I.

FACTS

1. On March 30, 2004, the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) issued an Order Instituting Administrative and Cease-and-Desist Proceedings, Making Findings, and Imposing Remedial Sanctions and a Cease-and-Desist Order Pursuant to Sections 15(b)(4) and 21C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“March 30 Order”) against Van der Moolen Specialists USA, LLC (“VDMS”). The March 30 Order directed VDMS, among other things, to pay disgorgement in the amount of $34,926,613 and a civil penalty in the amount of $22,748,491. Pursuant to the March 30 Order, VDMS was permitted to pay the amount of the civil penalty and post-judgment interest thereon in installments.

2. The March 30 Order further directs that the civil penalty shall be added to a Fair Fund to be distributed pursuant to a distribution plan drawn up by an administrator to be chosen by the staff of the Commission and the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”). In accordance with the provisions of the March 30 Order, on April 7, 2004, VDMS made payments totaling $45,775,104 to the Commission, comprised of $34,926,613 in disgorgement and $10,848,491 in civil penalty. Further, in accordance with the provisions of the March 30 Order, VDMS has made three installment payments to date: $2,137,390.16 on June 28, 2004; $2,106,592.37 on September 23, 2004; and $2,082,935.62 on December 21, 2004. VDMS is required to make an additional three installment payments pursuant to the March 30 Order.

3. On October 13, 2004, the Commission issued an Order Supplementing Prior Order, Creating a Fair Fund, Appointing Heffler, Radetich & Saitta L.L.P. as Fund Administrator, and Directing the Transfer of Funds (“October 13 Order”). Among other things, the October 13 Order directed Heffler, Radetich & Saitta L.L.P. (“Heffler Radetich”) to, within 120 days of the entry of the October 13 Order, “draw up a Plan, for approval by the Commission, to identify the customers who were injured as a result of VDMS’s trading violations as determined in the March 30 Order by the Commission staff and the NYSE.” Due to the volume of work involved, Heffler Radetich has requested an extension of 180 days to draw up the Plan.

II.

In view of the foregoing, it is ORDERED that:

1. Within 180 days following the expiration of the 120-day period stated in Section II.7 of the October 13 Order, Heffler Radetich shall draw up a Plan, for approval by the Commission, identifying customers who were injured as a result of VDMS’s trading violations as determined in the March 30 Order by the Commission staff and the NYSE.

2. The staff of the Division of Enforcement may extend, for good cause shown, the 180-day extension provided for herein by a period not to exceed 45 days if it determines that Heffler Radetich requires such additional time to identify customers who were injured as a result of VDMS’s trading violations as determined in the March 30 Order.

By the Commission.
