WHO MUST FILE

GENERAL ELECTION CANDIDATE COMMITTEES

All principal campaign committees of Presidential candidates participating in the 2012 General Election must file a Post-General Election Report.

PRIMARY ELECTION CANDIDATE COMMITTEES, MONTHLY FILERS

Committees that have been filing on a monthly basis during 2012, but whose candidates are not participating in the General Election, have a choice between filing either the Post-General Election Report or a Monthly Report covering November which is due on December 20.

WHO NEED NOT FILE

GENERAL ELECTION CANDIDATE COMMITTEES, QUARTERLY FILERS

Committees not required to file on a monthly schedule during 2012, and whose candidates are not participating in the General Election, need not file the Post-General Election Report. These committees, however, must continue filing on a quarterly basis.

Committees only active in past or future elections do not file the Post-General Election Report. They continue to file according to their regular reporting schedule (monthly or quarterly).
