

NLWJC - Kagan

DPC - Box 072 - Folder-006

[Materials Relevant to Early Childhood Development from the Federal Emergency Management Agency]

Belonging to:

9/15/97

Elena Kagan

222 OEOB

Domestic Policy

Enclosure

65584

Materials Relevant to Early Childhood Development from the Federal Emergency Management Agency

Relevance: Learning that there are hazards in the world they live in, but they can do something to help prevent them from becoming such terrible disasters.

Earthquake

Yogi, the Be-Prepared Bear, presents Neighbor Helping Neighbor. A Hanna-Barbera comic book on how neighbors can prepare to survive a disaster together with a self-help, community-based earthquake preparedness plan. Prepared in cooperation with the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and the California Governor's Office of Emergency Services.

Earthquake Safety: Activities for Children (FEMA Publication 88a). Developed in cooperation with the National Science Teachers Association.

Family Earthquake Safety Home Hazard Hunt and Drill (FEMA Publication 113). Issued in furtherance of the UN Decade for Natural Disaster Reduction.

Fire

Sesame Street Fire Safety Station (audiocassette included, featuring Tiller and Friends)(FA-165). What children can do to prevent fires and protect themselves. U.S. Fire Administration, FEMA.

Make the Right Call Kit. Workshop materials, public education information, including children's, resource guide and other special information. U.S. Fire Administration, FEMA; National Highway Transportation Safety Administration, U.S. Department of Transportation; and Maternal and Child Health Bureau, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Make the Right Call. Poster on learning to use the 911 life-saving system to call emergency medical services (EMS). U.S. Fire Administration, FEMA, in cooperation with U.S. Department of Transportation.

Make the Right Call Video and public service announcements (PSA's), children's version and adult version. U.S. Fire Administration, FEMA, in cooperation with U.S. Department of Transportation.

Be Cool About Fire Safety Video. The Ad Council Fire Safety project.

ENCLOSURES FILED OVERSIZE ATTACHMENTS

10213

1 box filed 9/30/97

NAMA 7642

What You Can Do to Prevent Fires. Door hanger, English & Spanish, U.S. Fire Administration, FEMA, in cooperation with the American Red Cross for the National Safe Kids Campaign.

Preguntas y Respuestas/Questions and Answers. Questions and answers poster with anagram puzzles. U.S. Fire Administration, FEMA, in cooperation with the American Red Cross.

Hurricane

Jason and Robin's Awesome Hurricane Adventure Video. Jason and Robin are caught up in the eye of a hurricane and learn all about what hurricanes do, how they do it, and what you can do. Federal Emergency Management Agency in cooperation with the American Red Cross.

Jason and Robin's Awesome Hurricane Adventure Comic Book. (FEMA Publication 270). Comic book version of information on video: what hurricanes do, how they do it, and what you can do, in a booklet for children with information for parents and teachers.

All Hazard Preparedness

Adventures of the Disaster Dudes Video (with Children's Disaster Preparedness Presenter's Guide - FEMA 242). Children, in a TV game format, get caught up in a dream that takes them through various natural disasters. Game show format quizzes kids on what to do to be prepared for disasters. Breaks for discussions provided.

Disaster Preparedness Coloring Book (FEMA-243) begins to acquaint young children (K-3) with natural disasters. Federal Emergency Management Agency in cooperation with American Red Cross.

Your Family Disaster Plan (L-191). Brochure often handed out in schools for children to take home to parents, telling how to plan, including the children in the process, and calling for all the family to know what to do in disaster. Federal Emergency Management Agency in cooperation with the American Red Cross.

Your Family Disaster Supplies Kit (L-189). Brochure often handed out in schools for children to take home to parents, listing emergency supplies and quantities needed to get a family through 72 hours after a disaster, if help doesn't arrive earlier. Federal Emergency Management Agency in cooperation with the American Red Cross.

Helping Children Cope with Disaster (L-196). Brochure for parents, teachers and other child care persons on how to help children deal with frightening aspects of disasters and the potential for trauma in impacted children. Federal Emergency Management Agency in cooperation with the American Red Cross.

Making Cities Safer...before disaster strikes. An International Decade for Natural Disaster Reduction (IDNDR) poster, including illustrations drawn to communicate places in a city where mitigation measures should be made to prevent natural disasters. Issued as a part of the 1996 Cities at Risk Campaign to celebrate the International Disaster Reduction Day. Developed by Colombian National System for Disaster Prevention and Response and distributed for the United Nations Disaster Relief Organization. Supported by the United Kingdom Overseas Development Administration.

ACT NOW: Disaster Preparedness and Fire Prevention satellite broadcast of the Emergency Education Network, Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), for International Disaster Reduction Day 1995. First Lady Hilary Clinton introduced the program on the 1995 theme: Women and Children: The Key to Prevention. Kay C. Goss, FEMA Associate Director for Preparedness, Training, and Exercises, concluded the program.

I3C06 * Copy requested by WHORM30

Good, Terry
Mail-45 456-2240

OEOB Room 80

Room 222

1 box

inventory

Laura Emmett

67928

FEMA material