

Pentagon to Host Feds Feed Families "Cover the Map" Rally on August 15th

For the second year in a row, the Pentagon community will come together in support of a worthy cause.

On August 15, 2012, the Director of Administration and Management, Michael Rhodes, will host the 2012 Feds Feed Families "Cover the Map" Rally in the Pentagon Center Courtyard from 11:30am - 1:30pm.

During this two hour rally, Pentagon personnel will work as one to cover a map of the National Capital Region with non-perishable items brought in on this day.

The Defense Commissary Agency will also support the event by making non-perishable food items available for purchase and donation on-site by authorized card holders.

The event will feature remarks at 12:00pm by Michael Rhodes; Paige Hinkle-Bowles, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Civilian Personnel Policy; and Mark McCaffrey, Chief Operations Officer of the Capital Area Food Bank.

Pentagon personnel will also be treated to a free concert featuring local talent, John Luskey, from 12:30 pm - 1:30 pm.

Finally, before the conclusion of the event, non-perishable food items will be placed on a pre-positioned truck and delivered to the Capital Area Food Bank.

For more information about the "Cover the Map" Rally, please contact the Washington Headquarters Services (WHS) Strategic Communications Office at information@whs.mil or (571) 372-7127.