DETERMINATION GRANTING RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO AMEND THE NOTICE OF INVESTIGATION

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review an initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 18) issued by the presiding administrative law judge ("ALJ") in the above-referenced investigation granting respondent's motion to amend the notice of investigation.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on December 12, 2007, based on a complaint filed by SanDisk Corporation. The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain flash memory controllers, drives, memory cards, media players, and products containing the same by reason of infringement of various claims of five United States patents. The complaint names nearly fifty respondents.

On February 6, 2008, Respondent USBest Technology Inc. (“USBest”) filed a motion to amend the notice of investigation to reflect a corporate name change pursuant to Commission Rule 210.14(b)(1). USBest asserts that Afa Technologies, Inc. merged into USBest and that USBest changed its name to Afa Technologies, Inc.

On February 27, 2008, the ALJ granted USBest’s motion, finding good cause to amend the notice of investigation to reflect the corporate name change. No petitions for review were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the ALJ’s ID.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
