AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review an initial determination (“ID”) (Order No. 37) issued by the presiding administrative law judge (“ALJ”) granting a joint motion to terminate the above-captioned investigation as to respondent Jet Power International, Ltd. based on a consent order stipulation. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on May 21, 2010, based on a complaint filed by Georgia-Pacific Consumer Products LP (“Georgia-Pacific”) of Atlanta, Georgia. 75 Fed. Reg. 28651 (May 21, 2010). The complaint alleged violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain electronic paper towel dispensing devices and components thereof by reason of infringement of various claims of United States Patent Nos. 6,871,815; 7,017,856; 7,182,289; and 7,387,274. The Commission's notice of investigation named numerous respondents, including Jet Power International, Ltd. ("Jet Power") of Guangdong, China.

On February 17, 2011, Georgia-Pacific and Jet Power filed a joint motion before the ALJ to terminate the investigation with respect to Jet Power on the basis of a consent order stipulation. The consent order stipulation and a proposed consent order were attached to the joint motion. On February 28, 2011, the Commission investigation attorney filed a response supporting the joint motion.

On July 12, 2011, the ALJ issued the subject ID granting the joint motion. The ALJ observed that Commission Rule 210.21(c)(3) (19 C.F.R. § 210.21(c)(3)) sets forth certain requirements for the contents of a consent order stipulation and that the stipulation submitted by the parties complies with these requirements. The ALJ found that termination is in the public interest. No petitions for review were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID and to issue the subject consent order with an appropriate redaction.

The Commission notes that on July 12, 2011, the ALJ also issued Order No. 36 granting complainant's motion for summary determination of violation of section 337 by defaulting respondents and his recommended determination on the issues of remedy and bonding with respect to defaulting respondents. The Commission will address these matters in due course.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. Part 210).

By order of the Commission.
