Dear Jackie,

I have received your letter, and we will call Mary Jones to set up an appointment - Thanks so much!

I did see "Blind Spot" - wow, how powerful. My 12 year old daughter in Little Rock and

I talked during each commercial break. She was very taken by the show.

I hope to see you again soon; Thank you for coming to see me.

Sincerely,

Carol A. Rasco

Dear Carol:

The Scott Newman Center contingent very much enjoyed having the chance to meet and chat with you. I hope you had a chance to watch Joanne Woodward's Hallmark Hall of Fame, "Blind Spot", last Sunday. Our office has gotten quite a number of calls since its airing, asking for more information on all the issues surrounding the phenomenon of babies exposed to drugs in utero.

During our discussion, I mentioned the Salvin Special Education Center based in Los Angeles and you asked for some information on this unique program. I have just spoken to ~~Mary Harris~~ at Salvin who tells me that she will be in Washington June 7, 8, and 9, along with Vicky Ferrara, an early childhood educator for whom I have great respect. They would be happy to meet with you, if you have some time, and acquaint you with the work of the Salvin Center. Unfortunately, like so many other necessary organizations, Salvin has suffered cutbacks.

The telephone number for Mary ~~Harris~~ ^{Jones} and the address at ~~_____~~ I think you would enjoy hearing about the work of Salvin directly from these two women.

I hope we can give you an update on the activities of the Scott Newman Center the next time we're in D.C. Again, thank you for meeting with us.

Sincerely,

Jackie McDonald
