SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on July 19, 2011, based on a complaint filed by Vizio Inc. of Irvine, California (“Vizio”). 76 Fed. Reg. 42728-29 (July 19, 2011). The complaint alleged violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain digital televisions and components thereof by reason of infringement of certain claims of United States Patent Nos. 5,511,096; 5,621,761; 5,703,887; 5,745,522; and 5,511,082. The notice of investigation named multiple respondents, including Renesas Electronics Corporation of Kanagawa, Japan, Renesas Electronics America, Inc. of Santa Clara, California (collectively, “Renesas”), and On Corp US, Inc. of San Diego, California (“On Corp”).

On June 4, 2012, Vizio and respondent Renesas filed a joint motion under Commission Rule 210.21(a)(2) to terminate the investigation on the basis of a settlement agreement that resolves their litigation. On June 7, 2012, Vizio and respondent On Corp also filed a joint motion under Commission Rule 210.21(a)(2) to terminate the investigation on the basis of a settlement agreement that resolves their litigation. Public and confidential versions of the agreements were attached to the motions. The motions stated that there are no other agreements, written or oral, express or implied, between the parties concerning the subject matter of this investigation. The Commission investigative attorney supported both motions. On June 8, 2012, the ALJ issued Order No. 66 granting the joint motion filed by Vizio and Renesas. On June 19, 2012, the ALJ issued Order No. 68 granting the joint motion filed by Vizio and On Corp. The ALJ found that no extraordinary circumstances exist that would prevent the requested terminations and that both motions fully comply with Commission Rule 210.21. No petitions for review were received.

The Commission has determined not to review the subject IDs.

This action is taken under the authority of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and Part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR Part 210).

By order of the Commission.

Acting Secretary to the Commission
