Cheryl Slover and Johnny Slover Have Been Ordered to Cease and Desist from Engaging in any Activity for which Bonding is Required

WASHINGTON, June 14, 2012 – On March 27, 2012, the U.S. Department of Agriculture issued a default decision against Cheryl Slover and Johnny Slover which became final and effective on May 14, 2012.

Cheryl and Johnny Slover were found unfit to engage in business of a livestock dealer or market agency and their application for registration has been denied under the Packers and Stockyards (P&S) Act. Cheryl and Johnny Slover have been ordered to cease and desist from engaging in business in any capacity for which bonding is required without first registering and filing and maintaining an adequate bond.

The P&S Act is a fair trade practice and payment protection law that promotes fair and competitive marketing environments for the livestock, meat, and poultry industries.
