SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review the presiding administrative law judge's ("ALJ") initial determination ("ID") (Order No. 11) granting complainants' motion for summary determination regarding the economic prong of the domestic industry requirement.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on December 31, 2007, based on a complaint filed by INEOS Fluor Holdings Ltd., INEOS Fluor Ltd., and INEOS Fluor Americas L.L.C. (collectively, "INEOS"). The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain R-134a coolant (otherwise known as 1,1,1,2-tetrafluoroethane) by reason of infringement of various claims of United States Patent No. 5,744,658. The complaint named two respondents, Sinochem Modern Environmental and Sinochem Ningbo Ltd.

On June 16, 2008, INEOS filed a motion for summary determination that it satisfies the economic prong of the domestic industry requirement. The Commission investigative attorney submitted a response on June 26, 2008, supporting complainants' motion. Respondents also submitted a response on June 26, 2008, indicating that they do not oppose the motion.

On July 1, 2008, the ALJ issued the above-referenced ID granting complainants' motion for summary determination regarding the economic prong of the domestic industry requirement. No petitions for review were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the ID.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
