Section 1. General Information Concerning the Organization

1. Complete Section 1 of the Application.

Section 2. Status as a Nonprofit Organization

1. Nonprofit. The Agency must be organized and operated as a nonprofit entity and have an independent board of directors, board of trustees, or other governing body, the majority of which - (i) are not employed by such Agency and (ii) will not directly or indirectly benefit financially from the outcome of the counseling services provided by such Agency. An Agency may not engage in any conduct or transactions that generate or create the appearance of generating a private benefit for any individual or group. The Agency must provide copies of tax returns for the two years immediately preceding the date of the application. The Agency must also complete and submit the tax information authorization form, Appendix C.
2. Complete Section 2 of the Application.

Section 3. Quality, Experience, and Background in Providing Credit Counseling Services

1. Generally. The Agency must operate in a prudent business manner and shall deal responsibly and effectively with matters relating to the quality, effectiveness, and financial security of the services it provides.
2. Experience. The Agency must have adequate experience and education in credit counseling. To meet this requirement, the Agency or its counselors must have provided credit counseling services for at least the past two calendar years. Alternatively, the Agency may, at the sole discretion of the Bankruptcy Administrator, substitute educational or experiential equivalents as follows: equivalent period of course work leading to a professional certification in a financial, legal or education field; equivalent period of prior employment in the field of consumer credit counseling, banking or accounting.

3. Compliance with Laws and Regulations. The Agency and its officers, directors, or operators, must be in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations of the United States and each state, commonwealth, district, or territory of the United States in which the Agency conducts credit counseling services. Nothing contained in these instructions, the application, or the appendix thereto is intended to preempt any applicable law or regulation governing the conduct or operations of an Agency.
4. Complete Section 3 of the Application.

Section 4. Counseling Services and Reasonableness of Fees

1. Adequate Credit Counseling Services. An agency shall provide, at a minimum, adequate briefings, budget analysis, and credit counseling services to clients which include consideration of all alternatives to resolve a client's credit problems, an analysis of the client's current financial condition, discussion of the factors that caused such financial condition, and how the client can develop a plan to respond to the problems without incurring negative amortization of debt.
2. Providers of Telephonic Services or Internet Services. In addition to meeting all other requirements, an Agency that provides telephonic services or Internet services must demonstrate sufficient experience and proficiency in designing and providing services over the telephone or Internet.
3. Reasonableness of Fees. Fees, contributions, or payments received from clients for counseling services must be reasonable in amount, and the Agency will provide services without regard to a client's ability to pay and will not withhold a certificate of counseling because of an inability to pay.
4. Complete Section 4 of the Application.

Section 5. Qualifications of Counselors

1. Trained Counselors. The Agency must provide trained and experienced counselors.
2. Certification and Experience. A counselor must be deemed to have adequate training and experience to provide credit counseling and budget analysis if the counselor is accredited or certified by a recognized independent organization, such as the National Foundation for Credit Counseling ("NFCC") or the Association of Independent Consumer Credit Counseling Agencies ("AICCCA"), or has successfully completed a course of study acceptable to the Bankruptcy

Administrator and has worked a minimum of six months in a related area, including personal finance, budgeting, or debt management.

3. Complete Section 5 of the Application.

Section 6. Administration of Debt Management Plans and the Safekeeping and Payment of Client Funds (This section applies only to Agencies offering debt management plans.)

1. Financial Security. The Agency must have adequate financial resources to provide continuing support services for debt management plans over the life of any plan, and provide for the safekeeping of client funds.
2. Banking. The Agency must deposit all client funds into a trust account insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) in the amount of $100,000 with respect to each client. The Agency must provide evidence of the trust account by providing the account number and name of the financial institution to the Bankruptcy Administrator.
3. Accounting. The Agency must keep and maintain books, accounts, and records to provide a clear and readily understandable record of all business conducted by the Agency.
4. Bonding. Agencies that offer Debt Management Plans must provide the following:
 - Proof of adequate employee bonding or fidelity insurance. The amount must be the greater of five (5) percent of the applicant's prior year disbursements made from trust accounts based upon the information provided in the last annual audit or $5,000.
5. Complete Section 6 of the Application.

Section 7. Acknowledgments, Agreements, and Declarations

1. Agreement to Disclose Information to Clients. The Agency must provide full disclosure to a client, including funding sources, counselor qualifications, possible impact on credit reports, the cost of services to be paid by the client, and how the cost will be paid.
2. Acknowledgment of Prohibitions, Limitations, and Obligations Regarding Operations. By executing and submitting the Application for Approval as a Nonprofit Budget and Credit Counseling Agency, the Agency acknowledges the prohibitions, limitations, and obligations set forth in Appendix A, Acknowledgments, Agreements, and Declarations in Support of Application for Approval as a Nonprofit budget and Credit Counseling Agency.

3. Complete Section 7 of the Application.

Section 8. Certification and Signature

The Agency's president, chairman, trustee, or other authorized official must declare, by signing the application, that he or she is authorized to complete the application on behalf of the Agency; that he or she has read and knows the contents of the application and all enclosures and attachments submitted; and he or she affirms under penalty of perjury that all of the representations and statements contained in the documents are true and correct to the best of his or her knowledge, information, and belief.
