sup>(5)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6777, the government corporations appropriation bill, 1947, Chairman William M. Whittington, of Mississippi, declined to rule whether a two-thirds vote would be required in the House to adopt a special rule.

MR. [FRANCIS H.] CASE of South Dakota: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. CASE of South Dakota: Would it be possible to get a rule making in order a paragraph which had previously been stricken from the bill on a point of order, unless that rule was adopted by a two-thirds vote?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair may say to the gentleman that that inquiry is not one that can be answered in the Committee of the Whole. It is a matter that would have to be determined by the Speaker of the House.

5. 92 CONG. REC. 6877, 6878, 79th Cong. 2d Sess.

Time To Resume Unfinished Business

§ 7.14 The question as to when the Committee of the Whole will continue the consideration of a pending bill after rising for the day is for the Speaker and the House to decide and not the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole.

On Apr. 26, 1948,<sup>(6)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2245, to repeal the tax on oleomargarine, Chairman Leslie C. Arends, of Illinois, declined to rule on when the Committee would continue consideration of the bill after rising for the day.

MR. AUGUST H. ANDRESEN [of Minnesota]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. AUGUST H. ANDRESEN: Mr. Chairman, I understand that the Committee will rise at 4 o'clock. It is also my understanding of the rules that this Committee should meet tomorrow in order to have continuous consideration of the pending legislation.

I would like to have a ruling of the Chair as to whether or not the rules provide that a day may intervene so that this legislation may be taken up on Wednesday.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair may say that is a matter for the Speaker of the

6. 94 CONG. REC. 4873, 80th Cong. 2d Sess.

House and the House itself to determine. It is not something within the jurisdiction of the Chair to decide.

§ 7.15 A parliamentary inquiry as to whether a bill under consideration on Calendar Wednesday would be the unfinished business of the Committee of the Whole on the next day if the House adjourns is not a question for the Chairman to decide.

On Feb. 22, 1950, Calendar Wednesday,<sup>(7)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 4453, the Federal Fair Employment Practice Act, Chairman Francis E. Walter, of Pennsylvania, declined to answer a parliamentary inquiry as to whether the bill would be the unfinished business of the Committee of the Whole on the next day if the House adjourned.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(8)</sup> The House automatically resolves itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union. The gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. Walter] will take the chair.

7. 96 CONG. REC. 2161, 2162, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

8. Sam Rayburn (Tex.).

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

MR. [JAMES G.] FULTON [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. FULTON: If the House were now to adjourn would the first order of business tomorrow be the consideration of this bill by the Committee of the Whole?

THE CHAIRMAN: The parliamentary inquiry is directed to a state of facts that does not exist. The House has resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole, and the Committee of the Whole cannot adjourn.

The Clerk will read the bill.

Sufficiency or Legal Effect of Committee Report

§ 7.16 The Chair does not pass on the legal effect of funding limitations included in a committee report on an appropriation bill but not written into the wording of the bill; that matter is decided by the Committee of the Whole in considering the bill for amendment.

On Apr. 14, 1955,<sup>(9)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 5502, the Departments of State, Justice, Judiciary, and related agencies appropriations bill of 1956, Chairman Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, declined to respond to a parliamentary inquiry as to whether limitations appearing in a committee report but not in the bill are binding.

MR. [ROBERT C.] WILSON of California: I have a question relative to the United States Information Agency as it affects the report of the committee. As printed I notice there are several limitations written into the report. For instance, not to exceed $300,000 is provided for the "presentation" program; not to exceed $200,000 is provided for exhibits for which $334,000 was requested, and other limitations of that type.

I am wondering if the fact that these limitations appear in the report make them actual limitations in law. I notice they are not mentioned in the bill itself, and I wonder if the committee regards them as binding on the agency, because there are many serious limitations, particularly in regard to exhibits, for example. I would just like to hear the opinion of the chairman.

MR. [John J.] ROONEY [of New York]: I may say to the gentleman from California that it is expected that they will be the law; and that they are binding. The fact that they have not been inserted in the bill is not important. They represent the considered judgment of the committee and we expect the language of the report to be followed.

MR. WILSON of California: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. WILSON of California: Are limitations written in a committee report such as this, but not written into the wording of the legislation, binding?

THE CHAIRMAN: That is not a parliamentary inquiry. That is a matter to be settled by the members of the Committee of the Whole.

§ 7.17 The Chair does not rule on the sufficiency or legal effect of committee reports.

On Apr. 14, 1955,<sup>(10)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 5502, the Departments of State, Justice, Judiciary, and related agencies appropriations bill of 1956, Chairman Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, stated that the Chair would not pass on the sufficiency of the committee report on the bill.

MR. [ROBERT C.] WILSON of California: I have a question relative to the United States Information Agency as it affects the report of the committee. As printed I notice there are several limitations written into the report. For instance, not to exceed $300,000 is provided for the "presentation" program; not to exceed $200,000 is provided for exhibits for which $334,000 was requested, and other limitations of that type.

I am wondering if the fact that these limitations appear in the report make them actual limitations in law. I notice they are not mentioned in the bill itself, and I wonder if the committee regards them as binding on the agency, because there are many serious limitations, particularly in regard to exhibits, for example. I would just like to hear the opinion of the Chairman. . . .

MR. WILSON of California: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it. . . .

MR. WILSON of California: I merely wanted [to ask about a report] for my own understanding and information, for I am fairly new here. It seems to me rather unusual to consider matter written into a report of the same binding effect on an administrator as though written into the law itself.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is not the prerogative of the Chair to pass upon the sufficiency or insufficiency of a committee report.

MR. WILSON of California: I am not really asking whether the report itself is sufficient or insufficient; I am asking whether the legislation we are voting on here is sufficient or insufficient.

The committee report on the appropriation bill now before the House includes recommendations on maximum amounts to be available to the USIA for certain specified functions. The recommendations appear to be intended as limitations. No comparable limitations are contained in the bill appropriating funds to USIA. . . .

Legislation can be enacted only by the joint action of the House and Senate and the President. Legislation cannot be unilaterally enacted by a committee of the Congress. Naturally the committee recommendations are to be given due weight by the executive agencies in the administration of the programs concerned. These recommendations are the result of the arduous labors of conscientious legislators. They are not to be lightly ignored or disregarded by the executive arm of the Government. They are not, however, legislative mandates having the force of law.

I am firmly of the above view and understand that my view is shared by the General Counsel of the General Accounting Office.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman might address that inquiry to the chairman of the subcommittee.

MR. [JOHN J.] ROONEY [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

MR. [FREDERIC R.] COUDERT [Jr., of New York]: I yield.

MR. ROONEY: Let me say once again that the language in the report with regard to these limitations is a matter of custom which has been followed over many years, and it is expected that the USIA and the departments involved in this bill will strictly follow the language of the report unless the will of the House demonstrates otherwise by adopting amendments to the bill.

Sitting in Executive Session

§ 7.18 The House and not the Committee of the Whole decides whether the Committee may sit in executive session; a parliamentary inquiry of this sort should be addressed to the Speaker and not the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole.

On May 9, 1950,<sup>(11)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7786, the general appropriations bill of 1951, Chairman Mike Mansfield, of Montana, stated that the House, not the Committee of the Whole, determines whether the Committee may sit in executive session, and he declined to respond to a parliamentary inquiry regarding that matter on the ground that such an inquiry should be addressed to the Speaker.

11. 96 CONG. REC. 6746, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [ERRETT P.] SCRIVNER [of Kansas]: Mr. Chairman, I move to strike out the last word.

Mr. Chairman, I would submit a parliamentary inquiry as to whether or not an executive session could be held and, if so, what procedure would be necessary to bring that to pass before we are asked to vote upon the $350,000,000 additional.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state to the gentleman from Kansas that the Committee of the Whole would have no control over that. That would be a matter for the House itself to decide.

MR. SCRIVNER: I understand that, of course, and raised the question for information of the Members. Since it is a matter for the House to determine, as a further parliamentary inquiry, what would be the method followed to take that action?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will say to the gentleman from Kansas that a parliamentary inquiry of that sort should be addressed to the Speaker rather than the Chairman.

Interpretation of Senate Procedure

§ 7.19 The Chair does not interpret the rules or procedures of the Senate.

On June 6, 1961,<sup>(12)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7444, making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for fiscal year 1962, the Chairman declined to interpret Senate rules or procedure.

MR. [WILLIAM H.] AVERY [of Kansas]: Mr. Chairman, may I submit another parliamentary inquiry?

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(13)</sup> The gentleman will state it.

MR. AVERY: Mr. Chairman, the language of the amendment now pending at the desk is the identical language that came into conference from the other body following action of the House, and my amendment in 1959 became incorporated, I believe, in the conference report. Does that in any way change the legislative history of the amendment?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair may advise the gentleman that nothing is pending before the Chair, but by way of observation, the language the gentleman speaks of was apparently added by the other body. The present occupant of the Chair would not attempt to state or to interpret the rules or procedure of the other body.

MR. AVERY: I thank the Chairman.

§ 8.—Rulings Relating to Amendments

The Chairman of the Committee of the Whole is guided by the precedents in determining whether a bill being considered in the Committee shall be read for amendment by sections or paragraphs. Generally, appropriation bills are read for amendment by paragraph and other bills are read for amendment by section, in the absence of a special rule providing otherwise.<sup>(14)</sup> Nonetheless, the Chairman's decision on this matter has been overruled on occasion.<sup>(15)</sup> Although it is ordinarily not in order to return to a section or paragraph that has been passed<sup>(16)</sup> (the Chairman may direct a return to a section when, by error, no action had been taken on a pending amendment.<sup>(17)</sup>)

Application or Effect of Proposed Amendment

§ 8.1 The Chairman does ordinarily not construe the effect of an amendment.

17. Rule XXIII clause 5, House Rules and Manual §872 (1979); 4 Hinds' Precedents §4750.

On Apr. 26, 1966,<sup>(18)</sup> during consideration of an amendment to H.R. 14596, making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for fiscal year 1967, Chairman Eugene J. Keogh, of New York, declined to construe the effect of an amendment except to respond to a point of order alleging that it was legislation on an appropriation bill.

MR. [PAUL] FINDLEY [of Illinois]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Findley: On page 35, strike all language on lines 11 and 12, and insert the following:

"No funds appropriated by the Act shall be used to formulate or administer a Federal crop insurance program for the current fiscal year that does not meet its administrative and operating expenses from premium income: Provided," . . .

MR. [JAMIE L.] WHITTEN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the amendment offered by the gentleman from Illinois on the ground that it is legislation on an appropriation bill.

May I say that the gentleman from Illinois gave the matter away, in my opinion, when he said that the purpose of his amendment was to set premium rates that the Government would charge. I think that shows clearly what is involved. This amendment provides that no funds shall be used to administer this program under certain conditions. The program now in existence is based on contracts to which the Government is a party. For us in this bill to try to prohibit the handling of existing contracts on the part of the Government would clearly be legislation. It not only would be legislation but it would interfere with meeting obligations under existing contracts and commitments on the part of the Government.

18. 112 CONG. REC. 8968, 8969, 89th Cong. 2d Sess.

For that reason, Mr. Chairman, I submit that the point of order should be sustained.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from Illinois desire to be heard on the point of order?

MR. FINDLEY: Yes, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Chairman, the amendment I have offered is clearly a limitation of funds, requiring that no funds be appropriated for the administration or formulation of programs. Therefore, on the basis of that it seems to me that the amendment is in order.

MR. WHITTEN: Mr. Chairman, if I may make one observation, the amendment has to do with setting premiums and is quite clearly an affirmative action.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is prepared to rule.

The gentleman from Illinois [Mr. Findley] has offered an amendment at page 35, striking out all language on lines 11 and 12 and the amendment would add a new paragraph; to which amendment the gentleman from Mississippi has made a point of order on the ground that it is legislation on an appropriation act. . . .

It might be said that the effect of any proposed amendment is truly not within the competence of the Chair.

But a reading of this language indicates to this occupant of the chair that there is here sought an express limitation on the funds appropriated by the pending bill and the Chair, therefore, overrules the point of order.

§ 8.2 The Chair may construe the purpose of an amendment to determine whether it is a limitation on an appropriation and therefore in order, but may refuse to rule on its application or construction with respect to a provision in the bill.

On May 15, 1957,<sup>(19)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7441, making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture, Chairman Paul J. Kilday, of Texas, declined to pass on the construction of a proposed amendment after a point of order was made alleging that it was surplusage and ineffective because of a previously adopted amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

ACREAGE RESERVE, SOIL BANK

For necessary expenses to carry out an acreage reserve program in accordance with the provisions of subtitles A and C of the Soil Bank Act (7 U.S.C. 1821-1824 and 1802-1814), $600,000,000: Provided, That no part of this appropriation shall be used to formulate and administer an acreage reserve program which would result in total compensation being paid to producers in excess of $500,000,000 with respect to the 1958 crops.

19. 103 CONG. REC. 7023, 7033, 7034, 85th Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. [BURR P.] HARRISON of Virginia: I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Harrison of Virginia: On page 21, strike out all following the word "program" in line 2 and strike out all of line 3. . . .

So the amendment was agreed to.

MR. [HENRY S.] REUSS [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Reuss: On page 21, line 4, change the period to a comma and add the following: "or in total compensation being paid to any one producer in excess of $5,000 with respect to the 1958 crops."

MR. [JAMIE L.] WHITTEN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, I reserve a point of order against the amendment. . . .

Mr. Chairman, the committee having stricken out or prohibited the use of any money for any 1958 program, now to provide that money shall be limited to $5,000 per participant where no money can be used for the 1958 program is the question. If it is in order, Mr. Chairman, I should like to renew my point of order that to put a limitation on the amount to be given to a participant, when the committee has just adopted an amendment prohibiting the use of any money, strikes me as being surplusage and subject to a point of order. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is ready to rule on the point of order.

First, the Chair wants to call attention to the fact that the amendment offered by the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. Harrison] did not strike out all of the proviso. It struck out only that portion of the proviso on page 21, line 2, beginning after the word "program" to and including "$500,000,000" in line 3. So that the proviso now reads:

Provided, That no part of this appropriation shall be used to formulate and administer an acreage reserve program with respect to the 1958 crops.

The amendment offered by the gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. Reuss] strikes out the period, inserts a comma, and adds the language "or in total compensation being paid to any one producer in excess of $5,000 with respect to the 1958 crops."

While it may be because of the amendment offered by the gentleman from Virginia having been adopted that the amendment offered by the gentleman from Wisconsin would be ineffective, still the Chair believes, it being a limitation upon the purpose for which the funds are appropriated, that it is in order and that the point of order should be overruled.

MR. WHITTEN: Mr. Chairman, do I understand then that it is the judgment of the Chair that it would not apply back to the $600 million?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is not going to pass on the construction of the language whether this amendment is adopted or not.

The point of order is overruled.

§ 8.3 The Chairman does not rule on the effect of amendments on other provisions in

a bill, or their consistency with provisions of the bill already passed in the reading for amendment.

On June 28, 1967,<sup>(1)</sup> during consideration of amendments to H.R. 10340, authorizing appropriations for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, Chairman John J. Flynt, Jr., of Georgia, on two occasions overruled points of order on the ground that the Chairman does not rule on the consistency of amendments or their effect on other provisions of a bill.

The bill contained an overall appropriation (on page 1, line 5, as mentioned below) which was to be divided among various specified projects, including an amount for sustaining university programs (on page 2, line 22, as mentioned below). The "consistency problem", as raised by Mr. Joseph E. Karth, of Minnesota, was that the total figure for the overall appropriation would not equal the sum of all the appropriations for the various specified projects if an amendment changed only the figure for one of the specified programs. The proceedings were as follows:

MR. [RICHARD L.] ROUDEBUSH [of Indiana]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

1. 113 CONG. REC. 17755, 90th Cong. 1st Sess.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Roudebush: On page 2, line 22, strike the amount "$30 million" and insert in lieu thereof the amount "$20 million".

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Indiana [Mr. Roudebush] is recognized for 5 minutes in support of his amendment.

MR. KARTH: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. KARTH: Mr. Chairman, now that the amendment is here, I again renew my request for a ruling as to whether or not the amendment that the gentleman proposes to make on page 2 can be legitimately made without changing his figure on page 1. I raise that point of order, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman make a point of order to the amendment offered by the gentleman from Indiana?

MR. KARTH: I do, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state this point of order.

MR. KARTH: My point of order is, If the gentleman proceeds with his amendment as it has been read by the Clerk, reducing the amount on line 22 by $10 million and he does not change the total on line 5 of page 1, it seems to me that the amendment is not in proper order.

THE CHAIRMAN: Will the gentleman state his point of order in a form on which the Chair can rule?

MR. KARTH: The point of order I raise, Mr. Chairman, is against the amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: On what basis?

MR. KARTH: On the basis that it is not a properly drawn amendment, that it does not affect the bill as it otherwise would if it were proper.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair overrules the point of order. The Chair does not make rulings on the consistency of language in amendments offered to the bill.

The gentleman from Indiana [Mr. Roudebush] is recognized for 5 minutes.

MR. [ROBERT C.] ECKHARDT [of Texas]: Mr. Chairman—

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from Indiana yield to the gentleman from Texas?

MR. ROUDEBUSH: No, Mr. Chairman. I should like to make my remarks.

MR. ECKHARDT: A point of order, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. ECKHARDT: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that the amendment offered has the effect of changing the figure on page 1, line 5, by reducing it $10 million, and, therefore, affects line 5, which has already been amended at a previous time.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is ready to rule on the point of order.

The Chair will state, that the point of order made by the gentleman from Texas is substantially the same point of order made by the gentleman from Minnesota. The Chair does not rule on the question of whether an amendment to one point would amend another point in the bill.

The present amendment offered by the gentleman from Indiana relates to line 22 on page 2 and has no effect at this time on line 5, page 1.

The Chair, therefore, overrules the point of order of the gentleman from Texas.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Indiana [Mr. Roudebush] in support of his amendment.

Interpretation of Amendment

§ 8.4 The meaning of an amendment that is technically in order is not a matter to be passed on by the Chairman.

On Oct. 12, 1966,<sup>(2)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 51, the Indiana Dunes Lakeshore bill, Chairman John J. McFall, of California, declined to interpret an amendment.

MR. [J. EDWARD] ROUSH [of Indiana]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment to the substitute amendment offered by the gentleman from Arizona [Mr. Udall].

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment to the substitute amendment offered by Mr. Roush: Page 2, line 6, strike out the period at the end of Mr. Udall's amendment and add the following: "excluding therefrom the one mile of lakefront known as Ogden Dunes Beach and adding thereto the area known as the Burns Bog Unit as shown on a map with the same title, dated January 1965 and bearing the number 'NL-ID-7001A' which map is also on file and available for public inspection in the office of the Director of the National Park Service, Department of the Interior."

2. 112 CONG. REC. 26205, 89th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Indiana [Mr. Roush].

MR. [CHARLES A.] HALLECK [of Indiana]: Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield for the purpose of propounding a parliamentary inquiry?

MR. ROUSH: I yield to the gentleman from Indiana.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Indiana will state the parliamentary inquiry.

MR. HALLECK: Mr. Chairman, in view of the fact that all of the units of this proposed national park are fixed by reference to a map, is it in order to offer language in indefinite terms that would undertake to alter that?

The gentleman from Arizona offered an amendment which referred to another map, which is a matter of record.

I do not know and I do not know whether anybody else knows just what is meant when reference is made to Ogden Dunes or Burns Bog units.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair would reply that the Chair is not in a position to construe the amendment. The amendment technically is in order and it is up to the Member offering an amendment to construe the amendment for the benefit of the Members.

Ambiguity of Amendment

§ 8.5 The Chair does not rule on whether an amendment is ambiguous.

On July 5, 1956,<sup>(3)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7535, authorizing federal assistance to the states and local communities in financing an expanded program of school construction to eliminate a national shortage of classrooms, Chairman Francis E. Walter, of Pennsylvania, stated the practice of the Chair in ruling on the ambiguity of an amendment.

3. 102 CONG. REC. 11873, 11875, 84th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [ADAM C.] POWELL [Jr., of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Powell: On page 26, after line 12, insert a new title IV:

“That there shall be no Federal funds allotted or transferred to any State which fails to comply with the provisions of the Supreme Court.”

After debate, an amendment to the amendment was offered as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. [James] Roosevelt [of California] to the Powell amendment: Strike the word “provisions” and insert the word “decisions.”

MR. [ROSS] BASS of Tennessee: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. BASS of Tennessee: I make the point of order that the amendment is not germane to the bill.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is certainly germane to the amendment offered by the gentleman from New York to substitute the word “decisions” for the word “provisions.” The Chair so rules.

MR. BASS of Tennessee: Mr. Chairman, a further point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. BASS of Tennessee: I make the point of order that the word "provisions" is ambiguous and has no meaning whatever and would make the amendment not germane.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair does not rule on the question of ambiguity. It is a question of germaneness solely, and the Chair has ruled that the amendment is germane.

Consistency of Amendments

§ 8.6 The Chairman does not rule on the consistency of amendments.

On Aug. 16, 1961,<sup>(4)</sup> the Committee of the Whole by teller vote of 197 ayes, 185 noes, agreed to the following substitute amendment to H.R. 8400, the Mutual Security Act of 1961, authorizing appropriations to the President:

Amendment offered by Mr. [Dalip S.] Saund, of California, as a substitute for the amendment offered by Mr. Morgan, of Pennsylvania: On page 7, strike out line 13 and all that follows down through line 7 on page 9, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 202. Capitalization.—(a) There is hereby authorized to be appropriated to the President not to exceed $1,200,000,000 for use beginning in the fiscal year 1962 to carry out the purposes of this title, which sums shall remain available until expended.

The following day, Aug. 17, 1961,<sup>(5)</sup> the Committee again met, with Wilbur D. Mills, of Arkansas, in the Chair, to consider other amendments to the same bill:

THE CHAIRMAN: When the Committee rose on yesterday the Clerk had read through section 202 ending in line 13, page 3 of the bill.

If there are no further amendments to section 202, the Clerk will read.

MR. [LAURENCE] CURTIS of Massachusetts: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Curtis of Massachusetts: In section 202 add a new subsection to be numbered (b), and re-letter the other subsections accordingly, to read as follows:

"(b) There is hereby authorized to be appropriated to the President without fiscal year limitation to carry out the purposes of this title not to exceed $1,000,000,000 for the fiscal year 1963, and not to exceed $1,000,000,000 for the fiscal year 1964."

MR. [HOWARD W.] SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Chairman, in order to see if we can find out where we are at, I would like to know first what becomes of the amendment that was adopted on yesterday. It is in the bill. There is no provision in this amendment which strikes it out. Does it remain in the bill; and if it does not remain in the bill, how does it get out?

1973; 103 CONG. REC. 13501, 85th Cong. 1st Sess., Aug. 2, 1957; and 95 CONG. REC. 11994, 81st Cong. 1st Sess., Aug. 22, 1949, for other rulings that the Chairman does not rule on the consistency of amendments.

THE CHAIRMAN: That provision adopted yesterday remains in the bill; and, as the Chair understands the situation, it would not be affected by this amendment. This amendment would be in addition to that which was acted on yesterday.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Chairman, the two amendments are in direct conflict. We have adopted one amendment which says that this shall be for 1 year by direct appropriation, then we adopt another amendment, both of which the Chairman informs us will be in the bill. In the other amendment we made it a 3- or 4-year proposition and cut the appropriation. . . .

MR. [E. ROSS] ADAIR [of Indiana]: Mr. Chairman, I should like to urge a further point of order against the proposed amendment, first, on the basis that the subject matter of that amendment was acted upon yesterday and therefore it is not appropriate to reopen the matter at this time. Second, if I understood the place in the bill to which it is offered, since we already have a section (b) in there, it would be section (c), and I urge the Chair that it is not germane at that point. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is ready to rule.

The gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. Curtis] offers an amendment to section 202 of the bill to which the gentleman from Virginia makes a point of order.

Permit the Chair to say that it is not the province of the Chair to rule on whether matters are consistent or not. That is within the judgment of the committee. The amendment adopted yesterday included the deletion of paragraph (b) of section 202 as a part of the amendment. So, the Chair will say that there is at the moment no paragraph (b) in the bill. This is new material. It is germane to the subject of section 202, and the Chair overrules the point of order.

§ 8.7 The Chairman does not rule on the consistency of a proposed amendment with another amendment already adopted.

On July 25, 1973,<sup>(6)</sup> during consideration of H. R. 8480, the Impoundment Control Act, Chairman Dante B. Fascell, of Florida, declined to rule that a proposed amendment was inconsistent with an amendment which had already been adopted.

MR. [JOHN B.] ANDERSON of Illinois: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment. The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Anderson of Illinois: On page 11, after line 10, add the following new section:

"Sec. 109. The foregoing provisions of this title shall take effect on January 1, 1974."

MR. [RICHARD] BOLLING [of Missouri]: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his point of order.

6. 119 CONG. REC. 25828, 93d Cong. 1st Sess. See 119 CONG. REC. 41306, 41308, 41688, 41689, 93d Cong. 1st Sess., Dec. 13, and 14, 1973, respectively, for a similar ruling.

Mr. BOLLING: The point of order is that the amendment is not germane.

Mr. ANDERSON of Illinois: Mr. Chairman, if I may be heard on the point of order, I think perhaps the distinguished gentleman from Missouri and my colleague on the Committee on Rules has not correctly understood the amendment, because it is not the amendment that says that the foregoing provisions of this title; namely, title I, shall take effect on the effective date of this legislation which improves congressional control over budgetary outlay and the receipt totals in a comprehensive manner but merely fixes a date and says that the provisions of title I shall not become effective until January 1, 1974.

Mr. BOLLING: Mr. Chairman, then this amendment should have been offered at a different place as an amendment to the Heinz amendment, or else it is in effect a redundancy.

Mr. ANDERSON of Illinois: Mr. Chairman, if I may be heard further on the point of order, as I understand the Heinz amendment it has the effect of making it merely a 1-year bill. In other words, the antiimpoundment provisions would expire at the end of the current fiscal year. My amendment says that title I, the antiimpoundment provision, does not commence, does not become effective as a matter of law until January 1, 1974.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is prepared to rule.

The amendment offered by the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. Anderson) provides that title I shall take effect on January 1, 1974. The amendment is objected to because of inconsistency and also because it is not germane.

The Chair cannot rule on the consistency of the amendment offered by the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. Anderson) but the amendment certainly fixes a date certain which is not an unrelated contingency. The amendment is germane and therefore the Chair overrules the point of order.

§§8.8 While an amendment may not change an amendment already agreed to, an amendment that involves similar but not identical subjects to follow the adopted amendment is in order; and the Chair will not rule on the consistency of those amendments.

On Dec. 14, 1973,<sup>(7)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 11450, the Energy Emergency Act, Chairman Richard Bolling, of Missouri, overruled points of order in part on the ground that the Chairman does not rule on the consistency of amendments.

Amendment offered by Mr. [William R.] Roy [of Kansas] to the amendment in the nature of a substitute offered by Mr. Staggers: Page 36, line 23, strike out the quotation marks.

“(9)(A) This subsection shall not apply to the first sale of crude oil or petroleum condensates produced from any lease within the United States by a seller (i) who produced such oil or condensate, (ii) who (together with all persons who control, are controlled by or who are under common control with, such seller), produces in the aggregate less than 25,000 barrels per day of crude oil and petroleum condensates, averaged annually, and (iii) who is not a refiner or marketer or distributor of refined petroleum products (or a person who controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with such a refiner, marketer, or distributor).

“(B) For purposes of subparagraph (A)—

“(i) a person produces crude oil or petroleum condensates only if he has an interest in the production thereof which permits him to take his production (or share thereof) in kind, and

“(ii) the term ‘control’ means control by ownership.” . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Kansas (Mr. Roy) to the amendment in the nature of a substitute offered by the gentleman from West Virginia (Mr. Staggers). . . .

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—ayes 189, noes 194, not voting 49, as follows: . . .

Amendment offered by Mr. [Joe] Skubitz [of Kansas] to the amendment in the nature of a substitute offered by Mr. Staggers: Page 36, line 23, strike out the quotation marks.

“(9) This subsection shall not apply to the first sale of crude oil described in subsection (e)(2) of this section (relating to stripper wells).” . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Kansas (Mr. Skubitz) to the amendment in the nature of a substitute offered by the gentleman from West Virginia (Mr. Staggers).

The amendment to the amendment in the nature of a substitute was agreed to. . . .

MR. [ROBERT D.] PRICE of Texas: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment to the amendment in the nature of a substitute offered by the gentleman from West Virginia (Mr. Staggers).

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Price of Texas to the amendment in the nature of a substitute offered by Mr. Staggers: Page 36, line 23, strike out the quotation marks.

Page 36, insert after line 23 the following:

“(9)(A) This subsection shall not apply to the first sale of crude oil or petroleum condensates produced from any lease within the United States by a seller (i) who produced such oil or condensate, (ii) who (together with all persons who control, are controlled by or who are under common control with, such seller), produces in the aggregate less than 5,000 barrels per day of crude oil and petroleum condensates, averaged annually, and (iii) who is not a refiner or marketer or distributor of refined petroleum products (or a person who controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with such a refiner, marketer, or distributor).

MR. [SILVIO O.] CONTE [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. CONTE: Mr. Chairman, my point of order is that we have already considered the amendment before today. It was the Roy amendment, and therefore a point of order should lie against it.

MR. [JOHN D.] DINGELL [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I would like to be heard also on the point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that as the Chair understands the amendment the figure has been changed, therefore it is not the same amendment since the figure has been changed.

MR. DINGELL: May I be heard on the point of order?

MR. [ROBERT C.] ECKHARDT [of Texas]: Mr. Chairman, I would like to speak against the point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: May the Chair suggest that the Clerk complete the reading of the amendment, and then I will recognize the gentleman on his point of order.

The Clerk read the remainder of the amendment, as follows:

(B) For purposes of subparagraph (A)—

(i) a person produces crude oil or petroleum condensates only if he has an interest in the production thereof which permits him to take his production (or share thereof) in kind, and

(ii) the term "control" means control by ownership.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Massachusetts will be heard on his point of order.

MR. CONTE: Mr. Chairman, I insist on the point of order even though the amendment changes the figures. The amendment is now in the third degree, and therefore the point of order should be upheld.

MR. DINGELL: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order on the grounds that this is again bringing before the Committee a portion of the bill which has already been amended. As the Chair recalls, we adopted the Skubitz amendment, which dealt with the same subject matter, and at the same place, and I submit, regardless of the point of order raised by the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. Conte) that this is a violation of the Rules of the House as an attempt to redo action earlier taken by the Committee with regard to the Skubitz amendment, which was likewise dealing with the limitation on the coverage of the particular section to include coverage of people who operate stripper wells.

MR. ECKHARDT: Mr. Chairman, I speak against the point of order. The Skubitz amendment dealt in an entirely different subject matter. The Skubitz amendment dealt with oil produced by well, not oil produced by producer, and provided that in those cases of wells producing less than, as I recall, 10 barrels per day, these should be exempted.

The amendment here is not dealing with stripper wells. It has nothing to do with wells. It has to do with the size of the producers. Therefore, this subject matter has not been previously covered. This does not change the Skubitz amendment at all, and it deals with a different subject.

Of course, the point of order with respect to the proposition that this is in the third degree is frivolous, because this is introduced as an additional amendment, and the amendment is different materially from the 25,000 barrels.

MR. DINGELL: Mr. Chairman, I again note, with the assistance of the Chair, that the Skubitz amendment and the amendment now before us appear at precisely the same place in the bill.

MR. CHAIRMAN: For the reasons stated by the gentleman from Texas (Mr. Eckhardt) because the Chair does not rule on the inconsistency of amendments, and the fact that the number of barrels involved in this amendment is different from that in the former amendment, the Chair overrules the points of order, and the amendment will be voted on.

Propriety of Considering Amendment Identical to a Previously Passed Bill

§ 8.9 The Committee of the Whole and not the Chair decides whether it may consider an amendment consisting of the exact language agreed to in a bill previously passed by the House.

On May 13, 1946,<sup>(8)</sup> during consideration of Senate Joint Resolution 159, to extend the Selective Training and Service Act, Chairman Alfred L. Bulwinkle, of North Carolina, stated that the Committee of the Whole, not the Chair, would decide whether an amendment to the resolution would be considered.

The Clerk read as follows:

Resolved, etc., That section 16(b) of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, is amended by striking out "May 15, 1946" and inserting "July 1, 1946."

8. 92 CONG. REC. 4957, 79th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [DEWEY] SHORT [of Missouri]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Short: Strike out all after the enacting clause of Senate Joint Resolution 159 and insert the following:

"That so much of the first sentence of section 3(a) of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, as precedes the first proviso is amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this act, every male citizen of the United States, and every other male person residing in the United States, who is between the ages of 20 and 30, at the time fixed for his registration, or who attains the age of 20 after having been required to register pursuant to section 2 of this act, shall be liable for training and service in the land or naval forces of the United States. . . ."

MR. [WALTER G.] ANDREWS of New York: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the amendment just offered by the gentleman from Missouri on the ground that the exact language in another bill has been acted on favorably by the House.

MR. CHAIRMAN: The Chair states to the gentleman from New York [Mr. Andrews] that that is a matter for the committee to pass on, not the Chairman. The Chair overrules the point of order.

Constitutionality of Proposed Amendment

§ 8.10 The Chairman does not rule on the constitutionality of proposed amendments.

On Aug. 19, 1965,<sup>(9)</sup> during consideration of an amendment to H.R. 9811, the Food and Agriculture Act of 1965, Chairman Oren Harris, of Arkansas, overruled a point of order that an amendment was unconstitutional.

MR. [JAMIE L.] WHITTEN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Whitten: Page 14 following the word "follows" in line 15 add the following: "For such period as the Secretary of Agriculture shall carry out the provisions of the Export Sales Act of 1956 (7 U.S.C. 1853) the following changes shall be made in the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended." . . .

MR. [HAROLD D.] COOLEY [of North Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, may I state my point of order?

MR. CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. COOLEY: Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order against the amendment not because of germaneness, but because it is an unconstitutional and unwarranted delegation of the power of Congress to some unknown person or to some unknown agency to make the determinations contemplated by the gentleman's amendment. We have no right to delegate this authority to any other person. . . .

MR. CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from Mississippi wish to be heard on the point of order?

MR. WHITTEN: Mr. Chairman, I wish to be heard on the point of order. Certainly I do not believe that there is any case where the Congress does not have a right to set the terms and conditions upon which any legislation may become affected. The law to which I referred is on the statute books and the reference made to it says that the provisions of this act shall be effective only as this other law is carried out.

Mr. Chairman, I think that certainly an objection might be in order, but I do not think there is any question insofar as the point of order is concerned. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is ready to rule.

The gentleman from Mississippi offers an amendment to this title which the Clerk has reported which proposes to amend title IV, section 401.

The Chair has had occasion to observe the provisions of the law included in title VII of the United States Code to which the amendment refers, imposing the duty on the Secretary of Agriculture in carrying out certain provisions of the program.

The gentleman from North Carolina raises a point of order on the question that the amendment is unconstitutional—on the grounds of unconstitutionality. Of course that is a matter on which the Chair does not pass. That is a matter for the Committee to determine and, therefore, the Chair overrules the point of order.

Authority to Allocate Debate Time on Amendments

§ 8.11 Where the Committee of the Whole fixes the time for closing debate on pending amendments, the Chair notes the names of the Members seeking recognition at the time the limitation is agreed to and divides the time equally between them.

On Aug. 18, 1949,<sup>(10)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 5895, the Mutual Defense Assistance Act of 1949, Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, of Arkansas, noted the names of Members seeking recognition and allocated the time equally among them after the Committee of the Whole fixed the time for debate on pending amendments.

MR. [JOHN] KEE [of West Virginia]: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that all debate on the pending amendments and all amendments thereto close in 1 hour.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from West Virginia?

There was no objection. . . .

Mr. [EARL] WILSON of Indiana: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

The CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

Mr. WILSON of Indiana: There were a certain number of us on our feet when the unanimous-consent request was propounded. After the time was limited, about twice as many people got on their feet to be recognized.

The CHAIRMAN: The Chair is endeavoring to ascertain those Members who desire to speak, and has no disposition to violate any rights of freedom of speech.

Mr. WILSON of Indiana: Further pressing my point of order, is it in order after the time is limited for others to get the time that we have reserved for ourselves? I would like to object under the present situation.

The CHAIRMAN: Permit the Chair to answer the gentleman. If the gentleman from Indiana will ascertain and indicate to the Chair the names of the Members who were not standing at the time the unanimous-consent request was agreed to, the gentleman will render a great service to the Chair in determining how to answer the gentleman.

Mr. [ROBERT F.] RICH [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

The CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

Mr. RICH: That is not the duty of the gentleman from Indiana. That is the duty of the Clerk.

The CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Pennsylvania and the Chair both understand that, but apparently all Members do not. The Chair is endeavoring to do the best he can to ascertain those who desire to speak under this limitation of time. Now permit the Chair to ascertain that.

Mr. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

The CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

Mr. HOFFMAN of Michigan: Will the Chair, with the assistance of the Clerk, advise me how many Members have asked for time, and how much time each Member will be allotted?

The CHAIRMAN: Each of the Members whose names appear on the list will be recognized for 2 minutes, there being 30 Members on their feet at the time and debate having been limited to 1 hour.

10. 95 CONG. REC. 11760, 81st Cong. 1st Sess.

§ 9.—Appeals of Rulings

Debate on an appeal in the Committee of the Whole is under the five-minute rule<sup>(11)</sup> and may be closed by a motion to close debate or to rise and report.<sup>(12)</sup> In recognizing Members for debate on an appeal in the Committee of the Whole, the Chairman alternates between those favoring and those opposing the ruling.<sup>(13)</sup>

§ 9.1 A decision of the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole can be appealed.

On July 19, 1956,<sup>(16)</sup> after ruling that an amendment to H.R. 627, to provide means of further securing and protecting the civil rights of persons within the jurisdiction of the United States was not germane,<sup>(17)</sup> Chairman Aime J. Mr. [HOWARD W.] SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Chairman, I appeal from the decision of the Chair.

Mr. [BYRON G.] ROGERS of Colorado: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

The CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

Mr. ROGERS of Colorado: Can the decision of the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole be appealed, under the rules?

The CHAIRMAN: It can.

§ 9.2 An appeal from the decision of the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole as to the germaneness of an amendment to a bill is in order.

On July 19, 1956,<sup>(19)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 627, to provide means of further securing and protecting the civil rights of certain persons, Chairman Aime J. An amendment to this provision was offered, as follows:

Mr. [DONALD L.] JACKSON [of California]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Jackson: On page 21 strike out lines 9 through 13 and insert the following:

“(1) investigate the allegations that certain citizens of the United States are being deprived of their right to vote or obtain employment, or are being subjected to unwarranted economic pressures, by reason of their color, race, religion, national origin, or membership or non-membership in a labor or trade organization.”

Mr. [EMANUEL] CELLER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

Mr. CELLER: I make the point of order that the amendment is not germane. . . .

Very briefly, Mr. Chairman. I believe the amendment would change the whole complexion of the bill. The purpose of the bill is to prevent and to redress deprivation of constitutional civil rights on the grounds of race, color, religion, or national origin. All through the provisions setting forth the duties of the Commission we find the words

“race, color, religion, or national origin.” That part that the gentleman read contained the words “economic pressures” and the phrase in the bill reads: “Unwarranted economic pressures by reason of their color, race, religion, or national origin.”

For that reason, I insist on my point of order. . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is ready to rule. The gentleman from California [Mr. Jackson] has offered an amendment to the bill H.R. 627 now under consideration. The Chair has examined the amendment and also the language of the bill as referred to by the gentleman from California. The Chairman finds that the bill itself has to do with matters of economic pressure by reason of their color, race, religion, or national origin.

The amendment of the gentleman from California goes beyond that and extends to membership or nonmembership in labor or trade organizations. The Chair holds that the amendment is not germane. The point of order is sustained.

MR. [HOWARD W.] SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Chairman, I appeal from the decision of the Chair. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: . . . The question is, Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the Committee?

The question was taken; and the Chairman announced that the ayes had it.

So the decision of the Chairman stood as the judgment of the Committee.

mittee of the Whole on an amendment, the vote is not on the merits of the proposed amendment, but on the correctness of the decision of the Chair.

On July 19, 1956,<sup>(20)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 627, to further secure and protect the civil rights of certain persons, an appeal was taken from a ruling by the Chair on an amendment.<sup>(1)</sup> Chairman Aime J. Forand, of Rhode Island, indicated that the vote on appeal from such a ruling is on sustaining or overruling the decision of the Chairman, not on the merits of the proposed amendment.

MR. [KENNETH B.] KEATING [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. KEATING: On this appeal from the ruling of the Chair, do I understand correctly that in voting on it we are voting not on the merits of the proposition submitted by the gentleman from California but rather on whether the Chair is correct in his ruling?

THE CHAIRMAN: That is correct.

Effect of Refusal of Tellers

of the Chair that, once tellers have been properly refused, they cannot again be demanded on the same question.

On June 13, 1957,<sup>(2)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6127, a civil rights bill, an appeal was taken from a ruling of the Chairman regarding the sufficiency of the number of Members who rose on a demand for tellers.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(3)</sup> All time has expired. The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. Tuck].

The question was taken and the Chair announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

MR. [JOHN D.] DINGELL [Jr., of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were refused.

MR. [KENNETH B.] KEATING [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I ask for a division.

MR. [FRANK L.] CHELF [of Kentucky]: Mr. Chairman, the request comes too late.

MR. [WILLIAM M.] COLMER [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order. The request does come too late.

MR. [WILLIAM M.] TUCK: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that the Chair had already ruled.

THE CHAIRMAN: This is the situation. The request for a teller vote was turned down. The gentleman from New York [Mr. Keating] made a request for a division vote. He is within his rights.

The Committee divided; and there were—ayes 106, noes 114.

MR. COLMER: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. COLMER: Would it be in order to have tellers?

THE CHAIRMAN: Tellers have been refused.

MR. [ROSS] BASS of Tennessee: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. BASS of Tennessee: Mr. Chairman the tellers were refused after the Chair had ruled and said that the amendment was agreed to. Then tellers were demanded, and those people who now want tellers felt that the amendment was agreed to, so they did not rise to ask for tellers; and I can get the House to agree with me. I make that point of order and ask the Chair to rule on it.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will rule that on the demand for tellers an insufficient number of Members rose to their feet.

MR. BASS of Tennessee: I disagree with the ruling of the Chair and ask for a vote on the ruling of the Chair. I say that he had already ruled on the vote.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman appeal from the ruling of the Chair?

MR. BASS of Tennessee: I appeal from the ruling of the Chair.

MR. [WILLIAM J.] GREEN [Jr.] of Pennsylvania: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

2. 103 CONG. REC. 9034, 9035, 85th Cong. 1st Sess

3. Aime J. Forand (R.I.).

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. GREEN of Pennsylvania: Mr. Chairman, it is too late for the gentleman to appeal from the ruling of the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman has appealed from the ruling of the Chair.

The question is, Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the Committee?

The question was taken, and the Chairman announced that the ayes apparently had it.

MR. BASS of Tennessee: Mr. Chairman, I demand a division.

The Committee divided; and there were—ayes 222, noes 4.

So the decision of the Chair stands as the judgment of the Committee.

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state the parliamentary inquiry.

MR. HOFFMAN: Mr. Chairman, is it now in order to ask for tellers after the rising vote?

THE CHAIRMAN: It is not in order. The question was taken on the amendment and the question was decided.

Parliamentarian's Note: The Chair's actual count on a vote is not subject to challenge by appeal.<sup>(4)</sup>

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Collins: On page 68, line 20, after the period, insert a new paragraph as, follows:

"Street lighting: For purchase, installation, and maintenance of public lamps, lampposts, street designations, lanterns, and fixtures of all kinds on streets, avenues, roads, alleys, and for all necessary expenses in connection therewith, including rental of storerooms, extra labor, operation, maintenance, and repair of motortrucks, this sum to be expended in accordance with the provisions of existing law, $765,000: Provided, That this appropriation shall not be available for the payment of rates for electric street lighting in excess of those authorized to be paid in the fiscal year 1927, and payment for electric current for new forms of street lighting shall not exceed 2 cents per kilowatt-hour for current consumed."

MR. [ROSS A.] COLLINS [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, the language that is incorporated in the amendment—

MR. [JACK] NICHOLS [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the amendment.

MR. COLLINS: Eliminates the language against which the gentleman made the point of order.

Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that the gentleman's point of order comes too late.

for appeals of the Chair's rulings on points of order.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(6)</sup> The gentleman from Oklahoma makes a point of order on the amendment, and the gentleman from Mississippi makes the point of order that the point of order made by the gentleman from Oklahoma comes too late.

The point of order of the gentleman from Mississippi is sustained. . . .

MR. NICHOLS: If the Chair did recognize the gentleman from Mississippi I may say the Chair recognized him while I was on my feet taking the only opportunity presented to me to address the Chair, in order that I might direct my point of order to the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: That may be true. The Chair does not care to indulge in any controversy on that question with the gentleman from Oklahoma. The Chair is merely stating what occurred. The Chair may state further to the gentleman from Oklahoma, in deference to the situation which has developed here, that if that had been true, under the rules it would have been the duty of the Chair to have recognized a member of the committee in preference to any other Member on the floor. The Chair was acting under the limitations of the rule. . . .

MR. [JESSE P.] WOLCOTT [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, the rule, as I understand it, is that if any action is taken on the amendment, then the point of order is dilatory. The only action that could have been taken was recognition by the Chair of the gentleman from Mississippi to debate his amendment.

I want to call the attention to the Chair to the fact that the only manner in which the Chair can recognize a

6. William J. Driver (Ark.).

Member to be heard on this floor is to refer to the gentleman either by name or by the State from which the gentleman comes, and I call the attention of the Chair to the fact that the Chair in this particular instance did not say he recognized the gentleman from Mississippi or the gentleman [Mr. Collins], and for that reason there was no official proceeding and no official action taken between the time that the amendment was offered and the time the gentleman from Oklahoma made his point of order, and therefore the point of order was not dilatory.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair desires, in all fairness, to make this statement to the Committee, as well as directly to the gentleman from Michigan. Not only was the gentleman from Mississippi recognized, but he began an explanation of his amendment, and the Chair certainly presumes that the gentleman being on the floor at the time heard that; and when that occurred, the Chair does not think the gentleman will disagree with the Chair about the fact that the Chair is required, under the rules, to rule in deference to the situation that developed. The Chair does not desire to forestall proceedings and would be pleased to hear points of order, but the Chair must act within the definition of the rule.

MR. WOLCOTT: If the Chair will indulge me for a moment in that respect, the point I wish to make is this. The gentleman from Mississippi had no authority to address this Committee until he had been recognized by the Chair, and if the gentleman from Oklahoma made his point of order during a brief sentence by someone which had no right under the rules of this House even to be reported by the official reporter, then he cannot be estopped, under those circumstances, from making his point of order. The Chair of necessity must have recognized the gentleman from Mississippi to debate the amendment.

The offering of an amendment is not a proceeding which will estop the gentleman from Oklahoma from making his point of order. It is recognition by the Chair of another gentleman to discuss the amendment, and the gentleman could have discussed the amendment only after recognition was given.

I want respectfully to call this to the attention of the Chair in order that the Chair may correct any error which has been made or any seeming injustice to the gentleman from Oklahoma, and I respectfully submit that the Chair did not recognize the gentleman from Mississippi, and I believe the Record will bear this out. . . .

MR. NICHOLS: If the Chair has made a final ruling, I would, in the most respectful manner I know, request an appeal from the decision of the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Oklahoma appeals from the decision of the Chair on the ruling of the Chair on the point of order, as stated.

The question before the Committee is, Shall the ruling of the Chair stand as the judgment of the Committee?

The question was taken, and the Chair announced that the noes had it.

So the decision of the Chair does not stand as the judgment of the Committee.

Debate on Appeal

§ 9.6 An appeal in the Committee of the Whole is debat-

able under the five-minute rule and such debate is confined to the appeal.

On Feb. 22, 1950,<sup>(7)</sup> during general debate on H.R. 4453, the Federal Fair Employment Practices Act, Chairman Francis E. Walter, of Pennsylvania, set forth the limitations on debate on an appeal in the Committee of the Whole.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from South Carolina . . . cannot yield to the gentleman from Virginia for the purpose of offering that motion [that the Committee rise].

MR. [HOWARD W.] SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Chairman, I respectfully appeal from the decision of the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is, Shall the decision of the Chair be sustained?

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, I make a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, is that appeal debatable?

THE CHAIRMAN: Under the 5-minute rule; yes.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, I would like to be heard.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman is recognized. The Chair will say that the discussion is now on the appeal. . . .

MR. [VITO] MARCANTONIO [of New York]: Mr. Chairman; a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

7. 96 CONG. REC. 2178, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. MARCANTONIO: I make the point of order that the gentleman from Mississippi must direct his remarks to the question of the appeal from the ruling of the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman is correct. . . .

The question is, Shall the decision of the Chair be the judgment of the Committee?

The question was taken; and the Chair being in doubt, the Committee divided and there were—ayes, 123, noes, 77.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Powell and Mr. Smith of Virginia.

The Committee again divided; and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 148, noes 83.

So the decision of the Chair stands as the judgment of the Committee.<sup>(8)</sup>

Vacating Chair to Put Appeal

§ 9.7 After an appeal was taken from a decision of the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, the Chairman left the chair to permit another Chairman to put the question.

mane to H.R. 4407, reducing appropriations, and hearing debate on an appeal of that ruling, Chairman Fritz G. Lanham, of Texas, left the chair to permit Chairman Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, to put the question whether the decision of the Chair should stand as the judgment of the Committee of the Whole.<sup>(10)</sup>

The Clerk read as follows:

Be it enacted, etc., That the appropriations and contractual authorizations of the departments and agencies available in the fiscal year 1946, and prior year unrevoked appropriations, are hereby reduced in the sums hereinafter set forth. . . .

The officer and enlisted personnel strengths of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard shall be demobilized at a rate not less than would be necessary to keep within the amounts available for their pay in consequence of the provisions of this act, unless the President otherwise shall direct. . . .

The following amendment was offered:

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. [John E.] Rankin [of Mississippi]: On page 36, line 7, after the word "direct", strike out the period, insert a colon and the following:

forces of the United States without delay, any person who requests such discharge or release and who—

"(2) has, at the time of making such request, a wife or a child or children with whom he maintains (or would but for his service maintain) a bona fide family relationship in his home. . . ."

MR. [EMMET] O'NEAL [of Kentucky]: . . . I make the point of order that the amendment offered by the gentleman from Mississippi is not germane to the bill. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from Kentucky desire to be heard on the point of order?

MR. O'NEAL: . . . This is writing a legislative bill in here. It is so far beyond anything in this bill that I do not believe there is any question but that the Chair will have to declare it not germane, and therefore not in order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is ready to rule.

The question before the Chair does not concern the merits of the provisions of the amendment offered by the gentleman from Mississippi. It is the duty of the Chair simply to pass upon the point of order from a parliamentary standpoint, as to whether or not the amendment is germane.

The amendment offered by the gentleman from Mississippi is clearly a general legislative expression and proposes substantive law, whereas the provision in the bill to which the amendment is offered is merely the expression of a hope that within the amounts available for their pay and in consequence of the provisions of this act demobilization will be carried on as rapidly as possible.

In the opinion of the Chair, clearly, under the limitations of the general provision on page 36, this amendment, being a general legislative provision with reference to demobilization and having the effect of substantive law, and not being restrictive is not germane. The Chair therefore sustains the point of order.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, with all the deference in the world for the distinguished Chairman, whom we all love, I respectfully appeal from the ruling of the Chair. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The question at issue is, Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the Committee of the Whole?

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, I ask for recognition on my appeal if it is debatable.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Mississippi is recognized for 5 minutes on the appeal.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, I merely wish to say, with all deference to the Chairman who labored considerably with this proposition that I think the amendment is clearly germane. I have taken this appeal because it is our chance to get these boys out of the service. It is no reflection on the Chair to overrule the decision of the Chair. I trust the decision of the Chair will be overruled. If it is overruled, that will give us a chance to vote on my amendment, which you can see the Members are anxious to support. . . .

MR. O'NEAL: I beg to differ with the statement of the gentleman from Mississippi. The Chair has made a decision and ruled on a point of order. This appeal is not on the merits of the amendment. The gentleman from Mis-issippi has appealed to you that the Chair has decided wrongly. Your decision, just as though you were a judge on the bench, is to decide whether or not the Chair was in error when he ruled that the point of order was well taken.

THE CHAIRMAN (Mr. Cooper): The question is: Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the Committee of the Whole?

The question was taken; and the Chair announced that the "ayes" had it.

So the decision of the Chair stands as the judgment of the Committee of the Whole.

Appeal as Subject to Motion to Table

§ 9.8 The motion to lay on the table an appeal from a decision of the Chair is not in order in the Committee of the Whole.

On Oct. 19, 1945,<sup>(11)</sup> after ruling that a proposed amendment was not germane to H.R. 4407, reducing appropriations, Chairman Fritz G. Lanham, of Texas, stated that a motion to table a decision of the Chair is not in order in the Committee of the Whole.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, with all the deference in the world for the distinguished Chairman, whom we all love, I respectfully appeal from the ruling of the Chair.

11. 91 CONG. REC. 9846, 9868-70, 79th Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. [EMMET] O'NEAL [of Kentucky]: Mr. Chairman, I move to lay the appeal on the table.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, the appeal cannot be laid on the table. The Committee has a right to vote on it.

THE CHAIRMAN: The motion to lay on the table is not in order in the Committee.<sup>(12)</sup>

C. MOTION TO RECOMMEND STRIKING ENACTING CLAUSE

§ 10. Generally

Although the Committee of the Whole does not have authority to consider a simple motion to strike the enacting clause of a bill,<sup>(13)</sup> it may agree to a motion that the Committee rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.<sup>(14)</sup> Agreement by the House to the recommendation is considered equivalent to rejection of the bill.<sup>(15)</sup>

If the House rejects a recommendation of the Committee of the Whole to strike the enacting clause, it automatically resolves itself into the Committee for further consideration of the bill<sup>(16)</sup> which, by operation of the rule, is returned to the Committee without further House action. The bill goes back to the Committee of the Whole as unfinished business and is subject to amendment. Before the question of concurrence by the House is raised, a motion to refer the bill to any committee with or without instructions is in order, the Member offering that motion to refer need not qualify as being opposed to the bill;<sup>(17)</sup> when the bill is again reported to the 12. See also 81 CONG. REC. 7698–7700, 75th Cong. 1st Sess., July 27, 1937, for another illustration of this principle.

13. See § 10.1, infra. An older line of precedents took a different view. See, for example, 5 Hinds' Precedents § 5332, stating that the motion to strike out the enacting clause applied in the Committee of the Whole. The Chair sometimes took the view that the motion to strike the enacting clause was in the nature of an amendment. (See 8 Cannon's Precedents § 2618.) Since the motion can be dispositive of a bill, however, present practice is to allow it in the House and not in the Committee of the Whole.

14. § 10.2, infra.

See 5 Hinds' Precedents §§ 5326–5346 and 8 Cannon's Precedents §§ 2618–2638 for earlier precedents relating to these motions.

House, it is referred to the Committee of the Whole without debate.<sup>(18)</sup>

The motion that the Committee rise and report with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken is not in order during general debate on a measure in the Committee; it is in order after the first section is read during the reading for amendment.<sup>(19)</sup>

A point of order against the motion that the Committee rise and report with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out should be made before debate begins<sup>(20)</sup> on the motion.

Form of Motion

§ 10.1 The simple motion to strike out the enacting clause is not in order in the Committee of the Whole, not being in proper form.

On May 18, 1960,<sup>(21)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 5, the Foreign Investment Incentive Act of 1960, Chairman William H. Natcher, of Kentucky, ruled out of order a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report the bill back to the House with its enacting clause stricken out. However, a motion that the Committee rise and report the bill to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out was entertained and adopted.

MR. [THOMAS M.] PELLY [of Washington]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Pelly moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with its enacting clause stricken out.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair desires to inform the gentleman that his motion is not in order.

MR. [H.R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Gross moves that the Committee now rise and report the bill to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out. . . .

The question is on the preferential motion offered by the gentleman from Iowa [Mr. Gross].

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Gross) there were—ayes 101, noes 93.

MR. [HALE] BOGGS [of Louisiana]: Mr. Chairman, I ask for tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Boggs and Mr. Gross.

The Committee again divided, and the tellers reported there were—ayes 107, noes 101.

So the motion was agreed to.

§ 10.2 The motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill in the Committee of the Whole is not in proper form. The motion should provide that the Committee do now rise and report the bill to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

On June 21, 1944,<sup>(22)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 4219, providing for appointment of female pilots and aviation cadets in the air force, Chairman Robert Ramspeck, of Georgia, ruled out of order a motion to strike out the enacting clause because of improper form and indicated the proper form.

MR. [EDOUARD V. M.] IZAC [of California]: I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Izac moves to strike out the enacting clause. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Kentucky is correct.

The Chair sustains the point of order.

§ 10.3 Where the form of a motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill in the Committee of the Whole is deficient, the Chair may rule it out of order.

On Nov. 4, 1971,<sup>(23)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7248, to amend and extend the Higher Education Act of 1965 and other acts dealing with higher education, Chairman pro tempore Edward P. Boland, of Massachusetts, refused to entertain as privileged a motion that the Committee strike the enacting clause and report the bill back to the House because the motion was not in writing and not in proper form.

THE CHAIRMAN PRO TEMPORE: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New York (Mr. Wolff).

MR. [LESTER L.] WOLFF: Mr. Chairman, I take my time to send to the desk a privileged motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

23. 117 CONG. REC. 39321, 92d Cong. 1st Sess.

Mr. Wolff of New York moves to strike all after the enacting clause.

THE CHAIRMAN PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state that the motion in the form offered is not in order in the Committee of the Whole and it cannot be entertained.

MR. WOLFF: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee strike the enacting clause and report the bill back to the House.

THE CHAIRMAN PRO TEMPORE: Does the gentleman have his motion in writing at the Clerk's desk?

MR. WOLFF: I do not.

THE CHAIRMAN PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state that the motion is not in order.

On July 9, 1965,<sup>(1)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6400, the Voting Rights Act of 1965, a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause of the bill be stricken was offered as a preferential motion.

MR. [ALBERT W.] WATSON [of South Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Preferential motion offered by Mr. Watson:

"Mr. Watson, of South Carolina, moves that the Committee now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out." . . .

MR. [WILLIAM T.] CAHILL [of New Jersey]: Mr. Chairman, I rise in opposition to the preferential motion.

Mr. Chairman, I am very happy in a way that the gentleman from South Carolina spoke, because by his speech he pointed out I think more dramatically than anything I could say or anything anyone else could say the courage that was demonstrated by another gentleman from the South today, the gentleman from Louisiana [Mr. Boggs].

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(2)</sup> The question is on the preferential motion offered by the gentleman from South Carolina.

Parliamentarian's Note: The 10 minutes used for debate on the preferential motion was not taken from the time remaining for debate on the bill under a limitation previously agreed upon. The limitation was contained in a unanimous consent request to which the Committee had previously agreed. The request provided:<sup>(3)</sup>

3. 111 CONG. REC. 16038, 89th Cong. 1st Sess., July 8, 1965.

MR. [EMANUEL] CELLER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that all debate on the so-called McCulloch substitute and all amendments thereto be limited to 2 hours, and that such time be equally divided and controlled by myself and the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. McCulloch].

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

Divisibility

§ 10.5 A motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out is not divisible.

On Dec. 15, 1937,<sup>(4)</sup> during consideration in Committee of S. 2475, the wages and hours bill, under Chairman John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, a question arose as to whether a motion

For another instance in which the time for debate on a motion to rise and report with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken was not taken from the time fixed for debate on an amendment previously offered (where the time was not fixed by the clock), see 99 CONG. relating to the enacting clause was divisible.

THE CHAIRMAN: The motion of the gentleman from Oklahoma is directed to the enacting clause of the Senate bill.

MR. [CLARENCE E.] HANCOCK of New York: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HANCOCK of New York: Is that motion divisible?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair, in answer to the gentleman's inquiry, will say the motion is not divisible.

House Action on Committee Recommendation

§ 10.6 Where a bill is reported from the Committee of the Whole with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out, the question before the House is on the recommendation of the Committee of the Whole; if that recommendation is agreed to, it is equivalent to a rejection of the bill.

On Mar. 1, 1950,<sup>(5)</sup> the Committee of the Whole agreed to a motion to report H.R. 5963, authorizing contributions to the Cooperative for American Remittances to Europe, Inc., back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out. The proceedings were as follows:

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(6)</sup> The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Nebraska.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Stefan) there were—ayes 92, noes 27.

MR. [JOHN] KEE [of West Virginia]: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Kee and Mr. Stefan.

The Committee again divided; and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 127, noes 46.

So the motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Price, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 5953) to authorize contributions to Cooperative for American Remittances to Europe, Inc., had directed him to report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(7)</sup> The question is on the motion to strike out the enacting clause.

MR. KEE: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

MR. [JACOB K.] JAVITS [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

6. Charles M. Price (Ill.).

7. Sam Rayburn (Tex.).

MR. JAVITS: So that we may know what we are voting, is it a fact that a vote “yea” means that the enacting clause will be stricken, and a vote “nay” means that it will not be stricken and the bill will pass?

THE SPEAKER: The question now is on the motion to strike out the enactment clause.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 265, nays 102, not voting 65. . . .

So the motion was agreed to.

Parliamentarian's Note: It should be noted that, under the rules, the motion to strike the enacting clause, if carried, is equivalent to the rejection of the bill. Rule XXIII clause 7, House Rules and Manual § 875 (1979).

Resolving Clauses in Resolution of Disapproval and Applicability to Simple Resolutions Generally

§ 10.7 A motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a resolution to disapprove a reorganization plan under the Reorganization Act of 1949 back to the House with the recommendation that the resolving clause be stricken out was held not in order because that resolution is not amendable.

8. 99 CONG. REC. 7482, 83d Cong. 1st Sess.

295, disapproving Reorganization Plan No. 6, Chairman Leslie C. Arends of Illinois, held that the motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report the resolution back to the House with the recommendation that the resolving clause be stricken out was not in order.

MR. [W. STERLING] COLE of New York: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

MR. Cole of New York moves that the Committee do now rise with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that the motion is not in order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is compelled to agree with the gentleman from Michigan. The resolution is not amendable and, therefore, the preferential motion is not in order.<sup>(9)</sup>

9. 5 USC §912(b) provides that an amendment to a resolution of disapproval is not in order and the preferential motion is in order only during the stage of amendment.

Parliamentarian's Note: A preferential motion under the provisions of Rule XXIII clause 7, House Rules and Manual §875 (1979), is applicable to a simple resolution being considered under a special rule in the Committee of the Whole under the five-minute rule. See 120 CONG. REC. 34170, 34171, 93d Cong. 2d Sess., Oct. 7, 1974.

Chairman's Vote

§ 10.8 The Chairman of a Committee of the Whole cast his vote to make a tie and thus defeated a motion to rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

On Aug. 1, 1957,<sup>(10)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6763, to amend the Act of Aug. 30, 1954, entitled "an Act to authorize and direct the construction of bridges over the Potomac River," Chairman Richard Bolling, of Missouri, cast his negative vote to make a tie and thereby defeat a motion to rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Taber moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. Taber].

The question was taken; and the Chair being in doubt, the Committee divided, and there were—ayes 54, noes 49.

10. 103 CONG. REC. 13377, 13378, 85th Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. [JAMES C.] DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, I ask for tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Taber and Mr. Davis of Georgia.

The Committee again divided.

THE CHAIRMAN: On this vote by tellers, the ayes are 63; noes, 62. The Chair votes “no”.

So the motion was rejected.

Effect of House Rejection of Recommendation to Strike Enacting Clause

§ 10.9 When a recommendation of a Committee of the Whole that the enacting clause be stricken is rejected by the House, the House, without motion, resolves itself into the Committee of the Whole for further consideration of the bill.

MR. [WAYNE L.] HAYS of Ohio: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Hays of Ohio moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(12)</sup> The time of the gentleman from Oklahoma has expired. All time on the preferential motion has expired.

The question is on the motion to strike out the enacting clause.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Hays of Ohio) there were—ayes 77, noes 76.

MR. [STEWART L.] UDALL [of Arizona]: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Rogers of Texas and Mr. Hays of Ohio.

The Committee again divided, and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 108, noes 98.

So the motion was agreed to.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Evins, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (S. 4036) to stabilize production of copper, lead, zinc, acid-grade fluorspar, and tungsten from domestic mines, had directed him to report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

12. Joseph L. Evins (Tenn.).

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(13)</sup> The question is on the recommendation of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. [JOHN J.] RHODES of Arizona: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 171, nays 174, not voting 84. . . .

So the motion was rejected. . . .

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

The Committee resumed its sitting.

Motion to Rise (Strike the Enacting Clause) and Recommit Bill to Committee

§ 10.10 A motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken and the bill be recommitted to a committee was held not to be in order in the Committee of the Whole.

On Apr. 3, 1957,<sup>(14)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6287, making appropriations for the Departments of Labor and Health, Education, and Welfare, Chairman Aime J. Forand, of Rhode Island,

13. Sam Rayburn (Tex.).

14. 103 CONG. REC. 5013, 85th Cong. 1st Sess.

held out of order a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken and that the bill be recommitted to committee with instructions.

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Hoffman moves that the Committee do now rise, report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken, and that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations with instructions that it be reported back to the House within 5 days with amendments which will indicate the places and amounts in the budget where the committee believes, in view of the statements made in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, that substantial reductions may best be made and will meet the views of the House with the least curtailment of efficient administration by the Departments affected.

MR. [JOHN E.] FOGARTY [of Rhode Island]: Mr. Chairman, I reserve a point of order on the motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Michigan is recognized.

MR. HOFFMAN: In the interest of saving time, I am perfectly willing that the point of order should be ruled on now. Why wait 5 minutes or 10 minutes if it is out of order?

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from Rhode Island care to be heard on the point of order? The Chair is ready to rule.

MR. FOGARTY: Mr. Chairman, as I remember the reading of the motion, there is matter of wording contained therein that is not permissible under the rules governing procedure in Committee of the Whole, but would be allowed under the rules of procedure in the House.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from Michigan desire to be heard?

MR. HOFFMAN: Yes, Mr. Chairman. I want to point out that there is a precedent for the motion and the rules cite a precedent where that motion has been held to be proper in the Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is not familiar with that precedent, but the rules of the House provide that certain language contained in the motion made by the gentleman from Michigan could be entertained in Committee of the Whole, but the balance of the motion would only be appropriate in the House. For that reason, the Chair sustains the point of order.<sup>(15)</sup>

15. Immediately after the ruling of the Chairman, Mr. Hoffman quoted from 8 Cannon's Precedents §2329, in which Chairman Frank D. Currier (N.H.) stated: "The gentleman may move that the Committee rise and report this bill to the House with the recommendation that it be recommitted to the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce. A motion to recommit is in order in the House. It is in order in Committee of the Whole House to move that when the Committee rises it recommends to the House a recommitment of the bill."

Note: A motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill to

§ 10.11 A motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that it be recommitted to the committee from which reported is not in order if that motion is not permitted under the resolution setting out the conditions under which the bill is to be considered.

On Aug. 10, 1950,<sup>(16)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 9176, the Defense Production Act of 1950, Chairman Howard W. Smith, of Virginia, indicated that a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that it be recommitted to the reporting committee was not in order because such motion was not authorized by the special rule setting out the conditions under which the bill was being considered.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Rankin moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that it be recommitted to the Committee on Banking and Currency for further hearings and study.

MR. [WRIGHT] PATMAN [of Texas]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. PATMAN: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that this being a straight motion to recommit, without instructions, it is not permissible under the rule under which we are considering the bill in Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is ready to rule.

That motion is not in order in Committee of the Whole, and the Chair sustains the point of order.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, it is in order to make a motion that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that it be recommitted to the Committee on Banking and Currency for further study and hearing.

THE CHAIRMAN: In the consideration of this bill the Committee of the Whole is operating under a special rule which lays down the conditions under which the bill is to be considered. The motion of the gentleman from Mississippi is not in order at this time.

The special rule, House Resolution 740,<sup>(17)</sup> did not authorize the Committee of the Whole to rise and report the bill back to the House with recommendation that the bill be recommitted to the standing committee. One motion to recommit would have been in order in the House under the special rule, the terms of which are set out below:

Resolved, That immediately upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 9176) to establish a system of priorities and allocations for materials and facilities, authorize the requisitioning thereof, provide financial assistance for expansion of productive capacity and supply, strengthen controls over credit, regulate speculation on commodity exchanges, and by these measures facilitate the production of goods and services necessary for the national security, and for other purposes, and all points of order against said bill are hereby waived. That after general debate, which shall be confined to the bill and continue not to exceed 1 day, to be equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Banking and Currency, the bill shall be read for amendment under the 5-minute rule.

17. 96 CONG. REC. 11506, 81st Cong. 2d Sess., Aug. 1, 1950.

It shall be in order to consider without the intervention of any point of order the substitute committee amendment recommended by the Committee on Banking and Currency now in the bill, and such substitute for the purpose of amendment shall be considered under the 5-minute rule as an original bill. At the conclusion of such consideration the committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted, and any Member may demand a separate vote in the House on any of the amendments adopted in the Committee of the Whole to the bill or committee substitute. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit, with or without instructions.

§ 10.12 A motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out and the bill returned to a committee with instructions to remove a provision was held not to be in proper form.

On May 5, 1949,<sup>(18)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2989, to incorporate the Virgin Islands Corporation, Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, of Arkansas, held that a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out and the bill be returned to the legislative committee with instructions to remove a particular provision was not in proper form for a preferential motion.

MR. [ROBERT F.] RICH [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Rich moves that the Committee now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken and the bill be returned to the Committee on Public Lands with instructions to remove the provision permitting the Government to manufacture rum.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that the motion as presented by the gentleman from Pennsylvania is not in proper form for a preferential motion.

The Clerk will read the bill for amendment.

Yielding Time During Debate

§ 10.13 A Member offering a motion in the Committee of the Whole to strike out the enacting clause of a bill may while holding the floor yield part (but not all) of his five minutes of debate to another to discuss the motion.

MR. [ANDREW J.] MAY [of Kentucky]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. May moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill, H.R. 2948, back forthwith to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. MAY: Mr. Chairman, I yield my 5 minutes to the gentleman from North Carolina, if I may.

MR. [ROBERT] RAMSPECK [of Georgia]: The gentleman cannot do that, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: He can yield time while he is holding the floor.

MR. MAY: I yield part of my time, then, to the gentleman from North Carolina.

MR. [ROBERT L.] DOUGHTON of North Carolina: Mr. Chairman, for the first time in a number of years we are now preparing to bring in a tax-relief bill.

MR. [HUGH L.] CAREY of New York: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Carey of New York moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(21)</sup> The question is on the preferential motion offered by the gentleman from New York (Mr. Carey).

The Committee divided, and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 172, noes 170, not voting 89. . . .

So the preferential motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Symington, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (S. 1316) . . . had directed him to report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(22)</sup> The question is on the recommendation of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union that the enacting clause be stricken out.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

MR. [EUGENE] WORLEY [of Texas]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(2)</sup> The Clerk will report the motion of the gentleman from Texas.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Texas is recognized for 5 minutes on his motion.

MR. WORLEY: . . . Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent to withdraw my motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

Time to Offer Motion

§ 11.1 Because a motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill is in order only during the stage of amendment, the Chair has indicated that the motion would not be in order after the adoption of an amendment in the nature of a substitute.

On Aug. 7, 1964,<sup>(5)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 11377, the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964, Chairman Albert Rains, of Alabama, made reference to the time during which the motion to strike out the enacting clause would be in order:

MR. [CHARLES A.] HALLECK [of Indiana]: My inquiry, Mr. Chairman, is this: After the substitute is voted on and if it is adopted would it be in order for someone or anyone, any Member, to offer a motion to strike out the enacting clause?

5. 110 CONG. REC. 18608, 18609, 88th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair replies that it would not be because the stage of amending the bill would have passed.

§ 11.2 A motion in the Committee of the Whole that the Committee rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out is not in order during debate on the measure but is properly offered when the bill is being read for amendment.

On July 5, 1939,<sup>(6)</sup> during general debate on H.R. 5031, regarding relief for sufferers from the earthquake in Chile, Chairman Orville Zimmerman, of Missouri, stated that a motion to strike the enacting clause was not in order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from New York has control of the time.

MR. [ALBERT E.] CARTER [of California]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. CARTER: Would a motion that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out be in order at this time, or must we wait until debate closes?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair rules that the motion is not in order at this time.

6. 84 CONG. REC. 8624, 76th Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. [HAMILTON] FISH [Jr., of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from Nebraska [Mr. Stefan].

§ 11.3 A motion to strike out the enacting clause is a preferential motion and in order at any time recognition is secured to offer it during the reading of the bill for amendment by a Member who, if challenged, qualifies as being opposed to the bill, even though that may have the effect of extending the time for debate.

On May 26, 1945,<sup>(7)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 3240, regarding foreign trade agreements, Chairman Clifton A. Woodrum, of Virginia, overruled a point of order that a motion to strike the enacting clause should not be entertained because it had been offered merely to gain additional time for debate.

MR. [DANIEL A.] REED of New York: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from New York offers a preferential motion which the Clerk will report.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Reed of New York moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

MR. [JERE] COOPER [of Tennessee]: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state the point of order.

MR. COOPER: Of course, this is a motion of the highest privilege, under the rules of the House, but I submit to the Chair that when it is offered obviously for the purpose of gaining a specific object—to extend debate after the time has been fixed and the debate closed—that such a motion should not be entertained.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will say to the gentleman that the effect of the motion may be to extend the time of debate, but the purpose of the motion is a vehicle by which the bill may be killed. If the gentleman from New York [Mr. Reed] is opposed to the bill, this is one way to do it.

MR. REED of New York: I am opposed to the bill, sir, as I have been consistently.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair overrules the point of order.

be stricken out is in order until the stage of amendment is passed.

On Jan. 30, 1957,<sup>(8)</sup> during consideration under a closed rule of House Joint Resolution 117, to authorize the President to cooperate with nations of the Middle East, Chairman Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, stated that a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report the resolution back to the House with the recommendation that its enacting clause be stricken was preferential and in order.

MR. [JAMES G.] FULTON [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, I rise in support of the amendment and the resolution.

THE CHAIRMAN: Under the rules adopted by the House all debate on the pending amendment is exhausted.

The question is on the committee amendment.

The committee amendment was agreed to. . . .

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Gross moves the Committee now rise and report the resolution to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

MR. [JOHN M.] VORYS [of Ohio]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

8. 103 CONG. REC. 1307-09, 85th Cong. 1st Sess. See 106 CONG. REC. 10577-79, 86th Cong. 2d Sess., May 18, 1960, for another illustration of this principle.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. VORYS: It is my understanding that under the rule this motion is not in order.

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I want to be heard on that point of order, if I may.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is ready to rule.

This is a preferential motion. It is not an amendment which is prohibited under the rule adopted by the House, but a preferential motion. It is in order. The point of order is overruled and the gentleman from Iowa [Mr. Gross] is recognized for 5 minutes in support of his preferential motion.

Following debate and rejection of the preferential motion, the Chairman put the question on the committee amendment. After the committee amendment was agreed to, the Chairman directed the Clerk to read the next committee amendment. The proceedings were as follows:

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the preferential motion offered by the gentleman from Iowa.

The motion was rejected.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the committee amendment.

The committee amendment was agreed to.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk will report the next committee amendment as it appears in the printed copy of the resolution.

The Clerk read as follows: . . .

§ 11.5 A preferential motion that the Committee rise and report the bill to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken is not in order where the stage of amendment is passed; and the stage of amendment is passed in Committee of the Whole where a bill is being considered under a rule permitting only committee amendments and where no committee amendments are offered at the conclusion of general debate.

On Apr. 16, 1970,<sup>(9)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 16311, the Family Assistance Act of 1970, Chairman John D. Dingell, of Michigan, ruled out of order a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken. He did so on the ground that the stage of amendment had passed, no committee amendments having been offered at the conclusion of general debate. The bill was being considered under a closed rule permitting only committee amendments and no amendments thereto.

THE CHAIRMAN: Under the rule, the bill is considered as having been read for amendment. No amendments are in order to the bill except amendments offered by direction of the Committee on Ways and Means.

9. 116 CONG. REC. 12092, 91st Cong. 2d Sess.

Are there any committee amendments?

MR. [WILBUR D.] MILLS [of Arkansas]: Mr. Chairman, there are no committee amendments.

MR. [OMAR T.] BURLESON of Texas: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. BURLESON of Texas: Mr. Chairman, I have a preferential motion. Is it in order to offer a preferential motion at this time?

THE CHAIRMAN: Will the gentleman advise the Chair what sort of preferential motion he has in mind?

MR. BURLESON of Texas: To strike the enacting clause.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will advise the gentleman from Texas that that motion is not in order unless amendments are in order, and are offered. There being no committee amendments, that motion will not be in order at this time.

MR. BURLESON of Texas: Mr. Chairman, may I inquire, if there are no committee amendments to be offered, if the bill is perfected?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will advise the gentleman from Texas that the chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, the gentleman from Arkansas (Mr. Mills), has just advised the Chair that there are no committee amendments. That being so, the motion is not in order at this time.

Under the rule, the Committee rises.

Effect of Adoption of Amendment in the Nature of a Substitute

§ 11.6 After the stage of amendment is passed, the motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report the bill with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken is not in order; and the adoption of an amendment in the nature of a substitute may foreclose the opportunity to offer such a motion.

On Aug. 7, 1964,<sup>(10)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 11377, the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964, Chairman Albert Rains, of Alabama, stated that the motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken would not be in order after the adoption of an amendment.

MR. [CHARLES A.] HALLECK [of Indiana]: Mr. Chairman, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HALLECK: As I remember the unanimous-consent request it was that debate on the pending amendment, which is the Landrum substitute, and all amendments and substitutes thereto, close at 6:30. I did not take it that that would foreclose the consideration of a motion to strike out the enacting clause after the amendment in the nature of a substitute had been disposed of.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that if the Landrum amendment is adopted it will foreclose the opportunity to offer a motion to strike out the enacting clause because the stage for amendment would then be passed.

§ 11.7 Where the Committee of the Whole adopts an amendment in the nature of a substitute for an entire bill it is not subject to further amendment; and a subsequent motion that the Committee rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken is not then in order because the stage of amendment has passed.

On Apr. 1, 1949,<sup>(11)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2023, regarding regulation of oleomargarine, Chairman William M. Whittington, of Mississippi, stated that a motion that the Committee rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out is not in order after the adoption of a substitute for an entire bill.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the amendment to the original bill, in the nature of a substitute, offered by the gentleman from Texas [Mr. Poage].

The question was taken; and the Chair being in doubt, the Committee divided, and there were—ayes 152, noes 140.

MR. AUGUST H. ANDRESEN [of Minnesota]: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Poage and Mr. August H. Andresen.

The Committee again divided; and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 162, noes 141.

So the substitute amendment was agreed to.

MR. AUGUST H. ANDRESEN: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: Will the gentleman state what he proposes to offer as a preferential motion?

MR. AUGUST H. ANDRESEN: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman is out of order. That is not a preferential motion at this time.

After Ordering of Previous Question

§ 11.8 A motion in the House to strike out the enacting clause of a bill is not in order

after the previous question has been ordered on the bill to final passage.

On Apr. 16, 1970,<sup>(12)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 16311, the Family Assistance Act of 1970, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, stated that a motion to strike out the enacting clause was not in order where the previous question had been ordered on the bill to final passage. This bill was considered under a closed rule which permitted only committee amendments and no amendments thereto.

THE SPEAKER: Under the rule, the previous question is ordered.

The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, and was read the third time.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the passage of the bill.

MR. [OMAR T.] BURLESON of Texas: Mr. Speaker a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. BURLESON of Texas: Mr. Speaker I have a preferential motion which was not permitted to be made in the Committee of the Whole. The preferential motion is to strike the enacting clause. Is it in order in the House at this time?

THE SPEAKER: Due to the fact that the previous question has been ordered on the bill to final passage, the motion is not in order at this time.

12. 116 CONG. REC. 12092, 91st Cong. 2d Sess.

After Defeat of Motion to Rise and Recommend Passage

§ 11.9 After defeat of a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill to the House with the recommendation that it pass, a motion that the Committee rise and report the bill with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out is in order.

On May 12, 1941,<sup>(13)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 3490, fixing the amount of annual payment by the United States toward defraying expenses of the District of Columbia government, Chairman William M. Whittington, of Mississippi, stated that it would be in order to move that the Committee of the Whole rise and report the bill with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out after defeat of a motion that the Committee rise and report the bill favorably.

MR. [JENNINGS] RANDOLPH [of West Virginia]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 3490) to fix the amount of the annual payment by the United States toward defraying the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia; and pending that, I ask unanimous consent that debate be limited to 2 hours.

After completion of general debate and reading of the bill for amendment under the five-minute rule, the manager of the bill, Mr. Randolph, moved as follows:

Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with an amendment with the recommendation that the amendment be agreed to and that the bill as amended do pass. . . .

MR. [MALCOLM C.] TARVER [of Georgia]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. TARVER: If this motion to report the bill favorably does not carry, it would then be in order to offer a motion to report the bill with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

THE CHAIRMAN: The bill would still be in the Committee, and such a motion would be in order.

Effect of Pendency of Motion to Limit Debate

§ 11.10 A preferential motion under Rule XXIII clause 7 that the Committee of the Whole rise with the recommendation that the resolving clause be stricken out is applicable to a simple resolu-

On Oct. 7, 1974,<sup>(14)</sup> during consideration of a resolution (H. Res. 988) to reform the structure, jurisdiction, and procedures of House committees, the following proceedings took place:

MR. [RICHARD] BOLLING [of Missouri]: Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on the amendment in the nature of a substitute offered by the gentlewoman from Washington (Mrs. Hansen), and all amendments thereto, conclude in 5 hours.

THE CHAIRMAN: [William H. Natcher, of Kentucky]: The question is on the motion.

The question was taken; and the Chairman announced that the noes appeared to have it.

MR. BOLLING: Mr. Chairman, I demand a recorded vote.

A series of parliamentary inquiries ensued. Then a preferential motion was made, as follows:

MR. [DAVID T.] MARTIN of Nebraska: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Martin of Nebraska moves that the Committee rise and report the resolution H. Res. 988 to the House with the recommendation that the resolving clause be stricken out.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair would like to ask the gentleman from Nebraska, is the gentleman opposed to this resolution?

MR. MARTIN of Nebraska: I am, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman qualifies to make the motion.

The gentleman from Nebraska is recognized for 5 minutes in support of his motion.

§ 11.11 The motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out (Rule XXIII clause 7)<sup>(15)</sup> takes precedence over a motion to limit debate under Rule XXIII clause 6.<sup>(16)</sup>

On Dec. 14, 1973,<sup>(17)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 11450, the Energy Emergency Act, Chairman Richard Bolling, of Missouri, indicated that a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report the bill to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out took precedence over a motion to limit debate.

MR. DEVINE: Mr. Chairman, my parliamentary inquiry is this: Is a motion now in order to say that the House will vote on the bill and all amendments thereto by a time certain?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that a motion to limit debate on the amendment in the nature of a substitute offered by the gentleman from West Virginia (Mr. Staggers) and all amendments thereto, to a time certain, would be in order.

MR. DEVINE: Mr. Chairman, I therefore will make that motion.

Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on the amendment in the nature of a substitute offered by the gentleman from West Virginia (Mr. Staggers) and all amendments thereto, close at 5:30 p.m. today. . . .

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Chairman, my parliamentary inquiry is this: Must that motion be in writing?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that the motion must be in writing if the gentleman insists upon it.

MR. GROSS: Mr. Chairman, I do so insist.

MR. [Phillip M.] LANDRUM [of Georgia]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Landrum moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Georgia (Mr. Landrum) is recognized for 5 minutes in support of his preferential motion. . . .

The question is on the preferential motion offered by the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. Landrum).

The preferential motion was rejected.

MR. DEVINE: Mr. Chairman, I have a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Ohio will state it.

MR. DEVINE: At the time the gentleman from Georgia made his preferential motion, I had already made a motion before the House, and it was requested that that be put in writing. That was done, and it is currently at the Clerk's desk. I wonder what the status of that motion is that was pending at the time the preferential motion was made.

THE CHAIRMAN: The preferential motion takes precedence. The preferential motion was rejected.

MR. DEVINE: Mr. Chairman, I offer a motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Devine moves that all debate on the amendment in the nature of a substitute, H.R. 11882, and all amendments thereto be concluded by 6:30 p.m.

Parliamentarian's Note: On Oct. 7, 1974 (see § 11.10, supra), the Chair entertained as preferential a motion that the Committee rise with the recommendation that the resolving clause of a simple resolution be stricken out while there was pending a motion to limit debate. The motion is more preferential since, if adopted, it is a final disposition of the bill in Committee.

Duration of Debate

§ 11.12 A motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken is debatable for 10 minutes.

On Oct. 17, 1945,<sup>(18)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 3615, the airport bill, Chairman Graham A. Barden, of North Carolina, stated the time for debate on a motion to strike out the enacting clause of the bill:

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Hoffman moves that the Committee rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. [JOHN W.] MCCORMACK [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

The Chairman: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MCCORMACK: My understanding is that on the motion offered by the gentleman from Michigan there may be 10 minutes of debate, 5 minutes for and 5 minutes against, and that if the motion is defeated the 10 minutes of debate on the amendment still remain to be used. Is that correct?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman is correct.

Precedence of Motion to Rise

§ 11.13 A motion that the Committee of the Whole do now rise takes precedence over a pending motion to rise and report with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

On May 24, 1967,<sup>(19)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7819, the Elementary and Secondary Education Act Amendments of 1967, Chairman Charles M. Price, of Illinois, stated that the motion that the Committee of the Whole rise takes precedence over a pending motion to rise and report with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. [WAYNE L.] HAYS [of Ohio]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Hays moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the preferential motion offered by the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. Hays].

19. 1113 CONG. REC. 13876, 13877, 90th Cong. 1st Sess. See 82 CONG. REC. 1600, 75th Cong. 2d Sess., Dec. 15, 1937, for another illustration of this principle.

MR. [CARL D.] PERKINS [of Kentucky]: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Kentucky [Mr. Perkins].

MR. [PAUL C.] JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Does not a preferential motion require a vote before the Chair can accept another motion?

THE CHAIRMAN: No. A motion to rise takes precedence over any other motion.

The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Kentucky [Mr. Perkins].

MR. [LESLIE C.] ARENDS [of Illinois]: Mr. Chairman, on that I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Perkins and Mr. Goodell.

The Committee divided and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 127, noes 186.

So the motion was rejected.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the preferential motion.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers. Tellers were refused.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the preferential motion.

The preferential motion was rejected.

Precedence of Motion to Re-commit

§ 11.14 When a bill is reported to the House by the Com- mittee of the Whole with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out, pending the question of concurrence, a motion to recommit the bill to a committee is in order under Rule XXIII clause 7,<sup>(20)</sup> and is voted on before the recommendation to strike out the enacting clause.

On Mar. 22, 1949,<sup>(21)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2681, to provide pensions for veterans of World Wars I and II, and after the Committee of the Whole rose with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out, Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, stated that pending the question of concurrence on the motion to strike the enacting clause a motion to recommit the bill to committee was in order. The House voted on the motion to recommit before the recommendation to strike the enacting clause.

The proceedings were as follows:

MR. [JOHN A.] CARROLL [of Colorado]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Carroll moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(1)</sup> The question is on the preferential motion of the gentleman from Colorado.

The question was taken; and the Chair being in doubt, the Committee divided, and there were—ayes 154, noes 139.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chair appointed as tellers Mr. Carroll and Mr. Rankin.

The Committee again divided; and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 163, noes 154.

So the motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Gore, Chairman of the Committee . . . reported that the Committee . . . had directed him to report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the recommendation of the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. CARROLL: Mr. Speaker, I offer a motion to recommit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Carroll moves that the bill H.R. 2681 be recommitted to the Committee on Veterans' Affairs.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Speaker, I demand a vote on the motion to strike out the enacting clause.

1. Albert A. Gore (Tenn.).

THE SPEAKER: The Chair holds that this motion [to recommit] offered by the gentleman from Colorado at this time is in order.

MR. CARROLL: Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The previous question was ordered.

The question was taken on the motion to recommit [which was rejected]. . . .

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the recommendation of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union that the enacting clause be stricken out. Those in favor of voting to strike out the enacting clause of the bill will, when their names are called, vote "aye"; those opposed vote "nay." . . .

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 120, nays 291, not voting 22, as follows: . . .

So the recommendation of the Committee of the Whole was rejected. . . .

THE SPEAKER: The House automatically resolves itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill H.R. 2681.

Accordingly the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill H.R. 2681, with Mr. Gore in the chair.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

THE CHAIRMAN: When the Committee rose, there was an amendment pending offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. Kearney].

MR. [JOSEPH W.] MARTIN [Jr.] of Massachusetts: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that the amendment be reread for the information of the Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Massachusetts?

There was no objection.

When the Committee of the Whole agreed to a motion to rise that day, the Chairman reported that the Committee had come to no resolution on H.R. 2681. The Committee of the Whole considered the measure again on the following day. On Mar. 24, 1949, the House again resolved into the Committee of the Whole for further consideration of H.R. 2681.<sup>(2)</sup> Subsequently, Mr. Olin E. Teague, of Texas, moved that the Committee rise and report back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken, creating a parliamentary situation that Mr. Francis H. Case, of South Dakota, suggested was similar to that prevailing on Mar. 22, 1949. This time, however, the House voted to recommit the bill to the Committee on Veterans' Affairs for further study.

THE CHAIRMAN: The time of the gentleman from Texas has expired. All time on this amendment has expired.

MR. [HALE] BOGGS of Louisiana: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Boggs of Louisiana moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out. . . .

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I make the further point of order that the gentleman has not stated that he is opposed to the bill.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman qualifies.

The gentleman from Louisiana is recognized for 5 minutes.

MR. [JAMES G.] FULTON [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Fulton moves that the Committee do now rise and that the bill be reported to the House with the enacting clause stricken.

MR. [FRANK B.] KEEFE [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

Mr. KEEFE: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order against the preferential motion that it is dilatory. The gentleman from Pennsylvania is not opposed to this bill and is not in good faith asking that the enacting clause

MR. FULTON: In its present form I would be opposed to it.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair must accept the statement of the gentleman from Pennsylvania.

The Chair overrules the point of order and recognizes the gentleman from Pennsylvania in support of his preferential motion.

§ 12.4 Where a motion is made that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken, the Chair assumes that the proponent favors the motion.

On May 5, 1955,<sup>(7)</sup> the Committee of the Whole was considering H.R. 12, providing price supports for basic commodities, under Chairman Robert L. F. Sikes, of Florida. A point of order was raised as to the qualification of the proponent of a motion to MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: The gentleman from Mississippi has made a motion to strike out the enacting clause and report the bill back to the House with that recommendation. I challenge his right to speak unless he is in favor of his motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair assumes the gentleman is in favor of his motion.

§ 12.5 In recognizing a Member for a motion to strike out the enacting clause the Chair will accept the statement of that Member that he is opposed to the bill.

On Mar. 30, 1950,<sup>(8)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7797, to provide foreign economic assistance, Chairman Oren Harris, of Arkansas, ruled on a point of order that a Member seeking recognition on a motion to strike the enacting clause was not acting in good faith.

8. 96 CONG. REC. 4424, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [JAMES G.] FULTON [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Fulton moves that the Committee do now rise and that the bill be reported to the House with the enacting clause stricken.

MR. [FRANK B.] KEEFE [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. KEEFE: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order against the preferential motion that it is dilatory. The gentleman from Pennsylvania is not opposed to this bill and is not in good faith asking that the enacting clause be stricken out; he is advocating this bill vehemently and is simply taking this means to get 5 minutes time when many others of us have been waiting for 2 days trying to get time, but in vain.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair would like to inquire of the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. Fulton] if he is opposed to the bill?

MR. FULTON: In its present form I would be opposed to it.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair must accept the statement of the gentleman from Pennsylvania.

The Chair overrules the point of order and recognizes the gentleman from Pennsylvania in support of his preferential motion.

Effect of Closed Rule

§ 12.6 Where a bill is being considered in the Committee of the Whole under a rule permitting only committee amendments, any Member may offer a motion during the stage of amendment that the Committee of the Whole rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

On June 29, 1951,<sup>(9)</sup> a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out was offered during consideration of House Joint Resolution 278, to continue for a temporary period the Defense Production Act of 1950 and the Housing and Rent Act of 1947. The joint resolution was being considered under House Resolution 294, which permitted only committee amendments and one other specified amendment.<sup>(10)</sup>

The proceedings were as follows:

MR. [HAROLD D.] COOLEY [of North Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, I offer the amendment authorized by the resolution.

The Clerk read as follows: . . .

[Debate ensued on the Cooley amendment.]

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

9. 97 CONG. REC. 7498, 82d Cong. 1st Sess.

10. See id. at p. 7482, for the text of this resolution.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Hoffman of Michigan moves that the Committee do now rise and report the resolution back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Chairman, the parliamentary procedure here which we have just gone through is about on a par with the way in which the price- and wage-control law which we gave the President on September 8, 1950, has been interpreted and administered by the administration; and I say that with all due respect to the rulings of the Chairman.

It was my understanding when the gentleman from North Carolina [Mr. Cooley] rose and asked consent to present an amendment that what he was doing was getting permission to offer his amendment to the amendment which is printed in the resolution. I now discover that I apparently have been negligent and did not know what was going on, because, as I understand the ruling of the Chair, all we get now is one vote on the amendment set forth in the resolution as amended by the Cooley amendment, and that we do not have an opportunity to vote on the amendment to the amendment; otherwise, of course, I would have objected. . . .

Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent to withdraw my preferential motion.

THE CHAIRMAN [WILBUR D. MILLS, OF ARKANSAS]: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Michigan?

There was no objection.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from North Carolina [Mr. Cooley].

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Spence) there were—ayes 143, noes 87.

MR. [JACOB K.] JAVITS [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Cooley and Mr. Deane.

The Committee again divided; and the tellers reported that there were—yeas 165, noes 106.

So the amendment was agreed to.

Parliamentarian's Note: No point of order was made against Mr. Hoffman's motion, but, if the point was made, the motion would have been held in order under Rule XXIII clause 7.

Committee Chairman as Proponent

§ 12.7 The chairman of the legislative committee from which a bill was reported, having expressed his objections to the bill and relinquished control of it, offered a motion to strike the enacting clause of the bill.

On July 5, 1956,<sup>(11)</sup> immediately after the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole for further consideration of H.R. 7535, to authorize federal assistance to the states and local communities in financing to eliminate the national shortage of classrooms, legislative committee Chairman Graham A. Barden, of North Carolina, expressed his objections, relinquished control of the bill, and later offered a motion to strike out the enacting clause.

MR. BARDEN: Mr. Chairman, I move to strike out the last word.

Mr. Chairman, I have a brief statement I should like to make to the House.

For 22 years I have done my best to be sincere and frank with the membership of this House. I propose to continue that, both in attitude and in practice.

I have very definitely reached the conclusion that the American people do not want this legislation in its present form. Certain things have happened to the bill that make it very, very obnoxious and objectionable to the people I represent.

I never have claimed to be an expert when advocating something that I was sincerely and conscientiously for. I have always felt I would be a complete flop in trying to advocate something I did not believe in and did not advocate. This bill is objectionable to me. It has so many bad features and so many things have been given priority over the consideration of the objective that we set out to accomplish that I must say, in all frankness, to the House I cannot continue in the position here of directing this bill. I feel that someone who can be fairer to the bill in its present shape than I, should handle the bill. I would have to be a much better actor than I now am to proceed in the position of handling this piece of legislation which I cannot support and do not want to pass. For that reason, I want the House to understand my very definite position in the matter. So, with that, I think the House will understand my position and those in a position on the committee to handle the bill will have my cooperation to a certain extent, but no one need to expect any assistance from me or any encouragement for the bill. . . .

Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Barden moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

Mr. Chairman, I offer this motion to strike the enacting clause because I think it proper and in the interest of good legislation. I think it is something the majority of the Members of this House want to do, for I think the bill is now in such shape that it will in the final analysis be defeated. So, without consuming 5 minutes, I say to the House that I hope you will adopt this motion and save a lot of time. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(12)</sup> The question is on the preferential motion offered by the gentleman from North Carolina, Mr. Barden.

MR. [MARTIN] DIES [Jr., of Texas]: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers on this vote.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Barden and Mr. McConnell.

The Committee divided; and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 130, noes 148.

12. Francis E. Walter (Pa.).

So the motion was rejected.

Offering Motion to Secure Debate Time

§ 12.8 When because of a time limitation on debate a Member is unable to speak during the stage of amendment, a motion to strike out the enacting clause is sometimes used to secure time for debate.

On Feb. 23, 1940,<sup>(13)</sup> during consideration of House Joint Resolution 407, regarding trade agreements, Chairman Clifton A. Woodrum, of Virginia, indicated that a Member may offer a motion to strike out the enacting clause and thereby secure time for debate when he is unable to obtain time to speak during the stage of amendment.

MR. [FRANK] CROWTHER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Crowther moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. [LINDSAY C.] WARREN [of North Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. WARREN: Mr. Chairman, I hope that the present occupant of the chair, with the long experience he has had in presiding over the Committee of the Whole, will now come to the conclusion that the motion offered by the gentleman from New York is out of order.

The motion for the Committee to rise and strike out the enacting clause is one of the highest preferential motions that can be offered in this body. We have seen the time fixed for the closing of the debate on this particular amendment. The gentleman from New York [Mr. Crowther] had full opportunity to get recognition, or to ask for recognition, within the time fixed by the Committee itself for closing debate. In 9 cases out of 10, when this motion is offered, it is done for a frivolous purpose, and such a high motion, privileged as it is, should not be offered for this purpose; and I hope the Chair, of his own accord, will rule it out of order. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair appreciates the fundamental proposition involved in the point of order raised by the gentleman from North Carolina [Mr. Warren]. Undoubtedly, under a strict construction of the rules of the House, the motion that the Committee rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out is a motion of high order and should not be resorted to as a frivolous motion. The Chair, however, cannot blot out of his memory 17 years of service in the House in which, almost without exception, so far as the Chair knows, Members of both parties on both sides of the aisle have resorted to the motion when, because of a limitation of debate, they were unable to get time. In the particular instance the gentleman from New York [Mr. Crowther], the ranking minority member on the committee, who is opposed to the bill, sought to get time and the Chair had committed himself and the debate was limited. The Chair certainly does not think this would be an appropriate time to depart from the universal custom of the House, and the Chair, therefore, overrules the point of order and recognizes the gentleman from New York [Mr. Crowther].

Parliamentarian's Note: The Member making the motion must on request qualify as being opposed to the bill.

§ 12.9 Debate on a paragraph of a bill having been exhausted in the Committee of the Whole, it is in order, to secure time for debate, to move that the Committee rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out if the proponent of the motion is opposed to the bill.

On Mar. 13, 1942,<sup>(14)</sup> during consideration of the agriculture appropriations bill, 1943, Chairman Robert Ramspeck, of Georgia, overruled a point of order to the effect that a Member cannot be recognized on a motion to strike out the enacting clause if the intent in offering the motion is merely to obtain time for debate.

MR. [ANDREW J.] MAY [of Kentucky]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk will report the motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. May moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Kentucky is recognized for 5 minutes in support of his motion.

MR. MAY: When I am through talking at the end of 5 minutes, of course, I expect to withdraw this motion, or if that permission is refused me I expect the House to vote it down.

MR. [CLARENCE] CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Missouri will state the point of order.

MR. MAY: Mr. Chairman, I have not yielded for a point of order.

MR. CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that under the unanimous-consent agreement all time for debate has expired and the gentleman cannot be recognized on a motion to strike out the enacting clause . . . offered merely to secure time for debate.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from Kentucky desire to be heard on the point of order?

MR. MAY: Yes, Mr. Chairman. . . . I stated that I offered the motion to strike out the enacting clause, but that I expected at the end of my remarks to withdraw it, or if permission was not granted me to withdraw it, that I expected the Committee would vote it down. I did not ask them to vote it down. I said I would exercise a right which I have under the rules of the House to ask to withdraw a motion.

14. 88 CONG. REC. 2439, 77th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, a further point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Michigan will state his further point of order.

MR. HOFFMAN: The gentleman from Kentucky has not said that he was opposed to the bill.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is the gentleman from Kentucky opposed to the bill?

MR. MAY: I am in favor of the two amendments, and I am in favor of all the reductions that have been made in these appropriations.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman has not answered the Chair's question. Is the gentleman opposed to the bill?

MR. MAY: Does the Chairman mean the entire bill?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

MR. MAY: I am opposed to the bill in its present form.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman qualifies.

MR. CANNON of Missouri: If the Chair will indulge me further, we are now operating under a special order of the Committee of the Whole under which debate was closed at the end of an hour. The gentleman now proposes to violate the special order and concedes that is his purpose by announcing that, at the close of his remarks, he will withdraw the motion. But the gentleman is obviously out of order even had he not made that admission, as no one seriously offers a motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill of this character and the Chair should take judicial notice of that self-evident fact.

The proposal of the motion at this time also violates another rule of the House—a universal rule of debate in every parliamentary body in the world—that the committee shall have the right to close debate.

The proposal of my good friend the gentleman from Kentucky with whom I have served for many years and for whom I have the highest regard, is all the more flagrant in view of the fact that he could have secured time when the order was made, but made no effort to do so.

Nothing could be more unfair and more conducive of disorder or more at variance with parliamentary equity than the proposal to disrupt the program agreed upon by order of the Committee of the Whole.

The gentleman is not entitled to recognition on such a patent subterfuge.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Kentucky qualifies. The point of order is overruled.

§ 12.10 The practice of offering motions to strike out the enacting clause of a bill merely to obtain time for debate has been criticized as an invasion of the right of the Committee of the Whole to close debate.

On Feb. 26, 1940,<sup>(15)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 8641, a supplemental appropriations bill, Mr. Clarence Cannon, of Missouri, stated his objections to the use of the motion to strike out the enacting clause to obtain time for debate.

MR. CANNON of Missouri: . . . One practice, however, has grown up, and is being resorted to with increasing frequency of late, which, if continued, will require some change, either in the rules themselves or preferably through the decision of some able and experienced chairman. It is the unwarranted practice of using, on every occasion and any occasion, the motion to strike out the enacting clause for the purpose of obtaining the floor for debate. Of late, there is rarely an instance in which a consent agreement is secured to limit debate in the Committee of the Whole but what some Member nullifies the agreement and disregards the established rules of debate by moving to strike out the enacting clause. The Member could have asked to be included at the time debate was agreed on and have had his quota of time in regular order, but he waits until all time has expired and the Committee has closed debate, as is its right, and then disrupts the proceedings by again opening the question to debate in disregard of the understanding to which all interested Members on both sides of the aisle have agreed, or by vitiating the right of those in charge of the bill to close debate. Such misuse of the motion is unwarranted and is in bad taste and verges on bad faith. If my warm, personal friend from New York will indulge me by permitting me to use his recent motion as an example, in answer to my point of order, he said he had made the motion in good faith. . . .

MR. [KARL E.] MUNDT [of South Dakota]: Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

MR. CANNON of Missouri: I yield to the gentleman from South Dakota.

MR. MUNDT: Will the gentleman advise me, a new Member of the House, what other course a Member may take to get access to the floor if a situation arises such as occurred last Friday, when debate was ruthlessly closed and no time was permitted, except about 34 minutes out of the day, for Members other than committee members to introduce amendments? What other recourse does a Member have except to offer such a motion?

MR. CANNON of Missouri: That would not give a Member an opportunity to introduce an amendment, it would merely give him 5 minutes to interfere with the orderly program of the House.

MR. MUNDT: It would give him 5 minutes to present the viewpoint of his constituents.

MR. CANNON of Missouri: If the rules permitted every Member of the House time in which to present the views of his constituents, we would never be able to dispose of the business of the House in an ordinary session. Gentlemen may extend their remarks, and in full, on any bill under consideration and still keep within legitimate procedure. . . .

The right of the House to close debate is indispensable. Without it, debate would proceed endlessly. And the right of the Committee or the proponent to close debate is axiomatic. To interfere with either right is disorderly and should be held by the Chair. . . .

. . . Whenever the motion [recommending that the enacting clause be stricken] is offered it should raise in the mind of the Chair and of the Members of the Committee the question: "What is the purpose of the gentleman in offering the motion; is the motion proposed for the purpose of discontinuing consideration of the bill, or is it offered for the purpose of securing time and disrupting the order of debate?" And when obviously offered for the latter purpose it should never be recognized.

Qualification to Oppose Motion

§ 12.11 To obtain recognition to oppose a motion to strike out the enacting clause, a Member must qualify by stating that he is opposed to the motion.

On July 20, 1951,<sup>(16)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 3871, amendments to the Defense Production Act of 1950, Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, of Arkansas, stated the qualifications necessary for a Member seeking recognition to oppose a motion to strike out the enacting clause.

MR. [CHARLES W.] VURSELL [of Illinois]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

16. 97 CONG. REC. 8539, 82d Cong. 1st Sess. See 95 CONG. REC. 5531, 81st Cong. 1st Sess., May 3, 1949, for another example of this principle.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Vursell moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Chairman, I rise in opposition to the motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Michigan.

MR. [JOHN W.] MCCORMACK [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Chairman, I rise in opposition to the motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair would have to hold that he had already recognized the gentleman from Michigan. . . .

MR. MCCORMACK: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MCCORMACK: The point is that the gentleman from Michigan, on at least two occasions, has made the same motion. . . .

Furthermore, the gentleman from Michigan has not stated that he is, in fact, opposed to the motion offered by the gentleman from Illinois.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from Michigan now qualify as being in opposition to the motion offered by the gentleman from Illinois?

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: I certainly do.

MR. MCCORMACK: Under those circumstances, I do not seek recognition.

Recognition of Opponent

§ 12.12 In recognizing a Member in the Committee of the Whole in opposition to a motion to strike out the enacting clause, the Chair extends such recognition on the basis of the Member's opposition to the motion, and the Member's position on an amendment pending when the motion is offered is not determinative.

On Nov. 29, 1945,<sup>(17)</sup> during consideration of H. R. 4805, the first defense appropriations bill, 1946, Chairman R. Ewing Thomason, of Texas, indicated that the Chair would not anticipate the argument a Member might make when he seeks recognition to debate a motion to strike the enacting clause.

MR. [ALBERT J.] ENGEL of Michigan: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Engel of Michigan moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is the gentleman opposed to the bill?

MR. ENGEL of Michigan: I am, Mr. Chairman, in its present form.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Michigan.

MR. ENGEL of Michigan: Mr. Chairman, in speaking against this appropriation I want it distinctly understood that I am not opposed to flood control. . . .

MR. [CLIFTON A.] WOODRUM of Virginia: Mr. Chairman, I am opposed to the motion offered by the gentleman from Michigan, and I ask recognition.

MR. [MALCOLM C.] TARVER [of Georgia]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. TARVER: Mr. Chairman, the technical motion to strike out the enacting clause of course entitles its proponent to 5 minutes and its opponent to 5 minutes, but if the gentleman from Virginia is recognized the entire 10 minutes will be consumed in argument against the amendment which is now pending, while other members of the committee are limited to a minute and a half each. At least half of that 10 minutes, 5 minutes, ought to be given to the proponents of the amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair cannot anticipate what the gentleman's argument will be. Besides, the gentleman from Virginia has said he is opposed to the motion offered by the gentleman from Michigan.

MR. TARVER: He is opposed to the motion and also to the amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Virginia is recognized for 5 minutes.

Recognizing Committee Member as Opponent

§ 12.13 In recognizing a Member in opposition to a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken, the Chair extends preference to a member of the committee handling the bill.

17. 91 CONG. REC. 11204, 11206, 79th Cong. 1st Sess.

On Mar. 1, 1950,<sup>(18)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 4846, relating to the National Science Foundation, Chairman Clark W. Thompson, of Texas, indicated that a member of the committee handling the bill is extended preference to oppose a motion to strike the enacting clause.

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Hoffman of Michigan moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: . . . Now to save time, I ask unanimous consent to withdraw my motion.

MR. [FRANCIS H.] CASE of South Dakota: Mr. Chairman, I object, and claim time in opposition to the motion.

MR. [CARL] HINSHAW [of California]: Mr. Chairman, I rise in opposition to the motion.

MR. [OREN] HARRIS [of Arkansas]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HARRIS: This is a preferential motion to strike out the enacting clause, and I believe a committee member is entitled to recognition.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman is correct. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California [Mr. Hinshaw].

Recognizing Member of Opposition Party

§ 12.14 When no member of the committee from which a bill is reported seeks recognition in opposition to a motion to strike the enacting clause, the Chair recognizes a member of a political party other than that of the proponent of the motion.

On Aug. 2, 1955,<sup>(19)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7718, authorizing the Capital Transit Company to surrender its franchise, Chairman Aime J. Forand, of Rhode Island, recognized a member from the Democratic Party, Elijah L. Forrester, of Georgia, to speak in opposition to a motion to strike the enacting clause. The Member who offered the motion, Clare E. Hoffman, of Michigan, and the Member who sought but was denied recognition, Donald W. Nicholson, of Massachusetts, were Republicans. No member of the committee which reported the bill sought recognition to oppose the motion.

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Chairman, I offer a motion.

18. 96 CONG. REC. 2597, 2598, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

19. 101 CONG. REC. 12997, 84th Cong. 1st Sess.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Hoffman of Michigan moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken. . . .

After Mr. Hoffman spoke in support of his motion and asked unanimous consent to withdraw his motion, the following proceedings occurred:

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Chairman, I object, and I rise in opposition to the preferential motion.

Mr. Forrester rose and Mr. Nicholson rose.

THE CHAIRMAN: For what purpose does the gentleman from Georgia rise?

MR. NICHOLSON: Mr. Chairman, I rise to make a point of order. Two of us were seeking recognition here.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is inclined to be fair. One Member on the Republican side had just spoken and therefore the Chair considered the gentleman on the other side of the aisle was entitled to recognition.

MR. NICHOLSON: I am glad the Chairman is willing to be fair.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Georgia [Mr. Forrester] is recognized.

Speaker as Opponent

§ 12.15 The Speaker took the floor in opposition to a motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill.

On Mar. 4, 1952,<sup>(20)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 5904, the National Security Training Corps Act, Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, took the floor to debate a motion to strike the enacting clause of a bill. Speaker Rayburn opposed the motion on the ground that it would ultimately result in recommittal of the bill to committee.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(1)</sup> The Clerk will report the motion of the gentleman from Massachusetts.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. [William H.] Bates of Massachusetts moves that the Committee on now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out. . . .

[After debate in favor of the motion]

MR. RAYBURN: Mr. Chairman, I trust that you will not think I am speaking out of turn because I am trying to bring you the counsel of a very old friend. . . .

How many years of study have we had on this subject? I think I appointed Mr. Cliff Woodrum, of Virginia, some years ago to begin the study of this matter. The present Committee on Armed Services has taken thousands of pages of testimony and heard everybody pro and con who wanted to be heard. Why send this back for further study? Do we not have the fortitude, do we not have the courage to meet the issue today? Now is the time to meet this issue, because probably we shall never have an opportunity this year or maybe in several years to come.

1. Jere Cooper (Tenn.).

Strike the enacting clause out. Of course, as the gentleman from Massachusetts said, it is a parliamentary move to get back into the House of Representatives and then to make a motion to recommit.'

Are we not willing, do we not have judgment enough, do we doubt our ability to pass on amendments and pass on the fundamental issues here presented? If we are not ready today, when will we be ready? . . .

So let us vote down the motion in committee. Let us proceed in an orderly way and try to amend this bill. Let us not escape our responsibility, and that is what we would be doing, and whether it is amended or not, when it is adopted and the final outcome is before us, then is the time for men of judgment, men of reason, men of capacity to vote on this bill and not until that time.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. Bates].

MR. [CARL] VINSON [of Georgia]: Mr. Chairman, on that I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Kilday and Mr. Bates of Massachusetts.

The Committee divided; and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 167, noes 196.

So the motion was rejected.

Committee of the Whole to strike out the enacting clause does not extend recognition to speak in opposition to the motion.

On Mar. 1, 1950,<sup>(2)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 4846, regarding the National Science Foundation, Chairman Clark W. Thompson, of Texas, ruled on the effect of extending recognition to object to a unanimous-consent request to withdraw a motion to strike the enacting clause.

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Hoffman of Michigan moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

MR. HOFFMAN: . . . Now, to save time, I ask unanimous consent to withdraw my motion.

MR. [FRANCIS H.] CASE of South Dakota: Mr. Chairman, I object, and claim time in opposition to the motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman is correct. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California [Mr. Hinshaw].

MR. CASE of South Dakota: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. CASE of South Dakota: The gentleman from South Dakota was recognized, was he not?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman was recognized by the Chair to make an objection, but not to speak.

§ 13. Debate

Debate on a motion to rise and report with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out is limited to five minutes in favor thereof and five minutes in opposition.<sup>(3)</sup>

Where debate on an amendment and all amendments thereto has been fixed by a limitation of time for debate to a certain number of minutes, as distinguished from a limitation of debate on a bill and all amendments or a limitation to a time certain by the clock, the time used in debating the preferential motion to rise and report with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out (five minutes for, five minutes against) does not come out of the limitation.<sup>(4)</sup>

3. § 13.1, infra.

4. See § 13.5, infra.

On the other hand, where time for debate on an amendment is limited to a time certain, or where a time limitation is applied to debate on the bill itself and all amendments thereto, the 10 minutes permitted for debate on such preferential motion comes out of the time remaining under the limitation and reduces the time which may be allocated to Members wishing to speak.<sup>(5)</sup>

Parliamentarian's Note: Although no time would be permitted for debate on the preferential motion after arrival of the time designated in an agreement limiting debate on a bill and all amendments thereto,<sup>(6)</sup> a full 10 minutes of debate on the preferential motion would be allowed as long as that much time remained under such an agreement. This amount of time would be available to the proponent and opponent of the preferential motion notwithstanding an allocation of less than five minutes' time to each Member who had sought time to debate the bill and amendments under that agreement.

§ 13.1 Debate on a preferential motion that the Committee rise and report with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken is limited to 10 minutes, five minutes to be apportioned among those in favor and five minutes to be apportioned among those in opposition.

On May 6, 1970,<sup>(7)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 17123, the military procurement authorization for 1970, Chairman Daniel D. Rostenkowski of Illinois, ruled as to the time for debate on a preferential motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill to the House with a recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

MR. [THOMAS P.] O'NEILL [Jr.] of Massachusetts: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. [L. MENDEL] RIVERS [of South Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. RIVERS: How much time is allocated to the gentleman from Massachusetts and do I have any time during which to discuss the motion?

THE CHAIRMAN: Under the preferential motion the gentleman from Massachusetts is recognized for 5 minutes.

MR. RIVERS: Do I get 5 minutes to speak in opposition to the motion?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from South Carolina will be recognized for 5 minutes to speak in opposition to the motion.

MR. [SAM M.] GIBBONS [of Florida]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. GIBBONS: Mr. Chairman, I just want to find out what my rights are in this matter. The gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. O'Neill) has submitted a preferential motion, and has received 5 minutes time to discuss it. Now, do all the opponents and proponents on that motion have 5 minutes?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that the opponents to the motion are entitled to 5 minutes.

MR. GIBBONS: They are entitled to 5 minutes each?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that the opponents are entitled to only one 5 minutes of rebuttal.

§ 13.2 On a motion to rise and report a bill with the rec- ommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out in the Committee of the Whole, two five-minute speeches are permitted, and the Chair does not recognize extensions of this time.

On Sept. 29, 1966,<sup>(8)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 15111, the Economic Opportunity Act Amendments of 1966, Chairman Daniel J. Flood, of Pennsylvania, refused to entertain a unanimous-consent request for an extension of time on a motion to rise and report a bill with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. [PAUL A.] FINO [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Fino moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. [WILLIAM H.] AYRES [of Ohio]: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that the gentleman, in view of the interest in this, be given 5 additional minutes.

minutes and for which one opponent has 5 minutes, at which time the motion is put to the Committee, it is not in order.

The gentleman from New York [Mr. Fino] is recognized for 5 minutes.

§ 13.3 On a motion to rise and report a bill with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out in the Committee of the Whole, only two five-minute speeches may be permitted notwithstanding the fact that the second Member, recognized in opposition to the motion, spoke in favor thereof.

On Mar. 18, 1960,<sup>(9)</sup> Chairman Francis E. Walter, of Pennsylvania, refused to recognize a Member to speak in opposition to a motion to strike out the enacting clause after two five-minute speeches had been made, although the second speaker, who had been recognized in opposition to the motion, spoke in favor of it.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. [Paul C.] Jones of Missouri moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, this motion is made in all sincerity. . . .

MR. [WILLIAM M.] COLMER [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, I rise in opposition to the pro forma amendment.

9. 106 CONG. REC. 6026, 6027, 86th Cong. 2d Sess.

Mr. Chairman, of course I am not in opposition, but I wanted to point out to the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Jones] who has made a very clear and concise statement about the confusion that we find ourselves in that in these 7 days of debate we have not reached consideration of the bill that the Committee on the Judiciary reported out. We have been laboring over amendments that have been offered, which were never considered or voted upon by the Committee on the Judiciary. . . .

The motion of the gentleman from Missouri should prevail.

THE CHAIRMAN: The time of the gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. Colmer] has expired.

MR. [CLARK E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Chairman, a point of order. I seek recognition in opposition to the amendment on the ground that the gentleman from Mississippi did not talk against the motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The 5 minutes for the preferential motion and the 5 minutes against the motion have expired.

The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Jones].

[The motion was rejected.]

Limitation of Time for Debate on Amendments; Effects

§ 13.4 Despite a limitation of time for debate on an amendment and all amendments thereto to a time certain and the subsequent allocation of less than five minutes' time to each Member, a full 10 minutes of debate, five for and five against, may still be demanded on a preferential motion that the Committee rise and report with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

On May 6, 1970,<sup>(10)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 17123, the military procurement authorization, 1970, Chairman Daniel D. Rostenkowski, of Illinois, indicated that 10 minutes of debate on a preferential motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken may be demanded despite a limitation of time for debate on an amendment and all amendments thereto to a time certain and the subsequent allocation of less than five minutes to each Member.

MR. [L. MENDEL] RIVERS [of South Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on the Reid of New York amendment and all amendments thereto close at 5 o'clock.

The question was taken.

MR. RIVERS: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Rivers and Mr. Burton of California.

The Committee divided, and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 147, noes 82.

10. 116 CONG. REC. 14445, 14451, 14452, 91st Cong. 2d Sess.

So the motion was agreed to.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair has noted the names of Members standing and seeking recognition under the limitation of time.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Texas (Mr. Eckhardt). . . .<sup>(11)</sup>

After debate by several Members under the allocated time the following proceedings occurred:

MR. [THOMAS P.] O'NEILL [Jr.] of Massachusetts: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. O'Neill of Massachusetts moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. RIVERS: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. RIVERS: How much time is allocated to the gentleman from Massachusetts and do I have any time during which to discuss the motion?

THE CHAIRMAN: Under the preferential motion the gentleman from Massachusetts is recognized for 5 minutes.

11. Note: Where a limitation on debate to a time certain is agreed to under the five-minute rule, the Chair usually notes the names of those Members who indicate their desire to speak by standing, and equally divides the time between those Members, although the division of time and recognition is largely in the discretion of the Chair. See Ch. 29 §§ 22, 79, infra.

MR. RIVERS: Do I get 5 minutes to speak in opposition to the motion?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from South Carolina will be recognized for 5 minutes to speak in opposition to the motion.

MR. O'NEILL of Massachusetts: Mr. Chairman, I do this in protest to cutting off the debate. Under this procedure we are allocated only 45 seconds. It takes more time than 45 seconds to say "Hello."

MR. [SAM M.] GIBBONS [of Florida]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. GIBBONS: Mr. Chairman, I just want to find out what my rights are in this matter. The gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. O'Neill) has submitted a preferential motion, and has received 5 minutes' time to discuss it. Now, do all the opponents and proponents on that motion have 5 minutes?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that the opponents to the motion are entitled to 5 minutes.

MR. GIBBONS: They are entitled to 5 minutes each?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that the opponents are entitled to only one 5 minutes of rebuttal.

§ 13.5 Where the Committee has limited debate on an amendment to a certain number of minutes, the time consumed on a motion to strike the enacting clause is not taken from the time fixed for debate on the amendment previously offered.

On Apr. 28, 1953,<sup>(12)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 4828, the Department of the Interior appropriations bill, 1954, Chairman J. Harry McGregor, of Ohio, stated that the time consumed on a motion to strike the enacting clause is not taken from the time fixed for debate on a previously offered amendment.

MR. [BEN F.] JENSEN [of Iowa]: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that all debate on this amendment, and all amendments thereto, close in 1 hour.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Iowa?

There was no objection.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair advises each Member will be allowed approximately 3 minutes. . . .

MR. [CLARK E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Hoffman of Michigan moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken. . . .

Following debate on the motion the following proceedings occurred:

THE CHAIRMAN: . . . All time has expired.

MR. [HERMAN P.] EBERHARTER [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. EBERHARTER: The time on the preferential motion offered by the gentleman from Michigan is not taken out of the time already allotted for debate on this subject?

THE CHAIRMAN: That is correct.

§ 13.6 Where time for debate on an amendment is limited to a time certain, the 10 minutes permitted for debate on a preferential motion that the Committee rise and report with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken comes out of the time remaining under the limitation and reduces the time which may be allocated to Members wishing to speak.

On May 6, 1970,<sup>(13)</sup> the Committee of the Whole agreed to a motion that all debate on a pending amendment and amendments thereto close at a time certain, 5 o'clock. During debate under the limitation, Mr. Thomas P. O'Neill, Jr., of Massachusetts, offered the preferential motion that the Committee rise and report back the bill with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken. Chairman Daniel D. Rostenkowski, of Illinois, stated in response to a parliamentary inquiry that regardless of the allocation by the Chair of time remaining under the limitation, the motion could be debated for 10 minutes, five in favor of and five against the motion.

The Chairman then answered a further parliamentary inquiry on the charging of the time on the motion to the time remaining under the limitation:

MR. [ROBERT L.] LEGGETT [of California]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. LEGGETT: Mr. Chairman, considering the fact that a time limitation has now been set in relation to today at 5 o'clock, does the time of the debate on the motion that we have already heard, come out of the time on the amendments?

THE CHAIRMAN: The time will come out of the time of those who are participating in debate.

MR. LEGGETT: Mr. Chairman, a further parliamentary inquiry. If we chose to rise right now and come back tomorrow, then would there be any time limitation on debate?

THE CHAIRMAN: There would be no further debate.

The time was set at 5 o'clock.

The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. O'Neill).

The motion was rejected.

Limitation of Time for Debate on Bill and Amendments; Effect

§ 13.7 A preferential motion that the Committee of the Whole rise with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out is not debatable after all time for debate on the bill and all amendments thereto has expired.

On July 9, 1965,<sup>(14)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6400, the Voting Rights Act of 1965, Chairman Richard Bolling, of Missouri, refused to permit a preferential motion to be made because the time to conclude all debate on the bill and amendments had arrived.

THE CHAIRMAN: All time has expired.

MR. GERALD R. FORD [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I was on the list, but the time has expired. I have a preferential motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: All debate is concluded even with a preferential motion. The agreement was that all debate would conclude at 7:20 p.m. The hour is now 7:20 p.m. There is no further time.

The question is on the committee amendment, as amended.

Parliamentarian's Note: Where debate on an amendment and all amendments thereto has been fixed by a limitation of time for debate, and not a limitation to a time certain by the clock, the time used in debating the preferential motion to strike the enacting clause (five minutes for, five minutes against) does not come out of the limitation; but where the limitation of debate is on the bill and all amendments, time consumed on the preferential motion comes out of the remaining time in either case.

14. 111 CONG. REC. 16280, 89th Cong. 1st Sess.

Scope of Debate

§ 13.8 On a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out, the merits of the entire bill are open to debate.

On May 25, 1967,<sup>(15)</sup> during consideration of S. 1432, amending the Universal Military Training and Service Act, Chairman Robert L. F. Sikes, of Florida, stated that the entire bill is open for debate on a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. [L. MENDEL] RIVERS [of South Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on the pending amendment and all amendments thereto close in 15 minutes.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion of the gentleman from South Carolina.

The motion was agreed to. . . .

MR. [WILLIAM F.] RYAN [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Ryan moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

THE CHAIR: The gentleman from New York is recognized for 5 minutes in support of his motion.

MR. RYAN: Mr. Chairman and Members of the Committee, I rise to support the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. Rumsfeld], and to echo the sentiments of Mr. Ottinger, of New York.

MR. [CRAIG] HOSMER [of California]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. HOSMER: The gentleman has made a motion that the Committee rise, and he was recognized to speak in support of his motion. He now states that he is speaking in support of the amendment that is before the House. My point of order is that his text is out of order. It is not germane.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is constrained to state that this motion would open the entire field of the bill, and therefore the Chair holds that the gentleman is proceeding in order.

§ 13.9 Debate on a motion to rise and report with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken is not limited to the motion but may go to the entire bill under consideration.

On Nov. 15, 1967,<sup>(16)</sup> during consideration of S. 2388, the Economic Opportunity Act Amendments of 1967, Chairman John J. Rooney, of New York, ruled on the effect on debate of the preferential motion to rise and report a bill with a recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

MR. [CHARLES E.] GOODELL [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Goodell moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from New York [Mr. Goodell] is recognized for 5 minutes.

16. 113 CONG. REC. 32679, 90th Cong. 1st Sess. See, for example, 97 CONG. REC. 8476, 8477, 82d Cong. 1st Sess., July 19, 1951; 95 CONG. REC. 4402, 81st Cong. 1st Sess., Apr. 12, 1949; 94 CONG. REC. 8679, 80th Cong. 2d Sess., June 17, 1948; and 93 CONG. REC. 4087, 80th Cong. 1st Sess., Apr. 25, 1947, for other illustrations of this principle.

MR. [JOHN E.] MOSS [Jr., of California]: Mr. Chairman, the gentleman is not proceeding in order—he is not discussing the preferential motion.

MR. GOODELL: I am leading up to that.

MR. MOSS: Mr. Chairman, I ask that the gentleman be instructed to proceed in order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that the preferential motion opens up the whole bill for discussion, and the gentleman is in order.

§ 13.10 Debate on a preferential motion that the Committee rise with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken may go to any part of the bill and is not confined to the proposition pending when the motion is offered.

On June 18, 1970,<sup>(17)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 17070, the Postal Reform Act of 1970, Chairman Charles M. Price, of Illinois, stated that debate on a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken may go to any part of the bill.

MR. [FLETCHER] THOMPSON of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Thompson of Georgia moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

17. 116 CONG. REC. 20440, 91st Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. THOMPSON of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, I regret having to take this maneuver in order to obtain this time. I certainly hope that the Members will not vote in favor of this particular motion for the House to rise and to strike the enacting clause.

The subject we are considering today is something that does require extensive debate. It is simply a question as to whether or not we are going to have a fragmented country or a uniform country.

The gentleman from Florida quoted the phrase, "equal pay for equal work." This certainly is the question, equal pay for equal work.

MR. [EDWARD J.] DERWINSKI [of Illinois]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. DERWINSKI: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that the gentleman is not directing his remarks to his amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Georgia has offered a motion to strike out the enacting clause. Therefore, the gentleman may speak on the whole bill.

Pro Forma Amendments During Pendency of Motion to Rise and Recommend Striking Enacting Clause

§ 13.11 Debate on a motion to rise and report with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out is limited to those speaking in favor thereof or in opposition thereto, and no pro forma amendments are recognized while such motion is pending.

On May 5, 1955,<sup>(18)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 12, providing price supports for basic commodities, Chairman Robert L. F. Sikes, of Florida, indicated that debate on a motion to strike the enacting clause is limited to those in favor or in opposition, with no pro forma amendments being permitted during the pendency of such a motion.

MR. [THOMAS G.] ABERNETHY [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Abernethy moves that the committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Mississippi is recognized for 5 minutes in support of his motion. . . .

For what purpose does the gentleman from New York [Mr. Anfuso] rise?

MR. [VICTOR L.] ANFUSO: To strike out the last word.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman cannot be recognized for that purpose; there is a preferential motion pending.

18. 101 CONG. REC. 5774, 84th Cong. 1st Sess. See 103 CONG. REC. 13385, 13386, 85th Cong. 1st Sess., Aug. 1, 1957, for another example of this principle.

§ 14. Renewal of Motion

Generally

§ 14.1 Only one motion recommending that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken is in order on the same legislative day unless the text of the bill is changed.

On Mar. 16, 1948,<sup>(19)</sup> during consideration of S. 2182, extending rent controls, Chairman Walter C. Ploeser, of Missouri, made reference to the general rule against permitting a second motion to strike the enacting clause.

MR. [EMANUEL] CELLER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Celler moves that the Committee do now rise and report S. 2182 back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken therefrom. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The time of the gentleman from California [Mr. Jackson] has expired.

The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. Celler].

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. RANKIN: As I understand, only one motion of this kind can be offered to a bill.

THE CHAIRMAN: Unless the text of the bill is changed.

§ 14.2 A second motion to strike out the enacting clause is not entertained in the absence of any material modification of the bill.

On Mar. 26, 1965,<sup>(20)</sup> during consideration of H. R. 2362, the elementary and secondary education bill of 1965, one motion to strike the enacting clause having been defeated, Chairman Richard Bolling, of Missouri, indicated the circumstances under which a second motion to strike out the enacting clause would be in order.

MR. GEORGE W. ANDREWS [of Alabama]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

MR. [ADAM C.] POWELL [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on this section close in 5 minutes.

THE CHAIRMAN: Will the chairman suspend for a minute?

MR. GEORGE W. ANDREWS: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: Will the gentleman state his preferential motion?

MR. GEORGE W. ANDREWS: That the Committee rise and strike out the enacting clause.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will have to advise the gentleman from Alabama that that motion will not be in order again until substantial change is made in the bill.

§ 14.3 A second motion to strike out the enacting clause is in order on a bill if a substantial change has been made in the bill since the disposal of the first motion.

On Apr. 6, 1935,<sup>(21)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 5529, to prevent war profiteering, Chairman Lindsay C. Warren, of North Carolina, overruled a point of order against the renewal on the same day of a motion to strike the enacting clause, noting that a substantial change had been made in the bill since disposition of the previous motion.

MR. [LISTER] HILL of Alabama: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Mississippi will send to the Clerk's desk his motion.

MR. HILL of Alabama: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that the motion is dilatory. That motion was voted down yesterday. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair overrules the point of order, believing that there has been a substantial change made in the bill since the motion to strike was made. The gentleman from Mississippi moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

Parliamentarian's Note: The motion can be renewed on the following legislative day regardless of modification of the bill. See § 14.8, infra.

al Reform Act of 1970, Chairman Charles M. Price, of Illinois, stated that a second motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken is in order if business [the adoption of amendments] has transpired since the first such motion.

MR. [JAMES C.] WRIGHT [Jr., of Texas]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Wright moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. [ROBERT J.] CORBETT [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order. Has not such a motion already been introduced and defeated?

THE CHAIRMAN. It has been, but other business has transpired since the first motion to rise and strike the enacting clause. The motion is in order, and the gentleman from Texas is recognized for 5 minutes.

On June 21, 1962,<sup>(1)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 11222, the food and agricultural bill of 1962, Chairman Francis E. Walter, of Pennsylvania, refused to entertain a second motion to strike out the enacting clause because the only action in the interim had been rejection of a proposed amendment to the bill.

THE CHAIRMAN: The time for debate on title IV has expired.

MR. [ANCHER] NELSEN [of Minnesota]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Nelsen moves that the Committee do now rise and report H.R. 11222 back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the preferential motion offered by the gentleman from Minnesota.

The motion was rejected.

MR. [SAMUEL S.] STRATTON [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: . . . The Clerk will report the amendment offered by the gentleman from New York.

The Clerk read as follows: . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. Stratton].

1. 108 CONG. REC. 11359, 11360, 11369, 11370, 87th Cong. 2d Sess.

The amendment was rejected. . . .

MR. [NEAL] SMITH of Iowa: Mr. Chairman, I have an amendment at the Clerk's desk which I offer at this time.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk will report the amendment.

MR. [ROBERT J.] DOLE [of Kansas]: Mr. Chairman, I have a preferential motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The motion is not in order because no action has been taken since the last identical motion.

The Clerk will report the amendment offered by the gentleman from Iowa.

MR. DOLE: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. DOLE: We just voted on the amendment of the gentleman from New York [Mr. Stratton] and it was defeated.

THE CHAIRMAN: The amendment was defeated and did not prevail.

The Clerk will report the amendment offered by the gentleman from Iowa [Mr. Smith].

After Amendment of Bill

§ 14.6 Where a bill has been amended subsequent to the rejection of a motion to strike out the enacting clause, a second motion is in order and is debatable notwithstanding a limitation of debate on the bill.

On May 9, 1947,<sup>(2)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2616, providing assistance to Greece and Turkey, Chairman Francis H. Case, of South Dakota, held that a motion to strike the enacting clause was in order and debatable, several amendments having been adopted since disposition of the previous motion to strike the enacting clause.

2. 93 CONG. REC. 4974, 80th Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. [CLARK E.] HOFFMAN [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Hoffman moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken.

MR. [PETE] JARMAN [of Alabama]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order against the motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. JARMAN: Mr. Chairman, that motion has already been made and was voted down once.

THE CHAIRMAN: There have been several amendments adopted on the bill, it has been changed since that motion was previously acted on. The Chair overrules the point of order.

MR. [JOHN M.] VORYS [of Ohio]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. VORYS: Mr. Chairman, debate is limited on the bill by action of the committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Michigan has offered a preferential motion which is in order in spite of the agreement on closing debate.

Effect of Withdrawal of Prior Motion

§ 14.7 After withdrawal by unanimous consent of the first such motion, a second motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out was held in order and not dilatory.

On May 3, 1949,<sup>(3)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2032, the National Labor Relations Act of 1949, Chairman Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, indicated that a second motion to strike the enacting clause is in order and not dilatory where the first such motion had been withdrawn.

MR. [EUGENE] WORLEY [of Texas]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk will report the motion of the gentleman from Texas.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Worley moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Texas is recognized for 5 minutes on his motion. . . .

3. 95 CONG. REC. 5521, 5522, 5531, 81st Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. WORLEY: . . . Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent to withdraw my motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection. . . .

MR. [HALE] BOGGS of Louisiana: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Boggs of Louisiana moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order that that motion has just been voted down.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman is mistaken. The previous motion was withdrawn by unanimous consent.

MR. [JOSEPH W.] MARTIN [JR.] of Massachusetts: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order it is dilatory. Is the gentleman going to press his motion?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair overrules the point of order.

On Another Day

§ 14.8 Parliamentarian's Note: A second motion to "strike the enacting clause" is in order on a subsequent legislative day, notwithstanding the fact that there has been no modification of the bill since the first preferential motion was rejected.

On May 6, 1950,<sup>(4)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7786, the general appropriation bill of 1951, Chairman Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, ruled that a second motion to strike out the enacting clause was in order, the first having been made on a previous day.

THE CHAIRMAN: The time of the gentleman from Texas has expired. All time on this amendment has expired.

MR. [HALE] BOGGS of Louisiana: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Boggs of Louisiana moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. [ALBERT A.] GORE [of Tennessee]: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the motion on the ground that it is a dilatory motion.

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I make the further point of order against the motion that no amendment has been adopted since the last such motion was disposed of.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that while it is true that no amendment has been adopted and there has been no alteration in the bill since the last motion to strike out the enacting clause was disposed of, nevertheless this is a different day.

The Chair is of the opinion that the point of order made by the gentleman from New York would not lie against the motion.

D. CONSIDERATION AND DEBATE

§ 15. Generally

This division takes up the general rules relating to consideration and debate in the Committee of the Whole.<sup>(5)</sup>

When the House issues an order for the consideration of a particular bill and the manner in which it is to be considered, it absolutely binds the Committee of the Whole because the Committee does not possess authority to modify such an order<sup>(6)</sup> or to set aside a rule of procedure prescribed by the House.<sup>(7)</sup> Consequently, the Committee of the Whole may not consider a different bill after the House has agreed to a motion to go into the Committee to consider

4. 96CONG. REC. 6571, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

5. See 5 Hinds' Precedents § 5203-5256 and 8 Cannon's Precedents §§ 2548-2595 for earlier rulings. See also Ch. 29, infra, for further discussion of particular rules on consideration and debate in the Committee of the Whole.

6. 4 Hinds' Precedents §§ 4712, 4713; 7 Cannon's Precedents § 786; and 8 Cannon's Precedents §§ 2321, 2322.

7. 4 Hinds' Precedents § 4713

a particular revenue or appropriation bill.<sup>(8)</sup> Neither the Chairman nor the Committee may entertain requests to alter such orders.<sup>(9)</sup>

In the rare instances when the House does not designate business to be considered in the Committee of the Whole, business may be taken up in regular order, or in such order as the Committee may determine.<sup>(10)</sup>

In the absence of a rule to the contrary, the practice governing debate in the House is followed in the Committee of the Whole.<sup>(11)</sup> Since 1841, general debate by a Member has been limited in the Committee to no more than one hour,<sup>(12)</sup> any portion of which may be yielded to another<sup>(13)</sup> who in turn may yield to a third with the consent of the Member originally holding the floor.<sup>(14)</sup> Of course, if the first Member retains control of the floor, but yields to a second Member for a question, it is the first Member who would subsequently yield to a third. On the other hand, where a bill is being considered under a typical special order providing that time be controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the committee reporting the bill, the first Member may yield a block of time to a second Member, in which case the second Member may yield to a third while remaining on his feet, and permission of the first Member is not necessary.

Following the close of general debate by order of the House any Member is allowed five minutes to explain any amendment he may offer after which the Member who first obtains the floor is allowed five minutes to oppose it.<sup>(15)</sup> A Member proposing an amendment may, by unanimous consent, offer an amendment to such amendment during the five minutes allotted him under the rule but may not thereby secure additional time for debate.<sup>(16)</sup> Following five minutes of debate on an amendment and five minutes in opposition, a Member may obtain five minutes for debate by offering the pro forma amendment "to strike the last word" where an actual amendment is not contemplated;<sup>(17)</sup> but a Member who has occupied five minutes on a pro forma amendment may not lengthen his time by making another pro forma amendment.<sup>(18)</sup>

Only the Chairman may recognize Members for debate.<sup>(19)</sup> When time for debate under the five-minute rule is limited in Committee of the Whole without provision for its control, the Chairman divides the time, where practicable, between those favoring and those opposing the proposition,<sup>(1)</sup> or among all Members indicating a desire to speak. Nonetheless, on one occasion, when no one claimed the floor in opposition after a speech in favor of an amendment under the five-minute rule, the Chairman recognized another Member favoring the amendment.<sup>(2)</sup> In recognizing for debate on an appeal in the Committee of the Whole the Chairman alternates between those favoring and those opposing.<sup>(3)</sup>

Hinds' Precedents §5778. See §§ 15.9, 15.10, infra, which relate to speaking twice on an amendment.

2. 8 Cannon's Precedents § 2557.

3. 8 Cannon's Precedents § 3455. See also § 15.13, infra, relating to time and scope of debate on appeal.

A Member recognized in the Committee of the Whole to debate an amendment under the five-minute rule may yield to another Member while remaining on his feet, but may not yield designated amounts of time to another Member.<sup>(4)</sup>

The Committee of the Whole by majority vote may close debate upon any section or paragraph or amendments thereto anytime after reading thereof has been completed and debate thereon under the five-minute rule has commenced. Although agreement to the motion to close debate does not preclude further amendment, it does preclude further debate on those amendments.<sup>(5)</sup>

The motion to close debate is not in order until debate has begun,<sup>(6)</sup> which means after one speech, however brief;<sup>(7)</sup> the motion may be made before expiration of the full five minutes.<sup>(8)</sup>

The House, as well as the Committee of the Whole, may close the five-minute debate after it has

Consideration of Unfinished Business

§ 15.1 Where the Committee of the Whole rises before the time for debate expires, a limitation of a certain number of minutes (rather than by the clock) having been imposed under the five-minute rule, debate continues when the Committees resume its deliberations.

On June 16, 1948,<sup>(10)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6401, the Selective Service Act of 1948, Chairman Francis H. Case, of South Dakota, indicated that where time for debate has been fixed on an amendment in the Committee of the Whole and the Committee rises before the time expires, debate continues when the Committee resumes its deliberations.

MR. [WALTER G.] ANDREWS of New York: Mr. Chairman, in view of the fact that two or three Members who have time are not here, I move that the Committee do now rise.

9. Note to Rule XXIII clause 6, House Rules and Manual §874 (1979); 5 Hinds' Precedents §§5229, 5231.

10. 94 CONG. REC. 8521, 80th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. Andrews].

MR. [GEORGE A.] SMATHERS [of Florida]: Mr. Chairman, I would like to be heard on that.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is not a debatable motion. It is always within the discretion of the gentleman handling the bill to move that the Committee rise.

MR. [VITO] MARCANTONIO [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MARCANTONIO: Mr. Chairman, under the arrangement entered into limiting debate on this amendment, will the Members who were scheduled to be recognized be recognized when the Committee resumes its deliberations?

THE CHAIRMAN: They will be recognized, if the Committee should vote to rise, when the Committee meets again.

MR. ANDREWS of New York: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. ANDREWS of New York: My understanding is that all those gentlemen whose names are on the list will be recognized immediately tomorrow.

THE CHAIRMAN: The statement of the gentleman from New York is correct.

§ 15.2 A question as to the future day when the Committee will continue the consideration of a bill is for the Speaker and the House to decide and not the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole.

On Apr. 26, 1948,<sup>(11)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2245, to repeal the tax on oleomargarine, Chairman Leslie C. Arends, of Illinois, declined to rule on the time a particular bill would again be considered in the Committee of the Whole.

MR. AUGUST H. ANDRESEN [of Minnesota]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. AUGUST H. ANDRESEN: Mr. Chairman, I understand that the Committee will rise at 4 o'clock. It is also my understanding of the rules that this Committee should meet tomorrow in order to have continuous consideration of the pending legislation.

I would like to have a ruling of the Chair as to whether or not the rules provide that a day may intervene so that this legislation may be taken up on Wednesday.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair may say that is a matter for the Speaker of the House and the House itself to determine. It is not something within the jurisdiction of the Chair to decide.

Debate on Point of Order

§ 15.3 Debate on a point of order raised in the Committee of the Whole is within the discretion of the Chairman and must be confined to the point of order.

On Apr. 13, 1951,<sup>(12)</sup> during consideration of S. 1, 1951 amendments to the Universal Military Training and Service Act, Chairman Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, stated the rule governing debate on a point of order raised in Committee of the Whole.

11. 94 CONG. REC. 4873, 80th 2d Sess.

12. 97 CONG. REC. 3909, 3910, 82d Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. [ANTONI N.] SADLAK [of Connecticut]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk will report the amendment, but the Chair will state that all time for debate has been exhausted.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Sadlak:

Page 26, following the amendment offered by Mr. Walter, insert the following: "Any citizen of a foreign country who. . . ."

MR. [CARL] VINSON [of Georgia]: I make the point of order against the amendment that it is not germane to the pending bill.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from Connecticut desire to be heard on the point of order?

MR. SADLAK: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. SADLAK: Mr. Chairman, how much time will be allotted to me for that purpose?

THE CHAIRMAN: That is in the discretion of the Chair. The gentleman's argument must be confined to the point of order.

Yielding in Debate by Floor Managers

§ 15.4 Where general debate on a bill is under control of the chairman and ranking minority member of a committee, they may yield as many times as they desire to whom they desire.

On July 11, 1946,<sup>(13)</sup> during consideration of Senate Joint Resolution 138, the British loan bill, Chairman William M. Whittington, of Mississippi, made reference to the power to yield where general debate on a bill is under the control of the chairman and ranking minority member of a committee.

MISS [JESSIE] SUMNER of Illinois: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentlewoman will state it.

MISS SUMNER of Illinois: The gentleman from Arkansas [Mr. Hays] and the gentleman from Texas [Mr. Patman] have spoken two or three times on this bill during general debate. Is that permissible under the rules of the House?

THE CHAIRMAN: The time is within the control of the chairman and the ranking minority member of the committee.

MISS SUMNER of Illinois: May the same person speak two or three times in general debate on the same bill?

THE CHAIRMAN: General debate on this bill has been fixed at 16 hours, the time equally divided between the chairman and the ranking minority member of the committee. They may yield, once, twice, or as many times as they desire to whom they desire.

13. 92 CONG. REC. 8694, 79th Cong. 2d Sess.

Yielding by Member Recognized to Debate

§ 15.5 A Member recognized in the Committee of the Whole to debate an amendment may yield to another Member if he so desires while remaining on his feet.

On June 22, 1945<sup>(14)</sup> during consideration of House Joint Resolution 101, extending the Price Control and Stabilization Act, Chairman Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, stated the rule authorizing a Member recognized in Committee to debate an amendment to yield to another Member. At the time, the Committee was operating under an agreement limiting debate on amendments to one hour.<sup>(15)</sup>

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Indiana [Mr. Harness].

MR. [FOREST A.] HARNESS of Indiana: Mr. Chairman, I am in favor of this amendment because I believe it will force a more common-sense administration of this law. The distinguished gentleman from Michigan [Mr. Crawford] has just made a most forceful argument in favor of the amendment, and I yield to him for his further observations.

14. 91 CONG. REC. 6548, 79th Cong. 1st Sess.

15. Id. at p. 6543.

MR. [FRED L.] CRAWFORD: Continuing, Mr. Vinson said:

That condition has been met for war production, and that condition will be met for reconversion peace production.

MR. [WRIGHT] PATMAN [of Texas]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. PATMAN: Mr. Chairman, I am not objecting to the gentleman's talking, but I want to know what the policy will be. Can one Member yield another Member this time?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Indiana [Mr. Harness] was recognized and he yielded to the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. Crawford], which is certainly permissible.

MR. PATMAN: That is all right with me, Mr. Chairman, but I just wanted to know what the policy is.

THE CHAIRMAN: Any Member can yield to another Member, or decline to yield, as he desires.

Parliamentarian's Note: Mr. Crawford had consumed his allotted time for debate; when Mr. Harness was recognized immediately thereafter, he yielded to Mr. Crawford to complete his remarks. Mr. Harness stood while Mr. Crawford continued.

Yielding by Member Recognized for Pro Forma Amendment

§ 15.6 A Member recognized to strike out the last word under the five-minute rule

may yield to another Member.

On Mar. 21, 1960,<sup>(16)</sup> during consideration of amendments under the five-minute rule, Chairman Francis E. Walter, of Pennsylvania, made reference to the authority of a Member recognized to strike out the last word to yield to another Member.

THE CHAIRMAN: The time of the gentleman from New York has expired.

MR. [EMANUEL] CELLER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent to proceed for 5 additional minutes.

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: I object, Mr. Chairman.

MR. [SIDNEY R.] YATES [of Illinois]: Mr. Chairman, I move to strike out the last word.

Mr. Chairman, I yield to the gentleman from New York [Mr. Celler].

MR. CELLER: I thank the gentleman.

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: Just a minute. I make a point of order on this.

MR. CELLER: Mr. Chairman, deprivation of the State's ballot is wrong.

MR. YATES: Mr. Chairman, I am entitled to yield to the gentleman from New York.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Illinois was recognized, and he yielded to the gentleman from New York. The gentleman from New York is continuing in order.

16. 106 CONG. REC. 6162, 86th Cong. 2d Sess.

Extension of Time Under Hour Rule

§ 15.7 Where general debate in the Committee of the Whole is proceeding under the hour rule, a request that a Member's hour be extended is not in order.

On Mar. 24, 1947,<sup>(17)</sup> during consideration under the hour rule of H.R. 2700, providing appropriations for the Department of Labor and the Federal Security Agency, Chairman Clifford R. Hope, of Kansas, declined to permit extension of time.

MR. [JOHN J.] ROONEY [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I yield the balance of my time to the gentlewoman from New Jersey [Mrs. Norton].

MRS. [MARY T.] NORTON: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent to proceed for 10 additional minutes.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair regrets that the request is not in order at this time, as the time is under the control of the gentleman from New York and is restricted under the rules of the House.

MRS. NORTON: Is it not possible to get that additional time by unanimous consent? I have known it to be done in many, many other cases.

THE CHAIRMAN: That would be true under the 5-minute rule, but we are proceeding now in general debate, and under the rules of the House that is not permitted.

17. 93 CONG. REC. 2476, 80th Cong. 1 st Sess.

Speaking More Than Once in General Debate

§ 15.8 Members may speak in general debate on a bill as many times as they are yielded to by those in control of the debate.

On July 11, 1946,<sup>(18)</sup> during consideration of Senate Joint Resolution 138, the British loan bill, Chairman William M. Whittington, of Mississippi, indicated that Members may speak as frequently in debate as they are yielded to by those controlling the floor.

MISS [JESSIE] SUMNER of Illinois: May the same person speak two or three times in general debate on the same bill?

THE CHAIRMAN: General debate on this bill has been fixed at 16 hours, the time equally divided between the chairman and the ranking minority member of the committee. They may yield, once, twice, or as many times as they desire to whom they desire.

Speaking More Than Once on Amendment

§ 15.9 While a Member may not speak twice on the same amendment, he may speak in opposition to a pending amendment and subsequently offer a pro forma amendment and debate that.

18. 92 CONG. REC. 8694, 79th Cong. 2d Sess.

On June 30, 1955,<sup>(19)</sup> during consideration of S. 2090, to amend the Mutual Security Act of 1954, Chairman Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, stated that a Member may in effect speak twice on the same amendment by opposing a pending amendment and subsequently offering a pro forma amendment.

MR. [JAMES P.] RICHARDS [of South Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, I move to strike out the last word. . . .

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

MR. RICHARDS: I cannot yield just now.

MR. GROSS: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order. Is the gentleman from South Carolina speaking twice on this? The gentleman has offered an amendment to the amendment.

MR. RICHARDS: I will yield to the gentleman in just a moment. I have a few more minutes of time, and I would like to get an agreement on time.

Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that all debate on this amendment and all amendments thereto, close in 10 minutes.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from South Carolina?

MR. GROSS: Mr. Chairman, reserving the right to object, do I understand that the gentleman from South Carolina has offered an amendment to this amendment; and, if so, has it been read?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from South Carolina offered an amendment to the amendment by moving to strike out the last word, which is a very common practice in the House.

MR. GROSS: I thought the gentleman had moved to strike out the last word on a previous occasion.

THE CHAIRMAN: No, the gentleman from South Carolina rose in opposition to the pending amendment and now has the floor on a pro forma amendment, which is entirely in order.

§ 15.10 Although a Member may not speak twice on the same amendment he may rise in opposition to a pro forma amendment after debating a substantive amendment, and accomplish that result.

On July 20, 1951,<sup>(20)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 3871, amendments to the Defense Production Act of 1950, Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, of Arkansas, stated that a Member may in effect speak twice on the same amendment by opposing a pro forma amendment.

MR. [JESSE P.] WOLCOTT [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. WOLCOTT: Mr. Chairman, is it in order for a Member to talk twice on the same amendment?

THE CHAIRMAN: A Member may rise in opposition to a pro forma amendment and accomplish that result, if he desires to do so.

20. 97 CONG. REC. 8566, 82d Cong. 1st Sess.

Time Limitation on Pro Forma Amendment

§ 15.11 A Member recognized for five minutes on a pro forma amendment may not automatically extend his time by offering a substantive amendment, because the Chair seeks to alternate recognition and is constrained by other factors in his recognition.

On July 28, 1965,<sup>(1)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 77, repealing section 14(b) of the National Labor Relations Act, Chairman Leo W. O'Brien, of New York, refused to entertain an amendment sought to be offered by a Member who was speaking on a pro forma amendment.

MR. [WILLIAM H.] AYRES [of Ohio]: Mr. Chairman, I move to strike out the last word.

Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent to proceed for an additional 5 minutes.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Ohio?

There was no objection.

MR. AYRES: Mr. Chairman, I am most gratified at the assurance of Chairman Powell that a complete committee investigation of National Labor Relations Board election procedures will be held. Mr. Powell's House floor statement to me, just prior to a vote on the repeal of section 14(b) of the Taft-Hartley Act, means that we can now delve into a part of labor relations that could have great impact on the establishment of a good climate for labor industry relations. . . .

In order to have a cooling-off period, Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair has not recognized the gentleman for that purpose.

Does any other Member offer an amendment at this time?

MRS. [EDITH S.] GREEN of Oregon: Mr. Chairman, I should like to offer an amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Oregon [Mrs. Green].

Timeliness of Motion to Close Debate

§ 15.12 A motion to close debate on an amendment in the Committee of the Whole under the five-minute rule is not in order until there has been some debate on such amendment.

tion bill of 1948, Chairman Clifford R. Hope, of Kansas, ruled on the timeliness of a motion to close debate on an amendment.

MR. [JOHN J.] ROONEY [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Rooney: On page 2, line 6, strike out "$819,500" and insert "$1,190,000."

MR. H. CARL ANDERSEN [of Minnesota]: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that debate on this amendment close in 10 minutes.

MR. ROONEY: I object, Mr. Chairman.

MR. [FRANK B.] KEEFE [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on the pending amendment and all amendments thereto close in 10 minutes.

MR. [JERE] COOPER [of Tennessee]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that the motion is not in order now, until some debate is had on the amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: The point of order is well taken. The motion is not in order at this time, since there has been no debate on the amendment.

Debate on Appeal of Chair's Ruling

§ 15.13 An appeal in the Committee of the Whole is debatable under the five-minute rule and such debate is confined to the appeal.

On Feb. 22, 1950, Calendar Wednesday,<sup>(3)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 4453, the Federal Fair Employment Practice Act, Chairman Francis E. Walter, of Pennsylvania, ruled on the time and scope of debate on an appeal in the Committee of the Whole. The Member in control of time, Mr. Adam C. Powell, of New York, had yielded one minute to Mr. Howard W. Smith, of Virginia, for purposes of debate only. Mr. Smith, however, attempted to offer a motion to rise during that time. Following Mr. Powell's timely point of order, which the Chair sustained, Mr. Smith then sought recognition to offer the motion to rise on his own time, but the Chair advised him that he had no time, as time was in the control of Mr. Powell and Mr. Samuel K. McConnell, Jr., of Pennsylvania. After Mr. Hugo S. Sims, Jr., of South Carolina, had been yielded four minutes of time for debate, Mr. Sims then in turn yielded to Mr. Smith, who again tried to offer a motion to rise. The following proceedings then took place:

3. 96 CONG. REC. 2178, 2179, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from South Carolina was yielded 4 minutes time for debate. He in turn yielded to the gentleman from Virginia but he cannot yield to the gentleman from Virginia for the purpose of offering that motion (i.e., the motion that the Committee rise).

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Chairman, I respectfully appeal from the decision of the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is, Shall the decision of the Chair be sustained?

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, I make a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, is that appeal debatable?

THE CHAIRMAN: Under the 5-minute rule; yes.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, I would like to be heard.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman is recognized. The Chair will say that the discussion is now on the appeal.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, this is the first time that I ever knew Members of the House to have to edge in in this way to be recognized for a motion for the Committee to rise.

In my opinion that motion is privileged, and any Member has a right to make it at any time.

I do not propose to discuss this monstrosity at the present time. I will do that under the 5-minute rule. But I secured this time to support the appeal of the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. Smith).

In the first place, we are going to be here all night, if this goes on.

I am sure that Joe Stalin heard that applause, because you are driving through here a piece of communistic legislation that Stalin promulgated in 1920, and you could not pass it in a single county in the United States by a popular vote, as was shown in California.

MR. [VITO] MARCANTONIO [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MARCANTONIO: I make the point of order that the gentleman from Mississippi must direct his remarks to the question of the appeal from the ruling of the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman is correct. . . .

The question is, Shall the decision of the Chair be the judgment of the Committee?

The question was taken; and the Chair being in doubt, the Committee divided and there were—ayes 123, noes, 77.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Powell and Mr. Smith of Virginia.

The Committee again divided; and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 148, noes 83.

So the decision of the Chair stands as the judgment of the Committee.

Debate by Speaker

§ 15.14 The Speaker sometimes takes the floor in debate in the Committee of the Whole.

As an example, on June 30, 1939,<sup>(4)</sup> during consideration of House Joint Resolution 306, the Neutrality Act of 1939, Speaker William B. Bankhead, of Alabama, took the floor in debate in the Committee of the Whole:

MR. BANKHEAD: Mr. Chairman, I have listened with very great interest to the remarks just made by the ranking minority member of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, in which he seemed to conclude his argument with the proposition that his opposition to the pending bill would keep the United States of America out of war. . . .

4. CONG. REC. 8509, 76th Cong. 1st Sess.

After due consideration, one of the major reasons that I am supporting the proposed bill in contradiction to the conclusions of the gentleman from New York is that I honestly and fervently believe that in adopting this law we will be making a great gesture to keep the United States of America out of any world war. . . .

I want to say to you, after a very careful and, I trust, prudent observation and investigation of this whole question of neutrality, that we made a supreme and colossal mistake in policy, in national policy, if you please, when we departed a few years ago from the time-honored and time-tested constitutional principle of leaving the management of our foreign and diplomatic affairs in the hands of the President of the United States and of the State Department of this country. [Applause.] it had been lodged there securely and definitely for 145 years. Every incursion that we have attempted to make by these various neutrality laws in the last 3 or 4 years does but serve to teach us that it is absolutely impossible for the genius even of the Congress of the United States to enact a statute that contains real neutrality. . . .

It is my earnest belief, and I assert it, after undertaking to give to this proposition the sincerest and most earnest consideration of which I am capable, that if we pass this law tonight and lift this inhibition against the shipment of arms and ammunition to those who need them—who need them, as the gentleman from Texas pointed out—to defend their liberties, to defend their homes, and to defend their principles of self-government and personal liberty—and this is not a fight for the munitions makers, although that argument has been made—I feel that the safest and surest way for us to proceed is to remove the shackles and impediments now resting on the President of the United States and the Secretary of State and give them absolute freedom of action, as the founders of our Constitution conceived they should have, to govern from day to day and from hour to hour the incidents that may occur in this storm-tossed and tempestuous world.

§ 15.15 The Speaker offered an amendment to a bill in the Committee of the Whole and participated in debate thereon.

On Apr. 27, 1956,<sup>(5)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 10660, the Federal Highway and Revenue Acts of 1956, Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, offered and debated an amendment.

MR. RAYBURN: Mr. Chairman, offer an amendment.

5. 102 CONG. REC. 7212, 84th Cong. 2d Sess. See 101 CONG. REC. 3204, 3205, 84th Cong. 1st Sess., Mar. 18, 1955, in which Speaker Sam Rayburn [Tex.], offered an amendment proposing an additional House building.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Rayburn:

On page 14, line 20, strike out "Committee on Public Works of the."

On line 23, strike out "on Public Works."

On line 24, after the word "Representatives", insert "to which referred." . . .

On page 30, strike out lines 12 through 18 and insert "furnish to the Congress such information, books, records, correspondence, memoranda, papers, and documents which are in their possession relating to the construction of the Interstate System. . . ."

MR. RAYBURN: Mr. Chairman, this amendment has been very carefully drawn—I hope. Its purpose is not to rob anybody of any authority which they think they should have. But a short while ago there began to grow up in the House the practice of including provisions in bills saying that the departments should report to committees of Congress. The only thing this amendment does is to provide that they shall report to the Congress. Then whoever may be Speaker of the House will refer them to the proper place. I just feel that it would be a little more dignified if these matters were referred to 435 Members instead of 25 or 30. . . .

MR. RAYBURN: I might say also that before I offered this amendment I conferred with the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. Martin], the ex-Speaker, and it is agreeable to him.

MR. [JERE] COOPER [of Tennessee]: Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

MR. RAYBURN: I yield.

MR. COOPER: I merely want to point out that in title II of the pending bill it is provided that reports are to be made to the Congress.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Texas [Mr. Rayburn].

The amendment was agreed to.

Use of Exhibits in Debate

§ 15.16 Where objection is made to the display of exhibits in debate in the Committee of the Whole, the Chair puts the question to the Committee for its decision.

On Aug. 5, 1949,<sup>(6)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 1758, amending the Natural Gas Act, Chairman Howard W. Smith, of Virginia, put to the Committee of the Whole a question regarding display of a chart after objection had been raised to such display.

MR. [OREN] HARRIS [of Arkansas]: Mr. Chairman, I move to strike out the last word, and ask unanimous consent to proceed for five additional minutes, in order that I may help to clear up the situation here about which so many people have come to me and asked, and in order that I may show you on a chart just what this legislation will do. . . .

MR. [EUGENE D.] O'SULLIVAN [of Nebraska]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

6. 95 CONG. REC. 10859, 81st Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. O'SULLIVAN: Mr. Chairman, is it in order for an exhibit to be presented to the Committee of the Whole or to the House of Representatives? As I read the rules it is not in order to do so, unless the permission of the Committee of the Whole or of the House is first obtained.

THE CHAIRMAN: If the gentleman from Nebraska objects to the use of the exhibit, the Chair will put the question to the Committee of the Whole. Does the gentleman object?

MR. O'SULLIVAN: I object, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is: Shall the use of the exhibit be permitted?

The question was agreed to.

§ 16. Time Limitations

Where five-minute debate has been limited to a certain number of minutes, and not to a time certain, the time consumed by reading amendments and quorum calls is not taken from that remaining for debate; but where debate has been limited to a time certain, time used on extraneous motions, quorum calls or votes comes out of the time remaining under the limitation and reduces the time that may be allocated to Members wishing to speak.<sup>(7)</sup>

7. §§ 16.2–16.6, infra. The Chair has stated that, where time for debate on an amendment is limited to a time certain, the time permitted for de-

Computation of Time Limitations

§ 16.1 Where the Committee of the Whole fixes the time for debate on an amendment at 20 minutes, such time is counted in minutes of debate and not in minutes by the clock.

On Feb. 8, 1950,<sup>(8)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2945, to adjust postal rates, Chairman Chet Holifield, of California, indicated that the time period fixed for debate meant passage of time of debate as distinguished from passage of time on the clock.

MR. [THOMAS J.] MURRAY of Tennessee: Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on the committee substitute and all amendments thereto close in 20 minutes.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Sutton) there were—ayes 99, noes 76. . . .

MR. MURRAY of Tennessee: Mr. Chairman, how much more time remains?

THE CHAIRMAN: There are 6 minutes remaining.

bate on a preferential motion that the Committee rise and report with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken comes out of the time remaining under such limitation. See § 13.6, supra.

8. 96 CONG. REC. 1690, 1693, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [DONALD W.] NICHOLSON [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order. I raise the point of order that 20 minutes ago we voted to close debate. The 20 minutes have gone.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair advises the gentleman that the 20 minutes for debate have not been used. The Chair will watch the matter closely.

§ 16.2 Where time for debate is limited without reference to a time certain, the time consumed by the reading of amendments is not taken from that remaining for debate.

On Oct. 3, 1969,<sup>(9)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 14000, the military procurement authorization for fiscal year 1970, Chairman Daniel D. Rostenkowski, of Illinois, stated that the time used to read amendments is not charged against a limitation of time in minutes.

MR. [L. MENDEL] RIVERS [of South Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on title V and all amendments thereto close in 15 minutes.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from South Carolina.

The motion was agreed to.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Indiana (Mr. Dennis).

MR. [DAVID W.] DENNIS: Mr. Chairman, I will simply say that I support

9. 115 CONG. REC. 28459, 28460, 91st Cong. 1st Sess.

my Democratic colleague from Indiana. This is one amendment I am going to vote for. I cannot see any reason why we should not study profits. That is all this asks us to do. We are not accusing anybody of anything. We are studying profits, by the use of a governmental organization to conduct that study, and I think the people we represent, who pay the taxes, are for that, and I am for it.

MR. [JOHN B.] ANDERSON of Illinois: Mr. Chairman, I offer a perfecting amendment to title V.

The Clerk read as follows: . . .

MR. [HAROLD R.] COLLIER [of Illinois] (during the reading): Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. COLLIER: Mr. Chairman, I would like to know whether the reading of this amendment is charged against the limited time allotment.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is not charged against the limited time.

§ 16.3 Time consumed by a quorum call does not come out of a limitation of time for debate on a pending amendment and all amendments thereto where that limitation specifies minutes of debate rather than a time certain by the clock.

On Nov. 9, 1971,<sup>(10)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 10729, to amend the Federal Insecticide,

10. 117 CONG. REC. 40060, 40061, 92d Cong. 1st Sess.

Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act, Chairman William L. Hungate, of Missouri, indicated that time consumed on a quorum call would not be charged against a time limitation specifying minutes of debate.

MR. [WILLIAM R.] POAGE [of Texas]: Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on the Dow amendment in the nature of a substitute, the Kyl substitute amendment, and all amendments thereto close in 20 minutes.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Texas (Mr. POAGE).

The motion was agreed to.

MR. [JOHN G.] DOW [of New York]: Mr. Chairman. I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

MR. DOW: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. DOW: Mr. Chairman, if there is a rollcall will this come out of the time limitation?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state in response to the inquiry of the gentleman from New York (Mr. DOW) that the motion that was agreed to, that was offered by the gentleman from Texas (Mr. POAGE) was for 20 minutes of debate, and the Chair will advise the gentleman from New York that there will be 20 minutes allotted for debate.

iting debate on an amendment to a certain number of minutes, the time consumed in two five-minute speeches on a motion to rise and report a bill with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out is not taken from the time fixed for debate on the previously offered amendment.

On Oct. 17, 1945,<sup>(11)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 3615, the airport bill, Chairman Graham A. Barden, of North Carolina, stated that time consumed on the motion to rise and report a bill with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out is not taken from the time fixed for debate on an amendment.

MR. [ALFRED L.] BULWINKLE: [of North Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that all debate on this amendment and all amendments thereto close in 10 minutes.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from North Carolina?

There was no objection.

MR. [CLARKE E.] HOFFMAN [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Hoffman moves that the Committee rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. [JOHN W.] MCCORMACK [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MCCORMACK: My understanding is that on the motion offered by the gentleman from Michigan there may be 10 minutes of debate, 5 minutes for and 5 minutes against, and that if the motion is defeated the 10 minutes of debate on the amendment still remain to be used. Is that correct?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman is correct.

Dividing Debate Time

§ 16.5 Where the Committee of the Whole has fixed the time for debate on pending amendments, the Chair notes the names of the Members seeking recognition and divides the time equally between them.

On Aug. 18, 1949,<sup>(12)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 5895, the Mutual Defense Assistance Act of 1949, Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, of Arkansas, noted the names of Members seeking recognition and divided the time equally among them after the Committee of the Whole fixed the time for debate on pending amendments.

MR. [JOHN] KEE [of West Virginia]: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that all debate on the pending amendments and all amendments thereto close in 1 hour.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from West Virginia?

There was no objection. . . .

MR. [EARL] WILSON of Indiana: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. WILSON of Indiana: There were a certain number of us on our feet when the unanimous-consent request was propounded. After the time was limited, about twice as many people got on their feet to be recognized.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is endeavoring to ascertain those Members who desire to speak, and has no disposition to violate any rights of freedom of speech.

MR. WILSON of Indiana: Further pressing my point of order, is it in order after the time is limited for others to get the time that we have reserved for ourselves? I would like to object under the present situation.

THE CHAIRMAN: Permit the Chair to answer the gentleman. If the gentleman from Indiana will ascertain and indicate to the Chair the names of the Members who were not standing at the time the unanimous-consent request was agreed to, the gentleman will render a great service to the Chair in determining how to answer the gentleman.

MR. [ROBERT F.] RICH [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. RICH: That is not the duty of the gentleman from Indiana. That is the duty of the Clerk.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Pennsylvania and the Chair both understand that, but apparently all Members do not. The Chair is endeavoring to do the best he can to ascertain those who desire to speak under this limitation of time. Now permit the Chair to ascertain that.

MR. [CLARK E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: Will the Chair, with the assistance of the Clerk, advise me how many Members have asked for time, and how much time each Member will be allotted?

THE CHAIRMAN: Each of the Members whose names appear on the list will be recognized for 2 minutes, there being 30 Members on their feet at the time and debate having been limited to 1 hour

§ 16.6 Where debate on a bill and all amendments thereto is limited to a time certain, the Chair may in his discretion choose to disregard the five-minute rule and divide the available time equally among Members wishing to offer an amendment and those opposed thereto.

On May 6, 1970,<sup>(13)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 17123, the military procurement authorization for fiscal year 1971, Chairman

13. 116 CONG. REC. 14465, 14466, 91st Cong. 2d Sess.

Daniel D. Rostenkowski, of Illinois, divided the time equally among Members wishing to offer amendments and those opposed to the amendments, debate having been limited to a time certain.

MR. [L. MENDEL] RIVERS [of South Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on the bill and all amendments to the bill close at 7 o'clock.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from South Carolina.

The motion was agreed to.

MR. [GLENN M.] ANDERSON of California: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Anderson of California:

On page 2, preceding line 20, insert the following: Change the period to a semicolon and add the following: "and Provided further, that the funds authorized herein for the construction and conversion of naval vessels shall be equally distributed between the Atlantic, Pacific, and Gulf Coast shipyards unless the President determines that another distribution will maintain shipyards in each of the areas adequate to meet the requirements of national defense."

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from California is recognized for 5 minutes in support of the amendment.

MR. [SAMUEL S.] STRATTON [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield to me for a parliamentary inquiry?

MR. ANDERSON of California: Yes; if it is a parliamentary inquiry.

MR. STRATTON: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. STRATTON: Under the limitation of debate imposed by the House, a moment ago, is there any restriction on those Members who will be permitted to speak on amendments, either for or against, between now and 7 o'clock?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will endeavor to divide the time equally among the proponents and the opponents of those who have amendments.

MR. STRATTON: I thank the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from California is recognized.

Effect of Expiration of Time

§ 16.7 Where the Committee of the Whole has agreed to close debate on a title and all amendments thereto at a time certain (i.e., 8:20 p.m.) the Chair attempts to divide the time equitably among those Members desiring recognition; but if all available time is consumed, it may not be possible to recognize each Member on the list and their right to speak may be lost.

On Oct. 7, 1965,<sup>(14)</sup> during debate on S. 2084, the Highway Beautification Act of 1965, Chairman Phillip M. Landrum, of Georgia, stated that the right of a Member to speak was cut off when all time had been consumed by the first speaker.

14. 111 CONG. REC. 26305, 26306, 89th Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. [JOHN C.] KLUCZYNSKI [of Illinois]: Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on title I and all amendments thereto close at 8:20. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Illinois.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Gerald R. Ford) there were—ayes 121, noes 84.

So the motion was agreed to.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Florida [Mr. Cramer].

MR. [WILLIAM C.] CRAMER: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Cramer: On page 17, after line 19, insert the following new subsection: . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The time of the gentleman from Florida has expired.

The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Florida.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Cramer) there were—ayes 73, noes 127.

MR. GERALD R. FORD [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Wright and Mr. Gerald R. Ford.

The Committee again divided, and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 83, noes 142.

So the amendment was rejected.

MR. [THOMAS M.] PELLY [of Washington]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state the parliamentary inquiry.

MR. PELL: Mr. Chairman, have I and those of us who are on our feet entitled to 10 seconds lost that time to explain our amendments?

THE CHAIRMAN: No, the gentleman is not correct in stating that Members were entitled to 10 seconds. Before the first speaker in behalf of the amendment had concluded, all time had expired. So the gentleman is not entitled to 10 seconds.

§ 16.8 The Chair stated in response to a parliamentary inquiry that where all debate on an amendment and all amendments thereto has been limited to a time certain (i.e., 5 p.m. that day), and the Committee of the Whole rises before that time without having completed action on the amendments, no time would be considered as remaining when the Committee, on a later day, again resumes consideration of the amendments.

On May 6, 1970,<sup>(15)</sup> during debate on H.R. 17123, the military procurement authorization for fiscal year 1971, Chairman Daniel D. Rostenkowski, of Illinois, indicated that no time would remain for debate on a subsequent day if the Committee rose before the hour designated (5 o'clock) for the closing of debate.

15. 116 CONG. REC. 14452, 91st Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [ROBERT L.] LEGGETT [of California]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. LEGGETT: Mr. Chairman, considering the fact that a time limitation has now been set in relation to today at 5 o'clock, does the time of the debate on the motion that we have already heard, come out of the time on the amendments?

THE CHAIRMAN: The time will come out of the time of those who are participating in debate.

MR. LEGGETT: Mr. Chairman, a further parliamentary inquiry. If we chose to rise right now and come back tomorrow, then would there be any time limitation on debate?

THE CHAIRMAN: There would be no further debate.

The time was set at 5 o'clock.

The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. O'Neill).

The motion was rejected.

§ 16.9 Where all time for debate on a portion of a bill has expired under an agreement closing debate at a specified time, the Chair still recognizes Members to offer amendments, but they are voted on without debate.

On Oct. 7, 1965,<sup>(16)</sup> during consideration of S. 2084, the Highway

16. 111 CONG. REC. 26300, 26306, 89th Cong. 1st Sess.

Beautification Act of 1965, Chairman Phillip M. Landrum, of Georgia, stated that, following expiration of time under an agreement closing debate at a specified time, he would recognize Members to offer amendments but would not permit debate.

MR. [JOHN C.] KLUCZYNSKI [of Illinois]: Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on title I and all amendments thereto close at 8:20. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Illinois.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Gerald R. Ford) there were—ayes 12, noes 84.

So the motion was agreed to.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Florida [Mr. Cramer].

MR. [WILLIAM C.] CRAMER: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Cramer: On page 17, after line 19, insert the following new subsection:

THE CHAIRMAN: The time of the gentleman from Florida has expired.

The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Florida.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Cramer) there were—ayes 73, noes 127.

MR. GERALD R. FORD [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Wright and Mr. Gerald R. Ford.

The Committee again divided, and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 83, noes 142.

So the amendment was rejected.

MR. [THOMAS M.] PELLY [of Washington]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state the parliamentary inquiry.

MR. PELLY: Mr. Chairman, have I and those of us who are on our feet entitled to 10 seconds lost that time to explain our amendments?

THE CHAIRMAN: No, the gentleman is not correct in stating that Members were entitled to 10 seconds. Before the first speaker in behalf of the amendment had concluded, all time had expired. So the gentleman is not entitled to 10 seconds.

MR. [RICHARD H.] ICHORD [of Missouri]: Mr. Chairman, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state the parliamentary inquiry.

MR. [EDMOND] EDMONDSON [of Oklahoma]: Does that apply to Members who have amendments at the desk and want to offer amendments?

THE CHAIRMAN: Members can offer amendments. The amendment will be read by the Clerk and the amendment will be voted upon. But there will be no debate on the amendment.

MR. [CHARLES A.] HALLECK [of Indiana]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state the parliamentary inquiry.

MR. HALLECK: I understood the limitation of time was for 10 minutes rather than for a fixed time.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Indiana is not correct in his understanding. The motion to close debate was that debate close at 8:20 p.m.

§ 17. Calling Members to Order

The Chairman directs the Committee of the Whole to rise and report to the House when objections have been made under Rule XIV clause 4,<sup>(17)</sup> which relates to calling a Member to order for transgressing the rules of the House, or Rule XIV clause 5,<sup>(18)</sup> which relates to calling a Member to order for words spoken in debate.

Seating of Member Called to Order

§ 17.1 A Member called to order in the Committee of the Whole because of words spoken in debate must take his seat.

cation Act of 1965, Chairman Richard Bolling, of Missouri, stated that a Member called to order because of words spoken in debate in the Committee of the Whole must take his seat.

MR. [FRANK] THOMPSON [Jr.] of New Jersey: Mr. Chairman, I move to strike out the requisite number of words. . . .

I might suggest further you can beat this dog all you want for political purposes; you can demagog however subtly and try to scare people off at the expense of the Nation's schoolchildren with your demagoguery

MR. [CHARLES E.] GOODELL [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I demand that those words be taken down.

MR. THOMPSON of New Jersey: Please take the words down.

MR. GOODELL: Mr. Chairman, the gentleman has accused one of his colleagues of demagoguery.

MR. THOMPSON of New Jersey: I was referring to a gentleman; who takes exception to that?

MR. GOODELL: Mr. Chairman, a point of order: The gentleman must take his seat.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from New Jersey will take his seat.

Rising of Committee to Report Objectionable Words

§ 17.2 When words are taken down in the Committee of the Whole, the Committee immediately rises and the Chairman reports the words objected to to the House.

On Mar. 9, 1936,<sup>(20)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 11563, the District of Columbia rent commission bill, the Committee of the Whole rose immediately after a demand was made to take words down, and the Chairman reported the objectionable words to the House.

MR. [HENRY] ELLENBOGEN [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order. I ask that the gentleman's language be taken down. It is a violation of the rules of the House, and in the meantime I demand that the gentleman take his seat.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(1)</sup> The Clerk will report the words objected to.

The Clerk read as follows:

MR. BLANTON: Here is the answer if the gentleman can understand English.

The Committee rose and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. O'Connor) having assumed the chair, Mr. Umstead, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that the Committee having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 11563), certain words used in debate were objected to and on request were taken down and read at the Clerk's desk and he reported the same to the House herewith.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(2)</sup> The Clerk will report the words objected to.

20. 80 CONG. REC. 3465, 74th Cong. 2d Sess. See 79 CONG. REC. 1808, 74th Cong. 1st Sess., Feb. 7, 1935, for another illustration of this procedure.

1. William B. Umstead (N.C.)
2. John J. O'Connor (N.Y.).

The Clerk read as follows:

MR. BLANTON: Here is the answer, if the gentleman can understand English.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair is ready to rule. The Chair sees nothing objectionable in the words used.

The Committee will resume its session.

Expungement of Words

§ 17.3 Where a demand is made that certain words spoken in debate be taken down in Committee of the Whole, such words must be reported to the House, and a motion to expunge words from the Record is not in order in the Committee.

On Feb. 18, 1941,<sup>(3)</sup> Chairman Warren G. Magnuson, of Washington, stated that the House, not the Committee of the Whole, determines whether to expunge from the Record words spoken and objected to in the Committee of the Whole.

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN [of Michigan]: All we ask in this case is what we do not expect to get, that you stick by the rules of the game you established last year. That is not too much to expect if we adhere to the agreement of last year. This would give us in Michigan the Representative to which we are entitled. But we know what you are going to do. You know what is going to happen. You are going to skin us, are you not? And we have no way to prevent it.

MR. [ROBERT F.] RICH [of Pennsylvania]: I demand that the gentleman's words be taken down. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: . . . The Clerk will read the words objected to.

The Clerk read as follows:

You know what is going to happen. You are going to skin us, are you not; and we have not any way to help it

MR. RICH: Mr. Chairman, I ask that those words be expunged from the Record. They are not going to skin anybody around here.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is a matter for the House to decide. The Committee will rise.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Magnuson, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill H.R. 2665, certain words in debate were objected to, which, on request, were taken down and read at the Clerk's desk, and that he reported the same herewith to the House.

THE SPEAKER: <sup>(4)</sup> The Clerk will report the words objected to.

The Clerk read as follows:

MR. HOFFMAN: You know what is going to happen. You are going to skin us, are you not; and we have not any way to help it.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair is of the opinion that the expression contained in the words reported to the House is merely a colloquialism which does not reflect in an unparliamentary manner upon any Member.

4. Sam Rayburn (Tex.).

The Chair cannot see anything in these words which violates the rules of the House.

The Committee will resume its session.

Scope of Ruling by Speaker

§ 17.4 The Speaker passes only on words reported from the Committee of the Whole; a demand that additional words uttered in the Committee (but not reported to the House) be reported is not in order in the House.

On July 27, 1965,<sup>(5)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 77, repealing section 14(b) of the Labor-Management Relations Act, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, stated that he could rule only on words reported from the Committee of the Whole as recited by the Clerk.<sup>(6)</sup>

MR. [CHARLES E.] GOODELL [of New York]: I would be very interested on this particular issue, if we are going to have a repeat of the exhibition on the housing vote with the gentleman withholding votes and seeing how they are necessary on the issue that comes before us. I hope that this will not be repeated. In my instance, and in the instance of all the gentlemen from New York, I believe we will be standing on the merits of whether we should have a Federal law that destroys the right of the States to make up their minds.

MR. [NEAL] SMITH of Iowa: Mr. Chairman, I demand that the gentleman's words be taken down. He is impugning the motives of Members of this body.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(7)</sup> The Clerk will report the words objected to.

The Clerk read as follows:

MR. GOODELL: I would be very interested on this particular issue if we are going to have a repeat of the exhibition on the housing vote with the gentlemen withholding votes and seeing how they are necessary on the issue that comes before us. I hope that this will not be repeated.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Committee will rise.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. O'Brien, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 77) to repeal section 14(b) of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, and section 705(b) of the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959 and to amend the first proviso of section 8(a)(3) of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, certain words used in debate were objected to and on request were taken down and read at the Clerk's desk, and he herewith reported the same to the House.

7. Leo W. O'Brien (N.Y.).

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will report the words objected to.

The Clerk read as follows:

MR. GOODELL: I would be very interested on this particular issue if we are going to have a repeat of the exhibition on the housing vote with the gentlemen withholding votes and seeing how they are necessary on the issue that comes before us. I hope that this will not be repeated.

MR. SMITH of Iowa: Mr. Speaker, there was another sentence following that. He did not read the last sentence.

THE SPEAKER: The occupant of the Chair can pass only on the words that have been reported.

The Chair will state that in debate the question of impugning the motives or attacking the vote of a Member is one thing; but looking at it from a broad angle the remarks made by the gentleman from New York [Mr. Goodell] seem to come within the purview of the rules.

The Chair does not consider this to be a reflection, if the gentleman was making any reflection, upon any Member of the House or upon any State of the Union, particularly the State of Iowa.

The Chair overrules the point of order.

MR. SMITH of Iowa: Mr. Speaker, I demand the sentence following that be taken down. That was the sentence objected to. He said we did not vote on the merits.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that the Chair can only pass upon the words presented to the Chair and which were taken down in the Committee of the Whole.

MR. SMITH of Iowa: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. SMITH of Iowa: Are we not entitled to have the words taken down that were objected to in the Committee of the Whole so that Members can exercise their rights?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair was confronted with the words actually reported by the Clerk.

MR. SMITH of Iowa: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. SMITH of Iowa: Then when we go back into the Committee of the Whole, am I entitled to demand that the words be taken down that I objected to and report them back?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will not pass upon what can be done in the Committee of the Whole. Of course, if the gentleman desires to renew his request, that would be a matter for the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole to consider on the question of whether or not the words were taken down as demanded by the gentleman from Iowa.

The Committee will resume its sitting.

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill H.R. 77 with Mr. O'Brien in the chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Committee will be in order.

MR. SMITH of Iowa: Mr. Chairman, I demand that the words the gentleman most recently gave me be taken down.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Iowa demands that certain additional words which he claims were uttered shall be taken down.

The Clerk will report the words objected to.

The Clerk read as follows:

MR. GOODELL: In my instance and in the instance of all the gentlemen from New York, I believe we will be standing on the merits of whether we should have a Federal law that destroys the right of the States to make up their minds.

MR. SMITH of Iowa: That is not all of it, Mr. Chairman. That is not all of the words.

THE CHAIRMAN: I might say to the gentleman that is all that the Clerk was able to furnish the Chairman and I assume that the point he has raised—

MR. SMITH of Iowa: In that case, I withdraw the objection.

THE CHAIRMAN: Objection is withdrawn.

The Committee will proceed in order.

Automatic Resolution Into Committee After Ruling

§ 17.5 After the Speaker has ruled on words taken down in Committee, the House automatically again resolves into the Committee of the Whole.

On Mar. 26, 1965,<sup>(8)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2362, the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, and after Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ruled on words taken down in the Committee of the Whole, the House automatically resolved into the Committee under the Chairmanship of Richard Bolling, of Missouri.

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will report the words objected to.

The Clerk read as follows:

I might suggest further you can beat this dog all you want for political purposes; you can demagog however subtly and try to scare people off at the expense of the Nation's schoolchildren with your demagoguery—

THE SPEAKER: The Chair feels that Members in debate have reasonable flexibility in expressing their thoughts.

The Chair sees nothing about the words that contravene the rules of the House. The point of order is not sustained.

The Committee will resume its sitting.

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill (H.R. 2362) with Mr. Bolling in the chair. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: . . . The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New York [Mr. Powell).

Withdrawal of Demand

§ 17.6 A demand that words spoken in debate be taken down may be withdrawn without unanimous consent in the Committee of the Whole.

On July 3, 1946,<sup>(9)</sup> Chairman Wright Patman, of Texas, stated that withdrawal of a demand to take words down did not require unanimous consent.

MR. [CLARENCE J.] BROWN of Ohio: Mr. Chairman, I move to strike out the last three words.

Mr. Chairman, I have just finished listening to two political tirades by two political tyros, and I say to those gentlemen that they cannot

MR. [MATTHEW M.] NEELY [of West Virginia]: Mr. Chairman, I demand that those words be taken down.

MR. BROWN of Ohio: If the gentleman knows what the word "tyro" means he can have it taken down.

MR. NEELY: The gentleman knows that that statement is not true and that the statement is not justified. I demand that the words be taken down and stricken from the Record.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk will report the words objected to.

MR. NEELY: Mr. Chairman, for fear that this procedure will delay the final vote on the bill, I withdraw my request.

MR. [EARL] WILSON [of Indiana]: I object, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: It does not require unanimous consent to withdraw the request.

Withdrawal of Objectionable Words After Speaker's Ruling

Whole and ruled out of order by the Speaker when reported to the House may by unanimous consent be withdrawn; such consent when granted permits a Member who had the floor to continue without motion to proceed in order provided that his time had not expired.

On Mar. 16, 1939,<sup>(10)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 4852, the Department of the Interior appropriations bill, 1940, Speaker William B. Bankhead, of Alabama, stated that words spoken in the Committee of the Whole and objected to as violative of rules of the House could be withdrawn by unanimous consent. After the Committee resumed its sitting, Chairman Frank H. Buck, of California, ruled on whether the Member who had been granted unanimous consent to withdraw certain words could proceed with further debate.

MR. [LEE E.] GEYER of California: Mr. Chairman, I move to strike out the last two words. . . .

I have heard the gentleman from Wisconsin, the man who made Milwaukee famous, stand upon this floor a good many times. He is an estimable gentleman. I like him very much when he is not in the Well of this House. I have seen him come out with a hand that only he possesses, a hand like a ham, and grasp this delicate instrument until it groaned from mad torture. I have seen him come on the floor and stamp up and down like a wild man.

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I demand that the gentleman's words be taken down.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from New York demands that the words of the gentleman be taken down. The gentleman from California will take his seat.

The gentleman from New York will indicate to the Clerk the words objected to.

MR. TABER: "Stamping like a wild man" and "a hand like a ham."

MR. [JOHN C.] SCHAFER [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Chairman, as far as I am concerned, I am not objecting to the words. I will handle him at a later date.

MR. TABER: I believe the integrity of the rules of the House should be preserved.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk will report the words taken down at the request of the gentleman from New York.

The Clerk read as follows:

I have seen him come on the floor and stamp up and down like a wild man.

MR. TABER: Mr. Chairman, there were some other words about "a hand like a ham."

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk will report the additional words.

The Clerk read as follows:

I have seen him come out with a hand that only he possesses, a hand

10. 84 CONG. REC. 2871, 76th Cong. 1st Sess.

like a ham, and grasp this delicate instrument until it groaned from mad torture.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Committee will rise.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Buck, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, reported that the Committee having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 4852) the Interior Department appropriation bill, 1940, certain words used in debate were objected to and, on request, were taken down and read at the Clerk's desk, and that he herewith reported the same to the House.

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will report the words objected to in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union.

The Clerk read as follows:

I have seen him come out with a hand that only he possesses, a hand like a ham, and grasp this delicate instrument until it groaned from mad torture. I have seen him come on the floor and stamp up and down like a wild man.

THE SPEAKER: The rule governing situations of this character provides as follows:

OF DECORUM AND DEBATE

When any Member desires to speak or deliver any matter to the House he shall rise and respectfully address himself to "Mr. Speaker," and, on being recognized, may address the House from any place on the floor or from the Clerk's desk, and shall confine himself to the question under debate, avoiding personality.

The words objected to and which have been taken down and read from the Clerk's desk very patently violate the rule, because the words alleged do involve matters of personal reference and personality.

MR. SCHAFFER of Wisconsin: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. SCHAFFER of Wisconsin: Mr. Speaker, I do not believe the gentleman who had the floor had any intention of violating the rules. He was just carried away by the debate. I rise to ask if the words cannot be withdrawn by unanimous consent.

THE SPEAKER: The words can be withdrawn by unanimous consent.

MR. GEYER of California: Mr. Speaker, I wish to thank the gentleman from Wisconsin for his very generous attitude, and I ask unanimous consent to withdraw the words in question.

THE SPEAKER: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

THE SPEAKER: The Committee will resume its sitting.

Accordingly the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the further consideration of the bill H.R. 4852, with Mr. Buck in the chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from California is recognized for 3½ minutes.

MR. [JAMES W.] MOTT [of Oregon]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from California yield for a parliamentary inquiry?

MR. GEYER of California: I do not yield, Mr. Chairman.

MR. MOTT: A point of order, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MOTT: As I understand, Mr. Chairman, the proceeding just had takes the gentleman off the floor, and he may proceed only by unanimous consent.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair may state that, by unanimous consent, the House permitted the gentleman to withdraw his words. That leaves the gentleman in the position he was before the words were uttered.

The gentleman from California will proceed.

MR. MOTT: Mr. Chairman, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman yield for a parliamentary inquiry?

MR. GEYER of California: I do not care to yield for another one, Mr. Chairman.

MR. MOTT: A point of order, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MOTT: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order that the time of the gentleman has expired.

THE CHAIRMAN: The time of the gentleman has not expired. The point of order is overruled.

§ 18. Reading Papers

Rule XXX<sup>(11)</sup> provides that the question of whether a paper may 11. House Rules and Manual §915 (1979); see Jefferson's Manual, be read is to be determined by a vote of the House. Nonetheless, when an objection to the reading of a paper is raised in the Committee of the Whole, the Committee need not rise; the issue is put to<sup>(12)</sup> and voted on<sup>(13)</sup> by the Committee, without debate.

Putting Question to Committee of the Whole

§ 18.1 Where objection is made in the Committee of the Whole to the reading of a paper, the question may be raised by motion and put to the Committee by the Chairman.

On Mar. 24, 1948,<sup>(14)</sup> during consideration of S. 2202, the Foreign Assistance Act of 1948, Chairman Francis H. Case, of South Dakota, after objection was made, put to the Committee of the Whole a question regarding the reading of a letter.

MR. [VITO] MARCANTONIO [of New York] (interrupting the reading of the letter): Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

MR. [JOHN M.] VORYS [of Ohio]: No.

MR. MARCANTONIO: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MARCANTONIO: Mr. Chairman, in connection with my point of order, I just want to propound a parliamentary inquiry.

MR. VORYS: I object to his propounding a parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Chairman.

MR. MARCANTONIO: Then I make a point of order, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MARCANTONIO: The point of order is that the gentleman cannot read anybody else's material without the consent of the Committee. I asked the gentleman to yield to me, and he would not yield.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will present that question to the Committee. The question is, Shall the gentleman be permitted to proceed with the reading of the letter?

The question was taken, and the Chair announced that the motion was agreed to.

§ 18.2 If objection is made in the Committee of the Whole to the reading of a letter by another Member, the question is determined by vote of the Committee without debate.

On June 26, 1952,<sup>(15)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 8120, the 15. 98 CONG. REC. 8175, 8176, 82d Cong. 2nd Sess.

Defense Production Act Amendments of 1952, the Committee of the Whole by vote and without debate permitted a Member to read a letter by a Governor after objection to that reading was raised.

MR. [CLINTON D.] MCKINNON [of California]: Mr. Chairman, I move to strike out the last word.

Mr. Chairman, yesterday the committee adopted, tentatively at least, the Cole amendment which provided for individual ceilings on price control. This amendment has a lot of things in it that I am sure the Members are not familiar with or I am sure they would not have adopted the amendment. In view of that, the chairman of the committee requested Governor Arnall, for whom I am sure the House has a high regard, to comment on what that would mean in regard to enforcement of price ceilings, and I should like to read what Governor Arnall has to say about it. He said this:

It is my considered judgment that an amendment of this kind

MR. [JESSE P. ] WOLCOTT [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(16)</sup> The gentleman will state it.

MR. WOLCOTT: I have not gone into this too thoroughly, but I make the point of order, Mr. Chairman, that it is against the rules of the House, which control the rules of the committee, to read letters from other than Members of Congress. We have been propagandized enough on this bill already.

THE CHAIRMAN: If the gentleman from Michigan objects to the reading of the letter, the question will then be put to the members of the Committee of the Whole for a decision. Does the gentleman object to the further reading of the letter?

16. Wilbur D. Mills (Ark.).

MR. WOLCOTT: Yes; at this time I do object, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is, Shall the gentleman from California be permitted to proceed with the reading of the letter?

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Wolcott) there were—ayes 103, noes 102.

MR. WOLCOTT: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Wolcott and Mr. Bolling.

The Committee again divided; and the tellers reported there were—ayes 141, noes 113.

So Mr. McKinnon was permitted to proceed with the reading of the letter

Time to Read

§ 18.3 A decision of the Committee of the Whole to permit a Member to read a paper means that the Member may read it within the five minutes allotted to him, and does not necessarily permit him to read the entire paper.

On June 26, 1952,<sup>(17)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 8210, the Defense Production Act Amendments of 1952, Chairman Wilbur

17. 98 CONG. REC. 8175, 8176, 82d Cong. 2d Sess.

D. Mills, of Arkansas, stated that a decision of the Committee of the Whole to permit a Member to read a letter enables the Member to use only the allotted time to read.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from California is recognized [to read a letter].

MR. [CLINTON D.] MCKINNON: Mr. Chairman, I want to thank the membership. I am sure there are many Members who are very desirous of getting all the information they can.

MR. [BRENT] SPENCE [of Kentucky]: Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

MR. MCKINNON: I yield to the gentleman from Kentucky.

MR. SPENCE: I suggest the gentleman read the entire letter.

MR. MCKINNON: The letter reads as follows:

It is my considered judgment that an amendment of this kind, if adopted, would throw a costly monkey-wrench into the food price-control machinery. It would come close to making it completely unworkable. Its effects can be simply stated: . . .

I am confident that if Congress is informed of the consequences of this high-food price, red-tape amendment, it will be overwhelmingly defeated. This is no time to raise the prices of food to housewives or to make the small-business man go through mountains of red tape just to satisfy a few food organizations.

I hope that you will call these considerations to the attention of the House if the individual mark-up amendment is offered on the floor.

Sincerely yours,

ELLIS ARNALL.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman has consumed 5 minutes. . . .

MR. [HERMAN P.] EBERHARTER [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. EBERHARTER: Mr. Chairman, the House decided by a teller vote to permit the reading of this letter. I submit that the letter should be read in its entirety; that is the point of order I make.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is not the decision made by the Committee. The Committee made the decision that the gentleman could read the letter within the time allotted to the gentleman of 5 minutes.

MR. EBERHARTER: I did not hear it so stated when the motion was put, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question put to the Committee had nothing whatsoever to do with the time to be consumed by the gentleman from California. The Chair recognized the gentleman from California for 5 minutes; the question arose as to whether or not he could within that 5 minutes time read extraneous papers.

The point of order is overruled.-

E. POINTS OF ORDER

§ 19. Generally

Questions of order relating to procedure (as distinguished from cases of disorder or contempt) arising in the Committee of the Whole are decided by the Chairman, not the Speaker.<sup>(18)</sup> However, on an occasion when the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole had taken an active part in the discussion of a point of order,

18. 5 Hinds' Precedents §§ 6927, 6928.

See § 6, supra, for precedents relating to rulings of the Chairman generally. See Ch. 31, infra, for precedents relating to points of order generally. See 4 Hinds' Precedents §§ 4783, 4784, 5 Hinds' Precedents §§ 6921-6937, 6987, and 8 Cannon's Precedents § 3450, for pre-1936 precedents.

the question was by unanimous consent passed over to be later raised in the House.<sup>(19)</sup>

Scope of Ruling

§ 19.1 The Chair does not rule on points not presented in a point of order.

On June 27, 1949,<sup>(20)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 4009, the Housing Act of 1949, and after overruling a point of order that particular provisions exceeded the jurisdiction of the Committee on Banking and Currency because they constituted appropriations,

19. 7 Cannon's Precedents § 1527.

20. 95 CONG. REC. 8536-38, 81st Cong. 1st Sess.

Chairman Hale Boggs, of Louisiana, declined to rule on an issue which had not been presented in a point of order.

MR. [FRANCIS H.] CASE of South Dakota: Mr. Chairman, the point of order I make is that subparagraphs (e) and (f) of section 102 in title I constitute the appropriation of funds from the Federal Treasury, and that the Committee on Banking and Currency is without jurisdiction to report a bill carrying appropriations under clause 4, rule 21, which says that no bill or joint resolution carrying appropriations shall be reported by any committee not having jurisdiction to report appropriations.

This is no casual point of order made as a tactical maneuver in consideration of the bill. I make this point of order because this proposes to expand and develop a device or mechanism for getting funds out of the Federal Treasury in an unprecedented degree

The Constitution has said that no money shall be drawn from the Treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law. It must follow that the mechanism which gets the money out of the Treasury is an appropriation.

I invite the attention of the Chairman to the fact that subparagraph (e) states:

To obtain funds for loans under this title, the Administrator may issue and have outstanding at any one time notes and obligations for purchase by the Secretary of the Treasury in an amount not to exceed $25,000,000, which limit on such outstanding amount shall be increased by $225,000,000 on July 1,

1950, and by further amounts of $25,000,000 on July 1 in each of the years 1951, 1952, and 1953, respectively—

Within the total authorization of $1,000,000,000.

Further that subparagraph (f) provides that—

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed—

And I call particular attention to the use of the words “and directed”— to purchase any notes and other obligations of the Administrator issued under this title and for such purpose is authorized to use as a public debt transaction the proceeds from the sale of any securities issued under the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended—

And so forth. The way in which this particular language extends this device of giving the Secretary authority to subscribe for notes by some authority is this: It includes the words “and directed.”

In other words, the Secretary of the Treasury has no alternative when the Administrator presents to him some of these securities for purchase but to purchase them. The Secretary of the Treasury is not limited to purchasing them by proceeds from the sale of bonds or securities. He is directed to purchase these notes and obligations issued by the Administrator. That means he might use funds obtained from taxes, that he might use funds obtained through the assignment of miscellaneous receipts to the Treasury, that he might use funds obtained through the proceeds of bonds.

This proposal will give to the Committee on Banking and Currency, if it should be permitted, authority which the Committee on Appropriations does not have, for in the reporting of an appropriation bill for a fiscal year, any appropriation beyond the fiscal year would be held out of order. Here this committee is reporting a bill which proposes to make mandatory extractions from the Treasury during a period of 4 years. . . .

MR. [JOHN W.] MCCORMACK [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Chairman, I agree with my friend who has raised the point of order that this is not a casual one, but, on the contrary, is a very sincere one. It presents a new question from a legislative angle to be passed upon in the direct question raised by the point of order. . . .

The provision in paragraph (f) that my friend has raised a point of order against relates entirely to loans. As we read section 102 of title I it starts out with loans. Throughout the bill, a number of times, there is reference to loans.

Paragraph (e) says:

To obtain funds for loans under this title.

It is a loan.

The meat of the two paragraphs, as I see it, is this:

Paragraph (f), line 23, page 8, says:

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to purchase any notes and other obligations of the Administrator issued under this title and for such purpose is authorized to use as a public-debt transaction the proceeds from the sale of any securities issued under the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, and the purposes for which securities may be issued under such act, as amended, are extended to include any purchases of such notes and other obligations.

It seems to me that that is the meat. Certainly, the language there does not amount to an appropriation. It is entirely for loan purposes. . . .

I respectfully submit that it must call for an appropriation out of the general funds of the Treasury in order to violate the rules of the House. This permits the use of money raised by the sale of bonds under the Second Liberty Bond Act for loans to these public agencies, such loans to be repaid with interest.

I respectfully submit, complimenting my friend for having raised the point of order—and certainly, it is not a dilatory one, nor a casual one, one that demands respect—that the point of order does not lie against the language contained in the pending bill. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is prepared to rule.

The Chair agrees with the gentleman from South Dakota that the point which has been raised is not a casual point of order. As a matter of fact, as far as the Chair has been able to ascertain, this is the first time a point of order has been raised on this issue as violative of clause 4 of rule XXI.

As the Chair sees the point of order, the issue involved turns on the meaning of the word "appropriation." "Appropriation," in its usual and customary interpretation, means taking money out of the Treasury by appropriate legislative language for the support of the general functions of Government. The language before us does not do that. This language authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to use proceeds of public-debt issues for the purpose of making loans. Under the language, the Treasury of the United States makes advances which will be repaid in full with interest over a period of years without cost to the taxpayers.

Therefore, the Chair rules that this language does not constitute an appropriation, and overrules the point of order.

MR. CASE of South Dakota: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. CASE of South Dakota: Would the Chair hold then that that language restricts the Secretary of the Treasury to using the proceeds of the securities issued under the second Liberty Bond Act and prevents him from using the proceeds from miscellaneous receipts or tax revenues?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair does not have authority to draw that distinction. The Chair is passing on the particular point which has been raised.

MR. CASE of South Dakota: However, Mr. Chairman, it would seem implicit in the ruling of the Chair and I thought perhaps it could be decided as a part of the parliamentary history. It might help some courts later on.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair can make a distinction between the general funds of the Treasury and money raised for a specific purpose by the issuance of securities. That is the point involved here.

Scope of Debate

§ 19.2 Debate on a point of order raised in the Com- mittee of the Whole is within the discretion of the Chairman and must be confined to the point of order.

On Apr. 13, 1951,<sup>(1)</sup> during consideration of S. 1, 1951 Amendments to the Universal Military Training and Service Act, Chairman Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, stated that debate on a point of order is controlled by the Chair and must be confined to the point of order.

MR. [ANTONI N.] SADLAK [of Connecticut]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk will report the amendment, but the Chair will state that all time for debate has been exhausted.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Sadlak: Page 26, following the amendment offered by Mr. Walter, insert the following: "Any citizen of a foreign country. . . ."

MR. [CARL] VINSON [of Georgia]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order against the amendment that it is not germane to the pending bill.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from Connecticut desire to be heard on the point of order?

MR. SADLAK: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. SADLAK: Mr. Chairman, how much time will be allotted to me for that purpose?

1. 97 CONG. REC. 3909, 3910, 82d Cong. 1st Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is in the discretion of the Chair. The gentleman's argument must be confined to the point of order.

Violation of Ramseyer Rule

§ 19.3 A point of order that a committee report fails to comply with Rule XIII clause 3,<sup>(2)</sup> the Ramseyer rule, will not lie in the Committee of the Whole.

On July 5, 1966,<sup>(3)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 14765, the Civil Rights Act of 1966, Chairman Richard Bolling, of Missouri, ruled whether a point of order that a committee report that failed to comply with Rule XIII clause 3, the Ramseyer rule, would lie in the Committee of the Whole.

MR. [EMANUEL] CELLER [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 14765) to assure nondiscrimination in Federal and State jury selection and service . . . and for other purposes.

MR. [JOHN BELL] WILLIAMS [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(4)</sup> The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. Celler].

3. 112 CONG. REC. 16840, 89th Cong, 2d Sess.
4. John W. McCormack (Mass.).

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER: All those in favor of the motion will let it be known by saying "aye." All those opposed by saying "no."

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill, H.R. 14765, with Mr. Bolling in the chair.

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Chairman, a point of order. Mr. Chairman, I have a point of order. I was on my feet—

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

By unanimous consent, the first reading of the bill was dispensed with.

MR. [JOE D.] WAGGONER [Jr., of Louisiana]: Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: Under the rule, the gentleman from New York [Mr. Celler] will be recognized for 5 hours. . . .

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Chairman.

MR. CELLER: Mr. Chairman, I yield myself such time as I may care to use.

Mr. Chairman, Negroes propose to be free. Many rights have been denied and withheld from them. The right to be equally educated with whites. The right to equal housing with whites.

The right to equal recreation with whites.

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

MR. CELLER: Regular order, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Chairman, immediately before the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House I was on my feet on the floor seeking recognition for the purpose of making a point of order against consideration of H.R. 14765 on the ground that the report of the Judiciary Committee accompanying the bill does not comply with all the requirements of clause 3 of rule XIII of the rules of the House known as the Ramseyer rule and intended to request I be heard in support of that point of order. I was not recognized by the Chair. I realize technically under the rules of the House at this point, my point of order may come too late, after the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union.

MR. CELLER: Mr. Chairman.

MR. WILLIAMS: But I may say, Mr. Chairman, that I sought to raise the point of order before the House went into session. May I ask this question? Is there any way that this point of order can lie at this time?

THE CHAIRMAN: Not at this time. It lies only in the House, the Chair must inform the gentleman from Mississippi.

MR. WILLIAMS: May I say that the Parliamentarian and the Speaker were notified in advance and given copies of the point of order that I desired to raise, and I was refused recognition although I was on my feet seeking recognition at the time.

MR. [JOHN J.] FLYNT [of Georgia]: Mr. Chairman, I appeal the ruling of the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will have to repeat that the gentleman from Mississippi is well aware that this present occupant of the chair is powerless to do other than he has stated.

MR. WAGGONER: Mr. Chairman, I appeal the ruling of the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is, Shall the decision of the Chair stand as rendered?

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Williams) there were—ayes 139, noes 101.

The decision of the Chair was sustained.

§ 19.4 After brief debate on whether a point of order that a committee report violated the Ramseyer rule could be entertained in the Committee of the Whole, the Committee on motion rose; the Speaker announced that because of confusion in the Chamber he had not heard the Member seeking recognition on the point of order and, since the Member stated that he had been seeking recognition, agreed to hear his point of order.

On July 5, 1966,<sup>(5)</sup> after the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole refused to entertain a point of order that a committee report violated the Ramseyer Rule<sup>(6)</sup> and the Committee on appeal sustained that ruling, the Committee on motion rose. Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, agreed to hear this point of order because he had not heard the Member, John Bell Williams, of Mississippi, seek recognition before the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Bolling, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 14765) to assure nondiscrimination in Federal and State jury selection and service, to facilitate the desegregation of public education and other public facilities, to provide judicial relief against discriminatory housing practices, to prescribe penalties for certain acts of violence or intimidation, and for other purposes, had come to no resolution thereon.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Mississippi.

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Speaker, the House resolved itself into the committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union a moment ago. When the question was put by the Chair, I was on my feet seeking recognition for the purpose of offering a point of order against consideration of the legislation. Although I shouted rather loudly, apparently the Chair did not hear me. Since the Committee proceeded to go into the Committee of the Whole, I would like to know, Mr. Speaker, if the point of order which I had intended to offer can be offered now in the House against the consideration of the bill; and, Mr. Speaker, I make such a point of order and ask that I be heard on the point of order.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that the Chair did not hear the gentleman make his point of order. There was too much noise. Under the circumstances the Chair will entertain the point of order.

Rising of Committee Pending Decision

§ 19.5 A point of order having been raised in the Committee of the Whole against a bill reported by a nonappropriating committee, on grounds that it proposed an appropriation contrary to Rule XXI clause 5,<sup>(7)</sup> the Committee rose pending decision by the Chair on the point of order.

On June 4, 1957,<sup>(8)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6974, extending the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, the Committee of the Whole rose pending a decision by the Chairman on a point of order.

The Clerk read as follows:

Be it enacted, etc., That the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, as amended, is amended as follows: . . .

MR. [JOHN J.] RODNEY [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I rise to a point of order against the entire bill, H.R. 6974, on the ground that it is a bill from a committee not having authority to report an appropriation. . . .

7. House Rules and Manual §846 (1979).

8. 103 CONG. REC. 8298, 8318, 8319, 85th Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. [HAROLD D.] COOLEY [of North Carolina]: . . . I am a little bit apprehensive that the point of order may be sustained, if the Chair is called upon to rule on it. But, I think it would be very unfortunate for us to delay final action on the bill, and in the circumstances we have no other alternative other than to move that the Committee do now rise, and so, Mr. Chairman, I make that motion.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(9)</sup> The Chair is prepared to rule on the point of order, but the motion offered by the gentleman from North Carolina that the Committee do now rise is in order, and the Chair will put the question.

The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from North Carolina.

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Hays of Arkansas, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 6974) to extend the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, and for other purposes, had come to no resolution thereon.

Disposing of Points of Order Before Consideration of Bill for Amendment

§ 19.6 The Committee of the Whole agreed by unanimous consent to dispense with the reading of an appropriation bill for amendment and that

9. Brooks Hays (Ark.).

points of order and then amendments could be submitted immediately after the first reading of the bill had been dispensed with.

On July 5, 1945,<sup>(10)</sup> the Committee of the Whole agreed to dispense with the reading of an appropriation bill, that the bill be considered as read, and that points of order and amendments be in order thereafter.

Accordingly the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 3649) with Mr. Sparkman in the chair.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

On motion of Mr. Cannon of Missouri the first reading of the bill was dispensed with.

MR. [CLARENCE] CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that the bill be considered as read and that all Members desiring to submit amendments or points of order have leave to submit them at this time.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(11)</sup> Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Missouri?

There was no objection.

MR. [VITO] MARCANTONIO [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, in view of the unanimous consent request that has just been granted, I make the point of order against the first item, National War Labor Board, on the ground that it is an appropriation not authorized by law.

10. 91 CONG. REC. 7226, 7227, 79th Cong. 1st Sess.

11. John J. Sparkman (Ala.).

MR. CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I concede the point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The point of order is sustained.

MR. MARCANTONIO: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order on the same grounds against the item for the Office of Defense Transportation on page 5.

MR. CANNON of Missouri: The point of order is conceded, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from New York [Mr. Marcantonio] makes a point of order which the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Cannon] concedes. The Chair sustains the point of order.

§ 19.7 Where unanimous consent is granted that the remainder of an appropriation bill be considered as read and that all portions thereof be subject to amendments and to points of order, the Chair suggests that points of order be disposed of first since it will be too late to make such points after amendments to the bill have been considered.

On Apr. 25, 1947,<sup>(12)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 3123, the Department of the Interior appropriations bill, 1948, Chairman Earl C. Michener, of Michigan, suggested a time for the raising of points of order against amendments to the bill.

MR. [ROBERT F.] JONES of Ohio: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that the remainder of the bill be considered as read and that all portions thereof be subject to amendment and to points of order.

12. 93 CONG. REC. 4098, 80th Cong. 1st Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Ohio?

There was no objection.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair suggests that the points of order be disposed of first under this procedure, before the amendments.

MR. [FRANCIS H.] CASE of South Dakota: Mr. Chairman, a point of order. . . .

My point of order, Mr. Chairman, is that that is legislation amending a previous act and not within the purview of this bill making appropriations for fiscal 1948. It constitutes legislation on an appropriation bill for it destroys existing legislation.

THE CHAIRMAN: This language changes a contract authorization contained in a previous appropriation bill passed by another Congress. The Chair sustains the point of order.

Are there any further points of order to be made to the bill? If so, they will be taken up first since it will be too late to make points of order after amendments to the bill have been considered.

§ 20. Timeliness

Points of order on general appropriation bills are usually reserved in the House at the time of reference to the Committee of the Whole (to the Union Calendar) to permit the Committee to strike out portions in violation of the rules.<sup>(13)</sup> This reservation is necessary only on general appropriation bills;<sup>(14)</sup> failure to reserve the point of order precludes a ruling on it because the Chairman may not take away from the Committee of the Whole a portion of a bill committed to it by the House.<sup>(15)</sup> Not all points of order on appropriation bills must be reserved prior to reference to the Committee of the Whole, however. Points of order against the consideration of an appropriation bill, since made in the House, need not be reserved in advance. A point of order based on a rule which prohibits reporting of bills or joint resolutions carrying appropriations by committees which do not have jurisdiction to report appropriations may be made anytime.<sup>(16)</sup>

Generally, points of order against a provision in a bill or amendment are properly made when that provision or amendment is reached in the reading. Points of order against bills in their entirety are normally in order when called up.

Some points of order may not be raised in the Committee of the Whole. Those relating to a comparative print of proposed changes in law,<sup>(17)</sup> printing a bill and hearings prior to floor consideration,<sup>(18)</sup> and failure of a quorum to be present in a standing committee when a bill was reported<sup>(19)</sup> come too late in the Committee of the Whole; they should be raised in the House against consideration of the bill pending the motion to resolve into the Committee.

A point of order against a bill or a portion thereof based upon lack of committee jurisdiction of the committee reporting the bill comes too late when the bill is under consideration in Committee of the Whole, the proper remedy being the motion to correct an erroneous reference under Rule XXII clause 4 prior to the reporting of the bill.<sup>(1)</sup>

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: This is the proper time for the gentleman to make this point of order.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order. I was on my feet urging a point of order when the motion was made to go into committee. I make the point of order that this bill is not properly before the House, for the simple reason that the report does not comply supplemental national defense appropriations bill, Chairman John J. Sparkman, of Alabama, ruled untimely a point of order that a bill and hearings had not been printed and that minority views did not accompany the report.

MR. [EARL] WILSON [of Indiana]: Then, Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order against further consideration of the bill on the ground that it has not been printed and presented to the House, and that the majority hearings have not been printed and presented to the House 24 hours ahead of the time when the bill is called up. Further, the minority views have not been printed.

THE CHAIRMAN: The point of order comes too late. The House has already committed the bill to the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union and the bill is now properly before the Committee for its consideration. The point of order does not lie at this time.

Quorum in Standing Committee

§ 20.5 Points of order against a bill on the ground that a quorum of the standing committee was not present when the bill was ordered reported should be made in the House; such points come too late after the House has resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole for consideration of the bill.

On June 14, 1946,<sup>(10)</sup> during consideration of S. 524, the national cemetery bill, Chairman Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, stated that points of order that a quorum of the standing committee was not present when the bill was ordered reported should be made in the House.

MR. [FOREST A.] HARNES of Indiana. Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HARNES of Indiana: At what time would a point of order lie against the bill on the ground that the committee reporting it was without jurisdiction because at the time it reported the bill there was not a quorum present?

THE CHAIRMAN: Answering the gentleman's parliamentary inquiry the Chair will state that such a point of order would be too late now that the House is in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union. Such a point of order should be made in the House before consideration of the bill.

MR. [LOWELL] STOCKMAN [of Oregon]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Stockman: Page 34, line 11, strike out "$125,000" and insert "$2,500,000."

MR. STOCKMAN: Mr. Chairman, the amount allowed by the budget for this item—

MR. [ROBERT F.] JONES of Ohio: Mr. Chairman, I would like to make a point of order against this amendment, but will reserve it for the moment.

MR. [CARL] HINSHAW [of California]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that that comes too late.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Ohio makes a point of order. The gentleman from Oregon had already been recognized and had started debate. The Chair wants to be extremely fair and not too technical, but that is the situation. The Chair is constrained to hold that the point of order comes too late.

point of order against a proposed amendment even though the sponsor of the amendment has commenced his remarks.

On June 23, 1945,<sup>(12)</sup> during consideration of House Joint Resolution 101, extending the Price Control and Stabilization Acts, Chairman Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, recognized a Member to make a point of order notwithstanding the fact that the sponsor of the amendment had commenced his remarks.

MR. [FRANCIS H.] CASE of South Dakota: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Case of South Dakota: Insert a new section after section 2 to read as follows:

"The Secretary of Agriculture shall confer with the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy from time to time on the supplies of meat, sugar, poultry, dairy and vegetable products available in continental United States for military and civilian needs and said Secretary of Agriculture is authorized and directed to borrow or divert from military channels for critical civilian needs such stocks or supplies as he finds can be spared by the military and in such amounts as he can certify to the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy can and will be restored by the time they are needed."

MR. CASE of South Dakota: Mr. Chairman, this amendment proposes—

12. 91 CONG. REC. 6597, 6598, 79th Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. [BRENT] SPENCE [of Kentucky]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. SPENCE: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that the amendment is not germane to the bill; that it includes matters not contemplated by the bill, and it goes far beyond the scope of the bill.

MR. CASE of South Dakota: Mr. Chairman, I think the gentleman's point of order comes too late, because I had been recognized and started to debate the amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Kentucky was on his feet, and the point of order does not come too late. Does the gentleman from South Dakota desire to be heard on the point of order? . . .

MR. SPENCE: Mr. Chairman, I insist on the point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: . . . [T]he Chair is of the opinion that the amendment is in order especially in view of the present form of the pending bill at this stage. The Chair overrules the point of order.

Effect of Failure to Obtain Recognition to Debate

§ 20.8 Recognition of a Member by the Chair to offer an amendment does not give such Member the privilege of debating his amendment; consequently a point of order against an amendment may be made in a proper case even though a Member has started debate thereon if he did not obtain recognition for that purpose (the Committee overruling the Chair on appeal).

On Feb. 1, 1938,<sup>(13)</sup> during consideration of amendments to H.R. 9181, the District of Columbia appropriations bill of 1939, it was contended that a point of order against an amendment was untimely in that it had been made after debate had begun. The proceedings were as follows:

The Clerk reads as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Collins: On page 68, line 20, after the period, insert a new paragraph, as follows:

"Street lighting: For purchase, installation, and maintenance of public lamps; lampposts, street designations, lanterns, and fixtures of all kinds on streets, avenues, roads, alleys, and for all necessary expenses in connection therewith, including rental of storerooms, extra labor, operation, maintenance, and repair of motortrucks, this sum to be expended in accordance with the provisions of existing law, $765,000: Provided, That this appropriation shall not be available for the payment of rates for electric street lighting in excess of those authorized to be paid in the fiscal year 1927, and payment for electric current for new forms of street lighting shall not exceed 2 cents per kilowatt-hour for current consumed."

MR. [ROSS A.] COLLINS [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, the language that is incorporated in the amendment—

13. 83 CONG. REC. 1372, 1373, 75th Cong. 3d Sess.

MR. [JACK] NICHOLS [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the amendment.

MR. COLLINS: Eliminates the language against which the gentleman made the point of order.

MR. Chairman, I make the point of order that the gentleman's point of order comes too late.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(14)</sup> The gentleman from Oklahoma makes a point of order on the amendment, and the gentleman from Mississippi makes the point of order that the point of order made by the gentleman from Oklahoma comes too late.

The point of order of the gentleman from Mississippi is sustained. . . .

MR. NICHOLS: If the Chair did recognize the gentleman from Mississippi I may say the Chair recognized him while I was on my feet taking the only opportunity presented to me to address the Chair, in order that I might direct my point of order to the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: That may be true. The Chair does not care to indulge in any controversy on that question with the gentleman from Oklahoma. The Chair is merely stating what occurred. The Chair may state further to the gentleman from Oklahoma, in deference to the situation which has developed here, that if that had been true, under the rules it would have been the duty of the Chair to have recognized a member of the committee in preference to any other Member on the floor. The Chair was acting under the limitations of the rule. . . .

MR. [JESSE P.] WOLCOTT [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, the rule, as I understand it, is that if any action is taken on the amendment, then the point of order is dilatory. The only action that could have been taken was recognition by the Chair of the gentleman from Mississippi to debate his amendment.

14. William J. Driver (Ark.).

I want to call the attention of the Chair to the fact the only manner in which the Chair can recognize a Member to be heard on this floor is to refer to the gentleman either by name or by the State from which the gentleman comes, and I call the attention of the Chair to the fact that the Chair in this particular instance did not say he recognized the gentleman from Mississippi or the gentleman [Mr. Collins], and for that reason there was no official proceeding and no official action taken between the time that the amendment was offered and the time the gentleman from Oklahoma made his point of order, and therefore the point of order was not dilatory.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair desires, in all fairness, to make this statement to the Committee, as well as directly to the gentleman from Michigan. Not only was the gentleman from Mississippi recognized, but he began an explanation of his amendment, and the Chair certainly presumes that the gentleman being on the floor at the time heard that; and when that occurred, the Chair does not think the gentleman will disagree with the Chair about the fact that the Chair is required, under the rules, to rule in deference to the situation that developed. The Chair does not desire to forestall proceedings and would be pleased to hear points of order, but the Chair must act within the definition of the rule.

MR. WOLCOTT: If the Chair will indulge me for a moment in that respect, the point I wish to make is this. The gentleman from Mississippi had no authority to address this Committee until he had been recognized by the Chair, and if the gentleman from Oklahoma made his point of order during a brief sentence by someone which had no right under the rules of this House even to be reported by the official reporter, then he cannot be estopped, under those circumstances, from making his point of order. The Chair of necessity must have recognized the gentleman from Mississippi to debate the amendment.

The offering of an amendment is not a proceeding which will estop the gentleman from Oklahoma from making his point of order. It is recognition by the Chair of another gentleman to discuss the amendment, and the gentleman could have discussed the amendment only after recognition was given. . . .

MR. NICHOLS: If the Chair has made a final ruling, I would, in the most respectful manner I know, request an appeal from the decision of the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Oklahoma appeals from the decision of the Chair on the ruling of the Chair on the point of order, as stated.

The question before the Committee is, Shall the ruling of the Chair stand as the judgment of the Committee?

The question was taken, and the Chair announced that the noes had it.

So the decision of the Chair does not stand as the judgment of the Committee.

Appeal of Chair's Ruling on Timeliness

§ 20.9 A ruling of the Chairman that a point of order is

untimely may be appealed to the Committee of the Whole.

On Feb. 1, 1938,<sup>(15)</sup> during consideration of amendments to H.R. 9181, the District of Columbia appropriations bill, 1939, the Committee of the Whole overruled a decision of the Chairman that a point of order had been made too late. The Chair invoked the principle that a point of order on an amendment is made too late after commencement of debate on the amendment. But the Committee took the view that recognition to offer an amendment did not automatically extend to the privilege of debating that amendment, so that a point of order would be timely if the proponent of the amendment had commenced debate without first receiving recognition to debate.

Against Appropriation Bill

§ 20.10 The time for making points of order against items in an appropriation bill is after the House has resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole and after the paragraph containing such items has been read for amendment.

15. See §20.8, supra, for the relevant proceedings of this date.

On July 5, 1945,<sup>(16)</sup> during consideration of a motion that the House resolve into the Committee of the Whole for consideration of H.R. 3649, the war agencies appropriation bill, 1946, Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, stated the rule as to the proper time to raise points of order against items in an appropriation bill.

MR. [CLARENCE] CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 3649), making appropriations for war agencies for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1946, and for other purposes; and pending that motion, Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to dispense with general debate in the Committee of the Whole.

MR. [VITO] MARCANTONIO [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MARCANTONIO: Mr. Speaker, if, as in this case, the bill contains many items that are subject to a point of order, is it not in order to make a point of order against sending this bill to the Committee of the Whole?

THE SPEAKER: Under the rules of the House, it is not.

MR. MARCANTONIO: Then the procedure to make the point of order is to make it as the bill is being read for amendment?

16. 91 CONG. REC. 7226, 7227, 79th Cong. 1st Sess.

THE SPEAKER: As the paragraphs in the bill are reached.

Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Missouri?

There was no objection.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Missouri.

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 3649) with Mr. Sparkman in the chair.

Time to Reserve Point of Order of Legislation on Appropriation Bill

§ 20.11 Where points of order were not reserved on an appropriation bill when it was reported to the House and referred to the Committee of the Whole, points of order against a proposition in violation of Rule XXI clause 2,<sup>(17)</sup> as legislation on an appropriation bill, were overruled on the ground that the Chairman lacked authority to pass upon that question.

On Apr. 8, 1943,<sup>(18)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2409, the legislative and judiciary appropriation, 1944, Chairman James P.

17. House Rules and Manual §834 (1979).

18. 89 CONG. REC. 3150-53, 78th Cong. 1st Sess.

McGranery, of Pennsylvania, declined to rule on points of order that certain sections of a bill violated Rule XXI clause 2, allegedly legislation on an appropriation bill, because such points of order had not been reserved when the bill was reported to the House and referred to the Committee of the Whole.

The Clerk read as follows:

Salaries of clerks of courts: For salaries of clerks of United States circuit courts of appeals and United States district courts, their deputies, and other assistants, $2,542,900.

MR. [FRANCIS E.] WALTER [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that the material contained in line 20, page 55, down to the end of the paragraph on page 56, line 11, is legislation on an appropriation bill.

MR. [JOHN J.] COCHRAN [of Missouri]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that there was no reservation made when this bill was introduced with reference to points of order, and the Record will bear me out. Therefore, a point of order against anything in the bill now is not in order. . . .

MR. WALTER: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. WALTER: Is not the Chair in the position at this moment of having to rule on the point of order made by the gentleman from Missouri?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will have to rule unless the point of order is withdrawn. In that case the Chair would not be required to rule.

The Chair is prepared to rule, if there is no withdrawal of the points of order.

In this connection the Chair feels that there is a duty upon all Members to read the rules, which are published. This is not just mere custom, as the Chair sees it.

The Journal discloses that there were no points of order reserved on the pending bill when it was reported to the House on April 6, 1943.

The Chair has been very deeply impressed with the decisions on this question which run back to 1837, particularly an opinion expressed by Chairman Albert J. Hopkins, of Illinois, on March 31, 1896—Hinds' Precedents, volume V, section 6923—in which it was stated:

In determining this question the Chair thinks it is important to take into consideration the organization and power of the Committee of the Whole, which is simply to transact such business as is referred to it by the House. Now, the House referred the bill under consideration to this Committee as an entirety, with directions to consider it. The objection raised by the gentleman from North Dakota would, in effect, cause the Chair to take from the Committee the consideration of part of this bill, which has been committed to it by the House. The Committee has the power to change or modify this bill as the Members, in their wisdom, may deem wise and proper; but it is not for the Chairman, where no points of order were reserved in the House against the bill. . . . The effect would be, should the Chair sustain the point of order made by the gentleman from North Dakota, to take from the consideration of the Committee of the Whole a part of this bill which has been committed to it by the House without reservation of this right to the Chairman.

Hopkins then held that he had no authority to sustain a point of order against an item in the bill.

The present occupant of the chair feels constrained to follow the precedents heretofore established and sustains the point of order made by the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Cochran].

MR. [EARL C.] MICHENER [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MICHENER: For the sake of clarity and for the future, and may I say I have great respect for the Chairman's ruling, will the Chair differentiate between an appropriation bill in his final decision as written, that is, differentiate between the Hopkins decision which applies for all logical reasons to all legislative committees the same as it does to the Appropriations Committee?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair thinks if the gentleman will read clause 2 of rule XXI he will find that provision applies merely to appropriation bills, while clause 4 of rule XXI applies to legislative bills coming from committees not having appropriating powers.

MR. MICHENER: That is the decision.

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

MR. WALTER: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. WALTER. As I understood the Chairman, the point of order was overruled?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair held that in the Chair's opinion he cannot pass upon the question raised by the gentleman. The Chair feels this bill was given to the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union in its entirety and that the Chair cannot under the present circumstances sustain a point of order against an item.

MR. WALTER: I understand that, but does the Chair mean that the point of order made by the gentleman from Missouri is sustained?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair sustained the point of order made by the gentleman from Missouri and overruled the point of order made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania.

MR. [KARL] STEFAN [of Nebraska]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. STEFAN: May I ask the Chair if the ruling affects page 56, line 12, down to line 25, the part of the bill which had not been read?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk has not read that part of the bill.

MR. STEFAN: Then it has no effect upon the language appearing on page 56, lines 1 to 11?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair's decision just now given will affect every item in the bill.

MR. STEFAN: In the entire bill?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

MR. [FRANCIS H.] CASE [of South Dakota]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. CASE: Mr. Chairman, I note in reading the precedent to which the Chair has referred, volume 5, Hinds Precedents, page 957, that the Chairman at that time recognized that this was a very close question. The Chair raised this question: "The very most that could be done would be to report the point of order back to the House for its decision."

In other words, in taking the point of view that since the House had referred the bill to the Committee, no such question rose, the Chair might refer it back to the House for further instruction, which would be within the ruling that the Chair cited.

THE CHAIRMAN: As the Chair read the particular case, that was the suggestion made by the Chairman, but there is nothing in the decision to show that that was actually done.

Effect of Failure to Raise Point of Order

§ 20.12 If no point of order is raised against an amendment proposing legislation on an appropriation bill being considered in the Committee of the Whole, the amendment may be perfected by germane amendments which provide exceptions from the language permitted to remain but do not add further legislation.

On Jan. 31, 1938,<sup>(19)</sup> during consideration of amendments to H.R. 9181, the District of Columbia appropriations bill, 1939, Chairman

William J. Driver, of Arkansas, stated that if no point of order is raised against it, an amendment proposing legislation on an appropriations bill may be perfected by germane amendments which do not add further legislation on an appropriations bill.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. [Mil-lard F.] Caldwell [of Florida]: Page 13, line 2, after the amendment offered by Mr. Kennedy, insert a new paragraph, as follows:

“For a complete investigation of the administration of public relief in the District of Columbia, to be made under the supervision and direction of the Commissioners, including the employment of personal services without reference to the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, and civil-service requirements, $5,000.” . . .

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Caldwell to the amendment pending: After the word “relief” in the proposed amendment, insert “not including the activities of the Works Progress Administration.”

MR. [CLAUDE A. ] FULLER [of Arkansas]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order against the amendment for the reason that it is legislation on an appropriation bill and, furthermore, that it seeks to make an appropriation for an item not authorized by law. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: Objection is heard. The Chair is ready to rule. The gentleman from Florida offers an amendment to the pending amendment in the following language:

After the word “relief” in the proposed amendment, insert “not including the activities of the Works Progress Administration.”

That is the amendment to the amendment offered and to which the gentleman from Arkansas addresses his point of order. The original amendment proposed legislation on an appropriation bill, but no point of order was raised against it. That being so, an amendment that would contain an exception would be germane and in order, certainly. Therefore, the point of order that the gentleman directs to the amendment to the amendment must be overruled.

Point of Order as to Diversion of Appropriated Funds

§ 20.13 A point of order against an amendment to a legislative bill proposing an appropriation of funds that have already been appropriated is in order even though debate has started on such amendment, since Rule XXI clause 5 permits such a point of order “at any time.”

On July 29, 1953,<sup>(1)</sup> during debate on an amendment to H.R. 6016, an emergency famine relief bill, Chairman Glenn R. Davis, of Wisconsin, sustained a point of order against the amendment to a bill reported from a committee not having authority to report appropriations, on the ground that it proposed an appropriation of funds previously appropriated for a specific purpose.

1. 99 CONG. REC. 10398, 83d Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. [PAUL C.] JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, would this be the proper time to make a point of order against some wording in section [2]?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will hear the gentleman to state the point of order.

MR. [CHARLES A.] HALLECK [of Indiana]: Mr. Chairman, may I suggest that the point of order comes too late, the section has been read.

MR. JONES of Missouri: We are debating on the whole bill, and I suggest that we do not want to pass a bill without considering every part of it.

THE CHAIRMAN: Section ( 2) is now under consideration.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, that is what I want to make my point of order on.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state the point of order.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the wording beginning on line 24:

Any assets available to the Commodity Credit Corporation may be used in advance of such appropriations or payments, for carrying out the purposes of this act.

Mr. Chairman, I make that point of order on the ground that when I offered an amendment authorizing that the $100 million be taken from funds heretofore appropriated for the Mutual Security Administration, the point of order was sustained that those funds were already appropriated for a specific purpose and that we could not divert such funds. I am making the same point of order now that any assets available to the Commodity Credit Corporation which have heretofore been appropriated would be by the same token diverted to this purpose for the use of the Mutual Security Administration. In other words, the situation if this is permitted to stay in the bill would be that we could not divert Mutual Security funds to carry out this, but that we could divert agricultural funds to carry out a mutual-security program. . . .

MR. [JAMES G.] FULTON [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. FULTON: Mr. Chairman, is it not the parliamentary situation here that debate has commenced on section 2 at the particular time when the point of order is being made by the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Jones]?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is advised that this point of order may be made at any time of the consideration of the section.

The Chair is ready to rule. Since the previous point of order was sustained on similar grounds, the Chair now sustains the point of order of the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Jones].

Parliamentarian's Note: Rule XXI clause 5, House Rules and Manual § 846 (1979) provides:

No bill or joint resolution carrying appropriations shall be reported by any committee not having jurisdiction to report appropriations, nor shall an amendment proposing an appropriation be in order during the consideration of a bill or joint resolution reported by a committee not having that jurisdiction. A question of order on an appropriation in any such bill, joint resolution, or amendment thereto may be raised at any time.

Point of Order as to Germaneness

§ 20.14 A point of order as to the germaneness of an amendment may be reserved when the amendment is read, and the Chairman rules on the point of order when the sponsor of the amendment ends his five-minute debate.

On Apr. 13, 1946,<sup>(2)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6064, extending the Selective Service and Training Act, with Chairman Alfred L. Bulwinkle, of North Carolina, presiding, the following proceedings took place:

MR. [ROSS] RIZLEY [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Rizley: On page 2, line 18, after the word "months" and before the word "unless", insert the following: "except that every individual heretofore inducted under the provision of subsection (a) who has a wife and one or more legitimate children, shall upon his request in writing be excused from further service and shall be separated from the service within 60 days from and after the effective date of this act."

MR. [ANDREW J.] MAY [of Kentucky]: Mr. Chairman, I reserve a point of order against the amendment. . . .

Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MAY: Having reserved a point of order on the amendment, Mr. Chairman, does that point of order have to be ruled upon when the party offering it finishes his debate?

THE CHAIRMAN: It should be. The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. MAY: Mr. Chairman, my point of order is that this amendment has the effect of requiring the Army to discharge a certain group of people that are already in the service. The statute under consideration to which the gentleman's pending amendment is offered is an induction statute and not a discharge law.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from Oklahoma desire to speak on the point of order?

MR. RIZLEY: I think certainly the amendment is pertinent to this very section of the bill. The bill provides that no one can be taken into the service for more than 18 months, and I simply offered an amendment which excepts married men already in the service and says that they shall be discharged within 60 days from the effective date of this act.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is ready to rule on the point of order.

2. 92 CONG. REC. 3660-63, 79th Cong. 2d Sess.

The amendment offered by the gentleman from Oklahoma relates to the discharge of men. It is not germane either to the section or to the bill. The Chair sustains the point of order.

Effect of Agreement to Dispense With Reading

§ 20.15 Where the Committee of the Whole agrees that the remainder of an appropriation bill be considered as read and open at any point to points of order and amendments, the Chair asks if there are any points of order and then if there are any amendments; points of order against portions of the bill made subsequent to the offering of amendments are not recognized.

On Aug. 19, 1949,<sup>(3)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6008, the supplemental appropriations bill, 1950, Chairman Aime J. Forand, of Rhode Island, declined to entertain a point of order against a portion of the bill after an amendment was offered. The Chairman noted that he had requested that points of order be raised when the further reading of the bill was dispensed with.

MR. [LOUIS C.] RABAUT [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that the remainder of the bill be considered as read and be open at any point to points of order and amendments.

3. 95 CONG. REC. 11870, 11876, 81st Cong. 1st Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Michigan?

There was no objection.

THE CHAIRMAN: Are there any points of order?

If not, are there any amendments?

MR. [WILLIAM M.] WHEELER [of Georgia]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Wheeler: On page 6, line 17, strike out all the paragraph to and including all of lines 16 on page 7. . . .

MR. [JAMES P.] SUTTON [of Tennessee]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. SUTTON: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order against the language on page 19 that it is legislation on an appropriation bill.

THE CHAIRMAN: The point of order comes too late. At the time the further reading of the bill was dispensed with, the Chair requested Members desiring to make points of order to do so at that time.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Nebraska [Mr. Miller].

Report on Striking Language From Senate Bill

§ 20.16 Where language in violation of Rule XXI clause 5<sup>(4)</sup>

4. House Rules and Manual §846 (1979), which makes subject to is stricken from a Senate bill in the Committee of the Whole by a point of order, the Chairman reports that fact to the House when the measure is reported to the House.

On July 31, 1957,<sup>(5)</sup> after the Committee of the Whole rose and reported a bill, Chairman George H. Mahon, of Texas, reported that language in violation of then Rule XXI clause 4 (now clause 5), had been stricken from the bill by the Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: The time of the gentleman from Michigan has expired.

All time has expired.

The Committee will rise.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Mahon, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, stated that that Committee having had under consideration the bill (S. 1856) to provide for the development and modernization of the national system of navigation and traffic-control facilities to serve present and future needs of civil and military points of order appropriation measures reported from committees that do not have jurisdiction over appropriations.

5. 103 CONG. REC. 13182, 13183, 85th Cong. 1st Sess. The point of order against the language in question, as being an appropriation on a legislative bill, is at p. 13056 (July 30 1957).

aviation, and for other purposes, pursuant to House Resolution 361, he reported the same back to the House.

The Chairman also reported that the language in the bill on page 7, line 12, reading as follows: "and unexpended balances of appropriations, allocations, and other funds available or" was stricken out on a point of order.

Parliamentarian's Note: If the Senate bill passes the House in this form, it is messaged to the Senate as having been passed with an amendment, although the House does not vote separately on the language stricken in Committee of the Whole on a point of order.

Points of Order Against Measure Committed to Conference

§ 20.17 Where a House bill with Senate amendments has been sent to conference and the stage of disagreement reached, it is too late to raise a point of order that the amendments of the Senate should have been considered in the Committee of the Whole pursuant to Rule XX clause 1.<sup>(6)</sup>

On Oct. 20, 1966,<sup>(7)</sup> during consideration of Conference Report

6. House Rules and Manual §827 (1979).

7. 112 CONG. REC. 28240, 28241, 89th Cong. 2d Sess.

No. 2327, on H.R. 13103, the Foreign Investment Tax Act of 1966, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, stated that a point of order under Rule XX clause 1, that a particular Senate amendment should have been considered in the Committee of the Whole, comes too late after conferees have reported.

MR. [WILBUR D.] MILLS [of Arkansas]: Mr. Speaker, I call up the conference report on the bill (H.R. 13103) to amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to provide equitable tax treatment for foreign investment in the United States, and ask unanimous consent that the statement of the managers on the part of the House be read in lieu of the report.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

THE SPEAKER: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Arkansas?

MR. [HOWARD W.] SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Speaker, I desire to make a point of order against title III of the conference report.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Speaker, this point of order is directed at title III of the conference report. That title is the one that provides for the contribution of $1 apiece from any taxpayer who wishes to do so, to be used as a fund to be divided between the political parties in Presidential elections. The title itself has never been before the House. This is a Senate amendment to the bill that the gentleman from Arkansas has just called up. It is not germane to that bill itself and comes under the prohibition of rule XX of the rules of the House. . . .

If that amendment had been offered when the bill was under consideration in the House it would have had to be under rule XX, and considered under rule XX that I have just read.

Now, because it is a bill which is an appropriation bill we cannot consider it except in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union. This rule provides that if there is put on it a Senate amendment and it comes back it is subject to a point of order that it has not been considered in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union. . . .

THE SPEAKER: The Chair is prepared to rule.

The gentleman from Virginia makes the point of order that title III of the conference report contravenes the first sentence of rule XX:

Any amendment of the Senate to any House bill shall be subject to the point of order that it shall first be considered in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, if, originating in the House, it would be subject to that point:

Without passing upon the germaneness of the amendment, because that point was not raised, the Chair calls attention to the fact that the Senate amendment went to conference by unanimous consent. Where unanimous consent was obtained, the effect of that is to circuit rule XX, in other words, to waive or vitiate that portion of rule XX.

If objection had been made at the point when the unanimous consent request was made to send the bill to conference, then the bill could have been referred to the proper standing committee, and then, if and when reported out of the committee would have been brought up for consideration in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union.

At this point, and under the parliamentary situation, the bill was sent to conference by unanimous consent; and this applies to all bills that go to conference by unanimous consent, if there be provisions therein that might be subject to the first sentence of rule XX. If there is no objection made at that time, the bill goes to conference; which in this case had the effect of suspending that portion of rule XX. Therefore, it is properly before the House at the present time as part of the conference report and the Chair overrules the point of order.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Speaker, may I add one comment since this is a very important question.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will, of course, hear the gentleman.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Speaker, this did not go to conference by unanimous consent because it was never in the House bill. It was in the Senate bill and it never got in the House bill until last night.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will call to the attention of the gentleman from Virginia that the unanimous consent request was made to take a bill from the Speaker's desk with Senate amendments thereto, and disagree to the Senate amendments and request a conference.

F. RISING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

§ 21. Generally

The Committee of the Whole may rise formally or informally. Sometimes, on the informal rising of the Committee of the Whole, the House by unanimous consent transacts unrelated business, such as the presentation of enrolled bills, the swearing in of a Member, or consideration of the message.<sup>(8)</sup>

8. 4 Hinds' Precedents §§ 4788–4791.

See Jefferson's Manual, House Rules and Manual §§ 330, 331, 333, 334, 563 (1973), for parliamentary law regarding rising of the Committee of the Whole.

The Committee of the Whole rises automatically on adoption of the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.<sup>(9)</sup>

Formal and Informal Rise

On Apr. 8, 1967,<sup>(10)</sup> the Committee of the Whole rose informally to receive a message from the President.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(11)</sup> The Committee will rise informally to receive a message.

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(12)</sup> The Chair will receive a message.

A message in writing from the President of the United States was communicated to the House by Mr. Jones, one of his secretaries.

THE SPEAKER: The Committee will resume its sitting.

§ 21.2 The Committee of the Whole may rise, informally, immediately after having resolved into the Committee following a quorum call in Committee and the Chair's report to the House.

On Apr. 21, 1969,<sup>(13)</sup> the Committee of the Whole rose, informally, immediately after having

MR. [FRANK E.] EVANS of Colorado: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(14)</sup> The Chair will count. . . .

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Price of Illinois, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill H.R. 514, and finding itself without a quorum, he had directed the roll to be called, when 325 Members responded to their names, a quorum, and he submitted herewith the names of the absentees to be spread upon the Journal.

The Committee resumed its sitting.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Committee will rise informally in order that the House may receive a message.

The Speaker assumed the chair.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(15)</sup> The Chair will receive a message.

A message in writing from the President of the United States was communicated to the House by Mr. Geisler, one of his secretaries.

THE SPEAKER: The Committee will resume its sitting.

On Apr. 9, 1963,<sup>(16)</sup> upon arrival of the time to close debate during consideration of H.R. 5517, making supplemental appropriations for fiscal year 1963, the Committee of the Whole rose without motion or vote.

MR. [ALBERT] THOMAS [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill H.R. 5517, making supplemental appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1963, and for other purposes; and, pending that motion, Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that general debate on the bill be concluded not later than 5 p.m. today, one-half of the time to be controlled by the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. Bow], and one-half by myself, and that at the conclusion of general debate today the Committee will rise. . . .

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(17)</sup> Is there objections to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There is no objection.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Texas [Mr. Thomas].

The motion was agreed to. . . .

all time for debate has expired. The hour is 5 o'clock. Under the previous order of the House the Committee rises.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Bolling, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 5517) making supplemental appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1963, and for other purposes, had come to no resolution thereon.

Effect of Motion to Rise on Amendments

§ 21.4 Where the Committee of the Whole during consideration of amendments to a bill votes merely that the Committee rise, the Chairman reports to the House that the Committee has considered the bill but come to no resolution thereon; he does not under this procedure report the bill back to the House with amendments.

On Aug. 24, 1949,<sup>(19)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6070, to amend the National Housing Act, Chairman Mike Mansfield, of Montana, indicated the procedure to be followed when the Committee of the Whole votes to rise,

MR. [VITO] MARCANTONIO [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read, as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Marcantonio: On page 34, after the period on line 5, add a new subsection:

“Sec. —. Prohibition against discrimination. . . .”

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. Marcantonio].

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Marcantonio) there were—ayes 62, noes 31.

MR. [BRENT] SPENCE [of Kentucky]: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered; and the Chairman appointed Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Marcantonio to act as tellers.

The Committee again divided; and the tellers reported there were—ayes 77, noes 57.

So the amendment was agreed to.

MR. SPENCE: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

MR. [JESSE P.] WOLCOTT [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. WOLCOTT: If the Committee rises at the present time will it report the bill back to the House with amendments, or will it report that it has come to no conclusion thereon? What is the situation?

THE CHAIRMAN: This is simply a motion that the Committee rise. There are several amendments yet to be offered.

The question was taken; and the Chairman announced that the noes appeared to have it.

MR. SPENCE: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Patman and Mr. Wolcott.

The Committee again divided, and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 86, noes 83.

So the motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore, Mr. Priest, having assumed the chair, Mr. Mansfield, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H. R. 6070) to amend the National Housing Act, as amended, and for other purposes, had come to no resolution thereon.

MR. [HENRY] ELLENBOGEN [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order. I ask that the gentleman's language be taken down. It is a violation of the rules of the House, and in the meantime I demand that the gentleman take his seat.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(1)</sup> The Clerk will report the words objected to.

The Clerk read as follows:

MR. BLANTON: Here is the answer, if the gentleman can understand English.

The Committee rose and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. O'Connor) having assumed the chair, Mr. Umstead, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, reported that the Committee having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 11563), certain words used in debate were objected to and on request were taken down and read at the Clerk's desk and he reported the same to the House herewith.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(2)</sup> The Clerk will report the words objected to.

The Clerk read as follows:

The Committee will resume its session.

Rising on Ceremonial Occasions

§ 21.6 The Speaker was instrumental in causing the Committee of the Whole to rise because of the death of a Senator, formerly a Member of the House.

On Mar. 8, 1951,<sup>(3)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, was instrumental in causing the Committee of the Whole to rise on the death of Senator Virgil M. Chapman, formerly a Member of the House. After the Committee of the Whole rose, on motion, the Speaker addressed the House from the chair.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair desires to inform the House that he was instrumental in seeing that the Committee rose at this time because of the death of a great citizen, a great Senator, and a former great Member of the House of Representatives. The Chair would much prefer that gentlemen who have special orders for this afternoon postpone their special orders. The Chair knows that the gentleman from Texas [Mr. Patman], who has a special order for today, does not want to use his time.

MR. [CLARENCE] CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise, for the purpose of affording the House of Representatives an opportunity to hold exercises in commemoration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the Supreme Court of the United States; and pending that motion, I may say, Mr. Chairman, that at the conclusion of the exercises, at approximately 3 o'clock, the Committee will resume its session and continue consideration of the bill.

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Cole of Maryland, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill H.R. 8202, the agricultural appropriation bill, 1941, had come to no resolution thereon.

§ 22. Motions to Rise

It is in order for any Member of the Committee of the Whole to move to rise and the Chairman is constrained to recognize for that purpose,<sup>(6)</sup> unless another Member controls the floor.<sup>(7)</sup> However, neither the motion to rise<sup>(8)</sup> nor the motion to rise and report is debatable.<sup>(9)</sup>

Although a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and resume its sitting on a day certain is not in order in the Committee,<sup>(10)</sup> a motion to rise and report with the recommendation that consideration be postponed to a day certain is in order and preferential where the Committee is operating under the general rules of the House,<sup>(11)</sup> but not where the Committee is operating under a special rule specifying the conditions under which the bill is to be considered.<sup>(12)</sup>

Form of Motion

§ 22.1 The Committee of the Whole may rise pursuant to a motion from the floor in which a Member states “Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.”

On Apr. 14, 1970,<sup>(15)</sup> the Committee of the Whole rose pursuant to a motion from the floor to enable the Speaker to sign and lay before the House an enrolled bill to increase the pay of federal employees. After the Speaker announced his signature the House agreed to a motion to resolve into the Committee. The proceedings were as follows:

MR. [DANIEL J.] FLOOD [of Pennsylvania]: I take this time to advise the Chair and the Committee that the postal pay raise bill is about to be presented. I understand that action will take place immediately as the Speaker has just advised us.

Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Holifield, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill H.R. 16916, making appropriations for the Office of Education for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1971, and for other purposes, had come to no resolution thereon.

The Speaker announced his signature to enrolled bill of the Senate of the following title:

S. 3690. An act to increase the pay of Federal employees.

MR. FLOOD: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill (H.R. 16916) making appropriations for the Office of Education for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1971, and for other purposes.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(16)</sup> The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Pennsylvania.

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill H.R. 16916, with Mr. Holifield in the chair.

On May 25, 1967,<sup>(17)</sup> during consideration of S. 1432, amending the Universal Military Training and Service Act, Chairman Robert L. F. Sikes, of Florida, ruled out a motion that the Committee rise and resume its sitting on a day certain.

MR. [WILLIAM H.] BATES [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Chairman, I yield 5 minutes to the gentleman from Maryland [Mr. Rogers C. B. Morton].

MR. MORTON: Mr. Chairman, I open my remarks with a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. MORTON: Would it be in order to move that the Committee rise and sit again on Wednesday, the 31st of May?

THE CHAIRMAN: At this time that motion would not be order.

Requirement That Motion Be Written

§ 22.3 All motions must be in writing if the demand is made, and this applies to a motion that the Committee of the Whole do now rise.

cultural relations program of the State Department, Chairman Thomas A. Jenkins, of Ohio, sustained a point of order against a motion, made orally, to rise.

MR. [DANIEL A.] REED of New York: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

MR. [KARL E.] MUNDT [of South Dakota]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that the motion has not been submitted in writing.

MR. REED of New York: Mr. Chairman, a preferential motion of this character does not have to be submitted in writing.

THE CHAIRMAN: The point of order is sustained.

Debatability

§ 22.4 The motion that the Committee rise is not debatable.

On Apr. 8, 1964,<sup>(19)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 10222, the Food Stamp Act of 1964, Chairman Phillip M. Landrum, of Georgia, indicated that the motion that the Committee of the Whole rise is not debatable.

MR. [BEN F.] JENSEN: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise out of further respect for one of the greatest Americans, Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Iowa [Mr. Jensen].

MR. JENSEN: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers. It is disgraceful to have this sort of thing going on while General MacArthur is lying here in the Capitol.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will inform the gentleman that a vote on his motion is being taken. He is not recognized to make a speech.

Control by Floor Manager

§ 22.5 It is within the discretion of the Member handling a bill before the Committee of the Whole to move that the Committee rise.

On June 16, 1948,<sup>(20)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6401, the Selective Service Act of 1948, Chairman Francis H. Case, of South Dakota, indicated the Member handling a bill in the Committee of the Whole always has the discretion to move that the Committee rise.

20. 94 CONG. REC. 8621, 80th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. Andrews].

MR. [GEORGE A.] SMATHERS [of Florida]: Mr. Chairman, I would like to be heard on that.

THE CHAIRMAN: That is not a debatable motion. It is always within the discretion of the gentleman handling the bill to move that the Committee rise.

Establishing Time to Rise

§ 22.6 Prior to resolving into the Committee of the Whole, the House by unanimous consent may limit general debate to a time certain and provide that the Committee will rise at the conclusion of general debate.

On Apr. 9, 1963,<sup>(21)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 5517, making supplemental appropriations for the 1963 fiscal year, the House by unanimous consent limited general debate and provided for a time for the Committee to rise.

MR. [ALBERT] THOMAS [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill H.R. 5517, making supplemental appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1963, and for other purposes; and, pending that motion, Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that general debate on the bill be concluded not later than 5 p.m. today, one-half of the time to be controlled by the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. Bow], and one-half by myself, and that at the conclusion of general debate today the Committee will rise. . . .

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(22)</sup> Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

Quorum Requirement

§ 22.7 In Committee of the Whole a quorum is not required on a motion to rise.

On June 4, 1948,<sup>(23)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6801, the foreign aid appropriations bill, Chairman W. Sterling Cole, of Maryland, ruled on the necessity for a quorum at the time.

MR. [HAROLD D.] COOLEY [of North Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

Parliamentarian's Note: Rule XV clause 6(b), House Rules and Manual §774(c) (1979) now provides that a "quorum shall not be required in the Committee of the Whole for agreement to a motion that the Committee rise." The subject of quorums is discussed more fully in Ch. 20, infra.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York.

MR. TABER: Mr. Chairman, on that I demand tellers.

MR. COOLEY: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. COOLEY: Is the motion of the gentleman from New York in order pending the determination as regards the presence of a quorum?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman's motion is in order. A quorum is not necessary upon a motion that the Committee rise.

Voting on the Motion

§ 22.8 The Committee of the Whole on a division or teller vote may reject a motion made by the Member in charge of a bill that the Committee rise.

On June 16, 1948,<sup>(1)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6401, the Selective Service Act of 1948, the Committee of the Whole rejected a motion made by the Member in charge of the bill that the Committee rise.

fact that two or three Members who have time are not here, I move that the Committee do now rise. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: <sup>(2)</sup> The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. Andrews] that the Committee do now rise.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Andrews of New York) there were—ayes 79, noes 94.

MR. ANDREWS of New York: Mr. Chairman, I ask for tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and The Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Andrews of New York and Mr. Smathers.

The Committee again divided; and the tellers reported there were—ayes 76, noes 139.

So the motion was rejected.

Withdrawal

§ 22.9 A privileged motion that the Committee of the Whole rise may be withdrawn by unanimous consent.

On Oct. 28 1971,<sup>(3)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7248 to amend and extend the Higher Education Act of 1965 and other acts dealing with higher education, the motion that the Committee of the Whole rise was withdrawn by unanimous consent.

THE CHAIRMAN: <sup>(4)</sup> The gentleman is seeking to propound a parliamentary inquiry?

MR. PELLY: I am not, Mr. Chairman. I have a privileged motion. I move that the Committee do now rise. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman from Washington insist upon his motion?

MR. PELLY: Mr. Chairman, I withdraw my motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: Without objection, the motion is withdrawn.

There was no objection.

§ 23.—When in Order

The motion to rise is preferential<sup>(5)</sup> and is in order pending a count of a quorum<sup>(6)</sup> or pending a decision on a point of order.<sup>(7)</sup> It is also in order after tellers have been ordered and appointed, though not after the count has begun.<sup>(8)</sup> However, the motion will not lie during a division<sup>(9)</sup> or while another Member has the floor in debate.<sup>(10)</sup> A decision by

The Chairman that a motion to rise was in order after a Member had been recognized for debate but before he had begun to speak was overruled by the Committee.<sup>(11)</sup>

The point of order that the motion is dilatory may be raised in the Committee of the Whole.<sup>(12)</sup>

When provision is made by special order for the automatic rising of the Committee of the Whole at a designated time, a motion is required to rise before that time, and is in order.<sup>(13)</sup> However, when the hour previously fixed for adjournment of the House arrives while the Committee of the Whole is still in session, The Chairman may direct the Committee to rise and make his report as though the Committee had risen on motion in the regular way.<sup>(14)</sup> And when the House has limited general debate to a time certain and provided for the Committee of the Whole to rise at the conclusion of that time, the Committee then rises without a motion or vote.<sup>(15)</sup>

The motion to rise and report has precedence over the motion to take up another bill.<sup>(16)</sup> The mo-

The motion to rise and report with the recommendation that the bill be recommitted takes precedence over the motion to rise and report with the recommendation that the bill pass,<sup>(19)</sup> when the Committee of the Whole is operating under the general rules of the House.

Privileged Nature

§ 23.1 The motion that the Committee of the Whole rise is privileged.

On July 23, 1970,<sup>(20)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 18515, providing appropriations for the Departments of Labor and Health, Education, and Welfare for fiscal year 1971, Chairman Chet Holifield, of California, referred to the privileged nature of the motion that the Committee of the Whole rise.

MR. [SIDNEY R.] YATES [of Illinois]:
Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

20. 116 CONG. REC. 25628, 91st Cong. 2d Sess.

Is it in order for me to move that the Committee do now rise?

THE CHAIRMAN: It is a privileged motion.

MR. YATES: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Illinois.

The question was taken; and The Chairman announced that the noes appeared to have it.

MR. YATES: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and The Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Yates and Mr. Flood.

The Committee divided, and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 8, noes 93.

So the motion was rejected.

Parliamentarian's Note: While a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise is privileged, it cannot be made while another Member has the floor, but can be offered any time when the proponent thereof can secure the floor in his own right.

§ 23.2 A motion that the Committee of the Whole rise is of high privilege, and may be offered by a Member who holds the floor by virtue of having offered an amendment.

On Nov. 15, 1967,<sup>(1)</sup> during consideration of S. 2388, Economic

1. 113 CONG. REC. 32694, 90th Cong. 1st Sess.

Opportunity Act Amendments of 1967, Chairman John J. Rooney, of New York, made reference to the right of a Member who holds the floor by virtue of having offered an amendment to offer the privileged motion that the Committee rise.

MR. [PAUL C.] JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Jones of Missouri: On page 219 strike out all of line 17 through line 24.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I make a parliamentary inquiry at this time.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Would I be in order to make a motion that the Committee do now rise so that if we could get back into the House I could make a motion to adjourn?

THE CHAIRMAN: A motion that the Committee do now rise is a privileged motion.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Missouri.

The motion was rejected.

§ 23.3 A motion that the Committee rise is privileged during consideration of a bill under the five-minute rule and takes precedence over pending amendments.

On Apr. 30, 1970,<sup>(2)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 17123, the military procurement authorization for fiscal year 1971, Chairman Daniel D. Rostenkowski, of Illinois, indicated that the motion that the Committee rise was privileged and would take precedence over certain pending amendments.

Parliamentarian's Note: During consideration of this measure under the five-minute rule, amendments were offered with respect to use of funds to support ground combat troops in Cambodia, Laos, and Thailand. When it became apparent during lengthy debate on these amendments that many Members wished to defer action on the amendment until the President had concluded a policy statement on Southeast Asia which had been scheduled for delivery on nationwide television that evening, several Members approached the manager of the bill, L. Mendel Rivers, of South Carolina, Chairman of the Committee on Armed Services, to urge the Committee's rising without completing action on the bill. When the Chairman declined to make the motion, Mr. Edward P. Boland, of Massachusetts, who was not on the Committee on Armed Services, sought recognition to make the motion.

MR. BOLAND: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

2. 116 CONG. REC. 13784, 91st Cong. 2d Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. BOLAND: Mr. Chairman, is it in order to move that the Committee do now rise?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes; it is in order.

MR. BOLAND: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Massachusetts.

MR. RIVERS: Mr. Chairman, on that I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Boland and Mr. Rivers.

The Committee divided and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 131, noes 100.

So the motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Rostenkowski, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 17123) to authorize appropriations during the fiscal year 1971 for procurement of aircraft, missiles, naval vessels, and tracked combat vehicles, and other weapons, and research development, test, and evaluation for the Armed Forces, and to prescribe the authorized personnel strength of the Selected Reserve of each Reserve component of the Armed Forces, and for other purposes, had come to no resolution thereon.

§ 23.4 The motion that the Committee of the Whole rise is privileged and in order notwithstanding the announcement of an "informal agreement” among floor managers of a bill with respect to concluding consideration of the bill on that day at a different time.

On Oct. 28, 1971,<sup>(3)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7248, to amend and extend the Higher Education Act of 1965 and other acts dealing with higher education, Chairman James C. Wright, Jr., of Texas, refused to entertain a parliamentary inquiry as to whether the motion that the Committee of the Whole rise would be in order notwithstanding an informal agreement to conclude consideration of a bill on that day at a different time.

MRS. [EDITH S.] GREEN of Oregon (during the reading): Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent, that title VIII be considered as read, printed in the Record, and open to amendment at any point.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Oregon?

There was no objection.

MRS. GREEN of Oregon: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise. . . .

MR. [ROMAN C.] PUCINSKI [of Illinois]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. PUCINSKI: It was my impression that earlier today the Chair stated the agreement we had was that we were going to go through title VIII or until 6 o'clock, whichever came later. I was under the impression that that was the agreement, so a number of members of the Veterans' Affairs Committee have remained since we have an amendment to title VIII. I just wonder what happened to that agreement.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state to the gentleman that the gentlewoman from Oregon has made a motion that the Committee do now rise. That is a privileged motion, that the Chair must put the motion.

MR. PUCINSKI: Mr. Chairman, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. PUCINSKI: It is correct, then, to assume that the motion does somewhat contravene and contradict the agreement that was made?

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair cannot entertain that as a parliamentary inquiry.

The question is on the motion that the Committee do now rise.

The motion was agreed to.

Pending Count of Quorum

§ 23.5 Pending the (Chair's count of a quorum, a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise is in order; that motion does not require a quorum for its adoption.

MR. [HAROLD D.] COOLEY [of North Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York.

MR. TABER: Mr. Chairman, on that I demand tellers.

MR. COOLEY: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. COOLEY: Is the motion of the gentleman from New York in order pending the determination as regards the presence of a quorum?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman's motion is in order. A quorum is not necessary upon a motion that the Committee rise.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Taber and Mr. Cannon.

The Committee divided; and the tellers reported that there were-aye 1, noes 64.

So the motion was rejected.

While Another Member Has Floor

§ 23.6 In the Committee of the Whole a Member may not move to rise while another has the floor.

On Mar. 12, 1964,<sup>(5)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 8986, the pay bill for federal employees, Chairman Chet Holifield, of California, indicated that a Member may not move, while another Member has the floor, that the Committee of the Whole rise, unless time is yielded to him for that purpose.

MR. [ROBERT J.] CORBETT [of Pennsylvania]: I was going to try to explain the amendment a little bit, but the gentleman is using up all my time. Go ahead.

THE CHAIRMAN: Does the gentleman yield for a parliamentary inquiry?

MR. CORBETT: I yield to the gentleman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman is recognized.

MR. [AUGUST E.] JOHANSEN [of Michigan]: Would a motion that the Committee rise be in order at this time?

THE CHAIRMAN: If the gentleman from Pennsylvania yields for that purpose.

MR. CORBETT: Mr. Chairman, I cannot yield further. I probably only have 3 minutes left.

Pending Decision on Point of Order

§ 23.7 In the Committee of the Whole a motion that the Committee rise may be entertained pending a decision of the Chair on a point of order.

On June 4, 1957,<sup>(6)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6974, extending the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, Chairman Brooks Hays, of Arkansas, stated that a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise was made pending the Chair's decision on a point of order.<sup>(7)</sup>

MR. [JOHN J.] RODNEY [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I rise to a point of order against the entire bill, H.R.6974, on the ground that it is a bill from a committee not having authority to report an appropriation. . . .

MR. [HAROLD D.] COOLEY [of North Carolina]: . . . I am a little bit apprehensive that the point of order may be sustained, if the Chair is called upon to rule on it. But, I think it would be very unfortunate for us to delay final action on the bill, and in the circumstances we have no other alternative other than to move that the Committee do now rise, and so, Mr. Chairman, I make that motion.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(10)</sup> The Chair is prepared to rule on the point of order, but the motion offered by the gentleman from North Carolina that the Committee do now rise is in order, and the Chair will put the question.

The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from North Carolina.

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Hays of Arkansas, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 6974) to extend the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, and for other purposes, had come to no resolution thereon.

Parliamentarian's Note: In this case the language of the bill was in violation of the provisions of then Rule XXI clause 4 (now clause 5). The Member in charge of the bill moved that the Committee rise to permit application to the Committee on Rules for a resolution waiving points of order against the bill. The rule granted was House Resolution 274.

Before Tellers Begin Count

§ 23.9 A vote by tellers having been ordered and appointed in the Committee of the Whole, a motion that the committee rise is in order if the tellers have not taken their places and the count has not begun.

On Mar. 12, 1942,<sup>(11)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6709, the agriculture appropriations bill for fiscal year 1943, Chairman Robert Ramspeck, of Georgia, indicated that a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise is in order after a vote by tellers has been ordered and tellers have been appointed if the tellers have not taken their places and begun the count.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from South Dakota [Mr. Case] offers a substitute for the Dirksen amendment.

The Clerk will report the substitute. The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Case of South Dakota as a substitute for the amendment offered by Mr. Dirksen: Page 80, line 21, strike out "$45,000,000" and insert "$25,000,000."

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the substitute offered by the gentleman from South Dakota.

The question was taken; and the Chair being in doubt the Committee divided, and there were—ayes 84, noes 88.

MR. [FRANCIS H.] CASE of South Dakota: Mr. Chairman, I ask for tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chair appointed as tellers Mr. Case of South Dakota and Mr. Tarver.

MR. [MALCOLM C.] TARVER [of Georgia]: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

MR. [JOSEPH W.] MARTIN [Jr.] of Massachusetts: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MARTIN of Massachusetts: The gentleman cannot interrupt a vote.

THE CHAIRMAN: The vote has not started.

MR. MARTIN of Massachusetts: We had already started to vote on the substitute and the Chair had announced the vote as 84 to 88.

THE CHAIRMAN: The tellers had not taken their places.

The point of order is overruled.

MR. MARTIN of Massachusetts: Mr. Chairman, we had started the vote when the first voice vote was taken.

THE CHAIRMAN: The point of order is overruled.

The gentleman from Georgia moves that the Committee do now rise.

The question is on the motion.

During Time for Debate

§ 23.10 The motion to rise is in order after agreement to a motion to limit debate on an amendment.

On Feb. 8, 1950,<sup>(12)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2945, to adjust postal rates, Chairman Chet Holifield, of California, indicated that a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise was in order after agreement to a time limit on debate on an amendment.

MR. [THOMAS J.] MURRAY of Tennessee: Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on the committee substitute and all amendments thereto close in 20 minutes.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion,

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Sutton) there were—ayes 99, noes 76.

MR. [ROBERT J.] CORBETT [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Murray of Tennessee and Mr. Corbett.

The Committee again divided; and the tellers reported there were—ayes 133, noes 72.

So the motion was agreed to.

MR. [JAMES G.] FULTON [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. FULTON: Is a motion that the Committee do now rise in order at this time?

THE CHAIRMAN: Such a motion would be in order.

MR. FULTON: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Fulton) there were—ayes 76, noes 125.

MR. FULTON: Mr. Chairman. I ask for tellers.

Tellers were refused.

So the motion was rejected.

During Division Vote

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on this amendment do now close.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, I trust the gentleman will not press that motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. Taber].

The question was taken, and the Chair announced that the ayes had it.

MR. [CLARENCE] CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I ask for a division.

THE CHAIRMAN: Those in favor of the motion will rise and be counted.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair calls the attention of the gentleman to the fact that we are in the middle of a vote.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, I am offering a preferential motion. I move that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will ask the gentleman to reconsider, because we are in the midst of taking a vote on a motion at this time.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, I am offering a preferential motion now.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair cannot recognize the gentleman at this time for that purpose.

The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. Taber].

During Consideration of Bill Under Special Rule

§ 23.12 A motion that the Committee of the Whole rise and report a bill back to the House with the recommendation that it be recommitted to the committee from which reported is not in order if the bill is being considered under a special rule which provides that, after consideration and upon the automatic rising of the Committee of the Whole, the previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage.

On Aug. 10, 1950,<sup>(14)</sup> the Committee of the Whole was considering H.R. 9176, the Defense Production Act of 1950, under a special rule which provided as follows:<sup>(15)</sup>

Resolved, That immediately upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H. R. 9176) to establish a system of priorities and allocations for materials and facilities . . . and for other purposes, and all points of order against said bill are hereby waived. That after general debate, which shall be confined to the bill and continue not to exceed 1 day, to be equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Banking and Currency, the bill shall be read for amendment under the 5-minute rule. It shall be in order to consider without the intervention of any point of order the substitute committee amendment recommended by the Committee on Banking and Currency now in the bill, and such substitute for the purpose of amendment shall be considered under the 5-minute rule as an original bill. At the conclusion of such consideration the committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted, and any Member may demand a separate vote in the House on any of the amendments adopted in the Committee of the Whole to the bill or committee substitute. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit, with or without instructions.

During the proceedings, Mr. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, made a motion that the Committee rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that it be recommitted. The Chairman, Howard W. Smith, of Virginia, in ruling on a point of order against the motion, indicated that the motion was precluded under the terms of the special rule. The motion and ruling were as follows:

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Rankin moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that it be recommitted to the Committee on Banking and Currency for further hearings and study.

MR. [WRIGHT] PATMAN [of Texas]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. PATMAN: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that this being a straight motion to recommit, without instructions, it is not permissible under the rule under which we are considering the bill in Committee.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair is ready to rule. That motion is not in order in Committee of the Whole, and the Chair sustains the point of order.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, it is in order to make a motion that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that it be recommitted to the Committee on Banking and Currency for further study and hearing.

THE CHAIRMAN: In the consideration of this bill the Committee of the Whole is operating under a special rule which lays down the conditions under which the bill is to be considered. The motion of the gentleman from Mississippi is not in order at this time.

Parliamentarian's Note: An earlier precedent (see 8 Cannon's Precedents §2375) indicated a contrary view. The Chair in that instance held that a special rule, whose provisions were not materially different from those of House Resolution 740, above, did not deprive the Committee of the Whole of the right to report with a recommendation to recommit the bill under consideration at the end of reading for amendment. The Chair on that occasion, however, incorrectly overruled a point of order made by Mr. Clarence Cannon, of Missouri, who argued that at the conclusion of the amendment process the Committee of the Whole rises automatically under the terms of such a special rule and reports the bill to the House with adopted amendments, and that a motion to that end is not necessary. The modern practice, as shown in the ruling of Chairman Smith, above, is to disallow motions in Committee of the Whole that, if adopted, would effectively contravene the terms of the special rule that order the previous question on the bill and amendments thereto, to final passage at the conclusion of the amendment process under the five-minute rule, and that protect the motion to recommit, as guaranteed by clause 4 Rule XVI, only after amendments are disposed of in the House and pending final passage.

Precedence Over Motion to Strike Enacting Clause

§ 23.13 A motion that the Committee of the Whole do now rise takes precedence over a pending motion to rise and report with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

On May 24, 1967,<sup>(1)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7819, the Elementary and Secondary Education Act Amendments of 1967, Chairman Charles M. Price, of Illinois, addressed the question whether the motion that the Committee of the Whole rise takes precedence over a pending motion to rise and report with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

MR. [WAYNE L.] HAYS [of Ohio]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Hays moves that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the preferential motion offered by the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. Hays].

MR. [CARL D.] PERKINS [of Kentucky]: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Kentucky [Mr. Perkins].

1. 113 CONG. REC. 13876, 13877, 90th Cong. 1st Sess. See 82 CONG. REC. 1600, 75th Cong. 2d Sess., Dec. 15, 1937, for another illustration of this principle.

MR. [PAUL C.] JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Does not a preferential motion require a vote before the Chair can accept another motion?

THE CHAIRMAN: No. A motion to rise takes precedence over any other motion.

The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Kentucky [Mr. Perkins].

MR. [LESLIE C.] ARENDS [of Illinois]: Mr. Chairman, on that I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Perkins and Mr. Goodell.

The Committee divided and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 127, noes 186.

So the motion was rejected.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the preferential motion.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman I demand tellers.

Tellers were refused.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the preferential motion.

The preferential motion was rejected.

Precedence of Motion to Amend Over Motion to Rise and Report

§ 23.14 A motion to amend in the Committee of the Whole takes precedence over a motion to rise and report a bill with recommendations.

On July 27, 1937,<sup>(2)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7730, to authorize the President to appoint administrative assistants, Chairman Wright Patman, of Texas, ruled on the precedence of a motion to amend over a motion to rise.

Mr. Robinson of Utah and Mr. Collins rose.

MR. [J. W.] ROBINSON of Utah: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise and report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the bill do pass.

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order against the motion that it is not in order at this stage of the proceedings.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair may state that motions to amend take precedence over a motion that the Committee rise.

§ 24.—Offering the Motion

A Member with the floor generally yields for debate only, since in yielding for a motion or amendment he may lose the floor. The principle that a Member may not, in time yielded for debate, make a motion to rise is based on the consideration that, if amendments or motions were allowed in time yielded for debate, control would shift and the Chair would be deprived of his power of recognition.

2. 81 CONG. REC. 7699, 75th Cong. 1st Sess.

The subject of yielding time in debate and what may be accomplished during yielded time is taken up in greater detail in the chapter on Consideration and Debate, Ch. 29, infra.

During Offering of Amendment

§ 24.1 A Member recognized to offer and debate an amendment may, during his five minutes, move that the Committee rise.

On Nov. 15, 1967,<sup>(3)</sup> during consideration of S. 2388, the Economic Opportunity Act Amendments of 1967, a Member recognized to offer and debate an amendment was permitted, during his five minutes, to move that the Committee of the Whole rise.

MR. [PAUL C.] JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I offer an amendment.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Jones of Missouri: On page 219 strike out all of line 17 through line 24.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I make a parliamentary inquiry at this time.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(4)</sup> The gentleman will state it.

THE CHAIRMAN: A motion that the Committee do now rise is a privileged motion.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Missouri.

The motion was rejected.

During Yielded Time

§ 24.2 A Member may not in time yielded him for general debate move that the Committee of the Whole rise, nor may a Member who has been yielded time for debate yield to another for that motion. (The Chair was sustained on appeal.)

On Feb. 22, 1950, Calendar Wednesday,<sup>(5)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 4453, the Federal Fair Employment Practice Act, Chairman Francis E. Walter, of Pennsylvania, ruled that a Member could not in time yielded to him for general debate move that the Committee of the Whole rise. It was also ruled that a Member who had been yielded general debate time could not yield to another for that motion.

MR. [ADAM C.] POWELL [Jr., of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I yield the minute that the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. Kelley] yielded back to the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. Smith] for debate.

5. 96 CONG. REC. 2178, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [HOWARD W.] SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Chairman, we have been in session for a long time. It is now almost 7 o'clock, and it is obvious this bill cannot be seriously considered and concluded during this session of the House. I think most of the Members are very tired. It is about time we were getting away from here. I think a good many of them are ready to get away.

MR. [FRANKLIN D.] ROOSEVELT [Jr., of New York]: Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

MR. SMITH of Virginia: I yield to the gentleman from New York.

MR. ROOSEVELT: I would like to ask the gentleman if he realizes I am feeling very wide awake and I have no desire to leave until we complete the business of the day.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: The gentleman is a good deal younger than some of us and I congratulate him. I admire him, I like to see him up here jumping around and going on. But I think it is about time we quit. Therefore, Mr. Chairman, I move the Committee do now rise.

MR. POWELL: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. POWELL: Mr. Chairman, I yielded 1 minute to the gentleman from Virginia only for debate.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Chairman, I ask recognition on my own to offer a preferential motion.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from New York yielded to the gentleman from Virginia for a particular purpose. The motion offered by the gentleman from Virginia is not in order at this time.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Chairman, I now move, on my own time, that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Virginia has no time. The gentleman from New York and the gentleman from Pennsylvania have control of the time.

MR. POWELL: Mr. Chairman, I now yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from South Carolina [Mr. Sims] for debate.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

MR. [HUGO S.] SIMS [Jr., of South Carolina]: I yield to the gentleman from Virginia.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Chairman, having some time of my own, I now move that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from South Carolina was yielded 4 minutes time for debate. He in turn yielded to the gentleman from Virginia but he cannot yield to the gentleman from Virginia for the purpose of offering that motion.

An appeal was then taken from the ruling of the Chair and the ruling was sustained on a teller vote.

§ 25.—Proceedings Subsequent to Action on Motion

Reporting to House

§ 25.1 Where the Committee of the Whole votes merely that the Committee rise, the Chairman reports to the House that the Committee has considered a certain bill and has come to no conclusion thereon; he does not under this procedure report the bill with amendments back to the House.

On Aug. 24, 1949,<sup>(6)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 6070, to amend the National Housing Act, and after agreement to a particular amendment, Chairman Mike Mansfield, of Montana, ruled on the procedure to be followed in reporting to the House where the Committee of the Whole votes to rise.

MR. [BRENT] SPENCE [of Kentucky]: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

MR. [JESSE P.] WOLCOTT [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. WOLCOTT: If the Committee rises at the present time will it report the bill back to the House with amendments, or will it report that it has come to no conclusion thereon? What is the situation?

THE CHAIRMAN: This is simply a motion that the Committee rise. There are several amendments yet to be offered. . . .

The Committee again divided, and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 86, noes 83.

6. 95 CONG. REC. 12186, 81st Cong. 1st Sess.

So the motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore, Mr. Priest, having assumed the chair, Mr. Mansfield, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 6070) to amend the National Housing Act, as amended, and for other purposes, had come to no resolution thereon.

Point of No Quorum

§ 25.2 A point of order that no quorum is present is not in order after the Committee of the Whole has voted to rise.

On Mar. 9, 1936,<sup>(7)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 11563, and after the Committee of the Whole had voted to rise, Chairman William B. Umstead, of North Carolina, ruled that a point of order that a quorum was not present was not in order.

MR. [THOMAS L.] BLANTON [of Texas] (interrupting the reading of the bill): Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

The question was taken.

MR. BLANTON: Mr. Chairman, I ask for a division.

7. 80 CONG. REC. 3459, 74th Cong. 2d Sess.

Note: A quorum is not required on an affirmative vote to rise. The subject of quorums and points of no quorum is treated more fully in Ch. 20. infra.

The Committee divided; and there were—ayes 40, noes 33,

MR. [HENRY] ELLENBOGEN [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order there is not a quorum present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. TABER: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a point of no quorum is not in order after the Committee has determined to rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The point of order is sustained. The vote had already been announced.

Division on Amendment After Rejection of Motion

§ 25.3 Where a preferential motion that the Committee of the Whole rise is made and rejected subsequent to a demand for a division vote on an amendment, the division is taken after the rejection of the motion that the Committee rise.

On June 13, 1947,<sup>(8)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 3342, relating to the cultural relations program of the State Department, Chairman Thomas A. Jenkins, of Ohio, presiding, a preferential motion that the Committee of the Whole rise was made subsequent to a demand for a division vote on an amendment. The division vote was taken after rejection of the motion to rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: . . . The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. Keefe].

The question was taken; and Mr. Angell demanded a division.

MR. [DANIEL A.] REED of New York: Mr. Chairman I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Reed of New York moves that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Rayburn) there were—ayes 93, noes, 95.

MR. REED of New York: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Mundt and Mr. Reed of New York.

The Committee again divided; and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 101, noes 110.

So the motion was rejected.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that before the motion was made that the Committee do now rise the question was being taken on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. Keefe]. There was a voice vote and then a division was requested.

MR. [JOHN W.] MCCORMACK [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. McCORMACK: The Chair had stated that a standing vote had been requested, but I think the Chair failed to state that the Chair announced the "ayes" had it on the voice vote.

THE CHAIRMAN: No. No announcement was made on the division. The preferential motion intervened.

The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. Keefe].

The question was taken; and on a division there were—ayes 145, noes 1.

Resolving Back Into Committee After Reporting a Quorum

§ 25.4 Under the former practice, where the Committee of the Whole rose and the Chairman reported to the House that, pursuant to House rule,<sup>(9)</sup> he had caused

9. Rule XXIII clause 2, House Rules and Manual §863 (1973).

Note: Clause 2 of Rule XXIII was amended in the 96th Congress (H. Res. 5, Jan. 15, 1979) to permit the Committee to continue its business following the appearance of a quorum so that the Speaker need not take the chair to receive the Committee's report of absentees. Prior to the adoption of this change in the rules, the Committee of the Whole followed the procedure indicated above. Under the new rule, the Committee would still rise if a quorum of the Committee failed to appear. Rule XXIII clause 2(a), House Rules and #### the roll to be called in the Committee to establish the presence of a quorum, the House automatically resolved back into the Committee.

On Apr. 21, 1969,<sup>(10)</sup> the House automatically resolved into the Committee of the Whole where the Committee rose and the Chairman reported to the House that, pursuant to Rule XXIII clause 2, he caused the roll to be called in Committee, thereby establishing the presence of a quorum.

MR. [FRANK E.] EVANS of Colorado: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(11)</sup> The Chair will count.

Forty Members are present, not a quorum. The Clerk will call the roll.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Price of Illinois, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill H.R. 514, and finding itself without a quorum, he had directed the roll to be called, when 325

11. Charles M. Price (Ill.).

Members responded to their names, a quorum, and he submitted herewith the names of the absentees to be spread upon the Journal.

The Committee resumed its sitting.

On Calendar Wednesday

§ 25.5 On Calendar Wednesday, if the Committee of the Whole during consideration of a bill votes to rise, and the House then rejects a motion to adjourn, Calendar Wednesday business is still before the House; and if the chairman of the committee having the call calls up the same bill, the House automatically resolves itself into the Committee of the Whole and continues consideration of that bill.

On Feb. 22, 1950, Calendar Wednesday,<sup>(12)</sup> during consideration of H. R. 4453, the Federal Fair Employment Practice Act, Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, presiding, the Committee of the Whole voted to rise; thereafter, the House rejected a motion to adjourn. The Speaker indicated that the chairman of the committee having the call could call up the same bill, and, if so, that the House would automatically resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole to continue consideration thereof.

12. 96 CONG. REC. 2238-40, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [PAUL W.] SHAFER [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion. I move that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(13)</sup> The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. Shafer].

MR. [ADAM C.] POWELL [Jr., of New York]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry. Has any business been transacted in connection with the bill?

THE CHAIRMAN: That is immaterial. The motion is in order at this time.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Shafer) there were—ayes 142, noes 164.

MR. SHAFER: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chair appointed as tellers Mr. Shafer and Mr. Powell.

The Committee again divided, and tellers reported that there were—ayes 172, noes 165.

So the motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Walter, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 4453) to prohibit discrimination in employment because of race, color, religion, or national origin, had come to no resolution thereon.

MR. [HOWARD W.] SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

Mr. Marcantonio and Mr. Biemiller demanded the yeas and nays.

13. Francis F. Walter (Pa.).

MR. [OREN] HARRIS [of Arkansas]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HARRIS: As I understand, the roll call now is on the motion to adjourn.

THE SPEAKER: That is correct.

MR. HARRIS: If the motion to adjourn is not agreed to, then what will be the parliamentary situation?

THE SPEAKER: It will be Calendar Wednesday business.

MR. HARRIS: A further parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HARRIS: Do we automatically then go back into Committee?

THE SPEAKER: If the gentleman from Michigan calls the bill up again, yes.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 165, nays 239, answered “present” 1, not voting 26, as follows: . . .

MR. [JOHN] LESINSKI [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on Education and Labor I call up the bill H.R. 4453.

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will report the title of the bill.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Speaker, I raise the question of consideration of the bill.

THE SPEAKER: The question is, Will the House consider the bill?

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 271, nays 133, not voting 27, as follows: . . .

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

THE SPEAKER: The House automatically resolves itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill.

Accordingly the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 4453) to prohibit discrimination in employment because of race, color, religion, or national origin, with Mr. Walter in the chair.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

Parliamentarian's Note: On this Calendar Wednesday, because of numerous roll calls and motions, the House stayed in session until 3:19 a.m. Thursday morning, when the reading of the engrossed copy was demanded. The House then adjourned and met at noon Thursday to read the engrossed copy and pass the bill.

Vacating Vote to Rise

§ 25.6 A Committee of the Whole may by unanimous consent vacate the proceedings by which it has voted to rise.

On Feb. 5, 1936,<sup>(14)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 10919, the Departments of the Treasury and Post Office appropriations bill, Chairman Arthur H. Greenwood, of Indiana, stated that the Committee of the Whole could by unanimous consent vacate the proceedings by which it had voted to rise.

14. 80 CONG. REC. 1534, 74th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [LOUIS] LUDLOW [of Indiana]: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

The motion was agreed to.

MR. LUDLOW: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. LUDLOW: May I ask what is the status of the Committee now?

THE CHAIRMAN: We are waiting for the Speaker to arrive to report that the Committee has determined to rise.

MR. LUDLOW: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that the proceedings by which the Committee determined to rise be vacated.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Indiana?

There was no objection.

MR. LUDLOW: Mr. Chairman, I yield 5 minutes to the gentleman from Iowa [Mr. Wearin].

§ 26. Resumption of Business After Committee Resumes Sitting

Continuation of Debate When Committee Resumes Business After Rising

§ 26.1 Where the period of time for debate has been fixed on an amendment in the Committee of the Whole and the Committee rises before the time expires, debate continues when the Committee resumes its deliberations.

On June 16, 1948,<sup>(15)</sup> the Committee of the Whole was considering H.R. 6401, the Selective Service Act of 1948, under Chairman Francis H. Case, of South Dakota. Time for debate had been fixed on an amendment by the Committee, but a motion to rise was offered before the time had expired.

MR. [WALTER G.] ANDREWS of New York: Mr. Chairman, in view of the fact that two or three Members who have time are not here, I move that the Committee do now rise. . . .

MR. [VITO] MARCANTONIO [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MARCANTONIO: Mr. Chairman, under the arrangement entered into limiting debate on this amendment, will the Members who were scheduled to be recognized be recognized when the Committee resumes its deliberations?

THE CHAIRMAN: They will be recognized, if the Committee should vote to rise, when the Committee meets again.

MR. ANDREWS of New York: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

15. 94 CONG. REC. 8521, 80th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. ANDREWS of New York: My understanding is that all those gentlemen whose names are on the list will be recognized immediately tomorrow.

THE CHAIRMAN: The statement of the gentleman from New York is correct.

Resumption of Consideration After House Refusal to Strike Enacting Clause

§ 26.2 When a recommendation of the Committee of the Whole that the enacting clause of a bill be stricken is rejected by the House, the House, without motion, resolves itself into the Committee of the Whole for further consideration of the bill.

On May 18, 1960,<sup>(16)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 5, the Foreign Investment Incentive Tax Act of 1960, the House without motion resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole for further consideration of the bill after rejecting a Committee recommendation to strike out the enacting clause.

REC. 25418, 89th Cong. 1st Sess., Sept. 29, 1965 (H.R. 4644, providing home rule for the District of Columbia); and 108 CONG. REC. 22363, 87th Cong. 2d Sess., Oct. 4, 1962 (S. 1123, amending the Fair Labor Standards Act), for other illustrations of this principle.

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a preferential motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Gross moves that the Committee now rise and report the bill to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out. . . .

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(17)</sup> . . . The question is on the preferential motion offered by the gentleman from Iowa [Mr. Gross].

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Gross) there were—ayes 101, noes 93.

MR. [HALE] BOGGS [of Louisiana]: Mr. Chairman, I ask for tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Boggs and Mr. Gross.

The Committee again divided, and the tellers reported there were—ayes 107, noes 101.

So the motion was agreed to.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Committee will rise.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Natcher, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 5) to amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to encourage private investment abroad and thereby promote American industry and reduce Government expenditures for foreign economic assistance, had directed him to report the bill back to the House with the recommendation that the enacting clause be stricken out.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(18)</sup> The question is, Shall the enacting clause be stricken out?

MR. BOGGS: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The question was taken and there were—yeas 160, nays 232, not voting 40. . . .

So the enacting clause was not stricken out. . . .

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

The Committee resumed its sitting.

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill H.R. 5.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

THE CHAIRMAN: When the Committee rose, there was pending the amendment offered by the gentleman from Louisiana [Mr. Boggs] to the Committee amendment in the nature of a substitute. The gentleman from Louisiana [Mr. Boggs] had consumed 5 minutes in support of the amendment.

Resumption of Proceedings on Teller Vote

§ 26.3 Where a demand for tellers on a vote in the Committee of the Whole is displaced by a motion to rise before the demand for tellers is

18. Sam Rayburn (Tex.).

seconded, the question on ordering tellers is regarded as pending and is first disposed of when the Committee resumes its session.

On Mar. 9, 1935,<sup>(19)</sup> a demand for tellers had been displaced by a motion to rise during consideration of H.R. 6021. Chairman Emanuel Celler, of New York, stated that the question on ordering tellers would be regarded as pending and disposed of first after resumption of business in the Committee of the Whole.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. Wolcott], which the Clerk will again report.

The Clerk read the Wolcott amendment.

The question was taken; and the Chair being in doubt, the Committee divided, and there were—ayes 118, noes 89.

MR. [FRANKLIN W.] HANCOCK of North Carolina: Mr. Chairman. I demand tellers.

MR. [JOHN J.] O'CONNOR [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

MR. [THOMAS L.] BLANTON [of Texas]: Mr. Chairman, if the Committee determines to rise, the request for tellers will be considered as pending?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman is correct.

19. 79 CONG. REC. 3315, 3316, 74th Cong. 1st Sess.

§ 26.4 Under the former practice, it was held that where a point of no quorum was made in the Committee of the Whole and the roll was called while a demand for a teller vote on an amendment was pending, the question of ordering tellers was put immediately after the Committee resumed its sitting.

On May 10, 1946,<sup>(20)</sup> the Committee of the Whole was considering amendments to H.R. 6335, the Department of the Interior appropriation, 1947, Chairman Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, presiding. A point of no quorum was made and the roll was called while a demand for a teller vote on an amendment was pending. The question on ordering tellers was put immediately after the Committee obtained a quorum and resumed its sitting. The Chairman indicated that the demand for tellers was not precluded by a prior division vote agreeing to the amendment.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the amendment to the amendment.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Rooney) there were—ayes 41, noes 29.

MR. [JED] JOHNSON of Oklahoma:
Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

20. 92 CONG. REC. 4840, 79th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [FRANK B.] KEEFE [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count. [After counting.] Eighty-seven Members are present, not a quorum.

The Clerk will call the roll.

The Clerk called the roll. . . .

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Cooper, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House of the State of the Union, reported that that Committee having had under consideration the bill H.R. 6335, and finding itself without a quorum, he had directed the roll to be called, when 313 Members responded to their names, a quorum, and he submitted herewith the names of the absentees to be spread upon the Journal.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(1)</sup> The Committee will resume its sitting.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Oklahoma [Mr. Johnson] demands tellers on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Idaho [Mr. Dworshak] to the amendment offered by the gentleman from Utah [Mr. Robertson].

MR. [WALTER K.] GRANGER [of Utah]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it

MR. GRANGER: As I understood the situation when the quorum was called, the Chair had already announced that the amendment offered by the gentleman from Idaho to the amendment had been agreed to; and the request comes too late.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair had announced that on a division the amendment to the amendment had been agreed to. Thereupon, the gentleman from Oklahoma [Mr. Johnson] demanded tellers. At that point a point of order was made that a quorum was not present.

1. Sam Rayburn (Tex.).

The gentleman's demand for tellers is now pending.

Parliamentarian's Note: Clause 2 of Rule XXIII was amended in the 96th Congress (H. Res. 5, Jan. 15, 1979) to permit the Committee to continue its business following the appearance of a quorum so that the Speaker need not take the chair to receive the Committee's report of absentees. Prior to the adoption of this change in the rules, the Committee of the Whole followed the procedure indicated above. Under the new rule, the Committee would still rise if a quorum of the Committee failed to appear. Rule XXIII clause 2(a), House Rules and Manual §863 (1979). The subject of quorums is discussed more fully in Ch. 20, infra

§ 26.5 Where the Committee of the Whole has ordered tellers on an amendment and then rises, the order for tellers is pending and can be vacated and the vote taken de novo only by unanimous consent when the Committee again resumes consideration of the matter.

On July 2, 1947,<sup>(2)</sup> the Committee of the Whole resumed consideration from the previous day of amendments to H.R. 4002, the War Department civil functions appropriations bill, 1948. Chairman Earl C. Michener, of Michigan, stated that on the previous day the Committee of the Whole had ordered tellers on an amendment and then had risen. The Chairman ruled that the order for tellers could be vacated and the vote taken de novo only by unanimous consent.

THE CHAIRMAN: . . . When the Committee rose yesterday, the so-called Rankin amendment was pending. A voice vote had been taken. Tellers were demanded and ordered.

Without objection the Clerk will again read the so-called Rankin amendment.

There was no objection.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, is it not in order to vacate or disregard the standing vote and take the standing or voice vote again?

THE CHAIRMAN: Tellers have already been ordered.

MR. RANKIN: I understand that, Mr. Chairman, but I believe that where a vote is not completed on one day it is taken again when the question again comes up for consideration.

2. 93 CONG. REC. 8136, 80th Cong. 1st Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman's inquiry is: Can the order for tellers be vacated, and the Committee proceed de novo on the amendment? That can be done by unanimous consent.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that that be done.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Mississippi asks unanimous consent that the proceedings on the vote on the Rankin amendment when the Committee was last in session be vacated and that the vote be taken de novo. Is there objection?

MR. [ALBERT J.] ENGEL of Michigan: I object, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Clerk will again report the amendment.

A. CALLS OF THE HOUSE

§ 1. In General; Scope

Article I, section 5, of the Constitution,<sup>(1)</sup> provides that “a Majority of each [House] shall constitute a Quorum to do Business; but a smaller Number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the Attendance of absent Members, in such Manner, and under such Penalties as each House may provide.” A quorum consists of a majority<sup>(2)</sup> of those Members sworn and living,<sup>(3)</sup> whose membership has not been terminated by resignation or action of the House.<sup>(4)</sup>

A quorum is presumed to be present unless a point of no

quorum is made.<sup>(5)</sup> Although it is not the duty of the Chair to take cognizance of the absence of a quorum unless disclosed by a vote or questioned by a point of no quorum,<sup>(6)</sup> failure of a quorum to vote on a roll call cannot be ignored; the Chair must announce that fact although it was not objected to from the floor.<sup>(7)</sup>

After the absence of a quorum has been announced, no “business” including a unanimous-consent request to withdraw the point of no quorum,<sup>(8)</sup> is in order until a quorum has been established.<sup>(9)</sup> Nonetheless, the motion to adjourn, the motion for a call of the House<sup>(10)</sup> and motions incidental to a call of the House<sup>(11)</sup> are in order in the absence of a quorum. Similarly, the House may adjourn sine die in the absence of a quorum where both Houses

For earlier treatment of the quorum, see 4 Hinds’ Precedents §§ 2884–2979; and 6 Cannon’s Precedents §§ 638–677; discussion of calls of the House appears in 4 Hinds’ Precedents §§ 2980–3055; and 6 Cannon’s Precedents §§ 678–707.

have adopted a concurrent resolution providing for a sine die adjournment on that day.<sup>(12)</sup> Moreover, under the precedents, a quorum is not required for the opening prayer and Members are not recognized for such a point of order.<sup>(13)</sup>

In the 93d Congress, on Apr. 9, 1974, certain changes were adopted in the rules governing the time for making a point of no quorum, as well as the proper procedures relating to quorum calls. These changes will be discussed in detail in supplements to this edition as they appear. Broadly, under the new procedures, a point of no quorum may not be entertained (1) before or during the offering of prayer; (2) during the administration of the oath of office to the Speaker, Speaker pro tempore, Member, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner; (3) during the reception of any message from the President or the Senate; and (4) during the offering, consideration, and disposition of any motion incidental to a call of the House. The House Rules and Manual, published each Congress, can serve as a reference for changes of the rules relating to the establishment of a quorum which have occurred following the publication date of this volume.

In addition, since the beginning of the 93d Congress, once the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole determines during a quorum call that a quorum is present, he may, under Rule XXIII clause 2(a), declare that a quorum is constituted, whereupon proceedings under the call are considered vacated.

Similarly, after the presence of a quorum is ascertained, a further point of no quorum may not be made or entertained during reading of the Journal, pending a report from the Committee of the Whole to the House, during special orders, or any other time until additional business intervenes. A quorum is not required in the Committee of the Whole for agreement to a motion that the Committee rise.

In the 94th and 95th Congresses, other changes were adopted in the rules regarding the necessity for and establishment of a quorum. Under clause 6(e)(1) of Rule XV, the Speaker may not entertain a point of order of no quorum when he has not put a question to a vote in the House, but under clause 6(e)(2) the Speaker may at any time in his discretion recognize a Member of his choice to move a call of the House. Clause 6(e)(2) was amended in the 96th Congress to dispense with further proceedings under any call of the House when a quorum appears unless the Speaker in his discretion recognizes for a motion.<sup>(14)</sup> Changes since the 93d Congress in Rule XXIII clause 2 relating to quorum calls in Committee of the Whole are discussed in detail in § 7, infra.

Majority as Quorum

§ 1.1 A majority of the House constitutes a quorum to do business.

On Feb. 18, 1958,<sup>(15)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, after counting 217 Members, stated that a quorum was present.

MR. [MICHAEL J.] KIRWAN [of Ohio]: Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question on the motion to recommit.

The previous question was ordered.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion to recommit.

MR. [BEN F.] JENSEN [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, on that I ask for the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were refused.

The question was taken, and the Chair announced that the noes appeared to have it.

MR. JENSEN: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present, and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will count. [After counting.] Two hundred and seventeen Members are present, a quorum.<sup>(16)</sup>

The question is on the passage of the bill.

§ 1.2 A quorum of the House consists of a majority of those Members sworn and living; the Speaker's vote may be counted to make a quorum.

On Oct. 20, 1966,<sup>(17)</sup> the Speaker voted on a conference report in order to make a quorum.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(18)</sup> The question is on agreeing to the conference report.

The question was taken; and the Speaker announced that the "ayes" appeared to have it.

vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 171, nays 46, not voting [216], as follows: . . .

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will call my name.

The Clerk called the name of Mr. McCormack, and he answered “yea.”

So the conference report was agreed to.

Presumption of Quorum

§ 1.3 In the House of Representatives a quorum is presumed always to be present unless a point of no quorum is made.

On July 18, 1949,<sup>(19)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, made a statement regarding presumption of a quorum.

MR. [CLARK E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding this is Consent Calendar day. In view of the recent Supreme Court decision in the

19. 95 CONG. REC. 9654, 81st Cong. 1st Sess.

Christoffel case,<sup>(20)</sup> which held affirmatively that unless a quorum is present the committees of the House and the House are not legal tribunals, would the House now be competent to consider bills on the Consent Calendar, it being apparent a quorum is not present?

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman knows, of course, that unless a point of no quorum is made, it is presumed that a quorum is always present.

Proceeding Requiring a Quorum

§ 1.4 Ascertaining the presence of a quorum is the first order of business when the House convenes following a sine die adjournment.

On Jan. 7, 1964,<sup>(21)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ascertained the presence of a quorum immediately after the prayer.

This being the day fixed by Public Law 247, 88th Congress, enacted pursuant to the 20th amendment to the Constitution, for the meeting of the 2d session of the 88th Congress, the Members of the House of Representatives of the 88th Congress met in their Hall, and at 12 o'clock noon were called to order by the Speaker, the Honorable John W. McCormack, a Representative from the State of Massachusetts.

The Chaplain, Rev. Bernard Braskamp, D.D., offered the . . . prayer. . . .

CALL OF THE HOUSE

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will call the roll to ascertain the presence of a quorum. . . .

On this roll call 342 Members have answered to their names. A quorum is present.

§ 1.5 The Chair refuses to recognize Members for business after an absence of a quorum has been announced; no business is in order until a quorum has been established.

On June 8, 1960,<sup>(1)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, refused to entertain business until a quorum was established.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that there is no quorum. I am telling you now, I told you I was coming here.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Michigan has already made a point of no quorum.

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: I will renew it, if necessary.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman has made the point of order of no quorum, and he should not try to speak in that time.

1. 106 CONG. REC. 12142, 86th Cong. 2d Sess.

The Chair will count. [After counting.] A quorum is not present.

MR. [RICHARD W.] BOLLING [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will call the roll.

MR. HOFFMAN OF MICHIGAN: Mr. Speaker—

THE SPEAKER: The Chair cannot recognize the gentleman because a point of order of no quorum has been made, and the Chair announced that there was no quorum.

The Clerk will call the roll.

§ 1.6 A quorum not being present, no motion is in order but for a call of the House or a motion to adjourn; at this stage a motion to adjourn has precedence over the motion for a call of the House.

On Apr. 24, 1956,<sup>(2)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, presented the question on a motion to adjourn before addressing himself to a prior motion for a call of the House.

§ 1.7 Where the Speaker after a count announces that no quorum is present, all proceedings and debate are sus- ended until a quorum is secured or the House adjourns.

On Mar. 25, 1937,<sup>(3)</sup> Speaker William B. Bankhead, of Alabama, made a statement regarding the effect of a quorum.

MR. [SCOTT W.] LUCAS [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

MR. [RALPH E.] CHURCH [of Illinois]: When I finish my statement, please.

MR. [JOSEPH W.] MARTIN [Jr.] of Massachusetts: I demand the gentleman be protected in his rights.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman has declined to yield.

MR. [FRANK E.] HOOK [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of no quorum.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Michigan makes the point there is no quorum present. The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and ten Members are present, not a quorum.

MR. [SAM] RAYBURN [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

MR. [ADOLPH J.] SABATH [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

MR. RAYBURN: No business can be conducted in the absence of a quorum.

MR. SABATH: I should like to answer these despicable statements.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Texas moves the House do now adjourn.

MR. CHURCH: I will yield to the gentleman. I want to be fair.

THE SPEAKER: No business of any character can be transacted during the absence of a quorum. It raises a constitutional question. A quorum is not present. The gentleman from Texas has moved that the House do now adjourn, which is not a debatable motion.

The question was taken; and the Speaker announced that the ayes had it.

MR. [HAMILTON] FISH [Jr., of New York]: Mr. Speaker, I ask for the yeas and nays.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from New York demands the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were refused.

So the motion to adjourn was agreed to.

§ 1.8 A quorum is required to agree to a resolution to adjourn sine die.

On Oct. 18, 1972,<sup>(4)</sup> House Concurrent Resolution 726 was passed.

PROVISION FOR SINE DIE
ADJOURNMENT

MR. [THOMAS P.] O'NEILL [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker, I offer a privileged concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 726) and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read as follows:

H. CON. RES. 726

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the two Houses of Congress shall adjourn on Wednesday, October 18, 1972, and that when they adjourn on said day, they stand adjourned sine die.

3. 81 CONG. REC. 2793, 75th Cong. 1st Sess.

4. 118 CONG. REC. 37061, 37062, 92d Cong. 2d Sess.

The Speaker:<sup>(5)</sup> The question is on the concurrent resolution.

The question was taken; and the Speaker announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

MR. [JAMES G.] O'HARA [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were yeas 240, nays 21, not voting 170, as follows: . . .

So the concurrent resolution was agreed to.

§ 1.9 Where the Chair after counting announces that a quorum is not present, a Member may not even by unanimous consent withdraw his point of no quorum to permit the House to continue with its business without first having obtained a quorum.

On Dec. 18, 1937,<sup>(6)</sup> Speaker William B. Bankhead, of Alabama, made a ruling regarding withdrawal of a point of no quorum.

MR. [LOIS C.] RABAUT [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

5. Carl Albert (Okla.).

6. 82 CONG. REC. 1846, 75th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Michigan makes the point of order that there is not a quorum present. The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and fifty-six Members are present, not a quorum.

MR. RABAUT: Mr. Speaker, I will withdraw the motion.

MR. [BERTRAND H.] SNEEL [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order. The Speaker has announced that a quorum is not present. The gentleman from Michigan cannot withdraw the point of order. The Speaker has announced that there is no quorum present. Business cannot be conducted after the Speaker has announced there is no quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will hold that a point of order having been made that there was no quorum present, and the Chair having counted and announced that there was no quorum present, a constitutional question is raised. No quorum is present, as was announced by the Chair.

MR. [HENRY B.] STEAGALL [of Alabama]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

§ 1.10 Any action by the House on a Senate amendment requires a quorum if a Member raises that question.

On Mar. 30, 1944,<sup>(7)</sup> Speaker pro tempore John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, made a statement regarding the need for a quorum for consideration of a Senate amendment.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair lays before the House, House

7. 90 CONG. REC. 3318, 78th Cong. 2d Sess.

Concurrent Resolution No. 75, with a Senate amendment, which the Clerk will report.

The Clerk read as follows:

Senate amendment: On page 2, line 3, strike out "Thursday, March 30" and insert "Saturday, April 1."

Amend the title so as to read: "Concurrent resolution providing for the adjournment of Congress from Saturday, April 1, 1944, to Wednesday, April 12, 1944."

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Without objection, the amendment is agreed to.

MR. [CLARK E.] HOFFMAN [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I make a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HOFFMAN: What is the procedure?

MR. [ROBERT] RAMSPECK [of Georgia]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House concur in the Senate amendment.

MR. HOFFMAN: Well, Mr. Speaker, I object.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Is the gentleman propounding a parliamentary inquiry?

MR. HOFFMAN: Yes, Mr. Speaker.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HOFFMAN: What is the procedure on this resolution?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: It is a privileged resolution, and the procedure would be for some Member—and the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. Ramspeck] has done so—to make a motion that the House concur in the Senate amendment.

MR. HOFFMAN: And then a vote is taken on the motion?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: That is correct.

MR. HOFFMAN: Does that require a quorum?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Any action by the House requires a quorum if the one who takes such step raises that question.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state it.

MR. RANKIN: As I understand the situation, whether there is a quorum present or not, unless this amendment is agreed to, the resolution does not become final until this amendment is disposed of. That is correct, is it not?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman is correct.

MR. RANKIN: And therefore we would not be in a position to recess for the time mentioned until this amendment is disposed of one way or the other.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The understanding of the Chair is the same as that of the gentleman from Mississippi.

The gentleman from Georgia moves that the House concur in the Senate amendment.

The question is on the motion of the gentleman from Georgia.

MR. HOFFMAN: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will count.

MR. HOFFMAN: Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the point of no quorum for the time being.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Without objection, further consideration of the concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 75) will be withdrawn.

There was no objection.

Proceedings Permitted in the Absence of a Quorum

§ 1.11 A quorum is not required on motions incidental to a call of the House.

On Oct. 8, 1940,<sup>(8)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, made a ruling regarding the need for a quorum on a motion to dispense with further proceedings, which is a motion incidental to a call of the House.

THE SPEAKER: On this roll call 318 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

MR. [JERE] COOPER [of Tennessee]: Mr. Speaker, I move to dispense with further proceedings under the call.

THE SPEAKER: Without objection it is so ordered.

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, I object.

8. 86 CONG. REC. 13403, 76th Cong. 3d Sess. In an isolated instance, objections to the lack of a quorum to vote on motions incidental to a call of the House were improperly entertained. See the proceedings at 108 CONG. REC. 9940-42, 87th Cong. 2d Sess., Sept. 19, 1962. On that occasion, failure of a quorum to vote on motions to dispense with further proceedings under a call of the House resulted in automatic yea and nay votes on the motions.

MR. COOPER: I moved it, Mr. Speaker.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion of the gentleman from Tennessee.

The question was taken; and, on a division (demanded by Mr. Taber), there were—ayes 99 and noes 75.

MR. TABER: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that there is not a quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: A quorum is not required to dispense with further proceedings under the call.

§ 1.12 A quorum is not required for prayer by the Chaplain and the Speaker does not recognize Members for such a point of order.

On Mar. 19, 1941,<sup>(9)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, made a statement regarding recognition of Members for a point of no quorum during prayer.

MR. [ROBERT F.] RICH [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. RICH: Mr. Speaker, when I was seeking recognition from the Speaker before the Chaplain offered prayer, I felt that there would be a call of the House and I thought it would be a good thing for all the Members to be here for once to hear the Chaplain offer prayer. What does the Speaker think about that? Would it be proper procedure for a Member to make the point of order that a quorum is not present before the Chaplain offers prayer?

9. 87 CONG. REC. 2351, 2352, 77th Cong. 1st Sess.

THE SPEAKER: As the Chair understands, it has been held many times that the prayer is not such business of the House that a quorum is required.

§ 1.13 The House, pursuant to a resolution agreed to when a quorum was present, may adjourn sine die in the absence of a quorum.

On Oct. 18, 1972,<sup>(10)</sup> the House adjourned sine die in the absence of a quorum following agreement by a quorum to a resolution authorizing such adjournment.<sup>(11)</sup>

CALL OF THE HOUSE

MR. [JOHN T.] MYERS [of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(12)</sup> The Chair will count.

One hundred twelve Members are present, not a quorum.

MR. [THOMAS P.] O'NEILL [Jr., of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRIES

MR. [WILBUR D.] MILLS of Arkansas: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

10. 118 CONG. REC. 37199, 37200, 92d Cong. 2d Sess.

11. See § 1.8, supra, for agreement to the resolution permitting adjournment sine die.

12. Carl Albert (Okla.).

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MILLS of Arkansas: Mr. Speaker, will the Speaker entertain a unanimous-consent request that the call of the roll be vacated.

THE SPEAKER: The Speaker does not have that authority under the Constitution.

If there are any Members in the Chamber who have not answered and the Speaker can identify them, he will have them recorded. The Speaker does have that authority, but he does not know of any such Members. The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names:

[276 Members failed to answer.]

MR. O'NEILL: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. O'NEILL: Mr. Speaker, am I correct in assuming that when the House adjourns tonight it adjourns to meet on January 3, 1973, at 12 o'clock?

THE SPEAKER: That is correct. . . .

ADJOURNMENT SINE DIE

MR. O'NEILL: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to.

THE SPEAKER: In accordance with the provisions of House Concurrent Resolution 726, the Chair declares the second session of the 92d Congress adjourned sine die.

Accordingly (at 8 o'clock and 47 minutes p.m.), Wednesday, October 18, 1972, the House adjourned sine die.

Parliamentarian's Note: This final quorum call originally omitted from the daily edition of the Record, was inserted in the Journal and in the permanent Record at the request of the Parliamentarian based upon the rationale stated in §2.22, infra, showing that an adjournment of the House in the absence of a quorum does not justify deletion of those proceedings from the Journal and Record.

§ 2. Calls Ordered on Motions; Automatic Calls

The rules of the House authorize two calls of the House, the call on motion and the automatic call, to ascertain the presence of a quorum. Prior to the 95th Congress, the call ordered on motion<sup>(13)</sup> was in order in the absence of a quorum whether or not a pending question was being put to a vote. Under this former procedure, a Member rose and made the point of order that a quorum was not present. The Speaker, after noting the point of order, counted the House and announced whether a quorum was present. If not, any Member could move a call of the House. Under current procedure (beginning in the 95th Congress) a point of order of no quorum may not be entertained unless the pending question has been put to a vote, but the Speaker may, in his discretion, recognize for a motion for a call of the House at any time.<sup>(14)</sup> Fifteen Members including the Speaker voting in the affirmative are authorized to compel the attendance of absentees.<sup>(15)</sup> But because a call must be ordered by a vote of a majority of those present, a minority of 15 favoring a call on such vote will not suffice.<sup>(1)</sup>

If a majority votes to compel attendance absentees are notified. Warrants may be issued by order of a majority of those present, and those for whom no sufficient excuse is made may be arrested by officers appointed by the Sergeant at Arms; absentees' attendance is secured and retained until they are discharged by the House. Members who appear voluntarily are immediately admitted to the Hall of the House and report their names to the Clerk to be entered upon the Journal as present. Until the 96th Congress, the appearance of a sufficient number to make a quorum did not automatically terminate proceedings incident to the call such as closing the doors (which was the practice until the 92d Congress), completing the call of the roll, noting absentees, and arresting and retaining absentees; these activities continue upon order of a majority of those present until the House either by unanimous consent or motion agrees to dispense with further proceedings under the call.<sup>(2)</sup> After agreeing, the House resumes its business.

When a call of the House on motion is ordered, the Speaker, subject to the provision relating to recording votes by electronic device,<sup>(3)</sup> or in lieu of a call of the roll under Rule XV clause 1, is authorized by Rule XV clause 2(b)<sup>(4)</sup> to appoint one or more clerks to tell the names of Members who are present.

2. See 9, infra, for a discussion of the motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call. In the 96th Congress, clause 6(e)(2) was amended to provide that proceedings be automatically dispensed with unless the Speaker in his discretion recognizes for a motion to dispense. Until the 93d Congress, Rule XV clause 2 required that the doors be closed on any call of the House, but on Oct. 13, 1972, that clause was amended (H. Res. 1123, 92d Cong. 2d Sess., 118 CONG. REC. 36012) to require that the doors would be closed only by order of the Speaker, effective at the end of the 92d Congress. See §6, infra.

The other call of the House, the automatic call,<sup>(5)</sup> ensues when a quorum fails to vote on any question which requires a quorum,<sup>(6)</sup> a quorum is not present, and objection is made for that reason,<sup>(7)</sup> unless the House adjourns. Following announcement of a vote,<sup>(8)</sup>

5. Rule XV clause 4, House Rules and Manual §773 (1979).
6. See annotation to Rule XV clause 4, House Rules and Manual §773 (1979). The automatic call does not apply to questions which do not require a quorum, such as an affirmative vote on a motion to adjourn (95 CONG. REC. 10092, 81st Cong. 1st Sess., July 25, 1949), a motion incidental to a call of the House which may be agreed to by less than a quorum (4 Hinds' Precedents §§2994, 3029; 6 Cannon's Precedents §681) or a call when no question is pending (4 Hinds' Precedents §2990). A point of no quorum on a negative vote of adjournment, if sustained, precipitates an automatic call (6 Cannon's Precedents §700).
7. Following failure of a quorum to appear on a yea and nay vote, the Speaker may take cognizance of that fact and order an automatic call of the House despite absence of a point of order from the floor (6 Cannon's Precedents §§678, 679).
8. The automatic roll call applies whether the question on which the the Speaker, hearing a point of no quorum from the floor, or on his own initiative, declares the absence of a quorum, orders the Doorkeeper to close the doors (a practice discontinued in the 92d Congress by addition of clause 2(b), Rule XV, on Oct. 13, 1972) and the Sergeant at Arms to bring in absent Members, and states that those in favor should vote "aye" and those opposed "no." Under this procedure, as distinguished from the call on motion where an order of a majority of those present is needed, the Speaker without floor action possesses the authority to issue a warrant<sup>(9)</sup> permitting the Sergeant at Arms, without separate motion, forthwith to bring in absentees, but the Speaker usually does not do so without action of the House. (See §5.10, infra.) The yeas and nays on the pending question are considered ordered. Unless the vote is taken by electronic device, the Clerk calls the roll and each Member as his name is called may vote on the pending question. Members brought in by the Sergeant at Arms are noted as present, immediately discharged from arrest, and given an opportunity to vote. The Speaker is authorized to declare that a quorum is constituted if those voting on the question together with those who are present and decline to vote make a majority of the House. Such a declaration dispenses with further proceedings. The pending question is decided by the majority vote of those who appear if a quorum responds. Proceedings under the automatic call are vacated if the House adjourns any time after completion of a roll call before a quorum responds and the result is announced.<sup>(10)</sup>

The provision which authorizes automatic calls of the House is subject to Rule XV clause 5,<sup>(11)</sup> which permits the Speaker, unless he orders the calling of names in a manner authorized by the other sections of Rule XV, to order names to be called by electronic device.<sup>(12)</sup>

The automatic vote by yeas and nays is not in order in the Committee of the Whole.<sup>(13)</sup>

House is dividing is decided by a viva voce vote (6 Cannon's Precedents §697), division (6 Cannon's Precedents §691), tellers (4 Hinds' Precedents §3053), or yeas and nays (6 Cannon's Precedents §703).

9. See Rule XV clause 4, House Rules and Manual §§773, 774a (1979); 4 Hinds' Precedents §3043; and 6 Cannon's Precedents §702.

13. See annotation to Rule XV clause 4, House Rules and Manual §774a (1979); and §2.7, infra.

Amendments to the rules affecting procedures subsequent to the 94th Congress under calls of the House and under automatic yeas and nays will be discussed in greater detail in supplements to this edition as they appear.

Presumption as to Presence of Quorum

§ 2.1 In the House of Representatives a quorum is presumed always to be present unless a point of no quorum is made.

On July 18, 1949,<sup>(14)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, made a statement regarding presumption of a quorum.

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding this is Consent Calendar day. In view of the recent Supreme Court decision in the Christoffel case,<sup>(15)</sup> which held affirmatively that unless a quorum is present the committees of the House and the House are not legal tribunals, would the House now be competent to consider bills on the Consent Calendar, it being apparent a quorum is not present?

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman knows, of course, that unless a point of no quorum is made, it is presumed that a quorum is always present.

Obligation to Respond

§ 2.2 Permission of the House for a committee to sit during the sessions of the House does not relieve Members from their obligation to respond on roll calls.

On Aug. 5, 1937,<sup>(16)</sup> Speaker William B. Bankhead, of Alabama, made a ruling regarding Members' obligation to respond to quorum roll calls.

MR. [HAMILTON] FISH [Jr., of New York]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: Does the gentleman from Indiana yield to permit the gentleman from New York to submit a parliamentary inquiry?

MR. [ARTHUR H.] GREENWOOD [of Indiana]: I yield.

MR. FISH: Mr. Speaker, when permission is given to a committee to sit during the sessions of the House, does that give any rights to any of the members of that committee on roll calls?

THE SPEAKER: Absolutely none.

MR. FISH: Not even on quorum roll calls?

THE SPEAKER: It does not. On all quorum roll calls all Members who desire to be recorded must appear and vote on the roll call.

Ascertaining Quorum Upon Convening

§ 2.3 Ascertaining the presence of a quorum is the first order of business when the House convenes following a sine die adjournment.

On Jan. 7, 1964,<sup>(17)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ascertained the presence of a quorum immediately after the prayer.

This being the day fixed by Public Law 247, 88th Congress, enacted pursuant to the 20th amendment to the Constitution, for the meeting of the 2d session of the 88th Congress, the Members of the House of Representatives of the 88th Congress met in their Hall, and at 12 o'clock noon were called to order by the Speaker, the Honorable John W. McCormack, a Representative from the State of Massachusetts.

The Chaplain, Rev. Bernard Braskamp, D.D., offered the . . . prayer: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall 342 Members have answered to their names. A quorum is present.

17. 110 CONG. REC. 4, 5, 88th Cong. 2d Sess.

Postponement of Roll Calls

§ 2.4 Any roll calls which might be requested [except on resolutions from the Committee on Rules] were, by unanimous consent, ordered postponed until the following Tuesday [six calendar days from the date of the request].

On May 27, 1959,<sup>(18)</sup> roll calls were ordered postponed by unanimous consent.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that any rollcall votes, except on rules which may be requested tomorrow or Monday, be put over until Tuesday next.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(19)</sup> Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Oklahoma?

There was no objection.

Presence of Members in Well During Roll Call

§ 2.5 The Speaker has ordered Members from the well of the House during a roll call.

On Oct. 12, 1962,<sup>(20)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, responding to a demand

MR. [CLARENCE] CANNON [of Missouri]: I make the point of order that a quorum is not present and ask for the yeas and nays.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Missouri makes the point of order that a quorum is not present and objects to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present.

The Chair will count.

Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were yeas 84, nays 120, not voting 230, as follows. . . .

MR. GROSS (interrupting the rollcall): Mr. Speaker, I demand the regular order.

THE SPEAKER: The regular order is proceeding.

MR. GROSS (interrupting the rollcall): Mr. Speaker, I demand the well be cleared.

THE SPEAKER: Members will take their places out of the well. . . .

The Clerk resumed calling the roll.<sup>(1)</sup>

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. [CHET] HOLIFIELD [of California]: I hope the gentleman will withhold his point of order for a minute.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will count. Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [SAM] RAYBURN [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Evans of Colorado) there were—ayes 28, noes 65.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: A quorum is not required in this instance.

On Jan. 21, 1971,<sup>(8)</sup> during reading of a resolution adopting the rules, a motion for a call of the House was held to be in order.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(9)</sup> The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Mississippi.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

The Clerk read as follows:

MR. BOLLING: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

The Clerk proceeded to call the roll.

MR. DEVINE (during the call of the roll): Mr. Speaker, a point of order. Is this not an automatic rollcall on the rule?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman is incorrect. It is a quorum call.

MR. [DURWARD G.] HALL [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HALL: Is it not true that the gentleman from Ohio objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and made a point of order that a quorum was not present, whereupon the Chair said that the rollcall was automatic?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair had previously ruled that the resolution had been agreed to and that a motion to reconsider was laid on the table. Therefore, the Chair had no alternative except to rule on the point of order that a quorum was not present and order a quorum call, in view of the fact that the gentleman's objection to the vote came too late.

MR. DEVINE: Mr. Speaker, I was on my feet at the time the Chair made the statement that the question was on the resolution, and I raised the objection to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and made the point of order that a quorum was not present.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair was advised by the Parliamentarian that the Chair had previously ruled that the resolution had been agreed to and that a motion to reconsider had been laid on the table. The Chair had no alternative but to observe the gentleman's point of order that a quorum was not present, and a quorum call is now underway. The Clerk will continue to call the roll.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

MR. [ALFRED L.] BULWINKLE [of North Carolina]: Mr. Speaker, I raise the question of consideration.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from North Carolina raises the question of consideration of the bill. The question is, Will the House consider the bill H.R. 1668.

THE SPEAKER: The question is, Will the House consider the bill (H.R. 1668) to amend paragraph (1) of section 4 of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended February 28, 1920 (U.S.C., title 49, sec. 4)?

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 278, nays 97, answered “present” 1, not voting 54, as follows: . . .

ment of reasons for absence from quorum calls.<sup>(11)</sup>

MR. [MILTON H.] WEST [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, this afternoon, at about 1:30 o'clock, there was a quorum call, No. 53. Many members of the Texas delegation did not answer that quorum call by reason of the fact that at that time they were attending a luncheon given in honor of that great Texan and great American, Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander of the fleet. He was explaining to the delegation the needs of the future fleet of the United States. For that reason the following Members did not feel they should leave that meeting in order to answer a quorum call—

MR. [CLARENCE] CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, I regret to raise the point, but the gentleman is not proceeding in order. MR. CANNON of Missouri: I reluctantly raise the point of order. . . .

It would set a precedent for resuming an objectionable custom which has long since been discontinued.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair believes that the gentleman from Texas, being authorized by the Members whose names he is about to call, would be allowed to state why they were not on the floor to answer a roll call. The Chair knows of no rule of the House that is being violated by that.

MR. [JOSEPH W.] MARTIN [Jr.] of Massachusetts: Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the gentleman from Texas may proceed for one additional minute.

MR. CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, I regret to object. . . .

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will count. [After counting.] Two hundred and nineteen Members are present, a quorum.

The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Wisconsin.

The question was taken; and the Chair being in doubt, the House divided, and there were—ayes 62, noes 112.

MR. [HARRY] SAUTHOFF [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair has just counted, and a quorum was present. The Chair is not responsible if all Members in the House do not vote. The Chair must hold that a quorum is present.

So the amendment was rejected.

Legislative Signal Lights and Bells

§ 2.20 The Speaker announced to the House his directive that the House legislative electric bell and light signals be altered to distinguish between recorded votes in the House and quorum calls in the House or in Committee of the Whole.

On Jan. 21, 1970,<sup>(1)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, issued a directive that signal bells be used to distinguish between recorded votes and quorum calls:

THE SPEAKER: The Chair would like to make an announcement.

On January 3, 1969, the House adopted an amendment to rule XV, clause 1, that eliminated the necessity for Members to "qualify" on a yea-and-nay vote. Since that time several Members have asked the Chair if it would be possible to make a signal system distinction between a yea-and-nay vote—either a constitutional vote or a vote under clause 4, rule XV—and a call of the House.

The Chair has given careful consideration and study to the matter and has reached the conclusion that the change would be of benefit to the Members. Accordingly, starting today, the Chair has directed that on all recorded votes the bells will be rung twice. On quorum calls, either in the House or in Committee of the Whole, the bells will be rung three times.

For the convenience of Members the Chair will insert in the Record at this point a revised schedule of the signal system:

HOUSE LEGISLATIVE ELECTRIC BELL AND LIGHT SIGNALS

Tellers: 1 ring and light on left.

Yeas and Nays (either when ordered by one-fifth of those present or under Rule XV, cl 4): 2 rings and lights on left.

Call of House; No quorum in Committee of the Whole: 3 rings and lights on left.

Adjournment: 4 rings and lights on left.

Recess: 5 rings and lights on left.

Civil Defense Warning: 6 rings and lights on left.

(The light on the far right—7—indicates that the House is in session.)

§ 2.21 In a statement preceding introduction of the electronic voting system, the Speaker announced a revised schedule of the electric bell and light signals, including a provision for quorum calls.

On Jan. 15, 1973,<sup>(2)</sup> Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, announced a revised schedule of legislative electric bell and light signals.

The Chair has directed that the bell and light system be utilized in the following manner:

One bell indicates a teller vote, taken in accordance with clause 5, Rule I (Members indicate their preference by walking up the center aisle and [being] counted by Members who are named as tellers by the Chair. This is not a recorded vote).

Two bells indicate an electronically recorded vote, either demanded under the Constitution by one-fifth of those present (in the House) or by one-fifth of a quorum under clause 5, Rule I (either in the House or in Committee of the Whole). Two bells may also indicate a recorded vote under clause 5 Rule I whenever Members are to record their votes by depositing ballot cards in the "aye" or "no" boxes. The two bells will be repeated five minutes after the first ring to give Members a second notice of the vote in progress.

Two bells, a brief pause, followed by two bells indicates a yea and nay vote taken under the provisions of Rule XV, clause 1, by a call of the roll. The bells will be sounded again when the Clerk reaches the "R's" in the first call of the roll.

Three bells indicate a quorum call, either by means of the electronic system (Rule XV, clauses 2 and 5) or by means of tellers (Rule XV, clause 2(b)). The bells will be repeated five minutes after the first ring to give Members a second notice of the quorum call in progress.

Four bells indicate an adjournment of the House.

Five bells indicate a recess of the House.

Six bells indicate a civil defense warning.

Parliamentarian's Note: The legislative call system was designed to alert Members to certain occurrences on the floor of the House. More recently, Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill, of Massachusetts, has directed that the bells and lights comprising the system be utilized as follows (125 CONG. REC. —, 96th Cong. 1st Sess., Jan. 23, 1979):

Tellers—one ring and one light on left.

Recorded vote, yeas and nays, or automatic rollcall vote taken either by electronic system or by use of tellers with ballot cards—two bells and two lights on left indicate a vote in House or in Committee of the Whole by which Members are recorded by name. Bells are repeated five minutes after the first ring.

Recorded vote, yeas and nays, or automatic rollcall electronic vote on recommitment to be immediately followed by possible five-minute vote on final passage (cl. 5, Rule XV)—two bells rung at beginning of motion to recommit, followed by five bells, indicate that Chair will order five-minute vote if recorded vote, yeas and nays or automatic vote is ordered immediately thereafter on final passage or adoption. Two bells repeated five minutes after first ring.

Recorded vote, yeas and nays, or automatic rollcall by call of the roll—two bells, followed by a brief pause, then two bells indicate such a vote taken under the provisions of Rule XV, clause 1, by a call of the roll in the House. The bells are repeated when the Clerk reaches the "R's" in the first call of the roll.

Regular quorum call—three bells and three lights on left indicate a quorum call either in the House or in Committee of the Whole by electronic system or by clerks. The bells are repeated five minutes after the first ring. Where quorum call is by call of the roll, three bells followed by a brief pause, then three more bells, with the process repeated when the Clerk reaches the "R's" in the first call of the roll, are utilized.

Regular quorum call in Committee of the Whole, which will possibly be immediately followed by five-minute electronic recorded vote (cl. 2, Rule XXIII)—three bells rung at beginning of quorum call, followed by five bells, indicate that Chair will order five-minute vote if recorded vote is ordered on pending question. Three bells repeated five minutes after first ring.

Notice or short quorum call in Committee of the Whole—one long bell followed by three regular bells, and three lights on left, indicate that the Chair has exercised his discretion under cl. 2, Rule XXIII and will vacate proceedings when a quorum of the Committee appears. Bells are repeated every five minutes unless (a) the call is vacated by ringing of one long bell and extinguishing of three lights, or (b) the call is converted into a regular quorum call and three regular bells are rung.

Adjournment—four bells and four lights on left.

Any five-minute vote—five bells and five lights on left.

Postponed votes on (a) motions to suspend the rules (cl. 3, Rule XXVII);

(b) on "clustered" rules from Rules Committee (cl. 4(e), Rule XI); or (c) on "clustered" final votes on bills, resolutions or conference reports (cl. 5(b), Rule I)—two bells, followed by five bells, indicate start of fifteen-minute vote on first postponed question in each such series. Two bells repeated five minutes after first ring. Five bells on all subsequent five-minute votes in each series on which Speaker has reduced vote time.

Recess of the House six bells and six lights on left.

Civil Defense Warning—twelve bells, sounded at two-second intervals, with six lights illuminated.

Interpretation of "Vacating Proceedings" Under Rule XV Clause 4

§ 2.22 Where a quorum has failed to develop on an automatic roll call under Rule XV clause 4,<sup>(3)</sup> and the House has adjourned, the provision in the rule that proceedings be "vacated" has been construed to mean the voiding of the proceedings incident to such call, and not to mean deletion of the proceedings from the Record and the Journal.

On Dec. 23, 1932,<sup>(4)</sup> and Dec. 27, 1932,<sup>(5)</sup> the interpretation of the word “vacate” Rule XV clause 4, and the effect of vacating proceedings for purposes of the Journal and Record were discussed.

The Journal of the proceedings of yesterday was read.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(6)</sup> Without objection, the Journal will stand approved.

MR. [CARL E.] MAPES [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I would like to ask the Speaker if the Journal shows a record of the roll call on the motion to recommit when the point of no quorum was developed immediately before the adjournment of the House yesterday. The Record does not.

THE SPEAKER: The Journal does not show the roll call on the motion to recommit.

MR. MAPES: Then, Mr. Speaker, I desire to call the Speaker's attention and the attention of the House to the Journal and the Record and to ask for a correction of both.

Mr. Speaker, in this connection, I desire to say that in looking over the Record this morning I saw that the roll call was not in the Record, and I assumed that its omission was merely an oversight. .

MR. [WILLIAM B.] BANKHEAD [of Alabama]: I did not fully understand the gentleman's request. Does the gentleman propose to ask the Speaker to have the Journal corrected?

MR. MAPES: Yes; the Journal and the Record. As I was saying, when I noticed the omission of the roll call in the Record, I assumed the omission was an oversight, but a short time ago I took occasion to call the Parliamentarian and was assured by him that its omission was not an oversight. . . .

I am told by the Parliamentarian that the basis for the omission is contained in the last sentence of Rule XV, subsection 4, which says that when a situation is developed such as was developed yesterday that all proceedings under this section shall be vacated. I will read the entire sentence:

At any time after the roll call has been completed, the Speaker may entertain a motion to adjourn, if seconded by a majority of those present, to be ascertained by actual count by the Speaker; and if the House adjourns, all proceedings under this section shall be vacated,

What the proper construction of the last clause in that sentence is may be open to some argument, but to me it is a violent construction of it to construe it to mean that an actual roll call in the House of Representatives shall not be recorded in the Journal. . . .

MR. BANKHEAD: Mr. Speaker, I would like to be heard briefly on the proposition. As the gentleman from Michigan has well said, this might be a matter of considerable importance because of the dignity of the Journal as showing the historical proceedings of the House of Representatives.

The gentleman from Michigan has well pointed out that the Constitution does provide that—

The House shall keep a Journal of its proceedings and from time to time publish the same except such parts as may in their judgment require secrecy.

But that provision of the Constitution does not directly or by implication go to the extent of saying that the

6. John N. Garner (Tex.).

House has not the right to control the interpretation and say what entries in the Journal, shall be made. The Manual, section 71, says:

The House controls its Journal and may decide what are proceedings, to the extent of omitting things actually done or recording things not done.

The rule that the gentleman from Michigan referred to a few minutes ago is not susceptible of any ambiguous construction. It is plain, simple, direct, and is mandatory in its provisions. An automatic roll call was had, a motion to adjourn, seconded by a majority of those present by actual count by the Speaker, and up to that point the requirements of the rule were actually complied with in all details; but the rule goes further, and this is the section which governs the proper construction of the situation by the Speaker:

And if the House adjourn—

Which it did do under the preceding sections—

all proceedings under this section shall be vacated. . . .

THE SPEAKER: The Chair is ready to make a statement, if not a ruling. During the last Congress the late Speaker Longworth, in a conversation with me, paid the Parliamentarian a very high compliment as to his philosophy and accuracy in trying to maintain the integrity of the rules of the House of Representatives. The result was that when I became Speaker I continued his services, and I have found him to be very capable.

This rule we are considering may be a bad rule; and if we were considering it originally, I am not certain that I would support it, but that it is a part of the rules of the House of Representatives there can be no question.

The rule not only says that the proceedings shall all be vacated but is followed by other matter. The rule was adopted in 1896. It applies only to votes where a quorum is required; that is, the rule would vacate a vote if a quorum failed and the House adjourned. The rule, of course, does not apply to a motion to adjourn, since it does not require a quorum to agree to that motion. Now, to make the illustration: If the motion yesterday had been to adjourn, and no quorum developed on that motion, the vote would have appeared in the Journal; but it was not a motion to adjourn, it was a motion where a quorum was required, to wit, a motion to recommit the bill to the committee with instructions to report it back forthwith.

There was no legal action on that motion yesterday, and it seems to the Chair that under the circumstances the proceedings were void by reason of this language of the rule:

If the House adjourns, all proceedings under this section shall be vacated.

The Chair does not know what this language can mean unless it means that where a quorum failed on an automatic roll call and the House adjourned the entire proceedings relating to the call shall be vacated. What can it possibly mean other than to vacate the proceedings? And that, of course, includes the roll call.

The gentleman from Alabama called attention to the definition of "vacate" found in Webster's Dictionary. The Parliamentarian calls the Chair's attention to the definition appearing in Bouvier's Law Dictionary, which is:

To render null and void; to vacate an entry which has been made on a record.

That is exactly what was done in this case.

The Chair repeats again, this may be a bad rule, and its philosophy may be wrong, but it is a rule of the House, and that the Parliamentarian has complied with the rules of the House there is no doubt in the Speaker's mind.

The Speaker wants it understood that he is not wedded to this conclusion, and it is a matter for the House to determine itself what construction it will place in this particular rule. The Chair has no pride in it whatever; and if it is the wish of the House to allow it to go over until next Tuesday so we can look into it and philosophize about it, the Chair would not be opposed to such action.

MR. [BERTRAND H.] SNELL [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. SNELL: If the Speaker says that the motion will be in order on next Tuesday, I am perfectly willing to give him such time to look into the matter further. I think it is important that this question should be decided right for all time, because it is very important in so far as the proceedings of the House are concerned.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will recognize the gentleman from New York to make the motion now, if he desires to make it.

MR. SNELL: Mr. Speaker, perhaps it would be a good idea for me to make the motion and have it pending. Would that be proper?

MR. BANKHEAD: Will the gentleman yield?

MR. SNELL: Yes.

MR. BANKHEAD: The question arises, I respectfully suggest, whether it would be in order to entertain that motion. In the absence of a quorum, officially shown on the record, there is a constitutional inhibition against any proceedings. I have no objection myself, of course.

MR. SNELL: This is a new legislative day, and there has been no development of a quorum and no one has raised the issue.

MR. BANKHEAD: I am in entire accord with the suggestion of the gentleman, but I do have serious doubt whether we could properly consider it in the absence of a quorum.

MR. SNELL: If the Chair is willing, I will make the motion with the understanding it will not be taken up to-day but will be pending.

THE SPEAKER: Let the Chair point out what the parliamentary situation would be next Tuesday. We have one motion pending at the present time as the unfinished business, to wit, the motion to recommit. If the gentleman makes a motion to correct the Journal, that would be the first business on Tuesday, as the Chair would interpret it.

MR. SNELL: I would expect so.

THE SPEAKER: Therefore, there would be pending on next Tuesday two propositions, one following the other: First, the approval of the Journal of yesterday's proceedings, and second, the motion to recommit the bill to the committee with instructions to report it back forthwith.

Let the Chair suggest to the gentleman from New York that we can adjourn, if the House desires, at the present time, and the Chair will recognize the gentleman from New York on next Tuesday to move to correct the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

ADJOURNMENT

MR. [HENRY T.] RAINEY [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; accordingly (at 12 o'clock and 42 minutes p.m.) the House adjourned to meet, in accordance with its previous order, on Tuesday, December 27, 1932, at 12 o'clock noon.

On Dec. 27, 1932,<sup>(7)</sup> the following occurred immediately after the prayer:

CORRECTION OF THE JOURNAL OF THURSDAY, DECEMBER 22

MR. SNELL: Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to correct the Journal of Thursday, December 22, and also the permanent Record of that same day by inserting in the same a record of the proceedings on a roll call on the motion to recommit made by the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. De Priest] in connection with the Interior Department appropriation bill.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from New York asks unanimous consent that the Journal and the permanent Record of last Thursday's proceedings be corrected so as to include the roll call on the motion to recommit the Interior Department appropriation bill.

7. 76 CONG. REC. 986, 987, 72d Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. SNELL: And pending that I would like to make a brief statement. I want to say that I have found an exact precedent, entirely on all fours with the situation which arose in the House last Thursday.

These proceedings took place under another distinguished Democratic Speaker, the Hon. Champ Clark, and the Hon. Claude Kitchin as majority leader, and show that we were correct in the position that we took on this side of the House last Friday. Therefore I think they ought to go in the Record at this time in order to clear up any situation of a like nature that may arise in the future.

This situation arose on February 3, 1919. The gentleman from Rhode Island, Mr. O'Shaunessy, made a motion to suspend the rules and pass a bill that had to do with the salaries of the Federal judges in Rhode Island. After the motion and some debate I will read from the Record:

THE SPEAKER: The question is on suspending the rules and passing the bill.

The question was taken.

THE SPEAKER: In the opinion of the Chair two-thirds—

MR. WALSH: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that there is no quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Massachusetts makes the point that there is no quorum present, and evidently there is not. The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify the absentees, and the Clerk will call the roll. The question is on suspending the rules and passing the bill.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 113, nays 96, answered "present" 4, not voting 216.

Then the names of those voting "yea," those voting "nay," and those not voting appear in the Record.

MR. KITCHIN: I move that the House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to and the House adjourned.

Now, that is exactly on all fours with the situation in the House last week. I may say also that the Journal is the same as the Record, except that the names of the absentees are not recorded in the Journal. I think, Mr. Speaker, it is proper that this request should be granted, and I understand that my request is acquiesced in by the majority leader.

MR. RAINEY: Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I think the Speaker's interpretation of the rule is absolutely correct. If the rule is not plain enough to carry out the suggestions of the Speaker, I think it ought to be made so. The rule may need some clarifying in the next Congress. I see no objection to publishing these names. I hope there will be no objection to the request of the gentleman from New York.

THE SPEAKER: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York [Mr. Snell]?

There was no objection.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair asks unanimous consent of the House that the Speaker be permitted to extend his remarks concerning this question. Is there objection?

There was no objection.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair in ruling on this question on Friday last stated his views relative to the construction to be placed on the provisions of clause 4 of Rule XV. The Chair has since that time given additional thought to the question raised by the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. Mapes]. It seems to the Chair that the language embodied in the last sentence of clause 4 of Rule XV, to wit, "If the House adjourns, all proceedings under this section shall be vacated," should not be disregarded. The present occupant of the chair endeavored to ascertain what that language could mean with respect to the rule now under consideration. The Chair believes that without the language, "And if the House adjourns, all proceedings under this section shall be vacated," the vote would have been void if a quorum failed on the vote. So that if the purpose of the language was merely to void the vote it was unnecessary. The Chair can not conceive of superfluous language being placed in any rule, and the Chair in this instance certainly does not think the above-quoted language is superfluous. Now, if the Chair is correct so far in his interpretation of the rule, the Chair will pursue the subject further. If the language is not necessary in order to void the vote where a quorum fails, then it must mean that the record of the proceedings is vacated and made of no effect, and consequently has no place in the Journal. In that connection the Chair may state that it has been the uniform practice in the past not to include in the Journal the proceedings whereby a certain action of the House has been vacated when the request to vacate occurs on the same day that the action sought to be vacated occurred. For instance, where the House passes a bill on a certain day and later on during the same day a Member requests that the proceedings whereby the bill has been engrossed, read a third time, and passed be vacated in order that an amendment may be placed in the bill, and such request is granted and the amendment is then adopted, the bill engrossed and read a third time and passed, the Journal does not show the proceedings whereby the original action was vacated, but merely shows that the bill was considered, amended, engrossed, read a third time, and passed. In other words, the Journal shows the final action and not the incidental things that occur in consummating that action. The Chair thinks that that is an analogous case and that the same reasoning should apply in the question that has arisen.

The Chair in making this statement does not want it interpreted as meaning that he is in sympathy with the legal construction he has placed on the rule. The present occupant of the chair has always been in favor of giving the widest publicity to all the proceedings of government. The Chair wants it distinctly understood that he has ruled only on the legal aspects of the question. The Chair is not in sympathy with any rule that tends to make secret any governmental proceedings, but the Chair can not permit the merits of a particular rule to influence him in the legal construction of it. The Chair makes this statement merely to explain the reasons governing the Chair in the making of his ruling on last Friday. The House by agreeing to the request of the gentleman from New York [Mr. Snell] has indicated that its interpretation of the rule is such as to permit the publication of the proceedings in the Journal as well as the Record.

THE JOURNAL

THE SPEAKER: Without objection, the Journal of the proceedings of Thursday, December 22, 1932, will be approved.

There was no objection.

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will read the Journal of Friday, December 23, 1932.

MR. MAPES: Mr. Speaker, before that is done may I rise to a parliamentary inquiry?

THE SPEAKER: Certainly. The gentleman will state it.

MR. MAPES: In connection with the proceedings relating to the correction of Thursday's Journal. Inasmuch as the unanimous consent of the minority leader has been agreed to, the Record of last Thursday will be corrected accordingly, but in view of the statement of the majority leader, it seems to me that the situation is left in a somewhat indefinite condition so far as the interpretation of the rule is concerned, and what the duty of the Journal clerk may be in similar cases arising in the future. I think it would be interesting to have the decision of the Speaker in respect to that. Suppose the same situation should develop to-day, for instance.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair would carry out the will of the House as expressed to-day in the proceedings.

MR. MAPES: That is, that the full proceedings would be incorporated in the Journal?

THE SPEAKER: Yes. If the same question arises again, the names will be included in the Journal and the Record.

On Oct. 18, 1972,<sup>(9)</sup> during consideration of a conference report on S. 3939, the Federal-aid Highway Act, and the day on which the House adjourned sine die, Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, responded to a unanimous-consent request to vacate a call of the roll.

MR. [JOHN T.] MYERS [of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will count. One hundred twelve Members are present, not a quorum.

MR. [THOMAS P.] O'NEILL Jr. [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

MR. [WILBUR D.] MILLS of Arkansas: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MILLS of Arkansas: Mr. Speaker, will the Speaker entertain a unanimous-consent request that the call of the roll be vacated.

THE SPEAKER: The Speaker does not have that authority under the Constitution.

If there are any Members in the Chamber who have not answered and the Speaker can identify them, he will have them recorded. The Speaker does have that authority, but he does not know of any such Members.

Automatic Call After Vacating Passage of Bill

§ 2.24 The House, having passed a bill by voice vote, vacated the proceedings by unanimous consent; the question on passage was again put and a quorum not being present, a roll call was automatic under Rule XV clause 4.<sup>(10)</sup>

On Oct. 5, 1962,<sup>(11)</sup> during consideration of S. 1447, to amend the Teachers' Salary Act for the District of Columbia, an automatic roll call was held.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(12)</sup> The question is on the committee amendment.

The committee amendment was agreed to.

The bill was ordered to be read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table. . . .

MR. [CHARLES A.] HALLECK [of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire whether or not there are further conference reports or unanimous-consent requests to be considered this evening.

MR. [JAMES G.] FULTON [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The bill has already passed.

MR. FULTON: Mr. Speaker, I was on my feet.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that if a Member is on his feet, that is insufficient. The gentleman did not address the Chair.

MR. FULTON: I was saying "Mr. Speaker," and was not heard. I was on my feet.

THE SPEAKER: If the gentleman asks unanimous consent to vacate the action, the Chair will entertain a request. But the passage of the bill had been completed.

MR. FULTON: Mr. Speaker, I was on my feet addressing the Speaker, but I was not recognized.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair does not know what is in the gentleman's mind when the gentleman is on his feet.

MR. FULTON: I was saying "Mr. Speaker," right straight through. I am sure it is the custom of the House to be recognized when a point of order is being made.

THE SPEAKER: Without objection, the action whereby the bill was passed will be vacated.

There was no objection.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the passage of the bill.

The question was taken, and the Speaker announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

MR. FULTON: Mr. Speaker—

THE SPEAKER: For what purpose does the gentleman from Pennsylvania rise?

MR. FULTON: I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will count. Does the gentleman insist upon his point of order?

MR. FULTON: Yes, Mr. Speaker.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll

On July 16, 1965,<sup>(13)</sup> the authority of the Presiding Officer was discussed.

MR. [SPESSARD L.] HOLLAND [of Florida]: Mr. President, will the Senator yield?

MR. [WAYNE L.] MORSE [of Oregon]: I yield.

MR. HOLLAND: Is it not a fact, although not frequently practiced, that the Presiding Officer of the Senate, in the event of an emergency or for any reason satisfactory to himself, can suggest the absence of a quorum?

MR. MORSE: Yes; that is another procedure that may be followed. I am not critical because it was not followed. I am only pointing out, for precedential reference, that either procedure would have prevented the situation that developed.

MR. HOLLAND: Mr. President, will the Senator yield further?

MR. MORSE: I yield to the Senator from Florida.

MR. HOLLAND: I am not making my comments in criticism of anyone. I was in the Senate a long time before I knew that a Senator when acting as the Presiding Officer of the Senate could suggest the absence of a quorum. I wanted to bring that point into the debate so that it will be clearly apparent for all Senators who have the onerous duty of presiding at embarrassing times to themselves. That is a well settled rule, as I understand, and if the Presiding Officer and the Senator from Oregon will yield, I should like to address a parliamentary inquiry to have that point incorporated in the Record.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER:<sup>(14)</sup> The Senator from Florida is correct.

MR. HOLLAND: Will the Chair restate that ruling?

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The Presiding Officer, as a Member of the Senate, may suggest the absence of a quorum at an appropriate time.

MR. HOLLAND: I thank the Chair.

MR. [WILLIAM M.] COLMER [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question on the resolution [H. Res. 406, providing for consideration of H.R. 8157, a bill to establish a national land policy and provide homesteads free of debt for actual farm families].

The previous question was ordered.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The question was taken; and there were on a division (demanded by Mr. Colmer)—ayes 47, noes 123.

MR. [KNUTE] HILL [of Washington]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground there is not a quorum present.

The yeas and nays were refused.

So the resolution was rejected.

§ 3.5 In counting for a quorum in Committee of the Whole, the Chair counts all Members visible in the Chamber, even though they may be in the process of leaving the Chamber.

On Apr. 25, 1963,<sup>(15)</sup> during consideration in the Committee of the Whole of H.R. 4997, a bill to extend the Feed Grains Act, the Chair, James C. Wright, Jr., of Texas, counted all Members who were visible.

MR. [ROBERT T.] STAFFORD [of Vermont]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

MR. [PAUL C.] JONES of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Will the Chair state whether the Chair is counting those Republicans who went back in the cloakroom?

15. 109 CONG. REC. 7116, 88th Cong. 1st Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will respond to the inquiry, which is not a parliamentary inquiry, that he is counting Members as they leave the Chamber.

17. John W. McCormack (Mass.).

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair has made the count and the Chair's count will not be disputed.

MR. MASON: Mr. Speaker, I am not questioning the count. I am just asking whether it is proper and in order to count those behind the railing.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: In response to the gentleman's inquiry, the Chair may and the present occupant of the chair will always, when he is in the chair, count any Member who is visible and in the Chamber.

§ 3.7 When a quorum does not appear, the Speaker may order the Clerk to call his name and cast a vote to make a quorum.

On occasion, after waiting for a quorum to appear, the Speaker has cast his vote to make a quorum.

For example, on Oct. 20, 1966,<sup>(18)</sup> during an automatic roll call while Conference Report No. 2327 on H.R. 13103, the Foreign Investors Tax Act of 1966, was being considered, the Speaker, John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, voted to make a quorum.<sup>(19)</sup>

As an exercise of this authority, the Speaker, after observing the presence of two Members who had not been recorded on an automatic roll call being conducted under Rule XV clause 4, directed the Clerk to call their names, and, when one Member did not respond, directed the Clerk to record him "present" in order to establish a quorum and pass a joint resolution.

On Dec. 31, 1970,<sup>(2)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, observing Members on the floor who did not respond to the roll call, ordered the Clerk to call their names.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the passage of the joint resolution.

The question was taken; and the Speaker announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

MR. [SIDNEY R.] YATES [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair observes that the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. Kastenmeier) is present in the Chamber, and directs the Clerk to call his name.

MR. [ROBERT W.] KASTENMEIER: Mr. Speaker, I vote "nay."

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Wisconsin votes "nay."

The Chair observes the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. Conyers) is present in the Chamber, and directs the Clerk to call his name.

Does the gentleman desire to vote? Otherwise, the Clerk will record the gentleman as "present."

MR. YATES: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that the Chair is about to announce the vote.

One hundred and eighty Members voting in the affirmative, 37 Members in the negative, and one "present," and the Chair being present, making a quorum, the joint resolution is passed.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. CAVALCANTE: Under the rules of the House, are the cloakrooms a part of the Hall of the House?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair cannot count any Members that he cannot see.

The Chair will count. [After counting.] Evidently there is no quorum present.

§ 3.11 After announcing that there was one short of a quorum, the Speaker refused to count a Member who entered the Chamber after the announcement.

On Dec. 16, 1943,<sup>(5)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, refused to count a Member who entered the Chamber subsequent to announcement of the result of a roll call.

5. 89 CONG. REC. 10776, 78th Cong. 1st Sess.

The question was taken; and the Chair being in doubt, the House divided, and there were—ayes 131, noes 63.

MR. [CLARENCE] CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, I ask for the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were refused.

MR. CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present and object to the vote on that ground.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will count.

MR. CANNON of Missouri: On the announcement of the vote, it appeared that only 194 had voted—22 less than a quorum.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Missouri must understand that some Members in the House may not have voted. The Chair thinks he must count. [After counting.] Two hundred and fifteen Members are present, lacking one of being a quorum.

MR. [EARL R.] LEWIS [of Ohio]: Mr. Speaker, I came in while the Chair was announcing the result of the count.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair had announced that a quorum was not present. Gentlemen coming in after the announcement was made cannot be counted.

PERSONAL ANNOUNCEMENT

MR. [CARROLL D.] KEARNS [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Speaker, I was standing behind the rail eulogizing our great Speaker after Drew Pearson's article about him. I was here and qualify and vote "no" on the last vote [Roll No. 52].<sup>(7)</sup>

THE SPEAKER: The Chair regrets that the gentleman cannot be recorded after the vote has been announced. The gentleman can state for the Record that he would have voted "no."

§ 3.13 A Member failing to respond on a quorum call may not have himself recorded as present on that call if the House has already agreed to a motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call.

On Apr. 3, 1935,<sup>(8)</sup> the Speaker pro tempore, John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, made a ruling regarding a Member who arrived after the House had agreed to a motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Three hundred and forty-four Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

7. See 108 CONG. REC. 5432, 5433, 87th Cong. 2d Sess., for this roll call.

8. 79 CONG. REC. 4925, 74th Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. [EDWARD T.] TAYLOR of Colorado: Mr. Speaker, I move to dispense with further proceedings under the call.

The motion was agreed to.

The doors were opened.

MR. [JOHN J.] MCSWAIN [of South Carolina]: Mr. Speaker, I was present and did not hear my name called. I desire to have my name called and to answer "present."

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The request of the gentleman comes too late, but the Record will show that he is here. The gentleman from Texas is recognized for 1 hour.

Quorum Established on Teller Vote

§ 3.14 After the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole announced that a quorum was not present, a quorum was established on a teller vote rejecting a motion that the Committee rise.

On Feb. 28, 1945,<sup>(9)</sup> during consideration in Committee of the Whole of H.R. 2374, the first defense appropriation bill of 1945, a quorum was established on a teller vote.

MR. [FRANCIS H.] CASE of South Dakota: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(10)</sup> The Chair will count. [After counting.] Fifty-eight Members are present, not a quorum.

9. 91 CONG. REC. 1576, 1577, 79th Cong. 1st Sess.

10. John J. Sparkman (Ala.).

MR. [CLARENCE] CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Missouri.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Cannon of Missouri) there were—ayes 27, noes 52.

MR. CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Cannon of Missouri and Mr. Taber.

The Committee again divided; and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 57, noes 61.

So the motion was rejected.

THE CHAIRMAN: A quorum is present. The gentleman from New York is recognized.

Parliamentarian's Note: A quorum of the Committee of the Whole is not required to adopt a motion to rise but here was required on rejecting the motion, in order that the Committee could proceed with business.

Verification of Chair's Count by Tellers Not Permitted

§ 3.15 In recent practice, the Chair has refused to recognize a demand for tellers to verify his count of a quorum.

On May 20, 1949,<sup>(11)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 4591, providing

11. 95 CONG. REC. 6556, 81st Cong. 1st Sess.

for pay, allowances, and physical disability retirement for members of the armed forces, the Chair<sup>(12)</sup> refused to appoint tellers.

MR. [FRANK B.] KEEFE [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and five Members are present, a quorum.

MR. [CARL] VINSON [of Georgia]: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Georgia has demanded tellers. The gentleman from Wisconsin made the point of order that a quorum was not present. The Chair counted 105 Members present. At this time there is no question before the House on which tellers can be ordered.

MR. VINSON: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and fourteen Members are present, a quorum.

Corrections of Quorum Calls

§ 3.16 Where a quorum is established by a call of the roll, the omission of the name of a Member who was present and responded when he was called, can be corrected by unanimous consent of the House but not by an insertion in the Record.

12. Oren Harris (Ark.).

On June 28, 1966,<sup>(13)</sup> a Member, Lawrence H. Fountain, of North Carolina, extended his remarks to correct the Journal and Record.

(Mr. Fountain (at the request of Mr. Patten) was granted permission to extend his remarks at this point in the Record and to include extraneous matter.)

MR. FOUNTAIN: Mr. Speaker, the Record of yesterday's rollcall No. 153 has me recorded as being absent. I was present and so answered to my name. I ask unanimous consent that the Journal be so corrected.

I ask unanimous consent that the Congressional Record of June 27, 1966, be corrected, in that, on rollcall No. 153 I am recorded as absent. I was present and so answered to my name.

On June 29, 1966,<sup>(14)</sup> Mr. Fountain asked unanimous consent to correct the Journal and Record.

MR. FOUNTAIN: Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 153, a quorum call, on June 27, 1966, I am recorded as being absent. I was present in the Chamber and answered to my name. I ask unanimous consent that the Journal and permanent Record be corrected accordingly.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from North Carolina?

13. CONG. REC. (daily ed.), 89th Cong. 2d Sess. [The proceedings appear in the daily edition only, not in the permanent edition.]
14. CONG. REC. (daily ed.), 89th Cong. 2d Sess. [The proceedings appear in the daily edition only, not in the permanent edition.]

There was no objection.

Parliamentarian's Note: Insertion of remarks in the Record, by unanimous consent, reciting an error in a quorum call, does not constitute consent of the House to effect a change of the Record or Journal.

§ 3.17 The correction of a roll call, by unanimous consent, is "business" of the House.

On Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(15)</sup> Speaker pro tempore Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, determined that a correction of a roll call by unanimous consent constitutes "business" of the House.<sup>(1)</sup>

[MR. YATES: Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 379, which took place early this morning, a quorum call, I am recorded as absent. I was present and answered to my name. I ask unanimous consent that the permanent Record be corrected accordingly.]

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Illinois?

There was no objection.]

15. 114 CONG. REC. 30224, 90th Cong. 2d Sess.
1. Parliamentarian's Note: The request to correct the roll call (the bracketed excerpt) by a Member [Sidney R. Yates (Ill.)] appeared in the daily edition of the Record [CONG. REC. (daily ed.), 90th Cong. 2d Sess.] but does not appear in the permanent edition which carried the roll call as corrected.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

MR. [JOHN M.] ASHBROOK [of Ohio]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman from Ohio makes the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. [BROCK] ADAMS [of Washington]: A point of order, Mr. Speaker. There has been no intervening business since the rollcall on the resolution which indicated a quorum.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state that the gentleman is in error, since we have had a correction of a rollcall.

The gentleman from Ohio makes the point of order that a quorum is not present. Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [WILBUR D.] MILLS [of Arkansas]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

Chair's Responsibility to Count all Members

§ 3.18 Instance where the Speaker recounted the House where Members were missed on the first count. After the Speaker announced the absence of a quorum, he counted the House again, on the statement of a Member that more Members had entered the Chamber during the first count, thus establishing a quorum.

On May 23, 1939,<sup>(2)</sup> Speaker William B. Bankhead, of Alabama, recounted the House after being advised that a quorum was present.

MR. [CHARLES R.] CLASON [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order there is not a quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Massachusetts makes the point of order that there is no quorum present. The Chair will count. [After counting.] Two hundred and thirteen Members are present, not a quorum.

Mr. Clason and Mr. Woodrum of Virginia rose.

MR. CLASON: Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the point of order in view of the large number that are present.

THE SPEAKER: Under the circumstances, the Chair is not authorized to recognize the gentleman inasmuch as the Chair had already announced no quorum present. A constitutional question is raised.

MR. [CLIFTON A.] WOODRUM of Virginia: Mr. Speaker, five or six more came in over here.

THE SPEAKER: Were these gentlemen here present when the Chair was counting?

Were the gentlemen in the rear of the hall who are holding up their hands not present when the Chair counted a moment ago?

The Chair will count the present membership again. [After counting.] Two hundred and twenty-seven Members are present, a quorum.

2. 84 CONG. REC. 6004, 76th Cong. 1st Sess.

Senate Precedent

§ 3.19 To decide whether one-fifth of the Senators have seconded a demand for the yeas and nays, the Chair may assume that a quorum is present using as a basis for his determination the number who answered to their names on the last roll call.

On May 8, 1936,<sup>(3)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 12527, the Navy appropriation bill, the Presiding Officer, Kenneth D. McKellar, of Tennessee, ruled on a request for the yeas and nays.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The Senator from North Dakota asks for the yeas and nays on the adoption of the amendment.

The yeas and nays were not ordered.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The question is upon agreeing to the amendment.

MR. [ELMER A.] BENSON [of Minnesota] obtained the floor.

MR. [DAVID I.] WALSH [of Massachusetts]: Mr. President, what was the ruling on the request for the yeas and nays?

MR. [LYNN J.] FRAZIER [of North Dakota]: That is what I wish to know.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The ruling was that the yeas and nays were not ordered, as only five Members held up their hands.

MR. FRAZIER: That is more than one-fifth of those present.

MR. WALSH: I suggest that the request be resubmitted, and I am sure it will be granted.

MR. FRAZIER: I appeal from the ruling of the Chair, because five Members held up their hands, and I believe that is more than one-fifth of the number present.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: Of course, the Chair assumes that a quorum is present.

MR. [TOM T.] CONNALLY [of Texas]: Mr. President, a point of order.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The Senator will state it.

MR. CONNALLY: I submit that five is not one-fifth of those present, because presumptively there is a quorum present.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The Senator is correct about that.

MR. CONNALLY: Therefore, since 5 is not 20 percent of 49, the call of the yeas and nays is not in order.

MR. [CHARLES L.] McNARY [of Oregon]: Mr. President, no presumption whatsoever is indulged in a case of this kind.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The present occupant of the chair is advised by the parliamentarian that it is.

MR. McNARY: I disagree with the parliamentarian. That is not correct practice and it has never been followed. The number necessary to order the yeas and nays is one-fifth of those present, and it is the duty of the Chair to count the number present.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The Chair will state that the custom has been to go back to the last roll call. On the last roll call 69 Senators were present, and 5 is not one-fifth of 69; so the ruling of the Chair will stand.

3. 80 CONG. REC. 6901, 6902, 74th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. CONNALLY: On the point of order that there must be a demand by one-fifth of those present in order to secure a ye and nay vote, I desire to set down in the Record my own view, without speaking for anyone other than myself.

I state as a matter of fundamental parliamentary law, whether there is any rule on the question or not, that the presumption always exists that there is a quorum present in the Senate unless a point of no quorum is made and the Senate by having the roll call determines that there is not a quorum present. Therefore, when a demand is made for the yeas and nays, unless one fifth of the presumptive quorum present hold up their hands, the Chair is under no compulsion to order the roll called for a ye and nay vote.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The Chair has so held.

Parliamentarian's Note: In the House, the Speaker counts the House anew after counting those standing to demand the yeas and nays.

or present, the House on Oct. 13, 1972,<sup>(5)</sup> approved a privileged resolution from the Committee on Rules (H. Res. 1123) which amended Rules I, VIII, XV, and XXIII. The resolution provided for a 15-minute minimum procedure for a recording of quorum calls in the House and Committee of the Whole by electronic device at the discretion of the Chair; a "backup" electronic procedure for recorded teller votes; and nonelectronic quorum calls to be conducted by clerk tellers in lieu of calling the roll.

conducted by clerk-tellers where the Chair is unable to utilize the electronic device.

On Mar. 7, 1973,<sup>(7)</sup> Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, directed that a call of the House be conducted.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair would like to make an announcement.

The Chair has been advised that the electronic voting system is at the present time not operable.

Until further notice, therefore, all votes and quorum calls will be taken by the standby procedures which are provided in the rules. . . .

MR. [LESLIE C.] ARENDS [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [THOMAS P.] O'NEILL [Jr., of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall 379 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

By unanimous consent, further proceedings under the call were dispensed with.

Parliamentarian's Note: Rule XV clause 1,<sup>(8)</sup> authorizes the Chair to direct the alphabetical call of the roll on "every roll call" unless the Chair, in his discretion under clause 5 utilizes the electronic device, but clause 5,<sup>(9)</sup> distinguishes between "roll calls" and "quorum calls," and clause 2(b) permits "calls of the House" to be had by clerks where the electronic device is not utilized.

§ 4.2 Pursuant to Rule XV clauses 4 and 5,<sup>(10)</sup> the Speaker may, in his discretion, direct the Clerk to call the roll (in lieu of taking the vote by electronic device) where a quorum fails to vote on any question and objection is made for that reason.

On May 16, 1973,<sup>(1)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 5777, the Hobby Protection Act, Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma directed the Clerk to call the roll.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the passage of the bill.

The question was taken; and the Speaker announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

MR. [JOHN W.] WYDLER [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

The electronic voting device apparently is not operating properly.

The Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

§ 4.3 On a call of the House conducted by electronic device pursuant to Rule XV clause 5,<sup>(2)</sup> Members are permitted a minimum of 15 minutes to respond [and at the expiration of such time it is within the discretion of the Chair to allow additional time for Members to record their presence before announcing the result].

On June 6, 1973,<sup>(3)</sup> during discussion of impeachment powers of the House, Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, clarified the time limit for calling the roll by electronic device.

MR. [EARL F.] LANDGREBE [of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, this is a very important matter being discussed. I do not believe there is a quorum in the House. I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(4)</sup> The Chair will count.

Sixty Members being present in the Chamber, a quorum is not present.

MR. [JOHN J.] MCFALL [of California]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The call was taken by electronic device, and the following Members failed to respond: . . .

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, may we have the regular order?

THE SPEAKER: The regular order is the establishment of a quorum and the rule provides a minimum of 15 minutes for Members to respond. Clause 5 of rule XV states that Members have "not less than 15 minutes to have their presence recorded."

§ 4.4 Where a motion to adjourn intervenes during a call of the House being conducted by electronic device following the expiration of 15 minutes but prior to the announcement of the result of the call, the quorum call remains in progress upon rejection of the motion to adjourn.

On June 6, 1973,<sup>(5)</sup> during discussion of the power of impeachment in the House, Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, ordered continuation of a quorum call following defeat of a motion to adjourn.

MR. [JOHN J.] MCFALL [of California]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

5. 119 CONG. REC. 18402, 18403, 93d Cong. 1st Sess.

A call of the House was ordered.

The call was taken by electronic device, and the following Members failed to respond: . . .

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, may we have the regular order?

THE SPEAKER: The regular order is the establishment of a quorum and the rule provides a minimum of 15 minutes for Members to respond. Clause 5 of rule XV states that Members have "not less than 15 minutes to have their presence recorded."

MR. [JOE D.] WAGGONER [Jr., of Louisiana]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

MS. [BELLA] ABZUG [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 9, nays 143, present 1, not voting 279, as follows: . . .

So the motion to adjourn was rejected.

The result of the vote was amended as above recorded.

THE SPEAKER: The order of business is the establishment of a quorum. The House is still in the process of trying to establish a quorum, the motion to adjourn having been rejected. Are there further Members in the Chamber who desire to record their presence?

Parliamentarian's Note: Because the Speaker had not announced the result of the call of the House (Roll No. 191) at the time Mr. Waggoner offered the motion to adjourn, the Speaker announced that the call of the House was still open and in progress upon rejection of the adjournment motion, and that Members could record their presence although they had not been able to return to the floor during the 15-minute period. Mr. John J. Duncan, of Tennessee, contended the next day that the Speaker had no authority to entertain the motion to adjourn during the call of the House and prior to his announcement of the result of that call (citing 5 Hinds' Precedents §6053, to the effect that a motion to adjourn may not interrupt a call of the yeas and nays during the actual call of the roll). If this contention were valid, it would give to the Speaker unlimited discretion to keep a quorum call open indefinitely by refusing to announce the result (where a quorum had not been obtained) and thereby indefinitely refusing to entertain a motion to adjourn. See §8.19, infra, where a motion to adjourn was held in order after the conclusion of the second call of the roll and prior to announcement by the Chair of the result of the call.

§ 5. Securing Attendance; Arrests

The attendance of absent Members may be secured under Rule

XV clause 4,<sup>(6)</sup> which provides for an “automatic” vote by yeas and nays and for the arrest of absent Members by the Sergeant at Arms. Under this rule the Sergeant at Arms forthwith proceeds to bring in absent Members, whenever a quorum fails to vote, a quorum is not present, and objection is made for that cause. Each Member arrested is brought by the Sergeant at Arms before the House, discharged from arrest, and given an opportunity to vote; his vote is recorded.

Presence of Members may also be secured under Rule XV clause 2(a),<sup>(7)</sup> which, in the absence of a quorum, authorizes 15 Members by majority vote<sup>(8)</sup> to approve a motion to compel the attendance of absent Members and a majority of those present may then order

6. House Rules and Manual § 773 (1979).

7. House Rules and Manual § 768 (1979). Beginning with the 95th Congress, this clause must be read in conjunction with the new clause 6(e)(2) of this rule, which permits the Speaker to recognize for a motion for a call of the House at any time.

8. See annotation to Rule XV clause 2(a), House Rules and Manual §§ 768, 769 (1979); and 4 Hinds' Precedents § 2984, which provide that because the call of the House must be ordered by majority vote, a minority of 15 will not suffice.

officers appointed by the Sergeant at Arms to send for and arrest absentees for whom no excuse is made. Members whose attendance has been secured in this manner are detained until discharged on conditions determined by the House.

The Speaker<sup>(9)</sup> or Speaker pro tempore,<sup>(10)</sup> under authority of the order of the House, signs warrants for arrest of absent Members.

In General

§ 5.1 During a filibuster by roll calls in the House, the Speaker declined to recognize a Member for a motion that the Sergeant at Arms take whatever action necessary to keep a quorum present in the Chamber for the remainder of the day.

On Aug. 1, 1946,<sup>(11)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, declined to recognize a Member for a motion during the reading of a resolution relating to contempt proceedings against George Marshall.

MR. [WILLIAM C.] COLE of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

9. See Rule I clause 4, House Rules and Manual §§ 624, 626 (1979).

10. See § 5.12, infra.

11. 92 CONG. REC. 10639, 79th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. COLE of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, is it in order to make a motion that the Sergeant at Arms take whatever action is necessary to keep a quorum present in the House Chamber for the remainder of today, any House rules to the contrary notwithstanding? If it is, I would like to make that motion.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair would rather not recognize the gentleman for such motion at this time.

MR. COLE of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. COLE of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, when would that motion be in order?

THE SPEAKER: Well, the Chair would like to be the judge of that. Not now. The Clerk will continue reading.

Parliamentarian's Note: Under Rule XV clause 2(a), the House may determine conditions upon which arrested absentees and others may be discharged, but only while the call of the House is in process.

§ 5.2 Where a quorum call is ordered, the doors may be closed and the Sergeant at Arms called upon to notify absent Members.

On June 5, 1946,<sup>(12)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, responded to a parliamentary inquiry as to procedure during a call of the House.

MR. [Howard W.] SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were refused.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion for a call of the House. The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Rankin) there were—ayes 81, noes 13.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: A quorum is not required in this instance.

So the motion was agreed to. . . .

The House has ordered a call of the House. A roll call is in order, and the Clerk will call the roll.

MR. [EARL C.] MICHENER [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MICHENER: Is this the situation, that a quorum was not present when last reported; that the doors are locked and the Sergeant at Arms is out notifying absent Members?

THE SPEAKER: That is correct. The Clerk will call the roll.

§ 5.3 Where the House in the absence of a quorum and pursuant to motion had ordered "that those who are not present be sent for wherever they are found and returned here on the condition that they shall not be allowed to leave the Chamber until such time as the pending business before this Chamber on this legislative day shall have been completed," the Chair interpreted the motion as requiring the Sergeant at Arms to notify absentees but not as bestowing on him the duty or authority of arresting absentees and bringing them into the Chamber under custody. The Chair stated that the motion had been adopted by, and expressed the will of, the House, and, no timely point of order having been raised against the motion due to lack of a quorum, was binding on the Speaker and other Members.

On Oct. 9, 1968,<sup>(13)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, responded to a series of parliamentary inquiries relating to a motion to locate absent Members.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

13. 114 CONG. REC. 30212-14, 90th Cong. 2d Sess. Legislative day of Oct. 8, 1968.

MR. [BROCK] ADAMS [of Washington]: Mr. Speaker, as a part of the motion of a call of the House, I further move under rule II,<sup>(14)</sup> under which a call of the House is in order, that a motion be made for the majority here that those who are not present be sent for wherever they are found and returned here on the condition that they shall not be allowed to leave the Chamber until such time as the pending business before this Chamber on this legislative day shall have been completed.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Washington [Mr. Adams].

The motion was agreed to. . . .

MR. [ELFORD A.] CEDERBERG [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Michigan will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. CEDERBERG: Mr. Speaker, yesterday my wife underwent major surgery and she is in the hospital at the present time. I have been going back and forth to the hospital to see her. I have missed several quorum calls during this period of time.

Do I have to get unanimous consent from this body to return back to the hospital when I would probably be going back within the next hour or two?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state to the gentleman from Michigan that if the gentleman will consult with the Speaker, certainly, we are all sorry to 14. Parliamentarian's Note: The provisions referred to appear in Rule XV clause 2(a), House Rules and Manual § 768 (1979).

hear about the condition of the gentleman's dear wife and the Speaker will recognize that first things come first and that one belongs with his loved ones.

MR. CEDERBERG: I thank the Speaker.

MR. [L. MENDEL] RIVERS [of South Carolina]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from South Carolina will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. RIVERS: Mr. Speaker, we have taken the unusual step of sending for absent Members. Even though a quorum is present, my parliamentary inquiry is this: In construing the motion pursuant to the rules of the House, will the absent Members be merely notified or will they be sent for by a marshal or will they be placed under arrest or how will they be returned?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state to the gentleman from South Carolina that they will be notified by the Sergeant at Arms.

MR. RIVERS: Will they come in on their own or will someone in authority bring them in?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair has announced that they will be notified by the Sergeant at Arms. Certainly, there is no wording contained in the motion to bring about the attempted custody of any Member.

MR. [JAMES G.] FULTON of Pennsylvania: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Pennsylvania will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. FULTON of Pennsylvania: Mr. Speaker, in our Pennsylvania delegation we have one Member, Mr. John Saylor, who has leave of absence from this Chamber for 2 days and who is at the present time on board a naval ship.

Does this motion apply to a person with such a leave of absence?

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman is making a serious inquiry about Members away on important duty.

The Chair will state that the motion calls for the notification and the sending for Members. The Chair construes that as meaning to notify the Members to return. The Chair has already in response to another parliamentary inquiry propounded by the gentleman from South Carolina clearly stated that it does not call for bringing them back in custody.

MR. FULTON of Pennsylvania: One further parliamentary inquiry on the enforcement of the motion: Is it not within the full discretion of the Chair as to what methods and means shall be used to notify or to arrest or to bring in Members and that that full discretion still lies within the Chair? So, unless there is an order by the Chair as to the method, the motion simply represents a notification to the Members to return because insofar as I know the Chair has made no ruling as to the arrest or as to bringing the Members back in custody.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman is the only one who has used the word "arrest." The Chair used the word "custody." The Chair does not construe that that is a part of the motion, and the Chair has construed that motion to mean that it is the sense of the majority of the House that the Sergeant at Arms do come up with the Members that are not present and to do everything he can within the limitation of the motion to assure their presence.

Procedures Available When a Quorum Fails to Appear on a Call of the House or on Automatic Vote by Yeas and Nays

§ 5.4 If a quorum fails to develop on an automatic vote by yeas and nays under Rule XV clause 4<sup>(15)</sup> the House may decide to adjourn, or, in the absence of such motion, the Speaker may sign warrants for the Sergeant at Arms to bring in absentees.

On Oct. 18, 1966,<sup>(16)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, stated the procedures available when a quorum does not appear.

MR. [CHARLES L.] WELTNER [of Georgia]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. WELTNER: Mr. Speaker, in the event that the result of the vote is announced and it appears that less than a quorum, or less than 218 Members, have voted, and unanimous consent is not given to dispense with further proceedings under the call, am I correct in understanding that the Sergeant at Arms will then be under an obligation to produce the nonvoting Members?

15. See House Rules and Manual §773 (1979).

16. 111 CONG. REC. 27513, 89th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state, in response to the inquiry, that if a quorum is not present one of two alternatives remain; one, to adjourn the House, and the other, to instruct the Sergeant at Arms.

The Chair wants to state, frankly, the Chair would not instruct the Sergeant at Arms.

§ 5.5 Where a quorum fails to develop following a motion for a call of the House, the House has only two alternatives: a motion to adjourn or a motion to instruct the Sergeant at Arms to secure the attendance of absentees.

On Oct. 14, 1969,<sup>(17)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, answered inquiries regarding procedural alternatives available when a quorum fails to appear. Those proceedings are reported elsewhere in this chapter.<sup>(18)</sup>

On the legislative day of Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(20)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, answered an inquiry regarding a possible motion to arrest absentees.

MR. [ROMAN C.] PUCINSKI [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. PUCINSKI: Mr. Speaker, we have had, in the last 12 hours, 23 quorum calls. My parliamentary inquiry is this: In the event that a quorum does not respond on one of these quorum calls, is it then in order to make a motion to arrest the absent Members and bring them down here?

THE SPEAKER: Such a motion would be in order if a quorum is not present.

§ 5.7 The Speaker indicated that if a motion to adjourn made during a quorum call failed and a quorum failed to appear, a motion to instruct the Sergeant at Arms to bring in absentees would be in order.

On Oct. 14, 1969,<sup>(1)</sup> when less than a quorum had appeared, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, answered inquiries regarding the proper time to instruct the Sergeant at Arms to bring in absentees.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I would prefer not to make this motion at this time, but in view of the parliamentary situation, I move that the House do now adjourn.

MR. [SIDNEY R.] YATES [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

MR. GERALD R. FORD [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. GERALD R. FORD: Mr. Speaker, if the motion to adjourn does not prevail, and a quorum is not present what is the situation then?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that the House would continue to proceed under the call of the House to establish a quorum.

MR. GERALD R. FORD: Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. GERALD R. FORD: Mr. Speaker, does that entail another quorum call at that point?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that we would be continuing under the previous call, the call that was in existence prior to the motion to adjourn.

MR. YATES: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Speaker, would it be in order at that point to move that the Speaker instruct the Sergeant at Arms to bring in Members who are absent?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that if the House fails to adjourn, a motion to that effect would be in order.

§ 5.8 If a quorum fails to answer on a call of the House under Rule XV clause 2(a),<sup>(2)</sup>

2. See House Rules and Manual §768 (1979).

(1) the Sergeant at Arms may be directed by the Speaker to locate absentees and inform them that a quorum call is in progress or (2) a majority of those present [a minimum of 15 is required under the rule] and voting in the affirmative may order the Sergeant at Arms to compel the attendance of absentees.

On the legislative day of Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(3)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, stated procedures necessary to direct the Sergeant at Arms to locate absentees and compel attendance.

MR. [BROCK] ADAMS [of Washington]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Washington will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. ADAMS: Mr. Speaker, in the event a quorum is not present is it the situation under rule XV of the House that the first alternative that applies is that the Speaker of the House may sit during such period of time as the Sergeant at Arms shall search the premises in the nearby area on the request of the Speaker in order to provide a quorum? Is that the first situation that applies in the event a quorum is not present?

THE SPEAKER: The statement as generally made by the gentleman is correct.

3. 114 CONG. REC. 30210, 90th Cong. 2d Sess., Oct. 9, 1968 (Calendar Day).

MR. ADAMS: Now, Mr. Speaker, the second alternative is this: In the event that a quorum is not present after the efforts of the Speaker to obtain Members from the nearby areas and through whatever means he wishes to pursue while he is sitting in the chair and the call is proceeding that the next alternative then is a motion supported by 15 Members of the House to have a warrant issued for attendance in the House and after that warrant is issued and this motion is passed and the doors are locked and Members are brought to the floor, then under the instructions of the Speaker they may be detained on the floor throughout the quorum and remain present for the transaction of business? Is that the second alternative, Mr. Speaker?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair does not wish to take this matter into consideration in the nature of an alternative, but the Chair would state that such procedures are carried out requiring the presence of Members. Is that what the gentleman has in mind?

MR. ADAMS: Would it be in order at that time for a motion of that type to be made?

THE SPEAKER: That would depend upon the action of the House.

MR. ADAMS: I am asking, Mr. Speaker, if such a motion by 15 Members would be in order at that time.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair has difficulty in following the gentleman when he says "a motion by 15 Members."

MR. ADAMS: I refer The Speaker to part 2 of rule XV which reads as follows:

In the absence of a quorum, fifteen Members, including The Speaker, if there is one—

THE SPEAKER: There is one now.

MR. ADAMS: I appreciate that fact, Mr. Speaker, but in the event that you wished—shall be authorized to compel the attendance of absent Members, and in all calls of the House the doors shall be closed, the names of the Members shall be called by the Clerk, and the absentees noted; and those for whom no sufficient excuse is made may, by order of a majority of those present, be sent for and arrested, wherever they may be found, by officers to be appointed by the Sergeant-at-Arms for that purpose, and their attendance secured and retained; and the House shall determine upon what condition they shall be discharged.

Mr. Speaker, that is my inquiry in the event that this should continue and a quorum should not be present, if that is important.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that such action could only be taken by a majority of the Members present and voting.

The Chair will state further in reply to the inquiry of the gentleman from Washington that the gentleman has made reference to 15 Members, and that situation does not apply at this time.

MR. ADAMS: Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. ADAMS: In other words, Mr. Speaker, a motion then by a Member present to carry out this procedure would be sufficient if a quorum were not present, under the circumstances as they exist in the House?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that it would take a majority of the Members if there were only 15 present.

MR. ADAMS: If a motion is made in the body as it sits now, that motion could be made by any individual Member, and if a majority of those present in the Chamber were to vote in favor of that motion, then the procedure would start at that point?

That is my parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that has already been stated by the Chair, it requires a majority of the Members present if such a motion were to be made. It would require a majority of the Members present, and voting thereon.

Parliamentarian's Note: The Speaker misstated the requirement for 15 Members' ordering the attendance of absentees in the situation where only 15 Members were on the floor. The precedents indicate that there must be at least 15 affirmative votes to order the attendance of absentees. See 4 Hinds' Precedents §§ 2983, 2984.

§ 5.9 Under Rule XV clause 2(a),<sup>(4)</sup> a motion that the Sergeant at Arms procure the attendance of absentees is in order and unless directed by such a motion, the Sergeant at Arms has no authority to compel attendance.

On the legislative day of Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(5)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, stated procedures for procuring attendance of absent Members.

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall, 220 Members have answered to their names, a quorum. If there is no objection, further proceedings under the call will be dispensed with.

MR. [BROCK] ADAMS [of Washington]: Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, under the reservation of the right to object, I want to inquire whether, if objection is made to dispensing with the call, under rule XV, paragraph 2, the automatic effect of that is that the Members shall be called by the Clerk and the absentees noted, and those for whom no sufficient excuse is made may, by the order of the majority present, be sent for and arrested wherever they may be found?

I am inquiring as part of my reservation, whether or not a quorum may be present, if proceedings under the call are not dispensed with, that thereafter the Speaker has the power for those who are absent from the body tonight, to have them first contacted to be brought here and, if they do not appear, to have the Sergeant at Arms go and obtain them, without any further proceeding?

THE SPEAKER: . . . It would require a motion or resolution to be concurred in by a majority of the House.

Parliamentarian's Note: See 4 Hinds' Precedents §§2983, 2984. To compel the attendance of absentees under this rule, there must be 15 affirmative votes, and those voting to compel attendance must be in the majority. (Thus, a 15-14 vote, or a 15-0 vote, would be sufficient.)

§ 5.10 Although the Speaker possesses authority to issue a warrant of arrest for absent Members under an automatic roll call under Rule XV clause 4, he usually does not do so without action of the House during other proceedings incident to calls of the House under Rule XV clause 2(a).

On July 29, 1946,<sup>(6)</sup> in response to a parliamentary inquiry, following the failure of a quorum to vote on a yea and nay vote ordered under Rule XV clause 4, Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, made a ruling regarding issuance of arrest warrants.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Let us get this business straightened out. If this motion were voted down it would be the duty of the Speaker to issue writs of arrests for absent Members and have them brought to the floor of the House until every Member of the House was brought back or until further proceedings were dispensed with.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair could issue a warrant because this is an automatic roll call. Usually the Chair does not do that without action of the House specifying that it be done.<sup>(7)</sup>

§ 5.11 A motion for the arrest of absentees is in the form of an order to the Sergeant at Arms.

On May 14, 1930,<sup>(8)</sup> a Member, Percy E. Quin, of Mississippi, offered the following motion:

MR. QUIN: Mr. Speaker, I move that the Speaker instruct the Sergeant at Arms to bring in the absent Members.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(9)</sup> The gentleman from Mississippi offers a motion, which the Clerk will report:

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Quin presents the following motion:

Ordered, That the Sergeant at Arms take into custody and bring to ual §624 (1979)] provides that the Speaker "shall sign all . . . warrants. . . ." See 1 Hinds' Precedents §287 which holds that the Speaker has authority to issue a warrant of arrest only by order of the House. However, the order in that case involved the arrest of the Clerk of the House as distinguished from arrest of Members during an automatic call of the House. Under Rule XV clause 4 [see House Rules and Manual §773 (1979)] the House has adopted a standing rule ordering the Sergeant at Arms to bring in absent Members during the yeas and nays vote. (But to actually make an arrest under this rule the Sergeant at Arms must have in his possession a warrant signed by the Speaker.)

§ 5.12 The Speaker pro tempore, pursuant to a motion adopted by the House that the Sergeant at Arms take absent Members into custody, signs warrants for the arrest of absent Members.

On May 14, 1930,<sup>(10)</sup> the Speaker pro tempore, John Q. Tilson, of Connecticut, announced that he had signed warrants for the arrest of absent Members.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. [PERCY E.] QUIN [of Mississippi] presents the following motion:

Ordered, That the Sergeant at Arms take into custody . . . such Members as are absent without leave.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The question is on the motion of the gentleman from Mississippi.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Stafford) there were 78 yeas and 55 noes.

MR. [WILLIAM H.] STAFFORD [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Speaker, I demand the yeas and nays.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman from Wisconsin demands the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 122, nays 74, answered "present" 4, not voting 227, as follows . . .

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair announces the fact that he has signed the warrants to arrest the absent Members.

Procedure Available Following Refusal to Dispense With Further Proceedings

§ 5.13 Where a motion to dispense with further proceedings under a call for a quorum is rejected, the Members present remain in the Chamber until the Sergeant at Arms brings in enough Members to make a quorum or make the full membership.

On July 29, 1946,<sup>(11)</sup> a motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call was rejected.

Mr. Rankin and Mr. Marcantonio moved a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(12)</sup> On this roll call 240 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

If there is no objection, further proceedings under the call will be dispensed with.

MR. [FRANK E.] HOOK [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I object.

MR. [WILLIAM C.] COLE of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, I object.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, I move that further proceedings under the call be dispensed with. . . .

MR. COLE of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. COLE of Missouri: Should this motion be voted down and should further proceedings under the call be not dispensed with will the Chair please state the procedure to be followed then?

THE SPEAKER: We stay here until the Sergeant at Arms brings in enough Members to make a quorum or to make the full membership.

MR. [EARL C.] MICHENER [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MICHENER: Would it not be the fact that if this motion were voted down the House would find itself in a room that is supposed to be locked and the Sergeant-at-Arms would be presumed to be out notifying absentees?

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman is correct.

Parliamentarian's Note: The Sergeant at Arms would not have the authority to arrest Members unless ordered by a majority of those voting; but he has inherent authority to notify absentees that they are needed to make a quorum.

Procedure Available Following Refusal to Adjourn

§ 5.14 The failure of a quorum to respond on a roll call vote

(decided in the negative) on a motion to adjourn being conducted under Rule XV clause 4,<sup>(13)</sup> would require the Sergeant at Arms to arrest absent Members without further order of the House.

On Apr. 15, 1970,<sup>(14)</sup> the Speaker pro tempore, Charles M. Price, of Illinois, explained the procedure for arresting absent Members.

MR. [FLETCHER] THOMPSON of Georgia: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. THOMPSON of Georgia: Mr. Speaker, if there is no quorum present, and there is a negative vote, what is the action of the Chair?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state that the action of the Chair is to wait until a quorum appears.

MR. THOMPSON of Georgia: If no quorum appears, then what?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state that if a quorum does not appear, then the House operates under the automatic rule that they would bring the Members in.

MR. THOMPSON of Georgia: Is a motion in order to go out and arrest the Members and bring them in?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Under the rule, the Sergeant at Arms would bring the Members in.

Senate Precedents

The following precedents are carried as examples of Senate procedures in securing a quorum.

§ 5.15 The Senate directed its Sergeant at Arms to request attendance of absent Senators and, failing to obtain a quorum by this method, directed him to compel attendance of absentees.

On Nov. 14, 1942,<sup>(15)</sup> the Senate Sergeant at Arms was directed to compel the attendance of absent Senators.

THE VICE PRESIDENT:<sup>(16)</sup> The Clerk will call the roll.

The Chief Clerk called the roll, and the following Senators answered to their names: . . .

THE PRESIDING OFFICER:<sup>(17)</sup> Twenty-seven Senators having answered to their names, there is not a quorum present. The clerk will call the names of the absent Senators.

The Chief Clerk called the names of the absent Senators.

the Chamber, and answered to their names.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: Thirty-one Senators having answered to their names, there is not a quorum present.

MR. [ALBEN W.] BARKLEY [of Kentucky]: I move that the Sergeant at Arms be directed to request the attendance of absent Senators.

The motion was agreed to.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The Sergeant at Arms will execute the order of the Senate.

After some delay, Mr. George, Mr. Gerry, Mr. Willis, Mr. Bridges, Mr. Murdock, Mr. Danaher, Mr. Gurney, Mr. Maloney, Mr. Schwartz, Mr. Ball, Mr. Taft, Mr. Lucas, and Mr. O'Mahoney entered the Chamber and answered to their names.

MR. BARKLEY: Mr. President, under the previous motion made by me to direct the Sergeant at Arms to request the attendance of absent Senators, 44 Senators have appeared, 5 short of a quorum. I now move that the Sergeant at Arms be directed to compel the attendance of absent Senators.

The motion was agreed to.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The Sergeant at Arms will execute the order of the Senate.

On Nov. 14, 1942,<sup>(18)</sup> the Sergeant at Arms reported to the

MR. [ALBEN W.] BARKLEY [of Kentucky]: Mr. President, under the previous motion made by me to direct the Sergeant at Arms to request the attendance of absent Senators, 44 Senators have appeared, 5 short of a quorum. I now move that the Sergeant at Arms be directed to compel the attendance of absent Senators.

The motion was agreed to.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER [Joseph Rosier, of West Virginia]: The Sergeant at Arms will execute the order of the Senate. . . .

After some delay.

MR. BARKLEY: Mr. President, I ask that the Sergeant at Arms make a report to the Senate upon the effort he has made to compel the attendance of Senators.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER [Theodore F. Green, of Rhode Island]: The Sergeant at Arms will make his report.

THE SERGEANT AT ARMS (Chesley W. Jurney): Senator Aiken is out of Washington.

MR. [TOM T.] CONNALLY [of Texas]: A parliamentary inquiry.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The Senator will state it.

MR. CONNALLY: Under what rule is this kind of proceeding authorized? I do not remember such a thing ever happening.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: Does the Senator from Texas make objection?

MR. CONNALLY: I do.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The objection is overruled. The Sergeant at Arms will proceed.

MR. CONNALLY: That is a very efficient answer to a parliamentary inquiry. I am trying to ascertain the authority for the proceeding.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: It is authorized under rule V, paragraph 3. The Sergeant at Arms will proceed.

MR. CONNALLY: I understand there is ample precedent for ordering Senators brought into the Chamber, but it does not necessarily follow the Sergeant at Arms can be brought in and testify and make a speech. No one else can make a speech at this time, and why should the Sergeant at Arms be permitted to do so?

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: Under the rule, debate is out of order, and the Sergeant at Arms will proceed with his report.

THE SERGEANT AT ARMS: Senator Aiken is out of town.

Senator Austin is out of town. . . .

Senator Doxy is in Washington, but cannot be located either at his office or his residence. . . .

Senator Maybank is in Washington, but cannot be located either at his office or his residence. . . .

MR. BARKLEY: Mr. President, there seems to have taken place an exodus from the Senate equal to the exodus of the Children of Israel from Egypt; but there is a sufficient number of Senators in town to make a quorum. I therefore move that the Vice President be authorized and directed to issue warrants of arrest for absent Senators, and that the Sergeant at Arms be instructed to execute such warrants of arrest upon absent Senators.

MR. CONNALLY: Mr. President, will the Senator yield for a question?

MR. BARKLEY: I yield.

MR. CONNALLY: I wish to ask if the execution of the warrants would require the Sergeant at Arms to go to the home States of Senators.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The motion is not debatable.

MR. CONNALLY: I am propounding a parliamentary inquiry, and the Senator yielded. He is making a motion.

MR. BARKLEY: Of course, when the Sergeant at Arms produces a sufficient number to make a quorum, which is five—and there are more than that many Senators in Washington, as reported by the Sergeant at Arms—it is not expected that warrants of arrest will be sent to the home States of those who are absent.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: If the motion is so phrased as to exclude them, the warrants will not be sent to the home States; otherwise they would have to be.

MR. BARKLEY: The motion I made would include all absent Senators, but the practical application of it would be limited to those who are in the city.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The motion is limited to them?

MR. BARKLEY: I am willing to limit the motion to those who are reported to be in the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, for the day.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The question is on agreeing to the motion of the Senator from Kentucky.

The motion was agreed to.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The order of the Senate will be executed.

At 2 o'clock and 8 minutes p.m., Mr. Herring entered the Chamber and answered to his name.

At 2 o'clock and 10 minutes p.m. Mr. Bunker entered the Chamber and answered to his name.

MR. CONNALLY: Mr. President—

THE PRESIDING OFFICER [Joseph C. O'Mahoney, of Wyoming]: The Senator from Texas.

MR. CONNALLY: I rise to a question of privilege of the Senate.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The Chair is advised that a quorum of the Senate has not yet responded to the call of the roll. In that state of affairs, no debate is in order.

MR. CONNALLY: Mr. President, a further parliamentary inquiry. What the Chair said may be true, but I understand some things are being done, or are about to be done, in the name of the Senate, which the Senate has never authorized, and which pertain to the high privileges of the Senate. I understand that the Sergeant at Arms, under the direction of the majority leader, or someone here, is assuming the authority to deputize, or appoint as a deputy, one of the Senate custodians, with instructions to break down Senators' doors, enter their offices, and drag them out. The Senate has not ordered any such action as that, and I want to say to the Senate, or whoever authorized it, that if such person broke into my office, he would not be able to break into the office of anyone else for at least 24 hours. I simply want the Senate and the country to know the kind of tactics which are being forced upon Senators in this Chamber. It is a perfect outrage. It is in line with the unconstitutional, the unwarranted, and the absolutely outrageous action of a group in the Senate.

At 2 o'clock and 45 minutes p.m., Mr. Aiken entered the Chamber and answered to his name.

At 3 o'clock and 19 minutes p.m., Mr. Maybank entered the Chamber and answered to his name.

At 3 o'clock and 40 minutes p.m., Mr. McKellar entered the Chamber and answered to his name.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER [Berkeley L. Bunker, of Nevada]: Forty-nine Senators having answered to their names, a quorum is present.

Parliamentarian's Note: In other instances, the report of the Sergeant at Arms has been submitted to the Presiding Officer in writing and read to the Senate. See Senate Procedure (S. Doc. 97-2), Riddick, p. 180.

§ 6. Closing or Locking the Doors

The rules of the House formerly provided for closing the doors to the Chamber to prohibit Members from leaving until a quorum was reached. The current provision, Rule XV clause 2(b), as amended in 1972,<sup>(12)</sup> states that on a call of the House, "the doors shall not be closed except when so ordered by the Speaker." It is within the Chair's discretion whether the doors are to be closed.

An unusual illustration of the application of the rules relating to calls of the House occurred on Oct. 8, 1968. On that day, the House was scheduled to debate House Resolution 1315, to provide for consideration of Senate Joint Resolution 175, a measure suspending for the 1968 campaign the equal-time requirements of section 315 of the Communications Act of 1934, for nominees for the offices of President and Vice President.<sup>(13)</sup> The first roll call (No. 375) took place immediately after the prayer.<sup>(14)</sup> After completion of this roll call, a full reading of the Journal was demanded."<sup>(15)</sup> Following three and one-half hours of roll call votes and quorum calls which interrupted reading of the Journal, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, after it was indicated that the Chair had authority to order the Doorkeeper to close or lock the doors,<sup>(16)</sup> issued such an order during the progress of quorum calls.<sup>(17)</sup>

The reading of the Journal was interrupted by 33 calls of the House until about 5:00 a.m. on the calendar day of Oct. 9, 1968, when a majority of Members present ordered the doors to the Chamber locked and ordered "those who are not present to be sent for and returned here on the condition that they shall not be allowed to leave the Chamber until the pending business shall have been completed."<sup>(18)</sup> The authority for this motion and the condition that Members be confined to the Chamber rested on Rule XV clause 2(a),<sup>(1)</sup> which empowers 15 Members, including the Speaker:

. . . [T]o compel the attendance of absent Members; and those for whom no sufficient excuse is made may, by order of a majority of those present, be sent for and arrested . . . and their attendance secured and retained; and the House shall determine upon what condition they shall be discharged.

In General

§ 6.1 The Speaker stated that the Chair has authority to order the doors closed during a call of the House, but indicated that without further direction from the House he would not assume authority to lock the doors and keep Members from retiring from the Chamber.

On Aug. 1, 1946,<sup>(5)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, answered a parliamentary inquiry regarding the Chair's authority to order doors closed.

MR. [EARL C.] MICHENER [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, under the rules of the House, when the House finds itself without a quorum the Presiding Officer must direct the Sergeant at Arms to notify absentees, the Doorkeeper to close the doors, and the Clerk to call the roll. These two officials are elected by the House of Representatives, and among their other duties they are to assist the Speaker in enforcing the rules of the House.

In the present case, for instance, the Speaker determined that a quorum was not present and directed the Sergeant at Arms to notify the absentees. He directed the Doorkeeper to close the doors, the Clerk called the roll, and a quorum was found present. . . .

Pursuing my inquiry, Mr. Speaker, is not the Speaker clothed with adequate power and can he not direct that the rules be complied with and that all of the doors be actually locked during the roll call, and that all of the doors to the Chamber remain locked until the House votes to dispense with further proceedings under the call? . . .

THE SPEAKER: It is an interesting question, and it has been passed on many times. The Chair certainly has the authority to order the doors closed without further authority from the House. The Chair would not hold that without authority or direction of the House he should assume the authority of locking the doors and keeping the Members from retiring from the Chamber. There is a way that the Chair can be clothed with proper authority.

The Chair will count to determine whether there is a quorum present. [After counting.] Two hundred Members are present, not a quorum.

§ 6.2 Following over three hours of delay caused by quorum calls during the reading of the Journal, the Chair, in response to a parliamentary inquiry, stated that the rules of the House provided for locking the doors to the Chamber to prohibit Members from leaving until a quorum is procured.

On Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(6)</sup> the Speaker pro tempore, Wilbur D. Mills, of Arkansas, stated that the rules permit locking doors during a call of the House.

MR. [RAY J.] MADDEN [of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman from Indiana will state it.

MR. MADDEN: Mr. Speaker, owing to the fact that the chairman of the Rules Committee has asked me to take up House Resolution 1315, which provides an open rule and 1 hour of general debate for consideration of Senate Joint Resolution 175, to suspend for the 1968 campaign the equal-time requirements of section 315 of the Communications Act of 1934 for nominees for the offices of President and Vice President, my inquiry is this: I know, owing to the fact that we came in at 12 o'clock and it is now 3:30, the minority side has carried on a system of quorum calls which have taken 3½ hours of the time of Members. . . .

Mr. Speaker, I will state my parliamentary inquiry. Mr. Speaker, a number of State legislatures over the Nation have a rule—and I do not know whether this body has a similar rule—that where an organized agreement, we might say, on the part of the minority side—

MR. GERALD R. FORD [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, regular order.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman from Indiana will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. MADDEN: Mr. Speaker, since a group has decided to impede the progress of legislation, and a number of State legislatures have a rule to the effect I have indicated, I am inquiring as to whether a similar rule exists in the House of Representatives, that the guards can lock the doors and prevent Members from leaving during the progress of or after a quorum call has taken place? . . .

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Yes. The Chair advises the gentleman there is such a rule. And it may become necessary to enforce that rule. . . .

MR. MADDEN: Mr. Speaker, how long will it be before the time should come to enforce that rule?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: It depends upon the patience of the Chair.

The Clerk will continue the reading of the Journal.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

Parliamentarian's Note: While Rule XV clause 2,<sup>(7)</sup> stated that on a call of the House "the doors shall be closed," it was within the Chair's discretion whether the doors were merely closed [as was the custom] or actually locked.

§ 6.3 The Speaker ordered the doors to the Chamber closed and locked during a call of the House under Rule XV

clause 2,<sup>(8)</sup> and instructed the Doorkeeper to enforce the rule and let no Members leave the Hall.

On Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(9)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ordered the doors locked.

MR. [DONALD] RUMSFELD [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(10)</sup> The Chair will count.

One hundred sixty-seven Members are present, not a quorum.

MR. [JOHN H.] DENT [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: A parliamentary inquiry cannot be asked at this time.

MR. [JOHN J.] MCFALL [of California]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

THE SPEAKER: The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

MR. DENT: Mr. Speaker, a point of order, which relates to the call of the roll.

THE SPEAKER: The House will be in order. The Clerk will proceed with the call of the roll.

MR. DENT: Mr. Speaker, the point of order relates to the proper calling of the roll.

10. Wilbur D. Mills (Ark.).

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. DENT: The point of order is the doors were ordered closed, and the doors to the outside of the Chamber are open in the cloakrooms.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair has given instructions to close all doors and allow no Members out.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall 277 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

By unanimous consent, further proceedings under the call were dispensed with.

Parliamentarian's Note: The Chair personally instructed the Doorkeepers to lock all exits from the House Chamber and to prohibit Members from leaving during the call of the House. Doors leading from the Chamber to the Speaker's lobby, as well as those opening from the cloakrooms to the north corridor in the House wing were locked.

The Speaker ordered the doors locked during roll calls numbered 382 and 383. When this remedy did not prove effective because Members continued to leave the Chamber immediately after the calls were dispensed with, he did not continue to enforce the rule. See §§ 6.10, 6.11, infra, which relate to opening the doors.

§ 6.4 Because the Chair had no inherent authority to order

the doors to the Chamber locked except during a call of the House, he could not lock the doors to prevent Members from leaving after a motion to dispense with further proceedings under a call was agreed to.

On Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(11)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, made a ruling with respect to reopening doors after dispensation of further proceedings under the call.<sup>(12)</sup>

MR. [CRAIG] HOSMER [of California]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order having been made of no quorum, a quorum having been called, and a quorum having been found present, and the further proceedings under the call having been dispensed with, does that mean that the doors of the House are now unlocked?

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman is correct.

The Clerk will continue to read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

12. See § 6.5, infra, in which the doors remained locked until disposition of the "pending business," the reading and approval of the Journal. In that instance, as distinguished from this one, the doors were locked and kept locked by order of the House pursuant to motion rather than by order of the Speaker.

MR. [RAY J.] MADDEN [of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. MADDEN: Mr. Speaker, observing the commotion over on the minority side, I inquire would it be in order to again order that the doors be closed?

THE SPEAKER: At this point the answer is, No.

The Clerk will read.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

§ 6.5 The Speaker, in the absence of a quorum and pursuant to a motion from the floor, ordered the doors to the Chamber locked to prevent Members from leaving until completion of the pending business—reading and approval of the Journal.

On the legislative day of Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(13)</sup> the House ordered the doors locked.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

MR. [BROCK] ADAMS [of Washington]: Mr. Speaker, as a part of the motion of a call of the House, I further move under rule II,<sup>(14)</sup> under which a call of the House is in order, that a motion be made for the majority here that those who are not present be sent for wherever they are found and returned here on the condition that they shall not be allowed to leave the Chamber until such time as the pending business before this Chamber on this legislative day shall have been completed.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(15)</sup> The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Washington [Mr. Adams].

The motion was agreed to.

The Clerk proceeded to call the roll.

MR. [LESTER L.] WOLFF [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state to the gentleman from New York that there is a quorum call underway and it cannot be interfered with.

MR. WOLFF: Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order on the quorum call.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman makes a point of order?

MR. WOLFF: Yes, Mr. Speaker. The doors are not locked.

THE SPEAKER: The Sergeant at Arms will lock the doors, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall 222 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

MR. ALBERT: Mr. Speaker, I move that further proceedings under the call be dispensed with.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Oklahoma.

The motion was agreed to.

15. John W. McCormack (Mass.).

MR. [JAMES C.] CLEVELAND [of New Hampshire]: Mr. Speaker.

THE SPEAKER: Does the gentleman from New Hampshire desire to make a parliamentary inquiry?

MR. CLEVELAND: No, Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order. I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: A quorum has just been established.

MR. [WILLIAM E.] BROCK [3d, of Tennessee]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. BROCK: Am I to understand, if further proceedings under the call have been dispensed with, according to the last motion, it is correct that the doors of the House are now open?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair is awfully glad the gentleman made that parliamentary inquiry, because the Chair intended to read for the benefit of the Members the motion made by the gentleman from Washington [Mr. Adams]:

Mr. Speaker, as a part of the motion of a call of the House, I further move under rule II, under which a call of the House is in order, that a motion be made for the majority here that those who are not present be sent for wherever they are found and returned here on the condition that they shall not be allowed to leave the Chamber until such time as the pending business before this Chamber on this legislative day shall have been completed.

The motion was adopted; and in accordance with that motion no Member can leave the Chamber until the pending business before the House has been disposed of; and the pending business is the reading and approval of the Journal of the preceding session.

Parliamentarian's Note: Where a motion which might have been subject to a point of order (if a point of order had been raised in a timely fashion) is, in the absence of a point of order, agreed to, it represents the will of the House and governs its procedure until the House orders otherwise. See §6.7, infra, for detailed discussion.

The motion was adopted after 33 quorum calls had delayed pending business, the reading and approval of the Journal.

Effects of Closing or Locking the Doors

§ 6.6 Where the House in the absence of a quorum and pursuant to motion had ordered that "those who are not present be sent for wherever found and returned here on the condition that they shall not be allowed to leave the Chamber until the pending business shall have been completed" and then ordered a call of the House, the Speaker interpreted the motion as requiring the retention in the Chamber of all Members responding on the call—not merely the retention of those Members who were absent when the order was entered into.

On the legislative day of Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(16)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, to achieve a quorum most expeditiously interpreted a motion as not to allow Members to leave the Chamber.

MR. GERALD R. FORD [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. GERALD R. FORD: Let me repeat the language of the motion of the gentleman from Washington:

That a motion be made for the majority here that those who are not present be sent for wherever they are found and returned here on the condition that they shall not be allowed to leave the Chamber until such time as the pending business before this Chamber on this legislative day shall have been completed.

Mr. Speaker, I respectfully argue that in the language used by the gentleman from Washington in the motion that he made, he says very specifically and very categorically that those who are not here are the ones who must be kept in the Chamber.

MR. [JOHN D.] DINGELL [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I demand the regular order.

THE SPEAKER: The regular order is that the gentleman is making a parliamentary inquiry.

MR. GERALD R. FORD: And I am indicating, Mr. Speaker, in my parliamentary inquiry, that the doors to the Chamber shall not be closed to those Members who were here at the time of the call for the quorum.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair, in response to the parliamentary inquiry of the distinguished minority leader, feels, in construing the motion, that a part of the construction is the happenings of the last 10 or 12 or more hours and the intent and purpose of the gentleman from Washington in making the motion.

It seems to the Chair, in response to the parliamentary inquiry—and the Chair makes such a response—that the motion offered by the gentleman from Washington [Mr. Adams] meant that any Member who answered the last quorum call cannot leave the Chamber until the pending business has been disposed of; and the doors will be kept closed.

The Chair might observe in relation to any future points of order that a quorum is not present that apparently a quorum is present because the last one disclosed 222 Members and the Chair is justified in assuming that the 222 Members are still here. The doors will remain locked until the present business is disposed of.

Parliamentarian's Note: Where the doors to the Chamber were, by order of the House, locked until disposition of pending business, and a quorum had been established, the Chair stated that further points of no quorum would be considered dilatory until the business was completed and the doors opened.

§ 6.7 Where the House had ordered the doors to the Cham- ber locked pending the disposition of pending business, it was not in order by way of a point of personal privilege or by raising a question of the privilege of the House to collaterally attack such order, since it had been adopted by the House at a previous time without challenge.

On the legislative day of Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>17</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, refused to recognize a Member to collaterally raise an issue relating to restraint of Members under the guise of a question of privilege.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

MR. [ROBERT J.] DOLE [of Kansas]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will not entertain any more parliamentary inquiries at this particular time.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the further reading of the Journal be dispensed with.

THE SPEAKER: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Oklahoma?

MR. [ROBERT] TAFT [Jr., of Ohio]: Mr. Speaker, I object.

THE SPEAKER: Objection is heard.

The Clerk will continue with the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

17. 114 CONG. REC. 30214-16, 90th Cong. 2d Sess., Oct. 9, 1968 (Calendar Day).

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

MR. TAFT: Mr. Speaker—

THE SPEAKER: For what purpose does the gentleman from Ohio rise?

MR. TAFT: Mr. Speaker, I have a privileged motion.

MR. [SIDNEY R.] YATES [of Illinois]: A point of order, Mr. Speaker. That is not in order until the reading of the Journal has been completed.

THE SPEAKER: Will the gentleman from Ohio state his privileged motion?

MR. TAFT: Mr. Speaker, my motion is on a point of personal privilege.

THE SPEAKER: Will the gentleman from Ohio state whether it is a point of personal privilege or a privileged motion?

MR. TAFT: It is a privileged motion, and a motion of personal privilege.

Under rule IX<sup>(18)</sup> questions of personal privilege are privileged motions, ahead of the reading of the Journal.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will advise the gentleman that a question of personal privilege should be made later after the Journal has been disposed of.

If the gentleman has a matter of privilege of the House, that is an entirely different situation.

MR. TAFT: I believe, Mr. Speaker, this involves not only personal privilege as an individual, but also as a Member of the House and also the privileges of all Members of the House.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair does not recognize the gentleman at this time on a matter of personal privilege.

But the Chair will, after the pending matter, the reading of the Journal has been disposed of, recognize the gentleman if the gentleman seeks recognition.

18. See House Rules and Manual §661 (1979).

MR. TAFT: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state the parliamentary inquiry.

MR. TAFT: Mr. Speaker, is it not true in rule IX relating to questions of privilege it is stated that such questions shall have precedence over all other questions except motions to adjourn?

THE SPEAKER: Will the gentleman state the question of privilege.

MR. TAFT: Mr. Speaker, my motion is that I and all other Members in the Chamber who were here at the time of the last quorum call and answered "present" be permitted to leave the Chamber at their desire.

Mr. Speaker, this is a matter of privilege of the Members of the House because there is no right under the rules of the House or under the statutes, or the Constitution of the United States to interfere with the liberty of a Member to leave the House under these circumstances.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state in response to the parliamentary inquiry that the action of the House has deprived—has caused the doors to be closed and has deprived temporarily the privilege that the gentleman refers to. That has been done by the action of the House.

MR. TAFT: Mr. Speaker, I was recognized to make a privileged motion and it was not a matter of a parliamentary inquiry. I have made that motion and I ask that the Chair rule on the motion.

THE SPEAKER: What is the motion?

MR. TAFT: I request that I be given time to discuss the motion as a matter of privilege.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his motion.

MR. TAFT: Mr. Speaker, my motion is that I and all other Members present on the floor who answered "present" at the time of the last quorum call shall be permitted to leave the House freely at their own desire.

The basis of my motion is under the rules of the House and the Constitution and statutes of the United States there is no basis for restricting the freedom of Members who were here at the time there is a quorum call, regardless of the action of the House.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair does not recognize the gentleman for the purpose of making such a motion because the Chair has already clearly indicated the House has already taken action and it is within the power of the House to take the action that it did. Therefore, the Chair does not recognize the gentleman to make such a motion.

MR. GERALD R. FORD [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, it was my understanding that the gentleman from Ohio had been recognized for the purpose of offering the motion.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Michigan is well aware of the fact that the question of recognition rests with the Chair. The gentleman did not make a motion which was in order by reason of the action heretofore taken by the House.

The Clerk will continue to read the Journal.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

APPEAL FROM RULING OF CHAIR

MR. TAFT: Mr. Speaker, I appeal the ruling of the Chair.

MR. ALBERT: Mr. Speaker, I move that the appeal be laid on the table.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Oklahoma moves that the appeal be laid on the table.

The question was taken.

MR. TAFT: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 136, nays 102, answered “present” 1, not voting 192, as follows:

So the motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Parliamentarian's Note: While the Speaker declined to entertain the motion as a question of privilege based upon Mr. Taft's contention that under the Constitution and rules the freedom of Members who were present should not be restricted, the specific argument was not made that the order had been agreed to by less than a quorum or that it was directed only to the attendance of absentees and not to those present in the Chamber. This precedent does not, then, stand for the proposition that an improper order of the House or the manner of execution of an order of the House can never be collaterally attacked as a matter of the privilege of the House—it merely suggests that the proper contention was not made when the question of privilege was raised. Under the precedent in 5 Hinds' Precedents §5665, the motion to reconsider the vote whereby the order of the House had been agreed to would have been in order, although the execution of that order had begun. In that case, the order was to arrest absent Members.

§ 6.8 Where the doors were closed during a call of the House under Rule XV clause 2,<sup>(19)</sup> all Members were restrained from leaving the Chamber [unless special permission was granted by the Speaker or the House] notwithstanding the fact that official business of the House, such as their attendance at a meeting of a committee of conference, might normally have required their presence elsewhere.

On Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(20)</sup> the Speaker pro tempore, Wilbur D. Mills, of Arkansas, made a ruling with respect to restraining Members during a call of the House.

20. 114 CONG. REC. 30092, 30093, 90th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman from Minnesota will state it.

MR. MACGREGOR: Mr. Speaker, should the time come when the Chair is constrained to invoke the rule referred to by the gentleman from Indiana [Mr. Madden], would that mean those Members who are conferees and who are here from the committee of conference would be prevented from returning to that conference committee for the conference on the Senate side, so as to discharge our responsibilities with respect to the gun control legislation?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Yes. If the doors should be closed, they will remain closed until a quorum is present.

MR. MACGREGOR: And the Members would then be prevented from proceeding with the gun control conference.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Clerk will proceed with the further reading of the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

§ 6.9 Where the doors to the Chamber were locked by order of the House to prevent Members from leaving until the pending business was completed, employees of the House could still enter and exit from the Chamber in the performance of their duties.

On the legislative day of Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(21)</sup> the Speaker, John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, interpreted a motion to lock the doors to the Chamber as restraining only Members, not House employees.

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will continue with the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

MR. [FRANK] HORTON [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, I offer a preferential motion.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his preferential motion.

MR. HORTON: Mr. Speaker, this preferential motion is on Rule IX.<sup>(1)</sup> I understand the doors are closed to the House Chamber, and this affects the employees of the House and therefore the employees in the cloakrooms and the employees of the House are locked in with the rest of the Members.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I move that the doors be opened insofar as the employees of the House are concerned.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state to the gentleman that the employees have the right to leave, and to come back. Only the Members are affected by the motion.

On Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(3)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, made a ruling with respect to reopening doors after dispensing with further proceedings under the call.

MR. [CRAIG] HOSMER [of California]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order having been made of no quorum, a quorum having been called, and a quorum having been found present, and the further proceedings under the call having been dispensed with, does that mean that the doors of the House are now unlocked?

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman is correct.

On the legislative day of Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(4)</sup> the doors to the Chamber were reopened after completion of the business pending at the time the motion was made, the reading and approval of the Journal.

MR. GERALD R. FORD [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I ask the parliamentary inquiry. Are the doors to the Chamber now locked?

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(5)</sup> In response to the inquiry, the Chair will state that the pertinent part of the motion made by the gentleman from Washington [Mr. Adams], which relates to the inquiry made by the gentleman from Michigan, is:

That they shall not be allowed to leave the chamber until such time as the pending business—

The pending business—before this chamber on this legislative day shall have been completed.

As the Chair stated previously in response to a parliamentary inquiry, the pending business was the reading and approval of the Journal of the House. And the Chair, in response to the parliamentary inquiry, reiterates that reply, that the business before the House at that time which was pending was the Journal of the preceding session.

Accordingly, the doors will be opened.

MR. GERALD R. FORD: I thank the distinguished Speaker.

Parliamentarian's Note: The doors were reopened after a member of the Committee on Rules, Ray J. Madden, of Indiana, called up House Resolution 1315, which provided for consideration of a joint resolution to suspend for the 1968 campaign the equal-time requirements of section 315 of the Communications Act of 1934 for President and Vice President.

§ 7. The Call in the Committee of the Whole

This section discusses quorum calls in the Committee of the Whole.<sup>(6)</sup>

Prior to revisions of the rule beginning in the 93d Congress, Rule XXIII clause 2<sup>(7)</sup> provided that in the absence of a quorum, which consists of 100 Members, the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole should invoke the procedure for a call of the roll under Rule XV clause 5,<sup>(8)</sup> to record names of Members by electronic device, unless, in his discretion, he ordered a call of the Committee to be taken under the procedure set forth in Rule XV clause 2(b),<sup>(9)</sup> to record names of those present by clerk tellers. Following completion of either of these counts, the Committee rose and the Chairman reported the names of the absentees to the House.<sup>(10)</sup> Those names were entered on the Journal. If a quorum of the Committee had appeared, the Committee resumed its sitting without motion. Other provisions to be discussed in more detail in the supplement, and presently cited in the annotations appearing in §863 of the House Rules and Manual, relate to changes in clause 2, Rule XXIII adopted since the 93d Congress.<sup>(11)</sup> On Jan. 4, 1977, clause 2

10. Rule XXIII clause 2, House Rules and Manual §863 (1973).

11. Rule XXIII clause 2(a), House Rules and Manual §863 (1981) provides as follows:

“A quorum of a Committee of the Whole shall consist of one hundred Members. The first time that a Committee of the Whole finds itself without a quorum during any day, the Chairman shall invoke the procedure for the call of the roll under clause 5 of Rule XV, unless, in his discretion he orders a call of the Committee to be taken by the procedure set forth in clause 1 or clause 2(b) of Rule XV: Provided, That the Chairman may in his discretion refuse to entertain a point of order that a quorum is not present during general debate only. If on such call, a quorum shall appear, the Committee shall continue its business; but if a quorum does not appear, the Committee shall rise and the Chairman shall report the names of the absentees to the House. After the roll has been once called to establish a quorum during such day, the Chairman may not entertain a point of order that a quorum is not present unless the Committee is operating under the five-minute rule and the Chairman has put the pending motion or proposition to a vote; and if the Chairman sustains a point of order that a quorum is not present after putting the question on such a motion or proposition, he may announce that following a regular quorum call conducted pursuant to the previous provisions of this clause, he will reduce to not less than five minutes the period of time within which a recorded vote on the pending question may be taken if such a vote is ordered. If, at any time during the conduct of any quorum call in a Committee of the Whole, the Chairman determines that a quorum is present, he may, in his discretion and subject to his prior announcement, declare that a quorum is constituted. Proceedings under the call shall then be considered as vacated, and the Committee shall not rise but shall continue its sitting and resume its business.”

proposition, after a quorum of the Committee of the Whole has been once established on that day. The clause was amended again in the 96th Congress to permit the Committee to continue its business following the appearance of a quorum so that the Speaker need not take the chair to receive the Committee's report of absentees if a quorum has appeared, and to enable the Chairman to reduce to five minutes the period for a recorded vote immediately following a regular quorum call. In the 97th Congress the rule was amended to allow the Chairman the discretion of whether to entertain a point of order of no quorum during general debate. The last two sentences of the clause, permitting the Chair to vacate proceedings under the call in his discretion when a quorum appears, were added in the 93d Congress on Apr. 9, 1974.

The “automatic” vote by yeas and nays<sup>(12)</sup> is not permitted in the Committee of the Whole as it is in the House and in the House as in Committee of the Whole.<sup>(13)</sup>

Thereupon the committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore having resumed the chair, Mr. Leavitt, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, having under consideration the bill (H.R. 2152) to promote the agriculture of the United States by expanding in the foreign field the service now rendered by the United States Department of Agriculture in acquiring and diffusing useful information regarding agriculture, and for other purposes, reported that that committee had found itself without a quorum, that he had ordered the roll to be called, whereupon it was developed that there were present 255 Members, and he submitted the names of the absentees.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(18)</sup> A quorum is present. The committee will resume its session.

The committee resumed its session.

Parliamentarian's Note: The precedents carried in this section predate amendments to the Rules of the House since the 93d Congress which limit quorum calls in the Committee of the Whole and which permit the Committee to continue its business following the appearance of a quorum without the Speaker having to take the Chair. See the introduction to this section.

On June 7, 1973,<sup>(20)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7446, to establish the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration, Chairman Henry B. Gonzales, of Texas, clarified the procedures applicable in the Committee of the Whole.<sup>(1)</sup>

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the amendments offered by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Williams).

The question was taken; and the Chairman announced that the noes appeared to have it.

MR. [LAWRENCE G.] WILLIAMS: Mr. Chairman, I demand a recorded vote.

THE CHAIRMAN: A recorded vote has been demanded.

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Chairman, I withdraw that. I make the point of order that a quorum is not present, and I object to the vote on that basis.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair advises the gentleman from Pennsylvania that that procedure is not in order in the Committee of the Whole.

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order. I object to the

I can object to the vote on the grounds that a quorum is not present and insist on my point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: Not in the Committee of the Whole, the Chair wishes to advise.

The gentleman may be advised that he may wish to raise a point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. WILLIAMS: That is exactly what I have done.

THE CHAIRMAN: But the gentleman must be advised that during proceedings of the Committee of the Whole, an automatic vote is not a proper request.

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the vote previously taken on the basis that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Pennsylvania raises the point of order that a quorum is not present. Is that what the gentleman wishes?

MR. WILLIAMS: No. I demand a recorded vote.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will remind the gentleman from Pennsylvania that that demand has been withdrawn.

MR. WILLIAMS: I did withdraw it before. I am now requesting a recorded vote.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Pennsylvania now demands a recorded vote on his amendments.

A recorded vote was refused.

So the amendments were rejected.

§ 7.4 Although an automatic vote by yeas and nays may not be taken in the Committee of the Whole, a Member may make a point of order that a quorum is not present.

On Feb. 8, 1950,<sup>(2)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2945, a bill to adjust postal rates, an objection was raised to a vote in the Committee of the Whole.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(3)</sup> The question is on the amendment to the amendment.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Hagen) there were—ayes 76, noes 21.

MR. [HAROLD C.] HAGEN [of Minnesota]: Mr. Chairman, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. RANKIN: A quorum is not necessary to vote in the Committee of the Whole and a vote in the Committee of the Whole cannot be forced by a point of no quorum.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state to the gentleman from Mississippi that the rules require a quorum of a hundred in the Committee of the Whole.

MR. RANKIN: But the gentleman objected to the vote on the ground there was no quorum present.

MR. HAGEN: There was not a quorum present as disclosed by the announcement of the vote.

2. 96 CONG. REC. 1678, 1679, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

3. Chet Holifield (Calif.).

MR. RANKIN: It is all right to make a point of no quorum; that is one thing; but to object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present is something else.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and sixty-six Members are present, a quorum.

So the amendment was agreed to.

§ 7.5 Although a point of order that a quorum is not present is in order in the Committee of the Whole, it does not precipitate an automatic vote by yeas and nays, notwithstanding the fact that it was raised immediately after a vote on which less than a quorum voted

5. See § 16.2, infra.

On Jan. 15, 1973,<sup>(6)</sup> Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, announced the revised schedule of legislative electric bell and light signals.

The Chair has directed that the bell and light system be utilized in the following manner:

One bell indicates a teller vote, taken in accordance with clause 5, Rule I (Members indicate their preference by walking up the center aisle and being counted by Members who are named as tellers by the Chair. This is not a recorded vote).

Two bells indicate an electronically recorded vote, either demanded under the Constitution by one-fifth of those present (in the House) or by one-fifth of a quorum under clause 5, Rule I (either in the House or in Committee of the Whole). Two bells may also indicate a recorded vote under clause 5 Rule I whenever Members are to record their votes by depositing ballot cards in the "aye" or "no" boxes. The two bells will be repeated five minutes after the first ring to give Members a second notice of the vote in progress.

Two bells, a brief pause, followed by two bells indicates a yea and nay vote taken under the provisions of Rule XV, clause 1, by a call of the roll. The bells will be sounded again when the Clerk reaches the "R's" in the first call of the roll.

Three bells indicate a quorum call, either by means of the electronic system (Rule XV, clauses 2 and 5) or by means of tellers (Rule XV, clause 2(b)).

6. 119 CONG. REC. 1055-57, 93d Cong. 1st Sess.

The bells will be repeated five minutes after the first ring to give Members a second notice of the quorum call in progress.

Four bells indicate an adjournment of the House.

Five bells indicate a recess of the House.

Six bells indicate a civil defense warning.

Counting Members

§ 7.7 Where a point of order that a quorum is not present in the Committee of the Whole is made, a motion that the Committee rise is privileged. In the event that the motion is defeated, but by a vote which fails to indicate the presence of a quorum, the Chair may count those present in the Chamber who failed to vote; if those, together with those who did vote, constitute a quorum, the Chair so announces and the Committee proceeds with its business.

On Jan. 10, 1931,<sup>(7)</sup> the Chairman, John Q. Tilson, of Connecticut, in order to make a quorum, counted Members he observed not voting.

MR. [TILMAN B.] PARKS [of Arkansas]: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order of no quorum.

7. 74 CONG. REC. 1946, 71st Cong. 3d Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Arkansas [Mr. Parks] makes a point of order that there is no quorum present.

MR. [WILLIAM H.] STAFFORD [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Chairman, I move that the committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. Stafford] moves that the Committee do now rise.

The question was taken, and the Chairman announced that the noes appeared to have it.

MR. STAFFORD: Mr. Chairman, I ask for tellers on the vote.

Tellers were ordered and the gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. Stafford] and the gentleman from Arkansas [Mr. Parks] were appointed tellers.

The committee again divided, and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 2 and noes 87.

So the motion to rise was rejected.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count. [After counting.] The Chair has been able to count over 20 Members in the Chamber who did not pass between the tellers. A quorum is present.

MR. PARKS: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. PARKS: On the report of the tellers there were 87 in the negative and 2 in the affirmative. Is that correct?

THE CHAIRMAN: That is correct.

MR. PARKS: Does the Chair announce that that number constitutes a quorum?

THE CHAIRMAN: It is not a quorum, but the Chair counted more than 20 Members who did not pass between the tellers. There are more than 100 Members present in the Chamber at this moment by count of the Chair. A quorum is present, and the gentleman from Mississippi is recognized.

§ 7.8 After the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole announced that a quorum was not present, a quorum was established on a teller vote rejecting a motion that the Committee rise.

On Feb. 28, 1945,<sup>(8)</sup> during consideration of H. R. 2374, the first defense appropriation bill of 1945, a quorum was established on a teller vote.

MR. [FRANCIS H.] CASE of South Dakota: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(9)</sup> The Chair will count. [After counting.] Fifty-eight Members are present, not a quorum.

MR. [CLARENCE] CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Missouri.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Cannon of Missouri) there were—ayes 27, noes 52.

MR. CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Cannon of Missouri and Mr. Taber.

The Committee again divided; and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 57, noes 61.

8. 91 CONG. REC. 1576, 1577, 79th Cong. 1st Sess.

9. John J. Sparkman (Ala.).

So the motion was rejected.

THE CHAIRMAN: A quorum is present. The gentleman from New York is recognized.

§ 7.9 Parliamentarian's Note: The Chair's count of a quorum is not subject to verification or appeal, and in recent practice, the Chair has refused to recognize a demand for tellers to verify his count of a quorum.

On May 20, 1949,<sup>(10)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 4591, providing for pay, allowances, and physical disability retirement for members of the armed forces, the Chair<sup>(11)</sup> refused tellers.

MR. [FRANK B.] KEEFE [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and five Members are present, a quorum.

MR. [CARL] VINSON [of Georgia]: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Georgia has demanded tellers. The gentleman from Wisconsin made the point of order that a quorum was not present. The Chair counted 105 Members present. At this time there is no question before the House on which tellers can be ordered.

§ 7.10 The Chair kept a constant count of the Members present in a Committee of the Whole to forestall counting due to points of no quorum and his count was not subject to challenge by a demand for tellers thereon.

On May 4, 1933,<sup>(12)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 5390, a deficiency appropriation bill, Chairman Sam D. McReynolds, of Tennessee, kept a constant count of Members.

MR. [T. JEFF] BUSBY [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that there is not a quorum present. I think this is going to be a good speech.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and ten gentlemen present, a quorum.

MR. BUSBY: Mr. Chairman

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair has kept the House counted with a view to being able to state how many gentlemen are in the Chamber.

MR. BUSBY: Mr. Chairman, I have some rights in this matter, and they are not to be dealt with in this sort of way.

MR. [EDWARD W.] GOSS [of Connecticut]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that there can be no appeal from the decision of the Chair.

MR. BUSBY: I ask for tellers on the count of the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state for the information of the Committee that the Chair has been sitting here counting the House, and has kept a memorandum of the number. There were 92 gentlemen in the House when the point was made, and some 15 or 20 have come in from the cloakroom since.

MR. BUSBY: Mr. Chairman, I ask for tellers on the count of the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is only necessary for the Chair to announce the number present.

MR. BUSBY: I ask for tellers on the count of the Chair. Does the Chair refuse to proceed?

MR. GOSS: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order there can be no appeal from the decision of the Chair.

THE CHAIRMAN: The point of order is sustained, and the gentleman from Minnesota will proceed.

The Motion to Rise

§ 7.11 In the Committee of the Whole a quorum is not required on a motion to rise.

On May 31, 1972,<sup>(13)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 13918, a bill to provide improved financing for the corporation for public broadcasting, Chairman Robert N. Giaimo, of Connecticut, ruled out of order a point of no quorum while a motion to rise was pending.

MR. [HARLEY O.] STAGGERS [of West Virginia]: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Chairman, on that motion I demand tellers.

12. 77 CONG. REC. 2894, 73d Cong. 1st Sess.

13. 118 CONG. REC. 19353, 92d Cong. 2d Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Iowa is demanding tellers on the motion that the Committee do now rise?

MR. GROSS: That is correct, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state to the gentleman that the Chair has not yet put the motion.

The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from West Virginia that the Committee do now rise.

The question was taken; and the Chairman announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

MR. GROSS: Mr. Chairman, on that I demand tellers.

Tellers were refused.

MR. GROSS: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will advise the gentleman from Iowa that a quorum is not needed upon the motion that the Committee do now rise.

The motion was agreed to.

§ 7.12 Pending the Chair's count of a quorum, a motion that the Committee of the Whole rise is in order because that motion does not require a quorum for adoption.

MR. [HAROLD D.] COOLEY [of North Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York.

MR. TABER: Mr. Chairman, on that I demand tellers.

MR. COOLEY: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. COOLEY: Is the motion of the gentleman from New York in order pending the determination as regards the presence of a quorum?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman's motion is in order. A quorum is not necessary upon a motion that the Committee rise.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Taber and Mr. Cannon.

The Committee divided; and the tellers reported that there were—aye 1, noes 64.

So the motion was rejected.

THE CHAIRMAN: Evidently a quorum is not present.

So the motion was rejected.

THE CHAIRMAN: A quorum is present.

The gentleman from Illinois [Mr. Collier] is recognized.

Consequences of Refusal to Rise

§ 7.14 Where a Committee of the Whole finds itself without a quorum and on motion refuses to rise, the Chair directs the Clerk to call the roll under Rule XXIII clause 2.<sup>(3)</sup>

On May 3, 1933,<sup>(4)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 5390, the third deficiency appropriation bill, the Chairman, Sam D. McReynolds, of Tennessee, directed the Clerk to call the roll.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count. [After counting.] Sixty-eight Members are present; not a quorum.

MR. AYERS of Kansas: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

The question was taken, and the Chairman announced that the noes seemed to have it.

MR. [JOSEPH W.] BYRNS [of Tennessee]: Mr. Chairman, I ask for tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chair appointed Mr. Ayres of Kansas and Mr. Busby to act as tellers.

The Committee divided; and the tellers reported there were ayes 1 and noes 76.

So the motion was rejected.

THE CHAIRMAN: Evidently there is not a quorum present. The Clerk will call the roll.

MR. BUSBY: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. BUSBY: Is the roll call automatic?

THE CHAIRMAN: There is no automatic roll call.

MR. BUSBY: I understand no motion has been made that there be a call of the House.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. Busby] suggested that there was not a quorum present. No quorum is present. The Committee has refused to rise. The Clerk will call the roll.

MR. BUSBY: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that the roll call is not in order, because there is no authority for a roll call in Committee of the Whole.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair overrules the point of order. The Clerk will call the roll.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

§ 7.15 Where the Committee of the Whole rises and The Chairman thereof reports to the House that, pursuant to Rule XXIII clause 2,<sup>(5)</sup> he caused the roll to be called in Committee to establish the presence of a quorum, the House automatically resolves back into Committee.

MR. [WAYNE L.] HAYS [of Ohio]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(8)</sup> The Chair will count. [After counting.] A quorum is not present. The Clerk will call the roll.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Dent, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill H.R. 2512, and finding itself without a quorum, he had directed the roll to be called, when 376 Members responded to their names, a quorum, and he submitted herewith the names of the absentees to be spread upon the Journal.

MR. [FRANK E.] EVANS of Colorado: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(11)</sup> The Chair will count.

Forty Members are present, not a quorum. The Clerk will call the roll.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Price of Illinois, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill H.R. 541, and finding itself without a quorum, he had directed the roll to be called, when 325 Members responded to their names, a quorum, and he submitted herewith the names of the absentees to be spread upon the Journal.

The Committee resumed its sitting.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Committee will rise informally in order that the House may receive a message.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

The Speaker assumed the chair.

11. Charles M. Price (Ill.).

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will receive a message.

A message in writing from the President of the United States was communicated to the House by Mr. Geisler, one of his secretaries.

THE SPEAKER: The Committee will resume its sitting.

§ 7.17 The Speaker pro tempore, having received the report of The Chairman of the Committee of the Whole that a quorum of the Committee appeared on a call of the roll under Rule XXIII clause 2,<sup>(12)</sup> immediately directs the Committee to resume its sitting and does not entertain points of no quorum.

On Aug. 2, 1967,<sup>(13)</sup> the Speaker pro tempore<sup>(14)</sup> refused to entertain a point of no quorum<sup>(1)</sup> under the following circumstances:

Those cases, however, are distinguishable from this precedent because in both instances the Committees had completed consideration of bills and the Chairmen had been instructed to report the Committee's conclusions.

MR. [JOE D.] WAGGONNER [Jr., of Louisiana]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(2)</sup> The Chair will count.

Evidently a quorum is not present. The Clerk will call the roll.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Albert) having resumed the chair, Mr. Rostenkowski, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill H.R. 5037, and finding itself without a quorum, he had directed the roll to be called, when 388 Members responded to their names, a quorum, and he submitted herewith the names of the absentees to be spread upon the Journal.

MR. WAGGONNER: Mr. Speaker—

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: For what purpose does the gentleman from Louisiana rise?

MR. WAGGONNER: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: That point of order is out of order. The Chair has just announced a quorum.

On Mar. 23, 1970,<sup>(3)</sup> the Committee of the Whole resumed its sitting after the Chairman reported to the House that a quorum had appeared. When the Committee resumed its sitting, the pending business, the ordering of tellers, was considered.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(4)</sup> The question is on the motion [to amend H.R. 15728, to permit the President to loan one submarine to Pakistan] offered by the gentleman from New York (Mr. Koch).

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Koch), there were—ayes 10, noes 50.

MR. [EDWARD I.] KOCH: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Price of Illinois) having resumed the chair, Mr. Dorn, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill H.R. 15728, and finding itself with-

The Committee resumed its sitting.

MR. [L. MENDEL] RIVERS [of South Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from South Carolina will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. RIVERS: Is the first order of business the ordering of tellers?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman is correct. When the point of order was made that a quorum was not present, the gentleman from New York (Mr. Koch) had demanded tellers. The question before the Committee is on the question of ordering tellers.

Tellers were refused.

So the motion was rejected.

Point of No Quorum as Related to the Demand for Tellers

§ 7.19 After a point of no quorum was made, the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole indicated that he would not recognize a demand for a teller vote unless the point of order was withdrawn or a quorum established.

On Aug. 21, 1950,<sup>(5)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 9313, a bill to amend the Agricultural Act of 1949, a demand for a teller vote was not entertained.

5. 96 CONG. REC. 12960, 12961, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(6)</sup> The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. Davis].

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Davis of Georgia) there were ayes 21, noes 28.

MR. [JAMES C.] DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman withdraws his point of order that a quorum is not present?

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: I do not withdraw it. A parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: Was my point of order that a quorum is not present in order?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman can make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, I make that point of order, then.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, if I insist on the point of order, will I then have an opportunity to have a roll-call vote on this question?

6. Carl T. Durham (N.C.).

THE CHAIRMAN: Not in Committee of the Whole, no.

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, another parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, if I withdraw the point of order and ask for tellers, can I then obtain tellers if a sufficient number rises?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman is correct. . . .

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: Can the motion for tellers be made after a quorum is present?

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

§ 7.20 Where a Member, following a vote on an amendment, demands tellers and then immediately thereafter makes a point of order that a quorum is not present, the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole orders the Clerk to call the roll to establish Members' presence.

On Mar. 23, 1970,<sup>(7)</sup> Chairman W. J. Bryan Dorn, of South Carolina, ordered the Clerk to call the roll because a point of no quorum supersedes a demand for tellers.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion [to amend H.R. 15728, to permit the President to loan one submarine to Pakistan] offered by the gentleman from New York (Mr. Koch).

7. 116 CONG. REC. 8562, 8563, 91st Cong. 2d Sess.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Koch), were—ayes 10, noes 50.

MR. [EDWARD I.] KOCH: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Clerk will call the roll.

MR. [F. EDWARD] HÉBERT [of Louisiana]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HÉBERT: Mr. Chairman, is it in order to call for a quorum when a call for a teller vote is asked for and should be in progress at that moment—you cannot interrupt a vote.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that the gentleman from New York made the point that a quorum was not present.

MR. HÉBERT: No, no—the Record will show that he asked for a teller vote and then asked for a quorum.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is the understanding of the Chair that the gentleman asked for a teller vote and then made the point of order that a quorum was not present.

MR. HÉBERT: That is it—when he asked for a teller vote, he asked for a vote to be taken and that vote comes automatically. Having made that motion, he cannot get the other.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will advise the distinguished gentleman from Louisiana that the Committee cannot do business without a quorum, and since it has been established a quorum is not present, the Chair has directed the Clerk to call the roll.

The Clerk will call the roll.

§ 8. Motions During the Call—To Adjourn

This section discusses the motion to adjourn only as it relates to quorums and calls of the House.<sup>(8)</sup> Article I, section 5 of the Constitution<sup>(9)</sup> provides that “. . . a Majority of each [House] shall constitute a Quorum to do Business; but a smaller Number may adjourn from day to day. . . .”

The rule which authorizes calls of the House on motion<sup>(10)</sup> does not mention adjournment. The rule which authorizes automatic votes by the yeas and nays,<sup>(11)</sup> however, provides that in the absence of a quorum “unless the House shall adjourn,” there shall be a call of the House. Furthermore, the Speaker may entertain a motion to adjourn after the call has been completed, if the motion has been seconded by a majority of those present, to be ascertained by actual count of the Speaker.<sup>(12)</sup> If the House adjourns, all proceedings under Rule XV clause 4,<sup>(13)</sup> are vacated; this provision has been interpreted to mean voiding the vote taken by the yeas and nays, but not deleting the record of proceedings from the Record and Journal.<sup>(14)</sup>

Although a quorum is not required on a motion to adjourn,<sup>(15)</sup> it is required on a resolution providing for adjournment sine die<sup>(16)</sup> (but not on a motion to adjourn which implements such a resolution).<sup>(17)</sup>

An affirmative vote to adjourn by less than a quorum does not invoke an automatic roll call,<sup>(18)</sup> but the lack of a quorum on a negative vote on adjournment invokes a call.<sup>(19)</sup>

The motion to adjourn is highly privileged. In the absence of a quorum, no motion is in order but a motion for a call of the House or a motion to adjourn.<sup>(20)</sup> Because the motion to adjourn takes precedence over a motion for a call of the House, the vote on adjournment is taken before the call of the House even when the motion for the call was offered but not finally agreed to prior to the motion to adjourn.<sup>(21)</sup> The motion to adjourn may even be offered when the House is dividing on a motion for a call of the House<sup>(22)</sup> and takes precedence over a motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call.<sup>(1)</sup>

Need for Second

§ 8.1 A motion to adjourn, after an automatic roll call has disclosed the absence of a quorum, must be seconded by a majority of those present to be ascertained by actual count of the Chair by a division vote prior to a vote on the motion to adjourn itself.

Bankhead, of Alabama, entertained a motion to adjourn.<sup>(3)</sup>

THE SPEAKER: . . . The question is on the motion of the gentleman from New York [Mr. Dickstein] that the bill and the message together with the accompanying papers be referred to the Committee on Immigration and Naturalization.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Dickstein) there were—ayes 17, noes 62.

MR. [PEHR G.] HOLMES [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground a quorum is not present.

MR. [SAMUEL] DICKSTEIN: Mr. Speaker, I was on my feet. I object to the vote on the ground a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from New York [Mr. Dickstein] objects to the vote on the ground there is not a quorum present. The gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. Holmes] objects to the vote on the same ground. Evidently a quorum is not present. The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 108, nays 105, not voting 216, as follows: . . .

3. Seconding by a majority is required by Rule XV clause 4, House Rules and Manual §773 (1979); there is no specific seconding requirement for calls of the House on motions which are authorized by Rule XV clause 2(a), House Rules and Manual §768 (1979), but such motions must be adopted by a majority, at least 15 voting in the affirmative.

MR. [JOHN W.] MCCORMACK [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker—

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Massachusetts.

MR. MCCORMACK: Mr. Speaker, may I inquire the result of the roll call just taken?

THE SPEAKER: On this roll call 213 Members have answered—108 yeas and 105 nays. This is 3 short of a quorum.

ADJOURNMENT

MR. MCCORMACK: Mr. Speaker, in view of the situation that exists, which is obvious to all of us, and of necessity, I move that the House do now adjourn.

MR. [JOHN C.] SCHAFFER of Wisconsin: Mr. Speaker, I demand a second to the motion.

THE SPEAKER: Under the rule the demand for a second is in order. The question is on ordering a second.

The question was taken; and there were—ayes 144, noes 3.

So a second was ordered.

MR. DICKSTEIN: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. DICKSTEIN: The vote on the motion to refer the bill to the committee being yeas 108, nays 105, what will happen to the motion if the House adjourns?

THE SPEAKER: The motion will be the continuing business before the House when it convenes on Monday.

The question is on the motion to adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; accordingly (at 2 o'clock and 35 minutes p.m.) the House, pursuant to its previous order, adjourned until Monday, October 14, 1940, at 12 o'clock noon.

Effect of Adjournment on Pending Business

§ 8.2 Where a quorum fails to respond on an automatic roll call on a pending resolution and the House adjourns, the unfinished business when the House again convenes is the vote on the resolution; and the Speaker puts the question de novo.

On Oct. 19, 1966,<sup>(4)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, after the opening prayer, approval of the Journal, and reading of messages from the President and Senate, proceeded immediately to the vote on a resolution which was pending the previous day when the House adjourned because a quorum had failed to respond on an automatic vote by the yeas and nays.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER—
DISPOSING OF PENDING BUSINESS

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will receive unanimous-consent requests, after the disposition of pending business.

The unfinished business is the vote on agreeing to the resolution (H. Res. 1062) certifying the report of the Committee on Un-American Activities as to the failures of Jeremiah Stamler to give testimony before a duly authorized subcommittee of said committee.

The Clerk read the title of the resolution.

MR. [DON] EDWARDS of California: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. EDWARDS of California: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a straight quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [WILBUR D.] MILLS [of Arkansas]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

The Speaker: The question is on the resolution.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Williams) there were—ayes 92, noes 34.

MR. [JOHN BELL] WILLIAMS [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 219, nays 69, not voting 144, as follows: . . .

So the resolution was agreed to.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman from Alabama makes the

MR. JARMAN (interrupting the count): Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the point of order.

MR. [FRANK B.] KEEFE [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Speaker, I renew the point of order and make the point that there is no quorum present.

The Chair respectfully suggests to the gentleman, especially those who have made reservations to return to their homes tonight, that it might be well to remain until the concurrent resolution providing for adjournment is adopted. The Chair desires to make that statement, because our ranks are gradually being thinned, and we might find ourselves without a quorum.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Johansen) there were—ayes 77, noes 17.

MR. [AUGUST E.] JOHANSEN [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(13)</sup> The Chair will advise the gentleman that on a motion to adjourn, when the majority of Members present vote in favor of the motion, a quorum is not required.

The motion to adjourn was agreed to; accordingly (at 12 o'clock and 20 minutes p.m.) the House adjourned until Monday, December 16, 1963, at 12 o'clock noon.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion of the gentleman from Illinois.

The question was taken; and the Speaker announced that in his opinion the "noes" had it.

MR. ARENDS: Mr. Speaker, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered; and the Speaker appointed as tellers Mr. Albert and Mr. Arends.

The House divided, and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 58, noes 104.

MR. [DURWARD G.] HALL [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER (after counting): Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 90, nays 204, not voting 138, as follows: . . .

So the motion was rejected.

Precedence of Motion to Adjourn Over Motion for Call of House

§ 8.14 A motion to adjourn cannot ordinarily be offered

June 6, 1968; 109 CONG. REC. 24217, 24218, 88th Cong. 1st Sess., Dec. 11, 1963; and 97 CONG. REC. 6621, 82d Cong. 1st Sess., June 15, 1951.

while another Member having the floor for debate refuses to yield for that purpose, but if a point of order of no quorum is made and sustained during such debate, a motion to adjourn is in order and takes precedence over a motion for a call of the House.

On Apr. 24, 1956,<sup>(19)</sup> Mr. Carl Vinson, of Georgia, had the floor for debate when a point of order of no quorum was made. Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, ruled that a motion to adjourn could not deprive Mr. Vinson of the floor before the point of order was sustained, but after announcing the lack of a quorum, entertained a motion to adjourn as preferential over a motion for a call of the House:

MR. [JOHN BELL] WILLIAMS of Mississippi: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. WILLIAMS of Mississippi: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. [SIDNEY R.] YATES [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the point of order.

MR. VINSON: Will the gentleman not withhold that? I have only about 5 minutes.

MR. WILLIAMS of Mississippi: Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the point of order.

19. 102 CONG. REC. 6891, 84th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [WILLIAM M.] COLMER [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is making a very sound statement here and I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. YATES: Mr. Speaker, may I be heard on the point of order?

THE SPEAKER: The point of order that a quorum is not present is not debatable.

MR. YATES: Since the last point of order on a quorum there has been no further transaction of business, and it is obvious that the points of order being made are dilatory.

THE SPEAKER: There were various unanimous-consent requests granted since the last call of the House. The Chair has been up against this question of whether there was a filibuster or whether there was not a great many times. This occupant of the Chair is very liberal with Members who want a quorum present or to have business transacted in the regular way. The Chair is not going to hold that this point of order is dilatory.

MR. [WAYNE L.] HAYS of Ohio: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

THE SPEAKER: If the gentleman from Georgia retains the floor, that motion is not in order.

MR. VINSON: I retain it, Mr. Speaker. I am just moving around to get a little exercise.

THE SPEAKER: Does the gentleman from Mississippi insist upon his point of no quorum?

MR. COLMER: Mr. Speaker, I insist upon the point of no quorum.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will count. Evidently there is no quorum present.

MR. [JOHN W.] MCCORMACK [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

MR. HAYS of Ohio: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

THE SPEAKER: The motion to adjourn is a privileged motion. The question is on the motion.

The motion was rejected.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Massachusetts.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall 298 Members have answered to their names, a quorum is present.

By unanimous consent, further proceedings under the call were dispensed with.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Georgia will proceed.

§ 8.15 The motion to adjourn takes precedence over a motion for a call of the House; and where a motion to adjourn is defeated, and the motion for a call of the House is then withdrawn, business may continue if there has been no finding or announcement of the absence of a quorum.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(2)</sup> The question is on the motion that the House do now adjourn.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Bruce) there were—ayes 23, noes 34.

So the motion was rejected.

MR. [M. G.] SNYDER [of Kentucky]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Does the gentleman yield for the purpose of making a parliamentary inquiry?

MR. [JOHN M.] ASHBROOK [of Ohio]: Certainly.

MR. SNYDER: The point of order has been made that there was no quorum present and the gentleman from Indiana moved a call of the House. Since the motion to adjourn was defeated, is not his motion in order?

MR. BRUCE: I withdraw the motion.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Let the Chair state that the motion to adjourn was made in the meantime, and no point of order has been made since.

ADJOURNMENT

MR. [HALE] BOGGS [of Louisiana]:

Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; accordingly (at 8 o'clock and 15 minutes p.m.), under its previous order, the House adjourned until tomorrow, Wednesday, December 15, 1971, at 11 o'clock a.m.

§ 8.19 A motion to adjourn is in order at any time after the conclusion of the second call of the roll if a quorum has not been established; announcement by the Chair that a quorum has failed to respond is not necessary before entertaining the motion to adjourn.

On Oct. 14, 1969,<sup>(9)</sup> during a call of the House while American military involvement in Vietnam was under debate, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, answered parliamentary inquiries about the quorum requirement for, and the timeliness of, a motion to adjourn.

MR. [DONALD M.] FRASER [of Minnesota]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

9. 115 CONG. REC. 30055, 91st Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. FRASER: I would like to ask, if I may, where the matter stands now of the call of the House which was made by the majority leader. As I understand it, there is not yet a quorum recorded at the desk.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman is correct.

MR. FRASER: Now, Mr. Speaker, what are the options open to the House at this point?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair is patiently waiting to see. Regular order is the establishment of a quorum. If a quorum is not established, then a motion to adjourn would be in order.

MR. FRASER: Mr. Speaker, am I correct that if a quorum is not established, there are only two choices open to the House—either a motion to adjourn or a motion to instruct the Sergeant at Arms to produce the missing Members?

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman is correct.

MR. [JAMES H.] QUILLEN [of Tennessee]: Mr. Speaker—

THE SPEAKER: For what purpose does the gentleman from Tennessee rise?

MR. QUILLEN: Mr. Speaker, due to the lack of a quorum, I move that the House do now adjourn.

MR. [SIDNEY R.] YATES [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, on that I ask for the yeas and nays.

MR. [HALE] BOGGS [of Louisiana]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Louisiana will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. BOGGS: Mr. Speaker, does it require a quorum to adjourn?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state to the gentleman from Louisiana that it does not require a quorum. . . .

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]:

Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Oklahoma will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. ALBERT: Is it in order to move that the House adjourn on the ground that a quorum is not present until the Chair has announced the nonexistence of a quorum?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that a motion to adjourn is in order any time after the conclusion of the second call if a quorum has not been established.

Parliamentarian's Note: See parliamentarian's note, §4.4, supra, for similar precedent relating to quorum call by electronic device.

§ 8.20 One motion to adjourn having been offered and rejected at the expiration of 15 minutes during a call of the House by electronic device, another motion to adjourn is in order and takes precedence over a motion directing the Sergeant at Arms to arrest absentees.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(11)</sup> The Chair will count.

Sixty Members being present in the Chamber, a quorum is not present.

MR. [JOHN J.] MCFALL [of California]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The call was taken by electronic device, and the following Members failed to respond: . . .

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, may we have the regular order?

THE SPEAKER: The regular order is the establishment of a quorum and the rule provides a minimum of 15 minutes for Members to respond. Clause 5 of rule XV<sup>(12)</sup> states that Members have "not less than 15 minutes to have their presence recorded."

MR. [JOE D. ] WAGGONER [Jr., of Louisiana]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

MS. [BELLA S.] ABZUG [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 9, nays 143, present 1, not voting 279, as follows:

So the motion to adjourn was rejected.

The result of the vote was amended as above recorded.

12. See House Rules and Manual §774b (1979).

THE SPEAKER: The order of business is the establishment of a quorum. The House is still in the process of trying to establish a quorum, the motion to adjourn having been rejected. Are there further Members in the Chamber who desire to record their presence?

MOTION OFFERED BY MR. STRATTON

MR. [SAMUEL S.] STRATTON [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the Sergeant at Arms be instructed to bring in the absent Members.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

MR. [PAUL N.] MCCLOSKEY [Jr., of California]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. MCCLOSKEY: Mr. Speaker, I rise in order that I may be recognized for a motion to adjourn.

MOTION OFFERED BY MR. MCCLOSKEY

MR. MCCLOSKEY: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. McCloskey).

MR. STRATTON: Mr. Speaker, I have a motion pending.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that the motion to adjourn offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. McCloskey) takes precedence over the motion offered by the gentleman from New York (Mr. Stratton).

ADJOURNMENT

The motion was agreed to; accordingly (at 9 o'clock and 38 minutes p.m.), the House adjourned until Thursday, June 7, 1973, at 12 o'clock noon.

Parliamentarian's Note: Because the Speaker had not announced the result of the call of the House at the time the motion to adjourn was offered, he announced that the call of the House was still open and in progress upon rejection of the adjournment motion, and that Members could record their presence although they had not been able to return to the floor during the 15-minute period. It was contended that the Speaker had no authority to entertain the motion to adjourn during the call of the House and prior to his announcement of the result of that call. But if this contention were valid, it would give the Speaker unlimited discretion to keep a quorum call open indefinitely by refusing to announce the result (where a quorum had not been obtained) and thereby indefinitely refusing to entertain a motion to adjourn.

A call of the House was ordered.

ADJOURNMENT

MR. ALBERT: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that a call of the House has been ordered.

During the progress of a special order, Mr. Clark MacGregor, of Minnesota, had been recognized for and was proceeding in debate when the following transpired:

MR. [ROBERT A.] EVERETT [of Tennessee]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]:

Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Williams) there were—ayes 210, noes 0.

So the motion was agreed to.

MR. [JAMES] ROOSEVELT [of California]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

THE SPEAKER: Does the gentleman from Minnesota yield for that purpose?

MR. MACGREGOR: Mr. Speaker, I respectfully decline to yield to the gentleman from California for that purpose.

Declaration of Recess

§ 8.26 The Speaker may not declare a recess and interrupt a roll call under Rule XV clause 4,<sup>(4)</sup> even though the House has by unanimous consent previously given him authority to declare a recess at any time for the remainder of the session.

MR. EDMONDSON: May a recess be declared in advance of the completion of the vote?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that the present situation the Chair may not declare a recess with a rollcall in process.

Parliamentarian's Note: This precedent does not address the question whether the Chair could declare a recess when the roll call was completed if a quorum had not voted. MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

Senate Precedents

§ 8.28 When the Senate adopts an order for a recess at the conclusion of its day's business to a day or hour certain, a motion may be made in the absence of a quorum to take a recess pursuant to such order; but a motion to take a recess or take a recess to an hour certain is not in order in the absence of a quorum, nor is it in order to entertain a motion to recess or to recess to an hour certain after the absence of a quorum has been determined unless such previous order has been adopted.

On July 27, 1962,<sup>(9)</sup> the Senate agreed to recess at the conclusion of its business for that day and, later, did recess (in the absence of a quorum) as follows:

MR. [MICHAEL J.] MANSFIELD [of Montana]: Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate concludes its business tonight, it recess to meet at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

THE VICE PRESIDENT:<sup>(10)</sup> Is there objection? The Chair hears none and it is so ordered. . . .

MR. [WAYNE L.] MORSE [of Oregon]: Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum, and I ask that it be a live quorum. . . .

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: A quorum is not present.

RECESS TO 10 A.M. TOMORROW

MR. [GEORGE A.] SMATHERS [of Florida]: Mr. President, I move that the Senate recess in accordance with the previous order.

The motion was agreed to; and (at 10 o'clock and 14 minutes p.m.), under the previous order, the Senate recessed until tomorrow, Saturday, July 28, 1962, at 10 a.m.

On July 28,<sup>(11)</sup> Vice President Johnson ruled on a motion to recess in the absence of a quorum.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock a.m., on the expiration of the recess, and was called to order by the Vice President.

CALL OF THE ROLL

THE VICE PRESIDENT: The Senate having taken a recess last night in the absence of a quorum, no business can be transacted until a quorum is present.

The clerk will therefore call the roll for the purpose of developing a quorum.

The legislative clerk called the roll; and the following Senators answered to their names: . . .

THE VICE PRESIDENT: A quorum is not present.

MR. [HUBERT H.] HUMPHREY [of Minnesota]: Mr. President, I move that the Sergeant at Arms be directed to request the attendance of absent Senators.

THE VICE PRESIDENT: The question is on agreeing to the motion of the Senator from Minnesota.

The motion was agreed to.

THE VICE PRESIDENT: The Sergeant at Arms is instructed to execute the order of the Senate. . . .

MR. HUMPHREY: Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry: Is a quorum present?

THE VICE PRESIDENT: No. . . .

MR. HUMPHREY: Mr. President, I move that the Senate stand in recess until Monday, at noon.

THE VICE PRESIDENT: That motion is not in order. A motion to adjourn would be in order.

§ 8.29 When the Senate convenes following an adjournment taken in the absence of a quorum, the first order of business is the establishment of a quorum and the Presiding Officer directs the roll to be called.

On Sept. 23, 1968,<sup>(12)</sup> a quorum was established, as follows:

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(13)</sup> The Senate having adjourned on Friday, September 20, 1968, in the absence of a quorum, the clerk will call the roll to ascertain the presence of a quorum.

The bill clerk called the roll, and the following Senators answered to their names. . . .

11. 108 CONG. REC. 14952, 87th Cong. 2d Sess.

12. 114 CONG. REC. 27814, 27815, 90th Cong. 2d Sess.

13. Carl Hayden (Ariz.).

THE PRESIDING OFFICER:<sup>(14)</sup> A quorum is not present.

MR. [MICHAEL J.] MANSFIELD [of Montana]: Mr. President, I move that the Sergeant at Arms be directed to request the attendance of absent Senators.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The question is on agreeing to the motion of the Senator from Montana.

The motion was agreed to.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The Sergeant at Arms will execute the order of the Senate.

After some delay, the following Senators entered the Chamber and answered to their names: . . .

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: A quorum is present.

Parliamentarian's Note: Under House procedures, where a quorum fails to respond on a vote on a pending matter or motion, and the House adjourns, the unfinished business when the House reconvenes is the vote on the pending matter; but where the House simply adjourns in the absence of a quorum, a quorum is presumed present when the House reconvenes and there is no requirement to affirmatively establish a quorum.

A recently adopted rule, Rule XV clause 6(a)(4), adopted Apr. 9, 1974, provides that points of no quorum will not be in order "during the offering, consideration, and disposition of any motion incidental to a call of the House." (Motions to dispense with proceedings under the call are considered "incidental to a call of the House.") Clause 6(e)(2) of Rule XV was amended in the 96th Congress to automatically dispense with further proceedings under any call of the House when a quorum appears unless the Speaker in his discretion recognizes for a motion. The effects of these recent provisions will be discussed in supplements to this edition.

On Aug. 27, 1962,<sup>(9)</sup> during consideration of Senate Joint Resolution 29, an amendment pertaining to qualification of electors, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, made a ruling regarding the motion to dispense with further proceedings.<sup>(10)</sup>

MR. [JOHN BELL] WILLIAMS [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, I demand that the Journal be read in full.

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will read the Journal in full.

The Clerk continued with the reading of the Journal.

MR. WILLIAMS (interrupting reading of the Journal): Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will count. [After counting.] Seventy-eight Members are present, not a quorum.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall, 356 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Speaker, I object to dispensing with further proceedings under the call of the House.

MR. ALBERT: Mr. Speaker, I move that further proceedings under the call of the House be dispensed with.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion.

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Speaker, I move to lay that motion on the table.

MR. ALBERT: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that the motion to lay on the table is not in order.

THE SPEAKER: The motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call is not debatable and not subject to amendment and, therefore, the motion to lay on the table is not in order.

The question is on the motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call.

The question was taken.

Parliamentarian's Note: Three quorum calls and two record votes on dispensing with further proceedings under the quorum calls interrupted reading of the Journal and delayed the Speaker's recognition of a Member to move to suspend the rules and pass a joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment to abolish use of a poll tax as a qualification for voting in elections of federal officials.

Effect of Adoption or Rejection of Motion

§ 9.2 A Member failing to respond on a call of the House

On Apr. 3, 1935,<sup>(11)</sup> the Speaker pro tempore made a ruling relating to recording a Member.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(12)</sup> Three hundred and forty-four Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

MR. [EDWARD T.] TAYLOR of Colorado: Mr. Speaker, I move to dispense with further proceedings under the call.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. Rankin and Mr. Marcantonio moved a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(14)</sup> On this roll call 240 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

If there is no objection, further proceedings under the call will be dispensed with.

MR. [FRANK E.] HOOK [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I object.

MR. [WILLIAM C.] COLE of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, I object.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, I move that further proceedings under the call be dispensed with.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Hook) there were—ayes 115, noes 1. . . .

MR. COLE of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. COLE of Missouri: Should this motion be voted down and should further proceedings under the call be not dispensed with will the Chair please state the procedure to be followed then?

Precedence of Motion to Adjourn

§ 9.4 A yea and nay vote that the House adjourn takes precedence over a vote on dispensing with further proceedings under a call of the House.

On Feb. 15, 1950,<sup>(15)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, entertained a motion to adjourn following a division vote dispensing with further proceedings under a call of the House, and when the House refused to adjourn, put the question de novo on the motion to dispense with proceedings under the call.

MR. [JOHN W.] MCCORMACK [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker, I move that further proceedings under the call be dispensed with.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. McCormack].

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Pickett) there were—ayes 126, noes 17. . . .

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Speaker, a preferential motion. I move that the House do now adjourn; and on that motion I ask for the yeas and nays.

15. 96 CONG. REC. 1810, 1811, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 126, nays 198, not voting, 103, as follows: . . .

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion of the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. McCormack] to dispense with further proceedings under the call.

MR. [THOMAS J.] PICKETT [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. PICKETT: Mr. Speaker, at the time the gentleman from Michigan moved to adjourn, the Speaker had just stated what the question was—which was the motion of the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. McCormack] to dispense with further proceedings under a preceding call of the House. I objected to the vote, as was revealed by a division on the question, on the ground that a quorum was not present. Is not now the order of business an automatic roll call on the motion of the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. McCormack]?

THE SPEAKER: No; it is not. The vote now comes de novo.

The question is on the motion of the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. McCormack].

Parliamentarian's Note: Under 8 Cannon's Precedents §§ 2643, 2644, the motion to adjourn takes precedence over the motion to dispense with further proceedings.

Member Retains Floor After the Call

On June 4, 1963,<sup>(16)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ruled on the right of a Member to hold the floor under a special order after the House had agreed to a motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call of the House.<sup>(17)</sup>

Receipt of Senate Message During Pendency of Motion

§ 9.6 A message from the Senate was received following a call of the House while a motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call was pending and prior to the reading and approval of the Journal.

On Sept. 11, 1968,<sup>(1)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, received a message while a motion to dispense with proceedings was pending and before the Journal had been read.

MR. TAFT: I do object, Mr. Speaker.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move that further proceedings under the call be dispensed with. . . .

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

THE DOORKEEPER: Mr. Speaker, message from the Senate.

THE SECRETARY (Mr. Arrington): Mr. Speaker—

THE SPEAKER: Mr. Secretary.

THE SECRETARY: Mr. Speaker, I have been directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has agreed to the conference report on the bill S. 3293, to authorize appropriations during the fiscal year 1969 for procurement of aircraft, missiles, naval vessels, and tracked combat vehicles, research, development, test, and evaluation for the Armed Forces, and to prescribe the authorized personnel strength of the Selected Reserve of each Reserve component of the Armed Forces, and for other purposes

Parliamentarian's Note: Under Rule XV clause 6(a)(3), adopted Apr. 9, 1974, a quorum is not required to receive a message from the Senate.

Effect on Pending Business

§ 9.7 After a quorum has responded on a call of the House, further proceedings under the call must be dispensed with before the House can proceed with pending business.

On Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(2)</sup> a point of no quorum and a call of the House having interrupted the reading of the Journal, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, made a statement regarding the need for a motion to dispense with further proceedings after a quorum had responded on the call.

MR. [BROCK] ADAMS [of Washington]: Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. ADAMS: It is my understanding that under rule XV—and I direct this as a parliamentary inquiry—that though the call had been made, if there was not a motion made for a majority vote to go and get the Members, and a quorum was present and the doors were locked, the business could proceed even though the call had been started? Is that correct or incorrect?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that further proceedings—in this case the reading of the Journal—could not proceed until further proceedings under the call have been dispensed with.

2. 114 CONG. REC. 30094, 90th Cong. 2d Sess.

Adoption of Motion Terminates Call

§ 9.8 A motion to dispense with further proceedings under a call of the House may be agreed to by less than a quorum, if a quorum has responded on the call.

On May 14, 1930,<sup>(3)</sup> a motion to dispense with further proceedings ended the call of the House.

MR. [CHARLES R.] CRISP [of Georgia]: Then, Mr. Speaker, I move to dispense with further proceedings under the call.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE [John Q. Tilson, of Connecticut]: The question is on the motion of the gentleman from Georgia to dispense with further proceedings under the call.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Stafford) there were—ayes 83, noes 22.

MR. [WILLIAM H.] STAFFORD [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote because there is no quorum present, and make the point of order that there is no quorum present. . . .

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: It does not require a quorum to dispense with further proceedings under the call.<sup>(4)</sup>

ceedings opens the doors after a call of the House.

On May 14, 1930,<sup>(5)</sup> Speaker pro tempore John Q. Tilson, of Connecticut, responded to a parliamentary inquiry regarding the purpose of the motion to dispense with further proceedings.

MR. [EARL C.] MICHENER [of Michigan]: My question was, whether, under the proceedings of the House, where absentees are ordered to be arrested and brought in, where the doors are closed, where the roll is called, and where the absentees are brought in one at a time and brought before the bar of the House to answer to their names, and immediately the Speaker announces that a quorum is present, and the next thing to do is to move to dispense with further proceedings under the call, the doors cannot be opened until that motion is agreed to.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman is correct in his statement. The Chair takes no issue with him.

§ 9.10 The purpose of the motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call, a matter decided by the membership, is to open the doors and terminate efforts to call other Members to the Chamber; if the motion is not agreed to, the call of the House continues until all Members are sent for.

5. 72 CONG. REC. 8963, 71st Cong. 2d Sess.

On Feb. 22, 1950,<sup>(6)</sup> [Calendar Wednesday], Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, made a ruling regarding the House's decision-making responsibility on a motion to dispense with further proceedings.

MR. [FRANK B.] KEEFE [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. KEEFE: Where a point of order of no quorum has been made and the Speaker directs the calling of the roll, and at the conclusion of the calling of the roll a quorum is established, what further proceedings under the call are contemplated that require the making of a motion that further proceedings under the call be dispensed with, and force another roll call on that issue?

THE SPEAKER: It might be possible that the Members present would want to call other Members to the session; they might want to send out to get absent Members.

MR. KEEFE: With all due deference to the Speaker, I am merely seeking information. I have been here 12 years and this is a matter that has always bothered me and bothered many other Members of the House. Is there any reason why further proceedings should be had once the call of the roll indicates the presence of a quorum?

THE SPEAKER: That is a matter to be decided by the membership of the House. They may want other Members here for the consideration of certain business; they could have a further call of the House and send out and get the absent Members.

6. 96 CONG. REC. 2160, 2161, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [JOHN W.] MCCORMACK [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker, may I be heard?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Massachusetts.

MR. MCCORMACK: The Speaker is absolutely correct, but may I not add the further thought that when a quorum call is made the doors are closed, and the Sergeant at Arms is directed to notify absent Members. There are certain procedures that must be followed after the calling of the roll, such as the opening of the doors. Furthermore, when a quorum call is made it presumably continues or could continue until Members are sent for. That motion is made to bring it to a definite conclusion.

Quorum Requirement

§ 9.11 A motion to dispense with further proceedings under a call of the House does not require a quorum for adoption.

On July 23, 1942,<sup>(7)</sup> after a quorum had responded on a call of the House, Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, made a ruling respecting the motion to dispense with further proceedings.<sup>(8)</sup>

THE SPEAKER: Without objection, further proceedings under the call will be dispensed with.

MR. [ADOLPH J.] SABATH [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, I move to dispense with further proceedings under the call.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on dispensing with further proceedings under the call.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Rankin of Mississippi) there were—ayes 101, noes 5.

MR. RANKIN of Mississippi: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote upon the ground that there is no quorum present and make the point of order that there is no quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair overrules the point of order, because the House can dispense with further proceedings under the call without the presence of a quorum.<sup>(9)</sup>

The gentleman from Mississippi is out of order at the moment. The Chair has already ruled, and in conformity with a long line of decisions.

So the motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call was agreed to.

§ 9.12 A motion to dispense with further proceedings under a call of the House is not subject to a point of no quorum where the call has disclosed the presence of a quorum.

On Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(10)</sup> during the reading of the Journal, Speaker

MR. [DONALD] RUMSFELD [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Illinois makes the point of order that a quorum is not present. Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall 279 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

Without objection, further proceedings under the call will be dispensed with.

MR. RUMSFELD: Mr. Speaker, I object to dispensing with further proceedings under the call.

MR. [RAY J.] MADDEN [of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, I move that further proceedings under the call be dispensed with.

MR. [ROBERT] TAFT [Jr., of Ohio]: Mr. Speaker, I object.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Indiana [Mr. Madden] has moved that further proceedings under the call be dispensed with. An objection is not in order.

The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Indiana.

The question was taken; and the Speaker announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

MR. TAFT: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that the rollcall that has just been concluded discloses that a quorum is present and no business has been transacted up to this point.

So the motion was agreed to.

§ 9.13 A motion to dispense with further proceedings under a call of the House, while not entertained until a quorum responds on the call, may be agreed to by less than a quorum thereafter.

On Sept. 11, 1968,<sup>(11)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ruled on the quorum requirement for a motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call.

MR. [DONALD] RUMSFELD [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Illinois makes the point of order that a quorum is not present, and evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall [No. 314] 356 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

Without objection, further proceedings under the call will be dispensed with.

MR. [ROBERT] TAFT [Jr., of Ohio]: Mr. Speaker, I object.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman objects? The Chair wishes to get the Record correct. The gentleman objects to further proceedings under the call being dispensed with?

MR. TAFT: I do object, Mr. Speaker.

MR. ALBERT: Mr. Speaker, I move that further proceedings under the call be dispensed with. . . .

Before presenting the motion, the Chair will receive a message.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

THE DOORKEEPER: Mr. Speaker, a message from the Senate. . . .

MOTION TO DISPENSE WITH FURTHER PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE CALL

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Oklahoma [Mr. Albert].

The question was taken; and the Speaker announced that ayes appeared to have it.

MR. [THOMAS B.] CURTIS [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will refer the gentleman to the rules of the House; and under the rules of the House it does not require a quorum to dispense with further proceedings under the call.

MR. CURTIS: Mr. Speaker, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Speaker appointed as tellers Mr. Albert and Mr. Curtis.

11. 114 CONG. REC. 26453, 90th Cong. 2d Sess.

The House divided, and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 100, noes 64.

The yeas and nays were refused.

On Sept. 11, 1968,<sup>(15)</sup> an automatic roll call did not result after a Member, Thomas B. Curtis, of Missouri, objected to the vote on the motion to dispense with further proceedings on the ground that a quorum was not present and made a point of order to that effect.

MOTION TO DISPENSE WITH FURTHER PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE CALL

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(16)</sup> The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Oklahoma [Mr. Albert].

The question was taken; and the Speaker announced that ayes appeared to have it.

MR. CURTIS: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will refer the gentleman to the rules of the

MR. CURTIS: Mr. Speaker, I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Speaker appointed as tellers Mr. Albert and Mr. Curtis.

The House divided, and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 100, noes 64.

MR. [DONALD] RUMSFELD [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were refused.

So the motion was agreed to.

§ 9.16 After a quorum has been established by a call of the House pursuant to Rule XV clause 2(a),<sup>(17)</sup> a motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call does not require a quorum for adoption [and therefore an “automatic roll-call” under Rule XV, clause 4, is not in order on the motion].

On Aug. 15, 1972,<sup>(18)</sup> Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, refused to entertain a point of no quorum on a motion to dispense with proceedings under the call.

MR. [DONALD M.] FRASER [of Minnesota]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. [JAMES A.] BYRNE [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall 366 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

Without objection, further proceedings under the call will be dispensed with.

MR. FRASER: Mr. Speaker, I do object to dispensing with further proceedings under the rollcall.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on dispensing with further proceedings under the call.

The question was taken; and the Speaker announced that the yeas had it.

MR. FRASER: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will remind the gentleman that the House has just established a quorum and there has been no intervening business. There is a quorum present. Under the call of the House a quorum is present.

call, the Chair may put the question to the House for a vote.

On Jan. 23, 1950,<sup>(19)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, put the question to dispense with further proceedings to a vote.

THE SPEAKER: On this roll call 392 Members have answered to their names; a quorum is present.

Without objection, further proceedings under the call will be dispensed with.

MR. [JAMES C.] DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Speaker, I object.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Davis of Georgia) there were—ayes 144, noes 11. . . .

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Speaker, I demand the yeas and nays on this vote.

The yeas and nays were refused.

So the motion to dispense with further proceedings on the call was agreed to.

chusetts, made a statement as to the effect of an objection to a request to dispense with further proceedings under a call of the House.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will recognize the gentleman on a parliamentary inquiry.

MR. [BROCK] ADAMS [of Washington]: Mr. Speaker, I am reserving the right to object.

As part of my reservation, Mr. Speaker the previous parliamentary inquiry was for the situation where a quorum was not present, but now, under the rule I am inquiring of the Chair about as part of my reservation, I am asking whether or not, if I object, will the call then proceed and those absent without excuse will be required to come to the Chamber "and their attendance secured and retained; and the House shall determine upon what condition they shall be discharged" ?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that if any Member should object, a motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call would be in order, and the Chair would put the motion.

§ 9.19 Objection having been raised to a unanimous-consent request to dispense with further proceedings under a call of the House, the question was moved and agreed to on a division vote.

On June 4, 1953,<sup>(21)</sup> the House voted on a motion to dispense with further proceedings.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(1)</sup> The question is on the motion of the gentleman from Oklahoma.

MR. [JOHN BELL] WILLIAMS [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, on that I ask for a division.

The question was taken; and there were—ayes 154, noes 2.

So a call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall 339 Members have answered to their names, a quorum is present.

Without objection, further proceedings under the call will be dispensed with.

MR. WILLIAMS: I object, Mr. Speaker.

MR. ALBERT: Mr. Speaker, I move that further proceeding under the call be dispensed with.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Williams) there were—ayes 213, noes 8.

So the motion was agreed to.

B. EFFECT OF PRESENCE OR ABSENCE OF A QUORUM

§ 10. Introductory

This section focuses on the effect of presence or absence of a quorum, including an analysis of proceedings which do and do not require a quorum. An axiom of parliamentary procedure is that the House cannot conduct business after the absence of a quorum has been announced.<sup>(2)</sup> However, “business” is a term of art which does not encompass all activities.

Prior to inclusion in the 93d Congress of clause 6 (a)–(d), Rule XV, on Apr. 9, 1974,<sup>(3)</sup> as amended by the addition of paragraph (e) on Jan. 4, 1977,<sup>(4)</sup> in the 95th Congress, proceedings which, under the precedents, required a quorum included reading and approval of the Journal,<sup>(5)</sup> reading veto messages<sup>(6)</sup> and other messages from the President and Sen“(d) When the presence of a quorum is ascertained, a further point of order that a quorum is not present may not thereafter be made or entertained until additional business intervenes. For purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘business’ does not include any matter, proceeding, or period referred to in paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of this clause for which a quorum is not required or a point of order of no quorum may not be made or entertained.”

“(e)(1) Except as provided by subparagraph (2), it shall not be in order to make or entertain a point of order that a quorum is not present unless the Speaker has put the pending motion or proposition to a vote.

“(2) Notwithstanding subparagraph (1), it shall always be in order for a Member to move a call of the House when recognized for that purpose by the Speaker, and when a quorum has been established pursuant to a call of the House, further proceedings under the call shall be considered as dispensed with unless the Speaker, in his discretion, recognizes for a motion under clause 2(a) of this rule or for a motion to dispense with further proceedings under the call.”

In General

§ 10.1 Where a quorum fails to develop on an automatic roll call, it is not necessary for the Chair to announce the result of the vote other than to inform the House that a quorum has not developed.

On Dec. 22, 1932,<sup>(16)</sup> Speaker John N. Garner, of Texas, made a statement regarding announcement of the vote of an automatic roll call.

MR. [EDWARD T.] TAYLOR of Colorado: Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question on the motion [to recommit].

The previous question was ordered.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. De Priest) there were—ayes 34, noes 73.

MR. [OSCAR] DE PRIEST [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that there is not a quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently there is not a quorum present. The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify the absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 110, nays 95, not voting 224, as follows: . . .

MR. [HENRY T.] RAINEY [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

MR. [BERTRAND H.] SNELL [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, may we have the vote announced?

16. 76 CONG. REC. 942, 943, 72d Cong. 2d Sess.

THE SPEAKER: It has developed there is not a quorum present.

MR. SNELL: Mr. Speaker, what was the vote?

THE SPEAKER: It is not necessary to give that out, so the Parliamentarian informs the Chair, but the Chair may announce that so far the vote is—yeas 110, nays 95. There is not a quorum present.

§ 10.2 The Speaker indicated that if a quorum failed to materialize on a yea and nay vote on a motion to adjourn decided in the negative, the House would proceed to establish a quorum under the call of the House which was in progress when the motion to adjourn was made.

On Oct. 14, 1969,<sup>(17)</sup> in the course of a call of the House during a debate on Vietnam, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, answered parliamentary inquiries regarding the procedure if a motion to adjourn failed.

MR. [GILLESPIE V.] MONTGOMERY [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

17. 115 CONG. REC. 30054-56, 91st Cong. 1st Sess.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

MR. ALBERT: Mr. Speaker, I would prefer not to make this motion at this time, but in view of the parliamentary situation, I move that the House do now adjourn.

MR. [SIDNEY R.] YATES [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

MR. GERALD R. FORD [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. GERALD R. FORD: Mr. Speaker, if the motion to adjourn does not prevail, and a quorum is not present what is the situation then?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that the House would continue to proceed under the call of the House to establish a quorum.

MR. GERALD R. FORD: Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. GERALD R. FORD: Mr. Speaker, does that entail another quorum call at that point?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that we would be continuing under the previous call, the call that was in existence prior to the motion to adjourn.

§ 10.3 To make a quorum at the end of a roll call vote on a conference report, the Speaker asked the Clerk to call his name.

On Oct. 20, 1966,<sup>(18)</sup> after a vote on Conference Report No. 2327 on

18. 112 CONG. REC. 28254, 28255, 89th Cong. 2d Sess.

H.R. 13103, the Foreign Investors Tax Act of 1966, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, cast his vote.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on agreeing to the conference report.

The question was taken; and the Speaker announced that the "ayes" appeared to have it.

MR. [GLENN] CUNNINGHAM [of Nebraska]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll. . . .

[The result of the vote was, yeas 171, nays 46.]

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will call my name.

The Clerk called the name of Mr. McCormack, and he answered "yea."

So the conference report was agreed to.

Conducting Business After Quorum Fails to Appear

§ 10.4 The House cannot conduct business after the absence of a quorum has been announced.

On Oct. 14, 1969,<sup>(19)</sup> during a call of the House in the course of debate on Vietnam, Speaker John

19. 115 CONG. REC. 30055, 91st Cong. 1st Sess.

W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, answered a parliamentary inquiry regarding business that could be conducted in the absence of a quorum.

MR. [DONALD M.] FRASER [of Minnesota]: Mr. Speaker, so long as a quorum is not produced and in the event the House should instruct the Sergeant at Arms, would it be possible for the House to proceed, or would the House have to stand in abeyance with no further proceedings?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that the House cannot do business without a quorum.

MR. FRASER: Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. FRASER: Mr. Speaker, in order to see if I have that point clearly in mind, if there were an instruction to bring in absent Members and it did not succeed during the period of time, during that period of time the House could proceed with no other business; is that correct?

THE SPEAKER: The House cannot proceed at all until a quorum established.

Parliamentarian's Note: Once the Chair has announced the absence of a quorum, the point of no quorum cannot then be withdrawn even by unanimous consent, as such a request would constitute business (4 Hinds' Precedents §§ 2928-31; 6 Cannon's Precedents § 657).

§ 10.5 Where a quorum is not present and a call of the House is ordered, the pending business cannot continue until a quorum is obtained and further proceedings under the call are dispensed with.

On Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(1)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, answered parliamentary inquiries regarding procedures before and after a quorum appears.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. [BROCK] ADAMS [of Washington]: Mr. Speaker, if under a call of the House, after the call has been made and there is not a motion to dispense with further proceedings, is it true that the doors remain locked, and those that are here must remain present, but that it takes a majority vote of those present to issue a call to the Sergeant at Arms to bring others to the Chamber?

In other words, that if the doors remain locked, and we did not have a dispensing with further proceedings under the call, what would happen is that the situation would freeze, that those who were present would be required to stay, and that a warrant would not be issued unless there was a majority vote?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that no further business would be transacted until further proceedings under the call had been dispensed with.

MR. ADAMS: Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. ADAMS: It is my understanding that under rule XV—and I direct this as a parliamentary inquiry—that though the call had been made, if there was not a motion made for a majority vote to go and get the Members, and a quorum was present and the doors were locked, the business could proceed even though the call had been started? Is that correct or incorrect?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that further proceedings—in this case the reading of the Journal—could not proceed until further proceedings under the call have been dispensed with.

§ 10.6 After the Speaker has ascertained the absence of a quorum and a call of the House has been ordered, the House may not conduct legislative business until a quorum is established.

On Oct. 5, 1972,<sup>(2)</sup> Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, ruled that the House could not proceed with legislative business.

MR. [DURWARD G.] HALL [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, we have performed legislative business here, and there is no evidence of a quorum being present. I insist on my point of order.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [JOHN J.] MCFALL [of California]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

1. 114 CONG. REC. 30094, 90th Cong. 2d Sess.

2. 118 CONG. REC. 34039, 92d Cong. 2d Sess.

A call of the House was ordered.

MR. [CARL D.] PERKINS [of Kentucky]: Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman withhold that request?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair has announced the absence of a quorum, and the House cannot proceed until a quorum is established. The Clerk will call the roll.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall 344 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

§ 10.7 The Chair refuses to recognize Members after the absence of a quorum has been announced by the Chair, and no business is in order until a quorum has been established.

On June 8, 1960,<sup>(3)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, made a ruling regarding recognition of Members in the absence of a quorum.

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that there is no quorum. I am telling you now, I told you I was coming here.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Michigan has already made a point of no quorum.

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: I will renew it, if necessary.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman has made the point of order of no quorum,

3. 106 CONG. REC. 12142, 86th Cong. 2d Sess.

and he should not try to speak in that time.

The Chair will count. [After counting.] A quorum is not present.

MR. [RICHARD] BOLLING [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will call the roll.

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr Speaker—

THE SPEAKER: The Chair cannot recognize the gentleman because a point of order of no quorum has been made, and the Chair announced that there was no quorum.

The Clerk will call the roll.

Question of Privilege Pending Vote on Point of No Quorum

§ 10.8 Where a Member objects to a negative vote on a motion to adjourn on the ground that a quorum is not present, the Chair will not entertain a question of privilege pending disposition of the point of no quorum.

On Apr. 15, 1970,<sup>(4)</sup> Speaker pro tempore Charles M. Price, of Illinois, refused to entertain a question of personal privilege, where the House had just refused to adjourn and objection had been raised to that vote on the ground that a quorum was not present.

Definition of Vacating Proceedings

§ 10.9 Where a quorum failed to develop on an automatic roll call under Rule XV clause 4,<sup>(5)</sup> and the House adjourned, the word “vacate” in the rule was construed by action of the House as meaning solely the voiding of the proceedings incident to such call; the word did not mean the deletion of the record of proceedings from the Record and the Journal.

On Dec. 23, 1932,<sup>(6)</sup> and Dec. 27, 1932,<sup>(7)</sup> the interpretation of the word “vacate” in Rule XV clause 4, and the effect of vacating proceedings for purposes of the Journal and Record were discussed.<sup>(8)</sup> closed on an automatic roll call under Rule XV clause 4,<sup>(9)</sup> the House may adjourn or continue the proceedings under the call until a quorum of record is obtained.

On Oct. 12, 1962,<sup>(10)</sup> during a roll call on H.R. 12900, the public works appropriation bill for 1962, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, outlined the alternatives available in the absence of a quorum.

MR. [WILLIAM M.] COLMER [of Mississippi] (interrupting the rollcall): Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. COLMER: Mr. Speaker, in the event that a quorum is shown not to be present what procedure is then left to the House?

THE SPEAKER: The House can wait until a quorum arrives, or a motion to adjourn would be in order.

Parliamentarian's Note: The leadership had kept the House in session on this date, hoping that the two Houses might reach agreement on certain outstanding issues and adjourn sine die. The roll call was taken very slowly so that all available Members and hopefully a quorum of the House might reach the Chamber. When the call had proceeded for over 50 minutes the Majority Leader asked the Speaker to announce the vote. When it appeared that a quorum was not present, the Majority Leader moved to adjourn.

Adjourning or Instructing Sergeant at Arms

§ 10.11 If a quorum fails to develop on an automatic call of the House under Rule XV clause 4,<sup>(11)</sup> the House may decide to adjourn, or, in the absence of such a motion, the Speaker may, in his discretion, sign warrants for use by the Sergeant at Arms in arresting absentees.

On Oct. 18, 1966,<sup>(12)</sup> during a roll call on House Resolution 1062, directing the Speaker to certify to a United States attorney a report of the Committee on Un-American Activities relating to the refusal of Jeremiah Stamler to testify before that committee, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, outlined the alternatives available when a quorum fails to appear.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

11. See House Rules and Manual § 773 (1979).

12. 112 CONG. REC. 27512, 27513, 89th Cong. 2d Sess.

The question was taken; and the Speaker announced that the "ayes" appeared to have it.

MR. [JOHN BELL] WILLIAMS [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will count. Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 174, nays 37, not voting 221, as follows: . . .

MR. [CHARLES L.] WELTNER [of Georgia]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. WELTNER: Mr. Speaker, in the event that the result of the vote is announced and it appears that less than a quorum, or less than 218 Members, have voted, and unanimous consent is not given to dispense with further proceedings under the call, am I correct in understanding that the Sergeant at Arms will then be under an obligation to produce the nonvoting Members?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state, in response to the inquiry, that if a quorum is not present one of two alternatives remain; one, to adjourn the House, and the other, to instruct the Sergeant at Arms.

The Chair wants to state, frankly, the Chair would not instruct the Sergeant at Arms. . . .

MR. [DURWARD G.] HALL [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. HALL: In the event of the stipulations made by the Speaker as to whom he would recognize and not recognize, if further proceedings under the call of the House are not dispensed with, would it not be automatic that the Sergeant at Arms would be instructed by the Speaker to enjoin a quorum in the House?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that this is an automatic rollcall on the adoption of the resolution. The question of dispensing with further proceedings under the call would not be involved.

In answer to the second part of the gentleman's inquiry, that would not automatically follow. . . .

MR. [LESLIE C.] ARENDS [of Illinois]: Like the Speaker, I hope the people will come out of the woodwork. Let us finish our business and keep on going.

THE SPEAKER: Apparently they are not going to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

THE SPEAKER: A quorum not being present, this matter will be taken up as the first order of business tomorrow. . . .

ADJOURNMENT

MR. [WILBUR D.] MILLS [of Arkansas]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; accordingly (at 9 o'clock p.m.) the House adjourned until tomorrow, Wednesday, October 19, 1966, at 12 o'clock noon.

Parliamentarian's Note: See §5.10, supra, for similar discussion to the effect that while under Rule XV clause 4 the House has adopted a standing rule ordering the Sergeant at Arms to bring in absent Members during the ye and nay vote, nevertheless to actually make an arrest under that rule the Sergeant at Arms must have in his possession a warrant signed by the Speaker at his discretion.

§ 10.12 Where a quorum fails to develop on a call of the House on motion under Rule XV clause 2,<sup>(13)</sup> the House has only two alternatives: to adjourn or to instruct the Sergeant at Arms to secure the attendance of absentees.

On Oct. 14, 1969,<sup>(14)</sup> during a call of the House while the House debated American military involvement in Vietnam, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, answered a parliamentary inquiry regarding alternatives available when a quorum fails to appear.

MR. [GILLESPIE V.] MONTGOMERY [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

13. See House Rules and Manual §768 (1979).

14. 115 CONG. REC. 30054, 30055, 91st Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

MR. [DONALD M.] FRASER [of Minnesota]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. FRASER: I would like to ask, if I may, where the matter stands now of the call of the House which was made by the majority leader. As I understand it, there is not yet a quorum recorded at the desk.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman is correct.

MR. FRASER: Now, Mr. Speaker, what are the options open to the House at this point?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair is patiently waiting to see. Regular order is the establishment of a quorum. If a quorum is not established, then a motion to adjourn would be in order.

MR. FRASER: Mr. Speaker, am I correct that if a quorum is not established, there are only two choices open to the House—either a motion to adjourn or a motion to instruct the Sergeant at Arms to produce the missing Members?

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman is correct.

Arresting Absent Members

§ 10.13 In response to a parliamentary inquiry, the Speaker pro tempore stated that the failure of a quorum to respond on a roll call vote (decided in the negative) on a motion to adjourn being conducted under Rule XV clause 4,<sup>(15)</sup> would require the Sergeant at Arms to arrest absent Members without further order of the House.

On Apr. 15, 1970,<sup>(16)</sup> Charles M. Price, of Illinois, the Speaker pro tempore, described the procedure if a quorum failed to appear.<sup>(17)</sup>

MR. [WAYNE L.] HAYS [of Ohio]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Ohio.

The question was taken, and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

MR. HAYS: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will count. . . .

Evidently a quorum is not present.

15. See House Rules and Manual §773 (1979).

16. 116 CONG. REC. 11940, 11941, 91st Cong. 2d Sess.

17. Parliamentarian's Note: See §§5.10, 10.11, supra, where the Speaker indicated that during an automatic vote by the yeas and nays, the Speaker must still sign arrest warrants at his discretion.

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 81, nays 75, not voting 274, as follows: . . .

So the motion was agreed to. . . .

MR. [FLETCHER] THOMPSON of Georgia: Mr. Speaker a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. THOMPSON of Georgia: Mr. Speaker, if there is no quorum present, and there is a negative vote, what is the action of the Chair?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state that the action of the Chair is to wait until a quorum appears.

MR. THOMPSON of Georgia: If no quorum appears, then what?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state that if a quorum does not appear, then the House operates under the automatic rule that they would bring the Members in.

MR. THOMPSON of Georgia: Is a motion in order to go out and arrest the Members and bring them in?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Under the rule, the Sergeant at Arms would bring the Members in.

Proceedings After Quorum Fails to Appear on Vote to Suspend Rules

§ 10.14 Where a quorum fails on a teller vote seconding a motion to suspend the rules,

the Chair counts the House; if upon that count a quorum is found to be present, and the vote was in the affirmative, the second is ordered.

On Feb. 28, 1931,<sup>(18)</sup> Speaker Nicholas Longworth, of Ohio, counted the House.

THE SPEAKER: Is a second demanded?

MR. [SAMUEL] DICKSTEIN [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, I demand a second.

MR. [THOMAS A.] JENKINS [of Ohio]: Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that a second be considered as ordered.

MR. [FIORELLO H.] LAGUARDIA [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, I object.

THE SPEAKER: The vote for demanding a second is taken by tellers.

The Chair appointed Mr. Jenkins and Mr. Dickstein as tellers.

The House divided; and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 153, noes 2.

MR. LA GUARDIA: I make the point of order that there is no quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: There was no quorum on the teller count; but if the gentleman makes the point of order of no quorum, the Chair will count.

MR. [BERTRAND H.] SNELL [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, do I understand if the motion has been seconded by teller vote this would be the unfinished business on Monday morning?

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from New York objects on the ground that the teller vote does not disclose a quorum. Therefore the Chair will count to see whether there is a quorum present. In case a quorum develops a second will be ordered. [After counting.] The Chair has counted with the utmost care and has counted 238 Members present, a quorum.

So a second was ordered.

§ 10.15 An automatic roll call under Rule XV clause 4,<sup>(19)</sup> ensued where a quorum failed when the question was put by tellers on ordering a second on a motion to suspend the rules.

On Feb. 3, 1936,<sup>(20)</sup> Speaker Joseph W. Byrns, of Tennessee, ordered an automatic roll call.

MR. [THOMAS F.] FORD of California: Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the resolution (H.J. Res. 164) authorizing the President to invite foreign countries to participate in the Pacific Exposition of 1938 at Los Angeles, Calif. . . .

THE SPEAKER: Is a second demanded?

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, I demand a second.

MR. FORD of California: Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that a second be considered as ordered.

THE SPEAKER: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

MR. TABER: Mr. Speaker, I object.

19. See House Rules and Manual § 773 (1979).

20. 80 CONG. REC. 1404, 74th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on ordering a second.

The Chair appointed Mr. Ford of California and Mr. Taber to act as tellers.

The House divided; and the tellers reported there were—ayes 63 and noes 31.

MR. TABER: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that there is not a quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will count. [After counting.] Evidently there is not a quorum present. The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

Proceedings During Special Order

§ 10.16 Absence of a quorum precipitated a call of the House during a special order that followed the business of the day.

On Sept. 22, 1965,<sup>(1)</sup> absence of a quorum precipitated a call of the House during special order speeches.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(2)</sup> Under previous order of the House the gentleman from New York [Mr. Multer] is recognized for 20 minutes. . . .

MR. [JOE D.] WAGGONER [Jr., of Louisiana]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

1. 111 CONG. REC. 24716, 89th Cong. 1st Sess.

2. John W. McCormack (Mass.).

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

Parliamentarian's Note: See supplements to this edition for discussion of provisions in Rule XV clause 6 adopted in the 93d Congress on Apr. 9, 1974, to the effect that after the presence of a quorum is once ascertained, a point of no quorum may not be made or entertained during any period of a legislative day when the Speaker is recognizing Members to address the House under special orders, with no measure or matter then under consideration for disposition by the House.

Unfinished Business

§ 10.17 Where a quorum fails to respond on an automatic roll call vote on a pending motion and the House adjourns, the vote on the motion becomes the unfinished business when the House again reconvenes. At the later meeting, the Speaker puts the question de novo.

On Oct. 12, 1962,<sup>(3)</sup> the House adjourned after a quorum failed to appear on a motion to recede from its disagreement on a Senate amendment to H.R. 12900, providing for public works appropriations for the 1963 fiscal year.<sup>(4)</sup>

MR. [CLARENCE] CANNON [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, I offer a motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Cannon moves that the House recede from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate numbered 2 and concur therein with an amendment, as follows: In lieu of the sum proposed by said amendment, insert: $791,580,500.

MR. CANNON: Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question. . . .

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(5)</sup> Without objection, the previous question is ordered.

The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Cannon] to recede and concur in the Senate amendment with an amendment.

The question was taken, and the Speaker announced that the noes appeared to have it.

MR. CANNON: Mr. Speaker, I ask for the yeas and nays.

Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present and ask for the yeas and nays.

THE SPEAKER: Does the gentleman object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present or ask for the yeas and nays?

Does the gentleman object to the vote?

MR. CANNON: I make the point of order that a quorum is not present and ask for the yeas and nays.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Missouri makes the point of order that a quorum is not present and objects to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present.

The Chair will count.

Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll. . . .

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I ask that the Chair announce the vote.

THE SPEAKER: On this vote, there were 84 yeas and 120 nays. So a quorum is not present.

ADJOURNMENT

MR. ALBERT: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; accordingly (at 10 o'clock and 31 minutes p.m.), the House adjourned until tomorrow, Saturday, October 13, 1962, at 12 o'clock noon.

On Oct. 13, 1962,<sup>(6)</sup> immediately after the opening prayer and approval of the Journal, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, presented the question de novo.

THE SPEAKER: The unfinished business is the vote on the motion of the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Cannon].

Without objection, the Clerk will again report the motion of the gentleman from Missouri.

There was no objection.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. Cannon moves that the House recede from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate numbered 2 and concur therein with an amendment, as follows: In lieu of the sum proposed by said amendment, insert "$791,580,500".

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion.

The question was taken, and the Speaker announced that the yeas appeared to have it.

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 93, nays 143, not voting 199, as follows: . . .

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

§10.18 Where a Member objects to a vote on the ground that a quorum is not present, and, pursuant to a unanimous-consent agreement putting roll calls over until later in the week, further pro- ceedings are postponed and the Speaker puts the question de novo when the bill is again before the House as unfinished business, any Member has the same rights as when the question was originally put and may ask for the yeas and nays, if not earlier refused, or, if a quorum is not present, may object to the vote on that ground.

On Oct. 7, 1965,<sup>(7)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, answered an inquiry regarding the procedure for unfinished business.

MR. [DURWARD G.] HALL [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, if on a previous day where under the unanimous-consent agreement of October 1, 1965, of this House objection was made on the basis that a quorum was not present and the point of order was made that a quorum was not present and the Speaker thereafter did state that evidently a quorum was not present and that the bill would be put over per the prior agreement; should that rollcall come automatically today when we are back in session and released from that agreement?

THE SPEAKER: In response to the parliamentary inquiry, the Chair will state that the vote comes up de novo and Members have the same rights that they had when the matter was being considered on the previous day.

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry.

If I understand the distinguished Speaker correctly, then being de novo, objection would still have to be made on the same basis and as to whether a quorum was then present, it would still be honored?

THE SPEAKER: A Member could demand the yeas and nays and if a sufficient number of Members are in favor of taking the vote by the yeas and nays, there would be a rollcall vote of course. Or a Member could object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and, of course, if a quorum is not present the rollcall would be automatic.

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry.

If there was then a quorum present, however, it would not revert to the previous fact and therefore an individual Member would have to have stood on his rights at the time the unanimous-consent request was given rather than make the point of order that a quorum was not present on the current day?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that further consideration of certain bills was passed over in accordance with the unanimous-consent request entered into by the House on October 1 and the question of final passage comes up before the House today.

As the Chair has previously stated, if any Member wants a rollcall vote, he can demand a rollcall vote or . . . he can make the point that he objects to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present.

7. 111 CONG. REC. 26243, 89th Cong. 1st Sess.

§ 10.19 The mere fact that a quorum was not present on a prior day, when the vote was objected to, does not assure a roll call when the question is again put as unfinished business.<sup>(8)</sup>

Calendar Wednesday

§ 10.20 Where a quorum fails on ordering the previous question on a bill under consideration on Calendar Wednesday, and the House adjourns, the vote goes over until the next Calendar Wednesday when that committee's business would again be in order.

On Mar. 7, 1935,<sup>(9)</sup> Speaker Joseph W. Byrns, of Tennessee, answered inquiries with respect to whether a prior motion for the previous question was still pending.

MR. [FREDERICK R.] LEHLBACH [of New Jersey]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. LEHLBACH: Yesterday the previous question was moved on a bill then pending, and upon a division the vote was 36 to 16, whereupon a point of no quorum was made. Under the rules of the House there would follow an automatic roll call on the question of ordering the previous question, but before proceedings could be had the gentleman from New York [Mr. O'Connor] moved that the House adjourn, and the House accordingly adjourned. My inquiry is, is the motion for the previous question still pending?

THE SPEAKER: The motion is pending and the vote will again be taken the next time the committee is called under the Calendar Wednesday rule; that will be the first business in order when the Judiciary Committee is again called on Calendar Wednesday.

Senate Precedents

§ 10.21 Where the Senate recesses over the weekend because of lack of a quorum, the Vice President at the next meeting of that body causes the roll to be called to secure a quorum.

On Mar. 7, 1938,<sup>(10)</sup> Vice President John N. Garner, of Texas, commented on the procedure following a recess.

THE VICE PRESIDENT: The Chair has examined the Record and finds that when the Senate took a recess on Friday last no quorum was present. The Chair, therefore, thinks it is his duty to direct the clerk to call the roll for the purpose of securing a quorum, for the Senate begins now just where it left off last Friday.

10. 83 CONG. REC. 2903, 2904, 75th Cong. 3d Sess.

The Chief Clerk called the roll, and the following Senators answered to their names: . . .

THE VICE PRESIDENT: Eighty-six Senators have answered to their names. A quorum is present.

§ 10.22 A motion to adjourn to a specific day is not in order in the absence of a quorum of the Senate.

On Apr. 30, 1948,<sup>(11)</sup> President pro tempore Arthur H. Vandenberg, of Michigan, ruled on a motion to adjourn to a specific day.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: Forty-three Senators having answered to their names, a quorum is not present.

MR. [WILLIAM F.] KNOWLAND [of California]: I move that the Sergeant at Arms be directed to request the attendance of absent Senators.

The motion was agreed to.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Sergeant at Arms will execute the order of the Senate.

After a little delay Mr. McCarthy and Mr. O'Daniel entered the Chamber and answered to their names.

MR. [SCOTT W.] LUCAS [of Illinois]: Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Senator will state it.

MR. LUCAS: Is a motion to adjourn until Monday at 12 o'clock in order?

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: It is not, in the absence of a quorum.

11. 94 CONG. REC. 5101, 5102, 80th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [RICHARD B.] RUSSELL [of Georgia]: Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Senator will state it.

MR. RUSSELL: Does the Chair rule that a motion to adjourn is not in order in the absence of a quorum? My understanding of the rule is that the only motion in order when there is not a quorum is a motion to adjourn.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Senator from Illinois inquired whether a motion to adjourn until Monday was in order in the absence of a quorum. A motion to adjourn is in order.

MR. RUSSELL: I did not catch the words "until Monday"; but I knew that a motion to adjourn was in order.

MR. LUCAS: Mr. President, another parliamentary inquiry.

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Senator will state it.

MR. LUCAS: When would the Senate reconvene if the Senator from Illinois made a motion to adjourn and it was carried?

THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: Tomorrow at 12 o'clock noon.

MR. LUCAS: I thank the Chair.

§ 10.23 The Senate recessed in absence of a quorum, pursuant to an order previously agreed to which provided for a recess at the "conclusion of the business of the day."

On Apr. 4, 1964,<sup>(12)</sup> the Senate recessed.

MR. [MICHAEL J.] MANSFIELD [of Montana]: Mr. President, if there are no further questions I should like to suggest the absence of a quorum.

12. 110 CONG. REC. 6862, 6863, 88th Cong. 2d Sess.

I now suggest the absence of a quorum.

THE ACTING PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(13)</sup> The clerk will call the roll.

The Chief Clerk called the roll, and the following Senators answered to their names: . . .

THE ACTING PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: A quorum is not present.

MR. MANSFIELD: Mr. President, I move that the Sergeant at Arms be directed to request the attendance of absent Senators.

MR. [JOHN J.] WILLIAMS [of Delaware]: Mr. President, I ask for the yeas and nays on that motion.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

RECESS TO 10 A.M. MONDAY NEXT

MR. MANSFIELD: Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE ACTING PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The Senator from Montana will state it.

MR. MANSFIELD: Is it in order at this time to move that the Senate stand in recess under the order previously entered?

THE ACTING PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE: The rollcall has not started; and such a motion would be in order.

MR. MANSFIELD: Mr. President, if I may be heard in relation to my parliamentary request, I am afraid we are face to face with a travesty on the legislative process. I am doubtful—and I am indeed sorry to say this—that we will be able to get a quorum in the Senate today.

I believe it is a shame and an indignity upon this institution.

13. Lee Metcalf (Mont.).

In order to prevent this situation from turning into a farce, I move, under the previous order, that the Senate now stand in recess until Monday morning next at 10 o'clock.

MR. WILLIAMS of Delaware: Mr. President, I ask for the yeas and nays on that motion.

The yeas and nays were ordered. . . .

The result was announced—yeas 27, nays 14, as follows: . . .

So Mr. Mansfield's motion was agreed to; and (at 11 o'clock and 41 minutes a.m.) the Senate took a recess under the order entered on Wednesday, April 1, 1964, until Monday, April 6, 1964, at 10 a.m.

This recess was taken pursuant to an order entered on Apr. 1, 1964, as follows:<sup>(14)</sup>

MR. [HUBERT H.] HUMPHREY [of Minnesota]: Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business on Saturday, it stand in recess until 10 a.m. on Monday.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER:<sup>(15)</sup> Without objection, it is so ordered.

One fifth of those present may demand the constitutional yeas and nays or an "automatic" yea and nay vote under Rule XV clause 4 may result if a quorum is not present.<sup>(17)</sup>

Provisions of the rules adopted in and subsequent to the 93d Congress will be discussed in detail in supplements to this edition. Changes in the 93d Congress provided that after the presence of a quorum is once ascertained, a point of order that a quorum is not present could not be made or entertained during the reading of the Journal, and Rule I clause I was amended in the 96th Congress to delete the requirement for the appearance of a quorum before approval of the Journal.

On Oct. 14, 1972,<sup>(19)</sup> an automatic call of the House was taken on the question of approval of the Journal.<sup>(20)</sup>

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(1)</sup> The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

Without objection, the Journal stands approved.

MR. [ROBERT C.] ECKHARDT [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, I object.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the approval of the Journal of the last day's proceedings.

The question was taken, and the Speaker announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

MR. ECKHARDT: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 248, nays 3, not voting 180, as follows: . . .

So the Journal of the last day's proceedings was approved.

So the motion was agreed to.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

A message in writing from the President of the United States was communicated to the House by Mr. Ratchford, one of his secretaries, who also informed the House that on the following dates the President approved and signed bills and a joint resolution of the House of the following titles:

On August 20, 1962:

H.R. 12547. An act to amend the act of August 7, 1946, relating to the District of Columbia hospital center, to extend the time during which appropriations may be made for the purposes of that act. . . .

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will proceed with the reading of the Journal.

The Clerk continued the reading of the Journal.

Refusal of Point of No Quorum

§ 11.9 Although a point of no quorum may interrupt the reading of the Journal, the Speaker has refused to entertain a point of no quorum where a quorum has just been established by a call of the House and where no further business has been transacted.

On Jan. 22, 1971,<sup>(4)</sup> Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, refused to entertain a point of no quorum.

MR. [DONALD W.] RIEGLE [Jr., of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

§ 12. As Related to Prayer by the Chaplain and Messages

Rule XV clause 6(a), added to the rules on Apr. 9, 1974, now provides that a point of no quorum may not be entertained at certain times. It is not in order during the offering of the prayer or during the reception of any message from the President or Senate. While the new rule reflects prior practice, in part, precedents interpreting the new rule will appear in supplements to this edition.

Prayers

§ 12.1 A quorum is not required for prayer by the Chaplain at the opening of a session, and the Speaker does not recognize Members for such a point of order.

On Mar. 19, 1941,<sup>(5)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, made a ruling regarding the quorum requirement for opening prayer.

MR. [ROBERT F.] RICH [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

5. 87 CONG. REC. 2351, 2352, 77th Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. RICH: Mr. Speaker, when I was seeking recognition from the Speaker before the Chaplain offered prayer, I felt that there would be a call of the House and I thought it would be a good thing for all the Members to be here for once to hear the Chaplain offer prayer. What does the Speaker think about that? Would it be proper procedure for a Member to make the point of order that a quorum is not present before the Chaplain offers prayer?

THE SPEAKER: As the Chair understands, it has been held many times that the prayer is not such business of the House that a quorum is required.

§ 12.2 Because the prayer offered at the beginning of the business of the House is not considered as business, the Speaker does not recognize a point of order that a quorum is not present before the prayer.

On Aug. 4, 1950,<sup>(6)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, made a ruling regarding the offering of the prayer.<sup>(7)</sup>

The House met at 10 o'clock a.m.

THE SPEAKER: The Chaplain will offer prayer.

MR. [ROBERT F.] RICH [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: We will have the prayer first, because that is not considered business.

7. See also 92 CONG. REC. 3567, 79th Cong. 2d Sess., Apr. 12, 1946.

Prayer will be offered by the Chaplain.

On Jan. 21, 1946,<sup>(8)</sup> the reading of the President's budget message was twice interrupted by quorum calls.

The Speaker pro tempore laid before the House the message of the President on the state of the Union and transmitting the Budget.

(For message, see p. 136 of the proceedings of the Senate of this date.)

MR. [ROBERT F.] RICH [of Pennsylvania] (interrupting the reading of the message): Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(9)</sup> The Clerk read a message from the President of the United States, and the Chair feels that an inquiry at this time should not be entertained.

MR. RICH: Mr. Speaker, I think it is wise that the membership of the House hear the President's message, and I make a point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [ALBERT A.] GORE [of Tennessee]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

by the Clerk while the Congress was adjourned to a day certain, was retained at the Speaker's table for one week after the House reconvened since the transaction of business was prevented by lack of a quorum.

Notwithstanding the reconvening of the House on Aug. 15, a quorum did not appear until Aug. 22 and the House adjourned from day-to-day from the 15th through the 19th, and, by unanimous consent, from the 19th to the 22d. No business was conducted until the 22d, except that a letter of resignation from a Member was laid before the House.

§ 12.5 Messages from the President and the Senate may be received in the absence of a quorum, pending a motion for a call of the House.

On Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(11)</sup> messages from the President and Senate were received pending a call of the House.

The message also announced that the Senate agrees to the report of the committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendments of the Senate to the bill (H.R. 653) entitled "An act to amend the Tariff Schedules of the United States with respect to the rate of duty on certain nonmalleable iron castings." . . .

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall 286 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

By unanimous consent, further proceedings under the call were dispensed with.

§ 12.6 Messages from the President and the Senate, though they may be received in the absence of a quorum during a call of the House are not read until a quorum is present.

On Oct. 11, 1968,<sup>(13)</sup> messages were received, as follows:

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(14)</sup> The gentleman from Ohio insists upon his point of order that a quorum is not present, and evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

During the call of the roll a message was received from the President of the United States and from the Senate.

THE SPEAKER: One hundred eighty-eight Members are present, not a quorum. . . .

MR. ALBERT: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; accordingly (at 7 o'clock and 53 minutes p.m.), the House adjourned until tomorrow, Saturday, October 12, 1968, at 12 o'clock noon.

dent of the United States, which was received October 11; which was read and, together with the accompanying papers, referred to the Committee on Education and Labor and ordered to be printed with illustrations:

C. OBJECTIONS TO ABSENCE OF A QUORUM; POINTS OF NO QUORUM

§ 13. In General; Timeliness and Diligence

Recently adopted provisions in Rule XV clause 6 specify certain times or circumstances in which a point of no quorum cannot be made or entertained and enumerate others where, once the presence of a quorum has been ascertained, the point of no quorum may not be entertained.— Certain parts of clause 6 reflect and incorporate existing precedents concerning points of no quorum; others are new and further restrict the use of the point of order that a quorum is not present. These provisions will be discussed in the supplements to this chapter as they appear.<sup>(16)</sup>

<sup>16</sup>. See also § 10, supra, for a discussion of proceedings which do and do not require a quorum.

The precedents which follow must be considered in the light of the changes to Rule XV adopted since April 1974.

Although it is clear that an objection to a vote because of the absence of a quorum comes too late after the motion to reconsider has been laid on the table,<sup>(1)</sup> whether an objection is timely when made following the announcement of a vote depends on several factors. For example, points of no quorum have been held to be timely and in order when made after the Chair announced his opinion that the yeas on a voice vote prevailed but before the House proceeded to other business;<sup>(2)</sup> after a parliamentary inquiry which immediately followed announcement of the number who voted on a division vote<sup>(3)</sup> and after refusal of a yea and nay vote which followed a division.<sup>(4)</sup>

In General

§ 13.1 A sufficient number having stood to order the yeas and nays, but prior to the start of the roll call, the Speaker pro tempore recognized a Member who had shown due diligence to object to a vote on the ground of no quorum, thus causing the roll call to be automatic.

On Feb. 18, 1943,<sup>(5)</sup> during consideration of House Resolution 124, to appropriate funds for the Select Committee to Investigate Un-American Activities, the Chair caused the call to be automatic.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(6)</sup> The question is on the resolution.

The question was taken; and on a division (demand by Mr. Dickstein and Mr. Kennedy) there were—ayes 133, noes 29.

Mr. [Samuel] Dickstein [of New York] rose.

MR. [LEO E.] ALLEN of Illinois: Mr. Speaker, I demand the yeas and nays.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman from Illinois demands the yeas and nays. Those in favor of ordering the yeas and nays will rise and stand until counted.

Evidently, a sufficient number.

MR. DICKSTEIN: Mr. Speaker, I was on my feet making a point of order that a quorum is not present, and I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Evidently a quorum is not present. The call is automatic.

§ 13.2 The fact that a Member is on his feet does not constitute notice to the Chair that he is seeking recognition to object to a vote on the ground that a quorum is not present.

On Oct. 5, 1962,<sup>(7)</sup> during consideration of S. 1447, to amend the Teachers' Salary Act for the District of Columbia, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ruled on the proper procedure to raise a point of no quorum.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the committee amendment.

The committee amendment was agreed to.

The bill was ordered to be read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table. . . .

MR. [JAMES G.] FULTON [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the

7. 108 CONG. REC. 22649, 87th Cong. 2d Sess.

vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The bill has already passed.

MR. FULTON: Mr. Speaker, I was on my feet.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that if a Member is on his feet, that is insufficient. The gentleman did not address the Chair.

§ 13.3 The action of the House in passing a bill was, by unanimous consent, vacated when a Member insisted that he had been on his feet seeking recognition to object to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present.

On Oct. 5, 1962,<sup>(8)</sup> during consideration of S. 1447, to amend the Teachers' Salary Act for the District of Columbia, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ordered the proceedings vacated after a Member insisted that he had timely sought recognition to raise a point of no quorum.

MR. [JAMES G.] FULTON [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The bill has already passed.

MR. FULTON: Mr. Speaker, I was on my feet.

8. 108 CONG. REC. 22649, 87th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that if a Member is on his feet, that is insufficient. The gentleman did not address the Chair.

MR. FULTON: I was saying "Mr. Speaker," and was not heard. I was on my feet.

THE SPEAKER: If the gentleman asks unanimous consent to vacate the action, the Chair will entertain a request. But the passage of the bill had been completed.

MR. FULTON: Mr. Speaker, I was on my feet addressing the Speaker, but I was not recognized.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair does not know what is in the gentleman's mind when the gentleman is on his feet.

MR. FULTON: I was saying "Mr. Speaker," right straight through. I am sure it is the custom of the House to be recognized when a point of order is being made.

THE SPEAKER: Without objection, the action whereby the bill was passed will be vacated.

There was no objection.

§ 13.4 A point of no quorum (made following announcement of a division vote on an amendment, totaling less than a quorum) does not precipitate an automatic roll call under Rule XV clause 4<sup>(9)</sup> unless an objection to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present is made and sustained.

9. See House Rules and Manual §773 (1979).

On Feb. 21, 1967,<sup>(10)</sup> during consideration of House Resolution 83, authorizing the Committee on Agriculture to make studies and investigations within its jurisdiction, a quorum call—and not an “automatic” vote under Rule XV clause 4—preceded the Chair’s putting the question on the next motion, ordering the previous question.<sup>(11)</sup>

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(12)</sup> The question is on agreeing to the committee amendments.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Jones of Missouri), there were—ayes 34, noes 13.

So the committee amendments were agreed to.

MR. JONES OF MISSOURI: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Does the gentleman make the straight point of order that a quorum is not present?

MR. JONES OF MISSOURI: Mr. Speaker, the gentleman makes the point of order. I want to get a quorum here and then I will have a division.

10. 113 CONG. REC. 4139, 4140, 90th Cong. 1st Sess.

11. Note: Representative Paul C. Jones (Mo.), intended to demand a second division vote on the amendments following the quorum call. During the call he was advised that a vote de novo would not be in order; consequently, he did not press the point after the quorum had been established.

12. John W. McCormack (Mass.).

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Missouri makes the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The Chair will state that the vote is automatic at this point.

MR. JONES OF MISSOURI: The vote on the resolution is not automatic. At this point we are only voting on the amendments.

THE SPEAKER: Does the gentleman from Missouri make the point of order that a quorum is not present and objects to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present?

Evidently, a quorum is not present.

MR. [DURWARD G.] HALL [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state the parliamentary inquiry.

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, the parliamentary inquiry is whether or not the gentleman from Missouri did object to the vote on the basis that a quorum was not present as was stated by the Speaker.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair would like to understand clearly what the gentleman from Missouri is demanding.

Is the gentleman from Missouri demanding a straight quorum call?

MR. JONES OF MISSOURI: I was demanding a straight quorum call, and then I am going to ask for a division when we come to adopting the resolution.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall, 323 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

By unanimous consent, further proceedings under the call were dispensed with.

MR. [RICHARD] BOLLING [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on ordering the previous question.

The question was taken, and on a division (demanded by Mr. Jones of Missouri) there were—ayes 87, noes 35.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently, a quorum is not present.

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 230, nays 85, not voting 117, as follows: . . .

So the previous question was ordered. . . .

THE SPEAKER: The question is on agreeing to the resolution as amended.

The question was taken, and on a division (demanded by Mr. Jones of Missouri) there were—ayes 128, noes 25.

MR. JONES of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present, and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Missouri objects to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present, and makes the point of order that a quorum is not present.

Evidently a quorum is not present. The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

§ 13.5 Where objection was made to a vote on the ground that a quorum was not present, the Speaker, without ruling on the point of no quorum and pursuant to a special order, declared that further proceedings would be put over until the following day.

An objection to a vote on the ground that a quorum is not present takes precedence of a demand for tellers on such question.

On May 4, 1966,<sup>(13)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 14745, appropriations measures for the Departments of Labor and Health, Education, and Welfare for fiscal year 1967, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ruled on the precedence of a point of no quorum over a demand for tellers.

MR. [FRANK T.] BOW [of Ohio]: Mr. Speaker, I offer a motion to recommit.

THE SPEAKER: Is the gentleman opposed to the bill?

13. 112 CONG. REC. 9838, 9839, 89th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. BOW: I am, Mr. Speaker.

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will report the motion to recommit. . . .

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion to recommit.

MR. BOW: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were refused.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the passage of the bill.

MR. BOW: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Under the order of the House of May 3, further proceedings will be postponed until tomorrow.<sup>(14)</sup>

MR. [MELVIN R.] LAIRD [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Speaker, is this on the motion to recommit, or on passage?

THE SPEAKER: This is on passage.

MR. LAIRD: That is what I thought, Mr. Speaker.

MR. GERALD R. FORD [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. GERALD R. FORD: As I understood it, the question was on the motion to recommit.

Mr. Speaker, in all sincerity, it did not appear to me that the motion to recommit had been put to the House.

14. On May 3, 1966, the House agreed by unanimous consent to postpone roll calls, except on procedural matters, from Wednesday, May 4, 1966, to Thursday, May 5, 1966, to permit Members to attend the funeral of Senator Patrick V. McNamara (Mich.). See 112 CONG. REC. 9686, 89th Cong. 2d Sess., May 3, 1966.

The gentleman from Ohio was on his feet and the assumption was, from that fact, that he was objecting to the vote on the motion to recommit.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will always try to protect the intent of a Member. Without objection, the question will be on the motion to recommit, and under the order of May 3, that vote will go over to tomorrow.

MR. [JOHN E.] FOGARTY [of Rhode Island]: Mr. Speaker, I ask for tellers on the motion to recommit.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that the Chair has already announced that under the order of May 3, the vote will go over until tomorrow.

MR. FOGARTY: Is a teller vote a record vote?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair has already passed upon the demand of the gentleman from Ohio who objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and made the point of order that a quorum was not present on the motion to recommit. The Chair has already passed on that and stated that under the order of May 3, the vote is postponed for further consideration until tomorrow.

MR. FOGARTY: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry, then.

THE SPEAKER: Does the gentleman from Ohio withdraw his point of order of no quorum?

MR. BOW: Yes, Mr. Speaker, I do at this point.

THE SPEAKER: Then, the vote on the motion to recommit will go over until tomorrow.

MR. FOGARTY: Mr. Speaker, I would expect the same consideration on this side as was given to the gentleman from Ohio when it was too late on his motion to recommit. I have been standing on my feet trying to get recognized for a teller vote. I would expect the same consideration be given to me as was given to the opposition. I was trying to demand tellers all the time and I was not recognized. All I ask for is the same consideration as was given to the gentleman from Ohio.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that the Chair has made its ruling that under the order of May 3 further proceedings will go over on the motion to recommit and on the final passage of the bill until tomorrow.

MR. FOGARTY: I never realized a teller vote was a record vote.

THE SPEAKER: The point of order that no quorum was present had been made by the gentleman from Ohio. The Chair will advise the gentleman from Rhode Island that that point of order takes precedence.

MR. FOGARTY: I was trying to get recognized before the point of order of no quorum was made and before the decision of the Chair was made in favor of the gentleman from Ohio and against the gentleman from Rhode Island.

THE SPEAKER: The point of order of no quorum, the Chair will state, takes precedence over the demand for tellers and the gentleman from Ohio has made the point of order of no quorum.

MR. FOGARTY: The only point I make is I think the Chair ruled in favor of the gentleman from Ohio and against the gentleman from Rhode Island. That is the way it seems to me. If the Chair insists on it, there is not anything I can do about it. I just want my views known and expressed. That is the way I feel about it.

THE SPEAKER: The motion to recommit is the right of the minority, and if the member of the minority seeks recognition and is qualified, then he is recognized. The gentleman from Ohio pursued his rights in demanding a call by the yeas and nays. An insufficient number rose. The gentleman from Ohio then made a point of order that a quorum was not present and objected to the vote on that ground. The Chair has already made its ruling that under the order of May 3, further proceedings under the call are postponed until tomorrow.

MR. FOGARTY: How am I to know that a quorum is not present?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair counted. The Chair is aware of the number.

MR. FOGARTY: I assumed that the Chair counted the necessary number for a rollcall vote and found an insufficient number arose for that purpose but not for the purpose of establishing a quorum.

That was my understanding of the Chair at that time.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will repeat for the benefit of the gentleman from Rhode Island [Mr. Fogarty] that in accordance with the order of May 3, further consideration at this stage of the bill is postponed until tomorrow on a motion to recommit. That is the status of the matter and there is nothing left which the Chair can say.

Parliamentarian's Note: After objection to a vote on the ground that a quorum is not present has been made and, pursuant to previous agreement, the vote put over to the following day, a demand for tellers on the proposition is not in order because the question is no longer before the House.

During Debate

§ 13.6 A point of no quorum may interrupt a Member in debate.

On July 29, 1935,<sup>(15)</sup> Louis Ludlow, of Indiana, Speaker pro tempore, indicated that debate in the House could not proceed if a point of no quorum were made and sustained and that a point of no quorum could interrupt a Member who held the floor in debate.

MR. [ROBERT F.] RICH [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is making a very good speech; therefore I make the point of order there is not a quorum present.

MR. [SAMUEL B.] PETTINGILL [of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point that the gentleman cannot make a point of no quorum while the gentleman from Maryland is speaking.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will count.

MR. [HENRY B.] STEAGALL [of Alabama]: Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Maryland has not yielded for a point of no quorum.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state that a quorum must be present before any business may be transacted.

Parliamentarian's Note: See Rule XV clause 6 and interpretations of that rule in supplements to this edition to the effect that debate is not business of the House under that rule as amended.

§ 13.7 A point of no quorum may interrupt a Member having the floor in debate.

On July 2, 1940,<sup>(1)</sup> Speaker William B. Bankhead, of Alabama, alluded to the constitutional question raised by a point of no quorum.

MR. [J. PARNELL] THOMAS of New Jersey: Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order that there is not a quorum present.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, I do not yield for that purpose.

THE SPEAKER: The point of no quorum is a constitutional question at all times. Does the gentleman from New Jersey insist upon his point of order?

MR. THOMAS of New Jersey: I do.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and sixty-three Members are present, not a quorum.

MR. [CLARENCE] CANNON of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

On May 4, 1949,<sup>(2)</sup> during consideration in the Committee of the Whole of H.R. 3989, to incorporate the Virgin Islands Corporation, the Chairman, Henry M. Jackson, of Washington, made a ruling regarding the privileged nature of a point of no quorum.<sup>(3)</sup>

MR. [FRED L.] CRAWFORD [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I yield 10 minutes to the gentleman from Nebraska [Mr. Miller].

MR. [DONALD W.] NICHOLSON [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. NICHOLSON: Is it in order to move that the Committee adjourn?

THE CHAIRMAN: That motion is not in order in Committee. . . .

MR. NICHOLSON: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. [MONROE M.] REDDEN [of North Carolina]: Mr. Chairman, I have not heard the gentleman from Massachusetts ask the gentleman from Nebraska to yield and therefore suggest that the gentleman from Massachusetts is out of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that a point of order based on no quorum is a privileged matter and is in order at any time.

§ 13.9 A point of no quorum may be made while a Member is occupying the floor in debate; in the event there is no quorum, the right of the Member to the floor is suspended until a quorum is secured.

On Mar. 25, 1937,<sup>(4)</sup> Speaker William B. Bankhead, of Alabama, stated the procedure when a quorum is not present.

MR. [SCOTT W.] LUCAS [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

MR. [RALPH E.] CHURCH [of Illinois]: When I finish my statement, please.

MR. [JOSEPH W.] MARTIN [Jr.] of Massachusetts: I demand the gentleman be protected in his rights.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman has declined to yield.

MR. [FRANK E.] HOOK [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of no quorum.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Michigan makes the point there is no quorum present. The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and ten Members are present, not a quorum.

MR. [SAM] RAYBURN [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

MR. [ADOLPH J.] SABATH [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

MR. RAYBURN: No business can be conducted in the absence of a quorum.

4. 81 CONG. REC. 2793, 75th Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. SABATH: I should like to answer these despicable statements.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Texas moves the House do now adjourn.

MR. CHURCH: I will yield to the gentleman. I want to be fair.

THE SPEAKER: No business of any character can be transacted during the absence of a quorum. It raises a constitutional question. A quorum is not present. The gentleman from Texas has moved that the House do now adjourn, which is not a debatable motion.

The question was taken; and the Speaker announced that the ayes had it.

MR. [HAMILTON] FISH [Jr., of New York]: Mr. Speaker, I ask for the yeas and nays.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from New York demands the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were refused.

So the motion to adjourn was agreed to.

During Special Order

§ 13.10 A point of no quorum interrupted a Member who was speaking under a special order following the business of the day.

On Sept. 22, 1965,<sup>(5)</sup> a call of the House interrupted a special order.<sup>(6)</sup>

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(7)</sup> Under previous order of the House the gentleman from New York [Mr. Multer] is recognized for 20 minutes.

MR. [ABRAHAM J.] MULTER: Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to revise and extend my remarks and include extraneous matter.

THE SPEAKER: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

MR. MULTER: Mr. Speaker, as the Members of the House well know, for many long days and hours the gentleman from New York [Mr. Horton], the gentleman from Maryland [Mr. Mathias], the gentleman from Maryland [Mr. Sickles], and I have been engaged in a bipartisan effort to bring to the District of Columbia home rule which will be meaningful home rule to the District. . . .

MR. [JOE D.] WAGGONER [Jr., of Louisiana]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

after the presence of a quorum is once ascertained, a point of no quorum may not be made or entertained during any period of a legislative day when the Speaker is recognizing Members to address the House under special orders, with no measure or matter then under consideration for disposition by the House.

During Reading of Resolution§ 13.11 A point of no quorum may interrupt the reading of a resolution.

On Mar. 1, 1967,<sup>(8)</sup> reading of a privileged resolution was interrupted.<sup>(9)</sup>

MR. [EMANUEL] CELLER [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, pursuant to House Resolution 1, I call up for immediate consideration the following privileged resolution, House Resolution 278, which is at the Clerk's desk.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

Whereas,

The Select Committee appointed pursuant to H. Res. 1 (90th Congress) has reached the following conclusions:

First, Adam Clayton Powell possesses the requisite qualifications of age, citizenship and inhabitancy for membership in the House of Representatives. . . .

MR. [PORTER] HARDY [Jr., of Virginia] (during reading of H.R. 278): Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(10)</sup> Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall 420 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

By unanimous consent, further proceedings under the call were dispensed with. . . .

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will resume the reading of the resolution.

§ 13.12 A Member may make a point of no quorum during the reading of a privileged resolution.

On July 31, 1946,<sup>(11)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, ruled on the propriety of interrupting the reading of a privileged resolution relating to contempt of a witness.<sup>(12)</sup>

12. But see §13.28, infra, for a precedent in which the point of no quorum was not permitted during the reading of a privileged resolution called up immediately after establishment of a quorum by a call of the House.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives certify the foregoing report of the House Committee on Un-American Activities as to the willful and deliberate refusal of the following persons to produce before the said committee for its inspection certain books, papers, and records.

MR. [VITO] MARCANTONIO [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order. I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that the gentleman is interrupting the reading of a resolution that is privileged.

MR. MARCANTONIO: That is just too bad.

THE SPEAKER: The resolution is privileged but a Member may make a point of no quorum at any time.

Evidently there is no quorum present.

Without objection, a call of the House is ordered.

There was no objection.

Effect of Postponing Roll Calls

§ 13.13 An agreement to postpone roll call votes until a time certain would not preclude a point of order of no quorum prior to that time.

On July 30, 1970,<sup>(13)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, answered a parliamentary inquiry relating to the effect of an agreement to postpone roll calls.

MR. [DURWARD G.] HALL [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, in the opinion of the Chair, is the unanimous consent restriction on quorum calls and on votes put over until after 4 p.m. today, anent the return of those who would honor our departed colleague still in effect inasmuch as they have returned, and many of them are now on the floor?

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will restate his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, may I inquire, in view of the fact that there was an agreement as to quorum calls and rollcalls, whether or not we may see by a quorum call whether we have a quorum on the floor, in view of the importance of this bill, and in view of the fact that it was not scheduled, and in view of the fact that we were deferring until our colleagues returned from Ohio and the services for our departed colleague, Mike Kirwan.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state there is no agreement that would prevent a point of order that a quorum is not present.

The Chair will further state that the action taken has been with the understanding of the leadership on both sides and with the further understanding that general debate on the bill will terminate at 4 o'clock.

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the statement of the Chair. The Chair

13. 116 CONG. REC. 26525, 26526, 91st Cong. 2d Sess.

has answered my question. I thoroughly understand the problem, and I am interested in expediting the business of this House, but because of the importance of this bill and the national interest, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. [WRIGHT] PATMAN [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman withhold his point of order so I may ask a question?

MR. HALL: I will withhold my point of order.

MR. PATMAN: Mr. Speaker, the understanding is that we will go ahead and at 4 o'clock we will stop, and then we will have the rollcalls, and then the question of proceeding will take place after that.

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, I appreciate that, but the importance as brought out during the discussion of the rule far transcends the importance of a lapsed agreement, or stopping at any time certain to resume the other rollcalls. I believe Members should be here and hear whether we should have a teller vote on whether we go into session, so I let my point of order stand.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman insists on his point of order?

MR. HALL: I do, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [HENRY S.] REUSS [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall 335 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

By unanimous consent, further proceedings under the call were dispensed with.

During Reading of Journal

§ 13.14 A point of no quorum is in order during the reading of the Journal.

On Dec. 18, 1970,<sup>(14)</sup> the Speaker pro tempore ruled that the reading of the Journal could be interrupted by a point of no quorum.<sup>(15)</sup>

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(16)</sup> The Clerk will proceed with the reading of the Journal.

MR. [DURWARD G.] HALL [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, I demand that the Journal be read in full.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday. . . .

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa] (during the reading): Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

See supplements to this edition for discussion of provisions in Rule XV clause 6 adopted in the 93d Congress on Apr. 9, 1974, to the effect that after the presence of a quorum is once ascertained, a point of no quorum may not be made or entertained during the reading of the Journal and the deletion of the requirement for the appearance of a quorum before approval of the Journal in the 96th Congress on Jan. 15, 1979.

16. John W. McCormack (Mass.).

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(17)</sup> The Chair will count. . . .

MR. [SAMUEL S.] STRATTON [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman from New York will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. STRATTON: Mr. Speaker, is it in order for a Member to be recognized during the reading of the Journal which is a highly privileged document which we all want to hear in full?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will inform the distinguished gentleman from New York that a point of order that a quorum is not present is always in order.

A quorum is not present.

MR. [CLAUDE D.] PEPPER [of Florida]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

§ 13.15 The reading of the Journal was interrupted by a point of no quorum and a call of the House.

On Nov. 3, 1967,<sup>(18)</sup> the following proceedings took place:

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(19)</sup> The Clerk will read the Journal of the proceedings of Thursday, November 2, 1967.

The Clerk began the reading of the Journal. . . .

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall 298 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

By unanimous consent, further proceedings under the call were dispensed with.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

After Announcement of Voice Vote

§ 13.16 Objection to a vote in the House under Rule XV clause 4,<sup>(20)</sup> does not come too late after the Chair has announced his opinion of the voice vote on that question but before the House has proceeded to further business.

On Sept. 28, 1972,<sup>(1)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 13694, the American Revolution Bicentennial Commission amendments, Speaker pro tempore Chet Holifield, of California, ruled on the timeliness of a point of no quorum.

The Clerk reread the amendment.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The question is on the amendment.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

MR. [LAWRENCE G.] WILLIAMS [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. GERALD R. FORD [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. GERALD R. FORD: Mr. Speaker, I believe that the request of the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Williams), for a rollcall vote comes too late.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state that the Chair had announced his opinion of the vote, but had not proceeded to the next question. Does the gentleman from Pennsylvania insist upon his point of order that a quorum is not present and object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present?

MR. WILLIAMS: I do, Mr. Speaker.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 145, nays 182, not voting 103.

After Permission to Extend Remarks

§ 13.17 A second point of order that a quorum is not present

is in order after intervening business such as permission to extend remarks in the Record.

On June 4, 1951,<sup>(2)</sup> The Speaker pro tempore, J. Percy Priest, of Tennessee, ruled that a second point of no quorum was in order.

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [JERE] COOPER [of Tennessee]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: On this roll call 242 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

By unanimous consent, further proceedings under the call were dispensed with. . . .

Mr. Harrison of Virginia asked and was given permission to extend his remarks in two instances and include extraneous matter. . . .

MR. [HERMAN P.] EBERHARTER [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present. . . .

MR. [CHARLES A.] HALLECK [of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state it.

2. 97 CONG. REC. 6096, 6097, 82d Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. HALLECK: Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that a call of the House has just disclosed the presence of a quorum, is not the point of order sought to be made by the gentleman from Pennsylvania out of order at this time?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair may say that some business has been transacted since the quorum was announced by the Chair.

MR. EBERHARTER: Mr. Speaker, I renew my point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and forty-one Members are present, not a quorum.

MR. [MIKE] MANSFIELD [of Montana]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

Preceded by Parliamentary Inquiry

§ 13.18 Even though the Chair entertains a parliamentary inquiry following announcement of a vote by division, an objection to a vote on the grounds that a quorum was not present and voting does not come too late and is in order.

On Mar. 7, 1956,<sup>(3)</sup> during consideration of amendments to H.R. 9739, making appropriations for executive bureaus and agencies for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1957, Speaker pro tempore John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ruled on the timeliness of a point of no quorum.

3. 102 CONG. REC. 4215, 4216, 84th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Clerk will report the amendment on which a separate vote has been demanded.

The Clerk read as follows:

Page 18, strike out lines 14 through 20.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The question is on the amendment.

The question was taken; and the Chair being in doubt, the Committee divided and there were ayes 17, noes 31.

MR. [GORDON] CANFIELD [of New Jersey]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state it.

MR. CANFIELD: Is it too late to request that that amendment be read to the House?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state that the amendment was read to the House.

MR. CANFIELD: Mr. Speaker, in all frankness, I do not believe that many Members knew what they were voting on.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The amendment was read. The Chair assumes every Member present was aware of the content of the amendment.

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that the gentleman's point comes too late. There was a parliamentary inquiry submitted since the division.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman from New Jersey [Mr. Canfield] addressed the Chair on a point of order. The gentleman from Iowa [Mr. Gross] was justified in waiting until that point of order had been determined by the Chair. Immediately upon that determination the gentleman from Iowa made the point of order that a quorum was not present and objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present. The Chair feels that the gentleman from Iowa exercised his rights under the rules in such manner that a point of order against his point of order would not lie.

Evidently a quorum is not present.

After Division Vote and Rejection of Yeas and Nays

§ 13.19 Less than a quorum having voted on a division, and a yea and nay vote having been refused, it is not too late to object to the division vote on the ground that a quorum is not present.

On June 1, 1942,<sup>(4)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, ruled on the timeliness of a point of no quorum.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman's time has expired. All time has expired. The question is, Will the rules be suspended and the bill passed?

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Dingell) there were ayes 85 and noes 121.

MR. [MIKE] MANSFIELD [of Montana]: Mr. Speaker, I ask for the yeas and nays.

THE SPEAKER (after counting): Eighteen Members have arisen; not a sufficient number.

The yeas and nays were refused.

MR. [HERMAN P.] KOPPLEMANN [of Connecticut]: Mr. Speaker, I raise the point of order that there is no quorum present, and I object to the vote on that ground.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will count.

MR. [ALBERT E.] CARTER [of California]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that the gentleman's point of order comes too late.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will hold that it does not come too late. The Chair will count. [After counting.] More than 218 Members are present, a quorum.

So, two-thirds not having voted in favor thereof, the motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill was rejected.

After Division Vote

§ 13.20 Objection to a voice vote for lack of a quorum having been withdrawn and demand then being made for a division, an objection to the division vote for lack of a quorum is in order and, if a quorum is not present, the roll call is automatic.

On Feb. 5, 1957,<sup>(5)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 4249, to make appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1957, an automatic roll call took place.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(6)</sup> The Clerk will report the amendment on which a separate vote is demanded. . . .

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the amendment.

The question was taken and the Speaker announced that the "ayes" had it.

MRS. [EDITH S.] GREEN of Oregon: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will count.

MRS. GREEN of Oregon: Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the point of order and ask for a division.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mrs. Green of Oregon) there were—ayes 118, noes 46.

MRS. GREEN of Oregon: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present, and I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. H. CARL ANDERSEN [of Minnesota]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. H. CARL ANDERSEN: The point of order is that that request has already been made in reference to this vote, and the gentlewoman withdrew it.

THE SPEAKER: The objection to the voice vote on the grounds that a quorum was not present was withdrawn. The objection to the vote by division, on the grounds that a quorum is not present, is in order.

Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

During Vote on Amendment

§ 13.21 Where a quorum of the House is not present during the consideration of a bill in the House as in Committee of the Whole, any Member may object to the vote on an amendment and invoke an "automatic" roll call.

On May 11, 1970,<sup>(7)</sup> Speaker pro tempore John J. Flynt, Jr., of Georgia, entertained a point of no quorum during proceedings of the House as in the Committee of the Whole.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The question is on the committee amendments to the salary schedule found on pages 14 and 15 of the bill.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

MR. [BROCK] ADAMS [of Washington]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

6. Sam Rayburn (Tex.).

7. 116 CONG. REC. 14924, 91st Cong. 2d Sess.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state it.

MR. GROSS: Is this bill not being considered in the House as in Committee of the Whole?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman is correct.

MR. GROSS: Then, we cannot vote on an amendment on a roll-call vote.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state that the bill is being considered in the House as in Committee of the Whole and it is in the House. The gentleman's point of order is in order, and the rollcall will be automatic as soon as the Chair announces it.

Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

Before Prayer

§ 13.22 A quorum is not required for prayer by the Chaplain opening a session, and the Speaker does not recognize Members for points of no quorum at such time.

On Mar. 19, 1941,<sup>(8)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, refused to entertain a point of no quorum raised before the opening prayer.<sup>(9)</sup>

After Announcement of Vote Result

§ 13.23 It is too late to object to a vote for lack of a quorum under Rule XV clause 4,<sup>(10)</sup> after the Speaker has announced the result of the vote and a motion to reconsider has been laid on the table.

On Apr. 17, 1972,<sup>(11)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 13435, the Upper Colorado River basin authorization, Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, ruled on the timeliness of a point of no quorum.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. Johnson) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill H.R. 13435, as amended.

The question was taken; and—two-thirds having voted in favor thereof—the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman's point comes too late. The gentleman should have made that point before the result of the vote was announced.

§ 13.24 Objection to a division vote on the ground that a quorum was not present comes too late after the vote has been announced, the bill passed, and a motion to reconsider laid on the table.

On Sept. 17, 1962,<sup>(12)</sup> after a vote on H.R. 12761, to provide relief for occupants of unpatented mining claims, Speaker pro tempore Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, ruled that a point of no quorum was made too late.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The question is, Will the House suspend the rules and pass the bill H.R. 12761?

The question was taken, and on a division (demanded by Mr. Dingell) there were—ayes 49, noes 13.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds having voted in the affirmative, the rules are suspended and the bill is passed, and without objection, a motion to reconsider is laid on the table.

There was no objection.

MR. [JOHN D.] DINGELL [Jr., of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. [CHARLES A.] HALLECK [of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that the point of order comes too late. The result of the vote has been announced.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman is making a point of order.

MR. DINGELL: And I object to the vote.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: That objection comes too late.

MR. DINGELL: Very well, Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the point of order.

After Completing Action

§ 13.25 Objection to a vote on the ground that a quorum is not present comes too late after the bill has been passed, a motion to reconsider laid on the table, and further business is under discussion but the Speaker may entertain a unanimous-consent request to vacate the proceedings.

On Oct. 5, 1962,<sup>(13)</sup> during consideration of S. 1447, to amend the Teachers' Salary Act for the District of Columbia, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, after indicating that objection to a vote had not been timely made, obtained unanimous consent to vacate the proceedings whereby the bill was passed, after a Member, James G. Fulton, of Pennsylvania, insisted that he had timely sought recognition to raise a point of no quorum.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the committee amendment.

The committee amendment was agreed to.

The bill was ordered to be read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table. . . .

MR. [CHARLES A.] HALLECK [of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire whether or not there are further conference reports or unanimous-consent requests to be considered this evening.

MR. [JOHN L.] McMILLAN [of South Carolina]: I have one more bill I desire to call up from the Committee on the District of Columbia.

MR. FULTON: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The bill has already passed.

MR. FULTON: Mr. Speaker, I was on my feet.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that if a Member is on his feet, that is insufficient. The gentleman did not address the Chair.

MR. FULTON: I was saying "Mr. Speaker," and was not heard. I was on my feet.

THE SPEAKER: If the gentleman asks unanimous consent to vacate the action, the Chair will entertain a request. But the passage of the bill had been completed.

MR. FULTON: Mr. Speaker, I was on my feet addressing the Speaker, but I was not recognized.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair does not know what is in the gentleman's mind when the gentleman is on his feet.

MR. FULTON: I was saying "Mr. Speaker," right straight through. I am sure it is the custom of the House to be recognized when a point of order is being made.

THE SPEAKER: Without objection, the action whereby the bill was passed will be vacated.

There was no objection.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the passage of the bill.

The question was taken, and the Speaker announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

§ 13.26 An action having been completed, the Speaker declined to recognize a Member to object to the vote where the Member had not shown the proper diligence in seeking recognition.

On June 29, 1959,<sup>(1)</sup> after a vote on the conference report on H.R. 7523, to provide a one-year extension of existing corporate and excise tax rates (H. Rept. No. 587), Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, declined to recognize for an objection to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present.

THE SPEAKER: Without objection, the previous question is considered as ordered.

There was no objection.

1. 105 CONG. REC. 12110, 86th Cong. 1st Sess.

The previous question was ordered.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the conference report.

The conference report was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

MR. [LEONARD G.] WOLF [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, I object on the ground that a quorum was not present on that vote.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman is somewhat late. The Chair would not hold that the gentleman's point comes too late, if the gentleman insists on it, but the Chair had already declared the result of the vote and the motion to reconsider the vote was laid on the table.

Between Establishment of Quorum and Reading Message

§ 13.27 Where a quorum had been established on a call of the House, the Speaker has held that the act of laying a message before the House is not such transaction of business so as to permit another point of no quorum.

On Apr. 21, 1971,<sup>(4)</sup> Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, refused to allow interruption of reading of a resolution for a point of no quorum.

MR. [ANDREW] JACOBS [Jr., of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The Clerk read as follows:

MR. JACOBS: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

§ 14. Dilatoriness; Effect of Prior Count

Rule XVI clause 10,<sup>(8)</sup> provides that no dilatory motion shall be entertained by the Speaker. Although the question of the presence of a quorum is a constitutional one<sup>(9)</sup> which is always in order where the House is conducting business<sup>(10)</sup> and has the

However, when presence of a quorum is not apparent or the Chair is uncertain, he counts the House.<sup>(14)</sup> If “business”<sup>(15)</sup> has intervened between ascertainment of a quorum and a point of no quorum, the Speaker may count the House.<sup>(16)</sup> Where the Speaker ascertains the presence of a quorum by actual count following objection to a vote under Rule XV clause 4, or where a demand for the yeas and nays is rejected and a division vote is then had on the pending question, the division vote is intervening business permitting another objection to the lack of a quorum, and the Speaker

Nonetheless, when convinced that a point of no quorum is made for the purpose of obstructing business, the Speaker has declined to entertain it even after intervention of business.<sup>(17)</sup> Normally, the Chair declines to hold such a point of order dilatory, based upon the constitutional requirement for the presence of a quorum.<sup>(1)</sup>

The question of dilatoriness is not necessarily determined by the length of time since ascertainment of a quorum or the character of the intervening business, but by the Speaker’s opinion as to whether, under the circumstances, the motion is made with intent to delay the business of the House.<sup>(2)</sup>

established and it is apparent to the Chair that a quorum remains on the floor of the House; but where the presence of a quorum is not apparent, or the Chair is uncertain, he will count the House.

On the legislative day of Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(3)</sup> during consideration of Senate Joint Resolution 175 to suspend the equal-time provision of the Communications Act of 1934 for candidates for President and Vice President for the 1968 campaign, Speaker John W. MR. [BARBER B.] CONABLE [Jr., of New York]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. [JAMES C.] WRIGHT [Jr., of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. WRIGHT: Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order against the gentleman's point of order on the ground that the gentleman's point of order is a dilatory motion, proscribed by the rules, wherein it is clearly set forth that no dilatory motion shall be entertained by the Speaker.

THE SPEAKER: When it is apparent to the Chair that a quorum is present, the Chair can declare a point of order of no quorum to be dilatory; but when it is apparent to the Chair that a quorum is not present, or the Chair is not certain, the Chair will count. And the Chair will count on this occasion.

One hundred and fifty-five Members are present, not a quorum.

Chair's Reluctance to Hold Points of No Quorum to Be Dilatory

§ 14.2 The Speaker stated that a question as to whether a quorum was present was a constitutional one, and he refused to hold it to be dilatory.

On May 22, 1946,<sup>(4)</sup> after debate in the House had been interrupted by numerous points of no quorum and calls of the House, Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, made a statement as to the constitutional nature of a point of no quorum.

MR. [THOMAS G.] ABERNETHY [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. [CHRISTIAN A.] HERTER [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HERTER: Mr. Speaker, the motion just made is a dilatory motion which should be ruled out under rule XVI.

4. 92 CONG. REC. 5445, 79th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair may say, in reply to the gentleman from Massachusetts, that the question of whether a quorum is present or not is a constitutional one.

The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and twenty-six Members are present, not a quorum.

§ 14.3 Since the Constitution defines a quorum of the House and states that it shall be required for the conduct of business, and a point of order that a quorum is not present is the only way a Member has of enforcing this constitutional requirement, the Chair is extremely reluctant to withhold recognition for this purpose.

On Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(5)</sup> (during consideration of Senate Joint Resolution 175, to suspend for the 1968 campaign the equal-time requirements of the Communications Act of 1934 for candidates for President and Vice President, Speaker pro tempore Wilbur D. Mills, of Arkansas, responded to a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. [JAMES C.] WRIGHT [Jr., of Texas]: I thank the Speaker for permitting me this additional parliamentary inquiry. . . .

5. 114 CONG. REC. 30097, 90th Cong. 2d Sess.

On occasion the Chair has held that certain motions and points of order amounted to dilatory tactics, and that that was their obvious motivation, and on those occasions the Chair has summarily refused to recognize such obviously dilatory points of order and motions.

Mr. Speaker, my point of parliamentary inquiry is: would the Chair not feel that under the present situation, with repeated points of order being made that a quorum is not present, immediately followed by the absention of themselves by certain Members who have come in to answer the quorum, to be a rather obvious dilatory tactic, and one which might obviously lend itself to the assumption on the part of the Chair that a quorum having been established and proven so frequently and repeatedly during the day, would be presumed to be present for the completion of business?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair is ready to respond to the parliamentary inquiry posed by the gentleman from Texas.

It is the understanding of the Chair that no occupant of the Chair has ever in the history of the Congress held that a point of order that a quorum is not present is a dilatory tactic. The reasoning, obviously, is that the Constitution itself requires the presence on the floor of the House of a quorum at all times in the transaction of the business of the House of Representatives.

§ 14.4 The Chair has the right under certain circumstances to hold that motions are dilatory, but a point of no quorum is a question of very high privilege.

On June 5, 1946,<sup>(6)</sup> (Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, made a statement regarding the Chair's authority to hold that motions are dilatory.

THE SPEAKER: On this roll call 260 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

By unanimous consent, further proceedings under the call were dispensed with.

THE SPEAKER: This is Calendar Wednesday.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Speaker, I want to know whether these bills to be called on Calendar Wednesday are to be considered in the House as in Committee of the Whole?

MR. [DAN R.] MCGEHEE [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order there is not a quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: There has been no business transacted as yet. The Clerk will call the committees.

THE CLERK: The Committee on Banking and Currency.

MR. MCGEHEE: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order there is not a quorum present.

MR. [FRANK B.] KEEFE [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. KEEFE: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that the point of order raised by the gentleman from Mississippi is purely dilatory. Under section 10, rule XVI of the House, the Chair having just announced that a quorum is present, it is obvious that the point of order made by the gentleman from Mississippi is a purely dilatory motion and should not under the rules of the House be entertained by the Speaker.

MR. MCGEHEE: Mr. Speaker, in my opinion it does not lie within the province of any Member of the House to criticize or impugn the motive of any other Member when he makes a point of order in connection with any procedure on the floor of the House. Important legislation is contemplated being taken up and I observe on the floor at present that evidently there is not a quorum present and I therefore make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair, of course, has the right under certain circumstances to hold that motions are dilatory but a point of no quorum is a question of very high privilege. The Chair will not state what he will do at other times. The gentleman makes the point of order that a quorum is not present. The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and thirty-three Members are present; not a quorum.

MR. [ADOLPH J.] SABATH [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that the gentleman's point of order is dilatory.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair overrules the point of order made by the gentleman from Illinois.

The Chair will count. [After counting.] Two hundred and twenty-four Members are present, a quorum.

§ 14.6 Insistence by a Member on the presence of a quorum on the floor, evidenced by repeated points of no quorum, was held not to be dilatory where a quorum was in fact not present; and the Speaker refused to find that such points of order were designed to deliberately delay public business.

Sam Rayburn, of Texas, rejected a point of dilatoriness.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN of Mississippi: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that there is no quorum present. If we are to discuss this matter I think a quorum should be present.

MR. [EARL C.] MICHENER [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that the gentleman from Mississippi has clearly evidenced the fact that he is filibustering, and that his only object in pursuing the tactics he is pursuing is to delay the passage of the Ramsay bill, to which he objects. It surely must be apparent to the Speaker that these quorum calls are for the sole purpose of delay. Therefore the action of the gentleman from Mississippi is dilatory and out of order.

Mr. Rankin of Mississippi rose.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair trusts that he will never be called upon to make a ruling that a Member is deliberately delaying public business. There is a quorum in town. I think the gentleman from Mississippi, for the moment, at least, is within his rights in asking that a quorum be present.

The Chair will count. [After counting.] Evidently there is no quorum present.

MR. [JOHN BELL] WILLIAMS [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. WILLIAMS of Mississippi: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. [SIDNEY R.] YATES [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the point of order.

MR. VINSON: Will the gentleman not withhold that? I have only about 5 minutes.

MR. WILLIAMS of Mississippi: Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the point of order.

MR. VINSON: Mr. Speaker, I deny with all the power of my being the naive presumption that the Constitution of the United States is nothing more than what the Supreme Court says it is. . . .

MR. [WILLIAM M.] COLMER [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is making a very sound statement here and I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. YATES: Mr. Speaker, may I be heard on the point of order?

THE SPEAKER: The point of order that a quorum is not present is not debatable.

MR. YATES: Since the last point of order on a quorum there has been no further transaction of business, and it is obvious that the points of order being made are dilatory.

10. 102 CONG. REC. 6889, 6891, 84th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE SPEAKER: There were various unanimous-consent requests granted since the last call of the House. The Chair has been up against this question of whether there was a filibuster or whether there was not a great many times. This occupant of the Chair is very liberal with Members who want a quorum present or to have business transacted in the regular way. The Chair is not going to hold that this point of order is dilatory.

§ 14.8 Precedents of the House which indicate that the Chair has held a point of no quorum to be dilatory when it immediately follows a call of the House which discloses the presence of a quorum are not applicable to the situation where there is “intervening business” between the establishment of the quorum and the making of the point of no quorum; the correction of a roll call, by unanimous consent, is such “business” as will prevent the Chair from holding the point of order to be dilatory on its face.

On Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(11)</sup> Speaker pro tempore Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, ruled on a question of dilatoriness.

MR. [JOHN M.] ASHBROOK [of Ohio]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

11. 114 CONG. REC. 30224, 90th Cong. 2d Sess. Calendar day of Oct. 9.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman from Ohio makes the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. [BROCK] ADAMS [of Washington]: A point of order, Mr. Speaker. There has been no intervening business since the rollcall on the resolution which indicated a quorum.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state that the gentleman is in error, since we have had a correction of a rollcall.

The gentleman from Ohio makes the point of order that a quorum is not present. Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [WILBUR D.] MILLS [of Arkansas]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

When Points of No Quorum Not Entertained

§ 14.9 Repeated points of no quorum may be held to be dilatory in the Committee of the Whole if, after the Chair has once counted and found a quorum present, it appears to him that further points of order are without foundation.

On Dec. 30, 1932,<sup>(12)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 13872, the Department of Agriculture appropriation bill, Chairman Andrew J. Montague, of Virginia, held that a point of no quorum was dilatory.

MR. [LEONIDAS C.] DYER [of Missouri]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order there is not a quorum present.

12. 76 CONG. REC. 1123, 72d Cong. 2d Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and five are present, a quorum.

MR. [MILES C.] ALLGOOD [of Alabama]: Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent to return to page 52, line 23, for the purpose of offering an important amendment.

MR. [JAMES P.] BUCHANAN [of Texas]: Mr. Chairman, I object.

MR. ALLGOOD: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that there is not a quorum present.

MR. [FIORELLO H.] LAGUARDIA [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, that point of order is dilatory, because the Chair has just counted and found a quorum present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair has counted a quorum and will not entertain the point of order raised by the gentleman from Alabama.

MR. ALLGOOD: But the Members who were in the Chamber when the Chair counted a quorum have returned to the cloakroom.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair believes a quorum is still present. The Clerk will read.

§ 14.10 The Speaker may decline to entertain a point of no quorum after the House has voted to resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole and while the Speaker is in the process of leaving the chair.

On Apr. 14, 1937,<sup>(13)</sup> the House was proceeding with the call of committees under the Calendar Wednesday rule. The House having voted to consider a bill, Speaker William B. Bankhead, of Alabama, refused to entertain a point of order that a quorum was not present made after his announcement that the House had resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole but before he had vacated the chair.

13. 81 CONG. REC. 3455, 3456, 75th Cong. 1st Sess.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

THE SPEAKER: The question is, Will the House consider the bill (H.R. 1668) to amend paragraph (1) of section 4 of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended February 28, 1920 (U.S.C., title 49, sec. 4)?

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 278, nays 97, answered “present” 1, not voting 54, as follows:

. . .

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

THE SPEAKER: The House automatically resolves itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill.

MR. [SCHUYLER OTIS] BLAND [of Virginia]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order there is not a quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair feels compelled to overrule the point of order, as the recent vote discloses a quorum is present.

§ 14.11 The Speaker held as dilatory a point of no quorum made immediately after a yea and nay vote which disclosed a quorum present where the only event intervening between announcement of the vote and the point of no quorum was the receipt of a message.

On July 21, 1947,<sup>(14)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, ruled on a point of no quorum.

MR. [TOM] PICKETT [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn. . . .

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 85, nays 299, not voting 46, as follows: . . .

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from New York [Mr. Gamble] is recognized.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Speaker, I notice there is a message here from the President. Do we not receive them when they come in?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair was about to suspend for a moment to receive a message.

[A message in writing from the President of the United States was announced and received.]

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order there is not a quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman's point of order is dilatory. That is obvious to all Members.

14. 93 CONG. REC. 9523, 9524, 80th Cong. 1st Sess.

§ 14.12 After stating that, “. . . he [the Speaker] has yet to hold a motion to be dilatory, and will not until it becomes obvious to everybody that dilatory tactics are being indulged in and that a filibuster is being conducted,” the Speaker declined to recognize a point of no quorum immediately after a vote by yeas and nays which disclosed that 362 Members were present.

On July 25, 1949,<sup>(15)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, refused to recognize a point of no quorum.

MR. [ROBERT L. F.] SIKES [of Florida]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Florida moves that the House do now adjourn.

The Chair desires to make a statement. Since the present Speaker has occupied the chair he has yet to hold a motion to be dilatory, and will not until it becomes obvious to everybody that dilatory tactics are being indulged in and that a filibuster is being conducted.

The question is on the motion to adjourn.

MR. SIKES: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk called the roll; and there were—yeas 110, nays 252, not voting 70, as follows: . . .

15. 95 CONG. REC. 10095, 10096, 81st Cong. 1st Sess.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

MR. [TOM] PICKETT [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The roll call just disclosed that there were 362 Members present, quite a substantial quorum.

§ 14.13 The Speaker, being satisfied that a quorum was present and that a point of no quorum was made for dilatory purposes, declined to entertain it and allowed debate to proceed without taking time to count the House.

On June 3, 1960,<sup>(1)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, refused to entertain a point of no quorum where more than the number necessary to make a quorum had just responded on a yea and nay vote on a motion to adjourn.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the motion to adjourn.

MR. [JOHN JAMES] FLYNT [Jr., of Georgia]: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 77, nays 195, not voting 159. . . .

So the motion to adjourn was rejected. . . .

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

1. 106 CONG. REC. 11829, 86th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE SPEAKER: Under previous order of the House, the gentleman from California [Mr. Holifield] is recognized for 60 minutes.

MR. [CARROLL D.] KEARNS [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

MR. [CHET] HOLIFIELD: I yield to the gentleman from Pennsylvania.

MR. KEARNS: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that there is no quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: The roll was called only 1 minute ago and a quorum was present. A quorum is present.

The gentleman from California.

§ 14.14 After he counted a quorum and a quorum failed to vote on an amendment immediately thereafter, the Speaker in reply to a point of order ruled that a quorum remained present at the time of the division vote and the Chair was not responsible if all Members did not vote.

On Apr. 2, 1943,<sup>(2)</sup> after a vote held during consideration of H.R. 2087, the War Security Act, Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, rejected a point of no quorum.

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will count. [After counting.] Two hundred and nineteen Members are present, a quorum.

2. 89 CONG. REC. 2886, 78th Cong. 1st Sess.

The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Wisconsin.

The question was taken; and the Chair being in doubt, the House divided, and there were—ayes 62, noes 112.

MR. [HARRY] SAUTHOFF [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair has just counted, and a quorum was present. The Chair is not responsible if all Members in the House do not vote. The Chair must hold that a quorum is present.

So the amendment was rejected.

§ 14.15 Where the House ordered the doors of the Chamber locked until establishment of a quorum and disposition of pending business, the Chair indicated that after a quorum was present in the Chamber further points of no quorum would be dilatory until the business was completed and the doors opened.

On the legislative day of Oct. 8, 1968,<sup>(3)</sup> during consideration of Senate Joint Resolution 175, to suspend the equal-time requirement of the Communications Act of 1934, for candidates for President and Vice President, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, made a statement as to assuming the presence of a quorum when the doors were locked to prevent exit of Members.

MR. GERALD R. FORD [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. GERALD R. FORD: Let me repeat the language of the motion of the gentleman from Washington:

That a motion be made for the majority here that those who are not present be sent for wherever they are found and returned here on the condition that they shall not be allowed to leave the Chamber until such time as the pending business before this Chamber on this legislative day shall have been completed.

Mr. Speaker, I respectfully argue that in the language used by the gentleman from Washington in the motion that he made, he says very specifically and very categorically that those who are not here are the ones who must be kept in the Chamber.

MR. [JOHN D.] DINGELL [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I demand the regular order.

THE SPEAKER: The regular order is that the gentleman is making a parliamentary inquiry.

MR. GERALD R. FORD: And I am indicating, Mr. Speaker, in my parliamentary inquiry, that the doors to the Chamber shall not be closed to those Members who were here at the time of the call for the quorum.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair, in response to the parliamentary inquiry of the distinguished minority leader, feels, in construing the motion, that a part of the construction is the happenings of the last 10 or 12 or more hours and the intent and purpose of the gentleman from Washington in making the motion.

It seems to the Chair, in response to the parliamentary inquiry—and the Chair makes such a response—that the motion offered by the gentleman from Washington [Mr. Adams] meant that any Member who answered the last quorum call cannot leave the Chamber until the pending business has been disposed of; and the doors will be kept closed.

The Chair might observe in relation to any future points of order that a quorum is not present that apparently a quorum is present because the last one disclosed 222 Members and the Chair is justified in assuming that the 222 Members are still here. The doors will remain locked until the present business is disposed of.

§ 14.16 The Speaker has refused to entertain a point of no quorum where a quorum had just been established by a call of the House and where no further business had been transacted.

On Jan. 22, 1971,<sup>(4)</sup> Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, refused to entertain a point of no quorum.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday.

4. 117 CONG. REC. 131, 92d Cong. 1st Sess.

Mr. [DONALD W.] RIEGLE [Jr., of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

Mr. CHARLES H. WILSON [of California]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall 373 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

By unanimous consent, further proceedings under the call were dispensed with.

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will proceed with the reading of the Journal.

Mr. [JAMES C.] CLEVELAND [of New Hampshire]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: A quorum has just been established. There has been no business transacted.

The Clerk will proceed with the reading of the Journal.

§ 14.17 Where a quorum has been established on a call of the House and the Chair then lays a message before the House, a further point of no quorum is not entertained before the message is read by the Clerk or other business is transacted.

On Apr. 21, 1971,<sup>(5)</sup> Speaker Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, ruled on the timeliness of a point of no quorum raised after a message was received but before it was read.<sup>(6)</sup>

5. 117 CONG. REC. 11095, 11096, 92d Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. [ANDREW] JACOBS [Jr., of Indiana]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [THOMAS P.] O'NEILL [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

THE SPEAKER: On this rollcall 334 Members have answered to their names, a quorum.

By unanimous consent, further proceedings under the call were dispensed with. . . .

THE SPEAKER: The Chair lays before the House the following message from the President of the United States:

MR. JACOBS: Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: A rollcall just disclosed the presence of a quorum.

MR. JACOBS: I make the point of order that a quorum is not present, Mr. Speaker, obviously not.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair advises the gentleman that a quorum has just been established and no business has transpired.

MR. JACOBS: At the moment I make a point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman's point of order is out of order.

§ 15. Proceedings Pending Call of House in Absence of Quorum

Because the point of no quorum is not debatable,<sup>(7)</sup> no Member may be heard on it and subsequent remarks should not be included in the Congressional Record.<sup>(8)</sup> However, the Speaker may entertain points of order which relate to the pending call of the House.<sup>(9)</sup> Although the Chair may decline to recognize a Member for a parliamentary inquiry when a point of no quorum has been made,<sup>(10)</sup> or absence of a quorum has been announced<sup>(11)</sup> he has entertained inquiries during a roll call vote to explain procedures available if a quorum fails to appear,<sup>(12)</sup> or to clarify the nature of the pending question.<sup>(13)</sup>

6. See supplements to this edition for discussion of provisions in Rule XV clause 6 added by the 93d Congress on Apr. 9, 1974, to the effect that a point of no quorum may not be made or entertained during the reception of any message from the President or the Senate.

12. § 15.6, infra.

13. § 15.7, infra.

*In General; Debate§ 15.1 The point of order that a quorum is not present is not debatable.

On Apr. 24, 1956,<sup>(1)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, ruled on a request to be heard on a point of no quorum.

MR. [William M.] COLMER [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is making a very sound statement here and I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. [SIDNEY R.] YATES [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, may I be heard on the point of order?

THE SPEAKER: The point of order that a quorum is not present is not debatable.

§ 15.2 Because a point of order that a quorum is not present is not debatable, remarks by the proponent after the point is raised should not be included in the Record.

On Apr. 15, 1940,<sup>(2)</sup> Speaker pro tempore Sam Rayburn, of Texas, answered a parliamentary inquiry, as follows:

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Speaker—

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: For what purpose does the gentleman from New York rise?

1. 102 CONG. REC. 6891, 84th Cong. 2d Sess.
2. 86 CONG. REC. 4517, 76th Cong. 3d Sess.

MR. TABER: A question of the privileges of the House and of the Record.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman from New York.

MR. TABER: Mr. Speaker, a little while ago the gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. Rankin] made a point of order that no quorum was present, and thereafter he said:

You are not going to raid the veterans of the World War and pass these other pension bills and run over the House that way. I make the point of order there is no quorum present.

Now, the gentleman was not recognized for that purpose; and then thereafter the gentleman from Mississippi further stated:

And there will be a quorum and a vote on every other bill from now on today.

The gentleman was not recognized for that purpose, and that should not be in the Record. I make the point of order that that language should not be contained in the Record.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman from New York makes the point of order that certain remarks made in the House should not be included in the Record. The Chair is prepared to rule.

Under the rules of the House, remarks should only be included in the Record that are made in order. After a point of order is made, which is not debatable, any further remarks should not be included in the Record. Therefore the Chair rules that any remarks that may have been made after the point of order that a quorum was not present was made should not be included in the Record.

*Points of Order§ 15.3 While a parliamentary inquiry is normally not entertained by the Chair in the absence of a quorum, the Chair may recognize a Member on an inquiry or on a point of order which relates to the pending call of the House.

On Oct. 8, 1958,<sup>(3)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, entertained a point of order.

MR. [DONALD] RUMSFELD [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(4)</sup> The Chair will count.

One hundred sixty-seven Members are present, not a quorum.

MR. [JOHN H.] DENT [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: A parliamentary inquiry cannot be asked at this time.

MR. [JOHN J.] MCFALL [of California]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

THE SPEAKER: The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

MR. DENT: Mr. Speaker, a point of order, which relates to the call of the roll.

3. 114 CONG. REC. 30093, 90th Cong. 2d Sess.

4. Wilbur D. Mills (Ark.).

THE SPEAKER: The House will be in order. The Clerk will proceed with the call of the roll.

MR. DENT: Mr. Speaker, the point of order relates to the proper calling of the roll.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. DENT: The point of order is the doors were ordered closed, and the doors to the outside of the Chamber are open in the cloakrooms.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair has given instructions to close all doors and allow no Members out.

Parliamentarian's Note: The Speaker ordered the doors locked during roll call Nos. 382 and 383. When this remedy did not prove effective, since Members continued to leave the Chamber immediately after the calls were dispensed with, he did not continue to enforce the rule.

*Parliamentary Inquiries§ 15.4 The Chair has declined to recognize a Member to propound a parliamentary inquiry when a point of no quorum has been made unless it is withdrawn.

On July 23, 1942,<sup>(5)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, refused to recognize a Member.

MR. [WRIGHT] PATMAN [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

5. 88 CONG. REC. 6540, 77th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [ADOLPH J.] SABATH [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, may I ask unanimous consent that we call up a resolution?

MR. PATMAN: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. [EARL C.] MICHENER [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair doubts the authority of the Chair to recognize the gentleman to propound a parliamentary inquiry when a point of order is made, unless the gentleman from Texas withholds it.

Parliamentarian's Note: The Chair may, in his discretion, entertain parliamentary inquiries pending his announcement of his count for a quorum, but after the absence of a quorum has been disclosed, the Chair then only responds to inquiries relating to the call of the House.

§ 15.5 The Chair refuses to recognize a Member for a parliamentary inquiry after the absence of a quorum has been announced.

On June 3, 1964,<sup>(6)</sup> Speaker pro tempore Carl Albert, of Oklahoma, refused to recognize a Member for a parliamentary inquiry.<sup>(7)</sup>

MR. [WAYNE L.] HAYS [of Ohio]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

6. 110 CONG. REC. 12521, 88th Cong. 2d Sess.

7. See also 110 CONG. REC. 7353-55, 88th Cong. 2d Sess., Apr. 9, 1964.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will count. [After counting.] There are 159 Members present; not a quorum.

MR. [HALE] BOGGS [of Louisiana]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

MR. [PAUL C.] JONES of Missouri: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: No parliamentary inquiry can be made.

MR. JONES of Missouri: I can make a parliamentary inquiry; certainly.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: A quorum is not present. A call of the House has been ordered. The gentleman cannot make his parliamentary inquiry in the absence of a quorum.

The Clerk will call the roll.

§ 15.6 The Speaker recognized Members to propound parliamentary inquiries during a roll call vote, a quorum as yet not having responded, but made it clear that such recognition was not to be considered a precedent.

On Oct. 18, 1966,<sup>(8)</sup> during a roll call vote on House Resolution 1062, relating to the refusal of Jeremiah Stamler to testify before the Committee on Un-American Activities, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, answered parliamentary inquiries before the result of the vote was announced.

MR. [JOHN BELL] WILLIAMS [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

8. 112 CONG. REC. 27512, 27513, 89th Cong. 2d Sess.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will count. Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 174, nays 37, not voting 221, as follows: . . .

MR. [SIDNEY R.] YATES [of Illinois] (interrupting the rollcall): Regular order. . . .

MR. [JOHN H.] DENT [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. DENT: Am I correct that if we do not have a quorum present on the vote, tomorrow the first order of business will be a vote on the same question?

THE SPEAKER: Exactly.

MR. DENT: Then I would advise those Members who are hiding to come out and vote.

MR. [CHARLES L.] WELTNER [of Georgia]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. WELTNER: Mr. Speaker, in the event that the result of the vote is announced and it appears that less than a quorum, or less than 218 Members, have voted, and unanimous consent is not given to dispense with further proceedings under the call, am I correct in understanding that the Sergeant at Arms will then be under an obligation to produce the nonvoting Members?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state, in response to the inquiry, that if a quorum is not present one of two alternatives remain; one, to adjourn the House, and the other, to instruct the Sergeant at Arms.

The Chair wants to state, frankly, the Chair would not instruct the Sergeant at Arms.

The Chair might state that recognizing Members for parliamentary inquiries at this stage is not to be considered as a precedent in the future.

MR. [DURWARD G.] HALL [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. HALL: In the event of the stipulations made by the Speaker as to whom he would recognize and not recognize, if further proceedings under the call of the House are not dispensed with, would it not be automatic that the Sergeant at Arms would be instructed by the Speaker to enjoin a quorum in the House?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that this is an automatic rollcall on the adoption of the resolution. The question of dispensing with further proceedings under the call would not be involved.

In answer to the second part of the gentleman's inquiry, that would not automatically follow.

MR. HALL: I thank the Speaker.

MR. [LESLIE C.] ARENDS [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. ARENDS: If it should happen that a quorum does not develop tonight, the unfinished business tomorrow would be the retaking of this same vote?

THE SPEAKER: Exactly. That would be the first order of business.

§ 15.7 Following completion of the first call of the roll, the Speaker responded to parliamentary inquiries and clarified the nature and effect of the question upon which the House was then voting.

On Oct. 12, 1962,<sup>(9)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, answered parliamentary inquiries.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Missouri makes the point of order that a quorum is not present and objects to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present.

The Chair will count.

Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Doorkeeper will close the doors, the Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members, and the Clerk will call the roll.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 84, nays 120, not voting 230, as follows: . . .

(After completion of first call of the roll:)

MR. [WILLIAM H.] AVERY [of Kansas]: Mr. Speaker—

THE SPEAKER: For what purpose does the gentleman from Kansas rise?

MR. AVERY: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. AVERY: What motion is the House presently voting on?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that the parliamentary inquiry is very pertinent. The Chair will state in response that the House is voting on a motion which was made by the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Cannon] to recede and concur in a Senate amendment, with an amendment.

MR. [CLARENCE] CANNON. Mr. Speaker, my motion was for the previous question.

THE SPEAKER: The House is voting on a motion made by the gentleman from Missouri to recede and concur in the Senate amendment, with an amendment.

That is the motion pending at the present time.

The Clerk will proceed to call the roll of those Members who failed to answer on the first rollcall.

(The Clerk resumed calling the roll.)

MR. [WILLIAM C.] CRAMER [of Florida]: (interrupting call of the roll): Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. CRAMER: Mr. Speaker, do I understand the parliamentary situation to be that the motion now being voted upon is a motion to recede and concur in a Senate amendment with an amendment, and a vote "no" is a vote for $205,000 for the Florida Cross-State Barge Canal planning, and a vote of "aye" is against it?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair has already stated that the parliamentary inquiry is correct in response to the inquiry of the gentleman from Kansas [Mr. Avery]. The Chair is confident that Members know what they are voting upon.

(The Clerk resumed calling the roll.)

§ 16. In the Committee of the Whole

In the Committee of the Whole a point of order that a quorum is not present is in order, but an objection to a vote on the ground that a quorum is not present is not in order.<sup>(10)</sup> A recorded vote in the Committee of the Whole may be ordered by 25 or more Members.<sup>(11)</sup>

Provisions of the rules relating to quorum requirements in the Committee of the Whole adopted in the 93d Congress on Apr. 9, 1974, will be discussed in detail in supplements to this edition. Briefly, these provisions authorize the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, at any time during a quorum call, to declare that a quorum is constituted when he determines that a quorum is present. Proceedings under the call, in such instances, are considered vacated. The new rule also incorporates the preexisting precedents to the effect that a quorum is not required in the Committee of the Whole for agreement to a motion that the Committee rise. Furthermore, it is stated that a point of order that a quorum is not present may not be made or entertained after the presence of a quorum is once ascertained during the period after a Committee of the Whole has risen after completing consideration of a bill or resolution and before the Chairman has reported the measure back to the House.

Rule XXIII clause 2 was also amended in the 95th<sup>(12)</sup> and 96th<sup>(13)</sup> Congresses to limit the right to make a point of no quorum during general debate in Committee of the Whole. Under the later practice, a point of no quorum is a matter of right each day only once during five-minute debate, and then again only when a question is put on an amendment or motion. In the 97th<sup>(1)</sup> Congress, the rule was further amended to allow the Chairman the discretion whether or not to entertain a point of order of no quorum during general debate only.

*When in Order§ 16.1 In the Committee of the Whole, a point of order that a quorum is not present will lie; but objection will not lie to a vote on the ground that a quorum is not present.

On Dec. 17, 1970,<sup>(2)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 19446, the Emergency School Aid Act of 1970 Chairman James C. Corman, of California, after entertaining a point of order that a quorum was not present refused to entertain an objection to a vote on the ground that a quorum was not present.

MR. [ROMAN C.] PUCINSKI [of Illinois]: Mr. Chairman, I move that all debate on this amendment end in the next 3 minutes.

MR. [JAMES A.] HALEY [of Florida]: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HALEY: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

MR. [WILLIAM L.] CLAY [of Missouri]: Mr. Chairman, I move that the committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion of the gentleman from Missouri.

The question was taken; and the Chairman announced that the ayes had it.

2. 116 CONG. REC. 42232, 42233, 91st Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. PUCINSKI: Mr. Chairman, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman's point of order is not in order in the Committee of the Whole.

MR. PUCINSKI: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

THE CHAIRMAN: Tellers are demanded. Those in favor of taking the vote on the motion to rise by tellers will rise and remain standing until counted.

An insufficient number have arisen. Tellers are not ordered.

MR. PUCINSKI: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against that ruling in that a quorum is not present. The Chair ruled there is an insufficient number that have arisen for tellers. I challenge that ruling on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will advise the gentleman from Illinois again that his point of order is not in order.

The motion to rise was agreed to.

*Automatic Roll Call§ 16.2 Although a point of no quorum raised between a division and a teller vote is in order in the Committee of the Whole, it does not bring about an automatic call even though a quorum is not present.

On Aug. 21, 1950,<sup>(3)</sup> during consideration in the Committee of the Whole of H.R. 9313, a bill to amend the Agricultural Act of 1949, an objection to the vote was raised.

THE CHAIRMAN: <sup>(4)</sup> The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. Davis].

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Davis of Georgia) there were ayes 21, noes 28.

MR. [JAMES C.] DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman withdraws his point of order that a quorum is not present?

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: I do not withdraw it. A parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: Was my point of order that a quorum is not present in order?

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman can make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, I make that point of order, then.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. DAVIS of Georgia: Mr. Chairman, if I insist on the point of order, will I then have an opportunity to have a roll-call vote on this question?

THE CHAIRMAN: Not in Committee of the Whole, no.

§ 16.3 An objection to a division vote on the motion to rise decided in the negative in the Committee of the Whole on the ground that a quorum is not present does not precipitate an automatic roll call on the pending question but merely requires the Chair to count the Committee for a quorum.

On May 26, 1955,<sup>(5)</sup> the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, Prince H. Preston, Jr., of Georgia, made a ruling regarding an objection to a vote.

MR. H. CARL ANDERSEN [of Minnesota]: Mr. Chairman, I offer a privileged motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. H. Carl Andersen moves that the Committee do now rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. H. Carl Andersen) there were—ayes 7, noes 56.

So the motion was rejected.

MR. H. CARL ANDERSEN: Mr. Chairman, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that that does not bring on an automatic roll call. The Chair will count to determine whether a quorum is present. [After counting.] One hundred and eleven Members are present, a quorum.

§ 16.4 Because the provisions of Rule XV clause 4,<sup>(6)</sup> which permit a Member to object to a vote where a quorum is not present, are applicable only in the House, an automatic roll call is not in order in the Committee of the Whole.

On June 7, 1973,<sup>(7)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 7446, to establish the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration, Chairman Henry B. Gonzalez, of Texas, clarified the procedures admissible in the Committee of the Whole.<sup>(8)</sup>

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the amendments offered by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Williams).

The question was taken; and the Chairman announced that the noes appeared to have it.

MR. [LAWRENCE G.] WILLIAMS: Mr. Chairman, I demand a recorded vote.

THE CHAIRMAN: A recorded vote has been demanded.

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Chairman, I withdraw that. I make the point of order that a quorum is not present, and I object to the vote on that basis.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair advises the gentleman from Pennsylvania that that procedure is not in order in the Committee of the Whole.

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order. I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present, and I request a rollcall vote.

I can object to the vote on the grounds that a quorum is not present, and insist on my point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: Not in the Committee of the Whole, the Chair wishes to advise.

The gentleman may be advised that he may wish to raise a point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. WILLIAMS: That is exactly what I have done.

THE CHAIRMAN: But the gentleman must be advised that during proceedings of the Committee of the Whole, an automatic vote is not a proper request.

MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the vote previously taken on the basis that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Pennsylvania raises the point of order that a quorum is not present. Is that what the gentleman wishes?

MR. WILLIAMS: No. I demand a recorded vote.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will remind the gentleman from Pennsylvania that that demand has been withdrawn.

MR. WILLIAMS: I did withdraw it before. I am now requesting a recorded vote.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Pennsylvania now demands a recorded vote on his amendments.

A recorded vote was refused.

So the amendments were rejected.

Pending Demand for Tellers

§ 16.5 A point of no quorum in the Committee of the Whole is in order while a demand for tellers is pending.

On Mar. 23, 1970,<sup>(9)</sup> Chairman William J. B. Dorn, of South Carolina, ordered a quorum call in response to a point of no quorum.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York (Mr. Koch).

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Koch), there were—ayes 10, noes 50.

MR. [EDWARD I.] KOCH: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers. Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Clerk will call the roll. . . .

MR. [F. EDWARD] HÉBERT [of Louisiana]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HÉBERT: Mr. Chairman, is it in order to call for a quorum when a call for a teller vote is asked for and should be in progress at that moment—you cannot interrupt a vote.

9. 116 CONG. REC. 8562, 8563, 91st Cong. 2d Sess.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state that the gentleman from New York made the point that a quorum was not present.

MR. HÉBERT: No, no—the Record will show that he asked for a teller vote and then asked for a quorum.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is the understanding of the Chair that the gentleman asked for a teller vote and then made the point of order that a quorum was not present.

MR. HÉBERT: That is it—when he asked for a teller vote, he asked for a vote to be taken and that vote comes automatically. Having made that motion, he cannot get the other.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will advise the distinguished gentleman from Louisiana that the Committee cannot do business without a quorum, and since it has been established a quorum is not present, the Chair has directed the Clerk to call the roll.

Pending Motion to Rise

§ 16.6 A point of order of no quorum is not in order in Committee of the Whole where there is pending a motion that the Committee rise, since the motion to rise does not require a quorum for adoption.

casting, in the Committee of the Whole, Chairman Robert N. Giaimo, of Connecticut, ruled out of order a point of no quorum while a motion to rise was pending.

MR. [HARLEY O.] STAGGERS [of West Virginia]: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Chairman, on that motion I demand tellers.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Iowa is demanding tellers on the motion that the Committee do now rise?

MR. GROSS: That is correct, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state to the gentleman that the Chair has not yet put the motion.

The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from West Virginia that the Committee do now rise.

The question was taken; and the Chairman announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

MR. GROSS: Mr. Chairman, on that I demand tellers.

Tellers were refused.

MR. GROSS: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will advise the gentleman from Iowa that a quorum is not needed upon the motion that the Committee do now rise.

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Boggs) resumed the chair.

§ 16.7 A point of order that no quorum is present is not in

On Mar. 9, 1936,<sup>(11)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 11563, the District of Columbia rent commission bill, William B. Umstead, of North Carolina, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, sustained a point of order that a point of no quorum was not in order.

MR. [THOMAS L.] BLANTON [of Texas] (interrupting the reading of the bill): Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

The question was taken.

MR. BLANTON: Mr. Chairman, I ask for a division.

The Committee divided; and there were—ayes 40, noes 33.

MR. [HENRY] ELLENBOGEN [of Pennsylvania]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order there is not a quorum present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

MR. [JOHN] TABER [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. TABER: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a point of no quorum is not in order after the Committee has determined to rise.

THE CHAIRMAN: The point of order is sustained. The vote had already been announced.

MR. ELLENBOGEN: Mr. Chairman, I ask for tellers.

11. 80 CONG. REC. 3459, 74th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. BLANTON: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that the request comes too late, business having intervened.

THE CHAIRMAN: The point of order is overruled. The question is on ordering tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chair appointed as tellers Mrs. Norton and Mr. Blanton.

The Committee again divided; and there were—ayes 30, noes 61.

MR. BLANTON: Mr. Chairman, I object to the vote on the ground there is not a quorum present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and fourteen Members are present, a quorum.

The Clerk continued reading the bill.

Parliamentarian's Note: At the point that the point of no quorum was first made, the Committee had determined to rise, on which vote a quorum is not required.

MR. [LESLIE C.] ARENDS [of Illinois]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(15)</sup> The Chair will count. [After counting.] Sixty-seven Members are present, not a quorum.

MR. [CARL] ALBERT [of Oklahoma]: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise. On that I demand tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Albert and Mr. Arends.

The Committee divided, and the tellers reported and there were—ayes 3, noes 108.

So the motion was rejected.

THE CHAIRMAN: A quorum is present.

On Feb. 8, 1950,<sup>(16)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 2945, to adjust postal rates, the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, Chet Holifield, of California, made a ruling regarding the need for a quorum.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the amendment to the amendment.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Hagen) there were—ayes 76, noes 21.

MR. [HAROLD C.] HAGEN [of Minnesota]: Mr. Chairman, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. RANKIN: A quorum is not necessary to vote in the Committee of the Whole and a vote in the Committee of the Whole cannot be forced by a point of no quorum.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will state to the gentleman from Mississippi that the rules require a quorum of a hundred in the Committee of the Whole.

16. 96 CONG. REC. 1678, 1679, 81st Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. RANKIN: But the gentleman objected to the vote on the ground there was no quorum present.

MR. HAGEN: There was not a quorum present as disclosed by the announcement of the vote.

MR. RANKIN: It is all right to make a point of no quorum; that is one thing; but to object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present is something else.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and sixty-six Members are present, a quorum.

So the amendment was agreed to.

§ 16.10 After a point of order that a quorum is not present in the Committee of the Whole has been made and a motion to rise is rejected (a quorum failing to respond on that vote), the Chair directs the Clerk to call the roll to obtain a quorum.

On July 15, 1942,<sup>(17)</sup> Wright Patman, of Texas, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, directed the Clerk to call the roll.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from New York [Mr. Taber] makes a point of order that a quorum is not present. The Chair will count. [After counting.] Sixty-five Members are present, not a quorum.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN of Mississippi: Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise, and on that I demand tellers.

17. 88 CONG. REC. 6214, 6215, 77th Cong. 2d Sess.

Tellers were ordered, and the Chair appointed as tellers Mr. Rankin of Mississippi and Mr. Kinzer.

The Committee divided; and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 13, noes 33.

THE CHAIRMAN: So the Committee refuses to rise. A quorum is not present. The Clerk will call the roll.

§ 16.11 Where the Committee of the Whole rises and the Chairman thereof reports to the House that, pursuant to Rule XXIII clause 2,<sup>(18)</sup> he caused the roll to be called in Committee to establish the presence of a quorum, the House automatically resolves back into Committee.

On Apr. 6, 1967,<sup>(19)</sup> the House, after receiving a report from the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, resolved itself back into the Committee.<sup>(20)</sup>

MR. [WAYNE L.] HAYS [of Ohio]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(21)</sup> The Chair will count. [After counting.] A quorum is not present. The Clerk will call the roll.

21. John H. Dent (Pa.).

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Dent, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill H.R. 2512, and finding itself without a quorum, he had directed the roll to be called, when 376 Members responded to their names, a quorum, and he submitted herewith the names of the absentees to be spread upon the Journal.

The Committee resumed its sitting.

§ 16.12 Where a point of no quorum is made in the Committee of the Whole and the roll is called while a demand for a teller vote on an amendment is pending, the question of ordering tellers is put immediately after the Committee resumes its sitting, and a division vote taken prior to the demand for tellers is not final.

On May 10, 1946,<sup>(22)</sup> the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, made a ruling regarding the finality of a division.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the amendment to the amendment.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Rooney) there were—ayes 41, noes 29.

MR. [JED] JOHNSON of Oklahoma: Mr. Chairman, I demand tellers.

MR. [FRANK B.] KEEFE [of Wisconsin]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members failed to answer to their names: . . .

Accordingly the Committee rose; and the Speaker having resumed the chair, Mr. Cooper, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee having had under consideration the bill H.R. 6335, and finding itself without a quorum, he had directed the roll to be called, when 313 Members responded to their names, a quorum, and he submitted herewith the names of the absentees to be spread upon the Journal.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(23)</sup> The Committee will resume its sitting.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman from Oklahoma [Mr. Johnson] demands tellers on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Idaho [Mr. Dworshak] to the amendment offered by the gentleman from Utah [Mr. Robertson].

MR. [WALTER K.] GRANGER [of Utah]: Mr. Chairman, a point of order.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. GRANGER: As I understood the situation when the quorum was called, the Chair had already announced that the amendment offered by the gentleman from Idaho to the amendment had been agreed to; and the request comes too late.

23. Sam Rayburn (Tex.).

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair had announced that on a division the amendment to the amendment had been agreed to. Thereupon, the gentleman from Oklahoma [Mr. Johnson] demanded tellers. At that point a point of order was made that a quorum was not present.

The gentleman's demand for tellers is now pending.

§ 17. Absence of Quorum in Standing Committee as Bar to Floor Consideration or Other Subsequent Proceedings

According to Jefferson's Manual,<sup>(24)</sup> a majority of a committee acting when together constitutes a quorum for business. A rule<sup>(25)</sup> further provides that no measure or recommendation shall be reported from any committee unless a majority of the committee was actually present. Because of this provision, a point of order that a quorum was not present when a committee reported a measure, if made in a timely fashion and sustained, bars consideration on the floor.

A decision by the Chair to recommit a measure because a quorum was not present when it was reported from committee is made after a series of steps. After the chairman of the committee or other designated person requests floor consideration, a point of order that a quorum was not present in the committee when the measure was reported may be made.<sup>(26)</sup> If the point of order has been raised at the appropriate time, the Chair may examine the committee report or inquire of the committee chairman or floor manager whether the allegation is true.<sup>(27)</sup> Based on the answer of the committee chairman, who is obligated to be certain in his response, the Chair sustains or overrules the point of order. When the point is sustained, the measure is recommitted to the committee.<sup>(28)</sup>

Whether a quorum is actually present also affects issues which do not arise on the floor, such as

The Court observed that the Constitution<sup>(1)</sup> authorizes each House to determine the rules of its proceedings, and that the rules of the House apply to committees<sup>(2)</sup> and authorize calls of the House when a quorum is not present;<sup>(3)</sup> furthermore, a statute<sup>(4)</sup> (which is also a

Basing its ruling on the aforementioned provisions, the Court held that a quorum of the committee must be present to satisfy the "competent tribunal" element of the crime of perjury. By admitting Christoffel's evidence that a quorum was not present when the allegedly perjurious testimony was given<sup>(5)</sup> notwithstanding the fact that committee records showed that a quorum was present when the meeting was convened and no Member during the session objected to absence of a quorum, the Court accepted Christoffel's contention that a criminal trial is an appropriate occasion for a defendant to raise the quorum issue.

Convicting Christoffel in the face of evidence that a quorum was not present when allegedly perjurious statements were made was found to be not only contrary

"A tribunal that is not competent is no tribunal, and it is unthinkable that such a body can be the instrument of a criminal conviction."<sup>(6)</sup>

The dissenting opinions argued that the majority denied records of Congress the credit and effect to which they are entitled. Instead, it was felt, the Court should defer to the "universal practice" of assumption of a quorum unless and until a point of no quorum is made in the committee meeting.<sup>(7)</sup>

The Supreme Court in United States v Bryan<sup>(8)</sup> upheld a trial court conviction (which had been reversed by the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit) for willful failure to comply with a committee subpoena under a federal statute.<sup>(9)</sup> In reaching this holding the Court rejected

Bryan's contention that the Committee on Un-American Activities, by lacking a quorum when she appeared and refused to produce the organizational records under her control, was without power to receive such subpoenaed documents and that the committee could not be obstructed because it was "organizationally defective."<sup>(10)</sup> Such defense, based on Christoffel v United States,<sup>(11)</sup> was held to be inapposite because the District of Columbia perjury statute<sup>(12)</sup> in Christoffel required an affirmative act, falsification of testimony "before a competent tribunal," while the statute in Bryan<sup>(13)</sup> required intentional failure to produce papers without mentioning anything about competency of the tribunal.<sup>(14)</sup>

There were other reasons to reject Bryan's defense. Her refusal to produce papers obstructed the legislative inquiry, a situation the statute was designed to punish. Furthermore, her failure to raise an objection to lack of a quorum during the hearing when that defect could have been remedied, rather than at the trial two years later, violated the minimum duties and obligations imposed on a witness by a subpoena.<sup>(15)</sup> ing based on the requirement of a quorum in committees.

MR. [WAYNE L.] HAYS of Ohio: Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order against the consideration of the resolution on the ground that a quorum was not present when it was reported out of committee.

MRS. [MARY T.] NORTON [of New Jersey]: Mr. Speaker, we did have a quorum present, but some Members may have slipped out of committee during the consideration of the resolution. I assumed that a quorum was present.

MR. [JOHN E.] RANKIN [of Mississippi]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state it.

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Speaker, it is too late to raise the point of order that a quorum was not present in the committee after it has reached the floor of the House. If no point of order is made in the committee, the presumption is that a quorum was present. To take any other attitude would virtually paralyze legislation. If no point of order was made at the time, the presumption then is that a quorum was present.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state in response to the parliamentary inquiry that the point of order is properly addressed at this point because the resolution has just been reported to the House. . . .

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Speaker, a further point of order. This is a very serious proposition that really affects the orderly procedure of the House. I make the point of order that it is too late to raise a point of order that there was no quorum present in the committee unless that point of order was made in the committee.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state that the point of order can be made in the House when the report is made. A point of order that a quorum was not present when the resolution was reported out can be made when the resolution is reported to the House. For that reason the Chair rules that the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. Hays] is within his rights at this particular time in making the point of order that he has.

MRS. NORTON: Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman insists on his point of order, I will withdraw the resolution.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The resolution is withdrawn. . . .

MR. RANKIN: Mr. Speaker, under the rules of the House and the rules of every committee, legislation is passed every day without a quorum being present, and unless that question is raised they cannot go into the courts and contest the legislation. The same thing applies to the committee. A ruling to the contrary would simply demoralize legislative procedure as far as the committees of this House are concerned.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair calls the attention of the gentleman from Mississippi to paragraph (d) of section 133 of the Legislative Reorganization Act, which reads as follows:

No measure or recommendation shall be reported from any such committee unless a majority of the committee was actually present.<sup>(18)</sup>

18. See Rule XI clause 2(1)(2)(A), House Rules and Manual §713(c) (1979),

§ 17.2 A standing committee cannot validly report a measure unless the report was authorized at a formal meeting of the committee with a quorum present and the mere fact that a majority of the committee members have “approved” the report (but not in a formal meeting of the committee) will not suffice.

On Sept. 30, 1966,<sup>(19)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ruled on an objection to a motion to consider a committee report.

MR. [OMAR T.] BURLESON [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on House Administration, I submit the following privileged report, Report No. 2158, to accompany House Resolution 1028, providing funds for the Committee on House Administration, and ask for its immediate consideration.

MR. [JONATHAN B.] BINGHAM [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair would like to ask the gentleman from Texas if he is undertaking to bring this resolution up by unanimous consent, or is he re-which adopts this language. This provision, however, did not become part of the rules until Jan. 3, 1953, after the above proceedings took place.

porting it and calling it up as privileged business?

MR. BURLESON: Mr. Speaker, I submit the report as a privileged matter. Should a point of order be raised and should the point of order be sustained, then I would ask unanimous consent for the consideration of House Resolution 1028.

THE SPEAKER: For what purpose does the gentleman from New York rise?

MR. BINGHAM: I make a point of order against the resolution, Mr. Speaker.

THE SPEAKER: On what grounds?

MR. BINGHAM: On the grounds that a quorum of the committee was not present when the resolution was reported. There are a number of members of the committee who have not had an opportunity to have this resolution discussed in a meeting of the committee.

THE SPEAKER: Does the gentleman from Texas desire to be heard?

MR. BURLESON: Mr. Speaker, I desire to be heard.

Mr. Speaker, I do not see that this is a matter involving rules but rather a matter of custom and practice. We were simply following what has been a practice for a great many years relating to noncontroversial matters. This method of obtaining committee approval has been for the convenience of committee members. I shall be glad to relate to the House in just a few words what transpired in this instance.

Recently it has been difficult to get a quorum, and, for obvious reasons, it has been just about impossible for the last 10 days. Never before has the gentleman from New York objected to a telephone poll of members. In this instance, each of the 25 members of the committee, except those who were on the subcommittee examining contracts, the subcommittee headed by the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. Hays]—who had already agreed to the resolution, were called, and a majority of the members approved the resolution.

This practice has been prevalent and has been permitted over the years, although it has been held to a minimum.

Now Mr. Speaker, I shall be glad to yield to the gentleman from New York if he wants to tell us the real reason he is objecting to the consideration of this resolution: The gentleman never before has objected to this procedure and I ask why he objects now?

MR. BINGHAM: Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

MR. BURLESON: I yield to the gentleman from New York.

MR. BINGHAM: Mr. Speaker, I shall be glad to explain. There has been apparently the establishment of a subcommittee of the Committee on House Administration.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair does not want to go into all that. The Chair wants to ask the gentleman from Texas, the chairman of the committee, was a committee meeting called for the purpose of acting on this resolution? And if so, was a quorum present?

MR. BURLESON: Mr. Speaker, I have explained in some detail the procedure used in this instance. There was an agreement by a majority of the committee that the resolution may be presented.

THE SPEAKER: Was there a meeting? Did the committee meet? Was there a quorum present and voting and acting on it?

MR. BURLESON: Mr. Speaker, on infrequent occasions when we have resorted to this procedure as a matter of convenience and of expediting legislation, it has always been accepted as establishing a quorum. As far as I know this procedure has not been challenged. In this case a majority of the committee agreed to the resolution and I insist that a quorum was established and that the report is proper and that the resolution is privileged.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair is prepared to rule.

The Chair does not inquire into the procedure of a committee, in reporting a bill, unless a point of order as to the matter is raised and thus called to the attention of the Chair. Unless a Member makes a point of order, the Chair does not go into the question of committee procedure.

However, since the point of order has been raised, the Chair will point out that the provisions of clause 26(e), rule XI,<sup>(20)</sup> make it clear that no measure can be reported from a committee unless a majority of the committee were actually present.

The chairman of the Committee on House Administration has stated that the resolution he now seeks to call up was not ordered reported at a formal meeting of the committee where a quorum was present.

Therefore, the Chair sustains the point of order made by the gentleman from New York [Mr. Bingham].

The report and resolution are recommended to the Committee on House Administration.

20. See Rule XI clause 2(l)(2)(A), House Rules and Manual §713(c) (1979).

§ 17.3 Although a quorum of the committee must be present when a measure is ordered reported, the Speaker has approved a practice whereby less than a quorum having tentatively voted to report a measure, a majority, in a formal meeting, has subsequently ratified such action before the report was filed.

On July 9, 1956,<sup>(1)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, ruled on a question of quorum requirements in committees.

MR. [JOHN L.] McMILLAN [of South Carolina]: Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on the District of Columbia, I call up the bill (H. R. 4697) to amend the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act of the District of Columbia, 1954, as amended, and I ask unanimous consent that the bill be considered in the House as in Committee of the Whole.

THE SPEAKER: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from South Carolina?

MR. [ALBERT P.] MORANO [of Connecticut]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order against the consideration of this bill on the ground that when the committee considered this bill there was not a quorum present to report it to the House. . . .

MR. [HOWARD W.] SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Speaker, there is great difficulty, it is true, in getting a quorum of the District Committee, but I was personally present when this bill was voted out, and there was a quorum of the committee present. And, in order to be sure that there was no such question as this raised on the floor of the House, I myself made a motion, when a quorum was present, to reconsider all of the bills that had been considered and voted them out again, which was done. . . .

THE SPEAKER: The Chair must know whether the gentleman says that there was a quorum present or not, to his knowledge.

MR. McMILLAN: Mr. Speaker, there was a quorum present part of the time and part of the time there was not.

MR. MORANO: Mr. Speaker, I press my point of order. I would like to know whether or not there was a quorum present when this bill was reported, not when the gentleman from Virginia made his motion.

THE SPEAKER: The chairman of the legislative committee has just stated to the Chair that there was a quorum present when this bill was reported. The Chair is going to take the word of the chairman of the committee, because that is according to the rules and practices of the House.

MR. MORANO: Mr. Speaker, I understood the chairman to say that when the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. Smith] made his motion there was a quorum present. But I did not understand the chairman of the committee to say that when this bill was reported there was a quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair is going to ask the gentleman from South Carolina [Mr. McMillan] that question now.

1. 102 CONG. REC. 12199, 12200, 84th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. McMILLAN: Mr. Speaker, when the gentleman from Virginia made his motion he stated that he wanted all bills that were considered that day passed with a quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair is going to ask the gentleman again if a quorum was present, to his certain knowledge, when this bill was reported.

MR. McMILLAN: There was not when this bill was passed.

MR. MORANO: Mr. Speaker, I insist on my point of order.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Mr. Speaker, I should like to be heard further, because I think it is important to straighten this question out.

THE SPEAKER: It is.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: Not from the standpoint of this bill, but as a parliamentary question. Frequently bills are discussed and voted upon when a quorum is not present. It is the custom, at the conclusion of the discussion, when a quorum is present, to move a reconsideration of all the bills that have been passed, and to move to report them out. That is what was done in this matter. I think it is important for the House to know just how strict this rule is and how it is to be applied, because I think every bill that was passed upon this morning came here under the same conditions as this bill.

MR. [SIDNEY E.] SIMPSON of Illinois: Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

MR. SMITH of Virginia: I yield.

MR. SIMPSON of Illinois: Mr. Speaker, I wish to verify what Judge Smith is saying. That was exactly the procedure in this matter in the House Committee on the District of Columbia.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: On this proceeding of the committee, I think we ought to be straightened out on it for the future.

THE SPEAKER: This has come up many times and it has always been decided by the Chair on the statement of the chairman of the legislative committee concerned. The gentleman from South Carolina said that when this bill was reported there was not a quorum present. Is the Chair quoting the gentleman from South Carolina correctly?

MR. McMILLAN: That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

MR. SMITH of Virginia: That really is not the question I am trying to get determined for the benefit of the House and other committees. It is true, I believe, there was not a quorum present when any one of these bills was considered, but before the session adjourned a quorum did appear, and then a blanket motion was made to reconsider all of the bills that had previously been passed upon and to vote them out, which motion was carried. May I ask the chairman of the committee if that is a correct statement of what occurred?

MR. McMILLAN: That is correct.

THE SPEAKER: A quorum was present at that time?

MR. SMITH of Virginia: At that time a quorum was present. That was the reason the motion was made. That is the only way we can operate in that committee, I might add.

MR. [HENRY O.] TALLE [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, may I say as a member of the District Committee that I was present at the meeting. The gentleman from Virginia [Mr. Smith] has recorded the proceedings accurately.

MR. MORANO: There is obviously a contradiction here, Mr. Speaker. The chairman of the committee said there was not a quorum present when this bill was considered. The issue before the Speaker, as I understand it, is a ruling on this bill, not on other bills that were considered en bloc.

THE SPEAKER: That is correct, but the gentleman from South Carolina said that on the last action on the bill in the committee a quorum was present.

The Chair under the circumstances must overrule the point of order made by the gentleman from Connecticut.<sup>(2)</sup>

§ 17.4 Even though a report is filed as privileged, to retain the status of privileged business when considered, such business must be ordered reported from standing committees when a quorum is present in such committees.

Speaker pro tempore John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, made a ruling regarding the prerequisite for privileged status.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: If it is reported out of committee with a quorum present, it is a privileged matter.

On Feb. 28, 1968,<sup>(5)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, made a ruling as to the proper time to raise a point of no quorum.

MR. [SAMUEL N.] FRIEDEL [of Maryland]: Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on House Administration, I submit a privileged report (Rept. No. 1127) on the resolution (H. Res. 1042) authorizing the expenditure of certain funds for the expenses of the Committee on Un-American Activities, and ask for immediate consideration of the resolution.

MR. [WILLIAM F.] RYAN [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. RYAN: Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order against the consideration of the privileged report on House Resolution 1042 on the ground that a quorum was not present in the Committee on House Administration when this matter was considered.

THE SPEAKER: Does the gentleman from Maryland desire to be heard on the point of order?

MR. FRIEDEL: Mr. Speaker, it is true that we did not have a quorum present for the consideration of House Resolution 1042, but we had unanimous consent by the members that they would not raise a point of order.

However, Mr. Speaker, under the circumstances, in view of the point of order being raised, I withdraw the resolution.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Maryland withdraws the resolution.

MR. [EDWIN E.] WILLIS [of Louisiana]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

MR. WILLIS: Mr. Speaker, the last resolution sought to be called up was a resolution relative to the House Committee on Un-American Activities, and it was withdrawn.

Now, however, the gentleman from Maryland states, no, it is not so, that there was no more a quorum present for all the other resolutions than there was a quorum present to consider our resolution.

I, therefore, ask unanimous consent that all the other resolutions be withdrawn also.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that if a quorum was not present—and the Chair is not saying that there was not a quorum present—but if a quorum was not present then the point of order should have been made by any Member at the time a particular resolution was called up.

raise a point of order that there was no quorum present in the committee unless that point of order was made in the committee.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will state that the point of order can be made in the House when the report is made. A point of order that a quorum was not present when the resolution was reported out can be made when the resolution is reported to the House. For that reason the Chair rules that the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. Hays] is within his rights at this particular time in making the point of order that he has.

MRS. NORTON: Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman insists on his point of order, I will withdraw the resolution.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The resolution is withdrawn.

§ 17.8 A point of order that a bill was ordered reported from a standing committee in the absence of a quorum of that committee is properly raised in the House when the bill is called up for consideration. (However, where a bill is being considered under suspension of the rules, a point of order will not lie against the bill on the ground that a quorum was not present when the bill was reported from committee.)

On Oct. 7, 1968,<sup>(8)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ruled on the timeliness of a point of no quorum of the committee reporting out a bill.

8. 114 CONG. REC. 29764, 90th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [DURWARD G.] HALL [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, relating to our program for today, a number of bills are slated to be considered under suspension of rules in the House. There are four bills from the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service which, from evidence I have, were reported in violation of rule XI, clause 26(e) which states:

(e) No measure or recommendation shall be reported from any committee unless a majority of the committee were actually present.<sup>(9)</sup>

The evidence I have is that H.R. 17954 and H.R. 7406 were ordered reported from the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service in executive session on August 2, 1968, without a quorum present.

Additional evidence reveals that S. 1507 and S. 1190 were ordered reported from the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service in executive session on September 3, 1968, without a quorum present. I further cite from Jefferson's Manual, section 408:

A bill improperly reported is not entitled to its place on the calendar; but the validity of a report may not be questioned after the House has voted to consider it, or after actual consideration has begun.

Mr. Speaker, I submit that the bills S. 1507, S. 1190, H.R. 17954, and H.R. 7406 all were improperly reported. Mr. Speaker, my parliamentary inquiry is this: At what point in the proceedings would it be in order to raise the question against these bills as being in violation of rule XI, clause 26(e) inasmuch as they are scheduled to be considered under suspension of the rules, which would obviously suspend the rule I have cited.

Mr. Speaker, I ask the guidance of the Chair in lodging my point of order against these listed bills so that my objection may be fairly considered, and so that my right to object will be protected. Mr. Speaker, I intend to do so only because orderly procedure must be based on compliance with the rules of the House which we have adopted.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that any point of order would have to be made when the bill is called up.

The Chair might also advise or convey the suggestion to the gentleman from Missouri that the bills will be considered under suspension of the rules, and that means suspension of all rules.

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry. Would it not be in order, prior to the House going into the Consent Calendar or suspension of the rules, to lodge the point of order against the bills at this time?

THE SPEAKER: The point of order could be directed against such consideration when the bills are called up under the general rules of the House. The rules we are operating under today as far as these bills are concerned concerns suspension of the rules, and that motion will suspend all rules.

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, if I may inquire further, is it not true that, until such time as we go into that period of suspension of the rules, a point of order would logically lie against such bills which violate the prerogatives of the House and of the individual Members thereof, to say nothing of the committee rules? My belief that a point of order should be sustained is based on improper committee procedure and addresses itself to the fact that the bills are improperly scheduled, listed, or programed on the calendar, or rule of suspension, and so forth.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state, as to points of order, at the time the Chair answered the specific inquiry of the gentleman from Missouri, a point of order would not lie until the bill is reached and brought up for consideration.

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, may I be recognized at that time to lodge such a point of order, and will this Member be protected?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will always protect the rights of any Member. The Chair has frankly conveyed to the gentleman that we are operating under a suspension of the rules procedure today, and that suspends all rules.

MR. [LESLIE C.] ARENDS [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. ARENDS: Do I correctly understand the ruling of the Chair that suspending all the rules pertains to more than just the House; it pertains to the rules of committee action likewise?

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Illinois is correct.

MR. ARENDS: I thank the Speaker.

§ 17.9 A point of order that a bill was reported from committee in the absence of a quorum is in order while the motion that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for the consideration of the bill is pending.

On Oct. 11, 1968,<sup>(10)</sup> a point of order that a quorum was absent when the standing committee considered a bill was entertained pending a vote on a motion to resolve into the Committee of the Whole.

MR. [WILLIAM R.] POAGE [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, I move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (S. 2511) to maintain and improve the income of producers of crude pine gum, to stabilize production of crude pine gum, and for other purposes.

MR. [PAUL] FINDLEY [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order against consideration of S. 2511.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(11)</sup> The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. FINDLEY: Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order against the consideration of S. 2511 on the grounds that the Committee on Agriculture acted without a quorum being present when it ordered S. 2511 reported to the House on July 2, 1968.

Rule XI, clause 26(e), of the rules of the House states as follows:

10. 114 CONG. REC. 30739, 90th Cong. 2d Sess.

11. John W. McCormack (Mass.).

(e) No measure or recommendation shall be reported from any committee unless a majority of the committee were actually present.<sup>(12)</sup>

I have personally checked with the staff of the Committee on Agriculture and have been informed that on July 2, 1968, there were only 14 members of the committee present and that the vote to report S. 2511 to the House was 11 to 0 in favor of such action. Since the total membership of that committee is 35, there obviously was not a majority actually present as required by rule XI, clause 26(e).

THE SPEAKER: The Chair would like to inquire of the chairman of the Committee on Agriculture if a quorum was present when the bill was reported.

MR. POAGE: Mr. Speaker, the chairman of the Committee on Agriculture was not present the day this bill was reported. The record indicates that there were only 14 members of the committee present at the time it was reported.

THE SPEAKER: Does the gentleman from Texas state that the record of his committee shows there were 14 members present when the bill was acted upon and reported out?

MR. POAGE: That is correct.

THE SPEAKER: [The rule] states:

No measure or recommendation shall be reported from any committee unless a majority of the committee were actually present.

Upon the statement of the chairman of the committee, a majority of the committee were not actually present. Therefore, the point of order is sustained; and the bill is recommitted to the Committee on Agriculture.

§ 17.10 A point of order under Rule XI clause 27(e),<sup>(13)</sup> that a bill was reported from committee in the absence of a quorum, is properly raised when the bill is called up for consideration; such a point of order will not lie against a resolution providing for the consideration of the bill.

On Oct. 11, 1968,<sup>(14)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, made a ruling regarding the proper time to raise a point of order that a bill was reported from committee without a quorum being present.

MR. [JOHN A.] YOUNG [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on Rules, I call up House Resolution 1256 and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

H. RES. 1256

Resolved, That upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to move that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (S. 2511) to maintain and improve the income of producers of crude pine gum. . . .

13. See Rule XI clause 2(l)(2)(A), House Rules and Manual § 713(c) (1979).

14. 114 CONG. REC. 30738, 90th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [PAUL] FINDLEY [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. FINDLEY: Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order against the consideration of House Resolution 1256 on the grounds that the Committee on Agriculture acted without a quorum being present when it ordered S. 2511 reported to the House on July 2, 1968.

Rule XI, clause 26(e), of the rules of the House states as follows:<sup>(15)</sup>

(e) No measure or recommendation shall be reported from any committee unless a majority of the committee were actually present.

I have personally checked with the staff of the Committee on Agriculture and have been informed that on July 2, 1968, there were only 14 members of the committee present and that the vote to report S. 2511 to the House was 11 to 0 in favor of such action. Since the total membership of that committee is 35, there obviously was not a majority actually present as required by rule XI, clause 26(e).

Mr. Speaker, I raise the point of order at this time in order to have it presented to the Chair in a timely fashion. The precedents indicate that such a point of order is made too late if it comes after debate has started on either the rule or on the bill itself—VIII 2223 and February 24, 1947, page 1374.<sup>(16)</sup>

Furthermore, the Chair stated in a response to a parliamentary inquiry by the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Hall] on Monday of this week—October 7, page 29764—that any point of order under rule XI, clause 26(e), would have to be made when the bill is called up.

Since House Resolution 1256 is the rule which calls up S. 2511 for consideration in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, I therefore insist on my point of order at this time.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair states, in response to the inquiry of the gentleman from Illinois, that the point of order at this time would be premature.

The Chair might state that the appropriate time to make the point of order would be at the time the motion is made to go in the Committee of the Whole.

MR. FINDLEY: That is after the rule is adopted?

THE SPEAKER: After the rule is adopted.

MR. FINDLEY: Mr. Speaker, I thank the Chair.

§ 17.11 Points of order against a bill on the ground that a quorum of the committee was not present when the bill was ordered reported should be made in the House; such points come too late after the House has resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole for consideration of the bill.

tional cemetery bill, Jere Cooper, of Tennessee, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, made a ruling on the proper time to raise objection to proceedings of the committee reporting a bill.

MR. [FOREST A.] HARNESS of Indiana: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HARNESS of Indiana: At what time would a point of order lie against the bill on the ground that the committee reporting it was without jurisdiction because at the time it reported the bill there was not a quorum present?

THE CHAIRMAN: Answering the gentleman's parliamentary inquiry the Chair will state that such a point of order would be too late now that the House is in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union. Such a point of order should be made in the House before consideration of the bill.

§ 17.12 A point of order that a nonprivileged measure was reported from committee in the absence of a quorum will not lie until the House has agreed to consider the bill.

On Oct. 11, 1968,<sup>(18)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ruled on the timeliness of a point of no quorum of the committee reporting a bill, when raised in the House against consideration of the bill.<sup>(19)</sup>

§ 17.13 Following the discharge of the Committee of the Whole from further consideration of a bill, a Member was permitted, pending consideration of the bill, to make the point of order that the measure had been reported from committee in the absence of a quorum.

On Oct. 11, 1968,<sup>(1)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, entertained a point of order concerning the lack of a quorum of the committee reporting a bill after the bill was read.

MR. [THADDEUS J.] DULSKI [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the bill (S. 1507) to include firefighters within the provisions of section 8336(c) of title 5, United States Code, relating to the retirement of Government employees engaged in certain hazardous occupations.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

THE SPEAKER: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

MR. [JOHN M.] ASHBROOK [of Ohio]: Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I would make a point of order against the bill. I make a point of order that report No. 1945 violates rule XI, clause 26,<sup>(2)</sup> and that a quorum was not present when the bill was passed by the Post Office and Civil Service Committee.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that the unanimous-consent request is for the present consideration of the bill. In the opinion of the Chair, at this point a point of order is not in order. If the consent is granted, then a point of order might be in order, though the Chair does not indicate what the decision of the Chair might be.

MR. ASHBROOK: Mr. Speaker, I would say to the Chair, on that ground I would withdraw my reservation of objection.

THE SPEAKER: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the bill, as follows:

S. 1507

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 8336(c) of title 5, United States Code, is amended. . . .

THE SPEAKER: Now does the gentleman from Ohio want to make the point of order?

MR. ASHBROOK: Yes, Mr. Speaker. I make the point of order for the reasons already stated and request that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair would like to ask the gentleman from New York if a quorum was present in his committee when the bill was reported?

MR. DULSKI: Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Ohio is correct. There was no quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: Under those circumstances, the Chair sustains the point of order and the bill is recommitted to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service.

Parliamentarian's Note: The Chair was, under the ruling of July 19, 1947, contained at Chapter 19, § 8.2, infra, and at Chapter 31, § 8.2, infra, and at Chapter 17, § 58.7, supra, justified in interpreting the granting of the original unanimous-consent request (to discharge the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union) as not tantamount to waiving the point of order, since the request here did not specify a waiver of all points of order.

ness of a point of no quorum in committee.<sup>(4)</sup>

MR. [EVERETT M.] DIRKSEN [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on the District of Columbia, I call up the bill (H.R. 1700) to provide for daylight saving in the District of Columbia, and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the bill, as follows: . . .

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Illinois is recognized for 1 hour. . . .

MR. DIRKSEN: Mr. Speaker, this is the first District Day that has been claimed by the Committee on the District of Columbia. . . .

MR. [DANIEL A.] REED of New York: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. REED of New York: I believe the Reorganization Act [section 133(d)] provides that no bill shall come to the floor unless it is reported out of committee when a quorum is present. As I understand the statement of the gentleman from Illinois, there was no meeting of the committee.

THE SPEAKER: The point of order comes too late. It should have been made before debate started on the bill.

tion 419, which was offered by the Committee on House Administration and provided by additional funds from the contingent fund to be paid for an investigation by a subcommittee of the Committee on Government Operations, Speaker Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts, made a ruling on the timeliness in the House of a point of no quorum in committee when the resolution was ordered reported.

MR. [KARL M.] LECOMPTE [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on House Administration, I call up for consideration at this time House Resolution 419 with a committee amendment.

The Clerk read as follows: . . .

With the following committee amendment: . . .

MR. LECOMPTE: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. LECOMPTE: Mr. Speaker, this is a privileged resolution?

THE SPEAKER: Yes.

MR. LECOMPTE: And the same rules apply in this case as in the case of the resolution just agreed to by the House?

THE SPEAKER: Yes.

MR. LECOMPTE: Mr. Speaker, for the benefit of the Members of the House may I say that by the terms of this resolution the sum of $100,000 is provided for an investigation by one of the subcommittees of the Committee on Government Operations, the subcommittee being headed by the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. Bender]. . . .

MR. [CLARE E.] HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Speaker, I object to consideration of the resolution at this time unless it appears that a quorum was present when the resolution was authorized by the committee or unless the chairman of the committee will so state that a quorum was present. If he does, that will be satisfactory.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Michigan [Mr. Hoffman], makes the point of order that a quorum was not present in the committee reporting this resolution. Unfortunately for the gentleman from Michigan, he makes his point of order too late. That should have been made at the time the resolution was read.

MR. HOFFMAN of Michigan: Mr. Speaker, I want to make one correction. I did not make the point of order that a quorum was not present. The point of order was that consideration of the bill is not in order unless the record showed a quorum was present or unless the gentleman so stated

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman should have made that point of order at the time the resolution was read.

On Feb. 28, 1968,<sup>(6)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, made a ruling as to the proper time to raise a point of order that a committee action was taken in the absence of a quorum.

present when the committee ordered the bill reported.

On July 9, 1956,<sup>(9)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, ruled on a point of order, as follows:

MR. [JOHN L.] McMILLAN [of South Carolina]: Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on the District of Columbia, I call up the bill (H.R. 4697) to amend the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act of the District of Columbia, 1954, as amended, and I ask unanimous consent that the bill be considered in the House as in Committee of the Whole.

THE SPEAKER: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from South Carolina?

MR. [ALBERT P.] MORANO [of Connecticut]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order against the consideration of this bill on the ground that when the committee considered this bill there was not a quorum present to report it to the House. . . .

MR. [SIDNEY E.] SIMPSON of Illinois: I will say for the benefit of the House that I was at the committee meeting when the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. Smith] brought up the point of no quorum; and there was a quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: That is what the Chair is trying to ascertain from the chairman of the committee.

MR. McMILLAN: That is correct.

THE SPEAKER: That is the point that is involved here.

MR. McMILLAN: The gentleman from Virginia [Mr. Smith] made that motion and there was a quorum present.

MR. MORANO: Mr. Speaker, I press my point of order. I would like to know whether or not there was a quorum present when this bill was reported, not when the gentleman from Virginia made his motion.

THE SPEAKER: The chairman of the legislative committee has just stated to the Chair that there was a quorum present when this bill was reported. The Chair is going to take the word of the chairman of the committee, because that is according to the rules and practices of the House.

MR. MORANO: Mr. Speaker, I understood the chairman to say that when the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. Smith] made his motion there was a quorum present. But I did not understand the chairman of the committee to say that when this bill was reported there was a quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair is going to ask the gentleman from South Carolina [Mr. McMillan] that question now.

MR. McMILLAN: Mr. Speaker, when the gentleman from Virginia made his motion he stated that he wanted all bills that were considered that day passed with a quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair is going to ask the gentleman again if a quorum was present, to his certain knowledge, when this bill was reported. . . . The gentleman from South Carolina said that on the last action on the bill in the committee a quorum was present.

The Chair under the circumstances must overrule the point of order made by the gentleman from Connecticut.

Res. 1042) authorizing the expenditure of certain funds for the expenses of the Committee on Un-American Activities, and ask for immediate consideration of the resolution.

MR. [WILLIAM F.] RYAN [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER:<sup>(13)</sup> The gentleman will state his point of order.

MR. RYAN: Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order against the consideration of the privileged report on House Resolution 1042 on the ground that a quorum was not present in the Committee on House Administration when this matter was considered.

THE SPEAKER: Does the gentleman from Maryland desire to be heard on the point of order?

MR. FRIEDEL: Mr. Speaker, it is true that we did not have a quorum present for the consideration of House Resolution 1042, but we had unanimous consent by the members that they would not raise a point of order.

However, Mr. Speaker, under the circumstances, in view of the point of order being raised, I withdraw the resolution.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Maryland withdraws the resolution.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Illinois has the floor.

MR. COX: Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

MR. SABATH: For a question.

MR. COX: For a statement. The gentleman violates an agreement we had on the floor.

MR. SABATH: I did not violate any agreement.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Illinois asked unanimous consent to have until midnight to file a report from the Committee on Rules. That was day before yesterday. The request was objected to. There was no agreement the Chair knows anything about.

MR. COX: Mr. Speaker, I had an agreement with the gentleman myself. The Committee on Rules reported this resolution when a quorum was not present.

MR. BROWN of Ohio: Mr. Speaker, I desire to make a point of order.

MR. COX: Mr. Speaker, I approached the gentleman on the floor and made a statement to him. He said he would not offer this resolution until the committee had had opportunity to act on it again. Now, that was fair of the gentleman. Of course, I do not mean to say the gentleman intentionally violates an agreement, but he has violated an agreement.

MR. SABATH: No. Wait a minute. Mr. Speaker, to make matters clear, two of the Republican Members left the committee—the committee remained in session—to answer a roll call. We had seven Members and there was no objection.

MR. COX: The gentleman is mistaken. There were six. I counted them.

MR. BROWN of Ohio: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that the resolution has not been properly reported by the Rules Committee.

MR. SABATH: It has been reported.

MR. BROWN of Ohio: I think an inquiry by the Chair will determine there was not a quorum present, and that the resolution was not before the committee at that time.

MR. COX: That is right. That is a correct statement.

MR. BROWN of Ohio: I must protest, Mr. Speaker, and I must make the point of order. . . .

MR. SABATH: Mr. Speaker, even if a quorum was not present, no point of order has been made. But a quorum was present, and I can give you the names of the seven Members who were present. They were Mr. Cox, Mr. Colmer, Mr. Madden, Mr. Delaney, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Latham, and myself. Seven of twelve makes a quorum. But I withheld it because the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. Brown] objected due to some misunderstanding with the gentleman from New York [Mr. Celler]. Since that time I have learned that the gentleman from New York [Mr. Celler] has agreed with the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. Brown] on the assignment of committees and because the gentleman from New York [Mr. Celler] assured me that an agreement has been reached with the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. Brown] as to the number of subcommittees, I present it today. A quorum was present. The committee had jurisdiction.

MR. COX: Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will yield there, the gentleman will recall that the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. Smith] and the gentleman from Texas were not present. There was not a single Republican present.

MR. SABATH: There was a Republican present.

MR. COX: Not a single Republican was present. This was not on the agenda but it was called up after the Republicans left, and there was not the majority present. . . .

MR. SABATH: I withdraw the resolution, Mr. Speaker.

Suspension of the Rules

§ 17.22 Because a motion to suspend the rules and pass a bill suspends all rules in conflict with the motion, a point of order will not lie against the bill on the ground that a quorum of the committee was not present when it was reported.

On Sept. 16, 1968,<sup>(16)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ruled on the validity of a point of no quorum during a suspension of the rules procedure.

MR. [MORRIS K.] UDALL [of Arizona]: Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 19136) to amend title 5, United States Code, to provide for the payment of overtime and standby pay to certain personnel employed in the Department of Transportation.

The Clerk read as follows:

Sec. 3. The amendments made by this Act shall take effect on the first day of the first pay period which begins on or after the thirtieth day after the date of enactment of this Act.

THE SPEAKER: Is a second demanded?

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr Speaker, at the proper time I ask to be recognized to make a point of order against consideration of this bill.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that if the gentleman proposes to make a point of order, this is the time to make it.

MR. GROSS: Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order against the consideration of the bill (H.R. 19136) on the ground that it violates rule XI, clause 26(e),<sup>(1)</sup> in that it was reported from the committee without a quorum being present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that the motion to suspend the rules suspends all rules, including the rule mentioned by the gentleman from Iowa.

§ 17.23 Where a bill is being considered under suspension of the rules, a point of order will not lie against the bill on the ground that a quorum was not present when the bill was reported from committee.

1. See Rule XI clause 2(l)(2)(A), House Rules and Manual § 713(c) (1979).

On Oct. 7, 1968,<sup>(2)</sup> Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ruled on the point of no quorum under a suspension of the rules procedure.

MR. [DURWARD G.] HALL [of Missouri]: Mr. Speaker, relating to our program for today, a number of bills are slated to be considered under suspension of rules in the House. There are four bills from the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service which, from evidence I have, were reported in violation of rule XI, clause 26(e) which states:

(e) No measure or recommendation shall be reported from any committee unless a majority of the committee were actually present.<sup>(3)</sup>

The evidence I have is that H.R. 17954 and H.R. 7406 were ordered reported from the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service in executive session on August 2, 1968, without a quorum present.

Additional evidence reveals that S. 1507 and S. 1190 were ordered reported from the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service in executive session on September 3, 1968, without a quorum present. I further cite from Jefferson's Manual, section 408:

A bill improperly reported is not entitled to its place on the calendar; but the validity of a report may not be questioned after the House has voted to consider it, or after actual consideration has begun.

Mr. Speaker, I submit that the bills S. 1507, S. 1190, H.R. 17954, and H.R.

2. 114 CONG. REC. 29764, 90th Cong. 2d Sess.

3. See Rule XI clause 2(l)(2)(A), House Rules and Manual § 713(c) (1979).

7406 all were improperly reported. Mr. Speaker, my parliamentary inquiry is this: At what point in the proceedings would it be in order to raise the question against these bills as being in violation of rule XI, clause 26(e) inasmuch as they are scheduled to be considered under suspension of the rules, which would obviously suspend the rule I have cited?

Mr. Speaker, I ask the guidance of the Chair in lodging my point of order against these listed bills so that my objection may be fairly considered, and so that my right to object will be protected. Mr. Speaker, I intend to do so only because orderly procedure must be based on compliance with the rules of the House which we have adopted.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state that any point of order would have to be made when the bill is called up.

The Chair might also advise or convey the suggestion to the gentleman from Missouri that the bills will be considered under suspension of the rules, and that means suspension of all rules.

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry. Would it not be in order, prior to the House going into the Consent Calendar or suspension of the rules, to lodge the point of order against the bills at this time?

THE SPEAKER: The point of order could be directed against such consideration when the bills are called up under the general rules of the House. The rules we are operating under today as far as these bills are concerned concerns suspension of the rules, and that motion will suspend all rules.

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, if I may inquire further, is it not true that, until such time as we go into that period of suspension of the rules, a point of order would logically lie against such bills which violate the prerogatives of the House and of the individual Members thereof, to say nothing of the committee rules? My belief that a point of order should be sustained is based on improper committee procedure and addresses itself to the fact that the bills are improperly scheduled, listed, or programmed on the calendar, or rule of suspension, and so forth.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will state, as to points of order, at the time the Chair answered the specific inquiry of the gentleman from Missouri, a point of order would not lie until the bill is reached and brought up for [consideration].

MR. HALL: Mr. Speaker, may I be recognized at that time to lodge such a point of order, and will this Member be protected?

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will always protect the rights of any Member. The Chair has frankly conveyed to the gentleman that we are operating under a suspension of the rules procedure today, and that suspends all rules.

MR. [LESLIE C.] ARENDS [of Illinois]: Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. ARENDS: Do I correctly understand the ruling of the Chair that suspending all the rules pertains to more than just the House; it pertains to the rules of committee action likewise?

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Illinois is correct.

MR. ARENDS: I thank the Speaker.

Parliamentarian's Note: Two of the bills which were allegedly reported in the absence of a quorum, H.R. 17954 and H.R. 7406, were scheduled for consideration on both the Consent Calendar and under suspension of the rules. In his response to the inquiry of Mr. Hall, the Speaker discussed the validity of a point of order only in relation to the suspension of the rules procedure. He did not foreclose the making of a point of order against a bill on the Consent Calendar. However, the two bills which might have been vulnerable when called on the Consent Calendar were passed over without prejudice, by unanimous consent.

None of the bills challenged by Mr. Hall were in fact considered on this date. When it became apparent to the leadership that the proceedings would be delayed by repeated points of no quorum, the Speaker informally advised Members that the four bills would not be called up under suspension. On Oct. 11, S. 1507 was recommitted when a point of order was sustained against its consideration on the ground that it was reported in the absence of a quorum. (See 114 CONG. REC. 30751, 90th Cong. 2d Sess.) A bill similar to H.R. 17954 was called up on Oct. 11 (S. 4120), considered, and passed by unanimous consent. (See 114 CONG. REC. 30752, 90th Cong. 2d Sess.)

Rule Waiving Quorum Requirement

§ 17.24 The House rejected a resolution reported from the Committee on Rules, providing for an "open" rule but including a waiver of Rule XI clause 27(e),<sup>(4)</sup> which requires that a majority of a committee be actually present when a measure is reported from committee, to permit consideration of a bill improperly voted on and reported by the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service.

On July 23, 1973,<sup>(5)</sup> the House defeated a resolution to waive the rule which requires presence of a quorum when a committee reports a bill.

MR. [CLAUDE D.] PEPPER [of Florida]: Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on Rules, I call up House Resolution 495 and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

H. RES. 495

Resolved, That upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to move, clause 27(e), rule XI to the contrary notwithstanding, that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 8929) to amend title 39, United States Code, with respect to the financing of the cost of mailing certain matter free of postage.

4. See Rule XI clause 2(l)(2)(A), House Rules and Manual § 713(c) (1979).

MR. PEPPER: Mr. Speaker, House Resolution 495 provides for an open rule with 2 hours of general debate on H.R. 8929, a bill to provide relief from postal rate increases for certain mailers.

House Resolution 495 provides that the provisions of clause 27(e), rule XI of the Rules of the House of Representatives are waived.

I will state to my able friend from Iowa, whose inquiry I anticipate, if I may, that the occasion for this request for a waiver by the Rules Committee is this: The committee had before it H.R. 7554. The committee, on the 21st of June, I believe it was, voted, with a quorum present, by a record vote of 33 to 10, to report out the committee bill, H.R. 7554, with amendments. The bill and the amendments were voted favorably by the committee. . . .

I am sorry. It was 13 to 10. I understand that there are 25 members of the committee, and 23 voted, and the vote to report out the bill was 13 to 10.

The committee voted to report out a clean bill, which would embody H.R. 7554 and the amendments in a single clean bill.

On the day following that meeting of the committee there was introduced a clean bill, embodying exactly H.R. 7554 plus the amendments that had been voted upon favorably by the committee. There was not a subsequent meeting of the committee upon the clean bill. But the clean bill embodying what was voted upon exactly by the committee, as H.R. 8929, was reported out and presented to the Rules Committee. The situation was reported to the Rules Committee, and the Rules Committee voted to recommend consideration of the bill to the House, but recommended that there be a waiver of points of order so that any technicality which might arise out of that situation would be cured by the waiver of the rule, if the House adopted the waiver of the rule. . . .

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding.

I believe one slight correction should be made. A clean bill was introduced 2 days after the committee voted on the proposition, and I would have to differ again with the gentleman in his statement that this is an open rule. It is not an open rule since it waives a point of order.

MR. PEPPER: Mr. Speaker, it is an open rule.

MR. GROSS: The Committee on Rules in effect is doing the homework for the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service in that they did not abide by the rules of the House and vote on a clean bill

MR. DEL [M.] CLAWSON [of California]: Mr. Speaker, House Resolution 495 provides a rule with 2 hours of general debate for the consideration of H.R. 8929, Educational and Cultural Postal Amendments. The rule also includes a waiver of clause 27 (e) of rule XI. This rule requires the presence of a quorum when a bill is reported. In this case the committee, with a quorum Present agreed to report a clean bill, but never actually held a meeting officially reporting out the clean bill. Therefore, the waiver is necessary in order to prevent a point of order against consideration of the bill. . . .

I would suggest to the Members that regardless of their views on this bill itself that this is the kind of precedent we should not be setting and it makes for bad legislation. I think the rule should be defeated and we should let the committee produce a proper vehicle for final consideration and then we will not have any argument about the need for a protected rule. . . .

MR. [DELBERT L.] LATTA [of Ohio]: Mr. Speaker, anyone who has read the committee report is probably wondering how this bill ever got to the place where it is today. Let me say that the vote in the Post Office and Civil Service Committee was a close 13 to 10, and in the Rules Committee it was 7 to 5. I might hastily add I was one of the five who voted not to report this bill. . . .

MR. PEPPER: . . . Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question on the resolution.

The previous question was ordered.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE:<sup>(6)</sup> The question is on the resolution.

The question was taken, and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

MR. [JAMES M.] HANLEY [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 188, nays 202, not voting 51, as follows: . . .

So the resolution was rejected.

6. John J. McFall (Calif.).

Senate Precedent

§ 17.25 A point of order against a report on a bill was sustained on the ground that a quorum was not present at the time the Senate committee voted to report the measure; the Presiding Officer ruled that the bill was therefore still in the custody of the committee and had not been reported to the Senate.

On July 31, 1963,<sup>(7)</sup> a bill was not considered on the floor because of the absence of a quorum in the committee.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the bill (S. 1703) to amend title V of the Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, and for other purposes.

. . . .

MR. [WILLIAM] PROXMIRE [of Wisconsin]: Mr. President, will the Senator from Florida yield for the purpose of my making a point of order?

MR. [SPESSARD L.] HOLLAND [of Florida]: I yield to the distinguished Senator from Wisconsin so that he may make a point of order.

MR. PROXMIRE: Mr. President, I make a point of order that the bill which is now under consideration is not properly before the Senate because, at the time the vote to report the bill was taken in committee, a quorum was not actually present. I have checked this with the clerk of the committee, and it is my understanding that only six Senators answered to their names.

7. 109 CONG. REC. 13791, 13792, 88th Cong. 1st Sess.

Mr. President, I ask for a ruling.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER:<sup>(8)</sup> The Chair must inquire of the chairman of the committee as to what the facts are. The Chair is not conversant with the facts, and must depend on the chairman of the committee. . . .

Will the chairman of the committee inform the Chair specifically whether a quorum was present at the time the vote was taken on S. 1703?

MR. [ALLEN J.] ELLENDER [of Louisiana]: At the time?

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: At the time.

MR. ELLENDER: By proxies, yes; but not actually.

MR. [CLAIR] ENGLE [of California]: Mr. President, will the Senator yield?

MR. ELLENDER: I yield.

MR. ENGLE: The committee record shows that a quorum was present. Is that correct?

MR. ELLENDER: That is correct.

MR. ENGLE: No point of no quorum was made at the time the bill was reported.

MR. ELLENDER: That is correct.

MR. ENGLE: The record shows that a quorum was present, and no point of order was made at that particular time, and members drifted in and out. Is that correct? . . .

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: Does the Senator from Wisconsin press his point of order?

MR. PROXMIRE: Yes; I press my point of order. I wish further to point out that it has now been disclosed and stipulated and agreed upon by the chairman of the committee that a quorum was not present at the time the vote on the bill was taken. It is true that a quorum was present earlier. It is true that a substantive majority was present earlier, but at the time the vote was taken no physical quorum was present in the committee room to vote.

MR. ELLENDER: The records of the committee show that a quorum was present at the meeting.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: By proxy?

MR. ELLENDER: A quorum was present at the time the meeting began, when the question of a quorum arose.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: Was a quorum present at the time the vote was taken on S. 1703?

MR. ELLENDER: No.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: In view of the point of order that has been made, and the rule which necessitates that a ruling be made, the Chair rules that under section 133(d) of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946,<sup>(9)</sup> which operates as a rule of the Senate, and provides that: "No measure or recommendation shall be reported from any such committee unless a majority of the committee were actually present," the Chair sustains the point of order.

If the Committee on Agriculture and Forestry reported the bill (S. 1703) in question without a majority of the members being actually present, the action of the committee in ordering the bill to be reported to the Senate was in

8. Claiborne Pell (R.I.).

9. This section appears in 2 USC §190a (d), and Rule XXV clause 5(a), Senate Manual §25.5 (1973).

controvention of the above section of the Legislative Reorganization Act, and therefore such action was without authority and void.

Being “actually present” means the member would have had to be present in committee, and a poll does not present a compliance with the rule.

MR. HOLLAND: Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The Senator from Florida will state it.

MR. HOLLAND: What is the status of the bill following the ruling of the distinguished Presiding Officer?

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: The status of the bill is that legally it has never left the committee.

MR. HOLLAND: The status of the bill is that it is still in the custody of the committee?

THE PRESIDING OFFICER: It is in the custody of the committee.

§ 18. Withdrawal or Withholding of Objections or Points of No Quorum

When a point of no quorum is made, no “business”<sup>(10)</sup> is in

10. “Business” is a term of art which does not encompass all parliamentary proceedings. For example, the prayer, administration of the oath to a Member, receipt of messages from the President and Senate, motions incidental to a call of the House, and the motion to adjourn, which do not require a quorum, are in order after a point of no quorum. See §10, supra, for a discussion of the defini-order. The point may be withdrawn<sup>(11)</sup> or withheld<sup>(12)</sup> until announcement of absence of a quorum, after which the point may not be withdrawn even by unanimous consent.<sup>(13)</sup>

In General

§ 18.1 Withdrawal of a point of no quorum does not require unanimous consent.

On Nov. 15, 1967,<sup>(14)</sup> during consideration of S. 2388, the Economic Opportunity Amendments of 1967, Chairman John J. Rooney, of New York, commented on an objection to withdrawal of a point of no quorum.

MR. [SAM M.] GIBBONS [of Florida]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

MR. GIBBONS: Mr. Chairman I withdraw the point of order.

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Chairman, I object.

THE CHAIRMAN: Withdrawal of a point of order does not require unani-tion of business. See also Rule XV clause 6, House Rules and Manual § 774c (1979).

11. §§ 18.5, 18.6, infra.
 12. §§ 18.10, 18.11 infra.
 13. §§ 18.7–18.9, infra.
 14. 113 CONG REC. 32662, 90th Cong. 1st Sess.

mous consent; so the point of order is withdrawn.

§ 18.2 Where objection is made to a vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and, pursuant to a special order, the Speaker declares that further proceedings will be put over until the following day, it is too late for another Member to demand tellers on the question, even though the point of no quorum is subsequently withdrawn.

On May 4, 1966,<sup>(15)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 14745, the appropriations bill for the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare and the Department of Labor for fiscal year 1967, Speaker John W. McCormack, of Massachusetts, ruled on the timeliness of a demand for tellers after postponing consideration.

Consequences of Withdrawal

§ 18.3 Where a point of no quorum is made and withdrawn immediately after a division vote, it is then not too late to demand a teller vote on the pending proposition.

15. For the proceedings of this date, see § 13.5, supra.

On Mar. 8, 1946,<sup>(16)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 5605, the agricultural appropriation bill for 1947, Chairman William M. Whittington, of Mississippi, ordered tellers.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question is on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. Heselton].

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mr. Heselton) there were—ayes 42, noes 28.

MR. [REID F.] MURRAY of Wisconsin: Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count.

MR. MURRAY of Wisconsin: Mr. Chairman, I withdraw my point of no quorum.

MR. [GEORGE H.] MAHON [of Texas]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman will state it.

MR. MAHON: Mr. Chairman, is it too late to ask for tellers on this vote?

THE CHAIRMAN: No; it is not too late to ask for tellers.

MR. MAHON: Mr. Chairman, I ask for tellers.

Tellers were ordered, and the chairman appointed as tellers Mr. Mahon and Mr. Heselton.

The committee again divided; and the tellers reported that there were—ayes 30, noes 48.

So the amendment was rejected.

16. 92 CONG. REC. 2084, 79th Cong. 2d Sess.

§ 18.4 Objection to a voice vote for lack of a quorum having been withdrawn and demand then being made for a division, an objection to the division vote for lack of a quorum is in order and, if a quorum is not present, the roll call is automatic.

On Feb. 5, 1957,<sup>(17)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, entertained an objection to a division vote.

THE SPEAKER: The Clerk will report the amendment on which a separate vote is demanded.

The Clerk read as follows:

Amendment offered by Mr. Lanham: Page 5, line 7, after "$275,000,000", strike out the colon and insert "Provided, That not more than $15,728,000 of this amount may be used for State and local administration."

MRS. [EDITH S.] GREEN of Oregon: Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were refused.

THE SPEAKER: The question is on the amendment.

The question was taken and the Speaker announced that the "ayes" had it.

MRS. GREEN of Oregon: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will count.

MRS. GREEN of Oregon: Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the point of order and ask for a division.

The question was taken; and on a division (demanded by Mrs. Green of Oregon) there were—ayes 118, noes 46.

MRS. GREEN of Oregon: Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present, and I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

MR. H. CARL ANDERSEN [of Minnesota]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman will state it.

MR. H. CARL ANDERSEN: The point of order is that that request has already been made in reference to this vote, and the gentlewoman withdrew it.

THE SPEAKER: The objection to the voice vote on the grounds that a quorum was not present was withdrawn. The objection to the vote by division, on the grounds that a quorum is not present, is in order.

Evidently a quorum is not present.

When Withdrawal Is Permitted

§ 18.5 A point of order that a quorum is not present may be withdrawn, providing the absence of a quorum has not been announced by the Chair; such withdrawal does not require unanimous consent.

On Apr. 11, 1962,<sup>(1)</sup> Speaker pro tempore W. Homer Thornberry, of Texas, ruled on whether unanimous consent is required for withdrawal.

MR. [JAMES B.] UTT [of California]: I have yielded once to the gentleman from Ohio already.

1. 108 CONG. REC. 6379, 6380, 87th Cong. 2d Sess.

MR. [WAYNE L.] HAYS [of Ohio]: Well, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The Chair will count.

MR. HAYS: Mr. Speaker, out of deference to the Speaker, whom I have known for 14 years as the majority leader previously, I will withdraw the point of order. But I will say I will make another one, if necessary.

MR. [H. R.] GROSS [of Iowa]: Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: Does the gentleman from California [Mr. Utt] yield to the gentleman from Iowa [Mr. Gross] for a parliamentary inquiry?

MR. UTT: Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Iowa for the purpose of making a parliamentary inquiry.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: The gentleman will state it.

MR. GROSS: Mr. Speaker, does it require unanimous consent to withdraw a request for a quorum call?

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE: It does not, the Chair will state to the gentleman from Iowa.

§ 18.6 In the Committee of the Whole, a point of order that a quorum is not present may be withdrawn before the absence of a quorum is ascertained, and unanimous consent is not required.

On Sept. 4, 1969,<sup>(2)</sup> during consideration of H.R. 12085, extending the Clean Air Act, a point of no quorum was withdrawn.

(By unanimous consent, Mr. Koch was allowed to speak out of order.)

2. 115 CONG. REC. 24372, 24373, 91st Cong. 1st Sess.

MR. [EDWARD I.] KOCH [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I believe that the speaker who just spoke——

MR. [CHARLES E.] CHAMBERLAIN [of Michigan]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN:<sup>(3)</sup> The Chair will count.

MR. CHAMBERLAIN (during the counting): Mr. Chairman, I withdraw my point of order.

MR. [JOE D.] WAGGONER [Jr., of Louisiana]: Mr. Chairman, a parliamentary inquiry.

Would it not be necessary under the rules of the House for the gentleman to ask unanimous consent to withdraw his point of order?

THE CHAIRMAN: The point of order can be withdrawn without the consent of the Committee of the Whole unanimously.

The gentleman from New York is recognized.

When Withdrawal Is Not Permitted

§ 18.7 Where the Chair after counting announces that a quorum is not present, a Member may not, even by unanimous consent, withdraw his point of no quorum, to permit the House to continue with its business without having first obtained a quorum.

bama, ruled on the procedure after announcement of absence of a quorum.

MR. [LOUIS C.] RABAUT [of Michigan]: Mr. Speaker, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Michigan makes the point of order that there is not a quorum present. The Chair will count. [After counting.] One hundred and fifty-six Members are present, not a quorum.

MR. RABAUT: Mr. Speaker, I will withdraw the motion.

MR. [BERTRAND H.] SNELL [of New York]: Mr. Speaker, a point of order. The Speaker has announced that a quorum is not present. The gentleman from Michigan cannot withdraw the point of order. The Speaker has announced that there is no quorum present. Business cannot be conducted after the Speaker has announced there is no quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair will hold that a point of order having been made that there was no quorum present, and the Chair having counted and announced that there was no quorum present, a constitutional question is raised. No quorum is present, as was announced by the Chair.

MR. [HENRY B.] STEAGALL [of Alabama]: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

Parliamentarian's Note: A unanimous-consent request is business of the House, which cannot be conducted in the proven absence of a quorum.

§ 18.8 In the House, the absence of a quorum being an- nounced, it is too late to withdraw a point of order that there is no quorum present.

On May 23, 1939,<sup>(5)</sup> Speaker William B. Bankhead, of Alabama, ruled on the timeliness of a withdrawal of a point of no quorum.

MR. [EDWARD E.] COX [of Georgia]: Mr. Speaker, I yield 5 minutes to the gentleman from Virginia [Mr. Woodrum].

MR. [CHARLES R.] CLASON [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point or order there is not a quorum present.

THE SPEAKER: The gentleman from Massachusetts makes the point of order that there is no quorum present. The Chair will count. [After counting.] Two hundred and thirteen Members are present, not a quorum.

Mr. Clason and Mr. [Clifton A.] Woodrum of Virginia rose.

MR. CLASON: Mr. Speaker, I withdraw the point of order in view of the large number that are present.

THE SPEAKER: Under the circumstances, the Chair is not authorized to recognize the gentleman inasmuch as the Chair had already announced no quorum present. A constitutional question is raised.

§ 18.9 In the Committee of the Whole, it is too late to withdraw a point of no quorum after the Chair has counted and announced that a quorum is not present.

On Mar. 24, 1948,<sup>(6)</sup> Chairman Francis H. Case, of South Dakota, responded to an attempt to withdraw a point of no quorum.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will present that question to the Committee. The question is, Shall the gentleman be permitted to proceed with the reading of the letter?

The question was taken, and the Chair announced that the motion was agreed to.

MR. [VITO] MARCANTONIO [of New York]: Mr. Chairman, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair will count. [After counting.] Seventy-seven Members are present, not a quorum.

MR. MARCANTONIO: Mr. Chairman, I withdraw the point of order. I just want to show that courtesy can be extended in this House.

THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair has already announced the count.

The Clerk will call the roll.

Withholding

§ 18.10 A point of no quorum may not be reserved (withheld) after the Chair has announced that a quorum is not present.

bama, ruled on the timeliness of withholding a point of no quorum.

MR. [SAM] RAYBURN [of Texas]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently there is not a quorum present.

MR. RAYBURN: Mr. Speaker, I withhold the point of order for the moment, as I understand there are some Members who wish to extend their remarks. I must announce, however, that for today I shall feel called upon to object to anyone having any time before going into the Committee of the Whole.

THE SPEAKER: The Chair is reluctantly obliged to hold, having announced that there was no quorum present, that the point of order may not be withheld. It raises a constitutional question. The rule will have to be observed.

MR. RAYBURN: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.

§ 18.11 A point of no quorum may not be withheld after the absence of a quorum has been announced by the Chair; and no business is in order until a quorum is established.

On Sept. 7, 1959,<sup>(8)</sup> Speaker Sam Rayburn, of Texas, did not permit a point of no quorum to be withheld.

THE SPEAKER: Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Alabama?

There was no objection. . . .

MR. [CHARLES O.] PORTER [of Oregon]: Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

THE SPEAKER: Evidently a quorum is not present.

MR. [JOHN W.] McCORMACK [of Massachusetts]: Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman withhold his point of order until a consent request can be acted upon?

THE SPEAKER: It is too late to do anything. He held the floor and the Chair declared that a quorum was not present. The only thing that can take place now is a call of the House.

MR. McCORMACK: Mr. Speaker, I move a call of the House.

A call of the House was ordered.
