FOIA READING ROOM CERTIFICATION (JULY 2011)

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) staff established and regularly review the contents of the electronic FOIA Reading Room to ensure it is timely and accurate. This comprehensive electronic FOIA Reading Room is the only FOIA Reading Room the Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA) maintains. The FOIA Reading Room includes documents from FHFA's predecessor agencies, the Federal Housing Finance Board (FHFB) and the Office of Federal Housing Finance Board Enterprise Oversight (OFHEO). To ensure efficient and easy location of specific documents, the documents are organized by the four categories listed in 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(2). A general index is provided for records falling into the category known as "frequently requested records."

We have reviewed our electronic FOIA reading room and have determined that it complies with the legal requirements for FOIA Reading Rooms.
