Dear Carol:

I want to thank you for today's meeting. For our part we found it very helpful, and very much appreciated your willingness to listen to our views regarding health care reform. The challenges facing you are immense, but for anyone who can handle the complexities of the White House security system, health care reform should be a piece of cake.

I particularly wished to reemphasize our desire to work with you in enacting the President's proposals into law. Certainly, nursing homes can be a valuable component of effective managed care. Our data show immense savings available by a more prudent use of the most appropriate settings for health care, and we stand ready to assist you in any way you think appropriate in selling that concept on Capitol Hill.

We also appreciate your willingness to talk to the First Lady's scheduling people about keynoting our Congressional Conference in June. I think that would be an ideal means of energizing our troops in anticipation of the legislative battles to come.

Again, Carol, our thanks for the generosity of your time. Your gracious attention to our point of view was much appreciated.

Sincerely,

Paul Willging

First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton
White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington D.C. 20500

Dear Ms. Clinton:

On the behalf of the more than 11,000 long term care facilities represented by the American Health Care Association (AHCA), I am writing to extend an invitation to you to be the keynote speaker for AHCA's 20th Annual Congressional Conference. The conference will be held Tuesday, June 15, 1993, here in Washington D.C. Our keynote address is scheduled to begin at 9:15 a.m., and last approximately 30 minutes with a short, "question and answer" period following immediately thereafter.

The purpose of this conference is to educate AHCA's membership on health care reform. Your position as the chair of the interagency task force on health reform provides you with unique insight in health reform. As providers of long term care, AHCA membership looks forward to assisting the Administration in addressing and resolving this important issue.

AHCA sincerely hopes you will be able to accept our invitation. If you need further information, please call Greg Koenig, AHCA's conference coordinator, at 202/898-2836.

Sincerely,

William M. Rogers, Sr.
President
American Health Care Association
